FOOTBALL PRAGTICE

 Has beUun
New Coaches Already

Have Men in Systematic Training.

Regular training for the 1904 football geason was begun on the oval last Thurgday, the first day the men were ordered to report. The new coaches, Dr. C. B. Hutchins and his assistant, Tommy West, were on the field in salts, and commenced systematic prac tice with the men. Every day has witnessed a growing squad of candidates and a large crowd of spectators.
In an interview with the new head coach, he said, "It is hard to tell anything about the situation just now. The success of the team depends on the men, their work and attention, study and enthusiasm. The men will be given all the work they can stand.
"I Think that the college spirit is good here. What we need for the football team is the same quality I saw exhibited by the Syracuse crews on the Hudson last June. I am no oarsman myself, but, as I saw the race, the stroke of the Syracuse crews did not seem as smooth as that of Cornell, but they had the powier. That is what we need for the team.
"There will be absolutely no favoretism shown any of the men who come out for the team. I care nothing whatever for a man's record. It is the work that he does that counts with me.
"Much depends upon the support of the undergraduate body and other allied interests. We need the support of the faculty, the alumni and of the people of the clty. We want a good big squad and plenty of enthusiasm.
"The men are to be thoroughly trained in the rules and are to be taught to play a scientific game. The success of each individual will depend largely on the amount of study and attention each man gives his work. The rules this year allow greater opportunities to the individual player and is, I think, a step in the right direction."
Dr. Hutchins, who is a practicing physician in Chester, Pa, will be not only a competent coach, but also will be able to train the men, for his combined knowledge of athletics and mediche will enable him to see whether the men have all they can stand. While a student at Williams in the early nineties he gained a reputation for himself as a quarterback and for the last two years he has added to this the reputaton of being an efficient coach. During this time he has coached the Dickinson college eleven.
Tominy West, the assistant coach, is algo 2 quarterback, He will bave some. of the men individually and will coach work in the law school and thus will have part of his afternoon to assist the team. He will coach the line men.

Yesterday afternoon the coach put the men through pratice in formations. There were about forty men in the squad.
In an interview. with Head Coach Hutchins, he especially emphasised the necessity of an honor system among the men in training and the student body.
"I want the students," sald the coach, "to be absolutely jealous of the strict training of the team. The students should feel it is their team and not mine. If men break training, don't report them to me, but see to it that such men will not do so again? I want the team on their own honor."
Over a dozen new men were out.yesterday. Some of the famous old men who have worn the Orange were on the side lines yesterday, including Robert Adams, C. J. Jewell, Hank Henderson, and Joe Lane. The men who have thus far reported are Captain Park, Van Duyn, Tucker, Rice, Harwood, Byrn, Stimpson, Belcher, Salisbury, Packard, Farrington, Powell, Wharff, Cummings, Fitzgerald, Van Dusen, Howes, Harrington. Walter, Weston, Eustie, Jones, Moore, Fox, Crawford, Pattuck, Krake. Shaw, Heath, Sweet, Brimmer. Marcy, Parker and Dempster are expected in a few days. Curtis, Burrell and Ruthertord will be on hand at the end of the week.

FIOUR RUSH

LaST

Freshmen, by Superior

Forces, Win the Annual Rush.

The annual flour rush between the underclassmen took place on the campus last evening: The freshmen. who had previously organized, met near Oakwood, and were led by the juniors to a position in front of the library The sophomores met in front of Liberal Arts and took a position north of that building. At precisely 8 o'clock the word was given and the opposing forces clashed. The 1907 men were led by Herbert Robinson and the captain of 1908 was A. W. Blocher. The freshmen, who had a much larger number present, forced the sophomores down University Place at their will:
The rush is a so-called flour rush, though the ammunition used consisted almost entirely of lamp blaek.
After the rush the "upperclassmen formed in front of Liberal Arts and sang the college songs and made the air ring with Syracuse yells.

FRESHMEN STUNTS.

The members of the sophomore class have found occasion to initiate several freshmen into the correct obedience of certain college customs. Yesterday some of the greener ones were made to make speeches, give High School yells, sing songs and similar embarrassing stunts for the amusement of the second year men and other bystanders. Three freshmen who refused to wear the official cap and to remove the same when so ordered, were treated rather harshly by the sophs. One who persisted in disobedience was bound and about to be severely reprimanded, when the Chancellor, who was informed by "Doc John" of the proceedings, appeared on the scene, and requested the sophomores to defer such a courseuntil after the regular opening of college. The sophomores immediately disbanded and allowed the guilty man his freedom.

CREW CELEbration.

A celebration for the victory of the Syracuse crews at Poughkeepsie last June has been agitated to a certain extent among the students during the past few days. The student body was, of course, unable to participate in the celebration by the citizens after the victory; and feel that such an event should not pass by unnoticed.
In an interview with a representative of the Orange both the Chancellor and Dean Smalley requested that any celebration should be postponed until after the medical college opens on October 4. The Dean has received seyeral letters from sudentiat the medical college Fequegtng thit the celebration be heid

MISFIT A HIT

What are Misfits? They are Suits, vercoats, Rain Coats and Trousers made up by the best tailors throughout the United States which are either misfitted or uncalled for. We have agents who buy up these garments from the differentwailors at a very low price. Therefore we are able to sell them at less" than the cost of ma terial. For instance, a suit that has been made up by some swell Fifth Avenue tailor in New York City, cut in the very latest fashion and of the finest fabric, at about $$ 50$. The man who ordered the suit fails to call. Same is on the tailor's hands. He is glad to sell at any price. The suit becomes ours and in turn becomes yours.

NEW LAW COLLEOE
The College of Law will assemble this year in the new building at the corner of Fayette and State streets. The building was purchased by the university last spring, and has been thoroughly remodeled and fitted for class room purposes. This will give much needed facilities for the law students. The rooms in the University block were inadequate for the increasing attendance at the college.

COLLEGE SINO.

The first of the weekly college sings, which proved so successful last year, will take place Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. All students of the university are requested to assemble promptly at $70^{\prime}$ clock on Crouse College hill. Members of the Glee club will be present to lead the singing. A new Syracuse song will be tried for the first time.

The opening exercises of the college year were held yesterday morning in the hall of Crouse College. The large hall and galleries were crowded to their capacity. The freshmen occupied the entiretier of seats on the east side, also filling the adjoining aisle. Throughout the building were a large number of citizens of the city, as well as many alumin who are present the opening week.
The faculty, in cap and gown, occupied the stage. The Chancellor, with the four deans, led the faculty as they entered at $9: 20$ o'elock. The dean of the medical college was not present yesterday. Mr. George A. Russell, instructor in piano, officiated at the organ. Dean McChesney announced the opening hymn, after which the Rev.Dr. Packard, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church of this city, offered prayer. Dean McChesney led the responsive reading of the first $P_{\text {salm }}$.

Chancellor Day then addressed the students. In beginning his remarks the Chancellor said; "We have great reason for gratitude. It is remarkable that so many people can get out from each other's presence and again be returned with scarcely one missing, as is the case at the opening of this college year." He then referred to the death of Bishop Huntington, who was aloyal friend of the university, and was always ready with words of advice, counsel and friendly criticism. The Chancellor also mentioned the loss which the university would feel at the departure of Dr. Packard from the eity.
The speaker then dwelt for a short time upon the duties of the college student, suggesting that the Psalm read should be a text during one's college life. He said, "You should have a pure, transparent character in all your study. There can be no hope, in spite of all the learning you may acquire, without a high, lofty and ideal character. Without this you will absolutely fail, like a tree without roots. You must know yourself as rooted and grounded in things pure, just and holy. Whatever your form of religion, you must have a holy character; otherwise better not be educated. Be true to your religion, faith and conviction. Begin where you left off when you came here, and keep to your old denomination. I care nothing about denomination. The most pitiable and discouraging spectacle on the face of the earth is a young man wihout character. Let the center of your charaeter be reverence for the Almighty."
He then referred to the obligations of the students to the city. "It is one of the fairest of the iand," he said, "and a city that has been wise enough to protect the university. I commend the city to you. It will welcome you if you are ladies and gentlemen. This is the only condition."

Speaking of the social life in the university he said, "We are here for tremendous basiness, yet we are sociaple. There is no extreme bar between the sexes. Yet the chief object is not social life and entertainment, but to make brains. Don't give too much attention to the social life at the beginning of your college year, but grip your studies at the beginning, and apply yourself with tremendous energy. You have a sublime and magnifficent opportunity."
The Chancellor then spoke of the college customs, especially emphasizing the fact that no hazing would be permitted. He said no objection would be made, however, to innocent fun, suggesting that it might be good for the freshmen if carried to a certain extent. "We are one great fraternity, helpful to one another, and not harmful." He lamented the substitution of lampblack for flour in the Monday night rush. In referring to the salt rush he said, "The salt rush is not an institution of the university, and no one is obliged to enter it. This is the last year, however, that we shall have the salt rush in connection with the opening exercises. Hereafter it must be held in the afternoon, and entirely separate from chapel exercises."
Inconcluding his remarks, he referred briefly, but appreciatively, to the athletics of the university. He said, "Athletics are a very wholesome part of the university, and are in a very wholesome state at the present time." He mentioned the great crew victory, and the celebration of the citizens of Syracuse. "I want to express my pro* found appreciation," he said in concluding, "for the men who 0 into athletics, and for the spirit of the students whe inspire them. Every man and woman should show profound interest in our athletics. If you cannot take anactive part; you can stand on the side lines and cheer. Wholesome athletics contribute marvelously toward a liberal education."

Robert Young ' 04 yesterday took the position of sporting editor of the Syracuse Herald. Young is well known on the hill as the active and reliable college reporter for the Herald.

PRESMEE WIN  SALT RUSH  Judges Give Annual  Rush to the First Year Men.

The men of the two underclasses met in combat for the second time yesterday morning, and again the freshmen came off the field the victors. The first year men crowded the eastem part of the hall during the morning exercises while the sophomores were putting the contents of seven barrels of salt into small paper bags while giving class songs and yells. A large crowd of spectators. many of whom came from down town, were anxiously waiting near the scene of the impending confict.
As soon as the exercises in the hall were finished, word was passed to the impatient sophomores without, and they immediately lined up around the southwest stairway with arms laden with bags of salt. Through the forethought of some of the more ingenious ones, the stone stairs were besmeared with grease, that the exit of the freshmen might be made the more difficult. But the new men were not so easily trapped. They came from the building through the eastern door, formed in a solid phalanx, and suddenly rushed upon the sophomores.
For a short time it was difficult to decide who were on the offensive and defensive. The freshmen were strengthened by superior numbers, while the 1907 men were aided by the experience of last year. Several individual scrimmages took place and then the freshmen succeeded in marching in an unbroken line around the building three times.
Previous to the rush Ex-Captain Robert Stone, Claude Kimmel and C. J. Wells were chosen to act as judges. After marching around the building the necessary number of times, each class formed by the college and Captain Stone announced that the judges gave the victory to 1908.
Then Herbert Robinson, rush captain of the sophomores, challenged the freshmen to a series of three football and baseball games, and a track meet, Robert Cooney replied for the freshmon, accepting the challenge. Messrs. Van Valkenburg and Blocher acted as rush captains for 1908.

Irving R. Templeton '04 has also found college journalism a stepping stone to success in the big world outside. After a year's service as editor of the Daily Orange be has assumed the position of editor and manager of the Cattaraugas Times, a prominent weekly newspaper published at Cattargus, N. Y.

NEW BUILING FOR ENGMEERMG

Lyman C. Smith to Erect a Second Building This Fall.

During the remarks of Chancellor Day yesterday morning in Crouse College, he made the announcement that Mr. Lyman Cornelius Smith has decided to erect a second building for an engineering college. Mr. Smith had an interview with the Chancellor on Saturday, and authorized him to make the above announcement at the opening exercises. This news was received with continued applause and cheers by the student body.
Work on the new building will be begun immediately. It will be located southeast of the present College of Applied Science. The small hill in that location will be cut away, so there will be no basement proper, but the entrance will be on the lowest floor. The building will be 200 feet long, 50 feet wide and three stories high. The first floor will be used for hydraulic laboratories and foundry rooms. The second floor will be fitted for metal working, and the necessary apparatus. The third floor will be used for wood working.
The apparatus and foundry rooms in the present building will be removed to the new structure. The old building will then be used for recitation and lecture purposes. The noise and confusion necessarily present with the present equipment will thus be removed. It is expected that the foundation will be completed this fall, and that the building will be ready for use next fall.

The idea of Coach Hutchins concerning training regulations, as expressed in yesterday's issue of the Orange, is one which should appeal to every student. It is really a practical application of the so-called honor system. The sentiment among the student body should be such as to enforce the training rules. The idea of the coach is that the student body, rather than the coach, should feel themselves responsible for the team. If students see men breaking training, they should not tell the coach-for he doesn't care to have them-but they of their own accord should make the men feel that rigid training is absolutely necessary. Such a system has many advantages. It would be almost impossible for the coach to keep watch of fifty or more men, and to see that they keep training hours. Furth $x$ more, if such a thing were possible,Coach Hutchins has no desire to do so. He doesn't want the men on the squad to feel that he is over them with an iron hand, and acting as a sort of detective. He has no time for such work. This does not mean, however, that he does not desire, and insist upon, strict training. Quite the contrary. It is simply a question of the enforcement of the training rules. The coach places absolute confidence in the honor of the men in training, and in the desire of the student body to have a winning team represent Syracuse this year. The coaches have all they can do to coach and teach the men; the students should aid the coaches in every possible way, and endeavor to enforce the rules prescribed by the coaches. Such a spirit of loyalty and honor and such a desire for a winning team should animate every student, so that the wishes of the coaches in this matter will be carried out.

MISFIT A HIT

What are Misfts? They are Suits, Overcoats, Rain Coats and Trousers made up by the best tailors throughout the United States whichare either misfitted or uncalled for. We have agents who buy up these garments from the different tailors at a very low price. Therefore we are able to sell them at less than the cost of ma terial. For instance, a suit that has been made up by some swell Fifth Avcnue tailor in New York City, cut in the very latest fashion and of the finest fabric, at about $$ 50$. The man who ordered the suit fails to call. Same is on the tailor's hands. He is glad to sall at any price. The suit becomes ours and in turn becomes yours.

NEW ENGLISH INSTRUCTOR.
Randolf T. Congdon, a graduate of Syracuse in the class of 1900 , has been appointed to take charge of the English work of the engineers in the freshmen course. The assignment of a special instructor to this branch of the English work is made for the first time this year in accordance with the new plans adopted by the department.
Previously the freshmen from the College of Applied Science and those from the Hall of Languages have been in the same class in the Liberal Arts College. This arrangement has not been entirely satisfactory to the students or faculty, and this fall the English course for engineers will be modified and arranged with a view to giving them the best possible preparation for their professional work.
Mr. Congdon, who will have charge of their instruction, is considered an exceptionally competent English student. He received the degree of bachelor of arts from Syracuse and will study for his master's degree in connection with his English work this year. Since graduation lie has been engaged in tea hing English in the State high schools.

UNIVERSITY HERALD.

The first number of Volume XXXIII of the University Herald made its appearance this morning. The issue is one of the best numbers of the monthly ever published, and reflects much credit upon the new editor and management. A new feature is introduced in this number in the way of several halftone cuts. including one of Chancellor Day, the 'Varsity crew, and Haven Hall. The cover design by Haynesworth Baldrey '05 is also new and very effective. The editor-in-chief contributes an interesting story entitled "The Rook's Move," being an episode of the Franco-Prussian War. This is followed by an interesting article concerning the races at Poughkeepsie, under the title of "What Constitutes a Winning Stroke?' The article is by the stroke of the winning crew, E. N. Packard. An unsigned poem dedicated to A.L. B. is followed by three short but clever sketches. A new department called "The Harvest of the Shears" contains clippings from exchanges. This is followed by the usual page of editorial comment and alumni news. The Mr. Dooley articles, which proved a drawing feature last year, are renewed. Mr. C. F. Phillips has put his usual amount of wit and humor in a discussion of the Poughkeepsie races.

FRRST CHPREL IN  LBEERAL ARTS  Mass Meeting in Behalf of the University Publications.

The first chapel exercises of the col lege year were held yesterday morning in both Liberal Arts and Fine Arts Colleges. After the customary exercises 5 Liberal Arts College, the meeting was turned over to the various university publications. The chapel room was taxed to its capacity, again emphasizing the need of a new chapel.

Chancellor Day was present at the mass meeting, and spoke impartially in behalf of all three publications. He strongly urged the students to subscribe for and support the papors. In the course of the Chancellor's remarks he said: "These periodicals are a very vital and important institution of the university, and all are today in very good form. As far as you are able have all the publications for the purpose of helping this department of the university. Be sure to have at least one periodical and the Daily, or the Daily and one periodical. As far as possible let the whole student body patronize the papers. Don't let some one student take a paper, and then a dozen others read it over his shoulder. It would be a strange comment in the college world if we were without college papers. Then if we are to have these papers, the students must support them, for they receive noaid from the university. It must be a student institution. I like to have everything connected with the university enthusiastically and unanimously supported by the students."

After the remarks of the Chancellor representatives of each of the publications spoke to the students, and the subscription blanks which were previously distributed, were collected. The men formed at their usual place on the second floor after chapel, sang the songs, and gave the yells and cheers. The freshmen then heard for the first time the strains of "Down stairs, Freshies."

Peberiou to FrESHME TONGHI Sophomores Have Made Elaborate Preparations for This Evening.

The annual reception tendered to the entering class by the sophomores will be held this evening in the gymnasium. The committee having the affair in charge have made all arrangements, and a successful reception is assured. The committee has been hard at work for some time, and expect tonight's gathering to surpass ali of this kind heretofore given. The gymnasium will be prettily recorated in orange and green bunting, in honor of the guests of the evening. The University orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion. Ail freshmen of the university are invited to bepresent, and the men are expected, as in former years, to bring ladies from the sophomore class, while the ladies of the entering class will be attended by the second year men.
The committee who have charge of the roception is the executive committee of the class of 1907, and consists of Messrs. Cadmus, chairman; Potter, Stone, Turner, Bacon, Coit, Walrath, and Misses Howarth, Johnson, Carpenter and Faulks. Mr. A. L. Wells is also a member of the committee exofficio.
The committee has arranged the following toast list, with. Mr. Herbert Schafer '06 as toastmaster:
Address of Welcome A. L. Wells '07 Response Howard Gowing '08 Class Spirit Carolyn Abeles '07 Attractions of Syracuse Silas Titus '07 Our Class George Trabern '08 What we should do for our Alma Mater Eiizabeth Opp '07
Professor and Mrs. Losey, Dr, and Mrs. Burchard, Professor and Mrs. Place will serve on the reception committee. The Chancellor and Deans were invited to serve on this committee also, but will be unable to be present, on account of a farewell to ex-Chancellor Sims on the same evening. As was the case last year, the upperclassmen will be excluded from the building.

REOISTRATION.

At this time it is absolutely impossible to make any estimate as to the number of students who will be enrolled this year. The total registration can not be ascertained until after the opening of the Medical College on Oct. 4th. Dr. Wilbur said yesterday that there was a marked increase in all colleges over that at this time last year. An estimate was made Tuesday night, and the registration found to be 20 per cent more than at that time last year.

MEN GO TO TRANNNG TABLE  Eleven Men Taken to the Table--.Ned Glass  on the Fleld.

Eleven men were last night taken to the training table at 113 Waverly Ave. The squad chosen by the coach consists of Capt Park, Tucker, Van,Duyn, Rice, Stimpson, Farrington, Powell, Fitzgerald, Harwood, Belcher and Cummings. Several more men will be added during the next week. Several new men were on the field last night, including Grow Brown, Sloan, Blocher, Haight and Miller. Fred Shade, the famous right halfback of last year's team, is in townand will be on the field this afternoon.
The men were put through strict training yesterday afternoon. The tackling dummy, which has been recently repaired, was used yesterday for the first time. All the men were tried on tackling for a short time. Ned Class, the famous Yale guard, was on the gridiron yesterday for the first time, and coached the line men for some time. Coach Hutchins lined up two teams for scrimmage work, while assistant coach West instructed the men on punting and taking the fall on the run.
The coach has introduced a night school, which met last evening at 7:30 in room $33-34$ of the Hallof Languages. The coach talked to the men on various football tactics, and gave such instruction as he could indoors.

No more welcome or gratifying news has been received by the students, alumni and friends of the university since the victory at Poughkeepsie than that announced by Chancellor Day Tuesday, and it seems that one was quite as unexpected as the other. The announcement that Mr. Lyman Cornelius Smith is to give a second building for engineering purposes to the university proves that this gentleman intends to make good the assertion made by him a few years ago. The statement to which we refer was one to the effect that in a few years Syracuse University would have an engineering college second to none in the country. It seems now that Mr. Smith intends such shall be the case, and that it will be through his effort and generosity.
The gift is a magnificent one. The loyalty and generosity of Mr. Smith has long been known and appreciated by all friends of the university. The gift, coming, as it did, quite unexpectedly to the majority of people, shows that his interest in Syracuse has not abated. It is through the generosity of such men that Syracuse has been placed among the foremost universities of the country, and upon such means depends its future growth and development. The university, faculty, students and alumni, as well as the citizens of Syracuse owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Smith.
NEW CLASSES IN GYMNASIUM. On account of the increased attendance at the university this year, Professor Scott has found it necessary to arrange several new classes in gymnasium work. The classes scheduled for $8: 50 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and $3 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. have never been given before. The next two or three weeks will be occupied in giving the freshmen examination. Professor Scott says that the regular work in the gymnasium cannot be begun within about three weeks. Miss Sibley will have charge of the women again this year.

SOPHOMORES RECEVE ENTERNG GLLASS

In Spite of Upper Classmen, a Successful Reception Is Held.

The annual reception tendered the en tering class by the Sophomores was held in the gymnasium last evening. It was characterized by the usual at tempts, as well as many unusual ones, of the upperclassmen, to make it more or less disagreeable for the underclass men, and that they succeeded to a cer tain extent can not be disputed. After reaching the building, however, a merry crowd enjoyed the festivities of the evening under protection of the police.
Several of the underelassmen went to the gymnasium in the afternoon, and in this way escaped the molestation of the excluded ones. But by the time the banqueters began to arrive, there was a double row of upperclassmen extend ing from thegymnasium to Liberal Arts College. As the men came with their ladies, each couple was separated, some one of the upperclassmen escorting the ladies safely to the gymnasium while the men were allowed to reach their destination with a somewhat imperfect wardrobe. As they reached the door, most of them were collarless, without ties, and with other clothing in quite a different condition than when they left their respective homes. Up to this point, however, the doings were considered a mere form of college fun, and no one seemed offended. Most of the men had apparelconcealed in the building and by the aid of an improvised dressing.room, soon appeared on the floor in their best.
The committtee having the reception in charge had engaged the services of police-sargent Decker and five patrolmen, two of whom guarded the entrance, two the refreshments and one the gallery. It was soon found that the force on hand was none too large. Those outside became impatient and soon made their impatience known. A sudden noise and clash at the windows gave warning of the trouble.
At 9:25 0'cloek the outsiders forced their way through the main entrance, and it required the entire police force present to push them back. In a short time havoc was wrought in the comer of the room where the refreshments were stored. Contrary to the custom of former years, the cream was kept in the southeast corner of the main floor. Suddenly an entrance was forced through an adjoining window and a stream of water turned on the refreshments. After making several other attempts to gain an entrance, but each time without success, those on the outside ceased their boyish rranks and remained quiet for a short time.
The gymnasium room was very prettily decorated with orange and green, the colors of the freshman class, and

The New Home of Sigma Chi.

American flags. At one end of the room were the numerals of the sopho more class and at the other end the numerals of the freshman class, both in the form of an electric sign. The reception committee, consisting of Pro fessor and Mrs. Losey, Dr. and Mrs. Mace, Dr. and Mrs. Burchard, and Professor and Mrs. Place, welcomed the entering class to Syracuse.
In spite of all attempts to break up the reception, it was held as planned. Refreshments were served to all present, while the University orchestra rendered music. At 10:15 o'clock Toastmaster Herbert Schafer '07 called for the following toasts:
Welcome to 1908, Alton L. Wells '07 Response, Howard Gowing '08 Class Spirit, Carolyn M. Abeles '07 Our Class, George Travem '08 What we can do for our Alma Mater, Elizabeth 0pp '07 Alma Mater Song.
During the rendering of the toasts the superfluous energy of those not admitted was again heard. Incessant pounding on the window panes made it, at times, impossible to hear the speeches. The enthusiasm-if such it could be called-of those giving vent to their childish feeling at the windows reached such a degree that at the conclusion of Miss Abeles' toast a stream of water was again turned into the room. In a short time order was restored, and the remainder of the toasts given. After the singing of Alma Mater the gathering dispersed.

The management of the Daily Orange considers last night's affair one of peculiar interest, and will have something to say editorially concerning it in tomorrow's issue.

bleachers being put in shape.

Work was begun yesterday on putting up the bleachers on the north side of the gridiron. They are in about the same position as last year, when they were put up for the first time. The work was nearly completed yesterday and they will be ready for use before the first game.

SIGWA CHI ENTERS SYRaCUSE

Chi Alpha Sigma Becomes Chapter of Na tional Fraternity.

Another national Greek letter fraternity is about to install a chapter at Syracuse. The local chapter of Chi Alpha Sigma has obtained a charter from Sigma Chi. The charter was just recently obtained, and the chapter will be installed in a few weeks. All active members of the local fraternity, as well as its alumni, will be initiated by the national fraternity. It is probable that members from the chapters of Sigmt Chi at Cornell and Hobart will come to Syracuse to administer the initiation. It is not known yet exactly when this will be arranged.
Chi Alpha Si. ma was founded at Syracuse in 1900, and has up to this year occupied a chapter house on Genesee street, near University avenue. This fall the chapter has moved into the handsome large house at the corner of Irving avenue and Adams street. The present chapter consists of twenty one active members as follows: G. H. Merry '05, R. R. Brockett '05, E. D. Cronk '05, Hugh Smith '06. C. M. Steuber '06, L. W. Chandler '06, S. R. Cook '06, W. H. Hall '06, Charles Marshall '06, H. W. Jones '06, H. W. Trippett. '06, D. M. Blue '06, Pedro Ramos '06, C. J. Kenyon '06, E. H Sherwood '07, H. N. Cookingham '07, Robert Simpson, Jr., '07. Earl Elmer '07, A, J. Trussell '07, C. R. Burns '07, J. L. Golly '07.

Sigma Chi was founded at Miam University on June 20,1855 . It is one of the so-called "Miami Triad," Phi Delta Theta and Beta Theta Pi having also been founded there. There are 54 active chapters at the present time, scattered throughout the country, the larger number being in the Weat. The fraternity has a membership of 6,500 . The pin of Sigma Chi is in the form of a St. George cross. The upper arm has two cross keys, and the lower arm has two clasped hands above seven stars. Upon the right arm of the cross is a scroll, and upon the left the head of an eagle. The center of the pin is black enamel with the letters of Sigma Chi upon it in gold. The main colors of the pin are white and gold.

PARK TO SPEAK.

The men of the senior class have arranged for a series of after chapel talks to be given at the foot of the chapel stairs where the various olasses meet for their songs and yells.
The first one is to be held this moming. Captain Park of the football team is to speak. Other men prominent in various departments of college activities are to speak later. Announcements of these "men only". meetings will appear from time to time in the Daily Orange.

ARE on display to-day. Come here and learn what the $\mathrm{A}_{\text {merchant tailor ought to give you this Fall. Other ready }}$ makers will show you these same styles next year. But we'll be a year ahead again by that time. The College Brand Idea is that you chaps in the small twenties and big teens are situated on an island of individuality completely surrounded by a sea of style-knowledge. The swaggerest ready made garments in America. If you've a perfect figure, the clothes will set it off to perfect advantage. If you're not built as you should be, College Brand Clothes will keep folks from knowing it. Big shouldered, tight collared, unbreakable front coats. Extremely loose pants. Smart swagger cloths in patterns that you won't even find in the tailor shop.

Not meant for old men any more than old men's clothes are meant for young men. This is seeing time; it needn't be buying time unless you say so.

In the May number of the American Mathematical Monthly there appears an article on "Triangular Residues" by Mr. Stetson of the mathematical department.

Professor Roe and Dr. Bullard of the Mathematical department spent the summer in an extended tour through Germany, While abroad they were in attendance at the third internationsl congress of mathematicians, which was held at Heidelberg August 8-13. During the trip they visited 34 German cities, 19 of which were university cities. Professor Roe speaks highly of the various professors of mathematics whom they met. He, with Dr. Bullard, attended a large number of lectures and seminars. They were also present at an examination for the doctor's degree in one of the larger universities.

CORTIAND NORMAL HEEE TODAY

First Game of the Season This Afternoon on the Oval.

The Varsity will line up against the team from Cortland Normal School this afternoon for the first game of the season. The game will, of course, be only a practice game, and one in which the coaches will be able to get a line on the men. It is impossible to tell what the men on the squad can do until they have lined up for an actual game with an opposin team. The Cortland men are light and come here with litt'e advantage in the way of experienced coaching.
The varsity was lined up against the scrubs yesterday afternoon, and given light practice. The varsity had the advantage of the scrubs, and secured two touchdowns.
The men were given practice in signal work, in order to play the game today. Ned Glass was on the field again yesterday, and gave the line men some special coaching. In an interview with Coach Hutchins at the close of yesterday's practice, he said, "the team shows the proper spirit, and that they are made of the right stuff. But they are still in the infant class, and the students must not expect too much at the game tomorrow. They are in as good shape as could be expected for the time they have been out. New men are reporting every day now, and it is difficult to develop a star team at the start, They will soon round into shape, however." The team will be very light this year, the average probably being not over 165 pounds.
The game today will be called at 3 $o^{\prime}$ clock. The referee will be Mr. C. J.
Freeman and the umpire Mr. A. L. Fritcher. The other officials have not yet been chosen. General admission will be twenty-five cents. The student athletic tickets are not yet ready, but students will be admitted free of charge upon showing their tuition receipt at the gate.

CREW MEN CAN PLAY.

The Athletic Governing Board met last evening in the University club rooms and took action regarding some important matters. The decision which is of most vital interest at the present time is that the Crew Men are to be allowed to play football this fall. This clears away any doubt as to the availability of the strong crew material on the gridion.
Robertson was ratified as Captain of the track team, and Distin was promoted to Track Manager. The Navy committee was empowered to putshower baths in the boat house.
The second Tuesday of October was set for the time of election of student members to the Governing Board.

PREACHERS' CLUB.

The first regular meeting of the Preachers' Club will occur Tuesday evening, Sept. 27, in the gymnasium building immediately ofter Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting. The Rev. ## CAPTAIN PARK SPEAKS.

Captain Robert Park of the football team gave the first of a series of after chapel talks to the men yesterday morning. He spoke concerning one's duty to his college in relation to foothall. He said: "College spirit is that within a man which responds and causes him to perform any duty for his Alma Mater. There are two things essential to a successful football team, sufficient coaching and a sufficient number of men. We have supreme confidence in our coaches and I need say nothing concerning that point, except to urge you to give them your hearty support.
"But we must have a sufficient number of men. There are now only about thirty-five men out, and if we are to turn out a winning team we must have a larger number. It is your duay to do all you can. If you have any ability we want you on the field; if you have no ability, use your persuasive power to get others out. Our motto is, "What eight men can do on the water, eleven men can do on the land.' '"

AUTHOPTTES ARE SILENT
Have Nothing to Say Concerning the Reception.

A large crowd of students gathered in the chapel yesterday morning in anticipation of hearing Chancellor Day. Through some unknown way the news was scattered around the hill that the Chancellor would be at the chapel and have something to say concerning Thursday night's reception. But the crowd was doomed to disappointment. The Chancellor did not appear at chapel time, nor did the Dean or any one else make any reference to that which was on the mind of every person in the room.
During the day a representative of the Orange saw the Chancellor, and he said he had nothing whatever to say at this time concerning the reception. Dean Smalley was also silent on the matter, merely expressing himself as being very sorry the affar was carried as far as it was. "We realize," said the Dean, "that it was all done in fun, but nevertheless the fun was carried altogether too far."
Several members of the faculty ex pressed great surprise and regret that the reception should have turned out as it did. "I had no idea," said one member of the faculty, 'that the boys would carry their fun so far. A reas onable amount of good, clean fun would not be objected to by anyone, but last night's doings were beyond my comprehension."
Those having charge of clearing up the gymnasium today were unable last night to give an accurate account of the damage done. It was found to be comparatively small, however. No material damage was done to the building itself, except that several windows were broken. Several pieces of furniture were broken, as well as a large number of dishes. Twofire extinguishers were taken from the Liberal Arts college, and damaged slightly. Men were at work all day yesterday incleaning up the building, and have it now in its former condition.

ADVANCED FORENSICS.

In order to accommodate students in English History who desire to take the course in Oral Debate, scheduled as Public Speaking II, the hour has been changed to 12 o'clock on Wednesday and Friday. All desiring the course will meet in the gymnasium at 12 o'clock next Wednesday.

MISFIT A HIT

What are Misfits? They are Suits, Overcoats, Rain Coats and Trousers made up by the best tailors throughout the United States which are either misfitted or uncalled for. We have agents who buy up these garments from the different tailors at a very low price. Therefore we are able to sell them at less than the cost of ma terial. For instance, a suit that has been made up by some swell Fifth Ave nue tailor in New York City, cut in the very latest fashion and of the finest fabric, at about $$ 50$. The man who ordered the suit fails to call. Same is on the tailor's hands: He is glad to sell at any price. The suit becomes ours and in turn becomes yours.
our price list as a guide. Suits made to order for $$ 25$ we sell at $$ 8$ Suits made to order for $$ 30$ we sellat $$ 10$ Suits made to order for $$ 35$ we sellat $$ 12$ Suits made to order for $$ 50$ we sell at $$ 15$
Overcoats and Pants at the same pro ratio. In other words, you can save more than one-half the original price.

We also rent Full-Dress and Tuxedo Suits to the University boys.
All garments sold by us are cleaned, pressed and kept in repair free of charge. Should the lining break, we will replace same gratis.
We do not claim to sell the most clothing in Syracuse, but do claim to sell the best at the least price. It will pay the Freshmen to visit this famous clothing parlor. The Sophomores and Upper Classmen we thank for their past patronage and hope to retain the same.

First Practice Game

 Easy for the Varsity.Saturday afternoon the Cortland Normal team was easily defeated by the Varsity on the oval. This was the first game of the season and scheduled merely as a practice game, in order that the coaches could get a line on the men. About twenty men were tried out at various times during the game. The field was so wet and slippery that it was almost impossible to play first class football. The bad weather kept a large number of peopleaway, but the grandstand was filled with enthusiastic students.
At no time during the game was the Syracuse goal in danger. Cortland played a good game, however, considering that it is a very light team and has been in practice but a short time. Coach Haskins, of Cortland, said that his team had not been coached especially for the Syracuse game but came up here in the midst of their instruction. Saturday's game proved Stimpson to be a star man, and a valuable addition to the varsity this season. Captain Park and Powell also made several substantial plays and runs. The halves were only ten and fifteen minutes, and thus the score was kept comparatively small.
Van Duyn kicked off for Syracuse at 3:25 o'clock. After failure to make gains through the Syracuse line, Cortland kicked to Park, who fell on the ball but failed to make any gain. The ball was steadily carried forward through the work of Dark and Stimpson, the latter making several sensational runs around end. Powell was slightly injured at this point but continued in the game. Parker made a gain of five yards, and then carried the ball over the line for a touchdown. Vanduyn fails to kick a difficult goal. Score, Syracuse 5, Cortland 0.
Cortland then kicked off poorly, Rice falling on the ball. Fitzgerald made a fine run of twenty-five yards, and six minutes after the kickoff, Scimpsoncarried the ball over the goal line. Van Duyn tried for goal but the ball hit the cross bar. Score, Syracuse 10, Cortland 0. Cortland then kicked off to Syracuse, Powell catching the ball and tringing it back 35 yards. Repeated gains by Stimpson and Parker brought the ball to the five yard line. Park was then sent through the line for the third touchdown. Van Duyn failed to kick the goal. Score, Syracuse 15, Cortland 0 .
Cortland again kicked to Powell, who brought the ball back 20 yards. Stimpson made a run of 25 yards around the end, and Van Duyn gained 15 yards. At this point Schade was put in Harwood's place. When time was called, Parker went through the line for 20 yards.
The second half opened with the followin: new men for Syracuse: Dempster at right guard, Cummings at right end, Houseknecht at left end, Waters fullback, and Rice changed to center. Cortland relieved some of her men by putting in McAllister, Crisp, Gale and Crosley. Cortland kicked to Van Duyn, who brought the ball back 15 yards. Park made a gain of 25 yards, and repeated advances brought the ball to the 10 yard line. Park was sent over for another touchdown. Van Duyn kicked goal, making the score, Syracuse 21, Cortland 0 .
Syracuse now kicked off to Cortland, After two unsuccessful attempts to gain Ross made a fine punt for Cortland, but the ball went out of bounds, and was given to Syracuse. After four minutes of play Park carried the ball 25 yards, scoring the fifth touchdown. Van Duyn kicked the goal. Score, Syracuse 27, Cortland 0 .
Jones, Sloan and Van Dusen were now put in the game, and Cortland kicked off to Vnn Dusen. Syracuse was penalized 10 yards for offside play. Park tried for a punt, but failed to get the ball in time for a successful kick. Stimpson, however, fell on the ball. The game was called with the ball on Cortland's 25 yard line.

THE SYRACUSE Flag.

For the protection of our honored college color, "The Orange," we desirg to call the attention of the freshmen to the fact that the only Syracuse flags or banners which are truly representative of Syracuse are the ones with the entire orange field.
Unfortunately there are among the stocks of the city dealers a few flags with a field half orange and half blue. Some of these have already been sold to students ignorant of the fact that Orange is the college color. It is true that we use blue for lettering purposes; but this color has never been either officially or customarily adopted as a coordinate color.
Buy a Syracuse flag and buy it right away; but see to it that it has an all orange field.

PEEEPTION TO THE STUDENTS

Christian Associations Welcome Students\section*{To Syracuse.}

The annual reception tendered to the student body by the Christian Associations of the University was held in the gymnasium building Saturday evening. Every class of the University as well as the faculty was well represented. The purpose of these receptions is not only to welcome the students to Syracuse, but also to afford a means by which they may become the better acquainted. Saturday night's reception proved to be a thoroughly enjoyable occasion, and fully accomplished the purpose for which it was given. Those present were aided in making themselves known to one another by the usual flag souvenirs. The freshmen were given green flags, the sophomores gray ones, while the orange was given to the upperclassmen. The reception committee consisted of Dean and Mrs. Kent, Dr. and Mrs. Mace, Dr. Burchard, Mrs, Beebe, Miss Wood and Mr. Hersey. The University Orchestra rendered music during the evening, Thegymnasium room was very prettily decorated with American flags and Syracuse banners.
The early part of the evening was devoted to an informal reception, after which the University Quartet rendered two pleasing selections. Toastmaster Robert Park then called for the following toasts:

PROFESSOR MACE'S NEW BOOK IN HISTORY.

Professor Mace's new text book, a "School History of the United States," has appeared in its first edition. Dr. Mace has put into practical form the ideas he has preseuted in his book, "Method in History." This history text book is intended especially for use in grammar grades. The events are carefully grouped with an idea to presenting the periods of history in a chronological order as well as in a natural connection. The book has high recommendations from authorities on American History. In appearance the text is neat and concise, with various illustrations based on original sources. In addition there are a number of colored maps which will enable pupils to locate the events of American History. Rand, McNally & Company are the publishers.

THEOFFICIALDAILY NEWSPAPER

 OF SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY.
"What eight men can do on the water, eleven men can do on land." Captain Park, in his talk after chapel, toid the students that this was the motto of the football squad. A higher motto, or one which meant more, could hardly. be thought of. The coach has said that the men have the proper spirit, and are going into the games to win. Captain Park has also said that the coaches have the proper spirit, and that all the squad has supreme confidence in them. These facts show that as far as the coaches and the men on the squad are concerned, the outlook for a successful football season is bright. The men are out every day and part of the night, working hard and diligently under ball men, bear and prove the the supervision of skilled coaches. They are doing their utmost to turn out a winning team for Syracuse.
But there is another essential to a wiuning team, which rests with neither the coaches nor the men in training. This very essential thing is the hearty and loyal support of every" student of the university. The team and coaches need student co-operation; they need encouragement; and they want every student to show a marked interest in the team. There are several ways by which the students can aid the team. In the first place, there should be more men on the squad. There are many students in the university who should be out on the gridiron. We would urge all such students, even at a sacrifice, if necessary, to get into the football squad, and show their loyalty for Syracuse.

The larger number of students, however, are unable to take an active part. But it is possible for all such to materially aid the coaches and team. Urge your friends who are likely football material to put on a suit and try for the team. There is an equal chance for every one. We are assured that absolutely no partiality will be shown. It makes no difference whether or not a man has played on the team before. Therefore, urge all men who have any ability whatever to report to the coach or manager. Another way by which we can all encourage the team is to show an active interest. Come out on the oval during practice; sing the college songs and give the yells; cheer on the men at every opportunity. There is work for us all, and let the stu-motto-"What eight men can do on the water, eleven men can do on land."

MISFIT A HIT

What are Misfits? They are Suits, Overcoats, Rain Coats and Trousers made up by the best tailors throughout the United States which are either misfitted or uncalled for. We have agents who buy up these garments from the different tailors at a very low price. Therefore we are able to sell them at less than the cost of material. For instance, a suit that has been made up by some swell Fifth Avenue tailor in New York City, cut in the very latest fashion and of the finest fabric, at about $$ 50$. The man who ordered the suit fails to call. Same is on the tailor's hands. He is glad to sell at any price. The suit becomes ours and in turn becomes yours.

the college sino and say

That Chancellor Dry's action in resigning the bishopric, together with the brilliant victories of the university crews last'June, have caused Syracuse University to be known and respected by every one, both high and low, throughout the country.
That some new college songs must be written, adopted and learned-not sighed for and prophesied.
That every freshman must wear the symbolic green cap, as the custom is a good one.
That college spirit must be atrength eaed this year, for the college fellowships and the deeds done in the interests of the Alma Mater's advancement are after all what the graduate looks back upon and values most in his college course.
That S. U. should make a splendid record this year in athletic and other lines.
That the completion of a second woman's dormitory only emphasizes the evident need of men's dormitories.
That this year should witness truly loyal support for all S. U. teams whether they win or lose. Support of a winning team does not prove loyalty, but support of a losing team often turns defeat into victory and in any case lessens the sting of defeat.
That "Old Man" Ten Eyck can have anything he wants in Syracuse.

Syracuse Daily Orange

SYRACUSE, N. Y., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1904.

Clippings from the New

 York Newspapers Before and After the Race.Interesting and amasing is the contrast in the statements of the New York papers regarding Syracuse published before and after the Poughkeepsie races. During the course of the next week the Orange will publish a series of clippings from the New York and other newspapers of June 28th and 29th:

The New York Herald.

June 28-0f Syracuse nothing remarkable is noticeable, and if they finish last it will surprise no one.
Two or three old and clever oarsmen, who have been watching the 1904 men at the sweeps as closely as they could finally pinned themselves down to a selection for the 'varsity as follows: Cornell, Wisconsin, Columbia, Georgetown, Pennsylvania and Syracuse.
June 29-Ten Eyck's men swung down the Hudson like machines, steady, strong, resourceful and with hearts of oak. Gloriously they won, for in each case they spurted prettily at the finish, and in each case after crossing the line sat up easily in their boats like so many sturdy statues.
With the great crowd on the shore hushed and overawed by the sudden surprise of the thing, the 'varsity in the last mile of its race swept gracefully on with only a handful to cheer, at last to startle into reluctant tribute the guns of the big yachts, whose decks swarmed with graduates of Columbia, Carnell and Pennsylvania. Quite as surprising, but not so stunning in its effect, was the freshman victory.
Everybody had admired the pluck of the men from up the State, and even the Ithicans were glad that their one time protege on the water had managed to earn one victory. This they could endure with the kindly feeling of an older brother. But the other sweeping victory, it was monstrous, incredible, a thing to be realized bit by bit, when the first sensation of numbness shall have worn off.
In a little while the rowing veterans of Columbia, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Wisconsin and Georgetown undoubtedly will yield up without stint the praise due Ten Eyck and his men, slow in expression today only because of the weird feeling of shock at the results.
No records were broken in any of the races, due largely to the unfavorable conditions of wind and water and a de lay in starting the 'varsity event caused by Wisconsin giving time for a breeze to spring up against the oarsmen. In the two races won by Syracuse the victors finished with plenty of reserve nower and were not extended to the limit of their capabilities.

Both crews were powerful without giving the appearance of unusual brawn, and undoubtedly they could have made better time had their rivals been worthy of it.

THAT CREW EDITION.

There are still a few copies of the famous Crew Edition of the Daily Orange remaining at the Coop. These papers wrre printed the day after the Poughkeepsie races and nearly two thousand of them were sent all over the country, bringing with them the glad news of the great victory.
With each copy purchased at the Coop an excellent half-tone, fit for framing, of the crews at work near training quarters is given, also half-tones of both crews fram photos by Dinturff and a picture of Captain Stone and "Old Man" Ten Eyck.
You can get them for a nickel while they last-at the Co-op.

Staff meeting.

There will be a meeting of the staff of the Daily Orange at the Orange Club House at 804 Croton street on Wednesday evening. All men who were on the board last year will report at 7:30 o'clock. All candtdates for the board will report at 8 o'clock. Important business is to come before this meeting and it is especially necessary that every member and candidate be present.

MISFIT A HIT

What are Misfits? They are Suits, Overcoats, Rain Coats and Trousers made up by the best tailors throughout the United States whichare either misfitted or uncalled for. We have agents who buy up these garments from the different tailors at a very low price. Therefore we are able to sell them at less than the cost of material. For instance, a suit that has been mado up by some swell Fifth Avenue tailor in New York City, cut in the very latest fashion and of the finest fabric, at about $$ 50$. The man who or dered the suit fails to call. Same is on the tailor's hands. He is glad to sell at any price. The suit becomes ours and in turn becomes yours.
our price list as a guide.
Suits made to order for $$ 25$ we sell at $$ 8$ Suits made toorder for $$ 30$ we sell at $$ 10$ Suits made to order for $$ 35$ we sell at $$ 12$ Suits made to order for $$ 50$ we sell at $$ 15$ Overcoats and Pants at the same pro ratio. In other words, you can save more than one-half the original price.
We also rent Full-Dress and Tuxedo Suits to the University boys.
All garments sold by us are cleancd, pressed and kept in repair free of charge. Should the lining break, we will replace same gratis.
We do not claim to sell the most clothing in Syracuse, but do claim to sell the best at the least price. It will pay the Freshmen to visit this famous .clothing parlor. The Sophomores and Upper Classmen we thank for their past patronage and hope to retain the same.

REOISTRATION.

At this time it is impossible to state accurately the total registration, either of the entering class or the university at large. There is an increase in all the colleges, and it is especially large at the Law College. This is doubtless due, to some extent, to the new building. Students are registering every day, even at this late period. A conservative estimate will place the total enrollment of the freshman class at 900 and that of the entire student body at 2450 .

COLLEOE SING.

The regular weekly college sing will be held Wednesday evening on the slope of Crouse College hill. The time is set at 630, as it now becomes dark to early to admit of a later hour. All students are urged to be present promptly on time.

UPPEPCLISSMEN

MUST SETTLE
The Chancellor Makes a Strong Speech to the Students.

One of the finest pieces of oratory ever heard in Liberal Arts chapel came from the lips of Chancellor Day yesterday morning. The previous notice that the Chancellor would speak was widely circulated among the students, and the chapel room was crowded to the doors. The remarks of the Chancellor were concerning the reception last Thursday night, and a subject anticipated by all the students. The chapel has been crowded every morning since the unfortunate affair by students expecting to hear something from the head of the University. Throughout his talk the Chancellor held the students spellbound. It is seldom the students have an opportunity to hear so great an orator as the Chancellor, and during his remarks yesterday morning he was at his best.
In beginning his talk, Chancellor Day referred to the resolutions by the students which had recently appeared. "They attracted much attention," he said, "and received much favorable comment. When I saw them I said 'That is fine.' Aclass of students that will do a thing like that should be a body of students that remembers all those fine things. Things on paper will accomplish nothing if student action is opposed to the things resolved. But people who resolve high things are sometimes the people who do low things. But if there is any class of people in the world who ought to be consistent, college students ought to be. They are studying great things; they appreciate great opportunities; and they have great sensibility of their great responsibility. But these very people who resolved these high things have given the University a very bad name in the past few days. Resolutions made not to be kept mean nothing.
"Perhaps there were only a few people out of the respective classes who were responsible for this thing. I have the names of about twenty of the foremost men who were most active in the recent event. I waited three college days for the classes to declare whether or not that affair represented them. As they passed no resolutions of condemnation, I concluded that they wished to be understood as endorsing that act; otherwise they would have severely condemned it, as it has been by the public press, faculty, trustees and citizens. Unless the classes wished to give it their sanction, they would have had as much moral sense as the press, faculty, trustees or citizens. It is extremaly embarrassing for me to be told by representatives of numerous colleges that they have never known of a similar circumstance. There are forty or fifty of the leading universities of the world represented on our faculty, and not one ever heard of such a thing as happened Thursday night. We have the distinction of being the only college in America where the upper classes descend to anything of that kind. If you enjoy this distinction, I congratulate you. These are the classes represented in the most disgraceful thing that ever disgraced this university. I had looked to the classes to respect my requests. I had no dream that these classes would assemble in mass and thrust themselves upon members of the faculty in such a manner, or that they would obtrude roughly into the presence of ladies, and then when detected run like hoodlums. And then these same students had not sufficient manliness to apologize. Is this in accord with the high resolutions passed?

Y. M. C. A. HANDBOOK.

The students' handbook published annually by the Christian Associations of the university will be ready for distribution this morning. Mr. George J. Becker '06 is the managing editor, and was assisted by Messrs. Belcher '06 Griffith '06, and Misses March 06 and Hart '06. The book is about the same in size and appearance as those published in previous years. It has an excellent cover of red leather, with "'Syracuse" stamped in gold. There are the usual departments of the book, and an ample supply of information concerning the University and college life at Syracuse. A new feature of this year's book is a blank page for keeping a record of cuts. In the back of the book is the space for memoranda and diary. The books will be ready for distribution dally at the Y. M. C. A. office from $11 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. to $1 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. They will be given to the freshmen only, and upon presentation of the treasurer's receipt.

HISTORICAL SEMINAR.

The senior historical seminar met for its first session Monday evening. Thirty-five seniors were present to respond to the roll and make their selections of senior theses.
Dr. Sperry was present and made a typically witty speech in performing the ceremony of turning over his last year's junior seminar to the care of Professor Mace and Dr. Flick. Professor Mace welcomed the new seminar in a few well-chosen words, speaking at considerable length of the value of the seminar in cultivating the spirit of cooperative effort.
Professor Flick then spoke a few words on the nature and purpose of seminar work, after which the subjects for theses were presented. Political and social problems of the United States in the days of its founding and earliest growth were chosen as the subjects for theses this year.

UPPERCLASSMEN.

There will be a meeting of the two upper classes of Liberal Arts and Smith College immediately after chapel this morning.

TRACK MEN OUT

Squires Elected Captain of the Cross Coun.

try Team.

The candidates for the track team reported yesterday afternoon to Captain Robertson. A large number of men were on hand, many of whom bring with them records from various preparatory schools. A cross country team was organized and K. B. Squires 06 chosen captain, with Paul Hoyler ' 05 as alternate. The team will report for practice on the track until after the interclass meet, when cross country runs will be taken. The men who reported yesterday for the cross country team were K. B. Squires, D. C. Squires, W. Y. Boyd, W. J. Boyd, E. H, Hawkins, E. G. Hawkins. Lobdell, Guard, Vorhees, Ranney, Fuller, Church, Bowen, Talmage, Rich, Holdenbaum Bush, Neth, Ernsberger, Grant, Gartner, Hoyler.
Several men also reported for other track events, but many additional candidates are expected out soon. The events and men who reported yesterday are: dashes-White, Cox, Gidley, Stebbins, Guard, Sprague and Fuller. Quarter, half and mile-Church, Squires, Sears, E. H. Hawkins, Grant, Ernsberger, Parsons, Chester, Rother, Gillette, Talmage. Pole vauli-Rice. Jumps-E. G. Hawkins, Gidley, Rother. Hurdles-Pritt. Weights-Benedist. Paddock, Huttenlock, 0 'Meara, Wheeler. The men who reported for cross country will be out for the distances. Captain Robertson stated that the prospects for a winning team looked very encouraging at this time.

OLD MEN OUT.

Burrill, Curtis and Rutherford, crack men of last year's football team, reported yesterday afternoon and will be out for practice today. These men ought to materially strengthen the 'varsity squad. The candidates were given hard practice yesterday afternoon before a large, but apparently unenthusiastic crowd. The men were instructed in tackling on the dummy, and in formation work. They were also given coaching on starting after the ball is kicked off. A short time was also devoted to signal practice. During the last half hour of practice the 'varsity and scrubs lined up for scrimmage work. Assistant Coach West had the scrubs, with the 'varsity under the instruction of Coach Hutchins. The ball was given to the scrubs on the 'varsity's five yard line. The serubs gained a little continually after several downs, when Jones carried the ball around the line for a touchdown. The 'varsity showed superior work, but many of the scrubs proved strong candidates.

A call has been issued for candidates for the Glee and Instrumental clubs of the university. This is something which can necessarily appeal to only a limited number of students, but to every student who has any musical ability it should appeal most intensely. The leaders of the clubs know all the men who have played on it heretofore, and of course they will all be out at the trials Friday afternoon, but it is entirely impossible for them to know those freshmen who are qualified to make the clubs unless they appear at the trials. Men who have sung in the Glee club or played some instrument on the Instrumental club in former years will not need to be urged to come out this year. They understand what it means and are ready to lend their aid in turn ing out successful clubs. But the freshmen, or any others who have not been on the clubs before, should improve their opportunity. For indeed it is an opportunity, if one is able to occupy a place on the musical clubs of Syracuse University. The training one receives is well worth the time spent. But there is also to be considered the various trips which are taken annually, and which prove to be most enjoyable times.
But not alone should one desire to be in the clubs for these reasons, which are, to a certain extent, more or less selfish. But the clubs, being sent, as they are, to many towns and cities throughout this and neighboring states, represent to a marked degree the university. They represent it just as the various athletic teams represent it, each one in its particular field. The clubs are an advertisement of the university. If they are large and successful, they refleet upon the university; if they are small and unsuccessful, they reflect upon the university, perhaps even to a greater degree. Let all, therefore, rally to the support of this enterprise, and make this year as successful in the field' of music as it is bound to be in athletics.

UPPER CLISSES MEET

All Damages Will Be Settled This Week.

A meeting of the men of the lipperclasses of Goth Liberal Arts and Smith College was held yesterday moming in the Hall of Languages immediately after chapel. The purpose of the meeting was to take action toward the payment of damages done last Thursday night. All bills must be settled some lime this week. Mr. W. P. Gere was appointed as a committee to make a list of all upperclassmen in Smith College, and Mr. Clarence Becker was appointed to a similar position for Liberal Arts College. These men will arrange these lists immediately, and the total amount of damages to be met will be divided pro rata among all the mon of the Junior and Senior classes. Every man will be subject to the tax unless excused by the Chancellor or Dean, and the same must be paid to the treasurer of the University on or before Saturday, October 1.
The total amount of damages, as the bills now stand, is about $$ 120$. The three main itens of expense are the damage to the gymnasium with the cost of labor in repairing it, the bill from the Commissioner of Public Safety, and a bill for the loas of a watch, which was undoubtedly taken that night by pickpockets from the city. The damage to the building was about $$ 35$, and the bill from the Commissioner was over $$ 50$. It is thought, however, that this amount can be much reduced. Messrs. E. G. Rice and C. J. Houseknecht were appointed to interview Commissioner of Public Safety Bowen, and endeavor to get the bill cut down as much as possible. The bill for the watch taken that night will be paid under protest, as no member of the upperclasses is considered guilty, and the classes desire it so understood.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

Coach Hutching lightened the football practice somewhat yesterday afternoon. After practice on the tackling dummy the 'Varsity squad were put through various line formations and the rest of the afternoon was devoted to running signals. The scrubs were also given signal practice and sentout for a run. Burrill, Curtiss and Marcy, old 'Varsity players, appeared for the first time in suits and spent time in punting and catching the ball. There was no scrimmage last night, the 'Varsity men being sent out for their run, after the signal practice.

SMITH COLLEOE NEWS.

Show your colors! Buy a Syracuse banner at M. J. Harney's on your way down town, for 25 cents.

UPPERCLASSMEN MUST SETTLE.

"If you were not there, why not? Why were you not there with all the emphasis of your manhood, courage and moral energy to stamp upon auch a thing? Why were you not there? If you were not there, why haven't you assembled your classes and branded the affair with the infamy that belongs to it? There wero ladies present, and thoy should be regarded and protected at all times. The fact that they were in college emphasizes the demand a thousand times more. But that made no difference. Then I am told that rough characters from the city were present, and made much of the trouble. Why? Why were these men present? Because rough usages on the hill bid them come. If our men were always gentiemen, there would be no hoodlums from down town up here. But at such an affair as Thursday night, they belong there; it is their native place; they are among their kinsmen. These mon of the University who make a scene like that are responsible for men like that. College students are responsible for their being here, and that responsibility becomes extremely grave when it touches property of the University. This property has been given by people who have saved money to give for a good cause. Thousands of dollars have come into this campus from men and women who have made sacred gifts. I know of hundreds of cases where poor widows have saved and given their all to this holy cause. I know of poor working men who have given, that you might obtain an education. Were you thinking of these things when you destroyed half a hundreddollara' worth of property the other night?
"Do you know how far these consequences reach? A man who was climb ing on the roof of the gymnasium which is the only building on the cam pus having a shingle roof, in order to cut the electric wires, was hurled back with a hatchet. Possibly we were in the circuit of the city and trolley lines. If so, what of a man severing wires on the top of a ahingle roof building? He thought not of property. What think you of an act of that kind? But suppose we were not in that circuit, and he simply extinguished the lights in the building. With the mad mass of students on the outside, what might have been the consequences of a panic in that room? I haven't words to characterize such persons; I am speaking with comparative mildness. I pant you men, you who are upperclassmen, to think of such an act, which was possible because you sanctioned it, and have never condemned it. Suppose an equal number of any other class of men in christendom had acted in that manner. I want you to see them exactly as they are. In all colleges there is a marked difference between upperclassmen and lowerclassmen, but such an act as this would not be permitted to any lower class. That simply emphasizes the act, and stamps it as an act of greater disgrace.

COMMENTS FPOM

Clippings From the New York Newspapers Before and After the Race.

At intervals for the next few days the Daily Orange will reprint clippings from the various dailies of New York and other cities, commenting on the prospects of Syracuse the day before the Poughkeepsie races and also on the outcome of the contest.

The New York Times.

June 28.-Syracuse is commonly allotted last place. The freshmen are expected to press Ithaca hard.
June 26.--Syracuse deserved to win. Her boat cut through the water without losing an inch of speed over the entire space. The stroke resembled the old style professional stroke, and the victory is a great tribute to Coach J. Ten Eyck's method and to the atroke oar, E. N. Packard, jr. Cornell probably did as well as her crew would allow. It had generally been admitted that the eight was inferior to the winning one of last year, but Cornell's prestige due to winning all three races both last year and in 1902, coupled with the famous Courtney stroke, were powerful factors in keeping the Ithacans in the favorite's position.
No records were broken. Indeed, the time was slower than for three years in two of the races. What might have been done in the 'varsity race had Cornell pushed Syracuse may be inferred from the statement of the Syracuse coxswain, in which he is quoted as saying that his men were prepared for a surprise from Comell in the last part of the race, and were ready for it with reserve power to hit up their speed materially, but they were not pressed in any part of the race.
The effect of the unexpected victory of Syracuse is very marked here in a great increase in all manifestations of interest in racing in general, and in assertions to make next year's regatta a contest surpassing all those of the past. Fireworks, singing crowds and a great din of tooting horns kept the people of Poughkeepaie awake until far into the night.

COLLEOE SINO.

The first college sing of the year was held last evening on Crouse College hill. A amall crowd was present, but all showed a loyal and enthusiastic spirit. The night was all that could be desired, and a larger crowd should have been present. The college and popularsongs were sung, and the various yells given. The next sing will be Wednesday, Oct ober 5 th.

RAIN OR SHINE COATS

IN many respects the Cravenette Raincoat is the most serviceable and sensible coat ever brought out. It keeps out the rain and it prevents the cold from coming in. It is just the coat to wear over an evening dress suit and with it all, it has a nobby, swagger appearance that delights the good dresser.
We buy our cloth direct from the original manufacturers of the cravenette -B. Priestly & Co., Bradford, England. We save our customers $$ 6.00, $ 8.00$ or $$ 10.00$ according to grade on every purchase of a raincoat. This sounds incredible but it is a fact which we will be glad to substantiate to you.

Our prices for raincoats are

$$ 12 . $ 15 . $ 18 . $ 20$.

Our unique advantages-no rentssmall expenses-and effecting a remarkable saving because we manufacture all clothing we sell.

"This University has taken several departures in its natural development. It is now about to take another departure. I have seen it announced in some of the city papers that this reception will not be given next year. The reception given by the sophomores to the freshmen will be given next autumn, and it will be as calm and quiet as a summer night in vacation. If there is any attempt to disturb that quietude, it will mean absence from this college forever for every man identified with any such act. I have tried my best from the beginning of my services as Chancellor to preserve the traditions of college life. But I have urged that moderation should characterize these events: The Dean had the pledge of the underclassmen that Moving-Up Day should be thus conducted, but it was forgotten in a day. It has been the same with the cane rush and the salt rush. You understand that this reception began in a dignified way. Then there was a little chaffing and joking introduced. I have heard that the head was put on a man for the same purpose as on a pin-to keep from going too far. Or that it was for the same purpose that a knob is placed on a Scotch cap-to keep it from ravelling out. But it kept getting disgraceful, and then doubly disgraceful, and now it has been disgraceful beyond mention. So we shall not discontinue the reception, but it will be dignified and orderly.
"I want to suggest that we put in practice our resolutions. We are here by the grace of men of great generosity. Men are assembled here from all over the college world to give instruction. As fast as possible buildings are being added for the use of students. Now, then, is it obligatory upon me, the deans, faculty or trustees to be the guardian of the University and of its good name? And is it possible that you have nothing to think of, and that you are to have no regard of the consequences? I appeal to you as men and women, and not as hoodlums, I appeal to the women, because they have some sort of influence and power in these matters, and can, if they will, exert it most potentially. The faculty, citizens and authorities have a right to expect that you will co-operate in building up the University, especially in manhood. You are here to fit yourselves for a tremendous business in life, and you want to fit yourselves for high ideals.
"Thursday night's disgrace will always stand as such. I wish I might forget it, and those who were identified with it. There was certain damage done; that must be paid. I have received from the Commissioner of Public Safety a bill for damage done to men who came here to help preserve order. That bill must be set:led. The city has given the University $$ 100,000$ and is not indifferent to the conduct of the students. It will insist on payinent."
In closing his remarks the Chancellor announced that the students would be given one week to pay all bills, and that the classes will be held responsible. "There will be order here," said he, "if the enrollment is reduced to onehalf." The total amount of damage done will amount to about $$ 126$, which must be paid by the upperclassmen of Liberal Arts and the College of Applied Science.

Over Fifty Men in Daily Training---Many Star Men.

A large number of men from the four classes are out on the track every day preparing for the annual interclass meet to be held two weeks from tomorrow. The indications now are that the meet will be won by the freshmen, although the juniors firmly assert that they will carry off the first honors in the meet. The seniors should take third place, but may be beaten out by the sophomores. Elections for captains of the respective teams were made Tuesday afternoon and resulted as follows: 1905, P. V. Hoyler; 1906, K. B. Squires; 1907, tie vote for E. H. Gidley and W. White; 1908, H. Gillette.
This year's interclass meet should be one of the best and most exciting in years. The short time for preparatory training will allow no records to be made, but the large squad of men in training will necessitate several heats in each race and should provide some close contests.
In speaking of the team, Captain R bertson said: "I think the incoming class will furnish one, two or in some cases three or even more first class 'Varsity men in each of the thirteen track and field events." Among the new men who came here with reputations and are showing up atrongly are: Sprints-Fisher, Fuller, Rother, Bloomer; ruus-Ollman, Gillette; hurdlesBloomer, Moulthrop, Pratt; jumpsFuller, 0'Meara, Allen; weights-Paddock, $0^{\prime}$ Meara; pole vault-Allen, Rice. Besides these men a large number from the freshman as well as the other classes are in training who never before worked on the track. On the whole interest in track affairs never was so great and the prospects for the 1905 'Varsity team are very promising.

preliminary pedagogical ex-

 AMINATIONS ABOLISHED.The preliminary pedagogical examinations for the professional graduate teacher's certificate have been abolished by the Department of Public Instruction of the state. These examinations, which consisted of elementary subjects only, have been held semi-annually in all colleges of the state. They were the cause of much loss of time to the stadents and were of little practical value. In place of these examinations it is thought that a pedagogical examination in the more advanced science of teaching will be held either by the state or by the professors of the various colleges.

THE ALUMN ASSOCIATION OF SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY.

There are now several alumni organizations which have come into existence with titles indicating their local character, but the above-named association is general. It was organized June 26, 1872, and has held annual meetings since. It is open to all graduates of all the colleges of the University and knows no distinction among those who hold a degree from the institution at any stage of its history.
There is a distinctorganization of the alumni of the College of Medicine. But, though separate college associations are useful for specific purposes and local associations are very important as rallying points, the most useful and important is the general association that embraces all.
In June, 1884, this organization became a corporation under the State law. It then adopted a new constitution, which has been variously modified by amendments. The membership fee is one dollar and the annual dues the same. A board of directors, thirteen in number (no one fears the number thirteen), is elected each year by ballot. From this board the association elects the officers-president, vicepresident, recording secretary and corresponding secretary and treasurer. The executive committee consists of these officers and three other directors chosen by the board from its own membership.
There are three important functions of the association:
(1) The business meeting at which all questions in which the alumni are especially interested are fully and freely debated and general University interests, as athletics, the navy, etc., are discussed and often aided. (2) The banquet, to which the board of trustees, the official visitors and the faculties are always invited. The important features are the social enjoyment and the toasts. (8) The election of six alumni trustees-one each year. This is very important, and no other organization of alumni have authority to elect a trustee.
One might add a fourth function, namely, the publication of an Alumni Record. The first Record was publiseed in 1886, the second in 1899, and a third is now (1904) in press. (Subscriptions, $$ 2.00$ postpaid, gladly received.) The Alumni Association until recently held literary exercises, usually in the evening of Alumni Day. These consisted of an oration and a poem. Since 1897 these exercises have been discontinued. No historian has been appointed since 1873 nor necrologist since 1882.
Through the association, alumni have paid an endowment of $$ 14,000$ toward founding an Alumni Professorship.
Officers for 1904-5-Professor H. A. Peck, Ph. D., '85, president; Mrs. Bertha H. Gllbert, Ph. M., '82, vicepresident; Henry Phillips, A. M., '93, recording secretary and treasurer; Call E. Dorr, A. B., LL.B., '00, recording secretary.

WHCHELL HALL ADOPTS RULES

Three Upper Classes Make Regulations for the Freshmen.

The girls of the three upper classes who room at Winchell Hall have found it wise, as well as necessary to check the boisterous spirits of the freshmen living in that building. Thesophomores, who are the self-appointed guardians of the first year students, have drawn up a set of rules, which they say will be carried out to the letter. The document drawn up by the second year girls is as follows:
It has been resolved by the sophomores of Winchell Hall that it is neeessary to make and enforce the follow. ing rules:

1. Freshmen shall remain quietly in their places until upper classmen and sophomores have passed out of the dining room.
2. Do not monopolize seats in the parlor during prayers.
3. Freshmen shall distribute the hymn books.
4. No noise in the halls after $8 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. 5. Do not throw things out of the windows.
5. Be respectful when spoken to.
6. Freshmen should be silent when the chaperon speaks.
7. Do not dry handkerchiefs on the windows during the day.
8. Open doors for the upper classmen and sophomores and allow them to pass first.
9. See that the parlors are in order after dancing.
10. Do not entertain your callers on the front doorstep.
11. When upper classmen and sophomores have callers, they do not wish to be disturbed.
12. Allow precedence to upper classmen and sophomores in every place.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEETING.

Tomorrow will be played the second football game of the season." There is one disagreable feature which has been attendant upon nearly all athletic events held upon the oval during last year, and which was begun again at the game a week ago. We refer to the large number of boys from the city, who, by some means, gain an entrance to the grounds. It would be folly to attempt to show that this is a disagreeable feature present at every contest. Any one who has tried to enjoy a game on the oval will readily appreciate this. It is a fact. These young boys, who are as much aware of every game on the oval as the students, made themselves very obnoxious at the baseball games last spring. Last Saturday they started off $\mid$ Stor the football season in a similar way. They not only gain a free admission to the grounds, but after once within, they either put themselves in the view of the spectators, or occupy the grandstand and bleachers, often taking the seats from those who have paid admissions.
We realize that it is not an easy matter to correct this evil. But nevertheless it should be corrected in some way. It is entirely impossible for one person to do this. Last week the janitor caught a young man climbing the fence and took him to the gymnasium, where he left him in the care of a person interested in the University, while he himself went to telephone for the police. When the janitor returned, the offender had been released. This evil will never be remedied if such an idea of duty is held either by employes of the University or by students. If the University's employees are not of a sufficient number to afford this needed protection, the city should be called upon for help. Not so much because the youths have committed any grave offense, but simply as a means of protection for those who pay admission, and have a right to expect it. After all, this is the object of law anyway-protection.

SEONO GAME

THIS Afien Moon

Clarkson Here Today ...-Secret Practice Next Week.

Syracuse will meet Clarkson on the oval this afternoon in the second game of the season. While it is considered as merely a practice game ${ }_{7}$ yet their team is always an uncertain quantity. - Several men will be given an opportunity to prove their worth in today's game the result of which will determine to a large extent the regular persomnel of the 'Varsity team. The team will line up at the start as follows: right end, Fitzgerald; right tackle, Brown; right guard, Tucker; center, Belcher; left guard, Van Duyn; left tackle, Harwood; left end, Cumming $\beta$; quarterback, Powell; right halfback, Stimpson; left halfback, Park; full back, Parker. The game will be called at $3 o^{\prime}$ clock.
Yesterday afternoon there was a much larger number of menon the gridiron than the day before. The men were given light practice for two hours. There was a strong wind blowing across the field, which rendered panting quite impossible, Captain Park coached the line men for some time, instructing them in breaking through the line. The men were given practice in interference and running with the ball, several men on the 'Varsity showing marked improvement. A squad of the scrubs were then given instructions on tackling the dummy, after which Coach Hutchins drilled the men in signal practiee, while Assistant Coach West did similar work with the scrubs. Tle 'Varsity and scrubs then lined up for a short scrimmage practice, the 'Varsity easily scoring on the scrubs. After last night's practice the men were weighed and found to be as follows: Belcher 180, Van Duyn 200, Tucker 183, Harwood 174, Brown 161, Cummings 158, Fitzgegald 157, Powell 131, Parl 156, Stimpson 163, Parker 165, Housekiecht 146, Farringtion 148, Van Dusen 137, Marcy 165, Rice 178, Haight 191, D.mpster 181, Bym 161. In an interview with Coach Hutchins after the practice he said, "If we are to turn out a winning team this year, it is absolutely necessary that we have a larger number of scrubs on the field. There are many more men in college who should be out there. We must have a strong squad of scrubs in order that the 'Varsity may receive sufficient practice to put them in proper shape. We want more men and want them at once." Captain Park said that the statement of the Coarh could not be emphasized too strongly. Beginning next Monday there will be secret practice each afternoon.

All who expect to try for baseball in the spring will please report at the gymnasium Monday, October 3 , at 2 p. m.

BASKETBALL.  Captain Powell has issued the call for basketball men, and the first practice will take place in the gymnasium Monday night. The prospects of a winning team are of the brightest. of the old men, all are back except Twombly, who played left forward.  of last year's team; Redline, the star man of the German Y. M. C. A., and by far the fastest man at the St. Louis exposition series; Roe, also a Buffalo man; Stayk of Little Falls, who played against the Pastime team here last wintrr; Fuller of Mt. Vernon; Moore of Cook Acädemy; and Marcy, medic '07, who has the weight and height for a gcod center. With this number of good candidates, the scrub team will compare favorably with last year's 'Varsity and they will be able to give the first team the best kind of practice.Manager Earl G. Rice already has the schedule well under way and is planning to meet upon our own floor some of the fastest college teams of the Eastern States.

olee and mandolin club trials.

The Glee and Mandolin club trials held in Crouse College yesterday afternown before lead.rs of the respective clubs, showed that this year's concerts will be far superior, to those of the past. There were about fifty aspirants for the Glee Club, among whom there were many fine voices, The number at the Mandolin Club trial was not as great as at the Glee Club trial, which was due to the fact that several of the men who were on the club last year were unable to come out at that time. There were some among the competitor who did exceptionally fine work on the Mandolin. This year the management has arranged for a Thanksgiving trip north as far as Gouveneur. A trip at Thanksgiving time is quite an innovation for our clubs. Although the clubs will not have had as much time to practice as usual yet great success is expected in towns along the new route.

SMITH COLLEGE NEWS.

The sophomore engineers of Smith College met Thursday afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing semester: President, G. H. Smith; vice-president, Edward F. Brinkerhoff; treasurer, Arthur A. Wagner; secretary, Ernest H. Hawkins. A committee was appointed to obtain samples for a uniform class shirt. On motion, the following resolution was passed: It has come to the notice of the Class of 1907 of Smith College that the freshmen of said college are not wearing their freshman caps. Since it is one of the traditions of the University, these freshmen are notified to at once wear them. They are further notified that they must not wear their caps while inside the college, but must remain with their heads uncovered.

With the sophomore-freshman reception a thing of the past., with the words of the Chancellor still ringing in their ears, and with the tax imposed upon the upperclassmen. staring them in the face, the members of the senior class: yesterday morning elected officers for the first semester. But all those things which have disturbed the quiet routine of the University during the past few days were forgotten for the time. Every semblance of discord was as far distant from the chapel room as some of those present wers from the reception of a week ago.
Under such conditions the officers for the first semester were chosen. There was no opposition to any name proposed, and it was even found possible to do away with the customary red tape attendant upon such meetings. After a few brief remarks by the retiring president of the class, Charles Hargitt, the following officers were unanimously elected: President, Floyd Fernald; first vice president, Miss Emily Totman; second vice president, Miss Clara McFarland; secretary, Fred W. Hartwell; treasurer, Frank Brundage; historian, Miss Julia E. Hillis; poetess, Miss Lula E. Tupper. Frank Brundage and Arthur E. Moody were re-elected cheermasters. After the election of officers the meeting adjourned to the treasurer's office to transact postponed business.

NEW MEN OUT.

Yesterday afternoon found a still further increased number of track candidates out for training. Owing to the high wind which swept the track and field, serious work in the high jump, hurdles and pole vault was impossible. Swarm '08, a Masten Park (Buffalo) quarter and half miler, Hudson '08 and Park, '08, distance runners; Drake '08 and Schiefer '08, pole vaulters; Davies '06 and Latham '08, sprinters; and Fisher '08, weights; were among the promising men who appeared for the first time yesterday.
The total number on the track squad now is nearly sixty

This afternoon will occur the second football game of the season. Though it may be considered a mere practice game, nevertheless it is an important one. It is important because it gives the men a chance to show what they can do, and how much they have improved after a week's training. The coaches have given the men some hard practice since the game a week ago, and undoubtedly a noticeable improvement will be evident in to-day's game. The coaches will likewise be enabled to tell how much the men have accomplished, and how readily they have grasped. the tactics taught them. What men can do in practice is not necessarily a criterion of what they will do in a game. Today's game, which will be the last of the ser- Store.
ies of practice games, will show what the men are actually capable of.
The game today is important also because it will give the student body an opportunity to show its mettle. The game may be considered a practice game for the students in general as well as for the football men. Let us not allow the men on the squad to reap all the advantage and get all the practice. There is no better time to try the songs and yells and to train the voices for the more extensive yelling which will be required 4 week from today. It will also be a golden opportunity to train the freshmen as to the proper and customary conduct at athletic events. Everybody come to the game this aftemoon; everybody wear the college color; everybody get earnestly into the songs, cheers and yells. Let it be a practice game for every student in the University, and one that will better prepare us for future events on the athletic field.

LAST DAY OF GRACE.

Syracuse Rolls Up Big

 Score Against the "Techs."In the second game of the seasor, Saturday afterncon, Syracuse rolled up one of the largest scores ever recorded on Archbeld feeld. The 'Varsity scored thirteen touchdowns, a safety, and kieked two goals. Ciarkson failed to get the pigskin within Syracuse's danger line at any time during the game. The team from Potsdam was light, averaging about 165 pounds, but showed good judgment in tackling. The Syracuse eleven played good ball through:out the game, and showed marked improvement since the Cortland game. The intcrference was of the best, and the men played with a spirit to win. Yowell played a star game at quarterback, and Curtis showed that he had not forgotten his old time ability Every man was in the game from the time the whistle biew until the game was called. There was a forty mile wind bowing across the field which made gooil kicking very difficult. VanDuyn, who tried for most of the goals has been unable to practice much the past week on account of the inclement weather.

The Line Up.
The line up at the start of the game way as follows:
Syracuse (69)
Clarkson (0)
Fitarerald right end Cooper
Brown right tackle
Stickney
Tucker right guard
Umpire, Charles Frecman. Referee, Louis Fritcher, Linesmen, Collins for Syracuse; Simpson for Clarkson.
Timers, Pratt for Syracuse; Williams for Clarkson.
Time of halves, 20 and 15 minutes.

The Kick Off.

Sprague kicked off for Clarkson at 3:15 against the wind, Park caught the ball and brought it back 10 yards. Cummings carried the ball around the right end fer 20 yards, but Parker held and the ball was put back 10 yards. Park then punted 40 yards to Stacey, who was downed on the spot by Fitz gerald. Sprague was given the ball twice but failed to gain either time. Sayre then punted 16 yards to Parker, but Clarkson got the ball. After successive failures to gain, Sprague again punted, but the ball went out of bounds and to Syracuse. After gains by Stimpson, Yark and Harwood, Brown carried the ball across the line for the first touchdown, after four and one half minutes of play. Van Duyn fails to minutes of play. Van Duyn Cails to kick goal. Score, Syracuse b, Clarkson
0. Sprague kicked off to Park, who came back 45 yards. Cummings fumbled the ball, but Syracuse fell on it. Park then fumbled on a poor pass, and the ball went to Clarkson. Sayre ard Buakirk tried to make the necessay gains for Clarkson but failed, and the ball went to Syracuse. Stimpson made a gain of 25 yards; Cummings came around end for 15; Stimpsen and Parker were put through the line for 8 more, and then Parker was sent through the line for the second tuchdown. Van Duyn fails at goal. Score-Syracues . Clarkson 0 .

Botil Sides Fumble,

Clarkson kicked of poorly, the ball striking Van Duyn, who lost the ball. Clarkson failed to gain, and then Sayre fumbled, Parker falling on the ball, but it was given to Clarkson. Sayre tried to go through the Syracuse line, but failed, and the ball went to Syracuse on downs. Harwood gains six yards, Park makes five more on a trick play Stimpsen gues around end for twelve yards, and Park then went through right tackle for 25 yards and a touchdown. Van Duyn again failed to kick the goal. Score-Syracuse 15, Clarkson 0. Sprague kicked off, but the ball went over Syracuse's goal linc. He kicked again to Parker who failed to hold the ball, but Stimpion got it and brought it back 15 jadds. Stimpson gained 15 more, and Syracuse was penalized 15 yards for holding, the ball being placed 15 yards from Syracuse's goal line. Park punts 25 yards to Sayre who is forced back five yards more. Clarkson fai'ed to gain through the line and then tried a fake punt, but the fullback was downed in his tracks, and the ball went to Syracuse. Successive gains by Stimpson, Cummings and Parker brought the ball to Clarkson's twoyard line, when Parker was sent over for a touchdown. Park kieks a goal ugainst the wind. Score-Syracuse 21, Clarkson 0. Clarkson kicked 20 yards to Van Duyn, and Cammings was then sent between tackle and end for 30 yards. Fitzgerald gains 6 yards, Harwood 10, Stimpson 7, and then Stimpson goes over for a touchdown. Park fails at goal. Score-Syracuse 26. Clarkson 0 . Clarkson kicks off to Belcher 10 yards, when time is called.

The Second Half.

Coach Hutchins sent the same leam onto the field for the second half. Ahles was in Cooper's place for Clarkson. Van Duyn kicked off 25 yards to Sayre, who lost the ball. Fitzgerald gains five yards around end, and Cummings, through fine interference, makes a 25 -yard run around right end. Fitzgerald then carried the ball over the line after 50 seconds of play. The ball was kicked out from the touchdown, but not cau ht. Score-Syracuse 31, Clarkson 0 . Clarkson kicked 30 yard to Parker, who brought the ball back the same distance. Dempster was put in Tucker's place. Parker goes through the line for five yards. Rice relieves Brown, and Harwood carried the ball around the end for 18 yards. Stimpson gained 10 yards, and Parker was sent

RAIN OR SHINE COATS

IN many respects the Gravenette Raincoat is the most serviceable and sensible coat ever brought out. It keeps out the rain and it prevents the cold from coming in. It is just the coat to wear over an evening dress suit and with it all, it has a nobby, swagger appearance that delights the good dresser.

We buy our cloth direct from the original manufacturers of the cravenette -B. Priestly & Co., Bradford, England.
We save our customers $$ 6.00, $ 8.00$ or $$ 10.00$ according to grade on every purchase of a raincoat. This sounds incredible but it is a fact which we will be glad to substantiate to you.

Our prices for raincoats are

Two Lonf. Runs.

Clarkson kicked 35 yards to Powell, who came back 20. Harwood ga ned 10 yards around end, and Stimpson, by splendid interference, carries the ball 65 yards for a touchdown. Park fails to kick the goal. Score-Syracuse 41, Clarkson 0. Clarkson kicked to Houseknecht, when Curtis was sent in to relieve Parker. Park then made a fine punt across Clarkson's line. A Clarkson man touched the ball and it counted as a safety. Score-Syracuse 43 , Clarkson 0. Sprague kicked 25 yards to Powell. Curtis held and Syracuse was penalized 15 yards. Fitzgerald then carried the ball around end by fine interference for 60 yards and a touchdown. Park fails at gial. Score, Syracuse 48, Clarkson D. Clarkson kicked 40 yards to Powell, who came back six chalk marks. Three successive times Curtis was sent through the line for a total gain of 23 yards, and Curlis cartis carried the ball over Clarkson'sline. Park fails at goal. Score, Syracuse 53, Clarkson 0. Sprague kicked 10 yards to Beicher, and Harwood then went around right end for 25 yards. Fitzgerald was then sent around the opposite end for 20 more, and Park carried the ball through center and right guard for 25 yards and a touchdown. Park succeeds at goal. Score, Syracuse 59, Clarkson 0.

Harwood's Long Run.
Butts was now substituted for Park; Lyons for Fitzgerald, and Farrington for Stimpson. Van Duyn was made acting captain. Clarkson kicked to Harwood who brought the ball back 30 yards. Syracuse fumbled, but fell on the ball, Curtis then went through the line for 25 yards. Craig was put in Stickley's place and Stickley relieved Sayre. Harwood then went through the line for a louchdown. Van Duyn fails at goal. Score-Syracuse 64, Clarkson 0. Walters was put in Curtis' place. Clarkson punted 25 yards to Harwood, but Van Duyn got the ball. Harwood then made a fine run between tackle and end for 75 yards and the final touchdown. Van Duyn failed at goa'. Scorc-Syracuse 69, Clarkson 0 . After a few minutes of play, time was called with the ball on Clarkson's 20 yard line.

SECREE PRACTICE ALL THS WEEK

Visitors are not to be Allowed Inside the Gates.Secret practice began yesterday afternoon on the oval, and will continue until the game with Colgate next Saturday. Several students were inside the gates yesterday, but this will not be permitted during the remainder of the week. The coach desires to give the squads absolutely secret practice on signal work, and other tactics which should not be made public.

Yesterlay afternoon Burrell was on the 'Varsity line up for the first time, and was tried out at quarterback. He played the game with his usual snap and aggressiveness, and will doubtless be seen in the regular line up of the 'Varsity for the remainder of the games. A new man, Markland '08, appeared in a suit yesterday for the first time. Joe Lane, the crack end on the Orange for several seasons, was on the gridiron yesterday aiding the coaches.

Capt. BURRELL MEETS BASEball Candidates.
Captain Burrell met the candidates for baseball at 2 o'clock yesterday. About 25 men reported to try for the various positions.
Pitchers-Overton, 0'Meara, Franciseo, Benson, Watkeys, Freeman, Lee, Catchers-Anderson, Lawless, Dexter.
Infield-A. L. Rice, Hopkins, Nichols, Nannett, McBain, Stark, Hinman.
Outfield-Spafford, Huntington, Morrissey, Russell, Shepard, Patterson, Wilson, Smith.
It is hoped that other good men will join the squad later. First-class pitchers are needed, for Hannon is the only one of the old pitchers back. Besides Hannon the team will be strengthened by Curtis, Burrell, Rutherford and Wil bur of last year's team.
The men will meet at 2 o'clock each day for practice, and no man who is not out regularly will be allowed to stay in the games. As soon as arrangements can be made there will be a series of three interclass games between sophomores and freshmen.
TRACK MEN IN CHARGE OF LOWE
Owing to the fact that the authorities have not as yet engaged the head coach and trainer for the 1905 'Varsity track team, training for the interclass track meet is more or less unsystematic. For the past week, Rev, R. Alfred Waite has had general supervision of the men. From now on William C. Lowe '03, present intercollegiate champion in the high jump, will oversee the training of the men. This graduate coaching is as much needed and as much appreciated in track work as in - football practice.

CHOOUS REHERRSALS TO BEGIN AT ONEE

Prof. Phillips will Wield the Baton Again This Year.

Commencing with this evening the chorus class will meet every Tuesday evening at $70^{\prime}$ clock sharp and every Wednesday morning at 10 in Crouse College. The rehearsals will be brief but each one will be of great importance. Professor Phillips will expect all students interested to appear at one rehearsal a week at least and at both whenever possible. The Tuesday evening rehearsal is intended particularly for students from Liberal Arts and Applied Science who have classes at 10 o'clock Wednesdays.
It is hoped that a large representa tion from each of the colleges will take part. Every student in the University with proper qualifications is cordially invited to join. This will be a rare opportunity to study some of the standard chorus productions, particularly so under Professor Phillips' instruction.
At the first evening concert to be given sometime in December two short numbers will be rendered. They will be "In Constant Order" for quartet and chorus by Van Weber and a newly published sacred cantata by C. Whitney Coombs which has never yet been given in public. For the second concert to be given some time next spring some one standard oratorio will be preparsd.

Published every morning by the students of Symcase University at the Orange Print Shop, 80 Croton Street.

A thing happened at Saturday's football game which should never be permitted to happen at any athletic contest at Syracuse University. At one time during the game when a man from the opposing team was slightly injured and laid out for a few minutes, there came a cheer from the grandstand. It was not from the entire student body, to be sure, but it was of sufficient volume to be plainly audible to the players and to those on the bleachers. It was, to say the least, an unsportsmanlike thing to do. It may be an injustice to lay the charge to some freshmen, but surely no one who has been at Syrazuse a year or more would show such disrespect to any team-and much less to opponents who were far inferior to our own team. If freshmen were the guilty parsons, it would be well for them to remember that such an act is a thing not tolerated at Syracuse. It may have been practiced in preparatory sehools, but it must be laid aside and forgotten after reaching college.
Another thing happaned at the same game which was as unloyal as the other was disrespectful. We refer to the sense of disapproval which plainly made itself known at certain times when some men of our own team would not do as well as might be desired. If a man fails to kick a goal, he should not be made a mark of disapprobation. Perhaps there is a good reason why he could not succeed, as there was at the last game. But whether there was or not, audible signs of disgust from the grandstand or bleachers should never occur: Such things will never encourage a team, and they will work far from encouraging the particular individual at whom they are directed. Let us cheer on our team, whether in defeat or victory. If they are victorious, let us show our appreciation for their success, and cheer them for their work; if they are defeated, let us encourage them in every way, and cheer them the more for their loyalty to Syracuse.

BASKETBALL MEN MEET.
The candidates for basketball met last night at $80^{\prime}$ clock in the gymnasium. Judging from the men who were in attendance a good team ought to be evolved from their number before many days.
Coach Scott expects to keep, at the outside, about 15 men at hard work. The proper spirit. he thought, was to be found in those athletes who put in extra time training, when away from the gymnasium.
After the men registered, they adjourned to the gymnasium where lively practice was indulged in.
Forwards-Evans, Kirchgasser, Kinne, Stevens, Lee, Redlein, Fuller, Parry, Stark.
Guards-Van Housen, A. J. Brady, Keeney, Woodhull, Holley, Ryel, Dollard, Cannon, Gidley, Sargent, Dexter, Pearce, Hausen, J. O. Coit, Thayer.
Guard and center-Riehl, Cheney.
LARGE NUMBER OF WEIGHT MEN.
This fall an unusually large number of weight men are in training for the interclass meet. R. M. Benedict '05ex, who was a former strong 'Varsity man in the shot put, has returned to college and has charge of the men. Howard Potter '06, who has been practicing with the shot this summer, joined the squad last night. Several of the football men are good weight men and will join the track team in the spring.

JUNIORS ELECT OFFICERS.
A meeting of the class of 1906 was held yesterday in room 56, at which time the following officers were elected: President, Ross Anderson; vice president, Laura E. Mott; secretary, Mabel Bell; treasurer, W. G. Wilcox; chairman of the executive committee, G. W. Partridge; historian. Clara Carson; cheermasters, Wm. E. Barron, E. M. Jones.

PRIZES FOR TRACK MEN.

The purchasing committee of the Athletic Governing Board has procured the various prizes for the men who compete in the interclass meet this fall. The prizes for all events are as follows; firsts, a high grade sleeve jersey; seconds, a high grade sleeveless jersey; thirds, a white running jersey. These prizes will all be measured to fit. No men will be eligible to compete who do not come out and train regularly.

CONDITIONS IN MATHEMATICS,
All who have conditions in entrance Mathematics 12 (b) will find it to their advantage to join the class which is now being formed for the removal of such conditions. This class will meet for the first time Wednesday, Oct. 5 , at $30^{\prime}$ clock in room 53, Hall of Languages. The fee for the course will be $\$ 2.00$. Floyd M. Fernald '05.

USHOP NEEIET SPEAKS W Chande

Gives Much Good Advice to the Students.

Those who attended the chapel exercises in Liberal Arts College yesterday morning had the privilege and pleasure of hearing the Rev. Thomas B. Neeley, a bishop of the Methodist Church. Bishop Neeley last night returned from Auburn, where he presided over the anmual Central New York Conference. He is one of the leaders in Methodism, and a personal friend of Chancellor Day. During the next conference year Bishop Neeley's residence and work will be in South America. Chancellor Day, in introducing the Bishop, said: "It is a great pleasure to me, as well as an honor to the University, to have with us one of the foremost leaders in the Methodist Episcopal Church."
Bishop Neeley spoke very pleasantly both of the University and the city. In the course of his remarks he said: "I am not here to make a speech, but to see the University. I think that every one ought to pass through Syracuse University. Whether or not I shall receive a degree at the exit, I am not sure. A few days ago I had the pleasure of introducing Chancellor Day as my colleague of about 45 hours. He had been elezted bishop, but decided after that brief period of service that his duty was in Syracuse University rather than in the bishopric. As I look around your University and see the campus of 34 acres, and the great buildings on the campus; when I think that in ten years your income has increased from $$ 19,000$ to $$ 112,000$ per year; that the student body has grown from 045 to about 2,500; and that you have a faculty of nearly 200 members, then I sort of understand why he preferred to be Chancellor rather than Bishop. The church lost a great bishop, but the cause of education retained a great chancellor. As I have considered the greatness of the University I have said 'How could it be anything else but a big university when it has a big Chancellor.'
"I am here to meet you and to say a word of good cheer. I don't know as it is necessary this beautiful morning, but darker days will come. Yet there is more sunshine than darkness in fife. I know some students have dark days and are discouraged. Never give way to discouragement. Hold on and go on; that is the motto for success. A university can do very great good for the students. It is an opportunity; it is a chance; but the students must cooperate with the University. It is an opportunity to obtain mental development and character development. If the moral development is lacking you will have an educated individual who is dangerous in the world; but if you have this, there will be a harmonious and blessed result. Here is a chance to develop manliness and womanhood. I know of no better gymnasium for this development than where students come together from day to day, "Here is a chance for the students to do honest work. The foundation of character is laid in the home and in the school. Here is a chance to do thorough work, and to cultivate a concentration of thought and study. Every student has a mission for every other student. By doing right things yourselves you will stimulate other students to do right things. You should commend the good things that other students do; it is a good thing for students to cheer one another. Be thorough in your studies, enthusiastic in all your college activities, honest, and above all, be determined. Thoroughness, honesty and enthusiasm, backed by a deep-rooted determination are the qualities which make for the highest success in college and in the great world outside."

TO PUBLISH FOOTBALL SOUVENIR
Several students of the University, the principal of whom is Paul V. Hoyler ' 05 , have compiled an interesting souvenir football program. Many other universities issue a similar souvenir each scason, but this is the first year such a thing has been tried at Syracuse. The booklet will be very aitractive in appearance, and a handsome souvenir of the 1904 football season.
The program will be oval in shape, being a design of a football. The cover was drawn by J. W. Foster ' 05 , and is of a solid orange background upon which are the words "Syracuse University, Season of 1904," in blue letters. The booklet will contain, exclusive of the covers, twelve pages, ten of which will be of cuts. There are twenty-three cuts in all, seventeen of which are of the various 'Varsity football men and substitutes; one of each of the coaches; a large cut of Captain Park; one of the entire football squad, and one each of the manager and assistant manager. Besides these pages of cuts there will be two pages of reading matter, containing a schedule of the games this season, statistics of the football men with an account of their athletic record both at Syracuse and before coming here, and the probable line up at the games. The program will be ready for sale next Saturday at the football game or at the Co-op. The price will be ten cents per copy.

dEmOCRATIC CLUB.

A large number of Democratic students met last night in Liberal Arts building and organized a Democratic Club, elocting officers as follows: Presidents, W. Y. Boyd; John Hill, Applied Science; vice presidents, C. G. Adams, Medical, J. M Seymour, Law; secretary, David Tucker; chairman executive committee, Paul V. Hoyler.

Meligal College OPENED YESTERAA

A Large Entering Class---Several Changes in the Faculty.

Yesterday was opening day at the Medical College. The halls and corridors were crowded with freshmen seeking their classes and upperclassmen greeting one another after the long vacation.
With an entering class which, when the stragglers have come in, will exceed fifty, and nearly all the old men back, the Medical College is entering upon what promises to be a prosperous year.
That the advantages of the college are becomin 2 more appreciated is evidenced in the increased enrollment of hill students in the combination course, ten being already entered.
Several faculty changes have been made. The new instructors are: I. H. Levy, Ph. B., M. D., lecturer on Physical Diagnosis; W. D. Alsever, B. S., M. D., instructor in Medicine; Henry L. Elsner, M. D., professor of Medicine; F. A. Hulst, A. M., M. D., instructor in Pathology, succeeding Dr. Tilley. Dr. Mercer will give a series of six lectures to the third year men upon the subject, "Roetgen Rays."

NO NOMINATIONS MADE AS YET

As yet no nominations for the two places on the Athletic Governing Board have been received. Nominations should be submitted at once to the director of the gymnasium, Prof. J. A. R. Scott, each written and signed by two men as witnesses. These nominations are to close Thursday of this week at $6 \mathrm{p}, \mathrm{m}$. and the election as per action of the Athletic Governing Board, is to take place in all colleges October 11.
Owing to the limited time between now and Oct. 11, the students should realize the importance of promptness in this matter. For these positions the best men are desired.

Published cvery morning by the students of SyraCroton Street.

It is quite noticeable that as the days go by the number of green caps seen on the campus gradually diminishes. Whether the freshmen consider that they have appeared in this characteristic headgear the required length of time, or whether they feel that they have become suficiently sophisticated to lay aside the regulation cap, is hard to tell. Perhaps some other reason may have convinced them that the wearing of the green is necessary only during the first week or two of college. Whatever the motive may be, we venture to say that it is not well founded. At the outset, let us say to the freshmen that it is no disgrace to appear beneath a green cap bearing the honored orange above the darker color. If you have much class spirit you would consider it quite the contrary. Furthermore, it is no disgrace to be a freshman, and to let people know you are such. No one receives a degree from this University who was not once a freshman. It is an experienceand a pleasant one, too-through which we must all pass. Therefore, do not put aside your caps for fear people will know your class. You should wear the class cap not only that others may know you, but that you may know yourselves. There is no easier way by which you can become acquainted with your fellow classmates than to always appear with the official cap. is not absolutely compulsorythough we are not sure but that it should be--that the freshmen always wear the cap on the campus, but every nember of the entering class should have enough honor for his class and respect for college customs to wear this cap at all times.

COLLEGE SinO TONiOht. The regular college sing will be held this evening on Crouse College hill. Tho hour is set for 6:30 o'clock on account of the early darkness. The sing of a week ago proved very successful, but it is expected that a much larger number will be present this evening. Members of the Glee Club will be present to lead the singing; and the Senior cheermasters will be on hand to lead the yeling. This will be the last sing before the Colgate game, and it is expected that a large crowd of enthusiastic students will be present to make the game next Saturday an assured victory. Remember the time, $6: 30$ sharp.

PRACTICE BEHND CILSED CATES

Men are Hard at Work

For the Colgate Game.

The football squad is now hard at work inside closed gates. A strictly sueret practice is maintained while the coaches are working their menintocondition for the game on Saturday. The scrubs were lined up against the 'Varsity last night but were easily outplayed in nearly every scrimmage. The men are working into good form and without a doubt will put up a good game. Curtis, one of the fastest men in the back field, wrenched his ankle in the last scrimmage last night and had to be assisted from the field. It is thought that he will be able to carry the pigskin again by Saturday.
The number on the training table has recently been increased to nincteen. Vyon, Burrell and Colter have recently been added.
The last call for men has brought out ten more sturdy students who promise to strengthen the team materially. Amongthose who have recently appeared in suits are some of the men who did good work last season.
In answer to calls for candidates for the sophomore and freshman teams a number of underclassmen have appeared during the last few days. The game this year between the underclasses will doubtless be as fiercely contested is were last year's games.

CHESS CLUB.

A meeting of the Chess Club was held in the gymnasium Tuesday evening. Foutcen men reported and it is earnestly desired to have triple that number ly the next meeting. The prospects for a strong organization this year are very bright. A fall tournsment will be held in view of the Hamilton and down town matches played anmually. A set of two games is to be phayd each week. The drawings for the first week's play are:

1. Stephenson-0'Donnell.
2. Ranney-Blackmer, H.
3. Templar-Gordon.
4. Bryant-Blackmer, J.
5. Mowers-Sellenbeck,
6. Taylor-Relley.
7. Elmer-Lobdell.

FRESHMAN MEDICS ELECT OFFICERS.

The members of the freshman class of the Medical College held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers for this semester:
President, W. P , Gardiner; Vice President, Frank Brundage; Secretary, J. L. Golly; Treasurer, A. S. Brockway; Chairman of the Executive Committee, Harry Myron.

Show your colors! Buy a Syracuse banner at M. J. Harney's on your way down town, for 25 cents.

REPUBLICAN STUDENTS TO ATA TEND MASS MEETING.

The University Republican Club has perfected plans which are expected to lead to a large attendance at the Republican mass meeting at the Alhambra tonight. A student procession, led by a drum corps, will form in front of the Hall of Languages at $7 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Torches and flars will be furnished to all students who are present to take part in the procession. The meeting at the Alhambra will be addressed by Hon. Charles Emory Smith, former Post-master-General of the United States, and Hon. John Barrett, Minister to Panama. Hon. M. E. Driscoll will preside at this meeting.

MAJORITY ENTER SYRACUSE.

In the September number of the Syracuse High School Recorder appears a list of the graduates in the sccond class of 1904, indicating the college each graduate has entered and his prospective course. It is interesting to note that out of a class of 74, about 60 are in attendance at Syracuse University, whereas 10 years ago the majority entered other colloges and not more than 16 or 18 per cent. entered the local University.

mass meetina postroned.

The mass meeting announced for tonight in the interest of debating at the University has been postponed on account of numerous other meetings previously scheduled. There will be a large mass meeting next Tuesday evening, full particulars of which will be announced later. Remember the date and plan to attend.

TENNIS TRIALS.

The result of the tennis trials as played to date are as follows: Stoddard beat Wickoff 6-3, 6-4; Hargitt beat Coit 6-0, 6.0; Hanners beat Gregory 6-2, 6-1. All the trials arranged for the first round must be played off by Friday night.
In a closely contested match played yesterday afternoon Tressler defeated Trcible 6-3, 4-6, 11-9.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI.

Rev. G. H. Draper '80 has returned on a year's furlough from the missionary field in Japan, Rev. Mr. Draper went to Japan almost directly after graduating from Syracuse. He predicts success for the Japanese in their present conflict.
Earl G. Burch '94 is now president of the State School of Science at Wahpeton, North Dakota.
Dr. J. R. Street lectured Tuesday afternoon before the New York State Assembly of Mothers, which convened at Sandy Hill October 4-6, His subject was "Adolescence." At the close of the lecture, Dr. Street conducted a round table.

Professor Hopkins of the Geology Department announces that he has several cases of specimens from California which will be unpacked in a few days and placed on exhibition for the students.

The president of the Athletic Association has issued a notice calling for nominations for two sit members from the Junior Class to the Athletic Governing Board.
The election will take place October 11 , and the nominations will close at 6 o'clock to-night. Up to yesterday morning no nomina tions had been received. This sounds like an experience which we had last year in securing nominations for various elections. Are those times to be renewed? Are there nomen in the Junior Class who are capable of holding a position on the Athletic Governing Board? These two student members who are to be elected next Tuesday represent the student body of this University in conducting our athletics. The entire student body, therefore, should show a marked interest not only in the election, but particularly in the nominations. As these two men represent the student body, only representative men should be nominated. But such men should be decided upon and nominated at once. Last year elections had to be postponed at various times, simply because no suitable nominations were made. This should not be repeated this year. Today is the last day to act; let the students consider the matter and act quickly.

MR. JONES OFF FOR NEW ORLEANS Monday evening about forty students and nearly a dozen professors met at the New York Central station to bid good-bye to O. E. Jones, who has been instructor in civil engineering in Smith College for the past year. During the short time Mr. Jones has been connected with the University he has made a host of friends who wish him great success. Mr. Jones' new position is as head of the department of civil engineering in Tulane University, New Orleans.
Mr. Jones was called upon to make a speech from the car platform, after which the engineers sang "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," while the train pulled out.
Mr. Jones' successor is H. B. Kirkpatrick, a graduate of Illinois Univer-

MASS MEETNG

TOOORROW MORNMG

Prominent Alumni are to Speak in the Interest of Football.

A rousing mass mecting in the interest of football is planned for tomorrow morning. It will be held in the chapel of Liberal Arts College immediately after chapel. The meeting will be devot d especialy to football and more particularly to the Colgate game Saturday afternoon. The students at Colgate have been holding several mass meetings during the past week in order to encourage their team for the contest tomorrow on the local gridiron. It is hoped to make this gathering of students one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held. It is expected that the men from the Law and Medical Colleges will be present in a body. The game tomorrow is being anticipated with much interest by every student at bth Syracuse and Colgate, as well as the friends and alumni of each university. The mass meeting tomorrow morning will be characterized by more enthusiasm and spirit than has been seen on the hill for some time. All students have looked forward to the Colgate game with more than ordinary interest, and everyone will be present tomorrow at the mass meeting to make final preparations for the game in the afternoon.

The Speakers.
Emest H. Sumuer '05, president of the Athletic Association, has the matter in charge and is hard at work periccing the plans. He already has a large number of prominent speakers engaged, and several others will undoubtedly be present. The speeches will all be short, but a glance over the following list of speakers assures us that they will be rousing and enthusiastic ones. An effort will be made to have Chancelior Day and Dean Smalley talk to the students, though they lave wat yet promised to do so. Among the other men who will be heard from are Coach Hutchins, Captain Park, Dr. Chares Jewell, D. R. Cobb, Lieber Whittic and J. R. Rubin, manager of last year's team. Allof these menare well known to Syracuse students, and will bring out a large crowd. Mr. Sumner will preside at the meeting.

New Songs.

Several new Syracuse songs have recently been written by students of the University, and they will be tried for the first time at the meeting tomorrow. In tomorrow's issue of the Orange will appear two of the best of these songs. These songs are strictly Syracusan, both the words and music being the work of Syracuse students.

Students Will Honor Victorious Crew Men Next Week.

The mu:h talked of crew celebration is at last to take place. At the time of the opening of college the students expressed a desire to honor the crew men by a celebration of some kind, but the authorities requested them to defer it until after the Medical Collige opened. Work at this college has already begun, so nothing now stands in the way of a rousing celebration. The citizens of Syracuse gave the crew men and coach a magnificent recaption after the races last June. Few students were present then, and now they desire to show to those men who surprised the college world at Poughkeepsie last June some appreciation of their great success.
There have been many plans for a celebration proposed, but the most feasible and the one which meets with the most approval, is that the affair be strictly one for and by the students. It has been suggestrd by some of the alumni and authorities that the celebration should take place at the Alhambra. The students, if such a plan were adopted, would meet on the campus, form in line and march down town to that building, where an enthusiastic meeting would be held. This celebration could be in the nature of rousing speeches by alumni, professors, crew men and others prominent in University life. The presentation of the cups would also take place at this time. It has been suggested that some sort of a supper be served at the Alhambra before the speeches. It has been suggested by some of the alumni that a reasonable supper which would be within the reach of every student, would greatly add to the occasion.
Other alumni and students are in favor of having the entire celebration on the campus. It is questioned by some whether the Alhambra can be leased fir such an occasion. There seems to be no other hall in the city of sufficient size to accommodate the crowd which would undoubtedly be present. Those of this opinion suggest that the exercises be held in Crouse College, and be of a similar nature as noted above. The hall in Crouse College will accommodate only about 1000, and doubtless a much larger number would desire to attend. Of course, there could be nothing in the nature of a supper if the celebration were held in this building. The Senior Class will hold a meeting at once, and appoint committees to arrange for such a celebration as will best serve the desired purpose. All colleges of the University will cooperate in this affair, and it will be made strictly a University celebration.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Talk of a student celebration of the great victory of our crews at Poughkeepsie last June has been in the air ever since the opening of college. Now some plans have been proposed, and the time has come when some one of these plans should be worked out successfully. Either of the plans published in today's Orange would undoubtedly bring a rousing celebration. Either of them is much to be preferred to some improvised parade or similar affair. Whichever of these plans seems most feasible to the student body should be carefully worked out in detail. Every feature of the occasion should be planned beforehand, so that the celebration may prove one of the greatest in our history.
Above all things, let us make it a University affair. That is, we ought to see that every college is represented, and that every college has a share in making the arrangements. We hope that the Seniors will call a meeting at an early date, and take the initiative in this matter. A committee of students should be appointed to make the arrangements, and talk up the matter with alumni and the authorities. On this committee there should be at least one person from each of the colleges. Unless this is done the best results cannot be obtained. It was the biggest victory in our history; we must have the biggest celebration in our history to commemorate it and to show our appreciation to the coach and men.
bill. is not paid. A sufficient number of upperclassmen have not as yet paid the tax imposed upon them to settle the bills for the damage done at the sophomore-freshman reception. Every member of the Junior and Senior classes is subject to this tax, and will be held for it unless excused by the Dean or Chancellor. A few more days will be given those who have not paid to do so. Unless every upperclassman makes a satisfactory arrangement within the next few days, serious action will be taken by the authorites.

THE "DEKE" GOAT.
The "Deke" goat made his annual appearance upon the front lawn of the chapter house yesterday morning. As usual he is arrayed in all the glory of blue underwear, orange bunting and a gray plug hat. To his former costume there has this year been added a pair of dilapidated trousers. "Billy" is not in the least affected by his hibernation of the greater part of the year. He is still sturdy and in fine condition, although this is his sixteenth annual appearance. His appetite for newspapers is fairly normal, and he shows a decided liking for college publications, biologica! and mathematical journals. On account of his size and extraondinary beauty it is hoped that he may enjoy long life and for many years continue to "inspire" the freshmen.

Game wh Le called at 3 o'clock.
The squad was given lieht practice yesterday aftemcon. Cutis was in the game again and is much improved. The coach said last night that Curtis' knee would give him absolutely no trcuble in the game today. Lane was on the field again yesterday and a ded the coaches. The men were given signal practice and tried out on punting. After being given practice on running with the ball, the scrubs and 'Varsity lined up for a very short serimmage. In an interview with Coach Hutchins after the practice he said: "The men are in condition for a good game. Evcry man on the team will fight for all there is in him, but they can't do it all. What we want is enthusiasm and support from the students. The students have had a week now to store up enthusiasm, and I hope they will make up for it at the game tomorrow. It will not be an easy game; if we win the team must fight for all there is in them."

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Editoring Office, New Phone 8011.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University
Croton Street.

It would be a.waste of time to urge the students to attend the football game this aitternoon. We would not even dare to suggest that any one contemplates remaining away from the oval today. It has been some time since the students have looked forward to an atheetic contest with as much anxiety and impatience as they do to the contest with Colgate. It will, without doubt, be a battle royal, and one which will draw the largest crowd of the season. While we confidently believe that the victory will fall to Syracuse, yet it is the duty of every student to be there to aid the team in every possible way. If it is to be a victory, it will not be an easy one. The team will need the hearty support and co-operation of every student on the field. Remember the cheering at the Lafayette game three years ago? And do you remember how it helped the team? That is what we want at today's game. Not an occasional cheer or yell, and that scarcely audible across the gridiron; but let there be continuous, loud and enthusiastic cheering. It is these things that aid a team to vietory. Remember also the college color, and remember that there is no more appropriate place for it than on the oval this aftertion. Not a single member of the two underclasses should be so unloyal as to appear on the field today without an orange ribbon; not a single'Junior should have so little college spirit as to appear without a cane with orange ribbon on it; and not a single Senior should be so forgetful as to appear without a cane with an orange flag on it. These are college customs. Remember them today!

The first mass meeting of the year devoted to athleticis will be held this morning after chapel. The fact that it is to arouse enthusiasm for this afternoon's football game insures success. Everyone is interested in the game and will be on the gridiron; of course, then, everyone will be interested in the mass meeting and will be present this morning. There will be speeches by loyal and well known alumni of the University; there will be yells and cheers; there will be new and old songs; there will be more enthusiasm than you have seen since you came to college. Plans for the afternoon game will be discussed; you will want to know all about these. New songs will be sung; you will need speeches will be made; you couldn't miss them.

The announcement in the city papers that the Poughkeepsie boat races would be reproduced at one of the eity theaters tomorrow night has caused no little comment among the students. The glorious victory at Poughkeepsie reduced to the surroundings of a Sunday night "Sacred Concert." What a travesty! And yet the management are expecting the house to be filled with Syracuse students.
The races at Poughkeepsie and the celebration which followed have established for Syracuse University a reputation for high moral courage and the best type of Christian manliness. Let each Syracuse student see to it that this reputation is not diminished by his presence at such a performance as is to be given tomorrow.

COLGATE II:

SYRACUSE 0

The 'Varsity Lost a Hard Fought Game Last Saturday.

Before the largest crowd seen on Archbold Field this year Syracuse went down to glorious defeat Saturday afternoon. The wearers of the maroon from Colgate University were the victors by a score of 11 to 0 . The grandstand, bleachers and side lines were crowded to their capacity. About sixty rooters came from Hamilton and occupied a very conspicuous place in the bleachers where they cheered every play of their team. The Orange was very evident in the grandstand from which the Syracuse yells and songs resounded continually. The medics came to the game in a body, bringing with them a band of music, which kept things lively before the game and between the halves. The victory was not an easy one; the defeat was by no means a disgraceful one. Every man on the Syracuse team fought with all his strength, and did not give up until the final whistle was blown. Superior weight and strength won the gams. Colgate put a team on the field which averaged 25 pounds more than that of Syracuse. The odds were such as could not be overcome Colgate was able to hold for downs several times, and her backs seldom failed to make a gain. During the last few minutes of the first bali Syracuse took a magnificent brace and made repeated gains, but time was called with the ball on Colgate's 20 yard line.

The Line-up.

The Kick Off.

At 2:55 o'clock Runge kicked off 10 yards for Colgate, Russell falling on the ball. On an attempt to go through the line, Syracuse was set back for a loss of one yard. The 'Varsity could make no gain, and Park punted 30 yards to Brigham who came back 15 yards. Castleman and Runge were then sent through the line three times for a total gain of 17 yards. Castleman failed to gain around the end, and Colgate was penalized 15 yards for bolding. Runge then punted 35 yards off side, Burrell falling on the ball. Burrell failed to gain on a quarterback run. Stimpson was sent through the line for four yards, and Park then punted 30 yards to Brigham, who was tackled by Harwood after returning 10 yards. Runge, Castleman and Brigham were given the ball repeatedly and advanced it four chalk lines. Runge was given the ball and went through right tackle and end for 15 yards and a touchdown. Brigham punted the ball out to Knapp, and Runge kicked the goal. ScoreColgate 6, Syracuse 0.

Syracuse Takes a Brace.

Runge kicked off 50 yards to Stimpson who fumbled, but Curtis fell on the ball. Curtis, Stimpson and Park were sent through the line for repeated gains, until Curtis fumbled and Cartter fell on the ball on the 30 yard line. Syracuse was penalized five yards for offside, and the ball went to Colgate. Runge tried to get around right end, but was tackled by Harwood. Colgate failed to make her distance on three downs and Syracuse was given the ball. Harwood was sent throngh right tackle for three yards, and Burrell then punted 30 yards. Runge gained 5 yards by tiurding, and was sent through right guard and end for six more. After go ing through the line for three yards, Cartteer fumbled, and the ball went to the 'Varsity. Burrell and Stimpson failed to gain around end, and Park punted 30 yards to Greene who came back 12 yards. Runge tried a place kick, and Colgate was then penalized 15 yards for offside. Burrell failed to pass the pass, and was carried back two yards. Park then punted 40 yards to Greene, who was downed by Tucker. Runge returned the punt to Burrell. The Syracuse team took a big brace at this point, and the backs were used for repeated gains. Stimpson gained 20 yards around left end; Park went through left guard for three, Curtis through center for two, and time was called with the ball on Colgate's 20 yard line. Score-Colgate 6, Syracuse 0

The Second Half.

Burrell kicked off 45 yards to Runge who came back 12. After failures to gain, Runge punted 35 yards to Burrell, who came back 10 yards Park gained ive through the line; Curtis went through tackle and guard for three; Curtis through center for three more. The backs gained 10 yards more, when Colgate held for downs. Castleman got around right end for five yards and Runge then punted 40 yards to Burrell, who came back 20. Park went through left guard and tackle for eight yards; Burrell gained seven yards by a quar terback run; Curtis got two through center and Park an equal distance between right guard and tackle. Burrell again tried the quarterback run but lost five yards; Park tried to punt bat fumbled and Castleman fell on the ball. Harwood made a fine tackle on Castleman, after he had gained three yards around end. Brigham hurdled right tackle for two yards when Runge punted 40 yards to Burrell. Syracuse failed to gain her distance and the ball went to Colgate. Brigham tried to buck the line but found a wall. Runge (Continued on page 4.)

Large crowd at the mass

 MEETING.One of the largest crowds ever gathered in the chapel of Liberal Arts College was present at the mass meeting Saturday morning. Every available seat in the room was occupied, as well as the aisles and doorways. Enthusiasm was at a high pitch throughout the meeting, but was still further aroused by the speeches, all of which were very well received.
Ernest H. Sumner, president of the Athletic Asaociation, presided at the meeting. In stating the purpose of the meeting Mr. Sumner said, "We are here to arouse our old-time enthusiasm. We are here to help our football team on to victory. Last June marked the turning point in the history of athletics at Syracuse." The first speaker was Chancellor Day, who made a characteristic witty and enthusiastic speech. The Chancellor spoke with much praise of the team and coaches. He emphasized the need of manliness on the field, and of courtesy to the visiting team. He urged every student of the University to get onto the field and help on the team in every possible way. Dean Smalley then spoke to the students, referring to Colgate's strength in football and of the football traditions always present there. In speaking of the graduate system of coaching the Dean said that he believed there should be a professional coach at the head and graduate coaches subordinate to him. Coach Hutchins was then called to the platform and received with continuous applause, In speaking of the team he said, "We want the students to appreciate that the eleven men who go into the game are your men and your team. They do not belong to the faculty, alumni, myself, or anyone else but you. If a man on the team makes a mistake in judgment, cheer him on and encourage him so he will not do it again. Remember that the men represent you. They are doing hard work, and it means much sacrifice for them." Dr. Charles J. Jewell followed with one of his usual witty speeches. Lieber E. Whittic '95 and J. R. Rubin '04 talked very enthusiastically for a short time.

Published every morning by the students of Syma cuss University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croten Street.

Don't allow temporary discouragement to dishearten you. There are more games coming. Help the team to prepare to meet Yale.

During the excitement attending a football season and among the many activities which constantly engage the attention of college students the importance of State and National politics is apt to be lust sight of. With a view of keeping before the eyes of Syracuse students the issues and candidates the Orange has made arrangements to give a certain amount of space on page four to each of the more prominent political parties. The leaders in local politics, Syracuse graduates for the most part, are to provide the "copy" which is to make work. Within a few days will these columns of vital interest to all.
Today the Republican party is represented for the first time. The Democratic party will present their candidates within a few days.

Last year there was a movement toward the publication of a Syracuse song book, but such a book has never appeared to our knowledge. Nearly every college in the country has a bound collection of its songs. Why should not Syracuse? Have we not enough songs? If not. have we not enough students and alumni who are capable of composing new ones? Surely we must have. It is evident, then, that the movement lacks sufficient backing and energy to bring it to a successful end. One new song appeared Saturday. We understand that there are several others, with music, already composed. From time to time during the past year new songs appeared, were sung once or twice, and then forgotten. This does not mean that the songs were poor and not worthy of being remembered, but simply that they were in no form so that they could be preserved and referred to. There are in existence many such songs; there are students in the University who would be glad to write new ones; there are also many alumni who would be willing to help in such a cause. Cannot some arrangement be made whereby a live and energetic committee could have charge of this matter? Before another football season opens there should be on the market a Syracuse Song Book. The Daily Orange intends to do appear a supplement containing two entirely new Syracuse songs with words and music. We realize, however, that in order to secure good and permanent results the work of a committee centralized right here in Syracuse is an immediate necessity.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI.
Miss Fannie A. Rooker and Miss Louise Myer of Cazenovia Seminary were the guests of Miss Laura Wheeler Saturday and Sunday.
Prof. A. C. Flick gave an address before the Fulton Reading Circle on the "Evolution of Rome." While there he was the guest of trustee E. R. Redhead and wife. Professor Flick has been requested to deliver four more lectures during the course of the winter.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
Subscriptions to the Daily Orange are payable at the Treasurer's office or at the Co -op. The regular subscription price, $$ 2.50$, will be charged those not paying on or before October 10.

The one was nominated for his availability. the other for his ability. The one invites your attention to a schedule of promisos, the other to a record of performances. The one, if elected, will, like Cleveland, be embarrassed by a heterogeneous crowd of orators, theorists and obstructionists, who will make his administration a failure and his life a burden. Debating interests of the University will be Discussed.

A mas: mocting has been called for $7: 30$ oclock this evening in the chapel of Liberal Arts College. The meeting will be devoted to the debating interests at Syracuse, and all men of the University are urged to be present. Under the leadership of Prof. Losey, forensics at Syracuse have beengreatly developed during the past three or four years, and have come to occupy a prominent place in college activities. Last year three debates were scheduled. A texmelosen from the sophomore club was sent to Alfred; another team met Alegheny at Meadville, and a third dehate took place in Crouse College with a team from Wesleyan. This year the management desires to arrange at kast two debates. One has already lieen arranged with Wesleyan to be hold at Middletown. This debate will vecur next spring, and the authorities are mnious to get some other team to come to Syracuse. Plans relating to this matter will be discussed at the meeling tonight.
The meeting will be in charge of Prof. Losey. Several students and alumni who have been prominently identified with the debating interests of the University will deliver brief addresses. Mr. Herbert Myron, captain of the 1903 team, and Mr. Ernest H. Sumner, captain of the 1904 team, will be among the speakers. Avery member of a dass club of last year is expected to be present, and all freshmen are especially urgel to come out this evening.
Last year the management of the teams decided upon the plan of awarding those who make the various class amd collegiate teams. Each member of a class team which loses its interclass debate receives a bronze medal, and each member of the winning team is given a silver one. The members of the intercollegtate team are given a gold medal. This plan proved very successful last year, and will be followed out again the coming year. Remember the place of the meeting-in the chapel of the Hall of Languages. Remember the time-7:30 0'clock.
BISHOP HARTZELL DELIOHTED A LARGE CROWD.
The auditorium of Crouse College was filled Sunday afternoon, when Bishop Juseph C. Hartzell addressed the Christian Associations of the University. Bishop Hartzell held the closest attention of his audience for nearly an hour While he gave a clear and interesting tallk on Africa. He spoke of the great resources and advantages of the Dark Continent, and aroused an interest in christianizing and civilizing it. He told of the interest which all the large Euruttan nations are now taking in the comtinent; of its great race problem; of its geography, seenery, climate and peoples; and related many interesting experiences which befell him during his extensive travels through Africa.

Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell of Africa The primary object of the meeting was to arouse an interest among the students in missionary work. At the close of Bishop Hartzell's address blank subscription cards were passed among the audience. There was subscribed at this time $$ 357$ for the missionary cause. Besides this amount, John C. Tennant '01 gave $$ 500$ to the cause.
FOOTbALL TEAM PUT THROUGH hard practice.
Yesterday afternoon practice was given mostly to tackling, falling on the ball and getting off quickly on the starts. The whole squad was given hard drill in whatever points any weakness was shown in Saturday's game. It is expected that a much stronger team will go to New Haven next Saturday than played Colgate.
Coach hutchins, commenting on Saturday's game, said: "The students and players should pay no attention whatever to the statements of the city dailies, as many of their assertions were certainly ludricous. The comments of one of the city dailies in regand to individual players were entirely uncalled for. We are in a much better position to determine on the causes of defeat than those who are not familiar with the team's daily practice. We consider the defeat due in great part to the earliness of the season. Our team had not had a chance to be tried out this season. They had played no team able to give them a worthy game. Our team was made up in part of new men unaccustomed to playing together, Burrell, Curtis, Lyon and Russell having been in suits only a week. A team in this condition was lined up against an eleven that had played together for two years and had received early and hard practice."
The assistance given by Henderson, Lane and Patten in coaching has been greatly appreciated.
Yesterday the members of the Union Academy Circle, with several guests, enjoyed a pienic and corn roast with Miss Britton on Onondaga Hill.

SENOOSS START

 THE MOVEMEN
Plans for Crew Celebration Will be Arranged  at Once.

The men of the Senior Class held a meeting yesterday morning for the purpose of discussing plans for a crew celebration. It was the sentiment of every member present that a big celebration should take place, and that plans should be laid out at once. A motion prevailed that the president of the class should appoint a committee to make arrangements for such a celebration. In order that it may be strictly a University affair, and one in which all the colleges will be invited and expected to participate, it was decided to have every college represented on this committee. President Fernald appointed the committee as follows: Lloyd L. Cheney, chairman; Liberal Arts, Clarence Becker and Frank Brundage; Fine Arts, Fred R. Lear; Medicine, Maxwell C. Montgomery; Law, Ernest H. Sumner; Applied Science, William P. Gere. This committee will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 113 College Place to take the first step toward bringing about the largest celebration in the history of Syracuse.
Various plans were suggested and discussed by members of the class. It was the prevailing opinion that a hall should be engaged down town, where a light supper could be served. After these refreshments rousing speeches, songs and yells would make the meeting a most enthusiastic one. The committee will make arrangements as rapidly as possible, and will announce their progress from day to day.

FAY MARTIN SMITH

News of the death of Fay M. Smith ' 07 reached his friends here yesterday. Mr. Smith was a freshman in the College of Law. He, with a friend, went up to Little Sandy Pond near Lake Ontaria the latter part of last week on a hunting trip. While the two boys were out in a boat Saturday morning shooting ducks, the boat sprang a leak and both were drowned before help reached them. Mr. Smith's body was found at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning.
Mr. Smith was the son of John R. Smith of 203 Massena St. of this city. He was born at Carthage, Mo., Nov. 1, 1883. He attended the Syracuse High School, from which he graduated in 1903. Friday afternoon Mr. Smith was present at his classes in the law college. The funeral will be held from his late home at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday. The members of the freshman law class will attend in a body. Mr. Smith, during his short stay at the law college, had made a great many friends, and was honored and respected by all.

Law held a meeting yesterday afternoon to take action upon the death of Mr. Fay M. Smith. Messrs. Berson, Lee, and Wells were appointed as a committee to draft suitable resolutions. Dean Brooks paid a fine tribute to Mr. Smith, and announced that there would be no classes at the law college Wednesday afternoon, the date of the funeral.

Resolutions of Sympathy,

Whereas, our Omniscient Father has seen fit to take from us our classmate, Fay M. Smith, be it
Resolved, That we, the freshman class of the College of Law, express our heartfelt sorrow at the loss of our classmate and be it further
Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy to the family of the deceased in this their great bereavement, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and be published in the city and college papers.

Published every morning by the atudents of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croton Street.

That Syracuse lost the Colgate game by no means proves that our football season is to be unsuccessful. It will serve as an impetus to the men and coaches to work harder and end the season gloriously. This was the first game played in which the coaches and the men themselves could learn the weakness of the team. The games played previous to last Saturday could not help the coaches to any great degree. The teams were not strong enough to test our men. There is no way to test one's abiity like meeting an equal or superior. Colgate had had this experience this season. She had met Cornell, learned wherein her team must improve, and worked hard one week to overcome every can't take an active part, come weakness. There is no doubt but out and encourage those who do. men in the line-up, but the old men were greatly improved.
The Yale game is only a few days off. We would not be bold enough to say that we expect to defeat these warriors, but we candidly believe that the team which will fight for the orange at New Haven next Saturday will be far superior to the one sent on the gridiron in the last game. The students should not be discouraged. We should not blame the coaches, men or any one else. They did all in their power; they put up a magnificent fight against great odds; they are still in the gane, and working the harder. If the coaches and men are not discouraged,certainly the students should not be. Let us cheer on the team, and turn defeat into victory; let us show our appreciation of the coaches and team; and let us keep up enthusiasm, and remember that a single battle lost does not mean the war is over.

A mass meeting in the interest of debating has been called for this evening. Debating has become a prominent feature of college life at Syracuse, and one well worth cultivating. That it has come to occupy such a prominent place at Syracuse is due to the untiring efforts of Professor Losey during his stay here. He has condescended to coach the teams, which fact alone assures us that debating will occupy as - prominent a place this year as m heretofore. Every student should d turn out this evening. If you

RECEPTION AT HAVEN.
Thursday evening the upperclassmen and sophomores of Haven Hall entertained the freshmen girls in the club room and parlors. The rooms were prettily decorated with yines and college banners Chancellor and Mrs. Day, Dr, and Mrs. Burchard, Dr. and Mrs. Mace, Professor and Mrs. Place, and Professor Richards rec ived. Danc ing was enjoyed for some time, after which refreshments were very daintily served by Misses McMillen and Lyons '05. This was the first event in the new dormitory and the girls are anticipating many more such pleasant occasions.

SCIENCE ASSOCIATION.

The first regular meeting of the Science Association was held last Friday evening. After the regular routine business the following officers were elected:
President, Prof. Thomas C. Hopkins; vice president, H. Monmouth Smith; sec.-treas., Prof. Joseph E. Kirkwood. Professors Charles W. Hargitt, Henry 0 . Peck, and Herman C. Cooper were elected as program committee. The following graduates were elected to membership: Myron Allen and C. 0. Hayes. It is the purpose of the members of the association to make the meetings more interesting this year, and also to make them more of a social nature. The entertainments will consist of a literary program after which refreshments will be served.

PAGKARD AND

Successful Candidates  in Yesterday's Election

From nine in the morning until five in the afternoon yesterday the halls of the various colleges of the University were the scene of a lively election contest. All the students showed an interest in the election of their representatives on the Athletic Geverning Board, some of them an intense interest that manifested itself in vigorous campaign work. "Have you voted yet?" was the question which was very much in evidence, and the replies were sometimes amusing in the extreme. Several freshmen replied that they were not yet oll enough to vote..
Packard led in all five colleges, receiving nearly three-fourths of all the votes cast. Whitney was a close second in Fine Arts College and also a strong second in Liberal Arts. Anderson polled a large vote in Smith Col lege and among the Medics. The result of the balloting was as follows: Liberal Arts.

The Rev. Dr. Buell, dean of the Theological department of Boston University, spoke to the students at chapel time yesterday morning. Dean Buell has spoken from the same platform several times before, and is not a stranger to Syracuse students. He was passing through the city from Niagara Falls, and was invited by the Chancellor to spend the day at the University. Dr. Buell spoke for a short time upon the theme "Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus." He showed how easy it is to become afflicted with that disease of the mind called conceit, and emphasized how necessary it is to avoid such an aftiction. "You will never know." said he, "what life is until you have in you the mind of Christ Jesus, which was selfsacrificing." In the evening Dean Buell addressed the Preachers' Club of the University.

aIVE THEM A OOOD SEND.OFF.

The 'Varsity will leave Thursday night for New Haven to meet Yale next Saturday. This will be the hardest game of the season. The men will need the biggest send-off of the year. Every man of the University will meet in front of the Hall of Languages Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock, and march in a body to the New York Central station. The train does not leave until 12:05, but the men will need to retire about $100^{\prime}$ clock. The coach desires that the students leave the station at that time. Every man be on hand to give them a great send-off. Don't forget the time. Tell everyone about it.
The first problem assigned the Senior Class of the Architectural Depart ment was completed Saturday. It was a six-story building to contain thirty studios and accommodations for an art ist club.
The second problem consists of an "arcade of salesrooms," to be erected on a corner lot 120 feet by 140 feet, to have a spacious court for flowerbooths, connected with the street by means of driveways. The building above the first floor to be of a height adaptable to the appearance of the exterior and to contain such offices and studios as would make a sufficient income from the investment.
Three drawings are required, a plan, elevativn and section at one-eighth inch scale, rendered in pencil and wate color.
The Junior Class is still working upon a design for a small chapel in the Romanesque style.
The sophomores have also finished their first problem, consisting of a design for a small library. They are now working upon the design for a fruit market, providing numerous stalls, good roadways, accommodations for the public and storage, to be erected upon a lot 125 feet by 175 feet, This problem is also due October 22.

DEBATINO INTERESTS AROUSED.
The men of the University held a mass meeting in the Hall of Languages last evening for the purpose of arousing debating at Syracuse. The meeting was well attended and all present showed an intense interest in the work. Professor Losey told of the work, and gave an inspiring talk concerning the plans for the year. Brief speeches were also made by E. H. Sumner, L. L. Cheney, Joseph Mosher, Fred Hartwell, and J. C. Tressler. Plans for the year were discussed and definite arrangements will be made soon. All the clubs meet Thursday night for the election of officers. A large representation is expected.
C. B. Grandey '08 has assumed the position of Post-Standard reporter in place of J. L. E. Collings '06, who has held the position thus far this year.

VARSTY GVEN

 HaRD PRACTIEEMen Showed Much Im. provement in Yesterday's Practice.

The 'Varsity was put through some hand scrimmage practice yesterday afternoon, and showed marked improvement over the work done heretofore this year. All the 'Varsity subs were put on the scrub team yesterday for the first time, which made a much stronger team for the 'Varsity to meet. Patten'98, the crack tackle and captain of the team seven years ago, was on the field in a suit yesterday and aided the coaches. Henderson and Lane were also out instructing the men. Stephenson is not yet familiar enough with the signals to play fast, but has in him football material of the first order.
The men were given practice during the first part of the afternoon on tackling and running with the ball from the kickoff. Harwood and Brown were slightly injured, but kept in the game until the close. The 'Varsity squad was given signal practice for some time, especially that the new men might learn the signals. The 'Varsity was then lined up against the strongest scrub team that has been on the field this year. A bard scrimmage gave the 'Varsity some much needed practice. The men showed up better on offence than at any time before this season. The lineup of the 'Varsity yesterday afternoon was as follows: Left end, Burrell; left tackle, Harwood; left guard, Van Duyn; center, Russell; right guard, Fucker; right tackle, Brown right end, Magoon, Marcy; quarter back, Powell; left halfback, Farring ton; right halfback, Parker; fullback Lyon, Curtis.

T'S WONDERFUL.

In this bankrupt stock from Lowery, Dean & Co. that we are now disposing of, we found about eighty suits from their custom department that were made to measure at prices from $$ 35$ to $60. We must dispose of them at once and in order to do it we have put prices on them that will move them in double quick time. A great many black double breasted suits in the lot we'll close them out at the following prices: $16, 318, $20. They're beautiful suits.

LEGAL JOTTINOS

E. H. Greenland '05 returned from St. Louis yesterday where he was delegate to the national convention of Phi Delta Phi.
E. D. Eddy ex'05 will complete his law course in the New York Law School.
Several changes have taken place in the faculty this year. Professor Giles H. Stilwell was forced to resign on account of outside work. His loss will be greatly felt. In his place L. T. Haight, instructor in the Law of Domestic Relations, will teach Torts and Personal Property, and Mr. Tooke will teach Trusts. The Law of Agency will be taught by Dean Irooks instead of by Instructor Charles G. Stone.
A system of bells has been put in the new law building to summon the classes. As Dean Brooks explained, these bells would not be used at all times, but only in cases of "emergency," when the students linger too long in the halls.
Frederick W. Garlock '05, who intended entering the Albany Law School this year, returned to Syracuse last week, and will finish his course here.

NEWS OF OTHER COLLEOES.

The Dental College of the University of Michigan has returned to the three years' course. The registration of freshmen is 40 percent larger than last year.
The University of California has received $$ 108,000$, which is the first payment of a gift of $$ 600,000$ from Charles F. Doe. The money will be used for the building of a new modern library and the purchase of books.
The faculty of the University of Milnois are considering a plan which, if adopted, will give four hours' credit to the editor-in-chief and three hours to the assistant editor of the University newspaper.

The small boy problem is still unsolved. In fact, it becomes more serious each week. At each succeeding game played on the oval this season, the number of small boys has noticeably increased. Last Saturday they flocked over the fence and on the field in such hordes as to become a positive nuisance. It is almost impossible to control them after they are once over the fence. They become annoying not only to the spectators, but to the men in the game as well. People pay their admission or athletic fee, as the case may be, to see a game, and not to have their view obstructed by a hundred or more of young lads from the city.
It seems strange that no adequate means can be devised whereby this nuisance can be abated. If it is allowed to continue, it will naturally increase from week to week. At the best, all games and functions of other kinds which are held on the hill seem to attract the younger generation from the city-and for some reason not the best class are attracted either. Of course the employees of the University are of altogether too small a number to remedy this evil. But it ought to be possible to obtain protection from the city. One solitary policeman guarding the fence does about as much good among a crowd of small boys as an appeal to them that a "word to the wise is sufficient" would. They feel the force of one no more than the other. In the first place, the policeman is not able to guard the half-mile or more of fence, and then, if he were, he becomes more interested in the excitement inside the barrier (socalled) than in his duty toward the intruders.

NEW CHARTS FOR THE PUBLIC SPEAKINO COURSES.
Through the courtesy of Dr. E. S. Van Duyn of the Medical College Professor Losey has received two charts of the vocal organs for use in his courses in public speaking. Such charts as these have long been needed in this department, and the students as well as the instructors very much appreciate Dr. Van Duyn's kindness. The work of the department will be yery much facilitated by means of these charts.

SONG RECITAL A SUCCESS.
A large crowdof students and friends of the University who are interested in music were present at the recital given in Crouse College Monday evening by Professor Irene Hichborn Fos-

Professor Foster's work was very much appreciated by the audience, and all considered it a privilege to hear her. The work of Professor Berwald at the piano was well received and of the highest order, as were also the selections on the violin by Professor Becker. Professor Phillips acted as accompanist.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of the Daily Orange:
Will you permit me to congratulate the students of Syracuse University, through the columns of your paper, on their winnings Saturday. We lost the game but we have won something that no defeat can take from us, that is a spirit of enthusiasm. Never since I have been interested in my Alma Mater (over ten years) have I seen such enthusiasm prevail as was evidenced before Saturday's game. The game had been so well talked up that a number of city people who have never been known to interest themselves in the University at all before, woke up and took a vital interest in the game. Around the various places where men congregate downtown the game was the topic of conversation.
The students themselves showed their interest in the team which represented them to an unprecedented extent. Syracuse University is aequiring what it always lacked, an unquenchable college spirit.
As an evidence of this fact I would like to call attention to the acknowledgement of the downtown merchants to this spirit. In towns where there is a college which has plenty of enthusiasm one always finds the merchants bowing before it and decorating their places of business whenever an opposing team comes to town ora college event occurs. This has never been done here to any great extent. Saturday, however, I noticed a number of stores that were decorated in honor of the occasion. In the early morning I saw several of the merchants putting the flags and colors in their windows.
I also noticed a number of students on the downtown streets with the color on. This is something we should haye done years ago. The people down that way forget that this University has a color, unless it is shown to them once in a while. Keep it up. Alumnus.

ANOTHER BUNCH OF RAIN COATS

We've just dispatched another load of rain coats. This bankrupt firm carried the best goods from the foremost manufacturers of the country. These rain coats are the best ever. They sold them at $$ 20, $ 25, $ 28, $ 30$ and $$ 35$. We will close them out at bankrupt prices while they last- $$ 10.95, $ 11.95, $ 12.95$, $$ 13.95$, $14.95. Come quick before they're all gone. Kearney Bros., Manufacturers of Clothing, Vanderbilt Sq.

Men Were Given Hard Practice Yesterday.

The men on the 'Varsity squad were put through some hard scrimmage work yesterday afternoon. The work of the scrubs was light yesterday, the coaches devoting most of their time to the men on the first team. A short time was spent in running the signals, which most of the men are thoroughly familjar with now. The 'Varsity and second team, upon which were several of the 'Varsity subs, were lined up for a scrimmage. The second team got the ball once on the 'Varsity's 15 yard line by line plunges but lost it on a fumble. Parker picked up the ball and ran the length of the field for a touchdown. The 'Varsity scored on the second team ensily thereafter, though the back field of the scrubs broke throug the 'Varsity line for good gains. The line-up was as follows:
'Varsity $\quad$ 2nd Team Burrell.... .left end. Farrington.left t'kle..Dempster, Tucker Van Duyn.........left guard..........Sweet Belcher... .center. ...Sloan Tucker, Dempster...right guard......Rice Stephenson...right tackle........... Brown Marey, Magoon right end... $\qquad$ Park .......left halfback. Van Duyn, Cuit Parker, Stimpson...right half b'k...Park Lyon, Curtis.....full back. $\qquad$ Powell.......quarterback.....Van Dusen.
The men will leave tonight at 11:05 for New Haven. The students will form in front of the Hall of Languages at 8:30 to march to the New York Central station and give the men a rousing send-off. Nineteen players with the Coach and Manager, will be taken on the trip. If any of the students are going to Now Haven they should see Manager Ackley at once. The men who will be taken on the trip are in all probability Captain Park, Stimpson, 1owell, Burrell, Curtis, Van Duyn, Parker, Harwood, Lyon, Magoon, Farrington, Brown, Russell, Belcher, Stephenson, Tucker, Fitzgerald Marcy, Dempster. It is impossible to take all the mon on the training table, as the number is limited.
Coach Hutchins was seen last night and said, "I wish to commend very highly the work of the scrubs. They showed much more fight than did the 'Varsity in the early part of the scrimmage work. Because certain men have been on the 'Varsity is no sign they will stay there. If men on the scrubs show up more efficiently they will be moved over, and pretty promptly too." Both Coach Hutchins and Assistant Coach West expressed themselves as being entirely dissatisfied with the lack of football fight in the majority of the 'Varsity men. "If the men simply wont do this" said the coach, "I don't know how they can be made. By foothall fight, understand, I don't mean (Continued on fourth page.)

THE GERMAN CLUB.

At the meeting of the German Club held Tuesday evening, Mr. Boysen gave a sketch of Ibsen's life. While all knew something of Ibsen as a dramatist, few knew anything of him as a man and Mr. hoysen's interesting and sympathetic talk was closely followed. He said in part: "Ibsen is the greatest living dramatist of Norway. In Germany also he has many admirers and followers and no native German exerts so strong a dramatic influence. Ibsen was born at Skeen, a Norwegian village of some 3,000 inhabitants. His father, who was one of the wealthiest villagers was a keen yet genial man, while his mother was reserved to a fault. From her Ibsen inherited his reserve and his strangely ethical qualities. It was not the bright, joyous side of life as he might see it at the gay annual village fair which left the most serious impression on the sensitive boy, but the darker features. He chose for his playground the square where no green thing was in sight and on which stood the church, the school, the courthouse, the pillory, the prison, the mad-house. Ibsen's constructive imagination was at first active in art. On his father's loss of fortune, however, Ibsen, then fifteen, had to support himself. He prepared for college but took up journalists' work instead. His first play was "Catalina," in which Cataline was an indignant idealist at war with society. With the exception of some thirty copies the whole edition was sold to a huckster for wrapping paper. His next play was "Norma," a politician's love story. Up to this time there had been no Norwegian stage, but in 1851 the first national theater was founded in Bergen and for five years Ibsen lived there, producing two plays yearly according to contract. Ibsen could never conform to others' ideals. The romanticists attracted him for a while but his later works contain his real message-a plea for truth, honesty and individual freedon in all human relations."
Mr. Boysen's sketch was heartily appreciated. Miss Trolan favored the club with a piano solo, after which refreshments were served. The officers of the German Club for the present year are: President, Dr. Otto; vice president, Miss Selmser; secretary, Miss Dahlmann; treasurer, Mr. Boysen; chorister, Mr. Lowe; additional members of executive committee, Miss Minne and Miss Mabel Brown.

Cyracuse Daily Orange.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

It was brought to our notice the other day that Syracuse is a "good winner, but a poor loser." It seemed at first that such a thing was not the case. But during the last few days we have come to appreciate the full meaning of the saying. Judging from the present conditions it would seem that it is quite true. Since the defeat of last Saturday enthusiasm has been dormant at the University. Everyone seems to be discouraged. Interest in football is at a low tide. What is the reason for all this? Have not the students of Syracuse any college spirit? This does not seem possible. But the real test of college spiric is not how much noise you can make after a victory; it is rather how much enthusiasm you can show and how much encouragement you can give after a defeat. Let us get some of this spirit in us.
Since Saturday's game there has been only a handful of men on the field at practice work; not a yell or song is ever heard there; no mass meeting for the Yale game; not enough college spirit among the students to force some of the old 'Varsity men to get into the game. And still we wonder at defeat, and question the ability of the team! We must not blame the team for everything; we must remember that the student body has a share in bringing victory. Did you ever notice that the students are al ways on hand and ready to carry on their shoulders every victory? But when defeat come, how they sulk away, stay away, and let the team labor under this burden?
Such a spirit should not be a Syracuse spirit. . Let us retrieve our loss; or, rather, let us cheer and encourage our team and coaches so that we,through them, can accomplish this. There will be an opportunity tonight to start aright. Every man in the University should be in front of the Liberal Arts College at 8:30 o'clock and march to the station. The team has a hard game Saturday; let us help them all we can. If we cannot cheer them as they cross the chalk marks, we can at leasr cheer them as they leave their Alma Mater. Be on hand tonight, everyone.

A GREAT RUSH.

The rush for bargains at the great bankrupt sale of clothing is phenomenal. Never such bargains before in highclass merchandise. See the beautiful suits we're selling at $$ 8, $ 10, $ 12$, that Lowery, Dean & Co. sold at $$ 15, $ 18$ and $$ 20$. We're selling their whole stock at bankrupt prices. #### Abstract

Parker and Roosevelt Side by Side The one has acquired special training as a jurist, the other as a statesman. The one has a record on none of the important questions of the day, the other has on every one of them. The one was nominated for his availability. the other for his ability. The one invites your attention to a schedule of promises, the other to a record of performances. The one, if elected, will, like Cleveland, be embarrassed by a heterogeneous crowd of orators, theorists and obstructionists, who will make his administration a failure and his life a burden. The other, if elected, will in the future, as in the past, be sustained by a body of experienced legislators and executive officers who have learned how to do things. - From Congressman Driscoll's speech of acceptance.

dirty work, but the spirit of aggressiveness. Some of the scrub men are careless about the signals. There are some men who don't learn and won't learn; they must stand on the side lines. I am personally very much pleased with the scrub backs. If they had come just as hard and a little lower they would have been even more effective. There are some men on the scrubs who are doing better work than the 'Varsity men and will be changed if they continue. Two of the scrubs are not eligible to the 'Varsity until next Tuesday, as their penalty for breaking training does not expire until then."

Next week the coaches plan to make up two scrub teams; the first of the most consistent men from the 'Varsity overflow, and the other from the remaining scrubs. On Friday and Saturday there will be scrimmages between two teams picked from the men who do not go on the trip.
In speaking of the game Saturday, the coaches said, "It will be excellent drilling for the line men and training that they can get in no other way. Last year, with 20 and 15 minute halves, Yale defeated us 30 to 0 . This year Yale is much stronger than a year ago." Assistant Coach West said he considered the Yale team the very best in the country, and thought Syracuse would do very well if she could hold her down to 34 or 35 points.

The Daily Orange will have a special bulletin service direct from the field. Full particulars will be announced later.

THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Owing to the unsettled state of the weather, the tennis tournament has been slow in progress. The first round was finished Monday, Carter defeating Capin, Gray defeating Neth, Latham defeating Allis and Rice defaulting to H. D. Smith. Efforts have been made to complete the second rourd, but as yet none of the twelve men still in the game have had the opportunity of crossing rackets.
If the courts are in condition this afternoon, some fast play is assured. Carter is to meet Tressler, Latham is pitted against Hanson, Stoddard vs. Smith, Housckneeht vs. Hargitt, Ranney vs. Hanners, Hayes vs. Guy.
All these matches must be played before Saturday,

TWO MEDALS

FOR SYRACUSE

Awards Made for Exhibits at the St. Louis

Exposition.

Ciancellor Day was present at the chapel exercises in Liberal Arts College yesterday morning, and made the interesting announcement that Syracuse University has been awarded two medais at the St. Louis exposition. A gold medal was awarded for special work from the College of Applied Science, and a bronze medal to the Department of Fine Arts. The news is especially gratifying, inasmuch as Syracuse sent only a small exhibit, and that prepared upon a short notice. The Chancellor was at conference at the time the exhibit was prepared, so they were arranged under the supervision of Dr. Street. The following letter was received by the Chancellor:

New York Exhibit, Educational Building, World's Fair,
Str. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11, 1904. Dr. Jmes R. Day,

Syracuse University,
Syracuse, N. Y.
My Dear Dr. Day:
I am happy to announce that the International Jury in Group III., Higher Elucation, has awarded a gold medal to Syracuse University, and the International Jury in Group IV., Fine Arts, has awarded in addition a bronze medal to the Department of Fine Arts, Syracuse University. Permit me te congratulate you and Syncuse University upon the recognitio: thus accorded.
[Signed]
D. M. Ellis.

Before informing the students of the above news, the Chancellor urged all the students to be present and march to the station last night to give the tean a b'g send off. "There is more call to go," said he, "than if we had won last Saturday. The time to be enthusiastic is all the time. There was magnificent playing by our men, when we consider that four or five different kinds of coaching have been tried here in the past few years. The playing is all right, and the coaching is superb. You want to go to the depot, and give the men a good, hearty send-off. Keep up your enthusiasm whether we win or not. Our athletics are a department of the University, and are to be taken into account by the professors. They must do their level best to make their schedules accommodate these athletes. We want to provide in every way for bealthy and stimulating athletics. Any professor who is out of sympathy with athletics at Syracuse has mistaken his place, and ought not to be a professor but an undertaker."

1906 ONONDAOAN.

At the last meeting of the 1906 Ononlagan Board, considerable progress was made toward the production of the nual book, which will be on sale before Easter. The editors plan to make the publication better than anything heretofore published in college, although it will be slightly smaller than the annual of last year. A smaller book can be bound much stronger and can be handied easier.
Prizes similar to those given in previous years have been offered and are under the following conditions:

1. The 1906 Onondagan will offer prizes for the best illustrations and in illustrating work in any way suitable for it. These illustrations may be of any kind whatever and for any part of the book.
2. Any student of any college in the University is eligible to compete, though it is expected that the majority of the entries will come from the Fine Arts College.
3. There will be a first prize of two dollars and a copy of the Onondagan fur the best cover design or best hint or idea suitable in any way for a striking, novel, original and beautiful cover. This design may be of any size, shape, material or style, providing only that it be suitable and new, A second prize of a copy of the Onondagan is offered.
4. For the best serious illustration or set of illustrations for the interior of the book, there will be a first prize of two dollars and a copy of the Onondagan, with a second prize of a copy of the Onondagan.
5. A first prize of two dollars and a copy of the Onondagan is offered for the best humorous illustration or set of illustrations, for the department of grinds especially. There is also a second prize of a copy of the Onondagan in this contest.
6. The drawing (orother illustration) must be signed with a pseudonym and be accompanied with a sealed envelope containing the illustrator's real name.
7. All drawings must be in the hands of the Committee on Illustrations on or before Thursday, December 1, 1904, after which no entries will be accepted.
8. Illustrations must be handed to Miss Lois Kupfer, Committee on Illustrations, or to the editor-in-chief.
Another contest has been established in the literary department. For the best story handed to Miss Helen Potter, the committee or $t$ s the editor-in-chief before Thursday, December 1, 1904, a first prize of two dollars and a copy of the Onondagan will be given. A second prize of a copy of the Onondagan is also announced. All stories for this contest must be between 200 and 500 words in length and incidents of college life will be preferred. These will be judged by a disinterested committee, probably composed of members of the faculty, so that all will stand on equal footing. These must also be signed witin a pseudonym and accompanied by an envelope containing the writer's real name.
The next meeting of the board will be held at Haven Hall one week from next Thursday svening. The attendance at all meetings this year has been good, and all members of the board are eager for a successful and popular annual.
 INTERCLLSS MEEI

Track Meet Scheduled for Two O'Clock Saturday.

Manager J. A. Distin has announced the following officials to take charge of the annual interclass track meet Saturday:
Referee-Prof. J. A. R. Scott.
Starter-W. C. Lowe.
Clerk of course-R. Alfred Waite. Assistant clerks of course-Leon L Turner, Robert Simpson.
Timers-Thomas N. West, Friend L. Wells, Charles E. Miller.
Judges at finish-Robert R. Stone, Edwand N. Packard, Harry Myron.
Field judges-George S. Hares, C. O. Hayps, Frank E. Brundage, Fred W. Barrett.
Measurers-Seth H. Rice, Charles Hargitt. Fred Jones.
Scorers-Dwight Stone, F. W. Whitney, E. Stuart Mills, G. Harold Merry. Announcer-James C. Madden.
The meet will be called promptly at two o'clock, as the large number of contestants will cause the meet to be rather a long one.
Francis W. Cowell of Buffalo, an old track man and coach, is assisting in the coaching this week.
VARSITY SQUAD OFF FOR NEW haven.
Nineteen players, together with Coach
Hutchins, Manager Ackley, Assistant Manager Griffith and several alumni left the city last evening at 11:05 o'clock for Hartford. The men will practice on Trinity Field this afternoon, and go on to New Haven this evening. The men who were taken on the trip are Captain Park, Burrell, Russell, Tucker, Dempster, Stephenson, Marcy, Magoon, Van Duyn, Fitzgerald, Har wood, Brown, Powell, Parker, Lyon, Rice, Stimpson, Curtis, Belcher. A large crowd of students formed in front of Liberal Arts College at 8:30, and marched to the station in a body. The team was given a rousing send-off as they left their Alma Mater. The students left the station about ten, as the men had to retire at that time.
The men were put through the handest scrimmage of the season yesterday afternoon. During the last ten minutes of play was seen the best work on the oval this year. The men seemed toget the "football fight," that the coachhas tried to drill into them all season. In speaking of the game, the coach said before leaving last night, "if the men play as hard Saturday as they did the last ten minutes this afternoon their chances will be increased threefold. That is the way I have tried to get them to get into the game ever since I came here. I hope they will keep it up."

College spirit is a fine thing. In fact; it is an essential thing to every successful university. But there are often many mistaken ideas as to what constitutes college spirit. We have learned through the press during the past week that some so-called forms of college spirit are not that at all. These remarks were especially directed toward football interest and enthusiasm. There are, however, other kinds of college spirit which may not be quite as important, but are nevertheless very essential. There should be a spirit at Syracuse, as there is at other universities, to support the college publications. The college paper is an institution of the University, and should be considered in that light. There ought to be a spirit to promote the best interests of college journalism as well as the athletics.
We do not consider it the proper spirit for one person in a boarding house to take the paper and a dozen others read it. It is not the proper spirit for a person to subscribe for a paper, and when he or she goes home and finds some one else in the house has previously subscribed, to order the subscription cancelled. The case is about analogous to a a person who would stay away from a football game to save pay ing the admission price, and then rushing to the first person who comes off the field for full particulars of the game. You want to see the game with your own eyes; you should read the news from your own paper.

COMMENTS FROM THE PRESS.
The following reprints are taken from the New York Sun the day previous to and the day after the Poughkeepsie races:
June 28-Syracuse is at the Cannon House and is being watched with interest. The general impression is that she will finish last, but there are those who say that Coach James Ten Eyek is capable of surprising every one.
June 29-Syracuse University, practically a novice in intercollegiate rowing affairs, was triumphant on the Hudson river here this afternoon, winning the freshmen and 'varsity eight-oared races in magnificent style. To the veteran professional, James A. Ten Eyck, who coached these splendid crews from Syracuse, belongs much of the credit. He took rugged material in hand last winter and with accomplished skill and commendable patience he moulded the young oarsmen into such perfect shape that when they swept down the river, cheered by 30,000 spectators, they presented a thrilling spectacle and set their few followers wild with delight.
Syracuse and Cornell, incidentally, outclassed the other crews, both 'varsity and freshmen, to such a marked degree that comparisons would be heartrending.
The Syracuse freshmen got all they could out of their stroke. The blades cut the water cleanly and left it smoothly, the shell showing no perceptible hang on the recover and always proceeding with remarkable power. Cornell's stroke was the same that previous Courtney crews have used, but the Ithacans were simply up against a better crew. That was all.
As if to make their victory beyond dispute, the Syracusans hit up their stroke to 37 in the last quarter of a mile, and their shell fairly jumped out of the water as it shot ahead. Cornell was dead tired.

TRACK NUMERALS AWARDED. Dr. W. M. Smallwood, chairman of the Athletic Governing Board, recently stated to an Orange representative that "ASA" for track work done in the season of 1904 had been awarded to the men whose names follow. To earn the "ASA" in track a man must have done regular training and must have competed in a track meet with another college. Chairman Smallwood stated that the following list is official and has been voted upon, although the men have probably not received notification cards because of necessary delay:
Claude P. Terry, M. W. Greenfield '04; D. R. Miller, P. V. Hoyler, '05; G. W. Mitchell, H. A. Stebbins, P. T. Grant, D. L Tucker, F. W. Treible, Light Practice Yesterday Held on Trinity Field.

[Special to The Orange.] Hartpord, Conn., Oct. 14.-The Syracuse University football squad, comprising nineteen men, the coach, manager and assistant manager, together with several alumni, reached Hartford today. The men were put through light practice this aftemoon on Trinity College Field. The principal work done was in running the signals, and catching the ball from the kickoff. The coach reports that the Leam is in good physical condition. The Yale men are in superb condition for the game, and anticipate no difficulty in rolling up a large score. It is probable that Shevlin will play at end tomorrow. This will make the Yale line average over 200 pounds. Coach Hutchins refuses to make any remarks concerning the game, but says the Syracuse men will fight to the last.
The probable lineup for today's game is:

THE CREW CELEBRATION.

Plans are being perfected as rapidly as possible toward the great crew celebration. Nothing definite, however, has as yet been arranged. The article in last night's city papers concerning the plans was entirely from the ingenious mind of some would-be authority, and entirely without foundation. As soon as the plans are definitely arranged, they will be announced by the committee having the matter in charge.

see the oame at home.

You will not need to beat New Haven to watch the progress of the game. The Daily Orange has arranged for a complete bulletin service and will re ceive messages every few minutes direct from the field. A large checker board will be arranged in front of the grand stand today, and the progress of the game will be marked upon it. As the messages are received they will be announced to the spectators. Come to the track meet, and while you see that watch the Yale-Syracuse game also, There is no expense to you for either The University provides the track meet; the Daily Orange furnishes the bulletins.
F. W. COWELL TRACK COACH.

Francis W. Cowell of Buffalo is one of the applicants for coach of the 'varsity track and field team. Mr. Cowell has been in Syracuse since Wednesday and yesterday aftemoon came out in a suit and assisted somewhat in coaching. Mr. Cowell has a magnificent build for a small man. He wears the "C" of Col umbia and holds the Bucknell record for the pole vault, and is besides a hurdler, jumper and distance runner, having trained under the leading coaches. of the country, such men as Murphy of Yale and Moakley of Cornell. Mr. Cowell has had three years of medicine, having specialized in anatomy.
Mr. Cowell has coached the track team of Western University of Pennsyivania, where he caused his men to break all the college track and field records. He has had several lucrative offers from smaller universities, but is anxious to coach the team of Syracuse because of its growing size and importance. Mr. Cowell will undoubtedly receive due consideration from the authorities.
SOPHOMORES DRAW UP RULES FOR FRESHMEN.
The members of the sophomore class have found it necessary to draft a series of rules to govern the freshmen. They are as follows:

1. Every "fresh" must provide himself with and wear a green cap.
2. "Fresh" are not allowed to smoke on the campus or athletic field.
3. "Fresh" when leaving any of the college buildings must stand at the door and allow ladies and upperclassmen to pass out.
4. "Fresh" shall not sing more than twenty minutes in the hall after chapel.
5. "Fresh" shall carry the football team from the field after every game.

 MEET TODAYLarge Number of Entries ---Exciting Contests Expected.

The annual interclass track meet will be held on the oval this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Prizes, consisting of jerseys, will be given for the winners of the first three places in each of the thirteen track and field events. First place will count 5 points, second place 3 points, and third place 1 point. Every man who wins two points will be entitled to wear his class numerals. The list of officials given in yesterday's Orange is an efficient one and should run of the meet well.
Excitement over the meet is beginning to run high. The Freshman Class has the largest number of men entered, but the question is, will they appear to hear the starter's pistol? K. B. Squires, captain of the Junior team, states that his men are in good shape and will all be present to win the meet. The Seniors and Sophomores have all been sending out more men than usual, and either may be more of a factor than is expected.
The following list includes all but a few of the men eligible to compete this afternoon. No limit is placed on the number of events which one man may enter.

much pleased with the result of the game. "I am well satisfied" said he, "with the showing the team made. They played nicely every minute. But no one man played better than any other, and no one man deserves more praise than another. Every man played his best game for this time of the year. They got into the game from the start. All the scores were made by straight football. Yale did not tackle back of our line but once during the whole game, while we got behind their line several times. Curtis punted finely and our ends easily excelled theirs. Yale had to try three times for the first down. They would never have got the last touchdown if Park had not insisted on staying in the game. He was badly hurt, and the Yale men knew it. They therefore directed their plays through him. The ball wascarried over just as the time was up.
The press dispatches saying that Park fumbled the ball are wrong. It is true the referee so stated, but it was easy to see from the sidelines that the ball did not touch him. When Burrell tried to kick the goal from the touchdown, the ball was off a few feet from the side lines, and so made a very difficult goal. His first try for a goal from the field failed because it was got off to slow. The fellows all fought hard, but the team is not perfectly well. They did better than I had expected. We were far superior to the Yale men in physical condition. They took out much time, while we were obliged to call time only for injuries. Captain Park will not be able to get into the game for several days."
Ned Glass, one of the Yale coaches, said, "In team play the Syracuse boys are far better than Yale. The team is coming to the front fast, and will be heand from before the season closes." The crowd at the game appreciated the work of the Syracuse men very much. When the team left Saturday night, a crowd of Yale men were at the station to cheer them. Brill of Harvard and DeWitt of Princeton were present at the game.
"It is no excuse," said Coach Hutchins," "because Yale played several substitutes in the second half. Football is played with brains and not beef. One of the worst mistakes that can be made is to use poor judgment in picking the team. There is, anyway, some advantage in putting in fresh material. But Syracuse had the charge on them all the afternoon."

a OREAT CELEBRATION.

The students and alumni who were in the grandstand watched with intense interest the bulletins of the game dispatched from Yale field by Frank Sowers ' 04 of the Syracuse Herlad and Cyrus B. Griffith '06 of the Daily Orange. When the message came announcing that Burrell had kicked agoal the crowd went wild. Then when the news of the touchdown was announced pandemonium reigned. There was no need to urge a celebration. The students instinctively planned it, and began immediately witha snake dance around the

The committee having charge of the crew celebration has been hard at work during the past week, but finds it no easy task to make arrangements for such a large affair. But plans will soon be perfected and announced to the student body. Meanwhile every student of the University should help all it is possible. There will be some sort of a celebration, and it is the duty of everyone to boom it. We have heard a certain few say that it is too late, that not enough would go and similar things which might tend to lessen the interest in such a celebration. It must be made a big affair as we are confident it will be. Every student should boom it with all the college spirit and enthusiasm he has. It cannot be made a success by a committee of four or five working alone, but every five working alone, but every student must co-operate and push the thing along. Talk it up among each other, and urge everyone to plan to attend this celebration, which will be without any doubt the greatest thing of this nature ever held at Syracuse, and which will not be equalled the coming year. If a person missess this celebration, he will have missed the greatest function in his college life. Watch for the plans and prepare for a big time.

STUOENTS GIVEN Hall Holiday

Enthusiasm Ran High

 All YesterdayForenoon.

Without any previous announcement, there was a big mass meeting in the chapel of the Hall of Languages yesterday morning. The students from the entire University seemed to gather there instinctively, and the hall was filled to its capacity. The Law College was represented by a large delegation, as well as the College of Applied Science. The Chancellor was also present, as were a large number of the faculty. Fastened upon the organ was a large banner bearing the figure 17 in blue and 9 in orange. The former were three inches high, while the latter measured five feet.
Chancellor Day was the first to speak, and made reference to a remark by an alumnus, who advised the students not to get the big head over the Yale game. The Chancellor said, "When I look at the figures here back of me, I think you are disposed to enjoy a little the big head. These figures will be seen in the history of the University for decades to come. The large figure on the right will stand for a long time; the other is a small one, and exceedingly blue-and there is no place where it looks quite so blue as at New Haven. The big head-why, that is exactly what we want in this University. We want big heads enough to be self-reliant, to boast of our institution, and to stand up for it whether we are the upper dog or the under dog. Never make excuses for the big head, but make it equal to anything going. We want such a spirit on the streets. Every student coming in contact with students from other colleges should have big head enough to have supreme reliance and pride in your own institution. There is a good example of the lack of enough big head when our boys left the city last Thursday night. They had a better estimation of themselves than we had of them. We ought to have said as a whole University, faculy and city, that we expected them to score. We want to get over the spirit of saying that we will be satisfied with a score of 30 to 0 . I am glad our coaches and men had a better estimation of themselves. Say hereafter that we believe in the team, and believe they will win. If they don't win, believe in them just the same and shout as though they had won.
"There was fine playing at Yale, but it was nothing to what it would have been if we had sent in our 'Varsity. You know we played only substitutes, and they played pretty well for substitutes, too. Next time we will take the 'Varsity. But in all serioumess let me say to you that you must never be found saying that we played substitutes. Let us have no baby whining.

A college generally plays its best until the issue is in doubt. There is no doubt but that Yale played her best.
"I want to express my gratification to the coaches and every man on the team. We have as fine material for a winning team today as ever since the University was founded. I received a telegram from an alumnus Saturday saying that we had a Ten Eyck en the football field. It looks much like that. If the Board now hires the proper coach for the track team, we will have the right men in the right places. The real secret for our success in the fu ture is a moral and manhood secret. Our men are hard-working men. They worked hard before they came here, and they keep it up after they get here. If you want to be great in athleties, you must put emphasis upon the moral and manhood development. believe in athletics, and I know many of the professors do. It wouid be well if the rest of them did. I am proud of the University in all its phases, and of the student body as a student body. I was especially gratified yesterday moming. When you marched up through the streets there was a marked deference to the Holy Day. I believe Yale, as a University, is glad to wel come us, we shall be glad to go and try again. It is quite likely that next year we will make a better score.' Let us have for our motto:
"We will be the best and compete with the best, and the best will have to be at their best if they best us."
Dean Smalley then tried to make a few announcements, but the crowd called for a speech. The students never ask the Dean for anything they don't get, so they got the speech. He spoke of the great enthusiasm plainly manifest, and of the surprises in football this fall. "If our team could go down to Yale in a week," said he, "I think the score would be even better. We are guided in all branches of athleties by men who are skilled in their work." Professor Losey was then called for by the crowd. After some reluctance he made a few appropriate remarks, saying, "was never but once more delighted than when I heard the result of Saturday's game. I am always intensely interested in anything which will place Syracuse Unversity among the foremost of the country. I want always to stand with you, whether in athletics or intellectual life."
Chancellor Day then left to meet an engagement, and announced that he had told the Dean to give the students anything they wanted. They called upon Manager Ackley and all the football men present for speeches. After Manager Ackley told many interesting episodes of the game and trip, Powell, Dempster, Magoon, Russell, Fitzgerald, Brown and Belcher made a few remarks. Center Russell's speech in full follows: "The send-off the students gave us was a great help to the team."

Coach Hutchlns Speaks.

Dean Smalley closed the meeting in Liberal Arts by asking the students what more they wanted. Everyone got it. The day was ideal, so the crowd adjourned to the slope of Crouse College bill, where the college songs, new and old, were sung, and college yells given. The co-eds were present in front of the Library and were called upon for the song. They responded nobly.- Later they were asked to give the yells, and again they made the air ring with feminine voices.
Coach Hutchins came along at this time and was called upon to speak. He has the spirit, too, and didn't think of refusing. The coach said, "As I look on this portion of the congregation [meaning the men] I see several faces which mean more at this time than any words can express. I see Harwood, Van Duyn, Magoon, Dempster and various others. I want to emphasize one thing-you don't need anything else. I want to say a word for Yale. It is a recognized fact that not one of these excuses about the substitutes eminates from Yale. I can picture Captain Hogan's feelings when he realized what a mistake he had made. The Yale team didn't seem ready to fight as hard as they had to. If Kinney and Bloomer were not in the line-up in the first half, why were they not put in in the second? Simply because they were not in condition to be put in. Our men were in much better physical condition. You must reeognize the fact that your team is in training. I have never beard of an instance of a man breaking trairing. I have never seen so few absences from practice among the 'Varsity squad.
"We only cla'm to be in midseason shape; the men are only growing, and last Saturday was merely an instance of their growth. Anything before Saturday was merely an episode of our preparation. One thing should stimulate us-this squad of yours is not going to swell up, but they recognize the fact that what is done is done, and are not going to rest on the reputation made last Saturday. They will grow; the class of men on the squad gre men who will be men. This celebration will be a continued celebration."
After these remarks, Van Duyn, Harwood and Rice, who were not Present at chapel time, spoke. sicretary Waite also made some enthusiastic remarks, urging every man to get out and try for the team. A carriage soon drove up containing Captain Park, After the cheers of the crowd had subsided, the captain spoke a short time. A large crowd of students marched to the station yesterday afterno ${ }^{\circ}$ n and met Stimpson. They escorted him to his home with cheers and yells.
debatino union elect officers
The representatives of the Parious class clubs to the University Debating Union met yesterday afternoon and elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Lloyd L. Cheney; vice president, Fred W. Hartwell: fecretary, J. C. Tressler; treasurer, Hary E. Woolever.

The enrollment at Dartmouth this fall is 860 . The freshmen number 260 and over 200 were turnied away, owing to lack of accommodations.

PLANS FOR THE

 WEST PONT GAME
600 Students Will Go

 on a Special Train.A movement was started yesterday by the seniors to run a special train to the West Point game, which comes November 19. Messrs. Earl Rice and Cyrus Griffith were appointed to consult with the railroad officials as to arrangements. It is thought a low rate can be secured, and at least 600 students will accompany the team and cheer them on to victory.
The committee having the matter in charge expect that a special train can be secured for the day of the game. A large number of students have already signified their intention of attending the game if such arrangements can be made. It is thought that a very low rate for the round trip can be secured. This will be the last game of the season, and the team will be in much better shape then than now. West Point held Harvard down to a goal from the field last Saturday, so all eyes are now turned to the West PointSyracuse game.

THAT SONG BOOK.

It seems likely at last that we are to have a Syracuse song book. Yesterday A. F. Rider, editor of the Herald, offered to have the publication made, providing the students will co-operate with him and the Herald. A committee will be appointed soon and definite plans made.

SWEET INJURED.

At the football practice yesterday afternoon James A. Sweet ' 07 had this arm broken in two places. An ambulance was called and Sweet was taken to the hospital. This is the first accident which has happened on the field this season.

NOTICES.

The regular meeting of the English Club will be held this evening at eight o'clock in the English seminar room. The Rev. Mr. Clark of this city will address the club on "Arnold and his Poetry." A large attendance is desired.

Oh! glory be to Syracuse upon the waters blue,
Her sons are up, her sons are up, All loyal, staunch and true.
The Orange flag now leads us on As proudly as of yore,
And we'll place it first on the finish line
Victorious evermore.
Oh, the lads on land seem close at hand Heave Ho! Heave Ho!
By their songs they cheer us on our way Heave Ho! Heave Ho!
Across the wave comes a ringing cheer For Syracuse,

FOOTBALL STATISTICS.

The following list of statistics has been compiled by Professor Edwin G. Dexter of the University of Illinois for Spaulding's Official Football Guide:
1, About one college man in ten in the country plays football.
2. About twice as large a proportion of the men in the small colleges play the game as in the larger universities. 3. The proportion of men playing seems to be slightly decreasing. seems to be slightly decreasing. seems to be slightly decreasing.
4. About one player in 35 is injured sufficiently each season to necessitate loss of time from college duties.

5. The number of college football players who are permanently injured, or who die from the effects of the game is so small as to be practically a negligible quantity.
6. College football is adequately supervised in nearly all the institutions.
7. The opinion of college officers recarding the value of the game is about 7 to 1 in favor.
8. The newspaper reports of injuries to college football players seem to be greatly exaggerated.

SIGMA CHI INSTALLED AT SYRACUSE

Chi Alpha Sigma Be comes Chapter of Na tional Fraternity.

The Psi Psi chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity was installed Saturday evening by the Alpha Alpha chapter of Hobart College and the Alpha Phi chapter of Cornell University. The Nu Nu chapter of Columbia University also assisted in the initiation and installa tion ceremonies.
The Psi Psi chapter, which was formerly the Chi Alpha Sigma, local society, has forty members, active and alumni, and occupies the house at No. 701 Irving avenue, formerly the Gamma I'hi Deta housé.
The Chi Alpha Sigma society was formed on May 19th, 1901, at the home of W. H. MacClellan, and the charter members were: James C. Peete, Clark S. Langton, H. F. Connell, H. W. Connell, J. L. Connell, W. H. MacClellan, Hyzer W. Jones. The society was formed with the idea of all fratemities, mutual help and fellowship. It was the intention of the society to affiliate with a national society and a year later Sigma Chi was the fraternity chosen. The result of the petition was shown at the installation when the entire society and several freshmen pledged this year were initiated into the fraternity. The installation began at noon Saturday with a luncheon at the chapter house for the men from out of town who came to assist in the installation. This was followed by preliminary ceremonies and the installation proper began at 6 o'elock, ending at 10 , when there was a banquet at the Yates Hotel.

The Initiates

The members, active and alumni, of Chi Alpha Sigma received into Sigma Chi Saturday evening were:
Class of $1903-$ H. W. Connell, city.
1904 - Hyzer W. Jones, Rome.
1905-Roy R. Brockett, Angelica; Hugh R. Smith, North Pitcher; G. Harold Merry, city; Edward D. Cronk, Utica.
1907-Earl R. Elmer, Monroe, Mich; Robert Simpson, third. Fulten; Edward H. Sherwood, New York; Arthur J. Trussell, city; Charles R. Burns, Amsterdam; Henry C. Michelsen, New York; J, Lloyd Golly, Rome; Harris Cookingham, Red Hook.
1908-Francis B. Mastin, Oswego; Franklyn Holly, Walton; Oscar Taylor, Cazenovia.
The Sigma Chi men here for the initiation were; Grand Consul Orla B.

Taylor, Detroit, Mich.; Grand Praetor W. H. P. Conklin, Brooklyn, N. Y. From Hobart, D. LeRoy Williams. Raymond G. Hannahs, J. Lorenz Sporer, Henry D. Marshall, Samuel S. Sloan, Arthur H. Foster, Carl H. Bremer, Edward Baxter, Benjamin Merrit Tucker, Barent Lambert Visscher, Robert Mackie Hogarth, Ashley Thompson Pitt, Arthur J. Foley; from Cornell, Clinton R. Goodrich, L. E. Oscamp, Louis Rieber, Harry Rieber, Harry Miller, Thomas Henderson, P. A Schenck, William Talley, Philip Harriman; from Columbia, Benjamin F. Longnecker; local alumni, the Rev. David Crosby Huntington, Honore C. Connette and Horace G. Porter.

Banquet at the Yates.

The ceremonies were concluded at 10 o'clock with a banquet at the Yates.
The Sigma Chi fraternity was organ ized at Miami University in 1855 and was originally called the Sigma Phi society, but after the theft of the original constitution necessitated a change to Sigma Chi. The new fraternity was governed by the senior chapter until 1882, when a general convention was called and the headquarters of the fraternity established at Chicago. Sigma Chi has the honor of being the only fraternity which had an active chapter during the Civil war. The "Constantin" chapter was composed of Confederate soldiers and the meetings were held about the camp fires. The fraternity is represented in the following colleges and universities:
Albion college, Beloit college, Bucknell university, Butler university, Central Columbia college of Kentucky, Columbian college, Cornell university, Dartmouth college, Denison college, DePauw university, Dickinson college, HamkenSidney college, Honover college, Hobart college, Illinois Wesleyan university, Indiana university, Kentuckey State college, Lehigh university, Leland Stanford, Jr., university, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Miami university, Northwestern universlty, Ohio State university, Ohio Wesleyan university, Pennsylvania university, Perdue university, Randolph-Macon college, University of California, University of Cincinnati, University of Illinois, University of Mississippi, University of Nebraska, University of North Carolina, University of Pennsylvania, University of Southern California, University of Missouri, University of Texas, University of Virginia, University of Washington, University of Wiscons!!n, Woorster University, Vanderbilt University, Washington and Lee University, West Virginia University.

PRESS CLUB OROANIZED.

The Press Club of the University was organized yesterday morning with the following officers: President, A. S. Copeland; vice-president, A. E. Moody; secretary, L. P. Collings; treasurer, Oscar J. Brown; chairman of executive committee, A. F. Rider.

CEEEBRTION WILL

 BE A BIG ONE
Arrangements Are Being Made as Rapidly as Possible.

The committee appointed to arrange for the crew celebration has been hard at work trying to make plans which would be satisfactory to the majority of the students. The committee has found the task by no meens an easy one, and are at present endeavoring to arrange for a suitable place to hold the celebration. It will probably take place in the Alhambra if that building can be secured. There will be a light dinner, which will be secured at a very reasonable price. Nearly every college has one or two distinct college dinners during the year, and it is planned to make this the first of a series of such functions.
The celebration will be not only for the great crew victory, but for our victories on the gridiron as well. It is planned to make it thegreatest athletic meeting in the history of the University. At this time the presentation of cups to the crew men will take place. The Chancellor, Deans and members of the faculty will participate as well as the alumni and prominent business men of the city. The Mayor and other well-known men will be invited.
The date has not as yet been definitely arranged, and cannot for a few days. The Chancellor desires the meeting to be the greatest ever held here, and advises that sufficient time be taken to make it such. It is expected that the alumni will make a large contribution toward the expenses, so that the tax upon the student body will be very reasonable. It will be a function which no one can afford to miss, and which none who attend will ever forget.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION On Monday evening Miss Sibley met the candidates for the girls' basketball teams. About fifty reported at the gymnazium. A short practice was held in which several of the freshmen girls showed a good knowledge of the game. Practice will be held each Monday and Wednesday evenings at seven o'clock. It is hoped that each class may be represented by a team and that interclass games may be played this winter.
Trials in the Women's Tennis Tournament for this fall are being held on the courts each day. Those wishing to enter this tournament should see Miss Sibley at once and arrange for their games.
Women desiring to join the Association should hand their names to Miss Sibley or Antoinette B. Burt, '06. A large membership is expected for this winter.

One thousand Syracuse flags, large size, 25 cents, at M. J. Hamey's.

NOTICES,

Men who won first, second or third places in the interclass track meet can get their prizes at the custodian's office in the "gym" the last three days of this week between 4 and 5. All men must return the track goods obtained from the custodian. J. A. Distin, Manager.

The men whose names were given in a recent Orange as having won their " S " in track in the season of 1904, can get same by calling at the custodian's office the last three days of this week between 4 and 5. J. A. Distin, Manager.

This morning, Wednesday, at nine o'clock the seats for Wizard of Oz go on sale at the Wieting box office. Performances to occur Friday and Saturday with Saturday Matinee.
The first regular session of the Elec-tro-chemical seminar will be held at 7:15 p. m. Thursday evening, Oct. 27, in the Chemistry lecture room. Chapter I of Arhenius' Electro-chemistry will be discussed.

All men who wish to run cross country may report at the "gym" today at 5 o'clock. Bring rubber running shoes.
K. B. Squires, Captain.

The Glee and Instrumental clubs will have their pictures taken at Dinturf's, Friday at one o'clock. All members to appear with dress suits and black ties.

ENOLISH CLUB.

The second regular meeting of the English Club was held last evening in the Seminar room. The Rev. Mr. Clark, of this city, addressed the club on "Arnold and his Poetry." The talk was enjoyed very much by all those present. Several new members were received last evening. An amendment to the by-laws was passed, allowing students taking elective work in the department of Oratory and Forensics to be eligible to membership. Heretofore only those students electing work in the English department were eligible.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI.

Miss Ella C. Bohr '04 is visiting friends on the hill.
Daniel M. Blue '06-ex, who was obliged to leave college because of illhealth, was in the city last week for the installation ceremonies for the local chapter of Sigma Chi.
Ernest R. Smith, assistant in Physics, is seriously ill and unable to meet his classes.
B. L. Graves ' 66 is now in charge of the "Oldsmobile" exhibit at St. Louis. Mr. Graves expects to be in college again next year.

TENNIS TRIALS.

The second drawings for the tennis trials have been nearly all played now. H. D. Smith defeated Stoddard, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1; Houseknecht defeated Hargitt; 7-5, 6-1; Hanners defeated Ranney, 6-3, 6-2; Hayes defeated Grey, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

THEY'RE for folks who've stopped growing-for figures that have rounded out by age. You-chaps in your eighteens and nineteens and twenties, have a bit of expansion still coming to you. Regular clothes don't fit you because you are not regularized, yet. You need a bit of help from the tailor. Col'ege Brand Clothes are built to help you out until you're "finished." They give you an extra fuliness across the chest, and extra breadth across the shoulders. The coats are full and loose. The pants have an unusual amount of peg. Styles that won't please the father of the family because they're too pronounced. Just a few suits in each pattern because you'd naturally prefer not to be dressed like every other man you know. We ought to ask a great deal more than we do.

The One was nominated for his availability. the other for his ability. The one invites your attention to a schedule of promises, the other to a record of performances. The one, if elected, will, like Cleveland, be embarrassed by a heterogeneous crowd of orators, theorists and obstructionists, who will make his administration a failure and his life a burden. The other, if elected, will in the future, as in the past, be sustained by a body of experienced legislators and executive officers who have learned how to do things. -From Congressman Driscoll's speech of acceptance.

 Certain Reporters are Scored and Dancing Club is Abolished.Chancellor Day was present yesterday morning at the chapel exercises in Liberal Arts college, and spoke a short time. He referred to certain articles which have recently appeared in the city papers, and which have been to a large degree detrimental to the best interests of the University. Prominent space was given a few days ago to a much exaggerated account of certain $d$ ings at one of the dormitories of the University. The article was of the sonsational nature, and quite devoid of truth. "There should be a sentiment," said the Chancellor, "among the students that would make it exceedingly unwholesome for any student reporting such items as this." He stated that a book against coeducation was founded on just such false reports as these. He further stated that any reporter who continued to thus misrepresent the happenings on the hill would be replaced by someone else.
The Chancellor then referred to a certain dancing club, called the Piety Hill Club, which was recently started by University students. The elub had planned to give a dance at Westminster Hall each week during the winter. Many students have attended these functions which have been given thus far. The Chancellor called to notice how sensitive the public is concerning the mingling of the sexes at college. much more than at any other place. He stated very emphatically that students of the University will not be permitted to hire halls and manage dances under any circumstances or under any name, and if this club in question should continue after this announcement that the students involved would no longer be with us. "These things cannot be permitted here for two reasons: first, there must be the utmost care in regard to your association together as sexes in college. The men should be just as careful as the women, and the women should be exceedingly careful. In the second place, a club like this does not work for scholarship We are here for study and scholarship. Upon this ground alone it is an imposs:bility. We can not have it, and we will not."

SCRUBS SCORE ON 'VARSITY.

The 'Varsity and Scrubs were lined up yesterday afternoon for scrimmage work. When the game was called, the scrubs had scored a touchdown, kicked a goal, and made a safety, while the 'Varaity made two touchdowns on the scrubs. Captain Park was not in the game yesterday, but coached the 'Varsity in running signals. During the early part of the afternoon the coaches worked with the frechmen and sophomores, preparing them for their annuil contest. Van Duyn is acting captain of the 'Varsity while Park is out of the game.
The acrubs kicked off to the 'Varsity but soon recovered the ball on a fumble. By line plunges they worked the ball back to the 'Varsity's 10 yard line, when the scrubs lost the ball on another fumble. The 'Varsity was forced to punt. The scrubs made steady gains, and the ball was given to Clark, who hurdled the line a ad ran 15 yards for a touchdown. Clark kicked the goal. On the second kickoff, the scrubs got the ball on downs, and soon forced the 'Varsity over their own goal line for a sufety. The 'Varsity kicked from the 20 yard line, and the scrubs carried the ball back by short line plunges to the 20 yard line, where Parker got the ball and ran the length of the field for a touchdown. Curtis kicked the goal. The 'Varsity then kicked to the scrubs and held for downs. Curtis was then forced to punt, but the 'Varsity soon recovered the ball and carried it over for a touchdown. ## Debatilag ITTERESTS

 ARE ENCOURAGMGIt is Probable an Intercollegiate Debate Will Be Held Here.

Debating interests in the Univtrsity never looked brighter than they do this year. There is much material in college now for first-class teams. The class clubs, under the supervision of the Debating Union, have been organized, and are starting off with bright prospects. The membership in all the clubs is already large, and many other names will be added to the rolls soon. Last year was the first time a regular system and organization was tried at Syracuse. The experiment proved very successful, and consequently will be continued this year. With the creation of the new department of Oratory and Forensics, under the supervision of Professor Losey, the debating work will receive a great impetus.
At a recent meeting of the Debating Union it was decided to bring some intercollegiate debate to Syracuse this year. It is not known yet which col lege can be induced to send a team to Syracuse, though it is probable it will be either Dartmouth or Colgate. Syracuse now has only one intercollegiate debate scheduled, and that with Wesleyan, to be held at Middletown next spring. The management is very desirous of scheduling some contest to be held here.
The interclass debates, which were begun two years ago, will be continued this year. The contest between the sophomores and freshmen will doubtless be the first, but the date has not as yet been fixed. It is hoped that the Law College will organize a club and choose a team to compete with the various teams on the hill. Medals will be awarced again this year to those who make the various teams. Gold medals are given to each member of an intercollegiate team, silver medals to the victonous class team, and bronze medals to the defeated class teams. It is also hoped that a cash prize can also be offered for the best work in public debate. If this can be arranged, the debate will be held in the spring or at Commencement time.

There will be a meeting of the Prohibition club, Friday evening at 7 o'clock in room $33-34$, Hall of Languages. Old members of the club and all who are interested in the Prohibition work, are urged to be present. At 7:30 the club will go in a body' to the City Hall to hear the address of Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition Candidate for President. Wm. Chandler, Pres.
All members of the freshman track team please meet in the Gymnasium Thursday, Oct. 20 at one o'clock.
German tutoring class will meet in room 30 at 6:45 o'clock Thursday.

A Sketch of the Association and lts

Work.

The New York Alumni Association of Syracuse University was formed on the evening of November 20, 1891, and the first dinner took place in the following January. At that time the alumni of the University living in and near the city numbered nearly one hundred. For some months prior to the meeting in which the organization took place the advisability of some" formal gathering had been discussed. The need of some closer tie was felt, because the alumni were comparatively few and they admitted a lonesome feeling.
Some months before this, Francis E. Trowbridge, then a trustee of the University, was host at a Syracuse dinner which took place at the old Windsor Hotel, later the scene of a disastrous fire. While this was not precisely an alumni dinner in the sense in which they are now held, because Mr. Trowbridge paid all the expense, the effect was identical. Those present had so much pleasure in the meeting of old friends and acquaintances that the idea of holding another was favorably considered. At this dinner Chancellor Sims was present and many others from Syracuse.
It was at the initiative of Rev. E. S. Tipple that the gathering of November 20, 1891, took place. He was then the clergyman of St. Luke's church on West 41st street and sent out the invitations. The Tribune of the next morning contained the following item: "A largely attended meeting of the alumni of Syracuse University was held lase night in the lecture room of St . Luke's Methodist Episcopal church, in 4lst street near Sixth avenue. Professor B. C. Mathews of Newark, N. J., as temporary chairman, called the meeting to order at half-past $80^{\prime}$ clock. Letters of regret were read from Chancellor C. N. Sims of Syracuse University, from the Rev. John M. Reid, the Rev. Karl Schwartz; rector of St. Timothy's church, and from many others. It was decided to form a permanent alumni association of Syracuse University for New York city, and the following officers were unanimously elected to serve for the first year: The Rev. Ezra S. Tipple, president; A. A. Ashmun, first vice-president; Professor B. C. Mathews, second vice-president; Miss E. S. Leyden, third vice-president; Paul FitzGerald, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. L. Walsworth, recording secretary; Ernest Fox, treasurer. A comnittee of two was instructed to draw up a constitution and by-laws and a committee of three to arrange for an alumni dinner to take place soon after the Christmas holidays. The canvass of the alumni list showed that nearly a hundred persons graduated from Syracuse University were living in or within twenty miles of New York city. The suggestion that the association hold a dinner every year, some time in the winter and after the holiday season, met general approval. It was also suggested that the association hold three or four meetings every year. A vote of thanks was given to the Rev. Ezra S. Tipple for his hospitality in entertaining the association.
"The meeting adjourned at a late hour, subject to the call of the president. Among those present were: A. A. Ashmun '68, Francis E. Trowbridge '68, Professor E. F. Cuykendall '76, Professor B. C. Mathews '77, Miss B. F. Crane ' 77 , the Rev. E. Fox '79, the Rev. E. S. Tipple '84, Franklin Pierce '84, Miss Sylvia Fox '84, E. S. Maclay '95, Rev. C. X. Hutchinson '87, Jennie L. Whitbread '87, Miss E. T. Leyden '87, Miss Mary L. Collins '87, Lyman Pierce' 88, T. B. Hillyer ' 88, F. G. Bannister '88, William Harmon Van Allen '90, Horace E. Stout '91, Paul FitzGerald '91, and Mrs. C. L. Walsworth '91."
Since that time many other Syracuse graduates have come to New York, so that we now have a record of about five hundred. We now hold an annual formal dinner on the last Friday of January in each year, the date for the next being set for January 27, 1905, at the beautiful new Hotel Astor. But in addition to this dinner many informa gatherings take place. The last was held in the Lion Rathskeller on Friday evening, October 7. This was a smoker, and the attendance was almost entirely of men graduates of the last few years. Forty-seven were there and they made the rafters ring. At this meeting a committee was chosen to consider the organization of a Syracuse Club. It now seems probable that this project will succeed, and in that case a house will be hired and rented soon. The next informal smoker will be held in the rooms of the New York Press Club on the evening of November 14.

PIERCE IS IMPROVING.
Ralph Pierce ' 07 , who was re ently injured while doing work in the gymnasium, is improving. He was taken to the Hospital of the Good Shepherd, where for a time it was thought that he would not recover, as concussion of the brain was feared. It is now expected that he will be able to leave the hospital in a short time. His father, Rev. W. R. Pierce, pastor of the Seneca St. M. E. Church of Buffalo, is staying with his son.

ILL at the hospital.

Miss Eva Pansy Campbell '07, William W. Townsend '08, and Charles F. Morse ex-'05 are ill at the Homeopathic Hospital, the latter two having typhoid fever. Dr. Gordon W. Hoyt is attending them. All are reported as doing well.
An alumni dinner was given at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House last night in honor of the coaches. The dinner was under the supervision of Edward French.

UNOERCLISSMEN PLAY MONOAY

The 'Varsity Showed up Poorly in Practice Yesterday.

It has been definitely decided that the first game between the sophomores and freshmen will take place on the oval Monday afternoon at two $0^{\prime}$ clock. Heretofore the teams have played a series of three games to decide the championship, but it is not certain yet whether the same plan will be followed this year. It is quite likely that the game next Monday may be the deciding one. The winning team has the privilege of having their class numerals placed on the football banner, which fact causes much rivalry. The game will be especially exciting if this is to be the decisive one. About fifteen sophomores reported for practice yesterday. The freshman team did not line up.
Among the spectators on the side lines at the practice yesterday were several old 'Varsity men, including R. B. Adams, C. J. Jewell, and H. A. Patten. Adams will be in a suit today and aid in coaching, and Patten will do similar work next week. The teams were given hard scrimmage practice yesterday but showed up poorly. The 'Varsity is especially weak ondefensive work. Two scrub teams with several 'Varsity men on each, were lined up, but each team showed slow and unsatisfactory work. At the close of the practice last night Coach Hutchins said "if the team does not show up better than they have thus far this week, Niagara can come down here with any kind of a team and beat them."
Two more men have been added to the training table. Colter was taken on yesterday, and Frank Clark this morning.

REOISTER TODAY.

Today is the third opportunity for students entitled to vote in Syracuse to register. Don't neglect to register today as only one more opportunity will be given. The barn in the rear of 616 S . Crouse is the polling place for the vicinity of the University:
The Syllabus committee, under the direction of the Regents, will meet in the Historical Seminar room Friday evening to complete the syllabus for the courses in History in the high schools of the State.

The Historical Association will meet at $80^{\prime}$ clock Saturday evening in the Seminar room for election of officers.

The first regular meeting of the Historical Association will be held Saturday evening, October 22, at $80^{\prime}$ clock in the Historical Seminar room. offcers will be elected for the ensuing year. A large attendance is desired. Dr. Sperry, President.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Chancellor Day's sather pointed remarks to the reporters of the city" papers the other morning were very much deserved and were appreciated by the student body. He spoke principally of the way in which these reporters exaggerate news items, and of the manner in which they make a big sensational article out of some very simple and inoffensive happening on the hill. But we believe he could have spoken just as fittingly in regard to certain other privileges which certain of the reporters take upon themselves. A reporter who belongs to one of the three under classes, as is the case at Syracuse, has absolutely no right to dictate the policy of the University, or decide what the students shall do or shall not do. It is his place to report facts, and report them with no "coloring up." Everyone understood to what article the Chancellor referred. But there are others just as unreliable which have appeared recently. For instance, a short time ago one of the reporters took it upon himself to decide when and where the crew celebration was to take place, and to arrange all plans. Of course the committee of seniors having the matter in charge would have appreciated his suggestions, and deemed themselves fortunate to be rid of that much work, providing these plans had been in the least degree feasible or even possible. Then a few days later, presumably because the committee had not seen fit toconsult the reporters, they publish an article stating that there will be no celebration.

Such articles as these, together with many others which have appeared this year, are absolutely false. We appreciate the fact that the author of these stories must have some originality of mind, and that the articles serve to fill up the space which the reporter is expected to fill. Otherwise they are worse than useless. The time has come when the students and citizens of this city and other cities must discriminate very carefully as to the validity of news matter in the city dailies. Reporters, without the knowledge of the proper authorities, call mass meetings, fix dates for celebrations, arrange football games, expand a oneinch article about young ladies singing ten minutes into a half column article about "co-eds" yelling three hours. Such reports will do the papers in which they appear no good, and will do

NIGGARA PLAYS HERE TO-DAY

The team from Niagara University will play on the oval this afternoon. Little is known concerning the team this year, but it is expected that the 'Varsity will have little difficulty in rolling up a large score. In the game last year Niagara was defeated 47 to 0 . Captain Park and Stimpson will not be in the game to-day. Marcy and Coulter taking their places: The remainder of the team will line up about as usual at the start, although several substitutes may be used during the course of the game. The line-up at the begining of the game will be as follows:

Fullback.

Parker.
Dr. E. S. Van Duyn will act as umpire, and L. J. Fritcher will referee the game. Game will be called at 30 'clock.
The 'Varsity was given light scrimmage practice yesterday afternoon, being lined up agaiast the sophomore team. Some time was also spent in practice in catching punts and in signal work. There was a scrimmage between the second 'Varsity and the freshman team, although several freshmen eligible to the class team played with the scrubs. Previous to the 'Varsity practice the sophomore and freshman teams lined up for signal practice. Yesterday efternoon was the first time the freshman team had lined up together. In the practice yesterday Walters was accidentally kicked on the ankle and laid up for a time. Coach Hutchins said last night that the long expected brace had come, and that all the men on both teams did very good work.
The sophomore-freshman game will occur Monday afternoon on the oval. Both teams are working hard to win the contest. Manager Hansen said last night that he was very much pleased with the work of the freshmen, considering that it was the first time they had practiced together. The officials for Monday are: Referee, Coach Hutchins umpire, Coach West; head linesman, Captain Park. To-day after the Niagara game especial attention will be given to coaching the two underclass teams. Captain Park, assisted by Brown, Burrell, Byme, Cummings and Russell will coach the sophomores, while Tucker, assisted by Belcher, Magoon, Parker, Rice and Stimpson will coach the freshmen.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Oramge Print Shop, 86 Croton Street.

An honored and old-time custom at Syracuse is that the four classes shall assemble on the second floor after the chapel exercises and give their yell and song. This does not mean that a half dozen members of any particular class should be called upon to do this. It has been a very noticeable fact, however, that there has been a minimum number of students present to perform this duty during the past week. This is especially true of the freshman class. Yesterday morning, for example, there were only three members of that class who remained on the landing to sing their songs and give the yell. They made a noble attempt, but hardly worthy of a class of nine hundred members. If the freshmen are at chapel they should surely remain with their classmates and uphold the custom of the University. If they are not at chapel, although it is expected they are there, they should then join their class and see to it that the largest class in the University does not have the smallest representation. There is usually time before the next period to give the college yells, and sing a song or two. Every student should be present to help out in this. It is about the only opportunity the students have of meeting together to give the yells. At this time of the year every student ought to be so interested in the University that he would embrace every opportunity to yell for his college and his athletic teams. Yesterday morning there were nineteen men present. A truly remarkable showing for the day before a football game.

SMALLER COLLEGES ADVANCE RAPIDLY.
In speaking of the various games played last Saturday, the Buffalo Express said:
A marked feature of the last few football seasons has been the rapid advance of the smaller colleges in the art and science of football and everything goes to show that the elevens representing the small institutions have not yet reached the height of their ambitions. In the last few years the rise in football of such colleges as Dartmouth, Amherst, Syracuse, Holy Cross, Swarthmore, Dickinson and several others that might be named has been so rapid as to attract widespread attention, showing that the time has gone by when any particular group of colleges or universities, no matter how large, could stand aside and lay exclusive claim to be the representative football colleges of the country.
Last Saturday's amazing performance by the smaller elevens marks the limit of their achievements so far and also does away finally with the idea that the only football worthy the name is played by the big universities which ten years ago had the field practically all to themselves, so far as first-class football was concerned.

THE OCTOBER HERALD.
Yesterday appeared the second numl.er of the University Herald for the current year, bearing testimeny to the fact that the editors and manager are making good their promise to keep their periodical in the very frent ranks of college magazines.
The number is dedicated to Lyman C. Smith, and an excellent portrait of this eminent benefactor of the University appears as a frontispiece. The story which follows, "A Convert to the Game," by George R. Guard, is a typical college football story strengthened by the local setting given by half tones of the field and the scrimmage.
The editor, Arthur F. Rider, contributes a short poem entitled "A Fancy," and also an article entitled "The War of the Future." The poetic imagination appears in the serious aricle quite as much as in the poem and adds to the interest materially, "Mistah Jim Ten Eyck," a dialect tribute to "De man wid de sunburn cheek," by Harry W. Farrington, has the spirit and the movement that will give it not only temporary popularity, but endurance as well. The sketches by L. W. D. ' 05 give the impression of an idea worth while executed in a capable manner.
The friends of "Mr. Dooley" will look for him in vain. In his place is "Jimmy Green," a freshman, who tells what a very green Jimmy he is.

All Presbyterian students are requested to reserve Tuesday night, October 25 , for a reception to be given at the Fourth Presbyterian church, corner South Salina, Onondaga and Harrison streets.

LEGAL NOTES.

Through the efforts of Huward P. Denison, instructor on the Law of Patents, Mr. Stocking, one of the board of examiners-in-chief of the Patent Office will address the senior class. Mr Stocking, although an old man, is very bright ahd energetic, a man well worth hearing. His home before entering the Patent Office at Washington was in Syracuse, where he returns every four years to register and cast his vote for resident. The exact time of his adass is not yet determined.

The lounging room in the basemen of the law building has been neatly fitted up with chairs and tables. It will no doubt be a very popular place between classes, especially on cold win ter days.
The freshman class can boast of one woman student, the only one in the law college.

THIS IS WHII We have the supremacy in Syracuse.
It seems surprising to most people that we sell our clothing at such astonishingly low prices and still give such excellent values. We are on top and this is the reason why: Years of hard study of market and styles-incessant application intelligently directed-the courage to buy large stocks of goods-the untiring and patient study of the value of goods, giving us good judgment in the selection of woolens that will wear well and hold color. The organization of the cutting and tailoring forces to insure correct and exact fit and superior make. The testing of the garments, the fitting of new styles on models. The establishing and maintaining a strict, uniform, one price for all system, the only fair and equitable way to sell goods. Having no rents to pay, other expenses light, all these are a few of the reasons why we can lead. Custom and Ready-Made Suits and Overcoats at a saving of $$ 5$ to $$ 10$ over downtown prices.

 NAGGRA 4Niagara Scores a goal From the Field.

On a wet and muddy field Syracuse rolled up a score of 62 points against Niagara Saturday. Near the end of the first half 0 'Rourke kicked a pretty goal from the thirty yard line, scoring four points for Niagara. At no other time during the game was the Syracuse goal in danger. There was better team work on the Syracuse squad than at any other time this season. During the second half the Syracuse team played a fast and aggressive game, holding for downs again and again. The Niagara men were in poor condition physically, as compared with the Syracuse team. A large number of substitutes were tried out, and all showed up well. Harwood played his usual star game, as did Burrell, Powell and several others. Park showed up in good shape at halfback. Syracuse played an entire substitute back field throughout the game. The day was wet and rain fell at intervals, but a crowd of about 700 was present.

The First Half.

Syracuse kickea off at 3 o'clock. Niagara got the ball on her 12 yard line but could make no gain and $0^{\prime}$ Rourke punted. Harwood and Tucker were sent through the line for 10 yards. Powell failed to pass the ball and was sent back for a loss of five yards, which gave the ball to Niagara. After failing to gain, Niagara again punted. The Syracuse ends failed to gain and Powell made a pretty punt of 45 yards, the ball going just under Niagara's goal bar and out of bounds. $0^{\prime}$ Rourke kicked 30 yards from the 25 yard line to Magoon, who fumbled and the ball went to Niagara. O'Rourke was again forced to punt, and the ball went out of bounds and to Syracuse. Burrell then got through right tackle and end for sixty yards and the first touchdown, Powell kicked the goal, Score-Syracuse 6, Niagara 0 . Van Duyn kicked 45 yards to O'Rourke, who came back 10. Syracuse held, and Niagara was again forced to punt. Powell fumbled the punt but Parker fell on the ball, Burrell was then sent through right tackle and end for a 45 yard run and scored another touchdown by fine interference. Powell kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 12, Niagara 0.

Van Duyn kicked off 40 yards, and the ball was brought back 15. Lowney made 10 around right end, and was nicely tackled by Marcy. McGinty gained 10 around the other end. O'Rourke was forced to punt, and Harwood made 25 yards around right end. Mahoney took the ball from Powell on a delayed pass, but Niagara was forced to punt on the second down. Harwood and Tucker were sent around end for 30 yards in three plays, and Parker went through center for a touchdown. Powell kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 18, Niagara 0. 0'Rourke kicked 40 yards to Marcy, who fumbled and was tackled three yards from the go al line Powell punted 25 yards - to McAnnally. Niagara tried twice with no gain, and then 0 'Rourke made a fine drop kick from the 30 yard line. Score-Syracuse 18, Niagara 4.
O'Rourke kicked 15 yards to Van Duyn. After small gain, Powell punted 35 yards to McAnnally who was downed on the spot. Niagara punted again, and Powell made 25 yards around end. Tucker made two yards and fumbled the ball. Niagara punted, and Powell returmed the punt. Failure to gain forced 0'Rourke to punt again. Powell got through left tackle and end for 15 yards. Tucker fumbled and lost the ball. Niagara's back field found the Syracuse line a stone wall, and was forced to punt. Russell was put out of the game for slugging, though a Niag. ara man was guilty of a similar act upon Powell. Time was called with the score-Syracuse 18, Niagara 4.

The Second Half.

Niagara kicked 45 yards to Park, who came back 30 yards. Harwood and Tucker were used repeatedly for short end runs, until the ball was brought to the 10 yard line. Magoon then got around left tackle for a touchdown. Powell failed at goal. ScoreSyracuse 23, Niagara 4. O'Rourke kicked 35 yards to Harwood, who came back 20. Tucker and Harwood were again used for large gains through end and tackle, until within striking distance of the goal. Park was Bent through center for a touchdown. Burrell kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 29, Niagara 4. Niagara again kicked 35 yands to Powell, who came back 20. Powell then tried for a punt, but it struck his own men, and he fell on the ball. Fitzgerald went around the end for 15 , and Burrell around the opposite end for the same distance. Niagara got the ball on a fumble, and 0'Rourke gained 8 yards through right guard. He then punted out of bounds, the ball going to Syracuse. Tucker and Harwood got through right guard for 15 yards, when Fitzgerald went around end for 45 yards and a touchdown. Powell kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 35, Niagara 4.
Niagara again kicked off. Park went through center for eight, and Parker right guard for 15 and 5 yards. Coulter and Parker then worked the ball to the one yard line, and Parker was sentover for a touchdown. Powell kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 41, Niagara 4. O'Rourke kicked off 45 yards to Park, who came back 25. Fitzgerald went around right end for 12, Lyon around the opposite end for seven more, Brown through left tackle for 10 and Fitzgerald around end for 10 more. Harwood, Brown and Lyon were thensent through the line for 15 yards, and Parker got through center for 12 yards and a touchdown two minutes after the kickoff. Powell kicked the goal. ScoreSyracuse 47, Niagara 4. After the next kickoff, Powell gained 10 yards by a quarterback run. Brown and Harwood gained 24 yards on the next four plays, and Clark went through center for four more. Farrington gained 15 yards by two plunges through guard. Powell then called for the revolving wedge play, Farrington being given the ball. He was forced fifteen yards and over the goal line. Powell failed at goal. Score-Syracuse 52, Niagara 4.
DR. 'LYTTLE SPOKE AT CHAPEL.
Saturday morning Dr. E. W. Lyttle, Inspector of Regents of this State, addressed the students at chapel time. He was here attending the meeting of the committee of the Regents arranging the courses in History for the high schools of the State.
In referring to the Regents, Dr. Lyttle said: "We have watched with a great deal of interest and pleasure the growth of Syracuse University, We have watched with much interest the good work many of your graduates are doing as teachers in the schools of the State. We are also mindful of the good work you did at New Haven recently. We are proud of you and your work. We feel that the hope of our municipal and State governments depends on the training of young people who go go out from here and institutions like this."

ON FOREIGN GRIDIRONS.

Saturday brought further surprises in the football world. Several hundred Yale men returned from West Point Saturday evening heavy at heart and light as to pocketbook as a result of defeat at the hands of the soldiers to the tune of $11-6$. The results of the other important contests on eastern fields are as follows:
Amherst 5; Brown 0.
Comell 36; Franklin and Marshall 5. Harvard 12: Carlisle 0 .
Pennsylvania 16; Columbia 0.
Williams 23; Hamilton 0.
Wesleyan 39; Rutgers 0 .
Dartmouth 18; Holy Cross 4.

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION ELECTS

 OFFICERS.The first meeting of the Historical Association was held in the Seminar room Saturday evening. Brief remarks were made by Dr. Mace and Dr. Sperry. Miss Cora Scott rendered a reading. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Earl G. Sperry; vice president, Harley Crane; recording gecretary, Miss Louis Kupfer; corresponding secretary, Miss Lulu Umbrecht; assistant corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Mogg; librarian, Claude Kimmel; first assistant librarian, Miss Capron; second assistant librarian, Mr. Stebbins; treasurer, W. W. Porter; assistant treasurer, H. F. Copeland; members of executive committee, John Heal and J. R. Rubin.

This afternoon the two underclasses will struggle for supremacy on the gridiron. These contests are always interesting and exciting, and there is, therefore, no need to urge a large attendance. No contest between rival colleges is fought more fiereely than this one which wiil take place this afternoon.' But there is one thing which is quite liable to creep into these sopho-more-freshman games which ought not to be permitted. We refer to acertain degree of rough playing, or, as it is usually termed, "dirty work." No such thing as this should be tolerated in any game, and far less in a game between men of the same University. We do not believe it will be tolerated today. But experience of previous years warrants us in bringing this fact to the attention of the officials at the game, whoever they may be.

A rare privilege is offered to the students of the University this evening. In the hall of Crouse College will be given a song recital, which includes many excellent numbers. One of the great advantages offered to students of Syracuse is the opportunity afforded them in the way of musical events. That which will occur this evening is one of the highest order, and merits a large attendance.

ANTI-CRIBBING.

The sophomores of the University of Minnesota have proposed a plan for dealing with the cribbing evil. The plan is receiving a great deal of very earnest discussion. The plan is as follows:
That a general committee be formed having representatives from every class in college.
That this committee appoint subconumittees from each class.
That through the co-operation of those opposed to cribbing every offense be reported to the class committee.
That the class committee, in case there is evidence supporting the charge, report to the general committee.
That the general committee have power to act in each case as seems best for the good of the university.
That faculty co-operation be secured.
SENIOR LAW CLASS MEETINO. At a meeting of the Senior Law Class held on Friday evening the following officers were elected: President, Clark R. Jackson; vice-president, Earl R. Cross; secretary and treasurer. George R. Fearon.

- It was decided at this meeting to hold a banquet in the near future, in which the two underclasses will probably be asked to join. The idea is to make the affair one for the Law College as a whole, thus promoting unity and good fellowship among all the law students.

SONO RECITAL TONIOHT.

An excellent song recital will be given this evening at 8 o'clock in the hall of Crouse College by Professor Harold L. Butler, assisted by Professor Adolf Frey. G. Alexander Russell will act as accompanist. The program in full was given in Saturday's Orange.

FPRESHMEN WIN

Sophomores Are Only

 Able to Score a Safety.With elegant weather and before a small crowd of spectators the freshman team defeated the sophomores 14 to 2 on the oval yesterday afternoon. The sophomores scored a safety in the first balf, but were not again within striking distance of the freshman goal. The freshman showed a great lack of team work, and were therefore penalized a good deal, and fumbled often. Several times they had the ball nearly to the goal line and lost it." For the freshmen Haight, Lambert and Moore did especially 'good work, while Cumning carried off the honors for the sophomures.
The teams lined up as follows:
Parkhurst, Coit........................Haight
Left guard.
Bullsu, Spencer......::...........Peddock Center.
North..............................Anderson
Lang Right tackle.
Cadmus, Reed.. Right end.
Hungertord, Becker....
...... Lambert Quarterback.
Swain, McLear..................Van Dusen Left halfback, Potter, Armstrong......................Moore Right halfback.
Ingersoll, Woolever...... Fullback.
Robinson.... ....................Walter
Refëree, Hutchins; umpire, West; linesmen, Park, Tucker, Beicher; timers Jarvis, Packard Time of halves, 20 mirntes.
The freshmen kicked off 30 yards and the sophomores came back 10 . The sophomores failed to make their dislance and the ball went to the freshmen. Both sides were penalized for offside play, and the freshmen punted 20 yards. The sophomore quarterback then failed to pass the ball, and he was forced behind the line for a safety, score-1907, 0; 1908, 2. The sophomores kicked off from the 20 yard line, Haight was sent through the line for eight yards, but on the next at tempt, Cummings broke through and put the freshmen back for a five yard loss on a delayed pass, This forced the freshmen to punt, but they recovered the ball on cowns. The iresinuen were penalized, and could not gain the necessary five yards, but forced the sophomores to punt. Haight got around end for 10 yards, but the ball was knocked from his hand and went to the sophomores. Becker then gained 20 yards around right end. This brought the sophomores near the goal line, and they tried for a goal from the field, but the ball rolled on the ground to Van Dusen, who fumbled. The sophomores forced the freshmen over their own line for a safety, tying the score. Time was called with the score two to two. The sophomores opened the second half by kicking 10 yords to Van Dusen. The sophomores got the ball on a punt, and tried to return it, but Anderson blocked the punt and got the ball, and went over for a touchdown. Moore kicked the goal. Score-1907, 2; 1908, 8. The freshmen kicked off, and the sophomores wereput back for a loss on trying to buck the line. The sophomores were forced to punt. The freshmen then carried the ball by line plunges and a 10 yard run by Haight to the sophomores' five yard line, when Lambert was sent through the line for a touchdown. Moore kicked the goal. Score-1907, $2 ; 1908$, 14. The ball was worked back and forth during the remainder of the game, being dange:ously near the sophomore goal most of the time. The sophomores held for downs on their five yand line twice. The game was called with the ball on the sophomores' two yard line.
After the game Coach Hutchins remarked that it was the cleanest sophomore-freshman game that he had ever' seen. "The: men played very well," said he.

FRESHMEN WIN RUSH:

Between the halves yesterday the freshmen formed in a phatanx and marched unnolested around the track. After the game they formed again and marched around the track. The sophomores were outside the gate, barring it against exit for the freshmen. The latter, however, procured a four-ineh scantling and, using this as a battering ram, forced open the gate and dtove back the sophomores. After this general rush, there was a wrestling match between Hares '07 and Swarm '08, the former winning two out of three throws.

classical club will. conduct Lectures.
The Classical Club is arranging for a series of lectures this winter, to be given for the benefit of the club. The course will be similar to that offeced by the club last year, and will undoubtedly prove as successful. The series will include four lectures. The first will be on November 17, and will be agiven by Professor Richardson, who spoke here last tear. Professor Richardson was formerly head of the American school athens, and will lecture on his experiences while there. The other lectures have not been defintely arranged, but it is likely they will be given by Professor West of Princeton, Professor Morris of Yale and other well-known men.
The lectures will be held either in the assembly hall of the University Block or in Crouse College. The price of the tickets for the entire course will be $1.50, and for each lecture 50 cents. Special rates of $$ 1.00$ for the course and 35 cents for each lecture will be made to students. R. H. Lacey ' 05 is chairman of the committfe on arrangements.

A GRADUATE MANAGER

 Able Discussion by a Prominent Alumnus.Nore.-It is our intention as editor of alumni news to keep the alumni interested in every University activity which needs their assistance, and also tends to upbuilding our Alma Mater. We shail print articles relative to the: activities during the year. Two have appeared during the past month-oire a History of the General Alumni Association by Dean Smaliey and the other the History of the New York Alumni Association. Today we publish an able article by an alumnus who was formerly very prominent in athletics. Later we shall give the history of other alumni associations, discussions of the Alumni Hall Great 1905 Alumni Dinner and other phases of collegiate endeavor.I. R. Templeton.

Euror of Alumni News:

The department of athletics in a large university, entailing the expenditure of thousands of dollars, the marshalling of hundreds of men, negotiations with scores of other universities, colleges and houses of business, is a business where, more than anywhere else, system and proper management are essential. It is a recognized prin ciple that such a business can best be conducted under the supervision of a permanent manager. It is a self-evident fact that Syracuse needs a permanent manager, graduate of necessity, and the real argument is on the questions of whom to select for such a position and where to get him.
A Graduate Manager of Athletics in Syracuse University must first of all be a good financier, a man capable of handling large sums of money, competent to grasp at the same time the full magnitude of an entire proposition and the mulcitude of details. He must know the situations relative to all branches of athletics, and be thoroughly alive to the growing needs, most of all he must be in sympathy with the undergraduates of the University, as well as the facuity and alumni. Such a man is not easily found, and when known is not easily secured by reason of his many interests in his life work. As a rule such a man is a developement as is the case of the best one of them all, Walter Camp of Yale.
It would be advisable to pay such a man a fair salary, and in addition arrange for him to live in Syracuse (if he is not there) so as to insure his permanent residence near the University. The reason for this being that a large portion of his work must bedone during the summer vacation, and when the University is in session he must be in daily communication with the undergraduates who must of course execute the details relative to each team or crew.
In stating the needs, and diffculties, there is no disposition to be pessimistic. There are several men among our alum$n$ i, competent to enter upon the duties of graduate manager, Some of them are now in Syracuse. The salary, the selection and the acceptance are the important considerations. Get the man, put him at work and many of the mistakes and abuses of the past, necessary because of conditions, will be averted. Robert B. Adams, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 24, '04.
varsity and scrubs have a SCRIMMAGE.
After the signal practice yesterday afternoon the 'Varsity and scrubs were lined up for a short scrimmage. Both teams did good work. The 'Varsity was stronger in offensive work than in defensive. Both teams played with a vim and each succeeded in carrying the pigskin back of the goal posts. Captain Park was out in uniform yesterday for the first time since the Yale game, when he was injured.

Rain coats.

We put on sale today from the Lowery, Dean & Co. stock seventy-five more of those exclusive patterns in rain coats, with belts, made 54 and 56 inches long, big square shoulders and loose back. Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Entered as second elass mail matter in the post efice at Syracuse, N. Y.

Publishing Office, old Phone 1790-A
Editorial Oftice, Now Phone soll.

Published every morning by the students of Syracase University at the Orange Print Shop, 801 Croton Street.

There appears in today's issue of the Orange an article concerning the publication of a Song Book which will be of interest to every Syracuse student. We all appreciate the need there is of some bound edition of Syracuse songs. At various times during the past years there have been written many Syracuse songs, but very few are still in existence. Many have been written and published for special occasions, as dinners, banquets, receptions, etc., but have been lost as soon as that particular function was ended.
We now have presented to us a proposition for the publication of a bound edition of Syracuse songs. The book will not be an elaborate one, but will answer all present purposes and needs.

Later, after more Syracuse songs appear, a larger and more expensive book will be placed on the market. But the book now proposed should be a means of arousing interest in songs distinctively Syracusan, and should prepare the way for the larger book which will appear later. The students and alumni should contribute to make the book the success which it deserves. If there are any old Syracuse songs which are now forgotten, let us bring them to the attention of the committee, and see that they become known. Every student who has any ability in composing should enter into this truly loyal project, and lend all his aid toward making the book a great success.

DR.PHELPS ADDRESSED PREACHERS' club.
Dr. James D. Phelps, financial secretary of the University, spoke before the Preachers'. Club last evening on the subject "How to Prepare a Sermon." There was a good attendance and the talk was very helpful and much appreciated by all.

WILL PVBLLSH

A SONG BOOK

Committee Has Decided

to Start the Movement at Once.

The committee recently appointed to have charge of the arrangements for the publication of a new song book has decided to publish such a book under their supervision. They will call upon the student body to compose new songs and aid in every way toward the success of the book, Various plans have been proposed during the year for the publication of a book. A. F. Rider, editor of the Herald, recently proposed a plan whereby the Herald would publish a song book to be sold to the students at a nominal price. At the time this offer was made a committee was appointed to confer with the Herald people and arrange the best means for the publication of a song book. The committee appointed at that time has seen fit to take up the matter under their own supervision.
The idea that Syracuse should have a Song Book is not a new one. Last year a movement was started toward the publication of a suitable song book. A committee was appointed from the faculty and undergraduate body to look into the matter and see what could be done. Then the Buffalo Alumni Association took up the matter and stated that they would publish a song book. There were apparent no material results from the work of any of these committees, and consequently the undergraduates took it upon themselves to start the movement again this fall.

The committee recently appointed authorizes the following statement: At a recent meeting of the Song Book Committee it decided to ask everyone to do what they can for the new songs. If you cannot write a song alone, see if you cannot get some one else to do it with you, and so get out one together. Do all you can toward the new songs. In order to expediate the preparation for the new song book the committee requests that all new songs be given to one of the conmittee on or before November 10 . In the meantime the committee will collect all the old material, and with the new get out a University Song Book. At the first mass meeting an expression of the student body will be taken as to whether the book shall contain words with the music or the words alone. A song book with the words and music can be published for approximately $$ 1.00$, and the other with the words alone for about 25 cents. We solicit your aid in getting out this book. Please give us your advice, wishes, cooperation and backing to make the book a good representative University Song Book worthy of as large a University as Syracuse. (Signed) W. P. Gere, chairman; Frank E. Brundage, Clara E. MacFarlane, Florence M. Giles, Orla E. Black, Charles H. Erway, Edith M. Hedges, Ralph L. Stilwell.

ALPHA PHI GIVES RECEPTION.

The reception and dance in connection with the annual convention of Alpha Phi was held last night at the Alhambra. The stage was filled with ferms and large palms. On either side of the hall were four boxes artistically decoroted in fraternity and college colors. College pennants of the various colleges in which there are chapters of Alpha Phi were hung in and about the boxes, making them attractive in appearance and also indicative of acollege function The most effective design in decoration was an electrical effect in the way of a large Alpha Phi monogram in the fra ternity colors, gray and bordeaux, sus pended over the front of the stage.
About 175 couples were present. Dancing began at 7:30 and lasted until midnight. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. Willis A. Holden, Mrs. Otis Wiley, Miss Grace Snyde and Miss Louise M. Umbrecht '05. The ushers were, Miss Grace Emens, Miss Janet Lyon, Miss Anna Draime and Miss Mabel Bernhardt.

A NEW CLUB FORMED.

Tuesday evening some of the Southern students of the University met at the Phi Mu Epsilon chapter house and formed the organization to be known as the Dixie Club. The purpose of the new club is to bring together in' a social way all the students from the Southern States. Plans are discussed for welcoming and helping those who may come as strangers to the University.
The following officers were elected: C. C. Kinne '06, president; Miss Bagwell '07, vice-president; Miss Mary McQuaid '08, secretary; Miss Jennie Taylor '07, treasurer; chairman of executive committee, Leroy Chandler '06. Others present were Professors White, Russell and Nugent; J. C. Griffin '06, Miss Kinne 06, H. W. Farrington '07, Miss Grace Campbell '08, and Miss Aird ' 08.
The next meeting will be held Wednesday evening November 2, at 7:30 o'clock at the Phi Mu Epsilon chapter house on University Place. All Southern students are cordially invited to be present then in order to perfect the organization.

 GAME.The management of the football team has recived a communication from Allegheny asking to be released from the game scheduled for next Saturday. They say their team is not in condition to meet Syracuse at this time. The manager has telegraphed to several colleges to see if a game can be arranged for Saturday. If this can be done, Allegheny will be released from the date.

nO FOOTBALL OAME TODAY.

It was announced in last night's city papers that the All-Collegiate would play the 'Vursity this afternoon. Man ager Ackley stated last night that there had been no game scheduled to his knowledge. Consequently there will be no game this afternoon.

The Team Showed Best

 Work of the Season Yesterday.With a high. cold wind blowing across the gridiron, and with a drizzling rain during the latterpart of the scrimmage the 'Varsity went through the line of the scrubs yesterday afternoon for repeated gains of from 10 to 20 yards. The 'Varsity showed up very strong on offensive work, and did much better on the defence than at any previous time this season. The team played together well, and played fast. At no time during the scrimmage did they fail to make good gains.
Three teams were on the fleld yesterday afternoon, and given signal practice. The 'Varsity lined up against the second scrubs first, and easily scored two touchdowns. Frank Clark was tried out at quarterback yesterday and showed up well for the first time. Burrell is troubled with his leg, and was not in the scrimmage yesterday. Captain Park was also out of the'scrimmage. The line up was as follows:

Svracuse Daily Orange.

The question of a University Song Book is again before the student body. There is no doubt in the mind of anyone but that we need some sort of a bound edition of Syracuse songs. But the manner and means of publication is altogether a different matter. It is not any easy thing to publish a song book, and it is not a thing that can be done in a day. At a time when enthusiasm was at a high pitch in the University the need of a song book was strongly impressed upon the undergraduates, and they immediately appointed a committee to arrange for the publication of such a book. It seemed to be the expression of this body that this book should be on the market before the holidays, and the committee is consequently laboring with that intention.
Now we as undergraduates ought to remember that the alumni of the University are also intensely interested in seeing the publication of a song book. We should also remember that we should look to them to a very large degree for our financial support, and at the same time remember that a first-class book cannot be published in a few weeks. If we are to get out a song book at all, why not set our ambition high, and produce a book second to none? But in order to accomplish this, we believe that the matter should be taken up differently than it has been thus far. We believe that the alumni should be solicited and should be represented $u$ pon the committee of publication; we believe that no attempt should be made to publish a book with the words alone, or any other second or third rate publication; we believe that ample time should be given, so that a first-class book and one worthy of Syracuse will be the result.
There is no valid reason to think that a first-class book could not be published at Syracuse. There are many old songs in existence, but it will take time to collect them. With a student body of 2500 and with one of the best Fine Arts Colleges in the country, there is every reason to believe that a large number of new songs will be written. Various members of the faculty of the Fine Arts College have heretofore composed music for special songs. Why not for Syracuse songs? We hope that this matter will not be allowed to drop, but that it will be so adjusted that the very best results may be obtained.

SONG BOON ASSURED

Committee Decides to Accept Offer of the University Herald.

The committee appointed as repre senting the student body, after several meetings and careful discussion, decided to accept the offer made at the last mass meeting by the University Herald. With hearty and immediate cooperation from all parties concerned the song book is promised to appear before the West Point game. Arthur Rider of the Herald says: "Misunderstanding as to the offer of the Herald and a misconception of the kind of song book to be published may be prevented by an explanation now. Last spring, following an offer of a prize made by the Buffalo Alumni Association, a representative committee was appointed to collect material for and publish a Syracuse University Song Book. This is an undertaking not of weeks and months, but possibly of a year or more; for songs sufficient to form a presentable cloth-bound book do not appear in a day. In the meanwhile, while this larger work is slowly taking shape, there seems a very real need for a small and inexpensive but comprehen sive and satisfactory collection of the score or more songs which have appeared in the last few years.
"To those who are looking forward to the immediate appearance of a large cloth-bound book, this announcement may seem adisappointment, but a little thought will convince anyone of the wisdom of this plan. We have yet but a small fraction of the hundred more songs necessary to a presentable song book, and it is futile to think of collecting them in a few mouths. That is a matter of time. Meanwhile what is wanted is a collection of the songs now in existence, to arouse song enthusiasm and stimulate the writing of new songs. Such q songbook the Herald will publish.
"It is planned now to publish a slender pamphlet volume of from thirty to forty pages, to be printed on an antique laid paper and bound in a corded deckeledge cover, making an artistic and dainty souvenir for the holidays, By printing the words only for all songs except those for which special music has been written the price of the song book may be kept at twenty-five cents or possibly less. It is desired to make the cost just as low as is consistent with the best of work in order that no student in the University may have excuse to be without a song book.
"Now in the very nature of things these books are desired at the earliest possible date; and the only unknown quantity is the time consumed in waiting for song "copy" to be handed in for the book. To shorten this period as much as possible the Herald will offer two small prizes of five dollars each, for, respectively, the best song written to original music and the best song written to other already existing music.

Previous publication will be no bar, as the only purpose is to hurry now the reception of copy. This contest will close next week Wednesday. The time may seem short, but it will be rememberd that the object of this song book is not so much to stimulate immediate song writing, as to collect those songs already written. It is desired to begin printing the book next week, and that means "get your material in at once." If you have not written anything yourself you can at least boom the song-book, and get other people to hand in their songs.

RECEPTIONS BY ALPHA PHI.

Yesterday afternoon Alpha Phi gave a reception at the home of Miss Grace Sawyer in University avenue, in honor of the delegates to the National Convention and all college women. The reception committee consisted of: Mrs. 0. M. Wiley, the National President of Alpha Phi, Mrs. William Nottingham, Mrs. James R. Day and Miss Juliet Sheak, '05.
Mrs. William Nottinghamentertained the faculty members, city alumnae and delegates last evening at her home in Walnut Avenue. The rooms were tastily decorated with bitter sweet and chrysanthemums. The ushers were Mrs. Henry Phillips, Mrs. George M. Cooper and Miss Florence Wilbur '06. The ladies who presided in the dining room were Mrs. J. M. Gilbert, Mrs. F. F. Honsinger, Mrs. H. D. Coddington and Mrs. J. B. Gere.
Yesterday the delegates to the National Convention of Alpha Phi sat for their picture in front of the Hall of Languages.

The regular meetings of all the class debating clubs were held last evening in the Hall of Languages. The questions for discussion were as follows: Senior-Resolved, That the writing of a thesis should be one of the requirements for a baccalaureate degree in Syracuse University. Junior-Resolved, That to any man making an intercollegiate debate team a credit of two semester hours should be given. Soph-omore-Resolved, That government ownership of public utilities would be more conducive to the welfare of the country than the present ownership by corporations. Freshman-Resolved, That athletics as now conducted in the more prominent colleges and universities do not promote the moral and intellectual life of the students.

Men Played Fast Ball in

 Scrimmage Yesterday.The cold weather seemed to put ginger into the men yesterday afternoon, and they played a fast, snappy game. Each man got into the game with a vim which has not been seen before this season. The men played together well, and there was little fumbling. Most of the afternoon was spent in signal practice, though there was a short scrimmage. The scrubs were coached for some time on the revolving wedge play, but did not get into it hard enough to make sure gains. The 'Varsity and scrubs were lined up for practice on offensive and defensive work. The 'Varsity held every time like a stone wall. Only once did the scrubs get through the line for any marked gain, and that time Dempster was forced through guard for 10 yards.
Pollock was not in a suit yesterday on account of a bad knee. Burrell was also out of the scrimmage work. Several of the men who have played on the scrybs all the season are dropping out since the sophomore-freshman game. This reduces the available matorial to form a strong team to line up against the 'Varsity. The lineup yesterday was as follows:

REPUBLICAN STUDENTS ATTEND MASS MEETING.
A large number of the Republican students of the University met in front of the Hall of Languages last evening and marched in a body to the Alhambra. Special seats were reserved for the University Club. The general committee of the city sent a drum corps to the hill to escort the club down town, At the Law College the procession was joined by the Republican Club of that college. The mass meeting was addressed by Hon. William Taft, ex-Governor Black and Lieutenant-Governor Higgins.

THE NEW SONO BOOK.

Since the first meeting of the undergraduate song book committee it has appeared there was and is a previous song book committee, consisting of Dean Smalley, Professor Losey, Mr. Copeland and others. The committee is about to take definite action; also Mr. Rider's offer for the University Herald is now definitely understood. Mr. Rider wishes to get out a pamphlet edition of what songs he can collect, with the addition of some new ones to use between now and the time the original committee can get out a dignified song book. Mr. Rider intends to sell the pamphlet at its cost price, and will get it out immediately as per the notice in yesterday's Orange. Therefore the undergraduate committee leaves the publication of the pamphlet entirely in Mr. Rider's charge.

There are several men in the football squad who are dropping out from day to day as this rather disagreeable weather comes on. The weather may not be the cause, though it doubtless has an influence. The real cause seems to be that some of the men are getting discouraged. This is especially true of the freshmen. To these men we would like to say a word.
You have done nobly this season, and the student body appreciates your work. They appreciate your willingness to stay on the field and help to develop a winning 'Varsity team. It is not alone the men who make the first team that receive the praise and respect of the students and friends of the University. Those who come on the field from day to day, line up against great odds and more experienced men, and help the coaches to turn out a winning 'Varsity are deserving of quite as much praise. Do not become discouraged if you are not put on the 'Varsity this fall. It is seldom a freshman makes the first team. But it is also seldom that a man who sticks to the work does not make the 'Varsity before he leaves college. Men are graduating every year; the personnel of the team is constantly changing; men are promoted from year to year; men are constantly acquiring more knowledge of the game. Under such conditions as these, there is every opportunity for every man. Do not leave the squad now. You owe it to your University; you owe it to yourselves. Keep up the work with the determination that next year you will be one of the 'Varsity team, and remember always that the student body bestows very great honor upon those who labor hard to develop a winning team, even though they themselves may not be on that team.

The one was nominated for his availability. the other for his ability. The one invites your attention to a schedule of promisss, the other to a record of performances. The one, if elected, will, like Cleveland, be embarrassed by a heterogeneous crowd of orators, theorists and obstructionists, who will make his administration a failure and his life a burden. THE GERMAN CLUB.
At the last meeting of the German Club, Dr. Otto gave a talk in German on "Reading and Culture." The gist of his remarks was as follows:
The chief end of reading is culture or "Bildung," and Bildung means formation according to a model. We are to form ourselves into likeness with the ideal given in revelation and living in our hearts and imaginations. However leamed they may be or how successful in business or society, those are within business or society, those are without culture who have not developed the ## inner man

"Reading is thought work. Only he that has understood may say, 'I have read.' The German word for reading, lesen, means to gather together. Of old the priests threw on the ground staves of beechwood covered with runes and these were gathered and interpreted. The English word 'read' is from the Gothic 'Redan,' meaning to consult or question."
Then Dr. Otto touched briefiy on the various kinds of books. He spoke of history, of the ennobling effect of poetry, and in fact of all literature which stimulates the imagination. He spoke of the American predilection for the novel and the lack of appreciation of the lyric element. He advised the reading of ballads such as are found in Percy's "Reliques" or Brentano's "Des Knaben Wunderhorn," of historica! romances, of such novels as are units and works of art, of fairy tales and of the drama, such as Shakespeare, Moliere, Goethe and Schiller.

ALPHA PHIS AT CHAPEL

Chancellor Day Talks to Delegates to the Convention.The delegates to the national convention of Alpha Phi, which is being held in this city, were present at chapel exercises in the Hall of Languages yesterday morning. The delegates, together with the large number of students who were present, crowded the room to the doors. Chancellor Day was present and talked for a short time.

The Chancellor said in part: "We are honored by the presence in our city and our University of the Alpha Phi fraternity. We are glad on our part for so fair a city, and so large and honorable a chapter to greet them. The representatives of this fraternity are with us in considerable numbers this morning. They are not present in the capacity of a convention, but are here as visitors. There are present some alumni of this institution who wish to come back and look at the old chape again. We are sorry that they are able to look at the old chapel again. We hope that they will not have that privilege again. We hope $t \cdot$ have a large and worthy chapel when they meet again.
"I came over to chapel to say that I am glad that these delegates are here. I am glad that an Alpha Phi fraternity is here, and that there are other chapters of young women connected with this University, and with nearly all universities, and that there are chapters of young men here. I believe that there is great profit in these chapters when propery run. They should emphasize morality, scholarship and decorum, and I believe they are so at Syracuse. These chapters contribute very ussentially to the success of the University.
"I am glad that there are young women and chapters of young women in the University. This relic of barbarism which shuts women out of her sphere will le relegated one of these days. That sentiment that objects to the education of women, and especially of woman with man, is simply a relic of barbarism out of which we are emerging. The young girl is in the same home with the young boy, grows up in the same associations, mingles with him in the neighborhood, goes with him to the common schools, academies and seminaries, but after she is through with the seminary God's arrangement does not suit. For a period of four years it is suid that it is not best for these young men and women to be associated together. This arrangement may work best in some places, but I do not like the principle. It seems to me that the arrangement of the Almighty is a pretty good one."
The Chancellor then spoke of the argument often advanced that co-education is not conducive to the health and intellectuality of the women, and showed the falsity of it. He said that it has been asserted that co-education makes men womanish, and women manish. "That is just what we want," said he. "The days of brute force are gone. Man now has the time and opportunity to cultivate the finer instinets, and that is the business of man. On the other hand, woman needs to cultivate a little more fortitude and courage. By this modification we will get a most perfect race; therefore I hail the education of men and women under the same form and institution, and am certain that the wide world will be the better."
alpha phis close convention WITH BANQUET.
The business of the National Convention of Alpha Phi was closed yesterday afternoon, and the convention proper closed last evening with a large banquet at Freeman Hall. About 175 women were present. Mrs Otis M. Wiley, the National President, acted as toastmistress.
The next National Convention of Al pha Phi will be held in New York City in 1906.
intercollegiate debate with C0LGATE LIKELY.
Professor Losey yesterday received a letter from an authority at Colgate University inquiring as to the possibility of arranging an intercollegiate debate between Coigate and Syracuse. No action has as yet been taken, but the Debating Union will consider the matter at once. It is quite probable, however, that a debate between these two universities will be arranged. If such is the case, the debate will occur at Syracuse, and at some time toward the end of the first semester. The Union has communicated with Dartmouth, butas yet has received no reply
On account of the great rivalry between Colgate and Syracuse on the gridiron, it is likely that an intercolleg. late debate between the two universisities would be a good drawing card. Colgate has been strong in debate work and would undoubtedly send a very strong team bere. If this is arranged it will necessitate two intercollegiate teams this year. The debate with Wesleyan will occur at Middletown some time during March.

BRANCH OF A. I, E. E.

Eleven seniors taking the course in electrical engineering organized a student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers yesterday. The following men were appointed as a committee to draw up a constitution: L. R. Woodhull, J. W. S. Bourlier, George Young, and Walter Wilcox.
Although the society was organized by seniors, juniors will be permitted to become members and underclassmen will be allowed to attend the meetings and lectures although they will have no voice in the meetings. The meetings will be held monthly and will be addressed by prominent scientists on subjects of interest to the members. The society was organized at the suggestion of William P. Graham, the professor of electrical engineering.

ALLEGHEYY PLAYS HERE TO-AAY

Management Could Not Arrange Another Game.

Manager Ackley received a telegram from Allegheny yesterday stating that the Allegheny team would arrive in this city at noon today. This relieves the anxiety which the students have felt for the last few days. The Allegheny management telegraphed Tuesday, asking that the game with Syracuse scheduled for Saturday might be canceled. Manager Ackley replied that if another team could be secured for that date, Allegheny would be released. The Syracuse management endeavored to arrange another game but were unable to do so at this late date, so consequently the Allegheny team were held to their contract.
The Allegheny team has not been as strong this season as in some years, but there is every reason to believe she will send a streng team up here today. The team has been materially strengthened during the past week. Their weakest point is in the backfield, though that has greatly improved since the Westminster game.
The men were given light practice yesterday afternoon. There was no scrimmage but the time was spent in signal practice.
The probable lineup will be as follows Syracuse.

Published every morming by the students of Syra cuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 600 Croton Street.
The Republican Club of the University and the executive officers are to be congratulated upon the prominent part which the students played in Thursday night's great mass meeting in the Alhambra. The noted public men who addressed that immense throng will not soon forget the ringing yells and hearty cheers of the hundreds of Syracusans who crowded the front part of the hall. It is such student demonstrations as these that bring forcibly before our executive and legislative officers the fact that there is more than one university in New York State deserving of consideration in the legislative chambers at Albany.

Now that a definite plan for will be very acceptable, and be the committee has now decided upon the proper method, considering existing conditions. Of course we could all desire a large cloth-bound volume, but such a publication seems impossible at present. We do need, however, some sort of a bound collection of Syracuse songs which have already appeared and which may be written for the occasion; and if we are to have such a collection, we need them at once. To collect, compose and publish a large, comprehensive song book would be a matter of a year or more. Such a thing cannot be done hurriedly. Webelieve, however, that immediate action should be taken toward the publication of such a book, but that when it does appear it shall be one of the best on the market and worthy of the University which it will represent.

Such a pamphlet as is now proposed should be a means of stimulating interest in the larger and more complete volume to appear in the future. It should arouse enthusiasm for the writing of new songs. We should not reserve all our energy, however, for the future book, but endeavor to make this first edition a success. The offer of the Herald is a generous one; let us aid them in every way to make the pamphlet what they desire it to be. There should be several new songs written for the book. In order to keep the expense low, it will probably be impossible to print much music. Therefore words written to popular music the publication of a Song Book sides they usually make good colhas been decided upon, it is the lege songs. Let us all help to duty of every student to aid in make this first attempt at a Syramaking that book a success. We cuse Song Book a great success believe, as was expressed in a and an inspiration for that greater recent article in this column, that book which is bound to come in 'Varsity and Subs Easily Defeat the Penn- sylvanians.

In a slow and uninteresting game Syracuse easily defeated Allegheny on the oval Saturday afternoon. When time was called the score stood 69 to 0 in favor of Syracuse. The Allegheny team was weak at every point of the game, and far inferior to Syracuse. At no time did the 'Varsity experience any difficulty in making repeated gains. The Allegheny men were in poor physicalcondition, time being taken out after nearly every down. At no time during the game was time called for a Syracuse man. The game was very slow and uninteresting from a spectator's point of view. Allegheny got of her p ays very slowly, and continually tock out time. The Syracuse goal was in danger at no time, but the ball was always in Allegheny's territory.
During the first half Syracuse scored touchdowns after one and two minutes of play. Short end cuns seemed to net the greatest gains, though the men got through at every point. The first half ended with the score 52 to 0 , and Coach Hutchins sent in a substitute team to play the second. Allegheny took on courage and gained her distance twe or three times. The game was called, however, after 12 minutes of play.
The teams lined up as follows:
Left end.
Van Duyn(capt), Wharf.......MeQuiston Center.
Belcher, Russell.................Scott(capt) Right guard.
Stephenson, Rice................. Right tackle.
Tucker, Brown.................
Right end.
Lyon, Cummings............. Hines, Aiker Quarterback.
Parker, Clark, Coulter.........
Right halfback.
Stimpson, Marcy,..............Evans. Fish Farrington

Fullback.
Curtis, F. J. Park....Shields, Thompson Summary-Touchdowns, Curtis 3, Lyon, Magoon, Parker 2, Stimpson, Powell, Harwood, Cummings, Coulter. Goals from touchdown, Curtis 8, Fitzgerald. Refereee, C.A. Wright. Umpire, P. N. Hockenberry. Linesman, Thompson, Lovelace. Timers, Reynolds, Pratt. Time of halves, 25 and 12 minutes.

The Game.

To relate the game in detail would be a long, uninteresting story. It would mean simply to tell of repeated gains by Syracuse, of failures of Allegheny to make her distance, of forced punting and time out on the part of Allegheny, and long runs by the Syracuse men. Allegheny kicked off at $3: 25$ o'clock. By short end runs, Lyon was sent over for the first touchdown after one minute and 40 seconds of play. After one play Magoon went around right end for 70 yards and another touchdown. The ball was then worked to Allegheny's 25 yard line, when Curtis got around right end for another touchdown. The fourth touchdown was se cured by end runs by Lyon and Magoon, a quarterback run of 10 yards by Powell, and 10 yards each by Stimpson and Curtis through the line. Stimpson got around left end for 65 yards and the fifth touchdown after a few minutes of play. Syracuse then kicked off to Allegheny, but forced her to punt. The ball went to Powell, who failed to hold it, and an Allegheny man got the ball. Allegheny then tried a fake punt, but was put back for a loss. This forced her to punt but it was blocked by Van Duyn, and Stimpson fell on the ball. Parker then went around right end for 53 yards and a touchdown. Syracuse again kicked off and recovered the ball on downs. By line plunges Curtis was sent over for another touchdown. Touchdown number eight came by steady gains between guard an tackle, and short end runs. Syracuse received the kickoff, and worked the ball down the field until Powell made 50 yards and a touchlown on a quarterback run. The half was ended after a couple of plays. A large number of substitutes were sent in in the second half, and soon an entire substitute team was on the field. Van Duyn kicked off and Lyon fell on the ball, being carried 10 yards after he was tackled. He got 20 yards around end on the next play, and Harwood was then sant through right guard for another touchdown. After this touchdown several more substitutes were sent in, and Allegheny made her first down. She was soon forced to-punt, the ball going to Powell who worked his way back 45 yards. Cummings was then sent through the line for a touchdown. the last touchdown was scored by a fifty yard run by Coulter. After less than 12 minutes of play, the game was called on account of darkness.

the west point game.

The committee which has charge of making arrangements for the excursion to the West Point game report that they have not yet come to any settled agreement with the railroad officials, but that it is very likely that a train will leave Syracuse at about $80^{\prime}$ clock on the morning of the game, and returning leave West Point immediately after the game. The committee has as yet been unable to get the railrood people to name a rate, but that it will be sufficiently low to enable a large crowd to accompany the team is certain.

cuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croton Stree.

It would be nothing strange if the freshmen could not.sing their class song the first few days of their college life. The students hardly expect them to attain any marked degree of perfection during their first week, though nearly every freshman class in previous years has been able to out-sing the more experienced upper classmen after a few trials. But it is quite different this year. It must be that either the men of the three upper classes sing much better than in previous years, or that the freshmen do not sing as well. The personnel of the two upper classes is about the same as last year, and we do not believe that the sophomores possess any peculiar virtues which add so greatly to the singing. We necessarily conclude, then, that in the matter of singing the class song the present freshman class is far inferior to its predecessors. Their method of singing-if such it can be termad-the class song is indeed a novel one. In fact, it is radically different from anything we have ever noticed before.
It is the duty of the men of the freshman class to remedy this defect. If a person's mind is capable of any development whatever, or if he has any ability to grasp an idea or learn a college custom, surely over a month of daily object lessons should have some effect. But such does not seem to be the case in the matter of singing the class song. Any person with an ordinary amount of intelligence ought to have perceived by this time that the class songs are not sung as church hymns. Neither are they usually sung as a funeral dirge, though such a tune might be appropriate at cortain times. Such occasions, however, have not been presented to the freshmen thus far. Let us have better singing then, freshmen. If you don't know your class song, learn it; if you can't sing it, practice it.

THE other day a customer in our store said:
"When I left the chapter house the boys said, 'don't buy any other clothes, but at Meyers'Clothing Parlors.'
"It's getting so the fellows all recommend this busy little store.
"But don't let Frank hear that" -referring to the salesman who waits on him=''he'll feel too chesty."

Another of our customers hap= pened to be standing near, and the two were introduced. The second said:
"I overheard your remark about buying only at Meyers' Clothing Store.
"My experience is like yours=they give you the best values here in town."

These two young men were of the best dressed in town, and their tes a timony was sincere.

There are hundreds of others who could and would say the same thing.

There's something in it for the man who doesn't wear our goods to think about.

Hallowe'en is Properly

 Observed on the Hill.The annual Feast of All Hallows did not pass by unobserved at Syracuse. The various games and parties which are characteristic of Hallowe'en were much in evidence on the hill last evening. Nearly all of the sororities and several of the men's clubs and fraternities entertained informally last evening. Hallowe'en stunts of various kinds were given at these parties. Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Xi Delta sent out no invitations. The members and pledgelings celebrated the evening in old-fashioned style with games and stories.
Kappa Alpha Theta gave a program consisting of many interesting features. The chapter house was decorated with red berries, leaves, cut flowers and here and there a pumpkin to give the true Hallowe'en appearance. Favors, consisting of candy, stuffed walnuts and decorated birch bark cards were given to those present. After the program of the evening, an old-fashioned supper was served. DeltaGamma entertained a number of freshmen. The house was decorated in rustic style, a large quantity of autumn leaves and cornstalks giving a pretty and characteristic appearance.
The young ladies at the dormitories were also busy. The parties at both Winchell and Haven were largely attended, and afforded a very pleasant evening. Haven Hall was the scene of a masquerade party, attended only by the women in the hall. Pumpkin jack lanterns and cornstalks, the fruits of foraging expeditions, constituted the decorations; and as for the costumes, the half must not be told. It is hinted that Dr. Burchard's full dress suit mysteriously disappeared to reappear later with proper reinforcements as the wedding suit of one of the Haven women.
At Winchell the women and their guests enjoyed a social evening amid typical surroundings. After a Hallowe'en luncheon came the dance which, with intermissions occupied with Hallowe'en "stunts," employed the rest of the evening.

TENNIS SEMI-FINALS ARE NOW FINISHED.

Yesterday afternoon Latham defeated Tressler 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, which playing inished the semi-finals for the fall tournament. Houseknecht defeated H. D. Smith 6-3, 6-4, and Hayes defeated Hanners 6-2, 2-6, 7-5. This leaves the finals to be fought out between Houseknecht, Hayes and Latham.

NO DEBATE WITH DARTMOUTH.

A short time ago the Debating Union wrote to Dartmouth to see if arrangements could be made for a debate between Dartmouth and Syracuse. The Union yesterday received a reply, saying that it would be impossible to make such arrangements, as Dartmeuth al ready has debates scheduled with Brown and Williams. The matter of an intercollegiate debate with Colgate will be taken up at the next meeting of the Debating Union, which will be held a week from today.

Cl.assical club lectures.

The date of the lecture by Professor Richardson in the Classical Club series has been changed to November 15. The speakers for the other lectures have not yet been engaged. The committee are corresponding with several wellknown men, and the complete program will be announced in a short time. Tickets will soon be placed on sale at $$ 1.50$ for the course of four lectures and 50 cents for single lectures. Special rates of $$ 1$ for the course and 35 cents for each lecture will be offered to the students.

WORK PROORESSING ON NEW ENGINEERING COLLEGE.
Rapid progress is being made on the foundation work of the new Engineering College. The excavation is now entirely completed and the foundation is well under way, A squad of ten men are at work daily. A concrete wall is being built for the first foundation. This wall will be eight feet high on the west side and two and one-half feet on the east side. Upon the top of this concrete wall will be laid cement blocks. The concrete work is now completed on the east side and it will all be finished sometime next week. The men are laying from 22 to 24 yards of concrete each day. Four coats of as phalt and three coats of felt will be put upon the sides of the wall. This is done in order to keep moisture and dampness from the wall.

The Plymouth Congregational Baraca and Philathea Bible Classes will give an interesting social this evening at eight o'clock. Students are cordially invited.

WANTED-Young man, student preferred, to wait on table at 701 1rving avenue. Call between 12 and 1 or 6 and 7.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR BASEETBALL

Syracuse Will Meet Leading Teams of the Country This\section*{Season.}

The basketball team, as it has shown up in practice to date, bids fair to maintain the standard in athletics set this year by the crews and the football team. From twenty to thirty men are out for practice every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday night, forming three or four strong teams. Under the coaching of Professor Scott and Captain Powell, the men are rapidly rounding into first-class shape and are showing up well for this time of year. Of last yean's squad there are left Powell, Houselnecht, Kirchgasser, Kinne, Coit and Brady. A number of the freshmen trying for the team are particularly strong and will give the older men a hard pull for their places on the team. It is the opinion of Manager Rice and the conches that the team this year will be the strongest the University has ever had.
The schedule is progressing nicely and will be announced in about two weeks. Only first-class teams will be played and more games have been arranged already than were played all of last year. About seven of these games will be played at home. The te im will take four extended trips thls year, one to the east to play the New England colleges, one to the west, one to the north, playing the teams at Potsdam and St. Lawrence, and one during the holidays to New York city. On these trips the team will meet the fastest teams in the country.
yOUNG WOMEN IN TENNIS TRIALS.
During the past week several of the young women have been playing their finals in tennis. Among the juniors, Miss Lois Kupfer defeated Miss Viva Baker 6-1, 8-6, 6-0, and among the sophomores Miss Grace Faulks defeated Miss Ellen Blake 6:1, 2-6, 6-4.

LIGHT PRACTICE.

The practice on the oval yesterday afternoon was not of the hard fighting variety which has been in vogue during the last week. Light practice was given, the men showing considerable improvement in some of the fine points of the game.
Burrell was again on the field, recovered from the injury which kept him out of the game Saturday.
The coach anmounced that practice would hereafter begin promptly at 3.30 . The change is necessitated by the early darkness.

Better tog out with a good bunch of Syracuse flags now. Then begin to save your money for the West Point trip. Harmey can help you save money.

Notices.

All football men who have had suits this season and are no longer out, will please return them to the custodian at once. E. L. Ackley, Manager.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Students who are to vote in the city next Tuesday should not fail to spend a little time practicing on the voting machine before election day. Machines have been placed conveniently in various parts of the city, one of them being located at the drug store at the corner of Irving avenue and Genesee street.

At the beginning of the year we extended an invitation to the members of the faculty to use freely the columns of the Orange for the insertion of notices. We have given this column of notices a prominent place on the first page, so that they would be before the students daily. We have reason to believe that these notices are read each morning by nearly every student of the University. They look forward to this column each day in order to become informed as to their day's work.
Nearly all the members of the faculty have improved this opportunity, and inserted whatever notices they might have in the paper. But there are some members, however, who fail to do so. We believe it is well to call the attention of these members to this matter. The students look regularly in the paper for all notices, and expect the faculty to insert them there. In order to facilitate matters, the Orange has placed a copy box on the door of the Hall of Languages. Any notices left in this box will be published, if properly signed.

HISTORY OF FOOTBALL.

The story of football begins far back in history, and has except for a brief period, steadily grown in favor. Even in the early dawn of Grecian civilization a simple form of this sport was en joyed. Then a rude ball, made of bledder or rough skin, was used, and the players propelled it by kicking, not being allowed to put the ball forward, in any manner by the use of the hands. The Romans, too, were expert players. They called it harpastum. As the history of the word implies, they. unlike the Greeks, were permitted to seize the ball in their hands and carry it, as well as kick it.
Football is a much older game than cricket, and is more suitable for the winter season. In fact, it was soon called the "winter game," cricket being dubbed the "summer game."
It is believed that the "History of London," by William Fitzatephen, written about the year 1175, makes the first historic mention of this game in England, although itseems certain that it was introduced into Great Britain by the Romans. In England for a long time, there were no clubs, no code of rules, and no special organizations to give control, in any way, of this exciting pastime. On Shrove Tuesday people of all ages and both sexes were seenon the football field in two great contending forces, to be found wherever there was opportunity for this spirited conwas op

There seemed to be little organization. Each person was permitted to use almost any means, fair or foul, to get the ball to the desired goal. So rough did the game grow that even throughout the city of London window shutters became a necessity, and in many cases barricades were built around houses in localities where the game was waged most fiercely. This sort of thing could not last long The game fell into great disrepute. Even in the time of James I. the heir apparent to the throne was torbidden to play, the king saying: "The game is meeter for laming than making able the users thereof." Into such disfavor had the game come in 1830 that for thirty years almost nothing was seen of this rollicking, noisy, turbulent scene of the Shrovetide season.
But in 1860 amateur athleties were organized in England by the public school and university men, and in this widespread movement football was to have due prominence.
At once the game again grew popular. The whole English nation was strangely moved by this amusement. Soon it was seen that carefully formulated rules must be made. There must be a society with power to legislate. So the football association was organized in 1863. The society stood for a strictly and carefully played game. If possible every play was to be regulated by exact rules. So in 1871 the Rugby Football Union was instituted. This society stood for a less strictly guarded game.
The association used a ball in the shape of a perfect sphere, the union one egg-shaped. The balls were now much improved, being made then much as now, by using inflated India rubber bladders covered with leather carefully laced together.
In the United States the great colleges and universities, as in England, led in giving popularity to football. And the interest manifested in this form of athletics has been, and is now, in most sections, intense and absorbing. Now not only do the colleges and universities have their teams to win honors for their respective institutions, but also it is found that almost all the small schools, the town high schools, villages, etc., are represented by well organized teams.

SYRACUSE WILL MEET WILLIAMS IN BASKETBALL.
The basketbull schedule of Williams College has just been announced. According to that schedule Syracuse will meet Williams at Williamstown on February 16. No game is scheduled to be played here. The Williams schedule includes games with Dartmouth, Yale, Cornell, Brown, Colgate, Amherst, Columbia, Wesleyan and Rochester.

FRANKLIN COUNTY OROANIZES.
On Saturday evening a number of Franklin county students met and founded an organization to be known as the Franklin County Club. The purpose of the new club is to bring together in a social way all the students from Franklin county. In addition to the University students, there are a number of young people from Franklin county teaching and attending business college in the city. The following officers were elected: President, George A. Hastings; secretary, Miss Grace Plumb; treasurer, Warren D. Hall.
The next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, November 12. All Franklin county people will be welcome.

PASS BAR EXAMS.

The result of the bar examinations recently held in this city have boen announced by the chairman of the State Board of Law Examiners, Wiliam P. Goodelle. The Syracuse Law College graduates who were successful were John L. Train and Nathan Abelson. Both of these men graduated in the 1904 class and at the time of graduation were not of legal age to take the June bar examinations. Abelson and Train enjoy the distinction of being the youngest attorneys in the State of New York.

The one was nominated for his availability, the other for his ability. The one invites your attention to a schedule of promisos, the other to a record of performances. The one, if elected, will, like Cleveland, be embarrassed by a heterogeneous crowd of orators, theorists and obstructionists, who will make his admin istration a failure and his life a burden. WEST POMT
Special Train Will Leave Syracuse November 19 .

The committee recently appointed to make arrangements concerning the transportation to West Point on the occasion of the West Point-Syracuse football game on November 19 are ready to announce the result of their labors. The committee, consisting of Earl G. Rice, manager of the basketball team; and Cyrus B. Griffith, assistant manager of the football team, has been at work for a couple of weeks corresponding with the various railroad officials. Yesterday they received definite rates and conditions from the authorities.
A rate of three dollars and a half for the round trip has been secured. This low rate is upon the condition, however, that at least 250 take advantage of the opportunity offered. The trip will be in the nature of a one-day excursion. There will be a special train entirely at the command of the students. It will leave Syracuse on the West Shore tracks on the day of the game, November 19, at any hour the students desire. Returning, it will leave West Point Saturday night at any time the students shall fix.
Tickets will be put on sale immediately. This particular form of ticket will be sold on the hill from now until Saturday, November 19. On that day these tickets can be exchanged at the West Shore station for the regular transportation tickets. The tickets wil be offered for sale by student solicitors, and can also be had at the Treasurer's office and the C 0 -op. Already students are planning to take this remarkably low rate trip. It is expected that the sale of tickets will be very large, the estimate being placed at 1,000 . Many students are planning to take advantage of this excursion as a means of seeing the Hudson river and the surroundings at West Point.

SONG SUPPLEMENT.

The special song supplement containing new Syracuse songs, with original music, which is given this morning wo every regular subscriber of the Daily Orange, will be placed on sale at the Co-op. They will also be sold during the sing at chapel this evening at 7 o'clock. The price of ten cents has been made in order that the songs may be within the reach of every student in the University.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

The fellows who gathered on the campus yesterday afternoon to watch the football practice saw a much better game played between the 'Varsity and scrubs than the game with Allegheny last Saturday.
The coach gave his whole attention to developing the 'Varsity's defense. Every time it obtained the ball Powell gave the signal for a punt. In this way the scrubs were given an excellent opportumty to show what they could do in advancing the ball. and once they worked it to the seven-yard line where they lost it on downis. Several times they skirted the ends for long runs, but never succeeded in placing the ball behind the goal posts.
The 'Varsity appeared rather weak when the ball was in the center of the field, but held like a stone wall at critical times. When the ball reached the ten-yard line the 'Varsity would rise to the occasion and hold for downs.
The squad showed lots of ginger and "get there" spirit. There has been a consistent development from the first of the season and unless something unforeseen happens the eleven should be in the best condition that it has been this season when it meets the Army.

Songs Will Be Sung-.. Plans for West Point Will be Made.

The first of a series of indoor sings will be held this evening in the chapel of the Hall of Languages, beginning promptly at $70^{\prime}$ clock. Thesesings will be simply a continuation of the ones originated last year, and which proved so successful. It is planned to hold a sing once each week during the winter. At these times the men of the University will have an opportunity to meet together, practice the yells and songs and discuss matters relating to the University and all of its branches. This will be the only opportunity afforded the men to meet together. There are many things which need to be brought to the attention of the students, and which cannot be done satisfactorily in any other way. The meetings will have the combined purpose of a college sing and a mass meeting. Questions concerning athletics, undergraduates, intercollegiate relations, etc., will be brought before these gatherings.
The first of these meetings will be held to-night. There will be songs, both new and old; there will be yells and cheers; there will be general discussions concerning football and the West Point trip and game; and there will be great enthusiasm. With today's issue of the Orange there appears a supplement containing two new Syracuse songs and four others. Every student is asked to practice these songs before tonight, learn them if possible and bring them to the meeting.

cuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croton Street.

With no little interest have the students watched for the announcement of the plans for the West Point trip. Now that those plans are announced, everyone is more interested than ever. The rate secured is a low one, and one which every student can afford. The entire trip can be taken at a remarkably low price. The field at West Point is government property and therefore there is no admission to the game. One can see at a glance, then, that the necessary expense for this trip will be within the reach of all.
Of course the primary object of the trip will be to witness the game and cheer our men on to victory. It will be a great game, and one which no student of the University can afford to mişs. It will be our hardest game, and the a meeting of all the students. one which our men will fight the Such a gathering is planned for hardest to win. Remember that this evening. It will be a great trip; it will be one continuous celebration; it will be one of the biggest Syracuse functions ever held. Think of a special train containing only students and friends of the University, all of whom will be filled with an over-abundance of loyalty and enthusiasm! Such an opportunity will be presented to the students rarely. One could afford to undergo a large sacrifice rather than miss the trip and game. Everyone should get their tickets immediately and boom the project in every possible way. Let us keep as our motto-a thousand students to West Point to cheer our team to victory.

Her SuMS FOR

WEST PONT GAME
Words Written to Popu lar and Familiar Music are Most Desired.

At this time the students are being called upon for songs for a new Song Book. There is another matter, however, which needs the immediate attention of the student body. We must have songs for the West Point game. The crowd of Syracuse students that will be at the game November 19 will need some new songs, written for the oceasion.
It has been the custom for all the leading colleges of the country to have special songs for the hardest games. We must have them for West Point. In view of these facts, the Orange an nounces that it will receive any songs which may be handed in, and publish them in some convenient form. These songs are not to be college songs in the strict sense of the term. Neither are they to be written to new music. The songs must be for the West Point game only, and written especially with the idea of encouraging our team on to victory. The songs mustall be written to popular and well known music. It is not expected that the results upon this short notice will be masterpieces. That is not necessary.
There should be at least a score of these songs handed in, The Orange will not guarantee to publish all that are received, but will try to select, with the aid of competent judges, those most appropriate for the occasion. Songs should be handed in at once, in order that they may be before the students as soon as possible. There is an almost unlimited amount of popular music to which the words may be written. Every song should be in this week, in order that they may be published in time for the indoor sing next Wednesday night.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The first meeting of the Dramatic Club was held Tuesday night at the Beta Theta Pi chapter house. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. H. Searle; vice-president, E. G. Rice; secretary, W. Y. Boyd; treasurer, S. H. Rice; chairman executive committee, J. R. Rubin; press agent, A. F, Rider.
Plans of work were discussed and various committees appointed. It now seems probable that a new play will be given during senior week. All the members are enthusiastic over the success of last year's production and are anxious to keep up the reputation of the University in dramatic work. The next meeting will be held Wednesday evening, November $9,8: 30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. at the D. K. E. chapter house.

Syracuse flags, big and little, from 15 cents up, at Harney's.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

The regular football routine yesterday afternoon consisted of tackling the dummy, running signals and developing the 'Varsity defense. The team showed up much better in the latter than the night before, the scrubs succeeding in getting only one long run last night and would not have had that except for a bad tackle.
There were a couple of changes on the 'Varsity, Dempster playing right tackle, where he showed up well, and Magoon playing defensive half back. He took care of his position in a way that brought pleasure to the hearts of the coaches.
The guards, VanDuyn and Stevenson, got through the line better than they have at any time this season.
Captain Park, Stimpson, Curtis and Russell, who have been out of the game because of injuries, were all on the field last night in their football togs, but did not take part in the scrimmage. Among the scrubs Wilbur, left tackle, is doing work that makes him a likely candidate for a place in the Varsity first line up next year. Wharf, left guard, and Fitzgerald, right end, are both taking care of their positions in a manner pleasing to the coaches.

Football at medical college.

Football spirit is raging high at Medical College. The freshmen have purchased a new ball and regular practice is held every afternoon from 4:30 until 5:30. The annual Law-Medic game, which will take place in about two weeks, will be a good struggle. The defeat of last year is urging the Medies to do their best and a fast heavy team will result. The line will be much stronger than that of former years. Keller, Almy, Snyder and Squires are all in the game. The back field promises to be one of speed and all are ex perienced men.
SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY MARCH ON SALE.
The Co-op yesterday received a supply of the Syracuse University Marches. The music was composed by Leon La Vergne Bly. The sheet has a very pretty cover design in orange. The march itself is one of the very best. The music is catchy and moves along with a good swing. It is a piece which is bound to become popular and one which every student at Syracuse will want.

TICKETS FOR WEST POINT,

Tickets for the trip to West Point were put on sale yesterday. It is expected that a very large number of tickets will be disposed of during the next few days. Tickets can be had at the Treasurer's office. Manager Rice announces that the rate will be $$ 3.50$, regardless of the number of tickets sold.

CROUSE COLIEGE  TO BE USED

The Christian Associa

 tions Find Gymnasium Inadequate.Commencing next Sunday the Chrise tian Associations are to use Crouse College auditorium for the Sunday after noon meetings. For many years these meetings have been held in the gymnasium; but with the growth of the University this room has become more and more inadequate. Scores of students have found it impossible to secure seats during the past few weeks, and as a result many have been turned away, while hundreds more have failed to come, realizing the crowded conditions that always prevail.
Secretary Waite and many of the friends of the Y. M. C. A. have realized for some time the immediate need of a separate Christian Association building with adequute quarters for devotional and social meetings. This building, along with the new chapel, is "coming;" but in the meantime the work of the associations is to be materially strengthened by the use of Crouse College for the meetings Sunday afternoons.
The Rev. F. J. Keeney of the First M. E. church is to address the meeting next Sunday. Chancellor Day is also expected to be present and speak.

INDOOR SINO A BIG SUCCESS.

Those who did not attend the indoor sing and mass meeting last evening missed one of the most enthusiastic gatherings held there in some time. A large crowd, including many ladies, gathered in the chapel room at 7 $0^{*}$ clock. Cheermaster Arthur E. Moody conducted the meeting. The new songs given with yesterday's Orange were practiced and will surely become popular.
Between the singing of the songs matters relating to the University were brought before the students. It was decided to hold the big crew-football celebration and dinner after the West Point game. It was alsp decided to start the custom of singing Alma Mater directly after the dismissal of chapel. The meeting proved a success in every way, and a similar one will be held next Wednesday night.
NO FOOTBALL PRACTICE TODAY.
There will be no football practice on the oval this afternoon. The men will be given an opportunity to attend the All-follegiate-Watertown game.
LOST-Between library and Hall of Lauguages a purse containing a ten dollar bill. Finder please leave at the Treasurer's office.

Today we are unpacking a hundred more Syracuse flags at Harney's-the big ones that sell for a quarter.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 80 Croton Street.

There seems to be a mistaken idea among the students concerning the West Point trip. Word has arisen from some unknown source and has been gradually passed around the hill to the effect that the rate to West Point will be lower if a larger number of students go. In anticipation of such a reduced rate, some students are not purchasing tickets now, but are waiting in the hope that a larger number will signify their intention of taking the trip, and thus a lower rate will be offered. Those who are delaying on such grounds will be sorely disappointed.
Yesterday morning one of the city papers again condescended to lift the load of labor from the shoulders of the committee having the matter in charge, and announced that a rate of three dollars could be secured if five hundred would go on the trip. Once again the students have had presented to them an object lesson illustrating the absolute impossibility of placing any credence in certain articles in the city dailies. These object lessons have been frequent and numerous during the past month. Of course, it makes little difference at this time, as the students have learned that everything which appears in print hiay not be the nearest to fact or truth. Earlier in the college year people believed what they read in a large city daily. That was quite natural; one would expect that articles in such papers could be relied upon. The old saying that "truth is stranger than fiction" does not apply here. The first part of that saying might apply very appropriately, however, as truth is certainly a stranger.
However that may be, the rate to West Point will be three dollars and fifty cents for each man or woman, faculty member or dean, chancellor or janitor, editor of a city daily. or reporter of the same. It will make no difference whether 250 take the trip or 1,000 . Therefore it is the duty of every student to secure a ticket at once, and assure the committee that the necessary 250 will go.

DEMOCRATIC STUDENTS ATTEND MASS MEETINO.
A number of Democratic students of the University met last evening and attended the mass meeting at the Al hambra. The principal speakers of the evening were D. Cady Herrick, the Democratic nominee for Governor, and ex-Senator David B. Hill.

It has been announced that an agreement has been reached on the proposed educational alliance between Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and that the plan of uniting the university and institute seemed in a fair way toward success. No formal vote on the matter, however, has yet been taken. Under the suggested proposition neither of the institutes would sacrifice independence. Separate faculties and administrations would prevail. The practical difference would be that the industrial sciences would fall to Technology, while the liberal arts and pure sciences would remain with Harvard.

CUTS CAMNOT BE ALLOWED

Sale of Tickets for West Point Game Is Large.

Dean Smalley announces that it will be impossible to allow the students cuts on the occasion of the West Point trip, November 19. The matter was brought before the faculty, who decided such action would not be wise. The students are allowed a certain number of cuts for just such emergencies as this, it is maintained. However, if a student takes more cuts than he is allowed, it is always possible to petition the fac ulty to have them removed.
The above rather disappointing news, however, did not in the least affect the sale of tickets yesterday. Upto a late hour last night the committee announced that about 100 had already been disposed of. It is especially requested by the committee having the sale of seats in charge, that all who intend to go procure their tickets at once. On November 16 the conmmittee will be obliged to put $$ 875$ in the hands of the railroad officials or the excursion will have to be given up. It is therefore necessary that every student purchase tickets immediately in order to make the trip a success. Tickets are on sale at the Treasurer's office in the Hall of Languages, and at the New York Central ticket office in the University block.
The alumni residing in and near New York city will have a special train to run from the metropolis to the game. A member of the Alumni Association told an Orange reporter yesterday that at least 200 would attend the game from New York city. "They will be on hand to cheer and yell as loud as when in college," said he. "We are not dead down there by any means. It will not be very long before you will find a Syracuse University Club, with its club house, in New York. There is great anxiety among the alumni there concerning the West Point game. They all believe we have a winning team, and will be there to back their belief."

PRESS CLUB ADOPTS Plans.

At a meeting of the Press Club yesterday plans for the year were dis cussed. It is the object of the club, among other things, to devise some plan whereby Syracuse University will be better recognized in the metropolitan dailies. An effort will be made to have more space allotted to Syracuse news matter in New York nnd other cities where there are large numbers of Syracuse University alumni. The matter will be taken up immediately.

Dr. Street delivered an address before the Auburn Theological Seminary yesterday afternoon.

Harney sells the ORANGE banners.

AS ALLEOHENY SEES IT.
The following comment appeared in an article concerning the Syracuse-Allegheny football game in the last issue of the Allegheny Campus:
The Allegheny football team made its initial effort in fast company on Saturday afternoon, when it wus defeated by the Syracuse University team by the score of 69 to 0 . Unlike the return of a week ago, the men came back in high spirits, enjoying the satisfaction of having made the big 'Varsity team work for every point they got.
Pitted against it was the strongest and speediest team that Allegheny has ever met. Our men were outweighed thirty pounds to the man and were up against a team trained to a point approaching perfection. The speed of the Syracuse men was wonderful. So fast were they in their play against Allegheny that even their own supporters marvelled. On the kickoff the Allegheny man who received the ball was downed in his tracks. The Syracuse back field got into play so rapidly that the Allegheny men experienced considerable difficulty in locating the ball.
The defeat by Syracuse does not in any sense reflect discredit upon Allegheny, for it was suffered at the hands of a team which two weeks ago scored nine points against Yale, and allowed the big team barely enough points to win.

Watertown defeated.

A large number of Syracuse students attended thegame between Watertown and All-Syracuse at Star Park yesterday. The 'Varsity football men were nearly all present to watch the work of the professionals, several of whom have been stars on the college gridirons in former years. O'Neill, Henderson, Weir, Patten and Lane, all of them well-remembered old 'Varsity players, were in the game for Syracuse. Their work contributed largely to the defeat of the heralded Watertown aggregation. The final score was $22-0$.

A LEADINO POLITICAL isSUE.

One of the leading issues of the present campaign will be discussed today before the class taking the work in advanced argumentation. The question is, "Resolved, That the acts of President Roosevelt, which have been charged by the Democrats as unconstitutional, are not justifiable." The speakers on the affirmative are Fred Hartwell and A. J. Croft, while the negative will be upheld by J. E. Tressler and Lloyd L. Cheney.

The Yale Debating Committee has selected the question for the amual debate to be held at New Haven on December 9, between Yale and Princeton. It was Yale's privilege to choose the question this year and Princeton to choose the side. The question for debate is as follows: "Resolved, That it should be the policy of the United States not to hold territory permanently unless with the purpose that it shall ultimately enjoy statehood."

SEEERRL NEW SONGS REEEVED

Preparations for the West Point Game

 Progressing.Yesterday morning the Orange issued a call for new songs for the West Point game. The songs are to be written to popular and well-known music, and suitable particularly for the game November 19. In response to the article published yesterday morning several songs were received during the day.
There should be many others, however They must be in during the next few days in order that they may be published in time for the next sing on Wednesday evening. Every student is urged to send in a song. The field is a broad one, and there is a great need for songs of this nature at the West Point game. At the annual CornellPrinceton game the bleachers always ring with songs written for the occasion. All compositions should be I eft in the copy box on the door of the Hall of Languages, or handed or sent to some representative of the Orange. It is hoped that there will be a sufficient number of desirable songs in this week, in order that the publication may bedelayed no longer than necessary. There are no conditions for entrance of songs, except that they be to popular and well-known music and that they be written especially for the West Point game.

SING AFTER CHAPEL.

Yesterday morning, in accordance with a motion passed at the indoor sing, Wednesday night, the students sang Alma Mater directly after the chapel exercises. As soon as the exercises were finished everyone arose and sang the song before leaving the room. It is the plan that such a program be followed each morning.

NO PRACTICE YESTERDAY.
Coach Hutchins gave the men on the football squad a day off yesterday. Most of them took advantage of the opportunity and witnessed the game at Star Park between the All-Collegiate team and Watertown. Yesterday was the first day the men have not reported for practice since the season opened.

AN ACTUAL FACT.

Was it a thunderbolt or an earthquake? Whatever the catastrophe, the Geneva fire department was determined to be ready to perform its duty. Every man was in his position; the doors of the engine house were thrown open; the horses came dashing out into the street. On investigation, however, the disturbance proved to come from two Syracuse law students, who were showing their loyalty to Old Syracuse by giving the college yells. If there are any who have ever doubted the effectiveness of our yells, let him now forever hold his peace.

NOTICES.

All football men who have had suits this season and are no longer out, will please return them to the custodian at. once. E. L. Ackley, Manager.

Seniors wishing to secura their Onondagan cuts can have them by calling at 712 Comstock avenue. W. H. Douglas.

Not all of the taxes recently levied upon the men of the upper classes have been paid. This matter must be attended to at once.

JUNIOR PHOTOS FOR THE 1906

 ONONDAOAN.The junior class photographs for the 1906 Onondagan are to be taken at Ryder's studio this year. Every member of the class of 1906 is expected to have his or her photo in the Onondagan. Reduced rates have been secured for the pictures. All photographs must be in on or before December 1, and should be handed to Frank L. Baker. chairman of the committee, or to the business manager, E. N. Packard. Every photo must be accompanied by $$ 1.50$ to pay for the cost of the cut.
E. N. Packard, Business Manager.

COLUMBIA CELEBRATES 150 TH anNiversary.
During the last four days of October Columbia University celebrated the 150th anniversary of its founding. On Friday, October 28, the Columbia Spectator published a special issue commemorative of the founding of the university, then known as King's College, as well as the celebration ceremonies. The issue was well worthy of the effort. The front cover contained a drawing which represented a student at the time of the founding of the college. The edition contains many illustrations of old, new and proposed buildings at Columbia. . There is a well written history of the university, and a description of the social life of the students during different periods of progress.
The sophomore engineers held a banquet at the Globe Hotel last evening, beginning at $80^{\circ}$ clock. There was a large attendance and plenty of enthusiasm. The men were attired in the new brown class shirts. The toasts were all given in a happy vein and were as follows:

The man who takes for his motto some such phrase as "Never vote a split ticket," is hardly the stamp of a man who will make the best citizen. While a person may justly be convinced that the principles for which a certain political party stands are better than those of another party, or that the platform and past record of the one is to be preferred to that of another, yet it is quite possible, and indeed quite probable, that every candidate on a particular ticket is not the embodiment of the principles for which his party stands. A man who is a Republican or Democrat simply because his father was is a poor candidate for citizenship in a democracy. A man who affiliates with some carefully for whom they vote particular party and always votes this fall. Are there any particu-a straight ticket without considering individually, as far as possible, the men for whom he is voting, is likewise not the best type of American citizenship. Neither is a man a representative American who abides by the oft-repeated saying "Once a Republican, always a Republican."
We, as intelligent and educated citizens of a nation which has come to be a world power, should be a thinking people, and never is there a time presented to us when we should do more or clearer thinking than on the eve of a great election. Our constitution delegates mighty powers to the voters of this country. Every ballot is an expression of the voter's thought; it is the written result of careful investigation; it is his expressed idea as to whom the sovereign people of this country shall entrust power; it is in reality an expression of sovereignty.
Bearing these things in mind, we, as students of Syracuse University, as well as citizens of this country, have something to think about at this time. We have problems to solve. We must settle matters which directly and indirectly affect the welfare of our University. A student should have enough college spirit and loyalty to stand by his University as firmly at the polls as on the gridiron. It is quite possible that much greater problems are solved at the former place than at the latter.
"A word to the wise is sufficient." We have nothing to say derogatory to any party or to any candidate. We do believe, however, that there are reasons why students-and citizens as wellof Syracuse should consider very

MANHATTAN

HEER TODA

New York Men Will Meet'Varsity at 3 O'clock.

The team from Manhattan College will meet the 'Varsity on the oval at 3 o'clock this afternoon. It is not expected that the game will be a difficult one, though little is known of the team. They have a strong, heavy squad of men, Last week Lafayette defeated them 54 to 0 , but that was the first game Manhattan had played this year. They have had a week of practice since then, and it is reported that they are coming to Syracuse with a much better team than they sent against Lafayette a week ago.
The Syracuse team will probably line up for the game today as follows: Left end, Magoon; left tackle. Harwood: left guard, Van Duyn; center, Belcher; right guard, Stephenson; right tackle, Tucker; right end, Lyon; quarterback, Powell; left halfback, Clark; right halfback, Parker; fullback, F. J. Yark. R. N. Hockenberry will act as umpire and C. E. Southers as referee.
The 'Varsity were given a hard scrimmage yesterday afternoon, and did excellent work. Coach Hutchins lined up against them a second team of fifteen men, and the 'Varsity found little difficulty in breaking through for large gains. Curtis made a pretty place kick in the serimmage yesterday The men are all prepared for today's game, and will go into it with the determination to play their best.

Classical club lectures.

The speakers for each of the four lectures to be given this winter under the auspices of the Classical Club have been arranged. The tickets for the course were put on sale yesterday. The exact date of the last three lectures is not yet known, but will be announced later. The first lecture will occur November 15 . They will all be held in Assembly Hall of the University Block. The first lecture will be given by Professor Rufus B. Richardson, Ph. D. who was for ten years director of the American School for Classical Studies in Athens. His subject is "Northern Greece," and the lecture is to be illustrated. The second number will occur in December, and will be an illustrated letture by Professor John Greene, Ph. D., head of the Latin department at Colgate. Dr. Greene's subject will be "Pompeii." The third lecture will be given in February by Dr. John L. Heffron, professor of medicine in Syracusc. His subject is "A Summer Trip in Greece." This lecture will also be illustrated. The last of the series will be given in March by Professor M. H. Morgan, Ph. D., professor of Classic Philology at Harvard. Dr. Morgan's subject will be announced later.

SINGLE CUTS ONLY.

At a meeting of the faculty yesterday afternoon it was decided to give only single cuts for Saturday, November 19, in orier that everyone may attend the West Point game. This date regularly falls within the double cut period, as it is one of the three days before a vacation. It was also decided at yesterday's faculty meeting to give only single cuts for Monday and Wed nesday, November 7 and 9 . There will be no college Tuesday, election day.

A FEW LEFT.

But today's business will clean them out. We refer to those belt overcoats we advertised yesterday. About sixty in all, they must be sold today and if you let this opportunity pass it's your own fault, as if you don't want them today you'll need them later and then you'll have to pay the long price, which is $$ 25$. You gave considerable by getting in on the ground floor today, only $14.95. Respectfully, Kearney Bros. Vanderbilt Square.

BASCEEBALL GMME THIS EVENME

First Game of the Season With Jenner's School Tonight.

The first basketball game of the season will be held in the gymnasium at 8 o'clock this evening. The 'Varsity will meet the team from Jenner's Preparatory School of this city in a practice game. There will be no admission, and all students are invited to come out and see the work of one of the fastest basketball teams in the country.
The men have been training hard and consistently for several weeks now, but have not as yet lined up to try their strength against another team. There is an abundance of good material in the line of basketball this year, and it is expected by those familiar with the circumstances that the team this season will be the best that ever represented Syracuse University. There are several men here who played on the champion German Y. M. C. A. team of Buffalo.
The team for to-night's game wil be selected from the following men:
Centers-Stark, Riehl.
Guards, right-Brady, Dollard.
Manager Rice will act as referee and Carl Burt as umpire.
"THE WEST POINT SPECIALS."
The call for songs suitable for sing. ing at the West Point game has been responded to by quite a considerable number. One of the best of these songs is published today so that it may become thoroughly familiar before the next chapel sing:
"We Don't Belong to the Regulars."
We don't belong to the regulars,
We're just a volunteer,
We don't give a rap for the soldiers Or anybody here;
We don't have any epaulet
Or lace or golden braid,
But don't forget, we'll have, you bet,
A grand nightshirt parade.
We don't belong to the army, boys,
We don't have any gun,
We won't do any harm, eh? boys, But have a little fun;
We don't need any gatling guns Our goal line to defend,
But we certainly have some rattling runs
To circle both your ends.
We won't bring any bayonet point Or sword or cannon ball;
We're only going to beat West Point And do it fair, that's all.
The Hudson stream has seen us win
And trim the fastest crew.
The way we took the Navy in
We'll take the Army, too.
H. W. F. '07,

NOTICES.

Seniors wishing to secure their Onondagan cuts can have them by calling at 712 Comstock avenue. W. H. Douglas.

There will be a meeting of Double Seven Saturday evening at the Beta Theta Pi chapter house.

Not all of the taxes recently levied upon the men of the upper classes have been paid. This matter must be attended to at once.

The regular meeting of the Chemical Club which should be held next Monday evening has been postponed for one week. The meeting will be called at the usual hour and it is important that each memiver should be there, as the election of officers will occur at that time.

The regular meeting of the Biological Association will be held on Monday, November 7, at 7:30 p. m. Several members will address the meeting on vacation observations. J. E: Kirkwood, President.
STUDENTS ATTEND POLITICAL MASS MEETINO.
About thirty adherents to the principles of Thomas Jefferson and admirers of Judge Alton B. Parker assembled in front of Liberal Arts College Wednesday evening and led by a city fife and drum corps proceeded to the Alhambra. At Orange street they were joined by as many more medics and by the time they had reached the Alhambra there were over seventy-five men in the procession.
100 WILL BOARD THE TRAIN AT KINOSTON.
Word was received yesterday that abont 100 alumni and football enthusiasts of Kingstan, N. Y., will board the West Point excursion train at that place.

135 TICKETS SOLD.

Last evening the committee announced that about 135 tickets to West Point had been sold. It is expected a large number will be disposed of at the game today.

IF YOU ARE A FRESHMAN.
Perhaps you don't know that all students wear gloves on Sunday. They do, and the wise ones get them at factory prices by buying themi of the manufacturer, who also keeps them in repair free of charge. Syracuse Glove Company, 222 West Fayette street. Open evenings.
The Prohibition Club held their regular meeting Thursday evening. Plans were made to attend the mass meeting Monday night at the Alhambra. Men will also be furnished the city committee to report returns from election districts on Tuesday.

SYRACUSE M4,

The New Yorkers Over whelmed---First Half 100 to 0.

Syracuse came within two points of the record Saturday afternoon when she defeated Manhattan College by the overwhelming score of 144 to 0 . The seore might have been even larger, had not the game been called on account of darkness. It was one continuous spectacle of a series of long runs coming after nearly every play. The ball was in Syracuse's possession during all the game, Manhattan at no time making her distance. There was splendid interference on the part of the Syracuse men, which was responsible for the many long runs. The Syracuse men broke through Manhattan's line, and circled her ends at will. Only once did Syracuse fail to gain her distance on the first play.
The feature of the game was the kicking by Curtis. The game was was played during a drizzling rain and snow on a muddy field. The ball was consequently wet and slippery, but Curtis kicked 15 out of 17 goals. While Manhattan was weak in team work and entirely unable to withstand the 'Var sity rushes or to break up the interference, yet her men were in good physical condition. It was noticeable that at no time during the game was time taken out for injury. Gregory made several good tackles and played the best game for the visitors.
The time of the first half was 20 minutes and the second was to be 25 . This, however, was cut down to 15, but the game was called before they had played the full time. At the end of the first half the score was 100 to 0 . Coach Hutchins changed the back field for the second half and also put in Magoon. Russell and Dempster. There was a small crowd present, and little interest was manifested, except as to how large the final score would be.

The Line-up.
The line-up was as follows:
Harwood ..........................Costello
Left guard.
Van Duyn.......................Maschanski Center.
Belcher, Russell......................Manley Right guard.
Stephenson.........................Hernandeg Right tackle.
Tucker, Dempster................... $0^{\prime}$ Brien Right end.
Lyon, Fitzgerald......... $0^{\prime}$ Donnell (capt) Quarterback.
Powell .................................Gregory Left halfback.
Park (eapt), Parker..............Hanrahan Right halfback.
Stimson, Farrington..............Christian

Fullback.
Curtis, F. J. Park,
Curtis, F. J. Park,
Umpire-C. E. Sautters. RefereeR. N. Hockenberry. Timers-Pratt, Delaney. Linesmen-Marcy, McNamara. Time of halves -20 and 15 min . Touchdowns-Park 4, Powell 4, Curtis 2, Stimson 3. Parker 3, Farrington 2, Burrell, Lyon, Tucker, Fitzgerald, Magoon, F. J. Park, Harwood-total 25. Goals from touchdowns-Curtis 15, Van Buyn 4-total 19.

The Game.

Powell kicked off for Syracuse at 3:10. Manhattan failed to gain, and tried to punt. The ball was fumbled, however, and went to Syracuse, and Curtis was sent over for the first touchdown. After that the touchdowns came repeatedly after only a few minutes of play. Several times the revolving wedge was used for large gains. On one kick-off Manhattan kicked 40 yards to Stimson, who came back 20 and passed the ball to Powell, who ran 75 yards for a touchdown. The next touchdown was scored by a 50 yard run by Powell around right end. The sixth touchdown was gained by Curtis after a 45 yard run around left end. Manhattan then kicked to Lyon, and on the first play Captain Park got around left end for 70 yards and another touchdown. Thus the story of the first half continues. It would be a long, uninteresting story to relate the plays in detail. Nearly every touchdown was scored after long runs by Syracuse men. The longest run was by Stimson, who ran 95 yards, with fine interference, for a touchdown, having caught the ball from the kickoff.

FOOTBALI TEAM TAXES ACTION

Adopts Resolutions Regarding the Women ght West Point.

The football team and squad was entertained at the Phi Gamma Delta house Saturday evening by Coach Hutchins. Decisive action was taken in protest against the sentiment expressed by some of the students and college reporters in regard to the attendance of the ladies at the West Point game. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
Whereas, Certain statements have been published in one of our city dailies depreciating the attendance of the wumen students of the University at the West Point game, and

Whereas, Those statements are not supported by the student body, but falsely represent the sentiment of that body, and
Whereas, We members of the football squad who are vitally concerned believe that an injustice has been done the women students, and feel that we express the sentiment of the student body in this matter,
Be it resolved, That we hereby ex press our disapproval of the above mentioned article.

Robert Park,
C. Van Duyn,

Committee.
'VARSITY WINS FIRST GAME.
Saturday evening the 'Varsity basketball team met Jenner's in the first game of the season, and the score gives intimation of the kind of a team which will represent Syracuse this season. The game was characterized by quick, accurate passing, and the man ner in which the ball was brought under the basket before shooting for a goal. Redlein, Stark and Dollard, all '08 men, are sure to develop into good basketball material, while Kirchgasser, Brady and Houseknecht are in as good form as last year.
For the visitors, Whelan played the best game. His long throw, nearly the length of the floor, was spectacular.
The line-up was as follows:
'Varsity (74) Jenner's (10)
Stark, Riehl ..............................Teft
Right forward
Redlein, Perry.....Bradley, Millen, Burke Left forward
Kirchgasser, Kinne.................Landers Right guard
Dollard, Houseknecht...............Whelan Left guard

NEW SONGS FOR

 WEST PONT GAMEWill Be Tried at the Sing Wednesday Even. ing.

A short time ago the Orange issued a call for new songs written especially for the West Point game. These songs were to be written to popular and wellknown music. Several songs have been received and are published below, in order that they may be practiced at the sing tomorrow night. The fact that these songs are published at this time does not mean that no more will be received. Students are invited to send in any songs they may have or compose any time during the coming week. The best of the songs already received are:
"We Don't Belong to the Regulars." We don't belong to the regulars,
We're just a volunteer,
We don't give a rap for the soldiers
Or anybody here;
We don't have any epaulet
Or lace or golden braid,
But don't forget, we'll have, you bet, A grand nightshirt parade.
We don't belong to the army, boys,
We don't have any gun,
We won't do any harm, eh? boys,
But have a little fun;
We don't need any gating guns
Our goal line to defend,
But we certainly have some rattling runs
To circle both your ends.
We won't bring any bayonet point
Or sword or canmon ball;
We're only going to beat West Point, And do it fair, that's all.
The Hudson stream has seen us win And trim the fastest crew.
The way we took the Navy in
We'll take the Army, too.
H. W. F. '07.
"Speed Away."
(Tobe Sung on the Team's Departure, on Way to and from the Victory.)
Speed away, speed away on our errand of might;
We've been longing and pining to show that we're right.
We shall smother old West Point before it is night,
We shall do it with ease and without much hard fight.
They will ask how we did it, so great was our play-
Speed away, speed away, speed away.
Speed away, speed away to the fuir Hudson stream,
To the home of the soldiers with the great football team;
To the place of the bleachers, goal post and chalk lines,
The place where the Orange will score several times.
Ring the chimes, rip the walks, let the - boys have their sway-

Speed away, speed away, speei away.

Speed away, speed away to the brow of Crouse hill,
Where at night soul and bodies with good things we'll fill;
We will sing of our triumph and victory until Doctor John and the Chancellor will bid us be still;
But in dreams we will ever be into the fray-
Speed away, speed away, speed away.
H. W. F.

Our Foe's the Army.
(Tune: Cheer for the Orange.)
Our foe's the Army,
Husky and strong;
We know the Army
Won't play ping-pong.
Here's to defeat them,
Let's do it neat then,
Fight for the victory.
Cheer for the Orange,
Syracuse must win, Fight to the finish, Never give in,
You do your best, boys,
We'll do the rest, boys, Cheer for the victory.

Our Motto.

(Tune: Loyalty to Syracuse.)
Arise, ye Orange men, arise, Each loyal daughter, too; Send your praises to the skies For football team and crew. Give the foe no quarter, Engage them hand to hand-
What eight men do on water Eleven can onland
Let every loyal voice resound Through Onondaga's vale, Heap the faggots high and wide, We've triumphed over Yale. Sing, every son and daughter,
While round the fire we stand-
What eight men did on water
Eleven can on land.
We'll raise the Orange flag on high And never pull it down;
We'll fight on land until we die
And row until we drown.
Remember, son and daughter, While e'er these buildings stand, What eight men did on water Eleven will on land.
H. W. F. '07.
(Tune; We Don't Belong to the Regulars,)
We don't belong to the Army, boys,
Ws are from Syracuse;
We don't believe in the army rules,
We cannot see their use.
We're always sure our team will win, And then it always does;
We'll always stand by them loyally,
Whether they win or lose.

They Can't Beat that Sum.

(From Babes in Toyland.)
My, the soldier boys are trim,
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh.
Do you think that they will win? No, no, no, no, no, no.
They can fight and capture towns
And can hold a gun;
What we want is four touchdownsThey can't beat that sum

ANOTHER SNG

WEDNESOA NGHT
Will Begin at 7 O'clock and Last One Hour.

The great success of the first indoor sing held last Wednesday night has warranted the calling of another similar meeting tomorrow night. The sing will be held in the chapel of the Hall of Languages at 7 o'clock sharp. Every one is urged to be present promptly at that time, in order that it may be closed at 8 o'clock.
It was the opinion of those present at the first meeting of this nature that it was one of the best customs everinstituted at Syracuse. A large crowd was present at that time, but it is expected the chapel room will be crowded tomorrow night. Last week several new songs were practiced and learned, and several matters of general interest were presented to the student body for action and expression of opinion. There are several things of importance to be brought before the meeting tomorrow night. Plans for the West Point game and trip will be discussed, and it is probable that the student body will at that tme be called upon to take some action in regard to the recent articles concerning the young ladies taking that trip.
In addition to these things the new and old songs will be practiced. Everyone is requested to bring the song supplement used at the last sing and also to bring the songs pubiished in today's issue of the Orange.

STUDENTS SUBPOENAED.

Officers were busily engaged yesterday and Saturday serving subpoenas on students, calling them to appear at the City Hall in reference to the matter of supposed illegal registrations. One student who neglected toobey the summons of a subpoena served Saturday was placed under arrest yesterday morning on charge of contempt of court. He has becn released on giving bail.
Student voters should not allow the fact of these proceedings to keep them away from the polls today, if properly registered. It is only a strained interpretation of the law which would deny a man a right to vote in the district where he attends college. Republican and Democratic leaders unite in saying that the student voter properly registered has rights which should be respected.
SYRACUSE WILL MEET BROWN.
The basketball schedule of Brown University has just been announced. According to that, Syracuse will play Brown at Providence on Tuesday, February 21. This is the first year Syracuse has met Brown in basketball. The other important games on the Brown schedule are Yale, Williams, Harvard, Colgate, Dartmouth and Amherst.

THE HOME OF ${ }^{*}$ "GOOD CLOTHES"

THE other day a customer in our store said:
"When I left the chapter house the boys said, 'don't buy any other clothes, but at Meyers'Clothing Par= lors.'
"It's getting so the fellows all recommend this busy little store.
"But don't let Frank hear that" -referring to the salesman who waits on him=='he'll feel too chesty."

Another of our customers happened to be standing near, and the two were introduced. The second said :
"I overheard your remark about buying only at Meyers' Clothing Store.
"My experience is like yours= they give you the best values here in town."

These two young men were of the best dressed in town, and their tes= timony was sincere.

A NEW DEPARTUBE

Football Team to Have a Few Days' Outing

 in the Woods.Something entirely new to Syracuse fooblall tactics will take place when next Tuesday morning the 'Jarsity will he taken to Constantia toi hunt, tramp and indulge in all kinds of muscle making sports until Thursday morning. The news of the outing came as a complete surprise to the men last night when after the scrimmage Coach Hutchins kept the 'Varsity upon the field and confided the good news to them. The idea is to give the men a change of climate and keep them out of toors. During the little vacation there will be no let up of football practise, except that there will be noscrimmare. The usual signal practice and other routine work will be gone through. When not thus engaged the men will be encouraged to take long tramps, hunt and, in fact, to take all the exercise that will tend to develop hardiness.
There will be but two more scrimmages with the scrubs this season. One will be held tonight and tomorrow night the squad will be given light work in preparation for the Lehigh game the following day. Monday night the usual "light Monday practice" will be gone through, consisting mostly of individual work. Tuesday morning the training table ends, when the team leaves for Constantia, where it will remain till Thursday morning, returning to the city in time for the final serimmage of the season with the serubs in the afternoon. That same evening the squad will leave for Newburg, where it will put on the finishing touches in preparation for the last game of the season with the Army on Saturday.
Last night Coach Hutchins again give his attention to the 'Varsity defense. It was the best scrimmage the squad has had in a week. The fellows were a little slow in getting into the game at first, but worked out all right, and the coach expressed himself as satisfied with the practice.
Curtis and Tucker were both absent last night on account of temporary injuries, the formar having cut his hand yesterday and the latter having sprained an ankle the night before.
Burrell played quarterback last night in order to get used to the signals, so as to be in shape for that position in case Powell should be injured in the game,

SONGS FOR WEST POINT.

West Point.

(Tune: Teasing.)
We're feeling awf'ly gay,
We're really go'ng to beat West Point today-
Never thought those wooden soldier could fight, They're out of our sight
Under Syracuse might;
Just now we're not afraid-
And Monday night we'll have a big parade, We'll beat them in a manly way, And while we play will sweetly say:

chorus:

West Point! West Point! We are only teasing you;
West Point! West Point! Just to see what you can do,
(Of course you know we'll beat you) Touchdown! Touchdown! Hear us Syracusans yell,
Don't be nervous, we are only giving West Point
(shouted) Rah! Rah! Rah! (Repeat chorus)
Night shirts! Night shirts! Get your pretty sleep-togs out!
Night shirts! Night shirts! Join our joyous crowd and shout!
(Our men are beating West Point)
Vict'ry! Vict'ry! Hear us Syracusans yell:
Don't be nervous, we are only giving West Point -

GOOD ATTENOANGE AT CHAPEL SING

Report of Special Train Committee.. Songs Rehearsed.

The second of the Wednesday night chapel sings was held in the chapel of Liberal Arts College last evening and was attended by a large number of students. Frank Brundage, senior cheermaster, was leader. "The Flag of Alma Mater" and "Loyalty to Syracuse," the two new songs to original music, were sung heartily, the composer of the music, George Oakes, Musical '07, accompanying at the pipe organ. After singing the crew song and two of the special West Point songs, "Loyalty to Syracuse" was again sung with the spirit of do or die that its author intended to evoke.
The leader urged upon those present the necessity of every man's learning thoroughly the songs to be used at West Point. "We Don't Belong to the Regulars," "Loyalty to Syracuse" and "Flag of Alma Mater" were selected as the ones which every man should learn by heart.
Eanl- Rice '05 reported as to the progress of the work of the committee on train arrangements for the West Point game. He said that though a large number were saying that they intended to go to the game, only a few had as yet produced the cash for their tickets. He reasserted that $$ 3.50$ was positively the lowest that could be obtained, even if a thousand went, and stated that 250 tickets must be sold and the cash in the hands of the committee November 16, three days before the train's departure.
The committee were thanked by the student body for their work and were empowered to appoint assistants to solicit every alumnus in the city and every student.
The sing closed promptly at 8 p. m.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

In all the activities and excitement attending election and the following days, let us not forget the West Point game and trip. First of all, the trip. Everyone says they are going on the excursion, but everyone has not as yet bought a ticket. There must either be a large number of passes floating around, or a large number of students who intend to walk. Otherwise the statement that everybody is going must be quite wrong. Remember that the required number of tickets must be sold by November 16 .

During the past few weeks very little of the college news appearing in certain city papers has been worthy of the attention of the students, but on Tuesday of advertising"' in this particular afternoon there appeared in the manner. They are anxious to Herald an article which should make clear to this student rebe carefully read by every Syracusan.
The Syracuse University football players laid for a student reporter yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium on the hill, but they did not catch him. Far from it. The men, who had taken offense because the reporter's articles were not as flattering as they had desired, had a nice little plan mapped out to duck him in the swimming tank. The men of the team overlooked the fact that if it was not for the thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of free advertising given all University athletics, the football team here would not be worth 30 cents.
No further evidence than this yellow mixture of fact and fiction, libel and self-laudation, is necessary to show to every student the true relation of the Herald reporters to the University athletics. Well we remember the shameful manner in which Coach Hutchins was treated in the columns of this sheet directly after the defeat by Colgate. No one forgets the series of knocks against coaches and individual players which filled its athletic columns between the time of the Colgate and Yale games. Professional student journalism in the Herald office did all in its power to stiffe the football spiritat that critical period. The students and the football men remember this all too well. Then came the series of sensational articles written in chrome yellow dipped from an imagination which for variety of ingredients would make the famous" Witches' Cauldron" look like an innocent soap kettle. Yes, the football men and their friends are on the lookout for a favorable opportunity to show the student representative of this sort of journalism what should be the fate of one who attempts to give the University "thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of advertising" in this particular manner. They are anxious to make clear to this student reman having such an estimate of the value of his newspaper to the team that they are worth a trifle more than "thirty cents" without the use of all the columns of slush and mush and gush that these reporters can fill.

First CONCERT By OLEE CLUB.

The first concert of the University Glee and Instrumental Clubs will be held Thursday evening, November 17, in the Furman street church. Manager Brundage has made arrangements with the Baraca Class of the church to have the concert given under their auspices. This will probably be the only appearance of the clubs in the city before going on the Christmas trip and perhaps the only one before the grand concert in Crouse College senior week. The club's share of the receipts will go toward paying the expenses of the Thanksgiving trip north.
The concert will be an unusually fine one, as all of the men who have been practicing will appear. The cut for the Thanksgiving trip will not be made until after the concert. For this reason the club will be larger than at any other appearance this year.
The Glee Club is said to be inremarkably fine shape. They have been spending two evenings at practicing and are said to have a large repertoire of new numbers. One of the features of the concert will be the numbers by the quartette.
The Instrumental Club have been working steadily under the direction of E. Stuart Mills. Nearly all the old men are back in the club this year and in addition about twelve or fifteen new men have been added, making the ag gregation particularly strong.

The usual election night frolics, consisting of war dances and "ringing," were indulged in. Several of the underclassmen, conspicuous because of their distinctive headgear, were singled out by city roughs and were rather roughly handled in some instances. ## HARO SCRIMMMAE

 ON THE GRDDRON Tucker and Russell in the Game...Burrell at Quarterback.Coach Hutchins last night put the 'Varsity through its last hard practice before the Lehigh game and next to its last scrimmage before the West Point game. The coach again gave his attention to developing the 'Varsity defense. "Humpy" Lane was out on the field to assist in coaching the ends.
In last night's scrimmage the veterans showed some improvement, especially in defensive work. The coach sa.d he considered the tcam in condition to meet Lehigh tomorrow. During the practice each member of the scrub backfield was given a chance on the 'Varsity eleven. The first team made two touchdowns, one by Powell and one by Stimpson.
A question has arisen in the minds of some of the students as to who will play the quarterback position in the two final games of the season. Burrell was again tried out at that position last night; and when the coach was questioned as to whether this change is to be permanent, he would make no statement. However, it is the general opinion that Burrell is merely being developed as a substitute quarter and will play his old position at end during the remainder of the season.
Curtis and Tucker were each sufficiently recovered from their injuries to be out on the field and take part in the scrimmage.
The 'Varsity ends its practice with a half-mile run upon the track.
The scrubs will report for practice the same as usual all next week. Assistant Coach West will have charge of their practice while the 'Varsity is at Constantia.

THE CEDAR.

The little red brick house, 565 Cedar straet, first door from Irving lavenue, is quite a busy place of late. There, has been opened a lunch room for students. This will save a long walk down town. The quality and variety of food is excellent. The prices are moderate. Coffee that is coffee, 3 cents; cereals, 3 cents; frankfort and roll, 3 cents; pie, 3 cents; baked beans, 3 cents. In fact, nearly all dishes are 3 cents. At these prices it would seem that now the students might enjoy good food and save money. The wheat cakes with maple syrup are fine. Tney do not set up regular meals, but go strictly on the short order plan. Try "The Cedar" just once and become a steady patron. Your order will be filled from 7 in the morning until $10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.

beta theta pi banquet.

ONLY 50 TICKETS SOLD.

The rather discouraging news was announced last night that only about fifty tickets for the West Point trip have been sold. Some over 150 have signifed their intention of taking the trip, but that is quite different from handing out $$ 3.50$ for a ticket. The price of 250 tickets must be in the hands of the New York Central people next Wednesday, or the excursion will have to be given up. The Syracuse alumni will hold a smoker in the rooms of the University Club Monday evening, and it is expected that a number of tickets will be disposed of at that time.
The committee and several sub-committees are hard at work canvassing the student body. A member of the committee was seen last evening, and said: "As yet we have actnally sold but 50 tickets. Something must be done at once. If the students desire this excursion, it will be necessary for them to purchase their tickets immediately. We must have $$ 875$ by next Wednesday. I am rather discouraged myself, and cannot understand why the students keep delaying. If they buy tickets and there should be no excursion, the money will be refunded. I hope more of the students will wake up during the next few days and make this trip an assured success."

COMMENT FROM ALLEGHENY.

In the last issue of the Allegheny Campus the following editorial appeared;
The members of our football team who went to Syracuse are loud in their praise of the treatment accorded them by the members of the opposing team and its supporters. The Syracuse rooters, though enthusiastic over their own team's showing, were none the less generous in their recognition of the visiting team. Every good play made by our men was cheered to the echo. Every time one of our men who had been injured pluckiy re-entered the game, he received the applause of the grandstand and the sidelines. Several times during the game, Syracuse rooters inquired of Manager Reynolds the name of some plucky Allegheny player that they might give him an "all right" yell. The same spirit was shown by the members of the Syracuse team, who insisted in carrying one of our injured players from the field on their shoulders.
It is the manifestation of such spirit as this which will accomplish the real end of intercollegiate contests, i. e., the creation of a firmer bond of union between sister institutions and the fostering of fair and open rivalry.

A NEW PLIAY DEEDEE UPON

Dramatic Club Will Pre sent This Year Shakespeare's Julius Caesar.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Dramatic club was held at the D. K. E. chapter house Wednesday evening. Considerable routine business was disposed of, and the question of this year's play or plays was discussed at some length. It was finally decided to present Shakespeare's tragedy of "Julius Caesar," work on which will begin immediately after the Thanksgiving vacation, when a call for the trials will be made. The play will probably be put on as one of the attractions of senior week, though there is also some consideration of an outdoor presentation commencement week in the Elizabethan style. Inasmuch as the "King Lear" cast is still practically intact, there was some discussion also as to the advisability of repeating that play. The cast for "Julius Caesar" will be selected, as last year, by competition open to the whole student body. In spite of all his other work this year, Professor Losey has consented to superintend the coaching of the cast. Dr. Tilley nnd Dr. Eaton have promised to assist in the coaching.
The Dramatic Club has decided to adopt some style of honorary insignia for its members, and designs and estimates have already been submitted. It will probably consist of a suitable design placed on a heavy gold fob, something in the style of those awarded to the debate teams. All students who had speaking parts in either "King Lear" or the "Taming of the Shrew" are cordially invited to become active members of the Dramatic Club.
The Club is to be incorporated and the play will be given entirely under its management. The funds received this year will be used for buying scenery and other paraphernalia for future plays.
Besides the matinee and evening presentations in the city, trips to Rochester, Buffalo, Utiza and Oswego are under consideration.

There is a unique clock and score board at Franklin Field at the University of Pennsylvania. They tell the number of minutes to be played, the score, the downs, the yards made and by which team.

The net proceeds from the Army and Navy game. which will be played at Philadelphia on November 26, are to be divided between the organizations for the relief of dependent widows, orphans and enlisted men of the army and navy of the United States.
Instead of issuing an annual this fall, the junior class at South Dakota has decided to raise funds for the building

A WEST POINT SONG.

"Just Watch Us Score."
(Tune: We Are the Engineers.)
We've come from Syracuse,
With hearts that loyal beat;
We've come to old West Pount
The Army ts defeat.
The Orange team's the best;
This surely is no jest.
Are we going to beat West Point?
Well ! you just bet.
Last June, on Hudson's stream,
Victorious were the crews;
Today, on Hudson's bank,
The Army we'll confuse.
That little pigskin ball
Behind their goal shall fall.
Are we going to beat West Point? Just watch us score.
Upon their own gridiron
The Army's men we'll roast;
They'll find out soon enough
This is no empty boast.
For when they hear our roar
They'll think it worse than war.
Are we going to beat West Point?
Just watch us score.

THE HOME OF W "GOOD CLOTHES"

THE other day a customer in our store said:
"When I left the chapter house the boys said, 'don't buy any other clothes, but at Meyers'Clothing Par* lors.'
"It's getting so the fellows all recommend this busy little store.
"But don't let Frank hear that" =areferring to the salesman who waits on him=a'he'll feel too chesty."

Another of our customers happened to be standing near, and the two were introduced. The second said:
"I overheard your remark about buying only at Meyers' Clothing Store.
"My experience is like yours-they give you the best values here in town."

These two young men were of the best dressed in town, and their tes= timony was sincere.

A MONSTER
MASS MEETMG
To be Held in Crouse College Hall.- Song Book Ready Then.
A mons ter mass meeting for all the students, men and women, of all colleges in the University will take the place of the regular sing next Wednesday night. Crouse College hall has been secured for the meeting, and Chancellor Dey has promised to speak if nothing interferes. Besides this, speeches will be made by various students, alumni and others. At this meeting the requisite number of tickets for West Point must be sold, or the special train project will have to be abandoned. There is little doubt that this will be accomplished, for enthusiasm will run high. The songs appearing in the Daily Orange will be practiced and the student body aroused for the game.
Besides this, Mr. Rider has promised that the new song book will be ready, and will be put on sale at this meeting. Neither work nor expense has been spared in making the book one worthy of the University, and in spite of the short time-two weeks-allowed for the entire work of publication the book will be satisfactory in both make-up and appearance. Bvery scrap of matter ever published in the Uhiversity has been gone through, page by page. From the 120 songs thus discovered and those now popular, about fifty of the best have been selected for this book, while the rest have been turned over to the alumni-faculty song book committee.
The book will be about twice as large as was at first intended, containing 64 pages, of which ahout 25 will contain both words and music. The engraving and printing has been rushed forward night and day at considerable extra expense in order to get the book out by the time promised. The make-up of the book throughout will be the best, the typography up-to-date, printed on an antique laid paper, while the book will be hand-sewed throughout so as to open flat. There will be two styles of binding offered, one in a dark brown crash paper for ordinary use, the other a special holiday edition-de-luxe. This will be bound in a pure white ripple cover with a wide deckel-edged flap and uncnt edges, making the daintiest little Christmas gift imaginable. In spite of the increased size it will be possible to sell the book at the original low price suggested, twenty-five cents, provided at least 1,000 copies are sold. The special edition will also be issued at cost, thirty-five cents each. It is hoped that every student will support this cause liberally, not by buying merely one, but two or three of these little song-books. Every student ought to have one; they are worth double the price asked; and those in charge have worked hard enough upon them to be assured ac least an immediate and hearty support.

GAME TODAY

Varsity Will Meet Lehigh

 on the Oval at 2:30.This afternoon will be tho last oppor tunity the students and friends of the Un versity will have to see the 'Varsity play this season. The final game on the home grounds will be played with Lehigh at $2: 30$ sharp today. The team will leave Tuesday for Constantia, where they will spend a few days previous to the West Point game.
Lehigh has a heavy team this year, though they have had many obstacles to overcome. Coach Newton had only a small nucleus at the beginning of the season, but has developed a strong team. The results of Lehigh's games this season do not denote her true strength. She has had a long series of hard games. Swarthmore defeated her 20 to 0 , and Swarthmore held the strong Pennsylvania team to the score of 6 to 4 Pennsylvania defeated Lahigh 24 to 0 , and Dickinson won 6 to 0 . Dickinson later tied the Navy. Princeton defeated Lehigh 60 to 0 , but was unable to score the first 21 minutes of play, Lehigh scored 5 points on Cornell last week, the final scorv being 50 to 5 . It is reported that the strength of the Lehigh team has been greatly increased the past week, and without doubt one of the best games scen on the local gridiron will take place today. The probable line-up of the teams will be as follows:
Syracuse.

Published every morniug by the sudents of Syracuse
This aftarnoon will occur the last home game of the season. It will also be one of the best. It will of course be unnecessary to urge the students to be present at the game. But it is well that we all remember that this is the last chance we will have to see the team of 1904 play on our own field. We ought to go into the field this afternoon with this thought in mind, and with the determination to show the team that we appreciate their excellent work this season. We have one of the best teams which ever represented Syracuse; the team has worked hard and long, and have been rewarded with great successes; they have undergone wonderful development under the skillful direction of our coaches. This afternoon let us give the team and coaches to un derstand that all this good work has not been done in vain; let us show them that the student body are behind them in every game, whether it result in victory or defeat.
This will be the last opportu nity for the student body as a whole to cheer on the orange team. We should all improve that opportunity, and send the men away next Tuesday knowing that they have left behind them a loyal and appreciative body of students.

THE HOME OF "GOOD CLOTHES"

THE other day a customer in our store said:
"When I left the chapter house the boys said, 'don't buy any other clothes, but at Meyers'Clothing Par= lors.'
"It's getting so the fellows all recommend this busy little store.
"But don't let Frank hear that" $=$ referring to the salesman who waits on him="'he'll feel too chesty."

Another of our customers hap pened to be standing near, and the two were introduced. The second said :
"I overheard your remark about buying only at Meyers' Clothing Store.
"My experience is like yours=" they give you the best values here in town."

These two young men were of the best dressed in town, and their tes= timony was sincere.

There are hundreds of others who could and would say the same thing.

There's something in it for the man who doesn't wear our goods to think about.

SYMACUSE 30 , LEHICH 4   Pennsylvanians Kick a   Pennsylvanians Kick a Goal from the Field.

With almost ideal weather, barring a heavy, cold wind, the 'Varsity won their last home game of the season Saturday afternoon by a score of 30 to 4 . There was one of the largest crowds seen on the oval this year, and they had the privilege of seeing a close and exciting contest. The score does not indicate the real interest which the game produced. The ball was worked back and forth across the field, each side making repeated gains. Syracuse held Lehigh for downs several times, and forced her to punt frequently. The ball was kept in Lehigh's territory nearly all the time, though it was dangerously near the Syracuse goal line twice. Lehigh improved one of those opportunities and kicked a goal from the 20 -jard line. During the first half Curtis tried for a goal from a placed kick, but fumbled on a poor pass. A few minutes later Burrell made the first score of the game by kicking a pretty goal from the 20 -yard line against the wind. Bachman tried for a goal early in the game, but failod. He made good later, however, making the only score for Lehigh.
The star of Saturday's game was Harwood. The big tackle was used repeatedly for long gains in the second half, and seldom failed to make his distance. For the visitors, Gott and Henry played the best game. There was a great deal of fumbling, but very little penalizing. The Lehigh men played a fast, aggressivegame throughout, and did the best work of any team seen on the oval this season. The average weight of the team was 172 pounds.

The Line Up.
The teams lined up as follows: Syracuse (30)

Lehigh (4)
Left end.
Harwood................................Ballinger Center.
Russell, Belcher.................Hammaker Right guard.
Stephenson .
Right tackle.
Tucker, Dempster...
.......Strauss

Right end.
Lyon, Magoon...........................Pentz

> Quarterback.

Curtis, Park, F. R...... Persons, Adams

Refaree, J. R. Dunbar; umpire, L. L. Iseman; timers, Pratt for Syracuse, Adams for Lehigh; linesmen, Goodwin for Syracuse, Drummond for Lehigh; touchdowns, Harwood 3, Park, F. R. Park; goals from touchdown, Curtis; goals from field, Burrell, Bachman; time of halves, 30 minutes.

Thaigame.

Van Duyn kieked off for Syracuse at 2:30. Lehigh fumbled, but fell on the ball. The ball went to Syraense on downs, and Stimson got through the line'for two yards, Curtis for five and Park for 10. The ball was worked steadily by line plunges to Lehigh's Seven-yard line, when Syracuse was held for downs. After failing to gain, Lehigh punted 34 yards to Curtis, who came back 10. Stimson, Curtis and Park were sent through the line until the ball was placed on Lehigh's $30-$ yard line. Curtis then dropped back to try for a placed kick, but fumbled on a poor pass, and the ball went to Lehigh. The ball was fumbled on the nextplay, however, and went to Syracuse. Burrell was then sent around right end for 20 yards. After Syracuse failed to gain on the next play, Burrell was called upon for a goal from the 20 -yard line, which he kicked against the wind Score-Syracuse 4, Lehigh 0.
On the kickoff Van Duyn sent the ball the length of the field to Persons, who broke through the Syracuse men and came back 60 yards, when he was tackled by Burrell. Lehigh failed to gain but one yard on the next two plays, and then called for a punt by Pentz. Capt. Park, however, broke through the line and tackled him for a loss of eight yards before he could kick. This gave the ball to Syracuse on downs. Powell then lost three yards on the next play, giving the ball to Lehigh. Henry got five around right end and Pentz three around the opposite side. Gott got thrrugh the line for 10 yards, and the ball was within striking distance of the Syracuse goal. Bachman was called upon to try for a goal, but failed. Curtis kicked 40 yards from the 25 -yard line to Smartt, who was downed on the spot by Stimson.
After a failure to circle the Syracuse ends, Lehigh punted offside. Curtis gained three yards through center, and Burrell lost two in a try around end. Curtis then punted 35 yards to Gott, who was tackled in hls tracks by Burrell and Stimson. Lehigh then tried a double pass for a two yard gain and after another play Syracuse gamed the ball on downs. Stimson was sent throung right guard for four yards and Curtis through center for one. The ball was then fumbled, but Capt. Park fell on it after rolling five yards forward. Powell circled right end for a gain of 20 yards. Line plunges by Curtis, Stimson, Park and Harwood brought the ball to Lehigh's four-yard line, and Harwood went over for a touchdown. Curtis failed to kick a difficult goal. Score-Syracuse 9, Lehigh 0. The half was called after a few more plays, the ball being in the center of the field.

The Second Half.

Lehigh opened the second half by kicking 30 yards to Tucker. On the next play Harwood broke through the line and ran 85 yards, the length of the field, for a touchdown. Curtis kicked the goal. Score-Syracuse 15, Lehigh 0. On the next kickoff, Lehigh sent the ball over the goal line and Syracuse then kicked from the 25 -yard line. Lehigh then gained 15 yards on a double pass around right end. Line plunges of eight and three yards brought the ball to Syracuse's 20 -yard line, and Bachman tried for a goal but failed. Curtis kicked from the 25 -yard line, but was biocked and a Lehigh man fell on the ball. Line plunges brought the ball to the Syracuse 12 yard line. Stimson was hurt and Parker took his place. Person was also injured and was relieved by Adams. On the next play Lehigh tried for a placed kick, but the ball went under the bar.
Capt. Park kicked off 30 yards. Lehigh punted 35 yards to Powell, after failure to gain. Parker fumbled the ball on the next play, and Lehigh got the ball on the Syracuse 20 -yard line. Bachman then kicked a goal, making the only score for Lehigh. Score-Syracuse 15, Lehigh 4. Van Duyn kicked 45 yards to Smartt. Gott gained four around right end and Adams got three through center. Lehigh was then forced to punt, and Burrell, on the next play, went around right end for 25 yards. The tackles and back field carried the ball to Lehigh's 20 -yard line, where Burrell tried for a goal, but was blocked. As the ball was in the air, it was hit by Powell and knocked back of Lehigh's line. The ball was given to Lehigh on the line where the ball was struck by Powell, as he committed a foul by so doing. Failure to gain forced Lehigh to punt. Syracuse soon returned the punt, and then Pentz drew back to punt again, but was blocked by Stephenson who got the ball. Capt. Park went through the line for five yards, and Harwood got through right guard for six yards and a touchdown. Burrell failed at goal. Score-Syracuse 20, Lehigh 4.
Lehigh kicked 25 yards to Dempster who lost the ball to Farrington. Magoon gained three around right end, Harwood five through guard, and then 15 around right end. Capt. Park made eight through the line, Harwood 30 around right end, and Park through the line again for 20 yards. Park then went four yards through the line for a touchdown. Powell failed to kick the goal. Score-Syracuse 25, Lehigh 4. Lehigh kicked off to Dempster, who came back 15 yards. Harwood gained 45 yards around right end, Capt. Park 12 through guard and Harwood again went around the same end for 15 yards. F. R. Park, who had relieved Curtis, was then sent over for a touchdown. Burrell failed at goal. Score-Syracuse 30 , Lehigh 4.
"The Cedar," the new lunch room, caters to students exclusively, both ladies and gentlemen. It is not surprising that they are getting a large number of students, for the reason that quality, price and variety are right.

Beauty is only skin deep. Granting that, its depths are immeasurable as compared with some people's college loyalty. College loyalty, unfortunately, often falls far short of the oft-repeated measure of beauty. It fails to reach anything material; it consists, far too often, in considerable noise, willing advice, and a great deal of "knocking." That is college spirit and college loy-alty-to some. Some people are able to show a great deal of loyalty when they can do so with little or no inconvenience to themselves. But when these persons are called upon to test their loyalty by measuring it with dollars and cents, mingled with a little sacrifice, if need be, their loyalty suddenly develops into a cloud and floats away to soar toward that land where ye "come, buy wine and milk without money and without price." May their lives be happy, and crowned with success.
An attitude similar to this seems to characterize a number of students of Syracuse at the present time. We have before us the hardest football game of the season, and we have planned a remarkably low rate excursion. Yet the students do not take advantage of their opportunity. Out of a student body of 2,500 , it is by no means certain that 250 can be induced to spend $$ 3.50$ to take the West Point trip. We are aware that there are many students who are unable to spend the money. But did you ever notice that those students who are the least able are nearly always the first to spend their money for college affairs? If students are unable to go, all well and good. Our remarks are not directed to that class. But they are directed to those who are perfectly able, and who hold back for various insignificant reasons. Remember, everyone, that there will be no excursion to West Point unless 250 tickets are sold before Thursday.

COMPLIMENTS SWEETLAND.
The Lantern, the official organ of Ohio State University, comments as follows on the work of Coach Sweetland:
"He has worked wonders with Ohio State and has won us back the state championship for the first time in many years.
"This is an excellent time," it continues, "for our athletic board to organize a rowing crew. Coach Sweetland was a member of the Cornell champion crew, and has proven himself a superior rowing coach. When he first took Syracuse in hand they had practically only one shell, a second hand boat worth only $$ 100$.
"Ohio State can begin in that small way and work up under him to a good position in intercollegiate rowing contests. This is made possible by the new storage dam."

JUNIOR PHOTOS FOR THE 1906 ONONDAGAN.
The junior class photographs for the 1906 Onondagan are to be taken at Ryder's studio this year. Every member of the class of 1906 is expected to have his or her photo in the Onondagan. Reduced rates have been secured for the pictures. All photographs must be in on or before December 1, and should be handed to Frank L. Baker, chairman of the committee, or to the business manager, E. N. Packard. Every photo must be accompanied by $$ 1.50$ to pay for the cost of the cut. E. N. Packard, Business Manager.

HRST LECTURE

Prof. Richardson Will Speak Under the Aus. pices of the Classical Club.

The first of the series of fourlectures to be given under the auspices of the Classical Club will oceur this evening in the Hall of Crouse College. Professor Rufus B. Richardson, Ph.D., will open the cuarse this evening with an illustrated lecture on "Northern Grecce." Dr. Richardson for ten years was director of the American School for Classical Studies at Athens. This evening he will tell of his experiences during a hicycle tour through Northern Greece, illustrated with lantern slides from photographs taken by him of matters of educational and literny intersst in this important section of Greece. Professor Rt hardsondelivereda lectare here last year entitled "Excavations in Coninth" which delighted all those who heard it. The lecture will begin at 8 oclock.
Professor Richardson is a graduate of Yale, where he was prominet in athletics as a member of the Yale crew and made an unusual record as a student. After graduation he remainedas an instructor until he was called to the chair of Greek in Dartmouth College. He remined in Dartmouth until 1893, when he assumed the directorship of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens.
Prof. Richardson has written several books, one of his last books being "Vacation Days in Greece." This book is the best available for one who intends to visit Greece. He is at present preparing a work on Greek sculpture, while engaged in archaeolog cal work in the Cambridge and Boston museums.

mass meetina yesterday MORNING.

A mass meeting was held in the chapel of the Hall of Langnages yesterday morning after chapel. The purpose of the meeting was to urge more students to buy tickets for the West Point trip. Earl G. Rice, chairman of the committee, reiterated the facts concerning the trip and game. At that time he said that there were between 100 and 125 tickets sold and paid for.
Coach Hutchins was present and made a short speech. He referred to the enthusiasm which animated the students after the Yale game and urged them to get that same enthusiasm now. "The work at the Lehigh game," said he, "was satisfactory as a whole. I don't see how any student of the institution who has money can afford to stay at home. If you want to see what your team can do under pressure, you want to be at West Point next Saturday. I believe the West Point-Syracuse game will be the closest game that will be played next

Saturday anywhere."

Captain Park was then called upon to speak, His speech in full is as follows: "We hope to see you all at West Point." William Lowe, ex-Captain of the track team, was called for and said a few words urging all the students to go on the excursiou. Manager Ackley also made a few remarks relative to the trip.

team leaves this mornina.

Nineteen men of the 'Varsity squad, together with the coach, will leave this morning at $9: 25$ for a couple of days' outing in the woods near Constantia. The men will return to the city Thursday noon. That afternoon the team will line up on the Oval for a regular game. They will leave Thursday night at about $110^{\prime}$ clock on the West Shore for Newburg.
The following men will be taken to Constantia: Captain Park, Russell, Belcher, Van Duyn, Stephenson, Harwood, Tucker, Dempster, Burrell, Fitzgerald, Lyon, Magoon, Powell, Curtis, Sumzon, Parker, F. J. Park, Farrington and Clark.
The men were given only light practice yesterday afternoon, consisting mostly of signal work. Captain Park, Stimson and Van Duyn were not in football suits yesterday. Burrell was given practice at quarterback. Coach West put the scrubs through a little bard practice, in order to get them into shape to meet the 'Varsity Thursday.

THE GERMAN CLUB.

Last Saturday evening the German Club held its third meeting in the Hall of Languages. Many guests, among them several members of the faculty, were present. The musical character of the program was suggested by the two opening songs, well rendered by the German Quartette, consisting of Miss Huldah Kupfer, Miss J. Viva Baker, Dr. Otto and Ralph E. Wager, After Miss Pimm had played Greig's "Erotie" on the piano, Dr. Otto introduced Dr. P. R. Pope of the German Department of Cornell, as the speaker of the evening. Dr. Pope spoke feelingly of a "Pilgrimage to Bayreuth," where the classic performance of Wagner's operas is given. He explained in brief the characteristics of Wagner's music, laying espesial stress on Wagner's last and greatest eomposition, "Parzifal." A short outline of the development of the text followed, and then Dr. Pope described the performance, which he witnessed a few years ago in Bayreuth. Accompanied by Mrs. Damon, Dr. Popegave some masterful illustrations on his violin. The selections from "Parzifal" were the prelude with the Gral motive and the Good Friday Charm. The audience listened with rapt attention, and hearty applause gave evidence of their appreciation of good music.

MUSCAL CONCERT
LAST EVENMG
Fine Arts Society Give Benefit for the Hospital.

An excellent musical concert was given last evening in Assembly Hall of the University Block by the musical faculty of the College of Fine Arts, under the direction of Dr. George A. Parker. The concert was given for the benefit of the Hospital of the Good Shepherd. The concert was one of the best heard in Syracuse for some time, and was very much appreciated by a large audience. It is seldom that an opportunity of hearing such artists as these is offered to the students and citizens of Syractse. A number of students were present. The program was as follows:

SCRUBS WILL 00 TO WEST POINT.
Coach Hutchins announced yesterday morning at the mass meeting that arrangements hai been made to take fifteen men of the scrub team on the trip to West Point. Those men will be taken who have been out all the season and worked faithfully. This announcement was received with great applause by the student body. Manager Ackley announced that he had made arrangements for the 'Varsity to return from West Point on the regular excursion train.

NOTICES.

All members of the Junior Debate Club are requested to report at Ryder's studio at 1 p. m. Thursday, November 17, for picture.-S. Bettinger, President.
There will be an important meeting of the '08 executive committee this evening in the Hall of Languages.

In order to accommodate those who wish to attend Professor Richardson's lecture, the observatory will be open this evening from 6:30 to $80^{\prime}$ clock.

A big college sing and mass meeting is to be held in the Hall of Crouse College on Wednesday evening. Everyone plan to be there.

There will be a meeting of the 1906 Onondagan Board at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house at 7:30 tonight.
A meeting of the Orange County Association will be held tonight (Tuesday) at the Orange Club house at $80^{\prime}$ clock. All graduates of Orange county schools are invited to be present. - By order of the President.

PROFESSOR RICHARDSON AT CHAPEL TODAY.

Professor Richardson, who is to lecture in Crouse College this evening, will be present at the chapel exercises this morning in the Hall of Languages. It is expected that Dr. Richardson will talk to the students for a short time.

This week is being observed by the Young Men's Christian Association of the University as a week of prayer. Special meetings will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:45 to 7:30 $0^{\prime}$ clock in the gymnasium. Mr, Hersey will lead on Tuesday evening and General Secretary R. Alfred Waite on Thursday evening. The cabinet will meet every morning at $80^{\prime}$ clock for a short prayer meeting.

EXCURSION IS SURE.

It was ascertained at a late hour last night that about 200 tickets to West Point had been sold. This makes the excursion practically assured, as it is expected a large number will purchase tickets today and tomorrow. Two hundred and fifty must be sold by Weduesday night.

ALUMNI SMOKER.

At the alumni smoker held last evening at the University Clubrooms in the Larned Block, great enthusiasm was manifested on the Syracuse-West Point football game. After speeches by Cy*. rus Griffth and Earl Rice, thirty-five tickets were sold to the alamni members. The alumni speakers were Messrs. Bond, Cobb, French and Schwartz. Music was furnishsd by the University Quartet and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

ChaMGELIOR DAY SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

Professor Richardson Also Talks to Students a Short Time.

The students have been expecting for some time that Chancellor Day would have something to say con serning the much discussed question as to whether or no: the ladies shall go to West Point. Yesterday morning the Chancellor was present at chapel and spoke for a short time concerning this matter.
The Chancellor said in part: "The principle which obtains hare is very clear and well understood as far as the right of things is concerned. The men and women are upon an equal basis. I have not spoken upon this subject before because I have unlimited confidence in the good sense of the wimen of this University. I do not think they need any instructions from me, or any city paper, or any one else. Some of this instruction and advice we have been getling from certain sourees down town is in very bad taste.
"If I were to advise, I would merely make a suggestidn. I would think of the long distance, the early going and the extremely late coming back. I wuild also recall the fact that the game is at an army post and where hotel accommodations are extremely limited and the bleachers open. These are only suggest:ons; I will su'mit the mattor to the women, who have had a notable record in the past.
"I hope every man that can afford it, and every woman that thinks it the wisest and bist thing to do, will go te West' Point. When we represent a thing connected with the University, I like to see it magnificently represented. 1 hope you will all go; I hope the orange color will flame all the way from Syracuse to West Point."
After Chancellor Day had finished, he introduced Professor Richardson, who gave a short talk. Dr. Richardson spoke concerning the American School at Athens, of which he was director 10 years. In the course of his remarks he said thit the American School was founded in 1882 by 15 colleges, though 30 are now represented. The idea originated with Professor White of Harvard, and the first director was Professor Goodwin. He gave a brief history of the school, telling of its friendly rivalry with other European schools, and of the work which it is accomplishing. The most important work is that of excavating, the Americans being engaged in restoring ancient Corinth.

BAND MAY 00.

Efforts are being made to again put into commission the University Band. A large portion of the members of last year's band ure in almost daily practice in various local organizations. If the students so determine at the mass meeting tonight, the University Band will reorganize and play for the West Point game.

MASS MEETING.TONIGHT.

The biggest mass meeting of the year will be held at 7:30 o'elock this evening in Crouse College. Every student is expected to be present. There will be speeches by prominent alumni. The Chancellor will be present if possible. At this time the new songs will be ready for distribution, as well as the songs written especially for the West Point game. The meeting will be given over to practicing the songs, and to making the final arrangements for the West Point trip and game. Everyone come, whether you expect to go on the excursion or not. No one can afford to miss it.

doings at constantia.

(Special to the Daily Orange.)
Constantia, Nov. 15, 8 p. m. - The football squad arrived here this morning at 11:45. After a hearty dinner regular football practice was held. The plays were run off quick ard snappy. Shortly after $20^{\prime}$ cloek the squad scattered, some to hunt, others to row or to tramp. Coach Hutchins saw two thousand ducks which are all still alive. One rabbit was killed. The whole squad claims it. During the practice a cow attempted to eat the football, taking it for a pumpkin. F. R. Park saved the ball.

PROF. RICHARDSON'S LECTURE. Professor Rufus B. Richardson, Ph. D., delivered the first of the series of lectures given under the auspices of the Clarsical Club in Crouse College tall last evening. There was only a small crowd present to hear this well known lecturer on Grecian archaeology. Professor Richardsen's lecture was highly instructive, being illustrated with many fine lantern slides made from photographs taken by himself during a tour of Northern Greece on a bicycle.

We can help you do it just now during the great sale of the Lowery, Dean & Co.'s stock of high grade merchandise that we secured from the assignee at 48 cents on the dollar. It's certainly the greatest slaugter of new fresh goods ever witnessed by an appreciative public. The people are not slow in taking advantage of a good thing, judging from the way they are coming in our store day after day and carrying away big bundles of clothing. It only goes toshow the confidence that the public have in us as reliable merchants. Our past 20 years in Syracuse as clothing merchants is sufficient guarantee that goods and prices are always as advertised. Moral - See the belt overicogts on gole today at twelve dollars. | This evening will |

This evening will be held the last large mass meeting before the close of the present football season. It will be the last chance for the student bady to come together in an enthusiastic meeting for the 1904 football team. It is quite unnecessary to urge the students to be present this evening. Everyone will want to take part in this final mass meeting. The new song book will be out at this time, and the new songs will be practiced. The songs written for the West Point game will also be practiced this evening. Several prominent alumni have promised to be present and speak. All these things are bound to make this the largest mass meeting in our history.
There will be a large number of songs before the students tonight. While they will all doubtless be good, nevertheless it will be impossible to learn them all. We should practice the songs tonight in view of the West Point game. Let us seloct those which seem the best, and concentrate our efforts on learning those few thoroughly.
There are other things which must be kept in mind tonight. Arrangements should be made to give the team the greatest sendoff they ever received, when they leave the city Thursday night. A committee should be appointed to arrange for the decorations on the excursion train. Let it be orange from end to end. There should be some instructions as to how the college color shall be displayed Saturday. Shall upperclassmen carry canes? Shall all carry flags? How about the orange arm bands? If everyone wore one of those, it would present a fine appearance, The Orange makes these suggestions in order that the students may be thinking about them, and considering what action should be taken this evening.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI,
Daniel B. Mills' 03 was a recent guest at the Psi U house.
Misses Elizabeth Wildman, Grace Zimmerlin, Hazel King and Ruth Gordon have returned from New York where they have been attending the annual convention of the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority at Barnard College.
Miss Elizabeth Dainsborough of South Bethlehem, Pa., is the guest of Miss Jenkins at Haven Hall.
Mason T. Mount ex'07, of Syracuse, who is attending the dental college of the Univeasity of Michigan, was a recent guest at the Psi U house.
Harry S. Williams ex-04, of Utica N, Y., was a recent guest at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

DAILY PRACTICE.

The Instrumental Clubs are practicing every evening for the concert to be given in the Furman Streot Church Thursday evening. It is the intention of the leaders of both organizations to have the clubs at their best for that evening. An excellent program has been arranged, consisting not only of numbers by the combined elubs but also solos by Mr. Titus, Mr. Hoey, Mr. Stickles and Mr. Fahnestock. H. Girard Hollon will give an organ solo and W. Y. Boyd will give a dramatic reading.

LAW NOTES.

Alfred L. Wibur '06 has gone to his home in Greenland, N. H., on account of the illness of his brother.
Mr. Wright, a patent lawyer of Detroit, Mich., addressed the senior class Thursday morning. At the preseat time Mr. Wright is interested in securing a patent upon a certain automatic wireless telegraphy danger signal to be used on railroad and steamship lines. If the patent proves to be what is claimed for it, an engineer can sit in his engine and tell if a train is approaching from the front or rear. A pilot of a ship in the most dense fog or darkest night can tell the exact location of another ship within a radius of two or three miles.

DELECTRIC CONSTANTS DISCOVERED BY DR. THWING.
The new edition of "Winkelmann's Handbuck der Physik," a comprehensive Cyclonedia of Physics, just added to the University library, gives a prominent place to work of Professor C. B. Thwing upon dielectric constants, completed some years ago.
The author states that "Thwing was the first to determine by a single method the inductive capacity of a large number of substances both liquids and solids." Several pages are devoted to a statement of the method employed by Dr. Thwing and the results obtained by him.
Professor Thwing is recognized as one of the leading authorities upon this branch of electricity. He has recently published some important contributions to thermo-electricity, the line of research upon which he is now engaged. The Doctor expects to read a paper giving further results of his work at the next meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which occurs at Philadelphia during convocation week.

ING OF THE YEAR

Enthusiastic Crowd in Crouse College Last

Evening.

One of the best and largest mass meetings ever held at Syracuse occured in Crouse College last eveging. Between 800 and 900 students filled the hall. The meeting was enthusiastic from first to last.
The new song book was on sale for the first time, and is a credit to the publishers and to the University. Several of these songs, as well as those fcr tne West Point game, were practiced, E. H. Sumner conducted the meeting and Arthur E. Moody led the singing and yelling.
The meeting was opened with an enthrsiastie speech by D. Raymond Cobb '92. He explained this season's football schedule, and urged every student to go to West Point. This speech was jollowed by a few words by Lloyd L. Cheney ' 05 , asking the students to contribute toward funds necessary for deeorating the train, and other expenees. William Rubin ' 93 made a very enthusiastic speech concerning our athletic standing in the college world. Assist ant Coach West was then called to the platform. He spoke in high praise of the scrubs, and made many complimentary remarks concerning Coach Hutchns. Manager Ackley then spoke about football activities at Syracuse, touching especially on the West Point game. Ed. French '93 was then called upon, and made one of his characteristic and pleasing speeches, giving a brief history of football at Syracuse. He especially called the attention of the students to Blake Hillyer, who was captain of our first team. The students called for Doctor John, and he came to the stage and urged every student to go on the excursion and to carry the orange.
Over $$ 20$ was taken in the collection for the expenses in decorating, etc. The chairman appointed Lloyd L. Cheney, Dr. John Cunningham and Grow Brown as a committee on decorations. C. T. Robertson and Robert Stone were appointed a committee to arrange for the send-off tonight.

ATHLETIC GOVERNINO BOARD MEETS.
Shortly before midnight the governing board meeting, held at the University Club, closed. Several matters of importance came before the board. The candidates for the various manag erships were considered and the following were ratified:
Baseball-Barron, Rutty, Stuber.
Crew-Curtiss, Wood, Wharff.
Candidates for track managership were not passed upon.
Syracuse flags, big and little, from 15 cents up, at Harney's.

BIO SEND-OFF TONIGHT.

The students will all meat in front of the Hall of Lanhuages at 80 'clock tonight and march to the station to give the football tecm a big send-off, Everyone out!

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

The scrubs were out in full force yesterday afternoon getting ready for the final scrimmage of the season with the 'Varsity which will take place this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, when the team which will meet West Point will play a regular game with the scrubs. Coach Hutchins will be upon the field to coach his men, but wlll not stop any of the plays. The scrubs have been working all this week on West Point styles of play, so that the 'Varsity in today's game will become somewhat familiar with the kind of play they will have to encounter Saturday.
M. B. ADAMS IN THE CITY.

Rev. M. B. Adams '98, of Buffalo, well known in social settlement work, read a paper yesterday before the annual meeting of the State Charities Conference, now in session in Syracuse. Last Monday evening Mr. Adams gave a very interesting address on the "Aim and Scope of Social Settlement Work" before the University Historical Association. Tuesday morning he gave an instructive talk before the class in Sociology I on "Juvenile Crime and Child Labor.

RECITAL LAROELY ATTENDED.
The first public recital of the year by the musical students of the College of Fine Arts was given yesterday afternoon in Crouse College hall. There was a very large audience, crowding the hall beyond its seating capacity, The popularity that these recitals have gained among the music loving people of Syracuse was well shown by the attendance.
The program as a whole was well rendered and each number showed that degree of excellence for which these recitals are noted. The last number, a quartette, was especially fine and gave a very fitting climax to the recital. The program in full was given in yes terday's Orange.
LUNCHES SERVED ON TRAIN.
Arrangements have been made by the West Point transportation commit tee whereby those who go to West Point on the excursion train will have restaurant service better than is usually enjoyed on railroad trips. Aside from the dining and cafe car service, lunches will be served after the popular style of the Kenmore and the Baltimore. This service at reasonable prices will obviate the necessity of carrying lunch boxes.
thanksGiving ball at empire hall.
On Thanksgiving night at Empire Hall the Anoa Social Club will hold its second Thanksgiving ball. The hall is to be decorated prettily with flags and buntings and potted palms. An orchestra of eight pieces will furnish the musie.

Rumors are afloat around the hill that the freshman banquet is a thing of the near future. As to the date of this notable function we are little concerned. But as to the success of the banquet every student of the University feels some interest. We are not thinking of the ability of the sophomores to break up that gathering, or of the skill which the freshmen will need to evade the second year men. Those problems will be solved in due time by the proper persons. But that which concerns every student of the University is the attendance and support of this affair by the freshmen. This banquet is an annual affair at Syracuse; it is an old custom which is carried out each year a little better and with larger numbers than the previous year. There are certain customs established at Syracuse which the upperclassmen and alumni look to each entering class to promulgate. The annual freshman banquet is one of the most important of these.
It has come to our attention that this function is not being supported by the freshmen in the manner it should be. It will reflect little credit to the class of 1908 if this year's banquet is not made the largest and most successful in the history of Syracuse. Every freshman owes it to his class and to the University.
By all means, the freshmen, if at no other time, should surely give loyal and hearty support to this most characteristic enterprise of their first year at Syracuse.

UNIVERSITY HERALD.

This month's issue of the Herald has just appeared and is an interesting number. Dean Kent has contributed a valuable article on the Lyman Cornelius Smith College of Applied Science. Accompanying the article is an excellent cut of the Dean. Editor Rider has a very interesting poem under the title of "Atlas Sees the Way," the first in a series on "Dreams of the Future." The story, "The Adoption of Jimmy," by J. D. Kellogg ' 07 is a very good one. "Remedied Retaliations" from the Smith College Monthly, is a good sample of the better class of college magazine stories. A poem, "The Old Story," from the Nassau Lit, is worthy of note. What appears under the head of and spirit of Syracuse University and should be read by every student. Mr. Dooley again writes under "Proth." This time he speaks of the Yalc Game and the College Reporters. The remainder of the issue is taken up by alumni news, and a general survey of the news of the past month at Syracuse.

The Syracuse Company
(Music: "The Duteh Company.")
The fires bum bright and the bells ring loud,
The streets are filled with a ghostly crowd,
The football team is ahead once more, Just hark to the chimes as they ring out the score.

Their oars dip deep as they spin along, Amid the checrs of the watching throng.
Hurrah for the boys of our noble crew! Hurrah for the orange! Hurrah for S. U.!

We always fight hard and we won't be downed,
Until our work with success is crowned.
We'll give our time, our blood, and our gold,
To bring to her glory and fame untold. -Laura Page Flick '98.

Three Cheers for Syracuse. (Tune: "Dixie.")
From way up north in the old SaltCity, With Orange flags and co-eds pretty, We have come way down here
Just to cheer for Syracusc; We came to see our football bunch Show West Point that they're not so much.
As people say, for today
Our men are out to play.
Chorts.
Three rousing chears for Syracuse, Syracuse, Syracuse!
We'll yell until our lungs are loose
To win the game for Syracuse, Syracuse, Syracuse.
Three rousing cheers for Syracuse.
Oh, here we are beside the Hudson
We'll make it Orange through and I. U. DOLST PHOTO MATERIALS CO. through.
Its waters blue, to be of use, Must wear the garb of Syracuse;
So shout and sing until the Orange gay Shall make the "Army" fade away Clear out of sight, and then tonight We'll celebrate with all our might.
Chorus: Three rousing cheers, etc.

Scrubs Hold the 'Varsity Down to a Small Score.

Coach Hutchins' men appeared on the oval in their mole skins yesterday afternoon for the last time this year. A large number of students were on hand to see the team that is to meet West Point on Saturday, line up against the scrubs for the final practice serimmage of the season.
During the 'Varsity's outing at Constantia, Assistant Coach West has been teaching the scrubs the West Point style of play and also new signals.
As a result, the 'Varsity yesterday afternoon found itself aga!nst a hard proposition. The scrubs got into the game with a dash and vigor that surprised their most ardent admirers. At times they ripped up the 'Varsity line in a most surprising manner, and once, near the beginning of the first half, forced the ball to within a couple of yards of the 'Varsity goal line, Here the 'Varsity held for downs.
The play of the first team was not up to its usual standard yesterday afternoon, and this, coupled with the fact that it was a good day for the scrubs, kept the score down to one touchdown for the 'Varsity in each half.
The first touchdown was made after the scrubs had dangerously threatened the 'Varsity goal line. The 'Varsity took the ball on their own two-yard line, and by line plunging and end runs forced the ball to within a yard of the goal posts where the srubs held them for two downs. Then Powell called upon the old standby, Harwood, the man who is always sure of his distance, and he placed the ball behind the posts. Curtis kicked the gool. This ended the scoring for that half.
During the second half Powell failed for a field goal from the 30 -yard line. In the next play, after the ball had been punted out from the 20 -yard line, Clark circled right end, running half the length of the field for a touchdown. Curtis failed to kick the goal. The half ended a few minutes afterward, the final score being: 'Varsity 11, Scrubs 0 .
The line-up follows:

Coach Hutchins, Manager Ackley and the 'Varsity squad left last night for Newburg, where they will remain until tomorrow morning, at which time they will go to West Point. While at Newburg they will stop at the Palatine Hotel, and will have signal practice this afternoon on the field of the Powelton Country Club. The 'Varsity men who were taken to Newburg are the same who were given the outing at Constantia. They were: Captain Park, Russell, Belcher, Van Duyn, Stephenson, Harwood, Tucker, Dempster, Burrell, Fitzgerald, Lyon, Magoon, Powell, Curtis, Stimson, Parker, Farrington, F. R. Park, and Clark.
The scrubs who will be taken to West Point on the excursion train are Jones, Rice, Van Dusen, Coit, Reed, Anderson, Heath, Houseknecht, Cummings, Sloan, Wharff, Paddock, Brown, Coulter and Buttz.
Coach Hutchins will not return to the city after the game. He will leave directly for his home in Chester, where he has a medical practice. His contract with Syracuse expires at the close of the season.

ABOUT THE DECORATIONS.

The committee appointed to arrange for decorating the West Point train, together with several prominent and infuential alumni of the city, called on the N. Y. Central authorities yesterday and endeavored to obtain permission to string orange banners on the outside of the cars. It seems such a thing is positively forbidden bp a ruling of the railroad company, and that this rule is never set aside. The committee endeavored by every possible means to gain this permission, but found it impossible. No decorations can, therefore, be placed on the outside of the cars.
The committee yesterday purchased a large quantity of orange bunting. This will be taken on the train, and used as the students think best. There is no objections to any decorations on the interior of the cars, and it is also sug. gested that a certain amount of bunt ing be given to each person to wear as the students march on the field. A quantity of it will also be used for decorating the Syracuse section of the bleachers.

Dr. Keeney, pastor of the First M. E. Church, gave an interesting talk before the Medical Y. M. C. A. last evening. There was a larger attendance last evening than at any previous meeting this year.

An Enthusiastic Crowd

 Gives Team a Good Send-Off,Last evening the 'Varsity team left the city to play the second out of town game of the season. For the second time the students marched to the station and gave them a big send-off. The crowd was not as large as the one which marched to the station at the time the team left for New Haven. There was a good showing, however, considering that there were so many other student functions last evening.
Before eight o'clock the students had filled the halls in Liberal Arts College, and sang the new and old songs while waiting for the crowd to gather. Shortly after eight o'clock the men formed by classes in front of the building and began their procession to the station. When the line reached Chancellor Day's residence, it halted, and cheers and yells were given for the Chancellor. All along the line there was used a quantity of rod light to add to the occasion. At the station the air was filled with Syracuse songs and yells, and the team left the city knowing that the student body was behind them, win or lose.
PROFESSOR LOSEY READS MACBETH.
Professor Losey gave a reading of Macbeth last evening in the University Avenue Methodist Church. Professor Losey's interpretation was instructive and his rendering was highly impres* sive. His work in the part of Macbeth was excellent, and particularly impressive were Macbeth's two soliloquies before Duncan's murder. Macduff's announcement of the king's murder was well rendered. Professor Losey also displayed his ability as an interpreter and impersonator of Shakespeare in the sleep walking scene. He reads the part of Lady Macbeth in this scene in a pleasing manner, and in marked contrast to many of the modern so-called interpretations.
basketball tgam plays os. WECO TONIGHT.
The basketball team will leave at 2:30 this afternoon for Oswego, where they will play the first game on the schedule this evening. The opposing team will be that representing the Oswego Normal School. Six men, besides the manages, will be taken on the trip. The men are as follows: Forwards, Kirchgasser, Redlein; center, Stark; guards, Brady, Dollard, Houseknecht. Capt. Powell is in Newburg today with the football team

Students, today is the last chance. The train leaves at 7:15 tomorrow morning. If you haven't yet purchased a ticket, you ought to surely do so today. None can afford to allow this great opportunity to pass by without improving it. It is doubtful if there will ever be offered an equal amount of inducements to take a trip with our team. Think of the special train, made up entirely of Syracuse students and alumni, planned by them and run expressly for them! Think of the great ride, and the beautiful scenery! Think of the greatest army post in the country with the beautiful campus, buildings, parades, etc.! And then think of the great game! All for three and one-half dollars! Why, of course everyone is going.

At last the much-needed and long-expected Song Book has appeared. It was the intention of the committee to make this book merely a temporary one, to fulfill the needs until a larger and more complete edition could be edited and published. The one we have just had presented to us, however, more than fulfils its original purpose. It is an excellent edition of songs, well edited and well printed. The publication of a book of this kind has been a great undertaking and has involved an immense amount of work. Only a few weeks were allowed for the collection and printing of the songs. Many songs are found in this book which have not been in print for many years, and which are utterly unknown to the present student generation. The student body surely owes its gratitude to the editor for his work, and for the successful book which he has published.

COLLECTION OF PICTURES AND SONOS.

The walls of the Christian Associations' office have recently been adorned with a frame of very interesting pictures. The collection contains a group pieture of the Syracuse University Y. W. C. A. delegation to the Students' Y. W. C. A. conference held at Siver Bay last summer. Besides the above-mentioned picture, there are views of the beautiful scenery on Lake George.
One of the most interesting features of the collection is a new song which the co-eds sung with considerable zeal to the delegation of the other colleges after our aquatic victory. The words of the song are as follows:
(Tune: Kinding Wood.)
We're a jolly crowd of co-eds, we come from Syracuse;
We're the wearers of the Orange as you see.
We are proud of our dear college and proud of both our crews.
Chorus.
Syracuse, Syracuse,
We'll sing for Syracuse and for her crews.
We're a growing institution, you will hear from us again.

The foundation has been covered and banked for the winter. At present a large number of men and teams are at work grading the campus on the sides and front of the building. This grading makes quite an improvement to the appearance of the east side of the campus. Work for the winter will cease with the completion of this grading.
As soon as the weather will permit 'in the spring, the work of completing the building will be commenced. As fast as the cement block, of which the building is to be constructed, can be obtained, the building will be rushed to completion,

FIRST CONCERT A SUCCESS.
The Glee and Instrumental Clubs gave their first concert of the season in the Furman Street M. E. Church last evening. The concert proved to be a success in every way, the work exceeding the expectations of the leaders of the clubs. There was a large nudience, which appreciated the work of the clubs. The organizations are now ready for the Thanksgiving trip. They will leare Syracuse Tuesday, and be gone leare Syracuse Tuesday, and be four days, giving four concerts.

MUSICAL CONCERT TONIGHT.
This evening will occur a notable musical event in Assembly Hall of the University Block. Those who are to take part are well known to the students and friends of the University. An excellent program has been arranged, consisting of selections by J. Barnes Wells of New York, tenor; L. Wells Clary of New York, baritone; and George Alexander Russell of the faculty of the Fine Arts College.

MEGAPHONES AT THE OAME.
The West Point committee have aranged for a large supply of megaphones to be taken to the game and sold on the grounds. Every man is expected to have ten or fifteen cents with which to buy one. This will save the amoyance of each man carrying a megaphone. Flags, banners and sleevelets will also be on sale on the train.

Those who are going to the West Point game, and wish breakfast before going, can get it at "The Cedar" as early as 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

STUOENTS OFF FOR WEST POMT

'Varsity Will Meet the Army This Afternoon.

At last the day which has been anx iously awaited and looked forward to by all the students of Syracuse has arrived. This afternoon Syracuse will play her final and hardest game of the season of 1904 . She will line up to test her strength against the much vaunted Army team, which a few weeks ago alministered to the Yale giants a decisive defeat. During the past few years the strong West Point team has had little difficulty in defeating the orange eleven, usually rolling up a large score, and keeping Syracuse from scoring at all. This year, however, students, alumni and friends of the University who have watched the work of the two teams, predict a change from the old-time routine. Whether or not Syracuse will come off the field victorious, is a matter concerning which few care to comment. It is generally believed, however, by inpartial observers that West Point will not roll up a large score.
This is the first instance in the history of Syracuse athleties that an orange team has played on a foreign gridiron before a crowd of Syracuse supporters. It is the first time the students and alumni have chartered a special train, in order that they may attend the game and cheer on their team. This morning at $7: 15$ a train consisting of several day coaches, a sleeper and a dining car, will leave the N. Y. Central station, carrying four or five hundred loyal and enthusiastic supporters of the orange to the scene of the contest. Those who will go on the trip are enthusiastic to the last degree. The are all confident in the ability of the 'Varsity. The train will stop at Utica where another crowd will join the excursion. Yesterday a large number of alumni and football enthusiasts arrived in Syracuse to take the train this morning. A special train from New York, carrying the alumni of that city and vicinity, will reach West Point at $2: 13 \mathrm{p}$. m .
The Syracuse section of the bleachers will be a mass of orange. Every man will leave the city carrying orange flags, banners, ribbons, etc. Besides this, the committee has purchase over 200 yards of orange bunting to be used on the bleachers and upon the men themselves. The new and old songs are to be sung on the train and at the game. November 19 will be a memorable day in the history of Syracuse athletics, whether the team wins or loses.

The Line-Up.

The Syracuse team will begin the game, in all probability, with the following line-up:

GLEE CLUB TRPP,  DREET WRE TO

Thirty Men Leave for Northern Trip Tues. day...-Men Who Go.

The thirty men comprising the University Glee and Instrumental Clubs will leave Tuesday afternoon for their first trip of the season; in fact, it will be the first Northern trip the clubs have taken in ten years.
The trip calls for four concerts, the first of which will be given in the Pulaski Opera House, Tnesday, November 22 . The other three engagements are Wednesday, Adams, in the Masonic Hall; Thanksgiving night, Watertown, in Washington Hall; and Friday night, Gouverneur, in Union Hall. The men will return to the city Friday.
The special features of the program during the Northern trip will be: Silas J. Titus, bass soloist; James C. Hoey, tenor soloist; William C. Stickles, piano soloist; W. Y. Boyd, reader; and the quartette, composed of Messrs. Hoey, Snow, Fahrestock and Titus.
Besides this trip, Manager Frank E. Brundage has arranged for two others. An Eastern trip will be taken at Christmas time, when Albany and New York will be visited, and during the Easter vacation the clubs will take a Western trip, visiting Rochester and Buffalo. Besides these three trips, the clubs have several out-of-town one-night engagements. The annual city concert will be held in Crouse College Hall senior week.
The names of the men who will be taken on the Northern trip follow:
Frank E. Brundage, manager; Will liam Stickles, accompanist, Glee Club. Eirst Tenor-Hoey, Tressell, Lovell, Rice.
Second Tenor-Snow, Raleigh; Hen sil, W. Y. Boyd, Winters.

LBEERAL ARTS

Bulletins Will Be Announced in Chapel as Game Progresses.

Direct wire communication from West Polnt to the Liberal Arts Building has been secured by the Dally Orange, and during the progress of the game dispatches will be sent at frequent intervals.. An operator will receive the messages at the Weather Bureau office on the second floor, and within a few moments after each important play, the students assembled in Liberal Arts chapel will hear it announced.
It is expected that a large crowd of those who found it impossible to be at West Point will be present in chapel this afternoon to keep in close touch with the game. No admission charge will be made, but those present will be afforded the opportunity of assisting in defraying the necessary expense of this special wire service.
Bulletins will begin to arrive at 3 p.m.

NEW YORK ALUMNI.

At the New York Alumni smoker held Monday evening the committee reported that already 80 alumni had signed the agreement to become members of the club. The committee, consisting of Steven B. Ayres, William B. Kelly, Lincoln E. Rowley, Thomas H. Low, John C. Draper and Walter F. Baylis, was continued, and authorized, as soon as 125 signatures were procured, to immediately secure a house and form the club. Much enthusiasm was manifested. About 45 of the male alumni were present. A fine luncheon was served. Over one hundred Syracusans from New York will attend the West Point game. A special train will carry them to and from West Point.

FROM WEST POINT.

(Special to the Orange.)

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 18. -The Army has been practicing daily the past week in preparation for the game with Syracuse Saturday. Supporters of the Army are confident of victory, although they do not anticipate as large a score as last time. The team will line up as follows:
Left end, Hammond; left tackle, Doe; left guard, Weeks; center, Tipton; right guard, Seagraves; right tackle, Mettler; right end, Gillespie; quarterback, Garey; left halfback, Hill; right halfback, Prince; fullback, Torney.
Substitutes, Rockwell, Shute, Abra ham, Christy, Wilhelm, Waugh, Klemm, Smith, Halon.
The average weight of the Army team as it will enter the game is 170 pounds; the average of the line is 180 pounds. The game will be called at 3 p. m .

WEST PONT 2l,

 SYRACUSE 5
Army Completely Outplayed in Second Half.

Fighting every inch of a hard-luck game, Syracuse was defeated by West Point Saturday by a score of 21 to 5 . The Army did all their scoring in the first half, when the Syracuse line seemed unable to withstand the fierce rushes from the heavy West Point back field. The Soldiers, by terrific line plunges, and aided by much hard luck on the part of Syracuse, crossed the goal line four times. Two of their touchdowns, however, were made as a direct result of Syracuse losing the ball on fumbles near her own goal line, and were not earned. Coupled with this misfortune was the fact that the Syracuse men had not had much experience in fast company this year, and did not realize their position until the end of the first half.
In the sceond half, from start to finish, Syracuse completely outplayed West Point. It was one of the best exhibitions of football ever seen, the Soldiers contesting every inch of ground. The wearers of the orange went into the half determined to score and played a hard and fast game. The ball was kept in West Point's territory throughout the half. The Syracuse backs, together with the ends and tackles, were sent through the line for repeated gains, making from three to 23 yards on each play. The ball was worked to West Point's 20-yard line, when Syracuse was held for downs. The Army failed to gain, and 1 unted to Puwell, who caught the ball 1 m mid-field. From that time the ball was steadily advanced until Curtis was sent over for the only score of this half. When the ball was a yard from the goal line, the soldiers took a wonderful brace, and there occurred such an exhibition of football as is seldom seen. It required three plunges to place the pigskin across the coveted line, and then there were only a few inches to spare. Every man on the Syracuse team played his best. Harwood, Burrell, Powell and Captain Park did the best work. Harwood was sent through the line many times, and seldom failed to par gain. Burrell and Powell each made two good runs, the former for 23 yards and the latter for 20. Captain Park did magnificent work on the defense, and his line plunges netted many yards. One of the features of the game was the yelling of the cadets, which was superb in every way.

Many Syracuse Rooters.

The Syracuse contingent o cupied the entire west side of the bleachers, which was a mass of crange. There were 1200 Syracuse supporters at the game, 865 of whom came from Syracuse on the speeial. The train from New York brought in 300 , and many others came Point gaining only three or four yards at a time. Doe missed an easy goal, West Point kicked off 35 yards to Tucker, who was downed on the spot. Curtis and Park were each sent through the line for two yards, and then Curtis punted 15 yards. On the next play Torney broke through the line, and had a clear field, with the exception of Powell. The clever little quarterback, tackled him, however, after going 18 yards. The next touchdown came after successive plunges through the line, the Army being unable to gain around the ends. Doe was sent over for another touchdown. and kicked the goai. Score, West Point 11, Syracu:e 0 .

Syracuse again received the kick-off, but after one play the ball was fumbled, and a cadet fell upon it 12 yards from the Syracuse goa' line. After three plunges through the line, Doe was again sent over for a t ruchdown, but failed at the goal. Score, West from the surrounding enuntry. Clarke'03 and raylis '04 led the cheering, which was some of the best ever given for a Syracase team. As the ball was being worked toward the Army goal line in the second half, and finally went over for a touchdown, the Syracuse rooters arose and cheered and cheered for several minutes.

The First Half.

The two teams came onto the field shortly before $30^{\circ}$ clock, and after very little delay the teams lined up for the kick-off. West Point defended the north goal and kicked off to Syracuse's 20-yard line: On a doublo pass the ball was brought back five yards. On the next play, Syracuse fumbled, and West Point had the ball 25 yards from the goal line. By steady plunges, mostly aimed at guard, Doe carried the ball over for the first touchdown. Syracuse

West Point failed to gain on the first two plays, but on the third Torney broke through the line for 17 yards. Prince and Hill each gained five yards, when the ball was fumbled, Burrell falling on it. On the first play Burre! circled right end for a gain of 23 yards.

JAMES P. STIMSON,
Right Halfhack Who was Injured in Saturday's Game.
Harwoed gained two and Captain Park went through the line for four more. Tucker gained six by a short end run, which brought the ball to the 20 -yard line. Burrell then dropped back to try for a goal, but his kiek was blocked. Powell, however, fell on the ball on the 35 -yard line. The little quarterback then took the ball and got around left end for 20 yards. Purrell again tried for a goal; but the cadets broke through and blocked the kick, Mettler falling on the ball. The Cadets failed to gain and punted 15 yards to Powell. Stimson got around end for seven yards and Powell made six more on a trick play. Curtis, Park and Harwood were sent through the line for eight yards more. In response to the yells from the bleachers, the Syracuse line braced; and the backs and tackles went through the Cadets for repeated gains of from one to four yards. Stimson, who had done magnificent work, was injured, and F. R. Park took his place. The ball was worked to the one-yard line, where the Sold.ers held for two downs. A last effort, however, sent Curtis across the goal line, amid the ringing cheers of every Syracuse supporter on ths side

RAPID BULLETIN SERVICE.

The members of the faculty, students and friends of the University gathered in Liberal Arts College Saturday afternoon received with very evident interest the bulletins despatched from West Point field direct to Liberal Arts building over the Daily Orange special-wire. Thirty minutes before the city newspaper offices had received the report of the Syracuse touchdown, the ticker in the Weather Bureau was sounding the glad news.
Those who have been watching Syra cuse football games for the last few years expressed the opinion that this was the best service ever given since the special wire service from the Columbia game three years ago. Saturday's messages, however, were despatched with even more speed than those which brought the news of the plays which netted a victory over Colplays ## comments on the oame.

Cadet Reddington of West PointI have seen every game that West Point has played here this year, and I must say that no team played the superb football that Syracuse did during the second half.
Coach Hutchins -I am satisfied with the work done. The trouble is that our boys haven't had enough hard games this year, so that they don't get into it until after they have played one half.
Colonel Whitlep, West Point--Neither Yale, Harvard nor Princeton played better football than did Syracuse in the last half. I think your men were a little frightened, and that it took them about half an hour to realize what they could do.

THE WEST POINT TRAIN.
By far the largest number of students and alumni who ever represented Syracuse on a foreign field left on the special train at 7:40 Saturday morning. When the train left Syracuse there were 865 people aboard, and several others were taken on at Utica. The train consisted of ten day coaches, a cafe car, and a sleeper. Students were furnished with orange bunting, which was used to decorate the interior of the cars.
The train reached West Point at 2:40. A few minutes later came the New York special with 300 alumni. There was also present a large number of Syracuse supporters from Albany and other places near by. The train left at 7 o'clock, reaching Syracuse at $2 ; 30$ a. $m$.

COACH HUTCHINS LEAVES FOR HIS HOME-
Coach Hutchins, after saying farewell to his many friends and admirers, left West Point Saturday night for New York, whence he will go to his,home in Chester, Pa. Assistant Coach West, Captain Park and Manager Ackley also went to New York, but will return today. Stimson, who was injured in the game, spent Sunday with friends near West Point. Coach West will return to Syracuse and resume his studies in the Medical College.

Professor Wood of Hamilton Speaks at Chapel.The fact that the students saw the Chancellor going to chapel yesterday morning filled the chapel room. He took occasion to speak of the men on the football squad, and of the successful season which is just finished. Chancellor Day said in part: "I want to express my appreciation of the work of our football team during the past season. I am especially gratified with the showing made Saturday. That game reflects groat honor upon the University, and the secrnd half was practically a victory. He who wins the last half of a battle is generally the victor. It seems to have been a peculiarity of our team this season to be the best in the last half. It is better it were this way than the other. I am especially thankful to these men for the way they have played football this season. I doubt if any football team, when you consider the existing conditions, has ever reflected more credit on the University.

"I would also remember the second team. I do not like to call them 'scrubs.' They are not scrubs. It would be betterto call them the college team. To these men who have made a 'Varsity team possible we owe a great debt of gratitude. The rest of us have also done well. We have got out on the side lines and shouted well. There has been fine enthusiasm during the past season. It has been a decorous football season. It is exceedingly gratifying that under strong provocation there has been an absence of strong words, and that the games have been clean. There is a sense of honor among us, which is greater than victory."
Chancellor Day then introduced Professor Frank H. Wood '91, head of the History department of Hamilton Professor Wood spoke to the students concerning the athletic relations between Hamiton and Syracuse, which for some years past have not been the most pleasant. He said, however, that action was now being taken which would bring the two institutions together again. He said the authorities at Hamilton had unanimously decided to meet Syracuse in basketball, baseball and tennis, and that athletic relations would soon be resumed in other branches.
Continuing his remarks, Professor Wood said: "One of the hardest problems college students have to solve is the distribution of time. The outside world has the false impression that the thing for which students come to college is to studry, The problem is how much time sfakiff one devote to study, how much to social life, athletics, etc. they are questions which you must settle for yourselves. You ought not to allow yourselves to become wholly ab sorbed in one of these departments to the exclusion of the others. The only experience which is valuable to one is that which he acquires for himself, and this is usually acquired too late to be of value."

week, and some did not even know the signals. The score of the Yale game was satisfactory to all friends of the University. The only other team which has scored on Yale this season was West Point, who made 11 points. The result of Saturday's game was well received, especially by those who saw the work of the Syracuse team. Yale and Princeton are the only teams which have crossed West Point's goal line this year, the former making a single touchdown and the latter making two. In the nine games played Syracuse scored 405 points to the 57 of her opponents. This makes an average of 45 points to the game. The time of actual play for the nine games was 375 min utes, thus making an average of 1.08 points to the minute. Seventy touchdowns were made, 40 goals kicked, and two goals kicked from the field. The touchowns were made as follows: Parker 12, Capt. Park 10, Stimson 7,

The Orange will suspend publication during the Thanksgiving vacation. The next issue will appear Monday, Novèmber 28.

The football season is over and the 1904 football squad has disbanded. As we look back over the achievements of this squad, remembering all the existing circumstances, we cannot but congratulate those who compose the squad and the student body. As we have watched the progress and development of the team, remembering the great disadvantages which confronted us at the opening of the season, we cannot but congratulate the coaches upon their splendid work, and also the student body upon their good fortune.

It was not an easy thing to dent body upon the good fortune step in at Syracuse and coach the they have had in being repreteams. The prospects were anything but bright. Staring the coaches in the face was the reputation of last year's team, which was not all that we might desire; the material which presented itself consisted of the fragments of previous years, men who had never played together before; and behind all these conditions was the still more serious fact that the eyes of 2,500 students and of as many more alumni were riveted upon the coaches, anxiously awaiting to brand them as a success or failure, measuring their decision by victories and defeats.

But the union and happy combination of three necessary factors turned a rather discouraging outlook into a successful reality. These three factors are-men on the squad who have the proper spirit and were ready to learn, skillful and persistent coaching, and, lastly, a loyal and enthusiastic student body. With these three essentials there is little wonder that Syracuse has finished a successful season. So long as the University retains these elements, just so long will our successes in athletics continue to grow and develop until we are placed on the same plane with any other college of the country. Once again, then, we congratulate the men on the squad, and particularly on the team, upon their splendid work, upon their sturdy determination, upon the honorable manner in which they have always met their opponents, and upon the clean games which they have played. We congratulate the coaches upon their success and upon the men with whom they had to work. We congratulate the student body upon the good fortune they have had in being represented by such men on the gridiron, upon having such coaches to teach and labor with the men, and upon arousing and maintaining so much loyalty and enthusiasm.

DR, HUTCHNS TO BE TRACX COACH

Two Year Contract to Coach Track and Football Teams.

The Athletic Governing Board, through the track and football committees, have engaged Dr. C. P. Hutchins as coach for the track team. This news will be received with very great approval by the student bidy, as they havs le urel th plass great e nfileice in Dr. Hutchins' ability :s a coach and triner. Several nam s have come under the consideration of the Governing Board as candidate for track coach, but it seemed that the selection macie would be the best possible arrang ment, considering existing conditions.
Dr. Hutchins has had uuch exper:ence in track work and is well queified for the work which he will take up in the spring. He coached footbal!, tra $k$ and baseball whle at Dicknsm, and was very successful in each branch. liis experience as a track crach at Dickinson was as great as that is football and was equally successiul. Dr. Hutchins is especially qualified as a trainet of mel, and is an able teacher as well.
The contract calls frr a two year service as coach of th track and football teams, beginning January $1,1905$. This fact is espocially gralifying, as it means that Dr. Hut hins will have charge of the foothall team for at least two seasons mre. The coach at present is at his home in Chester, N. Y., arranging matlers preparater; to moving to Syracuse. He will make his ho ne here in the future, and is exp ectel to arrive shortly after the holidays, when autive traning in track athletics will be begin in the gymnasium.

TRIALS FOR   "JULLUS GAESAR"

   "JULLUS GAESAR"}
A Letter from. Professor  Losey Concerning This Year's Play.

The preliminary trals for the cast which is to present Shakspere's "Julus Caesar" will occur on Tuesday and Wtdnesday evenings, December 6 and 7, at 7:30 o'lock in the chapel of the Hall of Languages. The play is to be given under the auspices of the Dramatic Club, probably in early April. Competition will be open to every student in the University.
The cast will be an unusually large one, comprising nearly thirty speaking characters and about one hundred supernumeraries. It is, of course, by no means certain that the trials will awaken enough i tresti or reveal the requisite degree of talent to warrant s) great an undertaking; yet both the club and the coach have faith that the benefits to be derived from the study of the drama and of drama jic art have been so clearly demonstrated among us in the past as to insure a successful presentation of this great play.
In justice to myself, and to correct any false impression which may obtain, I wish to say that I am interested in these amateur product ons of Shakspere's plays only f.o $n$ the cultural and educational side. To engage in an enterprise involving so great an expenditure of time and energy simply for the purpose of securing funds or to have something "going on" would be inexcusabl: in any stadent, much more so in a college instructor, who has a just conception 0 : the seriousness of college wo.k. I s rongly advise, therefore, that no student who is having difficulty i performing his regular college duties, or who is not earnestly desirous of the bunefits to be derived from the involved stu ly and training, should enter the compe itive trials.

The cast w Il be selected by the same methods as have formerly been employed at similar trials. Each competitor will commit from a dozen to twenty-five lines of the part for which he thinks himself best suited; he will advise me by letter not later than Monday, December 5 , of his intention to enter the trials and of the part for which he is to try; he will also please state whether, in case he fails to make the part which he prefers, he will accept such a part as the committee may assign him.
Parts will be distributed as follows: Tuesday evening-Casca, Trebonius, Flavius, Marallus, Caesar, Antony, Lucius, Cinna, Calprunia, Decius Brutus, Octavius. Wednesday eveningBrutus, Cassius, Portia, First Citizen, Second Citizen, Ghost, Metellus Cimber, Popiliüs Lena, Pindarus, Soothsayer, Publius, Servius, Titinius.

THE MOST POPULAR COLLEGE SONGS.
Hinds, Noble and Eldredge, New York, have just published a new edition of songs called "The Most Popular College Songs." The edition contains the best of the songs found in several of their other publications. The songs in this edition are carefully selected, and are especially adapted for male voices. They are typical college songs, nearly all of which are old ones, but partially forgotten by the present generation of college students. The edition is in paper covers, and sells for 50 cents.

Syracuse Will MeetLeading Teams of the Country This Season.
Manager Earl G. Rice has announced the basketball schedule for the season of 1904-5. It is without doubt the best scdedule ever arranged for the Syra cuse team, including, as it does, the leading colleges of the country. Two games each with Cornell, Colgate and Hamilton will be welcomed by Syracuse students. The schedule as ratratified is as follows:
Dec. 8-Dartmouth at Syracuse.
Dec. 9-Company Eat Schenectady.
Dec. 13-Rochester University at Rochester.
Dec. 17-Cornell at Syracuse.
Jan. 7-Yale at Syracuse.
Jan. 13-St. Lawrence at Canton. Jan. 28-Hamilton at Syracuse.
Feb. 3-Comell at Ithaca.
Feb, 6-Hamilton at Clinton.
Feb. 7-Coigate at Hamilton.
Feb. 11-Coigate at Syracuse.
Feb. 16-Williams at Williamstown.
Feb. 17-Amherst at Amberst.
Feb. 18-Trinity at Hartiord.
Feb. 20-Wesleyan at Middletown.
Feb. 21-Brown at Providerce.
March 9-Allegheny at Mcadville. March 10-Hiram at Hiram.
Two games have been arranged with St. John's, but are not yet sch cu ed. The northern irip will be supplemented by a game, probably with Potsdam Normal; and the western trip, in addition to Allegheny, wil include games with Hiram College (the Olympic basketball champions), Western Reserve and Oberlin. A game is also under consideration with Princeton at Syracuse.
It is the purpose of the management this year, as last, to sell season tickets for $$ 1.50$, good for all home games. These will be offered for sale immediately.

PENNSYLVANIA HAS BEST RECORD Now that the football season is closed and the records of the various elevens. compared, there is much specuiation as to what team the championship will be given. There will doubtless be several claimants for that honor, but just where to place it will be hard to decide. Harvard defeated West Point, West Point defeated Yale, and then Yale won from Harvard. Yale has had 20 points scored against her, 9 by Syracuse and 11 by West Point, while she has decisively beaten Harvard, Princeton and Columbia.
Harvard's goal line was crossed twice by Pennsylvania, twice by Yale and once by Holy Cross, while in the Dartmouth game neither team scored. Princeton was defeated by Yale, and won from Cornell 18 to 0 . Columbia was very weak throughout the seasin until the Comell game, when she to $k$ a wonderful brace and defeated the Ithacans. Cornell has had an unsuccessful season, losing all the important games by large scores. Her season was ended on Thanksgiving day, when she was decisively beaten by Pennsylvaaia by a score of 34 to 0 . Of the eastern teams, Syracuse has made the largest number of points, though her schedule this year did not include the usual num. ber of hard games.
Pennsylvania's goal line has not been crossed this season, and the only seore made against her was a goal from the field by Swarthmore. Her record is as follows:
State College......................................... 0
Swarthmore................... 4
Virginia...................................24-- 0
F. and M.................................34- 0

Lehigh.....................................24- 0
Gettysburg..............................24- 0

PLANS FOR BIG

 COLLEGE DNNEEWill be in Nature of Crew and Football Cele- bration.

Some time ago a committee was appointed by the senior class to make plans for a crew and football celebration. It was decided at that time that such a celebration should be in the nature of a dinner. The committee consulted the Chancellor, members of the faculty, prominent alumni, and a large number of students as to the best arrangements for such an affair. The general opinion seemed to be that the eclebration should be made one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever held at Syracuse.
With these fasts in mind the committee has been hard at work the past few weeks. It was found that the expenses for such an affair would be very large. The only building large enough to accommodate the number of students and alumni that will want to attend such an enthusiastic meeting is the Alhambra, the price of which is seventy five dollars for an evening. Besides this expense, there would of course be many other items, such as decorating, printing, complimentary tickets, etc. The committee thought it would be inadvisDe to charge a sufficiently large price for the tickets to cover all these expenses, together with the cost of the dinner. It was the desire to keep the tickets low enough so that every man can attend, and make this dinner the largest and most enthusiastic gathering in the history of Syracuse.
The only way to ace mplish this was to raise the extra money above the actual cost of the dinner among the alumai and friends of the University Accordingly several members of the committee have been hard at work the past few weeks soliciting the necessary fands. The alumni have responded generously, and the big dinner is now practically an assured success. The time has not been definitely set yet, but it will probably be some evening next week. Tickets will be on sale in a few days at the extremely low price of fifty cents, which will meraly cover the actual cost of the dinner. The other expenses have been or will be raised among the alumni.
Nearly every college in the country has at least one college dinner each year, but this will be the first time it has been attempted at Syracuse. The gathering will be especially in honor of the crew and football men, and the presentation of the cups to the members of the victorious crews will take place at this time. There will be speeches by prominent men, songs and yells, and a general discussion concerning future athletic and other relations of the University.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS.

Announcement has been made by the Rhodes Scholarship Trust that the next qualifying examination will be held in each State of the Union not later than January 15, 1905. It was found last spring that the examinations were held so late that thare was not sufficient time after the scholars had been selected to assign them to the various colleges at Oxford. For this reason the next examination will be held in January.

There are still three freshmen who have not yet visited Selleck's. We are particularly desirous that these men come down at once and see those derbies that are worn on Sundays by nearly

The candidates are also Some time ago it was decided that asked to meet the chairman of the comSyracuse should have two debates this mittee at their earliest convenience.year, inasmuch as the one scheduled Herbert M. Burchard. with Wesleyan will take place at Middletown. It was desired to procure some team to come to Syracuse. In view of the rivalry between Colgate and Syracuse on the gridiron for the past few years, it was thought that a debate with that institution would be especially. welcomed by the students. Consequently a challenge was sent to the authorities at Colgatu for an intercollegiate debate between the two universities:
A reply was received yesterday from Colgate stating that they would accept the challenge. At a meeting of the Debating Union held last evening the matter of the Colgate debate was discussed. The debate will occur here on some date between March 15 and April 20. It will be arranged, if possible, so that the debate will occur here the same night that the Syracuse team meets Wesleyan at Middletown. An attempt will also be made to have the same question discussed by both teams. The Wesleyan debate is to occur at some time between the above dates. Two questions are to be submitted by Wesleyan from which Syracuse is to select one and choose the side she wishes to support. The time for submitting the questions is past due, and they are expected daily. As som as the question is decided upon, calls f(r the trials will be issued.
Trials for the freshman and sophomore debate teams will occur shortly before the holday vacation. The exact date and thequestion will be announced in a few days. On account of the increased interest in debating, it is expected that a very large number of men will be out for the trials for both the class and intercollegiate teams.

MEDALS ARE AWARDED.

The debate medals won by members of the various teams last year have just been received and distributed to winners: Three gold medals were awarded to members of the Allegheny team, F. W. Hartwell, Joseph Mosher and Robert Park: The medals for the Wesleyan team were given last year. There were also several silver medals distributed this week.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

The Orange regrets to announce the resignation of Fred W. Hartwell as an associate editor of the paper. Mr. Hartwell's college work is such as will not allow him to put the necessary time on the paper.

Syracuse has established a reputation in the past few years for the skillful presentation of various Shaksperian plays. Last year, in order to perfect and promote the dramatic interests of the University, a dramatic club was formed. This club has decided to continue the custom of previous years, and present Shakspere's "Julius Caesar" some time next April.

The production of such a play as this is by no means an easy undertaking. The successful presentation of any of Shakspere's plays is difficult at the best, and the production by students of such a play as that to be undertaken this year will necessitate the use of the best material in the University. It is a University function, and as the production will be pronounced a suecess or failure, just so it will reflect credit or discredit upon the University. It is therefore the duty of every student to aid in every possible way those who will attempt this great undertaking.
Two evenings have been set for the trials. The cast being, as it is, an unusually large one, it will afford ample opportunity for a large number of students to receive parts. Every student of the University is eligible to try for the cast. It is needless to speak of the benefit to be derived from such training as will be given by Professor Losey. This fact alone, to say nothing of the honor, trips, etc., is well worth the effort of every student. There should be a large number out for the trials on December 6 and 7, and aid in this worthy undertaking.

Chancellor day off committeE.

A conference was held in New York recently which dealt with matters relating to the award of the Rhodes scholarships in New York State. The term of Chancellor James R. ## buyina athletes.

The following clipping from the Illustrated Sporting News of recent date, under the editorial caption of "Buying Upa Football Player," throws an interesting light on the way such practices are considered in the East:
"Each year the newspapers are filled with accounts of how certain preparatory sthool stars scheduled for one university have mysteriously found their way to the football squad of a rival. Why these promising players who are expected to fill the vacancies caused by the graduation in the preceding June of various gridiron heroes, have changed their minds, has remained, and doubtless will remain, a profound seeret. It is a sort of scandal which is confined to no section of the country, the East being filled with disagreeable stories of this kind as well as the Middle West and othersections of the country. From California has come newspaper report of a scandal of this character which should at least result in an investigation by the universities whose fair names are assailed. Walter Reinschild, of Los Angeles, one of the best acade. mic football players in Southern California, has made startling charges against both the University of Michigan and the University of Wisconsin. The Los Angeles lad, who was star tackle of his preparatory school team last year, declares openly that Manager Baind of Michigan offered to pay all his expenses during the present season and promised remunerative employment if he would go to Ann Arbor and join the football squad there. Wisconsin, on the other hand, he alleges, offered him ail traveling expenses and other remuneration if he would try for the eleven at Madison. The lad openly stated that he would accept the highest offer, pitting two of the most prominent universities of the the Middle West against each other in bidding for his services. Whether this charge is the result of a desire on the part of a schoolboy for notoriety, or is really based on fact, in either case it behooves the two institutions involved to issue some sort of a statement which will exonerate themselves. It cannot but hurt the standing of a university in the eyes of the amateur sportsmen of the United States to permit such charges as those made by Reinschild to be made with no refutation. Letting such charges go unanswered is not at all wise."
Commenting on the above article, the Daily Californian says editorially:
"We know that in the main this artiele is true, for we saw Reinschild as he passed through Berkeley on his way East, and he made practically the same statement to us, mentioning especially that the ticket he was traveling on was purchased for him by Michigan's manager. He said he would have come to California, but that Christy was the only person who had spolen to him about coming and that he (Christy) had offered no pecuniary inducements, that such a thing was out of the question. He said that he would sell his services to the highest bidder when he got back East, irrespective of the fact that Baird had paid his transportation, adding (with a wink that he confidently supposed to be sly) that he was too wise to work. So much for Reinschild."

WESTER COILEEES ACOPT NEW RULE

Freshmen Will BeBarred from Playing Football.

Representatives of the "Big Nine" western colleges met in Chicago last week and adopted a rule by which freshmen athletes will be barred from taking part in athletics until they have been bona fide students for four and one-balf months. The colleges comprising the so-called "Big Nine" are Chicago, Minnesota, Indiana, Michigan, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Purdue, Illinois and lowa.
The rule is as follows:
'No student shall participate in any intercollegiate contest who shall not have been in residence a semester and a full credit for a semester's work previous to the term or semester in which the sport is held."
The rule affects football men a great deal more than it does baseball or track men. It will now be impossible for a student to be a member of the football team during his first year, and the universities which were depending on new material for next year will be disapprinted.
It is believed that the rule will be a death blow to the questionable methods heretofore used in order to induce high school athletes to enter college. The cases of Eckersall of Chicago and Hammond of Michiganstarted the agitation for the rule.
Professor Jones of Minnesota and Dr. Smith of Iowa objected to the rule on the first ballot, but they afterwards came into line and the rule was unanimously adupted. One objection made to the rule was that it would give the eastern and non-conference colleges a decided advantage over the conference colleges.
The Indian schools, Haskell and Carlisle, are hereafter to be regarded as culleges in point of eligibility of their athletes. Hitherto those schools have been classified with the "prep" schools, and their athletes have been eligible to play on college teams.

NORTHWESTERN-MICHIGAN DEBATE.
The question for the debate between Michigan and Northwestern is " Re solved, That corporations doing an interstate business should be compelled to incorporate under national law, granted that such a law is constitutional." Northwestern will uphold the affirmative side of the question. The contest will occur at Ann Arbor on January 20.

 Whom the Honor Will Fall.The election of the captain of the 1905 football team will occur this evening. Manager Ackley will open the Phi Gamma Delta chapter house to the members of the 'Varsity foothall squad for the annual football evening. All the members of the squad, together with the manager, assistant manager and Assistant Coach West, will be pres ent. Coach Hutchins has not yet returned from his home in Chester, N. Y. There is great interest among the students in the result of tonight's election, and much speculation as to the outcome. It has been some years since the result was so undecided as that in selecting the captain for next year's team. Usually the students feel fairly sure as to whom it will be, or that it will be one of two or three, at the most. This year, however, there are five juniors on the squad, and any one seems to stand an equal chance with any other. The juniors on the squad are Cuxtige fullback, Burrell,end Tucker, guard; Parker, halfback, and Magoon, end.

It is quite prohable that such a match may be arranged.

NEW YORK STATE CONFERENCE OF RELIGION.
The fifth annual meeting of the New York State Conference of Religion opens today in the First Presbyterian Church of the city. The program is a very interesting one, and upon it are found the names of several alumni and professors of the University. The address of welcome will be delivered this evening by Dean Brooks of the Law College. The names of Rev. F. D. Leete, Professor Coddington, and Professor Street also appear on the program. The closing remarks Friday evening will be delivered by Dr. Peritz. Chancellor Day, Professor Coddington and Professor Peritz are members of the local committee, the latter being the chairman. The aim of the conference is stated as follows:

O. K. HARWOOD,
"Recognizing grave symptoms of moral deterioration in American society, this Conference affirms the supremacy of the moral interests of religion, the obligation of all religious men to cooperate religiously for these interests, and the unity of the religious spirit, in which men of various forms of religion should thus co-operate. Accordingly, it aims to draw together the religious forces of the State for the promotion of moral and social righteousness. Its motto is: There are many religions, but religion is one, Accordingly, it is a Conference of Religion, not of relig. ions."

The members of the staff of the Or ange will meet at the Hotel Onondaga next friday at 12:30. After dinner at this hotel, the board will sit for a picture at Doust's.

The action of the Western colleges designated as the "Big Nine" in adopting a new athletic rule as described in today's $O$ RANGE will be reviewed with much interest by Eastern college men. The purpose of the new rule is perfectly ciear. It is bound to disappoint many students, and will doubtless keep many students out of college who would otherwise enter. It is, however, at just such students, we suspect, that the rule is aimed. It is far too often the case that athletes come to college primarily for participation in athletics, and it is also often true that they indulge in athletics to such an extent as to neglect their regular college work. Students who have little or no idea of completing a college course are induced to enter for one year. By various means they are enabled to keep up their college work to a sufficient degree so that they may remain in college for at least one year, and spend most of their time and energy in athletics.
It would seem that this new rule would tend to remedy this evil. Students must be upon sound ground before entering into athletics at all. We do not recollect any case at Syracuse within recent years where the application of such a rule as this would have been necessary. However, it is evident that a ruling similar to this must tend toward cleaner athletics. It is interesting to note that the first step in this line has been taken by the Western universities.

ON DEEEMEER 14

Big Celebration in the Alhambra on that Evening.

After several weeks of delay and committee work, the long-Rwaited crew and football dinner has been definitely arranged. At a late hour last evening the committee authorized the Orange to state definitely that the affair will take place in the Alhambra on Wednesday evening, December 14. This will bring it in junior week, and add greatly to the importance of that week. The Alhambra could not be secured for any other suitable date, but the general opinion seems to be that the date mentioned will be one of the best that could be desired.
Definite arrangements, other than the place and date, have not yet been arranged. Tickets will be put on sale in a day or two at the price of fifty cents each, which will merely cover the cost of the dinner. The menu will, of course, be nothing elaborate, but will be the best which can be secured at that low figure. All other expenses will be raised by the alumni and friends of the University, and the studenta will thus be enabled to attend this function at the mere price of the dinner. Students who have expressed an opinion thus far have been very enthusiastic over the affair, and appreciate what the alumni are doing for them.
While the alumni have been called upon to contribute, yet they are all very enthusiastic over the proposed dinner. Nearly everyone has expressed himself as believing it will be one of the very best college functions ever attempted at Syracuse. It seems to be the opinion that Syracuse has become of sufficient size and importance to follow the example of the leading universities of the country in the matter of a college dinner. It will afford a most excellent means of bringing the students and alumni together in a democratic gathering where matters vital to the growth and development of Syracuse can be discussed. Behind this movement and thoroughly interested in it are such men as Chancellor Day, Dean Smalley, Dean Brooks, George Bond, Charles J. Jewell, Wiliiam Nottingham, D. R. Cobb, William Rubin, Hon: T. E. Hancock, Willis Holden; Dr. Van Lengen, Dr. Wallace, Ed. French, Carl Dorr, F. E. Oliver, George Preston, William Costello, Harry Farmer and many others.

COMMUNICATION.
[We invite students, alumn] and friends of the niversity to submit communications on subjects t timely interest. The Orange is not, however, responsible for the sentiments expressed in such communications]

Syracuse, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1004. Editor Daily Orange:
The article in yesterday's issue under the caption "Buying Athletes" is a severe reflection upon two reputable universities. Syracuse has suffered so much from misrepresentation in regard to her athletes that I amsure the Daily Orange would hesitate before intentionally becoming a party to the dissemination of the charges made in the quotation from the Illustrated Sporting News and the Daily Califormian. I do not know what evidence the Orange may have of the truth of the quotations. Neither do I know about the reputation of the News for veracity when handling college affairs. The Daily Californian appears to be interested in the question partly because the football hero under discussion did not stop in Berkeley. If you will look into the quotations you will find that their logic is not exactly convincing. The News refers to its information as a "newspaper report." A stronger point is its statement that Mr. Reinschild de- tions in the affirmative, ought we not clares openly that both Michigan and to suspend judgment?
Wisconsin offered him financial inducements to play football, and that he declared that be would accept the highest offer.
What proof is offered aside from such assertions? None except the statement from the Daily Califormion that Mr . Reinschild "made practically the same statement to us." Does the repetition of a story, so that it can be called "practically" the same, constitute new evidence in favor of its credibility? Hardly. Who is Mr. Reinschild? 1. Last year one of the best academic football players in Southern California. 2. A candidate for college who openly said that he would go to the University bidding highest. 3. A young man who, while traveling on a ticket supposed to be furnished by the Michigan manager, declared that he was still open to the allurements of the highest bidder. 4. A man who, when he passed through Berkeley-the seat of the University of California-evidently felt called upon to explain why he was leaving his state and why he did not accept Mr. Christy's invitation to play on the Berkeley team.
I do not know, Mr. Editor, whether these statements about Mr. R. are true or not. My information rests solely on the quotations made by the Orange. I prefer at this time to doubt them very seriously. But if we suppose for the sake of the papers quoted that Mr. Reinschild did make statements reflecting on these two institutions, do you think that, under the circumstances, he is a trustworthy and convincing witness? If we cannot answer these ques-

Sincerely yours, Michigan.
[NoTE-The article referred to is one which appeared on page 4 of Wednesday's issue. It will be noticed that the entire article was a clipping from two papers, to whom credit was given for the same, and that the Orange had nothing whatever to say concerning the matter. The article was printed simply as an interesting account of the way in which athletice are considered by some writers, and by no means as an expression of the sentiment of the Orange, or of Syracuse University.]

THE GERMAN CLUB.
The German club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. It was decided to present a German play during the winter. The formation of reading circles for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with the German drama was also discussed. Miss Erskine favored the club with two vocal Bolos. German conversation and games followed. Refrsshments were served.

ORATORY WORK

Separate Contests Will Be Held for Men and Women.

The Department of Rhetoric and Public Speaking wishes to call the attention of students to the following changes affecting the prize contests:
First. The University prize of fifty dollars for excellence in oratory will be offered hereafter only to men of the junior and senior classes. The prize will be divided into a first of thirty dollars and a second of twenty dollars. Men who intend to compete for this prize must hand their names to the department not later than December 10, and they must submit their orations not later than March 1. Each oration shall contain not less than 1200 and not more than 1500 words; it shall, when submitted, be in essentially final form and, to insure acceptance, be worthy of public delivery. Men whose orations are accepted will be required to deliver them at a preliminary contest to be held not later than March 20. From the men who compete in the preliminary trial six contestants will be selected by the department for the final contest. Lach contestant thus selected will be required to undergo such training at the hands of the instructors in the department as mey seem to them necessary to insure a dignified and meritorious pablic performance. In case there shall not be at least six contestants worthy to appear at the final, the prize will be withheld and the contest will be abandoned.
Secondly. The prize of fifty dollars formerly offered to women for excel lence in oratory will he offered hereafter to women of the junior and senior classes for excellence in public reading. Those who intend to compete for this prize must hand their names to the department not later than January 15. At that time they must also indicate their choice of a selection for reading, and this selection must meet the approval of the department. It must be the work of a reputable writer, and must not exceed eight minutes in length, and it must be interesting. If it requires rearrangement or adaptation, such changes must be made by one of the instructors in the department. A preliminary trial will be held notlater than March 1 and from those competing ten contestants will be chosen for the final. The prize will be divided into a first of twenty-five dollars, a second of fifteen dollars and a third of ten dollars. Those who succeed in making the final must submit to such training from the instructors in the department as may be required. In case there shall not be at least ten contestants at the preliminary trial who shall evince enough ability to warrant their appearance at the final, the prize will be withheld and the contest abandoned.

Third. The Dennison prize of thirty dollars formerly offered to men and women of the sophomore class for excellence in declamation will hereafter be offered only to men of the sophomore class. This prize will be divided into a first of twenty dollars and a second of ten dollars. The conditions governing this contest are otherwise the same as those laid down for the women's contest in public reading.
Fourth. To insure proper representation in the Intercollegiate Oratorical Association, the department will require students who intend to enter the intercollegiate oratorical contest to make known their intention not later than December 30. Orations must be submitted not later than February 15. The representative will be selected at a pre liminary trial held on the first Monday in March. At least three meritorious orations must be submitted to insure the preliminary trial, without which no representative will be chosen.
Fifth. No elective work in elocution will be required of any student to insure eligibility in these contests.

Frederick D. Losey.

BASKETBALL MEN HARD AT WORK.

The members of the basketball team are training every afternoon in the gymnasium preparatory to the Dartmouth game next Thursday evening. The men are rapidly rounding into shape and the team this year promises to be the best that has ever represented the orange. The men expect a hard game with Dartmouth. The New Hampshire team is one of the strongest in the country, and is placed on a par with Harvard and Yale. This will be one of the best of the home games on the schedule.

A committee of six members of the junior class has been appointed at Wesleyan for the purpose of devising plans for increasing the number of students in the college. They will personally visit athletes in the preparatory schools and so endeavor to stop the unfavorable advertising which the college has received from poor athletic teams, and also try to secure control of jobs which may be offered to needy athletes as a means of self-support while in c.llege.

At a meeting of the Michigan alumni a committee was appointed to consider and report upon some appropriate memorial for the students of Michigan who have served in the wars of their country. The committee reported in favor of a memorial hall, to cost not less than $$ 100,000$; and their action was approved by the Alumni Association at a meeting held June 22, 1904. Since then the project has been admirably supported and a considerable fund has been raised.
Tokio is the largest university in the world, for not less than 48,000 young Japanese are studying it. The favorite courses are law and civil and mechanical engineering.
Massachusetts Tech tried a new scheme of selling grand stand seats at auction. Some of the seats brought as high as five dollars and others as much as five cents.
Yale and Harvard musical clubs gave a joint concert in New Haven recently. Harvard was represented in this concert by clubs numbering over 90 men.
Ice practice for the 'Varsity and freshman hockey teams of Columbia have started at St. Nicholas Rink. Elementary team work is being practiced.

BASKETBALL GAME WITH PRINCETON.
Manager E. G. Rice of the basketball team announces that he has secured a game with Princeton to be played on the home floor February 9. This makes the list of home games as follows:
Dartmouth, December 8; Cornell, December 17; Yale, January 7; Hamilton, January 28; Princeton, February 9; Colgate, February 11; Allegheny, March 4; St. John's, to be arranged.
Three of thesegames are with teams of the Intercollegiate Basketball League; Columbia is the only one in the league not scheduled to play Syracuse. Enthusiasm is alrsady aroused over the first game of the season, Dartmouth; and from the manner in which the season tickets are selling, it is assured that there will be a large crowd present to see Captain Powell's men start the season.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 80 Croton Street.

The Daily orange extends congratulations to Captain-elect Tucker of the 1905 football team. To be captain of the Syracuse football team is by no means a small honor. The team has come to be of so great importance during the last few years that great care must necessarily be taken as to whom the team shall delegate the generalship. We believe the squad that has just selected next year's captain has taken great care, and has chosen a person who is ably qualified to fulfill the responsibility which the office carries with it. Much of the success and reputation of a team depends upon its captain. The men look to him to a certain degree as an example which they should strive to emulate.

There are many essentials to a with the result that the season good captain, but the principal was characterized by honor ones are, we believe, ability and among the men, integrity on the integrity; ability as a player and field, respect for our opponents, ability as a general and leader. Captain Tucker is one of the best and hardest players on the team. He has held with much credit the position of right tackle for the two past seasons, being used repeatedly in every game. He seldom fails to make a gain when intrusted with the ball, or to hold his place when playing on the line. As a general we have reason to believe the big tackle will prove himself to be all that could be desired. The other essential - integrity - characterizes the captain. And just as it is a characteristic of the captain, just so it will be a characteristic of the team. Honor,on the gridiron is as essential as in the classroom. The present outlook augurs well for a successful season of clean football in 1905. We congratulate the team and student body' upon the election of Captain Tucker, and hope thatsuccess may attend his work next season.
But while we are congratulating ourselves upon the new captain, we would not forget the one who has just finished his football career at Syracuse. Too much cannot be said in praise of exCaptain Park. To him to a very large degree can be attributed the success of the past season. A captain in whom the men on the team and the students of the University placed supreme confidence; a player who possessed great ability on the field, being a tower of strength at every critical point; a general whose clear mind and knowledge of the game enabled him to skillfully direct the team; and above all, a man whose character and habits were imbibed by the men on the squad, and clean playing in every game.
Such a man is the retiring captain. As he ends his football career at Syracuse, we all join in words of commendation and praise for what he has done for our University.
how they handle the crowds at yale.
It is often wondered how the immense crowds at the Yale games are handed with so great ease as they are. It is said that there is little or no difif. culty in keeping the crowds perfectly under control. This is accomplished to a large degree by the rules which prevail there.
Following are some of the rules by which the Yale system is manipulated:
"3. (a) Seats will be allotted in the cheering section first, that is in the center of the field. Then will come the coaches and the players. After which the order will be as follows:
"(b) Academic and scientific seniots; (c) Academic juniors; (d) Graduates alternating with sophomores, and second and third year men not Yale graduates in the professional schools (f) Remaining graduates. (g) Acad emic and Science freshmen.
"4. No free tickets are to be given to any one, not even to the players and coaches.
"5. No graduate may transfer by written authority the privileges of his application to another.
"6. Each applicant is responsible for the tickets alloted him. Any Yale man whose tickets are found in the hands of a speculator will be posted in the list kept in the football office and denied the right of securing tickets by application.
" 7 . The distribution of tickets will be by lot under the rules above outlined."

Men Are Selected to Rep- resent the Orange on the Floor.

The basketball men have been out all the season hard at practice, and are now about ready to compete with the leading teams of the country. There has been a large number of candidates for the team, and unusual interest in the game has been manifest all the fall. Upon the squad are men who have made a reputation for themselves in their preparatory schools, and have come to Symacuse with much experience and a fine record. Several of the men, including Captain Powell, Kirchgasser, Rodlein and Riehl, played upon the champion German Y. M. C. A. team of Buffalo.
Captain Powell has picked the men who will compose the regular 'Varsity squad. They are Captain Powell, Kirchgasser, Stark, Brady, Dollard, Houseknecht, Schiefer, Parry, Lee, Redlein, Coit, Riehl, Gidey, Palmer, Fuller and Van Housen. The competition for the first team is between the following men, who have been lining up during the past week as follows: Stark and Kirchgasser, forwards; Powell and Richl, center; Prady, Houseknecht, Redein and Dollard, guards. The regular 'Varsity team will probably be chosen from these men.
The teams have been practicing on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, but will meet each evening this weok in preparation for the Dartmouth game. The men expect a hard game Thursday night. Dartmouth is one of the teams comprising the New England league, the other two being Amherst and Williams. Last year Dartmouth won the championship in this league. Her team defeated Wesleyan in two games by a score of 24 to 11 and 13 to 9. Last year Syracuse defeated Wesleyan by a score of 22 to 21.

HORNELLSVILLE AND CANISTEO ALUMNI ORGANIZE.
The following article appeared in the Times-Republican of Canisteo on November 30 :
A meeting of Syracuse alumni and undergraduates of Hornellsville and Canisteo was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Clyde E. Shults '98 in Hornellsville. Preliminary stepa were taken to organize a Syracuse Alumni Association at a subsequent meeting to be held at No. 23 Main street, Canisteo, during the holidays.
The following Syracuse men and women were present at Mrs. Shults': Shirley E. Brown and Miss Edna Mitchell of Hornellsville; Mrs. H. Davis of Olean; Mrs. F. F. Dunham, Miss Lena Stewart, Miss Mary C. Thomas, Guy Comfort and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Latham of Canisteo. Also several other guests.
On account of the large alumni and graduate representation of Syracuse in Hornellsville, it will be possible to organize a club with a large membership. In Canisteo alone there are now eight students attending Syracuse, besides several local alumni of the institution. Hornellsville also has a number of alumni and undergraduates who were unable to be present at Mrs. Shults', but who will attend the subsequent meetings.
The occasion at Mrs. Shults' home was a delightful social function. In addition to talking over old college times, refreshments were served, and the evening most pleasantly spent. The date for the next meeting will be announced later.
From the same issue of the TimesRepublican we clip the following respecting last year's editor of the Orange:
The Cattaraugus Times is making rapid strides under the efficient editorial and business management of the new publisher, I. R. Templeton. The paper has been improved in every department and is rapidly extending its scope and influence.

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

The Deutcher Verein of the University of Pennsylvania will produce a German comedy this year, entitled "Ein Toller Einfall." The play is in four cts and requires 23 characters.
Only two men of Michigan's football team will not return to college next year. Of the 16 Harvard men who played in the Yale game this year, 11, including Captain Hurley, who will enter the Medical School, will be available for next year's football team.
Fifty thousand dollars has been appropriated for a new engineering building at the University of Iowa.
All the fraternities at the University of Minnesota unite and give a PanHellenic ball on February 3. Tickets will be $$ 5$.
It is said that President Roosevelt has decided to become the head of Harvard University soon after the expiration of his term in 1909. Two weeks before the election President Roosevelt was called upon and asked whether he would accept the presidency of his Alma Mater if it was offered to him. He intimated that he would if he should be defeated. As he won, his statement that he will not be a candidate for reelection is supposed to mean that when he lays down the burdens of state he will take charge of the affairs of Harvard.
There are seven cases of smallpox at the University of Michigan which have been causing students and faculty considerable worry. Five of the patients are engnerrs and all students in that department have been ordered vaccinated. The patients were to have been taken to a pest house near the university on Monday night, but in the evening shortly after sundown somebody, who presumably was opposed to quarantining the patients, exploded some dynamite under one cormer of the building and so injured the structure as to render it unfit for use.

DEEBTEES FORM
NEW FRATERNTY

Honorary Society of Alpha Kappa Delta Established.

The students of the University who are especially interested in debating and who have taken forensic honors have formed a new Greek letter fraternity. The ordet has been in existence for some time, but has not been announced until this morning. The charter members are Ernest H. Sumner, Lloyd L. Cheney and Fred L. Pitts of the Wesleyan team; Fred W. Hartwell of the Allegheny team; A. Loomis Baldrey and A. Stanley Copeland of the 1904 class team.
Membership into the fraternity is limited to those who have made an intercollegiate debate team, or those who $h$ vi appeared in a public contest on a team repreeenting one of the two upperclasses. One of the principal objects of the order is to promote and encourage debating interests in the University. It is probable that chapters will be established during the next year at several of the eastern colleges, especially at those with whom Syracuse holds intercollegiate debates.
At several of the western colleges there exist honorary fraternities for debaters, but this is the first one established in the east. The pin of Alpha Kappa Delta is a gold scroll, upon the main part of which are the three Greek letters. On the lower part of the saroll is engraved the word "Syracuse." There are various other signs and markings on the pin which are of a secret nature.

PROF. BUSHNELL TO SPEAK.

Professor C. C. Bushnell of the Latin department will give a lecture in the Physics lecture room of Steele Hall at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Bushnell's subject will be "Italy and Its Ruins." The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides, and will be open to the public.

Publinhed every morning by tha students of Syracuse Univerait

If there was ever a college function which deserved the hearty and unanimous support of the students of the University it is the college dinner to be given in the Alhambra December 14 in honor of crews and football team. There are a great many good and sound reasons why every man should be present at this affair. First and foremost is the fact that we owe it to the alumni. It is through them, and only through them, that this celebration is made possible. The price of the tickets is extremely low, and smply covers the cost of the dinner. The fact that it is to be held in the Alhambra makes the other expenses very large. The alumni of the University have very generously subscribed this amount, which really means so it is true, but why not better it much cash given to the students. Now that the season is closed, It is indeed a loyal and generous the football men can all be presthing for these men to do, and ent and partake of the festival to them the students owe a debt celebration. There is nothing of gratitude. The least one can which, we are sure, would better possibly do is to purchase a ticket bespeak the gratitude of the stuand show them in this small way that we appreciate what they have done.
We owe it to the University to be present on that night. This affair is the first of its kind ever attempted at Syracuse, and whether or not such affairs shall be continued depends almost entirely upon the success or failure of this one. That such functions should be a part of the college life no one would be so bold as to dispute. One of the first and most necessary essentials of a university is college spirit and enthusiasm. And this essential should not only animate the students, but the alumni as well. What better means could be had to promote loyalty and enthusiasm than a banquet where a thousand students and alumni can sit down together, sing the songs, give the yells, listen to speeches, and, perhaps most of all, meet and come to know one another? There is no such plan at the present time. We believe that the one which is now proposed will accomplish this. Then, again, what an advertisement for the University such an affair would be!
We owe it to our athletes. How has the student body shown its appreciation for the glorious work of our victorious crews last June? What has been done? Absolutely nothing thus far. But now we have an opportunity presented to us to join with the alumni in celebrating that victory. And our successful football team, too. A few yells, songs and paradesthat is our record. A good one, it is true, but why not better it?

FOOTBALL, GENTLE SPORT.

The thousands of enthusiasts who assemble every year at Thanksgiving time in order to witness football will perhaps be interested in an account by old English writers of how the game of football used to be played with all its attendant brutalities, and some veople may indeed be thankful that the game as played today is as gentle as it is.
One writer of the thirteenth century speaks of the game as being played by an unlimited number on a side and that no one was allowed to touch the ball except with his foot. This was the origin of the old game of Rugby, and that style continued to be played in this manner until the middle of the eighteenth century, when the ball was al lowed to be carried.
The game of football was an afterdinner sport, and frequently in old England on the "Sabbath Day one individuale woulde bringe a football to the center of the towne and the populace wolde kiek it," and the side succeeding in kicking the ball to the limit of the town would score a point. The brutalities of the sport were then greatest, and many a wedding was postponed because the bridegroom was "lame of a legge that was broken in footballe."
Many objections were raised in the different cities, headed almost always by the pious Puritans, and in many cases the restriction was made prohibiting the playing of football.
Master Phillip Stubbs, in his Anatomie of Abuses, 1583 , was peculiarly bitter in his denunciation of the game. Ae said: "For as concerning foorballe playing. I protest unto you. It may rather be called a friendly kinde of fight than a play or reereation; a bloody murthering practise rather than a fellowly sport of pastime. For dooth not every one lye in waight for his adversavie, seeking to overthrow him and to picke him on his nose, though it be uponhard stones; so that by this meanes sometimes their necks are broken; sometimes their backs; sometimes their legges; sometimes their armes; sometimes one part thrust out of joynt; sometimes their noses gush out with blood; sometimes their eyes start out. They have the sleight to meet one betwixt two, dashe him against the beart with their elbows, to hit him under the short ribs with their griped fists and with their knees, to catch upon the hip and to picke him on his neck with a hundred other such murthering devices."
Thus does history repeat itself at the end of many years, but in a vastly different form. The brutalities of the game have been lessened considerably and deaths resulting from football playing have begun to be a rarity. The game has been brought down to a scientific standard and according to reports received this year showing the lessening by a great margin the accidents in the game, football bids fair to become some day tee national isport characterized by strategy and skill rather than by brutality. - Buffalo Express.

THAT ALL-AMERICAN ELEVEN. As a result of the editorial in Friday's issue of the Orange, various athletic editors are thinking more than once when choosing an All-American eleven. The following article appeared in Saturday evening's Telegram:
Common decency dictates that eastern football experts who have a mania for picking "all" elevens should not use the word All-American too lightly in selecting a team from all-eastern institutions, and then declaring it an All. American eleven, without taking into consideration the merits of the western players.
That many eastern writers are heartily ashamed of this unfairness is evident. They hem before inflicting "All. Elastern" "All-A mericans', on the public. The New York Sun qualifies its star eleven by calling it All-Eastern or All-American and the New York Trim bune says "so called" All-American.
Other writers, with all sense of fairness stifled and steeped in the prejudices of the Eazt against the West, flaunt the name All-American, utterly ignoring the West.
Walter Camp, the famous football expert, saved the good name of the East for fair play last fall by picking Heston for his All-American eleven. Surely the man who has made more than 100 touchdowns, has gained more than 500 yards in one game, has made distance twenty-two times in succession, and who towered above his fellows so high during his college career is entitled to a little consideration.

Tender Informal Receptions to Students and Faculty.
Mrs. Day and the ladies of the faculty are planning a series of "informal afternoons" for students and members of the faculty, the first of which is to be in the Art Reading Room of Crouse College Wednesday of this week from three to five.
In an institution as large as Syracuse University opportunities for students and faculty to meet for purely social purposes are naturally fewer than in a smaller college. It has seemed to the ladies of the faculty that some gatherings of a most informal kind would be welcomed by all as a means of getting more widely and better acquainted, and of increasing that esprit de corps which already exists here.
No special invitations are being sent out; everyone on the hill is included and may consider himself or herself most cordially bidden. It is hoped there will be no formality. People are expected to come directly from classes and will be welcome even if they can spare but five or ten minutes.
There will be music in the course of the afternoon. This first time the special hostesses will be Mrs. Day, Mrs. Smalley, Mrs. McChesney, and Mrs, Kent.

SECRET PRACTICE FOR BASKET.

 BALL MEN.The members of the basketball squad practiced behind closed doors last evening, in preparation for the Dartmouth gane. The 'Varsity men who practiced last evening were Powell, Kirchgasser, Stark, Houseknecht, Brady, Redlein, Dollard and Riehl. The last practice for the Dartmouth game will be held this evening. Spectators will be allowed at that time. There will be practice on Wednesday night, as the team has games the two following evenings. Friday night it meets Company E at Schenectady.

Names are to be handed to the chairman of the football committee on or before that date. There must be more names handed in before they will be ratified by the Governing Board. The candidates are asked to meet the chairman of the commlttee at their earliest convenience. -H. M. Burchard,
The Alpha chapter of Beta Delta Beta will hold a meeting at the Phi Delta Theta ahapter houge to-morrow evening.

The Syracuse University Dramatic club held a meeting at the Psi Upsilon chapter house last evening.

I have to announce that the number of students who have handed their names to me signifying their intention to try for the cast of Julius Caesar is too srall to warrant proceeding with the trials at this time.' I regret to say that my work will not permit me to make any further personal effort toward securing the production of the play,-Frederick D. Losey.

Junior and senior men who intend to compete for the University prize in oratory are reminded that it will be necessary for them to make known their intention to me in writing not later than Saturday, Dec. 10. If on that date there shall not be eneugh entries to warrant preliminary trials the prize contest will be abandoned for the present year.-Frederick D. Losey.

Will the person who took the Thanksgiving reception poster kindly return or send it at once to the owner, as its use is desired immediately by the 1906 Onondagan.

Junior photographs can be handed in to Frank L. Baker in the Treasurer's office each morning at chapel time.
Students desiring photos for the holidays are requested to call on M. H. Bunn, 402 S. Salina St.

Published avery morning by the students of SyraCuse University at the Orange Priat Shop, 806 Croton Street. Croton Street.
The announcement in to-day's paper that it has been necessary to extend the time for nominations for assistant football manager further emphasizes the condition which prevailed here to a certain degree last year. It is truly a sad commentary upon the student body of the University that after a week's notice not a sufficient number of names of good men have been handed in to warrant presenting them to the Governing Board for ratification. Last year it was necessary at different times to issue several calls before a reasonable number of names were handed in and on one occasion there was only one name presented at the election. It now looks as though the experience of last year is to be repeated.
It cannot be possible that there are not more available men in the University. Neither is it possible that the office does not carry with it enough honor to repay one for his services. Is: it, then, fear of defeat? He who goes down in honorable defeat is by no means disgraced. A worthy opponent, though defeated, s respected by all. It seems strange that in a university the size of Syracuse it şhould be necessary at each election to repeatedly call upon the students to make nominations for the various offices. And it seems stranger still that some men, who are clearly incapable of holding an office if elected, will be nominated from time to time.
The managership of a 'Varsity team is an honor: it is an office of trust"and responsibility; it is a position which demands mature, experienced, and capable men For the sake of our future ath letics, let us see that the condition under discussion is bettered; that we have more men nominated, so that the students upon voting can at least have a choice, even though the Governing Board are denied that privilege when ratifying names. These remarks in no sense are to be interpreted as reflecting upon the present incumbents of office, for we believe they are, with no exception, capable and deserving men. Neither do these remarks refer to the men whose names have already been handed to the committee, for we do not know who they are. What has been said has been suggested by the notice appearing on another page of this issue.:
swéetland to remain at oho state.
Word has been received that E. R. Sweetland has signed a contract to coach the Ohio State University football team for the season of $\mathbf{1 9 0 5 .} \mathrm{He}$ will also have charge of alls the other university athletic teams during the remainder of the present college year.
Yale, Princeton, Pennsylyania and Harvard, Dartmouth, Holy Cross, Columbia and Brown are among the colleges which have- depended in large measure for their football glory upon young men of Irish Catholic training. The son of a Toterington miners Hogan, leads Yale; Hurley, the doughty leader of Harvand, is a leading player of the season. Harvard's big substitute fullback, Hanlay of Roxbury, is another of the legion of football playgrs who have accomplished thinga. In Coptain Larkin, Holy Cross has ong of the finest quarterbacks in the country. Dart mouth looks for football material in such men as J. T: McDevitt , the old Brighton High School back, who has been one of the prominent members of the Dartmouth squad this fall. ©Coney of Princeton, who will lead the orange and black forces next year, is one ot the best players. With Burke, his team mate, he has been a source of atrength to the team throughout the year;

TRAGC MAMGEER WORXING Hame  Wishes to Arrange Satisfactory Schedule..Cornell Angry.

Manager J. A. Distin of the 1905 track team is working hard to complete a satisfactory schedule of meets for the coming season. The track committee of the Athletic Governing Board, supported, it is understood, by Coach Hutchins, is trying to limit the schedule to two meetsbeside the Philadelphia relay meet in May and the intercollegiate meet in June. As the Oberlin meet at Syracuse has previously been scheduled, this means that there wlll be but one trip for the whole team. These foreign trips cost the management nothing es the expenses are covered by a guarantee, and several colleges are anxious to meet Syracuse on their home field, but the authorities feel that the tean should attempt only the four meets mentioned.
Last week Manager Distin was sent to Williams and Amherst to look up the renewal of athletic relations in track and football. When interviewed he said that he could say nothing further than that "arrangements have been made tending favorably toward a track meet with Amherst and a football game with Williams."
It is rumored that the meet with Amherst will be held at Albany under the auspices of Amherst.
Yesterday Manager Distin received a surprising letter from the Cornell track management in regard to the ComellSyracuse meet held on the oval last year. They stated that if Cornell won, they were guaranteed forty per cent. of the gate receipts and a trophy banner. As yet they haveneither seen nor heard from either of these and they demand an explanation.

COACH BOLAND IS HOME.

After a successful season as coach of the Missouri School of Mines football team, Earl Boland is back in Syracuse. It is probable that he will return to Missouri next fall to continue his work. Six games won, one game tied and lost is the record of the Western Miners under Boland's care. The greatest game of the season was fought out on Thanksgiving day with the University of Arkansas. Ancil D. Brown ' 03 was coach of Arkansas. The two Syracuse team mates watched their pupils play from the sidelines, Missouri winning by the score of 5-0.

The basketball team held its final practice before the Dartmouth game last evening. Captain Pcwell and Coach Scott gave final instructions, Signals have been worked out and the game is being played in a thoroughly scientific manner. All of the men are in prime condition, and basketball enthusiasts declare that the team at present bids fair to become one of the fastest in intercollegiate circles.
The Dartmouth game is awaited with great eagerness, as it will show to a great extent the speed and endurance of our men. Last year Syracuse and Dartmouth played the same colleges in New England and were victorious in nearly the same instances.
The 'Varsity line-up will probatly be: Forwards, Kirchgasser and Stark; center, Powell; guards, Redlein, Houseknecht and Dollard.

At basketball practiee last evening Ellis H. Gidley '07 was elected captain of the second team, for which Assistant Manager Kinne is arranging a series of games.'
About seventy-five spectators, including three prominent alumin, were present to. see the practice. The 'Varsity wore their new suits for the first time and their appearance excited much favorable comment. Manager Rice predicts a crowded house to see the Dartmouth game tomorrow night.

The question submitted by Wisconsin to Michigan for the annual debate is as follows: "Resolved, That party candidates for state, county and city elective offices, and for the State and national legislatures should be nominated by direct vote; constitutionality conceded." The debate will be held at Madison, March 24.

HHOOES SCHOLARSHIPS
Examinations Will Be Held Some Time in January.

The examination for the Rhales Scholarship for New York state will be held this year ut later than January 15. The time is earlier than last year, in order that there may be more time to assign the successful students to the various colleges at Oxford. It is desired also that those who win the scholarships shall reach England earlier than heretofore.
The examinations are not limited to graduates. Undergraduates and preparatory students are eligible, provided they have had the requisite amount of Latin and Greek. The requirements of these languages are somewhat greater than entrance requirements to universities of $t$ is country, as much more stress is placed upon the classics in the English schools. In addition to Latin and Greek, applicants are required to have a knowledge of arithmetic and either algebra or geometry.
The following extract from Mr. Rhodes' will points out the fact that a high grade of scholastic training was not all that the founder of these scholarships would wish:
"My desire being that the students who shall be elected to the scholarships shall not be merely bookworms, I direct that in the election of a student to a scholarship, regard shall be had to (1) his literary and scholastic attainments (2) his fondness of and success in manly outdoor sports such as cricket, football and the like (3) his qualities of manhood; truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy for the protection of the weak, kindliness, unselfishness and fellowship, and (4) his exhibition during school days of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates, for those latter attributes will be likely in after life to guide him to esteem the performance of public duties as his highest aim."

NOTICES.

The regular meeting of the Classical Club will be held Thursday evening. Dr. Calthrop will talk on "Tales from Herodotus." The hour has been changed to $70^{\prime}$ clock sharp, and the meeting will not extend after 8, in order that those who desire may attend the basketball game. Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 80 Croton Street

Syracuse University has become of so great a size that a person's acquaintance is necessarily limited. At the best it does not usually extend, with few. exceptions, beyond his own class, Not only are students unacquainted with each other, but they are equally unknown to members of the faculty, except to those with whom they come in daily contact. A broader acquaintance with both faculty members and students is a thing to be desired by every person in the University. There are, to be sure, clubs and societies almost without number in the University, but yet these do not tend to extend a person's acquaintance to any marked degree. Those who form these clubs are, as a rule, friends before joining. Clubs are formed by a union of people of a like mind. It is not such people we need to meet to enlarge our acquaintance. We know them already; if not, the laws of nature and natural forces will soon pull like together with like.
There is, however, an opportunity now presented to the students to meet a large number of igan.
people of every kind. Today in Crouse College there will be observed an "informal afternoon." All students and members of the faculty are invited. It will afford an excellent opportunity for a meeting of students and faculty for purely social purposes. The object is a most worthy one, and deserves the support of every student.
"There are six Japanese students in the University, and they have formed a sort of social organization. Once a week they come together for two hours and make use of their native language to exchange news from their faroff eastern home."-The Michigan Daily.
The club mania seems to be unlimited. It has been branded as being peculiarly Syracusan. It seems, however, to have reached not only far beyond our walls, but to have penetrated even the minds of our far eastern friends.
western coach picks all. american team.
Coach Lowenthal of Illinois has made a selection of an All-American team which includes only two players from Eastern universities. The names of the men selected appeared in Monday's issue of the Chicago Evening Post, and is as fol'ows:
Ends-Rothgeb, Illinois; Bush, Wisconsin.
Tackles-Hogan, Yale; Curtis, Mich-
Guards-Thorpe, Minnesota; Fairweather, Illinois.
Center-Hazelwood, Illinois. Quarterback-Eckersall, Chiago. Halfbacks-Heston, Michigan; Smith, Pennsylvania.
Fullback-Catlin, Chicago.
Substitutes - Foulke, Princeton; Bloomer, Yale.
Vanderboom, Wisconsin; Kafer, Northwestern.
In referring to his choice coach Low. enthall says: "The above is my selection for an' all-American team, and I believe that it represents the best we have in American football. Football is not played east of the Allegheny mountains exclusively. It is played on both sides of the Alleghenies as well as on both sides of the Rockies. It is customary for eastern football writers to pick all-American elevens with their horizon circumseribed by that ridge of mountain peaks above mentioned. Occasionally somebody writes to them and tells them of some remarkable player in the west, or perchance they see one in an intersectional game and we are given one player on the so called 'all-American' eleven, which are in fact all-east erm and not all-American at all.
"As an 'all' eleven of any kind is merely a matter of opinion. I do not see that there is any presumption in picking such an eleven from our standpoint. We clearly have as much right out here to pick an 'all-American' eleven from what we have seen and read and heard as they have in the east.
"The above all-American eleven is merely as I see and from what I have learned from correspondence with eastern football authorities. It seems to me that it is as fair a selection as the all-American elevens which have been published to date which are really alleastern elevens. It may be said that the above eleven is practically all-western. True. It is also undoubtedy true that we have as good material, as fine individual stars, and I believe in several cases much better than they have in the east. The coaching is cleverer and more versatile and is as effective, even though it may lack the mechanical perfection of detail of some of the eastern teams.
"After years and years eastern cities sometimes gradually give us one player as an all-American man. We are a little more generous andgive them twa.
"The merits of the above men are too well-known to need any dissertations. If there are any better in the east, it will be a great surprise to all close followers of the game. Records do not show it and the difference of class does not exist. The contrary has een proved too often.
"If I were to pick an all-western eleven, I should place Kafer of Northwestern in Hogan's place and Vanderboom of Wisconsin in the place of Smith of Pennsylvania.
"The above team is picked for weight, speed, offensive and defensive ability. Ido not believe that any more effective course this is merely a personal opinion "Any 'all' selections must of neecessity be that."

PHENOMINAL SUCCESS OF YOST
J. H. Yost has been phenominally successful as a football coach, his teams not having lost a-single game in his eight years as director of gridiron battles. "Hurry-Up" Yost began his career in coaching with the Ohio Wesleyan team in 1897, after leaving Lafayette, where he played tackle. That eleven won the championship of Ohio, and even held Michigan to a 0 to 0 score. In 1898 he was seen leading the Ne braska team to easy victory in the league with Kansas and Missouri, and then to prove that it was his work and not that of the team, he shifted over to Kansas the following year and went back to Nebraska and defeated the corn-huskers 36 to 20. Leland Stanford was his next position and his team won the championship of the Pacific Coast. Wandering back to the Middle West, Yost was next seen in 1901 at Michigan and there he has been ever since. Before going to Ann Arbor, Yost positively refused to stay longer than a single season with any school, and it was thought after the successful season of 1901 that he would refuse to go back to Michigan. When he did it was predicted that his "system" would soon be solved and his teams would be no greater than others in the Middle West. He has just completed his fourth season with Michigan, and is still undefeated. Only once has a team of his been held to a tie-when Minnesota played the Wolverines last year 6 to 6 . The Mich. igan team this year averaged in weight 201 1-2 pounds as against 188 for Yale and about 179 for Pennsylvania.

In OTHER COLLEGES.

It is reported that Bill Reid, who was 3 feat Harvard football player in his day, has received an offer of $\$ 5,000$ per year, with a five years' contract, to act $\mathfrak{a}^{9}$ coach of the Harvard football forces. If Reid accepts, and with Captain Hurey re-electel, it would seem that Harvard will hid well for championship honors next year.
W. E. Schutt, the Rhodes scholarship student from Cornell at Oxford University, won four events at the Prasenore sports last week. He won the 100 -yard dash in 112.5 seconds, the quarter mile in $532-5$ seconds, the one mile run in $5: 07$, and throwing the weight 27 feet 6 inches. Schutt has been chosen a member of the Oxford team for the Oxford-Cambridge cross-country run which will occur on Dec. 10.
The alumni and students of Nebraska are to give a big banquet in honor of the football team on December 12.

PEnNSYL Vania-VIROINIA DEBATE.
Pennsylvania and Virginia will meet today in intercollegiate debate. The contest promises to be a very interesting one, as the question is opon the repeal of the Fifteenth Amendment. This is the first debate upon the negro question ever held between Northern and Southem students. The Virginians will argue for equal suffrage for the negro, Which makes it still more interesting.

'VarsityMeets Dartmouth in the First Game of the Season.This evening the 'Varsity basketball Leam meets Dartmouth in the first game of the schedule. The game has aroused considerable interest because so many of the students who follow busketball closely have said that the present team is not only the strongs st which has ever represented Syracuse on the floor, but bids fair to stand near the heac of the college teams.

The 'Varsity squad at present consists of Powell (captain), Houseknecht, Brady, Kirchgasser, Redlein, Stark and Dollard. The athletic records of these men are as follows:
Arthur J. Powell ' 07 , captain. Age 19; weight 137 lbs.; height 5 ft .4 in . Home is in Buffalo; prepared at Masten Park High School. Captain Powell played on the Masten Park High School team the seasons of '99-'00, '00-'01, '01'02, '02'03. Last year he played center on the 'Varsity basketball team; also on his class basketball team, class basebal and football teams, and was on the 'Varsity track team. He was quarterback on the 'Varsity football team this year.
Clarence J. Heuseknecht '05, guard. Home is Batavia. Age 23; weight 150; height $5 \mathrm{ft} .81-2 \mathrm{in}$. Prepared at Batavia High School. He played on his school team for the season of '98.'99, and on the Batavia Y. M. C. A. team for the season of '99-'00 and '00'01. He has played on the 'Varsity '01'02, '02-03 and '03-'04. Last year he was captain. He also got his numerals in baseball and football.
Arthur J. Brady '05, guard. Hone is Syracuse. Age 22; weight 165; height 5 ft .10 in . Prepared at Syracuse Classical School and played on the team in '99-'01. He has played on the 'Varsity '01-'02, '02-'03, '03' 04.
George J. Kirchgasser '06, forward, Home is Buffalo. Age 19; weight 156; height 5 ft .9 in . Prepared at Masten Park High School and played on his school team '99-'00, '00-'01, '01-'02, '02'03. He played on the 'Varsity last year and this year he has his old position. He was also on the freshman team and manager of the same.
George L. Redlein'08, guard. Home is Ruffalo. Age 19; weight 135 lbs ; height 5 ft .9 in . Prepared at Masten Park High School, and played on its team the seasons of '99-'00, '00.01. '01'02, '02' 03 . He also played on the German Y. M. C. A. '03'04 and was on the team which won the world's championship at the Olympic games at St. Louis.
John Stark '08, förward. Home is Little Falls N. Y. Age 20; weight 165; height 5 ft .9 in . Prepared at Little Falls High School. Played on High (Continued on page 4.)

> ChancellorDayandOther Well-Known Men to Speak.

The committee having the atbletic dinner in charge have secured Lyman ' C. Smith to act as toastmaster at the big banquet. Chancellor Day, William Nottingham, B. J. Shove and Mayor Fobes will respond to toasts. Several other prominent men will also be secured. The presentation of cups to the crew men will also occur at this time. The contract for the catering has been awarded to E. C. Burbage of this city. Mr. Burbage is one of the best caterers in the state, and is especially competent to handle so large an affair. The menu has not yet been arranged, but will be announced in a few days. The dinner is meeting with great success, especially among the alumni. A prominent alumnus said yesterday: "Any college man who misses this dinner will miss a thing he will always regret."

PLANS FOR JUNIOR PROM.

Corpse and Coffin, the society having charge of the Junior Prom, are making elchorate preparations for this year's ball. The sale of tickets to date has been large and much interest is being shown. This is the first year Corpse and Coffin has managed the Prom, and they are making special effort to surpass any which have been given heretofore. The ball is open to all students. Music will be furnished by the 41 st Separate Company Band and by Kapp's Orchestra.
The stage will be decorated with holly, in the midst of which will be an electrical device in the form of '06. The remaining decorations will consist of bunting of the college and class colors. It is planned to make the seats more comfortable by suitable coverings. A promenade concert will be held from 8 to $8: 300^{\prime}$ clock, led by some prominent person or persons. During the intermission the college songs will be sung, with orchestra accompaniment. Music will continue throughout the intermission while the dinner is being served on the stage.
The programs will be something new, being made of pigskin. Upon the front will be embossed the University seal. The inside covers will be lined with orange silk, and the programs will be so made that they may be used for card cases. A large number of posters were handed in yesterday. These will be judged by Professors Hollenbeck and Hawley, and the prizes will soon be announced. The posters will then be placed in the windows of the leading down-town stores.

Students desiring photos for the holidays are requested to call on M. H. Bunn, 402 South Salina St.

WESLEYAN SUBMITS ONLY ONE QUESTION.

A letter was received from Wesleyan yesterday submitting a question for the Syracuse-Wesleyan debate. The contract entered into a year ago between the two institutions provided that two questions must be submitted. This year Wesleyan was to send two, from which Syracuse was to make a choice. The authorities at Wesleyan were notified immediately of their failure to comply with the agreement, and another question is awaited. The one submitted is as follows: Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northern Securities case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States.

paid the caterer for every plate served at the banquet is fifty cents, and the price of the tickets is only fifty cents. The dinner will be one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever held in the history of the University. A toast list, consisting of the best speakers and best known men in the city is being arranged. With these facts before us, how can any man refrain from buying a ticket? A similar dinner is being arranged at the University of Nebraska to be held December 12 , and the price of the tickets is one dollar and fifty cents each. With us the alumni have met all this extra expense. It now remains for the students merely to show their appreciation by their presence on that night. But the buying of tickets cannot be delayed until the last day. The caterer mast know the exact number of plates to prepare several days before the banquet. This fact necessitates the immediate sale of tickets. Let us purchase the tickets at once and make this dinner the big success which it justly deserves.

DARTMOUTH OVERMHELMEO  Syracuse Basketball Five Wins First Game by Score of 35 to 9 .

Before the largest audience ever seen in the gymnasium the 'Varsity basketball team defeated the Dartmouth team by a score which plainly tells that a series of victories will be eredited to the Orange this year. From start to finish the ball was always in the hands of the 'Varsity team. At times goals would be made without a Dartmouth mau touching the ball. The Syracuse team used almost entirely a short pass, and by this means worked the ball under the basket before a shot was attempted. Dartmouth, on the other hand, played more according to the Colgate style, using a long pass, playing the ball rather than guarding the man, and shooting for baskets from any part of the field.
Captain Powell, Stark and Redlein were in the scrimmage from beginning to end, and their accuracy in passing was very noticeable. Houseknecht, who opposed Russ, played a fine game at guard. -Kirchgasser held his corner and was on the spot every minute.
For Dartmouth, Russ and Grubenstein were the best. Captain Rix, at guard, played a good game.
From the very start Syracuse secured the lead, and at no time after two minutes of play did Dartmouth threaten to equal our score. After the game at Utica last night in which Dartmouth beat Colgate 28 to 19, the speed of Captain Powell's men can easily be realized.
The line-up was as follows:
Syracuse (35) Dartmouth (9)
Left forwad.
Redlein...................................McGrail Center.
Powell (Capt.).................Grubenstein Right forward.
Stark..................................... Hobart Right guard.
Housekneeht.....................Rix (Capt.)
Referee, Mr. Roseboro; umpire, Mr. Balph; timers, Mr. Low, Mr. Elliot; final score, Syracuse 35, Dartmouth 9 .

The announcement of a partial list of the men who have been secured to respond to toasts at the athletic dinner came with great satisfaction to the students and alumni. Not only will the affair be big in every respect, but those who are present will have the privilege of listening to some of the most prominent and best known men in the city. The fact that Lyman Cornelius Smith, the great benefactor of the University, has consented to act as toastmaster assures a successful evening. Every student will be anxious to see and hear this man, whose name is well known to every citizen of Syracuse. It will be a privilege to hear Chancellor Day at a banquet table and an opportunity which is seldom presented to the student body. And the mayor of the city will 1 1st. not only be present, but will also speak. The fact that these men and others, such as William Nottingham and B. J. Shove, will be present that night, should cause every student to do his part by attending himself. These busy men have taken a great interest in the University, and have now consented to unite with the students upon an occasion of rejoicing in our past success and future prospects.

QUESTION FOR WESLEYAN DEBATE.
Through some misunderstanding of the contract between Syracuse and Wesleyan in regard to the annual debate, it has been found that it is necessary for Wesleyan to submit only one question. The question as submitted is as follows: Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northern Securities case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States.
Syracuse will have one month to choose the side of the question. The debate will be held at Middletown during the early part of next April.

ART STUDENTS HAVE SPREAD.
Yesterday afternoon the architect, painters and art students held an informal "feed" in the drafting room of Crouse College. The function was given in honor of the faculty of these departments. A large number were present and all report an enjoyable afterneon.

Every Man Should Be at the Banquet Wednesday Night.

As a result of the announcement that Chancellor Day would speak at chapel yesterday morning, the room was filled to overflowing. There are several things about which the students have thought the Chancellor would have something to say very soon, so all awaited with much interest his remarks.
At the begraning of his remarks, he referred very sympathetically to the death of Rev. Charles W. Walker '97. He told of Rev. Mr. Walker's active interest as an alumnus of Syracuse, and expressed the loss which the University would suffer in his death. The Chancellor also made a few remarks concerning the prevalent tendency to "visit" too mush, and urged the students to put more time on their regular college work.
He explained that he was asked to speak concerning the athletic dinner to be given at the Alhambra next Wednesday night. The Cbancellor himself is very much interested in the affair, and urged every man to purchase a tieket at once. The fact that the caterer must know exactly how many plates to provide for makes it necessary that tickets be purchased immediately.
1906 ONONDAOAN AWARDS PRIZES
The drawing contsst for the 1906 Onondagan has resulted as follows: For the best seriousillustration--First prize, Miss Pauline H. ## CHARLES WESLEY WALKER.

News was received yesterday of the sudden death of Rev. Charles Wesley Walker at his home in Clyde, N. Y. He was taken suddenly ill last Saturday evening and was operated upon for appendicitis the next day. For a time it was thought he mightrecover, although the case was a most serious one. The best medical help that could be obtained was summoned, but only to prolong life for a few days. He passed away at 6 $o^{\prime}$ clock Thursday evening.
Mr. Walker was born April 30, 1869, at Cooperstown, N. Y. He entered Syracuse University in 1893, taking the classical course, and graduated with the class of 1897. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. After leaving college Mr. Walker was pastor of the Methodist church at Dryden, N. Y., for several years. Later he was pastor of the Olivet M. E. Church of this eity. In October, 1902, Mr. Walker was appointed an assistant to Dr. Sims at the First M. E. Church, where he remained one year. After severing his connection with this church, he was called to Clyde, where occurred his death. Mr. Walker has a brother, Thomas J. Walker '08 in college at the present time.
'Rev. Mr. Walker's death will be keenly felt not only by his intimate freends, but by the University as well. He was a loyal alumnus, always interested in the University and always ready to aid in its development.

COLGATE ACCEPTS

TERMS FOR DEBATE

Will Meet Syracuse Here Early Next Spring.

The Syracuse Debating Union has been in communication with the Debating Council of Colgate for some time in regard to arranging an intercollegiate debate between the two institutions. Syracuse issued a challenge to the Hamilton college, which was promptly accepted. Accordingly Syracuse drew up some articles of agreement for the debate and forwarded the same to Colgate. A reply was received yesterday saying that the terms were satisfactory, except in one or two minor details, which will be easily arranged.
Syracuse must submit a question to Colgate before December 15, and Colgate is to make known her choice of sides before January 15. Syracuse will submit the same question which was submitted to her by Wesleyan. The debate will be held at Syracuse some time in the latter part of March. It is now planned to have the debate with Wesleyan at Middletown and that with Colgate at Syracuse occur on the same evening. They will be on the same question, viz., Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northern Securities case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States. It is probable that a return debate will be held with Colgate next year at Hamilton.

A meeting of the Huntington Society of Syracuse University wss held Thursday evening. December 8, at the rectory of Grace church, with Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Coddington. The following officers were elected for the year 1904-1995: Rev. H. G. Coddington, warden; Professor Earl E. Sperry, president; A. A. Loomis Baldrey, first vice-president; Miss F. A. Loomis, second vice-president; Miss Katherine Hinchmnn, secretary; Henry Reid, treasurer; Leigh MacNish, financial secretary.
After the business meeting refreshments were served and a social evening enjoyed by all.

WHAT CAPTAIN RIX SAID.

In an interview yesterday morning, Captain Rix of the Dartmouth basketball team stated that the 'Varsity team plays the fastest basketball that he has ever seen. He said that, without exception, never in his experience had he witnessed such rapid and accurate passing, such successful goal shooting and fine team work. He predicted victory for the 'Varsity five in every game with Eastern colleges, including Colgate.

bered among the alumni that LymanC.
Smith, Mayor Fobes, Principal Wickes of the High School and the Hon. Theodore Hancock have set apart a sufficient amount of their valuable time to prepare and respond to toasts at this banquet. The services of one of the most, if not the most, skillful and successful caterers in the city have been secured. Attractive decorations are to be furnished by Dey Bros. and McCarthy & Son. The University Orchestra, consisting of eight pieces, has been hired to furnish the music. Arrangements have been made to have the cups, which were won last June at Poughkeepsie, presented to the men by an eloquent speaker. Last, but not least, Coach Ten Eyck will have a place on the program.
Thus, at the instance of the student body, all these things have been accomplished, not one of which, however, would have been done had there been the least intimation to the committee that the students would not support that which they first started. Tickets have now been on sale for two days at the unusually low rate of fifty cents. This morning I am informed that four tickets have been purchased at the Treasurer's office. Now, it must be well understood by all that, unlike a public entertainment, tickets cannot be sold up to the last minute. The caterer must know at least a day in advance, if not more, exactly what the attendance will be. Otherwise he would make preparation either for too few or too many. Consequently unless the banquet, which is all arranged, is to be abandoned, the students must purchase their tiekets immediately. It is not surmised that any number of men students in the Unlversity intend to be absent from the banquet. Neither is it thought that they are delaying the purchase of their tickets maliciously, but without a doubt they are showing themselves to be enticely too careless and thoughtless in this regard. It is certainly up to them to take the final step in making the banquet a complete success, viz., by an early purchase of tickets. If this banquet is a success there is no doubt but that a similar one will be held each year. If it is not a success no such bright prospect can be entertained. Let each student lend his support. The success of the banquet now resta with him. We want to show the city what our University is and what she is doing.

WTH CONNELL?

Effort Will Be Made to

 Meet the Ithacans Next Year.Ever since the breaking off of athletic relations with Cornell several years ago, there las been each year an increased demand for the resumption of thase relations. This demand has been felt, if reports are true, both at Ithaca and Syracuse, especially among the students. The present student bedy of each instilution had nothing to do with the unfortunate affair which brought to an and the athletic contests between the two universities, and they are now desirous of seeing the two great colleges of central New York meet in friendly contests in every braneh of nthetics.
From year to year there has been a gradual tendency toward the resumptim of athletic relations. Each year our crews compete with Cornell at Poughteepsie, and two years ago we sent a crew to lthaca on Memorial Day to compete in the triangular race between Comell, Harvard and Syracuse. Syracuse finished second in this race. The rivalry between the two institutions has been further increased by the fact of the great victory of the Syracuse crews at Poughkeepsie last June. Last year a basketball game was scleduled with Cornell, but it was later cancelled. This year two basketball games will be played with the carnelian and wiite, one at Ithaca and one here. All eyes are now turned toward football, and everyone is hoping to see a date with Cornell on next year's schedule. The Cornellalumni living in Syracuse are very desirous of seeing a football game between the two institutions. It is understood that they are working with the manarement of the Ithaca team endeavoring to arrange such a game. If the game can be satisfactorily arranged, it will probably be held at Syrause and Ithaca alternate years. It is likely the first game would take place at Syracuse. An alumnus of Cornell was seen by an Orange reporter yesterday and said: "I am very anxlons to see Cornell and Syracuse meet in football. While I am an ardent supporter of my Alma Mater, yet I believe that Syracuse would be a most worthy foe, and would give our boys a battle ryal. We alumni will do all we can to bring about fricndly relations again, and we want to see the two institutions meet in foothall."
A recent dispatch from Ithaca to the Buffalo Express is interesting as bearing on this subject. In speaking of Cornell's schedule for next year, the dispatch says:
"Comell's list of games will undoubtedly contain Pennsylvania again on Thanksgiving Day at Philadelphia, and Prinetton next year at Princeton, There seems no reason why Columbia should not be played again and next season it will be th New Yorkers' turn to come to Ithaca.
"Two new games, however, are likely t appear, one with Harvard and the other with Syracuse: Cornell has played bot, elevens in past years, b: $t$ not recently. A game with Syracuse was all but arranged for this season, but was not scheduled because of a conflict of slates, chiefly. One will very likely be scheduled for next season; Syracuse is anxious for the contest and the feeling at Cornell seems to have come around in favor of the University that swept the Hudson last June at Poughkeepsie."
the schenectady game.
While Syracuse lost the game with Company E at Schenectady, it does not signify that the soldiers had the better team? The score was 12 to 13 . Syracuse experienced great difficulty from the fact that there was no board behind the baskets on Company E's floor. This was a great disadvantage to the Orange five.

REASONS WHY.

During the return trip from Schenectady Friday night the basketball team decided that for the following reasons the team was defeated:

1. Brady forgot his new striped sp̧irt.
2. Kirchgasser has not yet regained his old form (see Friday's Syracuse Herald.)
3. Powell's "star" failed to shine.
4. Houseknecht was still on the floor, "snowed under."
5. Redlein had his chest stepped on, and collapsed.
6. Stark didn't practice his "loop-theloop" play before the game.
7. The manager underfed the team.
8. The tunes of the little German band so softened the hearts of the Dutch unpronouncibles that they conceded one point to Company $E$ out of pure kindness.
9. The team, in general, was not successful (to use a college reporter's expression) in "pushing the sheepskin through the loop."

GERMAN CLUB.

The German Club will hold its annual Christmas meeting on Tuesday, December 13 , at $8 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. in the gymnasium. An interesting Christmas program has been arranged. Mr. Wickoft will read a short paper on the German poet Herder. The quartet and the club will sing German Cbristmas songs. This will be followed by musical selections, the recitation of a Christmas poem and the reading of the Christmas gospel in German, after which refreshments will be served.

Published every morning ty the students of Syracase University at the Orange Pring Siop, 800 Croton Street.

We are pleased to note that the two basketball games which the Syracuse manager has scheduled with Cornell this year have been officially approved and accepted by the Cornell faculty. The first game will be played at Syracuse December 17 and the other at Ithaca February 3. We hope that nothing may happen to cause these games to be cancelled.

Every spring a great deal of interest is manifest in the interfraternity and club baseball games. They not only furnish good sport and provide a certain amount of athletic amusement, but they are also a means of promoting good fellowship among the contesting clubs. Friendly rivalry of this nature cannot but promote the best interests of those who are thus brought in contact with one another.
Why not now broaden the plan a little, and extend it beyond merely base'bail? Why not in-ter-fraternity and inter-club basketball? During the winter months there is, necessarily a lull in athletics. The majority of students, perhaps, do not even get a sufficient amount of exercise. There is, this year, a much greater interest in basketball than ever before at Syracuse. There is no reason why an interfraternity and club basketball league could not be arranged, and a schedule of games drawn up. The games could be played at such times as the 'Varsity are out of town, which would tend to keep up interest in the sport. The basketball team requires so small a number of players there is no reason why every club could not be represented. In order to put such a league upon a perfectly fair basis it would be necessary to make only those eligible who are not members of the 'Varsity team. The games, of course, would not be of the professional order, but they would at least furnish good, healthy recreation for the long winter evenings.

MICHIOANHAS DRÓPPED CORNELL
A recent dispatch from Ann Arbor says: Manager Baird has made considerable changes in Michigan's schedules for the coming indoor track and baseball seasons. The most notable change is the severance of all athletic relations with Cornell. For some years past Cornell has sent her track team to Ann Arbor for an indoor meet, but she always has suffered defeat, and at no time did she have a chance to win. Under these circumstances, with defeat always ahead of them, Cornell has no more desire to come here for an annual meet.
Baird has also dropped Cornell from the baseball schedule. The MichiganCornell series always, when played here, is witnessed only by alumni and seniors who were awaiting commencement, as the games took place after college closed.
Last year the series arranged between these universities was a frost, as no game was played.
Michigan journeyed to Ithaca, but on the day of the game it rained and, consequently, the game was called. Cornell then cancelled the games to be played here.

FRESHEN HODD  ANNUAL BANOUEI

The Sophomores Make Strenuous But Futile Attempts to Break Up the Affair.

The long expected and much talked of freshman banquet is now a thing of the past. The annual feast of the first year men occurred at the St. Cloud hotel last evening. For several weeks past there have been from time to time many rumors as to when and where the banquet was to be held. In fact, the sophomores have fixed a number of dates. The last one fixed definitely by the second year men was Sunday night. Rumors spread very rapidly that afternoon that the freshmen on the fill had very generally disappeared, which fact caused the sophomores some little uneasiness.
But that the banquet was to be held last night did not become defnitely known until yesterday afternoon. The president of the class, the toastmaster, and several of the officers went to the St. Cloud Sunday, and did not appear in public after that. Many others went to the hotel early yestenday afternoon. By such means, every officer of the class, every man on the toast list, and every nember of the executive committee were present at the banquet. There were about 175 present and the function proved to be a success in every way. The guests of honor were Dr. Mace and the presidents of the two upper classes, Messrs. Fernald and Anderson.
The following toast list was called for by the toastmaster, Mr. Gowing:
"Kidnapped".
..Mr. Wilbur
"The Gentleman from Indiana"........
The House of Fulfilment"
.Dr. Mace
oun...........................Mr. Fernald
"Our Friend, The Enemy"
Miss Laycock
The Truce"
Mr. Anderson
"The Battle Ground" ....Mr. Illman
"Intrusions of Peggy"...Mise Treadway
"The Crossing"..................Mr. Turner
At the time of the giving of the above toasts shortly before midnight, after a bountiful repast had been served, it was as calm and quiet in the dining room and at the hotel as on a summer's night. But a short time before it was quite different. The sophomores began to gather at $50^{\prime}$ clock and by $70^{\prime}$ clock the hotel was surrounded, the cruwds filling the streets. As the freshmen came the sophomores endeavored to make their entry miserable. The building, however, was guarded by over half a dozen able policemen, who aided the freshmen into the hotel. The sophomores became so enthusiastic in their work, however, that it was deemed necessary to call the patrol four times, and nine of the guilty ones were hurried off to the station, only to be freed in a short time. Among the unfortunates were several upperclassmen who were judged guilty because of their presence among the unruly.

Sophomores were not the only ones that were captured. Several freshmen did not even reach the hotel. About fifteen were caught, and after taking a solemn oath not to attend the banquet, were allowed to depart. Many freshmen, however, by crafty and skillful means, entered the building through the front door, and in the face of the sophomores. They were disguised as old men, laboring men, women, and several other make-ups by means of which they easily evaded the cunning of the second year men. Thus occur red and ended another of those class banquets which form a theme for conversation for weeks to come.

CORNELL WILL PLAY SATURDAY ROCHESTER TONIOHT.
Manager Rice, when interviewed yes terday, said: "The report in a city paper Sunday that Cornell would probably cancel the basketball games on account of the Dartmouth scores, is absolutely false and entirely without foundation. It is but a reporter's dream. Such reports should be suppressed at once, as they are unsportsmanlike in the extreme, and can but endanger athletic relations between Cornell and Syracuse. Cornell will play here Saturday evening of this week as previously announced in the schedule." The team leaves this evening on the Empire State express for Rochester. This game has excited but little local interest since there is no doubt as to the result this year, though Rochester University was victorious three years ago.

NEARLY READY FOR BANQUET
Plans have been about completed for the banquet Wednesday night. The room will be finely decorated by one the best decorators in the country. The University Orchestra will furnish music. The toast list is one of the very best that has ever been arranged in Syracuse. Notice the names: Lyman C. Smith as toastmaster, Chancellor Day, Benjamin Shove, George Driscoll, Mayor Fobes, Hon. Theodore Hancock, Principal Wickes, Coach Ten Eyck and William Nottingham.

The mass meeting which Wisconsin held before the Michigan game is said to be the largest ever held in the west. Over 3,000 supporters of the cardinal cheered and sang for the team.

 tion of assistant manager of the track team and vice-commodore of the crew. The offices are both important and carry with them a large amount of trust and responsibility. There are three candidates for each position, which will give voters an opportunity to carefully consider in whom they would place this trust and responsibility. It is the duty of every student in the University to vote, and it is also the duty of each voter to cast his ballot for the candidate whom he considers best qualified for the office. There is always a choice. Let us carefully consider each candidate, his ability and experience, and vote accordingly, regardless of the numerous requests to vote for certain men.

This is the last day that tickets for the athletic banquet tomorrow night will be on sale. Students have continued to delay in purchasing tickets. Nearly everyone who has been asked has assured the solicitor that he intended to attend, but was at that time not quite ready to part with his fifty cents. Now is the last opportunity to fulfill all those good intentions. We believe that a large majority of the men do intend to go ; in fact, it hardly seems possible that anyone could miss such an affair as this. But that characteristic which seems always to be present among the students of Syracuse University at such a time as this has been manifest in all its greatness during the last few days. The characteristic we refer to is, of course, procrastination. We saw it just before the West Point trip; now it has again risen up in all its glory.
The West Point trip, fortunately, came out all right at last. Two days before the day when it was necessary to engage the train scarcely fifty tickets were sold. But the present case is different. Tickets cannot be sold after today. . Some people will want tickets tomorrow and are bound to be disappointed. Why not, then, buy our tickets at once? If this banquet is to be a college affair, why not make it a success? It was started at the instigation of the students; now it is surely their duty to support and carry out that which they themselves started. It is unnecessary at this time to restate reasons why every student should go. It has been told in these columns, and everyone knows what the alumni have done in this matter, the excellent toast list which has been provided, the honor which it will reflect on the University, the work of our athletes whom we are to honor at this time, etc., etc. It is difficult to understand how a man can miss such a celebration.

WAITE CAMP'

 PROPOSED CHAMEE
Coach Hutchins Com-

 ments Upon the Proposal of the Yale Veteran.The following letter was received yes terday from Coach Hutchins. It fully explains itself and the proposed chang of Walter Camp. The letter is as follows:

Chester, N. Y., Dec. 12, 1904. Editor Daily Orange:
There are many comments in the papers today and yesterday on the sug gestion of Walter Camp to change the distance to be gained in football attack from five to ten yards. This suggestion, it is hoped, will make the game more open by forcing punting,
This would undoubtedly increase the amount of punting, but at the same time it would spoil the offensive game between evenly matched teams and depend for the issue upon the prowess of a single man in punting.
If the open game is to be encouraged and quick-witted dash fostered, there should be a greater equalization belween attack and defense than Mr Camp's suggestion would make operative. The surrender of the ball to the opponents is certain after a punt (baring a fumble or on quarterback kiek). If all men should be "on side" after a punt has gone a certain distance into opponents' territory from the line of scrimmage-say 30 yards-the kicking game would be given a decided impetus in that the attacking side would standa strong chance of regaining the ball. Couple this with the provision of Mr . Camp's and the balance now existing between attack and defense will be maintained and the game will open up. It will be easy for the officials to determine if men are "on side."
Another rule, which might accomplish the same purpose, would provide for the third man (after the snapper-back) to carry the ball past the line of scrimmage, if the play goes inside of the second man on the line from the center, namely, the tackle.
In brief, Mr. Camp's proposed change, if supplemented by all players being "on side" after a punt of (say) 30) yards into opponents' territory, would greatiy benefit the game, would cause mass plays to be regarded as less effective in comparison and at the same time equalize offense and defense. Yours truly,
C. P. Hutcimas.

SUMMARY OF FOOTBALL SCORES
The following summary shows the points scored by and against the football teams of the principal colleges in the East and West during the: season. It develops the interesting fact that all of the big teams were scored against at least once during the season. Pennsylvania, with the loss of only four points, suffered the least, and Stanford follows with a loss of ten. The number of points scored against the other teams varies from 12 against Minnesota to 116 against Indiana. By scoring 725 against her rivals, Minnesota has won the greatest number of points during the season. Syracuse won the greatest number of points in the East, and is fourth on the entire list, being only four points behind Chicago.

COACH TEN EYCK AT CHAPEL.

Coach Ten Eyck was present after chapel yesterday morning and spoke for a short time to the men. This was the frst time this college year that the coach has appeared before the students. MICHIOAN'S EATING CAPACITY.
Some surprising figures are out about how much the Michigan football team ate during the seven weeks which the team trained in Ann Arbor. The cost for food for 27 men was approximately $$ 1,030$. This amount would not perhaps be extraordinary, even as the price of the plainest of food, in a large city, but conditions in Ann Arbor are different. The finest board which the students eat costs but $$ 3$ a week. This includes the profit of the boarding house keeper, who has all the moneymaking propensities that proverbs ascribe to him. Some Ann Arbor boarding houses charge $$ 4$ a week, but this is for a piano or an orchestra to furnish music, and other social advantages.
Michigan's fogtball players each cost
$$ 6$ a week, and there were no profits included in the thousand odd dollars' held before the Michigan game is said worth which they consumed. ## BANOUET WAS

A BIG SUCCESS

Over Five Hundred Students and Alum:i

Present.

The first banquet in the history of Syracuse University which afforded the alumni, students and business men of the city the privilege of sitting together at a dinner was held at the Alhambra last evening and proved a great success.
The banquet tables were placed in the main hall of the Alhambra. About these tables were seated 550 loyal and enthusiastic students, alumni and friends of the University. The sale of tickets closed Tuesday night, which fact made it necessary to turn away a large number who sought tickets yesterday and last night. In front of the stage was placed the table of honor, where sat the speakers of the evening and the guests of honor. Those who were invited as guests of honor were C. W. Wood, J. W. Smith, W. A. Holden, H. S. Holden, D. E. Petit, A. K. Hiseock, H. S. Wilkinson, J. M. Gilbert, Francis Hendricks, W. S. Andrews, Donald Dey, Paul Paine, Editor Gardner, Editor Burrill and A. T. Brown. The banquet was served by the well-known caterer, E. C. Burbridge. During the evening the University Orchestra rendered music.
Mr. William Nottingham was to have responded to the toast "Syracuse University and the Alumni," but was detained in New York. A telegram was read by the toastmaster expressing his regret and appreciation for the work of the crews and team.
A more enthusiastic body of students than that which filled the Alhambra last night could not well be imagined, Cheer followed cheer, the names of the various members of the crew, the coaches and Captain Park evoking tremendous cutbursts of enthusiasm.
The toast list was as follows:
Lyman C. Smith, Toastmaster. The City and the University

Mayor Fobes

The Political Outlook

George W. Driscoll
Athletics in Business.....John W. Smith Athletics in the Future

Benjamin J. Shove
Aquatics. $\qquad$ Coach Ten Eyck Athletics in Small Colleges

Hon. Theodore Hancock
The Supply ...............Principal Wickes
Remarks..... ...Chancellor Day
Presentation of Cups...George H. Bond Mayor Fobes extended the congratulations of the city in a free, hearty manner. He spoke of the value of the University to the city of Syracuse and called attention to the fact that the city is vitally interested ia the athletics of the University and in its general welfare.
George W. Driscoll spoke on "The Political Outlook," but addressed the major portion of his remarks to the Chancellor. He expressed appreciation of the Chancellor's strong characteristics, and indulged in some good natured joking of his Republican political opinions.
John W. Smith, who responded to the toast "Athletics in Business," made a very strong speech. He told of "the full orbed man," and cited the Chancellor and L C. Smith as examples of the men whose bodily powers win victories in every day business. He cited Mayor Fobes as a graduate of the Syracuse Turn Verein. "Our Turn Verein," he said, "is ready to meet university athletes anywhere but in aquatics. We are not equipped for water." Benjamin J. Shove saw in "Athletics in the Future" a great development, a continuance of victory, and a grand new "College of Applied Science of Bodily Health."
Coach Ten Eyck, responding to "Aquatics," paid a splendid tribute to the men who worked under his tutelage, and said that he anticipated continued success so long as the same spirit on the part of the men was evidenced. The coach was given a magniffcent ovation when he arose to speak. The Hon. Theodore Hancock gave a toast which for sparkling wit has seldom been equalled at any banquet table. He told a story at the expense of George Driscoll, Democrat, humorously applied the athletic principles of Mr. Shove's speech to himself, and gave interesting reminiscences of crew racing at Wesleyan. "Chancellor Day," he said, "is one of those particular individuals who pull the 'get there' stroke."
Principal Wickes of the High School, in his response, scored a great success in the reading of his own poem on the Poughkeepsie races. Robert Park and Edward Packard he spoke of as his "boys." His reference to the bonfire the night after the races as a funeral pyre on which were burned the various "College Widows," including the Cornell Widow, Cornelia, made a decided hit.
Chancellor Day in his "Remarks" was at his best. Wit and humor bubbled through his entire speech, but in the portion in which he returned the political thrust of Mr. Driscoll it was a wit that cut with a keen edge.
Shortly after midnight the cups were presented to the members of the 'Varsity and freshman crews by George $\mathbf{H}$. Bond, after a rousing speech.
The banquet was the result of over a month of hard, persistent work on the part of the committee. The work in arranging for so large an affair was anything but pleasant and encouraging. But by constant and continued effort a sufficient amount of money was raised among the alumni and friends of the University to carry out all the plans. The committee appointed by the senior class consisted of Lloyd L. Cheney, chairman; Frank Brundage and Clarence Becker, Liberal Arts; Fred Lear, Fine Arts; M. C. Montgomery, Medical; E. H. Sumner, Law; William P. Gere, Applied Science. Lloyd L. Cheney and E. H. Sumner had charge of carrying out the plans.

HWIOR PROM TONGHT
Alhambra to be Elabor. ately Decorated for the Occasion.

At $80^{\circ}$ clock this evening everything will be in readiness for the most elaborate social function of the first semester, when the Junior Prom will be held under the auspices of Corpse and Cottin, one of the Junior class societies, at the Alhambra.
Every effort has been put forth to make this one of the best Proms of recent years. It is the plan to have the decorations, music, programs and, in fact, everything in connection with the ball, surpass any previous function of its kind.
In the decorations, bunting in the class colors, orange and purple, will be used extensively, and Christmas greens will also ornament the room. An electrical piece with the class numerals, " 1906 ," is to be hung near the stage. The seats about the hall are to be relieved by divans and an abundance of sofa pillows.
The music will continue throughout the intermission during which time there will be blind dances. Kapp's fall orchestra and the Forty-first Separate Company's band will furnish music; the former will play the waltzes and the latter the two-steps. Refreshments will be served from the stage.
Besides the students a large number of city people, including many of the alumni, have purchased tickets. Other institutions than Syracuse will be represented, including Cornell and other near-by colleges and prominent universities.
The patronesses are: Mrs. John Bates, Mrs. George H. Bond, Mrs. W. A. Groat, Mrs. William E. Kent, Mrs. George S. Larrabee, Mrs. Edward Nottingham, Mrs. William Nottingham, Mrs. Hiram W.Plumb, Mrs, J. F.Tuttle, Mrs. H. S. Wilkinson and Mrs. L. A: Witherill.

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

The regular meeting of the Historical Association will be held next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Historical Seminar room. The meeting promises to be a very interesting one. Mr. Gmaner, editor of the Syracuse PostStandard, will give a short address and Forbes Hermans, a prominent literary man of the city, will also be present and address the meeting. The subject of the discussion will be the Dutch and Dutch History.

Lehigh University is endeavoring to find a suitable person to fill the college presidency made vacant by the death on November 16 of Dr. T. M. Drown. Mr. Schwab, the well-known financier, has been suggested as a candidate to fill the vacancy that occurs in Lehigh's board of trustees.

There is an important notice on the first page of this issue relative to the intercollegiate oratorical contest. It is announced that all those who intend to compete in the contest must signify such intention to Professor Losey not later than next Tuesday. This notice, with its attendant conditions, is one which should interest a large number of students of the University. There are agreat many students who have oratorical ability who have not yet made known their intention of entering this contest. It is indeed an honor to represent Syracuse Univèrsity in an intercollegiate contest of any kind. The honor to him who represents his university on the rostrum is no less than that given to him who labors on the diamond, track or gridiron.
This year the department of oratory and public speaking has been entirely changed. It is under the efficient charge of Professor and Mrs. Losey, who are striving hard to accomplish all that is possible. They have already reorganized the work and altered the courses. They have now found it necessary and advisable to change the various prize contests in certain respects. This is done in order that the contests may be dignified and worthy of the University. Some contests which have been held in years past have been such in name only. The rules now laid down, however, assure us that, if a contest is held at all, it will be of the first order. In their effort to raise the standard of this very important branch of university life, Professor and Mrs. Losey deserve the hearty support and co-operation of every student. If this is given them there is no doubt but that their work will be rewarded with success.

Among the notable articles of the month that should attract the serious attention of college men is one in the North American Review on "Self-Supporting Students in American Colleges," by Professor Orlando F. Lewis, of the University of Maine. Professor Lewis classes college :students under three heads: Those who earn none of the money necessary to defray their college expenses; those who earn part of it, and those who earn the whole of it. With the latter two classes Profes. sor Lewis deals in this essay.
As a basis for the facts he has used in the preparation of the essay Professor Lewis received answers from over sixty college presidents or other officials to a series of questions addressed to them. He finds that college expenses in the East average considerably higher than in other sections of the country, and that during the year the self-supporting student must earn in no case less than $$ 200$, the average expenses of this class of students ranging from that figure to $471. The various kinds of work which these students perform averages twenty centa per hour, and in general the branches of the Young Men's Christian Association lend an increasing aid to them.
Only three college presidents belleve that self-support is no hindrance to college studies; fifty report that outside work is somewhat hampering, and but two consider it seriously detrimental. Some report that self-support does not at all affect scholarship. Finally it is shown that the self-supporting American student is going to college in large numbers and constituting nearly fifty per cent. of the entire student body in the United States. His college studies will sometimes be retarded by his manual labor, but his social standing will not be impaired by his efforts at selfsupport, nor will it lessen the respect and esteem in which he is held by the president, faculty and students if he is the right sort of fellow. -The Intercollegiate.

DR. KARR'S LECTURE.
The thind lecture in the Philosophical Association course was given by Professor Grant Karr, Ph. D., principal of the Training School in Oswego State Normal School. His topic was the Relation of Philosophy to Education. Dr. Karr said, in part:
The only place where philosophy can find a place is in education. Education and philosophy are complements of each other. History is said to be philoso phy, teaching and example. The relation of philosophy, history and education comes to unity in the heart of men. Socrates is the best example of philosophy and education combined in one man. He was the first great philosopher and teacher. Kant, however, presented a plan of the place of philosophy that has never been put down. He showed that things in themselves cannot be known; we may know appesrances. The Declaration of Independence is perhaps the greatest political document ever issued in the tide of time because it is the clearest expression of the universal truth that human nature has its own innate laws which cannot be arbitrarily controlled from without. One of the greatest philosophers of the present day is Professor John Dewey, late of Chicago. He says: "Education is not merely a preparation for life, it is life." The modern view of education puts emphasis on the doing, the aim having shifted from the knowing to the doing, Philosophy without education is empty; education without philosophy is blind.

HAPGOODS' MAN IN TOWN. R. N. Woodman, of Hapgoods, is making an extended visit to Syracuse for the purpose of getting in touch with the University students, particularly the men of the senior class who are desirous of securing good positions after completing their course. Hapgoods is in close touch with a large number of the more prominent business institutions in the United States. There is at present an unusually large demand for young college men. The purpose of Mr. Woodman's visit is to secure the men to meet this demand. When seen at his headquarters at the Hotel Jefferson yesterday afternoon, Mr. Woodman said that he expected to find positions for a large number of Syracuse students.

You will use it, you will need it, then why don't you get it-what? Why, a box of that stationery at Walker's (of course) College Pharmacy.

In place of the night shirt parade which has taken place at Bowdoin every autumn fur many years, this year was substituted a "day of purification." The ceremony began at the chapel, when every freshman was obliged to crawl in on his hands and knees. During the day they were kept busy gathering wood for a huge bonfire which was built in front of the chapel. Instead of nightshirts, freshmen wore "sackcloth and ashes," in token of their penitence. The evening passed pleasantly in speeches and amusing stunts by the ' 88 men.

Regulations Governing

 Examinations in Various States for the Year 1905.The regulations for the distribution of the 1905 Rhodes scholarships have been announced by the trustees of Mr . Rhodes' will, and are as follows:
The next qualifying exbminations for scholars in the United States under the rhodes bequest will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 17 and 18 , $1900^{\circ}$, the selection of scholars is to be completed before the end of March and the elected scholars will begin thein residence at Oxford in October, 1905.

The examination will be held in each State and Territory to which scholarships are assigned, at centers to be fixed by the local Committee of Selection. This committee will appoint a sitable person to supervise the examination, and will arrange for its impartial conduct. It should be clearly understood that this examination is not competitive, but simply qualifying, and is merely intended to give assurance that every scholar is able to pass the first examination which the University demands of all candidates for the B. A. degree.
The Rhodes scholars will be selected from candidates who have successfully passed this examination. One scholar will be chosen from each State and Territory to which scholarships are assigned.
Candidates must be unmarried, must be citizens of the United States, and must le not younger than nineteen nor older than twenty five years of age on October 1 of the year in which they are elected.
It has been decided that all scholars shall have reached before going into residence, at least the end of their sophomore or second year work at some recognized degree-granting university or college of the United States.
Candidates may elect whether they will apply for the scholarship of the State or Territory in which they have acquired any large part of their educational qualifications, or for that of the State or Territory in which they have their ordinary private domicile, home or residence. They may pass the qualifying examination at any center, but they must be prepared to present themselves before election to the committee in the State or Territory they select.
No candidate may compete in more than one State or Territory.
To meet the requirements of the Re sponsions Examinations, candidates will be examined in the following subjects

1. Arithmeti:-the whole.
2. Either the Elements of Algebra or the Elements of Geometry.
3. Greek and Latin Grammar.
4. Translation from English into Latin.
5. One Greek and one Latin book.

The University of Oxford has agreed that test when they come into residence at Oxford. As a certificate of exemption from Responsions holds good permanently, persons who have passed in previous yeurs, if otherwise eligible, need not take the examination a second time in order to become qualified as candidates.
As soon as the report of the examin ers has been received, the chairman of the Committee of Selection in each State will be furnished with a list of the candidates who have passed and are therefore eligible for election.
The Committee of Selection will then proceed to choose the scholar for the year.
In accordance with the wish of Mr. Rhodes, the Trustees desire that "in the election of a student to a scholar ship, regard shall be had to (i) his lit erary and scholastic attainments, (ii) his fondness for and success in manly outdoor sports. such as cricket, footbal and the like, (iii) his qualities of mamhood, truth, courage, devotion to dul:" sympathy for and protection of the weak, kindliness, unselfishness and fellowship, and (iv) his exhibition during school days of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates." Mr. Rhodes suggested that (ii) and (iii) should be decided in any school or college by the votes of fellow students, and (iv) by the head of the school or college.
Where circumstances render it impracticable to carry out the letter of these suggestions, the Trustees hope that every effort will be made to give effect to their spirit, but desire it to be understood that the final decision must rest with the Committee of selection.
The scholarships are of an annual value of three hundred pounds for three years, in addition to paying tuition. Students who intend to be candidates for the New York State scholarship this year should notify the committee without delay, #s no one has as yet expressed an intention to compete. Sample examination papers may be obtained on request.
There will be no scholarship awarded from New York State in 1906, as there are only two scholarships for a course of three years, -Cornell Daily Sun.

Columbia is to meet two western col leges in a basketball schedule this winter. Manager C. W. Cuthel of the Columbia University basketball team has arranged championship matches with Wisconsin and Minnesota, to take place in New York in Columbia's gymnasium. The first game will occur January 17 with the Wisconsin five. The Minnesota game is set for February 6. Efforts were made last year by Columbia to secure a game with Minnesota, but without success. It is understood of course that the teams in question are not made up of young ladies, as Michigan's basketball teams are, but is limited to the men.

CORNELI VS. SYRRCUSE

Basketball Teams Will Meet Saturday Evening for First Time.

The Cornell basketball team will meet the Orange five in the gymnasium Saturday evening for the first time in the history of the two institutions. That this game, in attendance, will rival any of the season is sssured. The spirit of rivalry between Cornell and Syracuse is great, and in no manner is this better shown than at athletic contests. It is expected that Saturday evening Cornell will try to the utmost to square the defeat of last June on the Hudson. Captain Powell's men are equally determined to add one more victory to our record.
The Cornell team has so far this season played good basketball, notwithstanding the fact that they have been defeated in both of their games, Dun kirk Y. M. C. A. and Dartmouth. The scores of these games show that the team still bids fair to stand well in in the Intercollegiate League. Cornell plays much the same style of basketball as does Syracuse, and for this reason the play will be close and very interesting.
Those who claim to know have predicted for the 'Varsity five an unbroken string of victories this year. The games with Dartmouth and with Rochester seem to be pretty conclusive evidence that their predictions are not based upon imaginary qualities. Should the Orange win Saturday evening, a successful season is practically assured since the Eastern games can be confidently counted on.
Final word has been received from the Cornell management, and all is in readiness for the game. The Cornell five will arrive in Syracuse at 6:15 p. m. Their line-up is as follows: Guards, Brinkerhoff (captain), Lyford; center, Root; forwards, Mantel and Dickerman.
Captain Powell says the line-up of the 'Varsity is not determined, but it will probably be the same as in the Dartmouth game.

JUNIOR PROM.

The Junior Prom, which was held last evening at the Alhambra, was in every way a success in attendance. There were about one hundred and fifty couples. The hall was decorated with the class colors, orange and purple and Christmas greens. A large electrical piece with the class number, "1906," was hung near the stage. Music was furnished by Kapp's full or chestra and the Forty-first Separate Company's band.
The patronesses were: Mrs. John Bates, Mrs. George H. Bond, Mrs. W. A. Groat, Mrs. William E. Kent, Mrs. George S. Larrabee, Mrs. Edward Nottingham, Mrs. William Nottingham Mrs.Hiram W.Plumb, Mrs. J. F.Tuttle, Mrs. H. S. Wilkinson and Mrs. In A. Witherill.

There are a few rules of cour- tesy which it is customary for even newspapers to observe. Generally speaking, all newspapers which are worthy of being called such recognize these rules. There are occasionally found, in the newspaper world, as everywhereelse, a few individuals who utterly disregard anything like courtesy, and who stoop to any degree of disrespect in order to laud themselves and to accomplish the end which they are pursuing. It is, as far as our knowledge of newspaper work and politeness extends, customary for any newspaper, whenever it reprints an article from another paper, to make some acknowledgment of the same. Of course this is not absolutely necessary unless the article is copyrighted. There are, however, only a very few newspapers that do not recognize this small act of courtesy. Such papers are usually those that are unable to get news themselves, and take such means to present a respectable appearance to their readers.
It seems that we have a paper of this class in our city. While we would by no means hold up their great works. It is the little the Orange as an ideal paper, or as one that procures all the news, or as one which never makes too too.

Abstract

 mistakes, yet we do believe that when news articles are "lifted" from it in the entirety, credit should at least be given for the same. A few days ago the editor received a personal letter from Coach Hutchins, commenting upon the proposed change in the football rules. It was news; it was, furthermore, news for which people were looking, and of which, evidently, the athletic editor of the Herald was also in quest; for the evening of the day that the article was published in the Orange, it appeared word for word on the sporting page of the Herald. Not only was no credit given the Orange for the same, but the writer even had the audacity to begin the three lines of his own composition with these words: "In a letter to this city yesterday." Did you see the letter, Mr. Reporter? Whrrein did the coach assert, or imply, that he was writing to the city? If he had cared to do that undoubtedly he would have written to one of the large, reliable, responsible and readable city dailies. Even then, we venture to say, it would not have fallen in the Herald's mail box.Porhaps we should not, however, place the blame entirely upon the reporter. Of course it is necessary for all news matter collected by reporters who have gained a reputation for sensationalism and unreliability to be carefully and thoroughly edited by some superior. Otherwise the reporter could not keep his position. He would have no one, when questioned, upon whom to shift the responsibility for the publication of so much worthless stuff. Then, too, it is improbable that the reporter has obtained a sufficient amount of knowledge to know the ordinary rules of newspaper courtesy. But surely he who edits the articles knows these customs. If the article was not edited, so much more blame rests on the Herald. It is, to be sure, a small thing, but people are not always judged by ## hapgoods' Man in town.

R. N. Woodman, of Hapgoods, is making an extended visit to Syracuse for the purpose of getting in touch with the University students, particularly the men of the senior class who are desirous of securing good positions after completing their course. Hapgoods is in close touch with a large number of the more prominent business institutions in the United States. There is at present an unusually large demand for young college men. The purpose of Mr. Woodman's visit is to secure the men to meet this demand. When seen at his headguarters at the Hotel Jefferson yesterday afternoon, Mr. Woodman said that he expected to find positions for a large number of Syracuse stadents

Editor Daily Orange:

At the freshman banquet the other evening, the police seem to have arranged a balm for their lost prestige in a skirmish with the students on University Hill last fall. It was evident, however, that they intended to take no chances in the success of their enterprise or in exposing their precious persons to assault by the students, as most, if not all, of the parties arrested were of small stature, includiug cash boys in stores, and even newsboys. Many of the parties arrested were not in any way connected with the sophomores and were attending to their own business. The program of the criminal machinery of the City Hall showed further foresight and preparation for vindication by having on hand a corps of so-called reporters with instructions to make the accusation against the parties arrested as strong as possible, and not to mention the fact that Jus. tice Thomson said on arraignment in several cases that no arrest should have been made.

No yellow journalist could have tried harder to create something sensational than they. One of them, we are informed, was formerly an organ grinder upon the streets of neighboring cities. Having been used to being followed by laughing and dancing street urchins, he considered the earnest statements and protests of the studentsand their counsel as pathetic. Uppriclassman.

qumpury

Published every morning by the atudents of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop 80 Croton Street.
The following announcement by President Jordan of the Leland Stanford, Jr., University, with the accompanying editorial comment in the Daily Palo Alto of that institution, may find practical application at Syracuse. The letter from the president is as follows:
Until very recently the students of the university have respected the unwritten law against smoking in and about the inner and outer quadrangle. Reeently this has been disregarded at the ends of the arcades in different places. I trust that the students will not make it necessary to change this unwritten law into a written one; but in any case the university will not tolerate amoking about the buildings, nor on the steps leading to them.
[Signed] David S. Jordan.
The editorial concerning this letter reads:
"That it has been necessary for President Jordan to give out the announcement printed above is to be regretted. More than orice the Daily Palo Alto has mentioned the matter editorially, but the abuse has continued. From the earliest days of the University the custom has been that there should be no smoking o the quadrangle. When the outer quadrangle was begun, and after part of it had been completed, a number of men took to smoking in the space between the two groups of buildings, but after some objections to this had been raised the practice ceased. When the class rooms in the outer quadrangle came into use, the abuse to which the announcement refers sprang up, and has been continued ever since. The men who are accustomed to smoke on the steps of the buildings and in the road near the steps have probably gone on the assumption that they were not violating the unwritten custom which says there stiatid be no smoking in the quadrangle. But we believe that the spirit if not the letter of the law has been violated by the practice, and it is hoped that no further violations will take place. The tradition that has grown up with the university is a good one, and we think all will agree that it is far better to have it remain as a time-honored tradition rather than to have it changed into an enforced university regulation. It is very clear from the announcement that the smoking in or near the buildings has to stop, and it is with a desire to see the tradition remain that we hope that there will be no further violations of the spirit of a praiseworthy custom."
ju jitsu at pennsylvania. Ju Jitsu is the sport of the hour at the University of Pennsylvania, according to an exchange. The system of selfdefense as practiced by the Orientals is very popular among thestudents. "Penn beat Harvard because she understood more about the new Jap science," is the remarkable statement attributed to Halfback Reynolds. "My punting improved 50 per cent. after I understood the art. My advice to all football players, and especially all kizkers, is to master jiu jitsu. If Harvard paid more attention to to this new Jap game and less to football proper, they would have seen a better finish." Two Japs have secretly and cunningly taught the Penn players the mysteries of the art. Jiu jitsu is especially valuable to the lineman. Penn's light forwards had no trouble bowling over the Crimson giants because understanding of the tricks of the Jap wrestling game they were able to put that extra little twist in their shoulders which woald throw their opponents off their balance.

COMMUNICATION.

We invite students, alumni and friends of the University to submit communications on subjects of timely interest. The Orange is not, however, commenicutions, Unsignal letters will receive no notice, but the name will nut be publishel if so desired. 1
Editor Daily Orange:
In this morning's Post-Standard I noticed an article on the subject of a Syracuse-Colgate football game for the season of 1905. Although in the form of a reported article, it seems rather to have been dictated by Frank 0 'Neil, the coach of the Colgate team, who has been empowered by the Colgate management to arrange the Syracuse game; and therefore I believe I will be justified in speaking of Mr. O'Neil as the representative of Colgate.
The article was not written for its news value, but inspired for a diplomatic purpose. Mr. O'Neil, as coach and manager for Colgate, knows that if he can secure an exorbitant guarantee from Syracuse it will give him added prestige at Colgate and that every dollar wrung from Syracuse means money to the Colgate management. The rea intent of the item is to influence sentiment, particularly that of the students, against the Governing Board. It is intended that a great commotion will be stirred up; a cry that the Governing Board is trying to throw up the Colgale game will be made; that body will appear in a bad light and to reconcile itself with the student body will, of necessity, be compelled to schedule a game with Colgate on any terms; and Mr. O'Neil, being master of the situation, will draw the contract of one party. His inspiration uught rather to be called a cudgel.
The scheme will fail, however, for the "half of the time," for being fookd is up so far as the Syracuse students are concerned. They realize that in the past they have acted too hastily in judging the Governing Boaid by what the city papers have said. They will not allow any body of men, or the un. popularity of any mal, to serve as a lever for wringing money from the treasury of the Athletic Association, nor will they allow any institution of insignificant rank in the college work, or its representative, to dictate terms for ourathletic contests, especially upon our own oval.
And now a word for the Colgate game. While Syracuse students like to see that game upon the schedule, the idea that it is a fixture or a necessity to them is preposterous and that we should regard it as one of our most inportant games, the best of jokes. The Colgate game has always been scheduled as a practice game for the 'Varsity. Last fall, Coigate opening college at the same time the secondary schools and lesser colleges did, and Syracuse at the time of the greater universitics, he Colgate men were in the prime of condition, and a working machine when the elevens met. Can any sane man magme Colgate in the class with the eleven which in its final make-up, outplayed West Point and gave the chamjionship Yale team the greatest scare ever experienced? It is a settled fact that should these teams meet next fall late in the season such a score will esult that in the years to come Colgate will consider herself honored with even a practice game on our schedule, and with this in view she is trying to make the most of her fortunate position and force humilating terms upon the Syracuse management. Under these circumstances it behooves every Syracuse abumnus and undergraduate to stand on his rights and to scom any proposition of what we are to do from a foreign institution, to say nothing of dictation. Dec. 13, 1904. Sentor.

'Varsity Basketball Five Outplays the Ithacan Team at All Points.

The orange again triumphed over Comell Saturday evening in the gymnasium, when the basketball five deferted the wereres of the carnelian and white by the over whelming score of 56 tu17. Syracuse expected to win, but did not think they wouldrun up so large a score.
It was a fast game from the first bow of the whistle. Cornell played a gox grame, but Syracuse played better. The Comell style of play was similar to that of Syracuse. The visitors by passing worked the ball near the basket before trying for a throw, but in this they were less skillful than Captain Powell's men. At times the team work of the latter was so rapid and clever that the eye could scarcely fol low the ball from the time it started from near the Cornell goal until it was dropped into the Syracuse basket at the other end of the gymnasium.

Captain Brinkerhoff of the Cornell team expressed himself as satisfied that the better team hed won.
Out of the 56 points scored by Syracuse 20 were made in the first half, while Comell scored 10. Syracuse threw 12 goals, two fouls and made seven fouls in the first half, while Cornell threw four goals, two fouls and made ten fouls. In the second half Syracuse threw eleven goals, seven fouls and made six fouls, while Cornell thew two goals, three fouls and made dern fouks. That is, during the whole gam: Syacuse scored 47 points on soals and nine points on fouls and made If fouls, while Cornell scored 12 points 0: froals, five points on fouls and made 2 fou's. The line-up follows:
Syracuse (56) Cornell (17)

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION MEETS

At the meeting of the Historical Asseciation Saturday evening the members were entertained and instructed by the reading of papers by Forbes Heermans, the playwright, and W. E. Gardner, editor of the Post-Standard. Both addresses had to do with the history of Holland, Mr. Heermans telling of the Sea Beggars of the 16th century, and Mr, Gardner of the present day characteristics of the land and the traits of its people. After the addresses refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

COMMUNICATION.

[We invite students, alumni and friends of the University to subrnit communications on subjects of timely interest. The Orange is not. however. responsible for the sentiments expressed in such communications. Unigned lettera will receive no notice, but the name will not be published if so deaired. 1
Editor Daily Orange:
I am sorry to see the letter of "Senior" in your issue of this morning. That is not the way to secure an understanding with a neighbor college nor to promote a fraternal spirit so desirable among colleges. It does not represent the sentiment of our University. It misrepresents us.
Colgate University is not an "institution of insignificantrank." It is one of the most honorable and best known colleges in the state and with a football team always exceptionally strong. I do not like this talk of 'lesser colleges." We have enough of that from certain supercilious and pendantic sources. There are many elements that enter into the ranking of colleges besides numbers. In this country no one can tell "overnight" which is the lesser or greater college. The great college must evidence its greatness by great manliness and great gentlemanliness. It must not allow colleges smaller in numbers to be greater in the things that are truly great.
I do not know anything about the merits of Mr. O'Neil's position nor what his motives are. It seems to me a clear case that the team furnishing the grounds, taking chance of weather in its guarantee, etc., should have the larger per cent. of revenue. It must be the judge of the guarantee it will allow. If the visiting team is not satisfied, let there be an honest, kindly effort to reach an equable agreement, If it cannot be done, terminate the mater in a friendly and courteous manner. The talk about comparative merits of the teams as an element in the contention is not wise. No team will win all of the time. Syracuse and Colgate will win and lose to each other. There will be times when each team will be outclassed.
Let us have no more talk about "practice games" with any college or school visiting us, or attempt to hide under the pretense of substitutes or not being in training. Be dignified.

CAZENOVIA WINS.

In an exciting game at Cazenovia Saturday afternoon the Seminary team defeated the Syracuse second team by a score of 34 to 24 . The game was close and fast throughout, The first half ended with the score 14 to 13 in favor of Syracuse. Cazenovia showed up especially strong on long throws. The overhanging gallery hindered the Syracuse men, as they had not practiced under such conditions before. Lee was injured in the latter part of the first half by a severe cut on the lip.
The Syracuse team was handicapped by the loss of Riehl, who had been promoted to the 'Varsity squad. The teams lined up as follows:

The spirit and thought of the European countries seem to be far behind the civilization on the American continent. Not only is this manifest in the social and political institutions, but it is quite characteristic of the educational system as well. There seems to exist among the Europeans, and especially the English, a strong feeling that they should eling to that which is old, which has been proven successful in the past. They are slow to adopt the advaṇeed ideas of advancing civilization.
This same idea has now become evident at 0xford. The trustees of that University have voted to continue the entrance requirement of Greek. One of the modern features of the American university is that students are now permitted to substitute some modern language for the ancient. A recent dispatch to the New York Sun concerning the discussion at Oxford says:
"The Oxford Congregation, by a vote of 200 to 164, rejected a proposal that in their entrance examinations candidates who are seeking honors in mathematics or natural science should be al lowed to substitute French or German for Greek.
"In opposing the proposal W. H. Hadow, one of the public examiners for final honors in literis humanioribus, cited the American universities, whose systems are largely based on the scheme of options or alternatives. He said he had visited several of these universities in 1903, and he thought the system was educaionally unsatisfactory. He found that they hoped that Oxfurd would adhere to its own system, and that they regretted following Harvard's lead in adopting the optional system."

IN OTHER COLLEGES

The Harvard corporation has voted to donate to the National Library at Turin, Italy, which was partially de stroyed by fire last spring, a collection of 100 duplicate books of Roman law and mediaeval history. By this act of assistance the university is expressing the obligations under which it was placed when a similar disaster affected the university library in the middle of the eighteenth century.
The University of Pennsylvania awarded 21 football " P 's" this year and 13 for 'Varsity members of the crew.
At Pennsylvania University there are only two fraternities that have not started classes for Bible study.
Next Tuesday evening the alumni of the University of Pennsylvania will give a banquet in honor of their cham. pion football team. Tickets are five dollars each.

OREAT MEDICAL SCHOOL FOR HARVARD.
The new $$ 5,000,000$ Brigham Hospital has completed an agreement with Harvard by which it will be erected upon a portion of Harvand's land near the new medical school, and will be supplied with an entire staff of Harvard demonstrators and clinics. By acquiring a free site the hospital will be able to make accommodations for about200 more patients. Harvard, by getting virtual control of the hospital, insures for herself the greatess medicat school in the world.

A recent edition of the New York Evening Post contains an interesting article on athletics at Oxford as seen by American collegians. The views of the American scholars at Oxford are given in the Post as follows:
"Among the messages from Oxford that are beginning to flow back to this country from the American Rhodes scholars those touching on the English university's athletic life are filled with a new wonder at, and half-expressed admiration of, a system that gets every sound-limbed man in college into some game. W. L. Sperry, writing to the Boston Transeript, says that it is interesting to those hardened by long experience to the exclusiveness of the fraternity and athletic circles so characteristic of American universities to find that the Oxford spirit, on the whole, is inclusive. A constant stream of captains and secretaries pours through the freshmen's rooms during the opening days of the term,' and he is urged to play hockey, cricket, 'Rugger,' and 'Socker,' to enter track events, to join a debating club, a church society, a musical organization, or the Oxford Union. An Indiana representative describes, in a letter to the Indianapolis News, the prevalence of sports in the colleges: 'From 1 till $40^{\prime}$ 'clock in the afternoon the colleges are deserted while the whole body of five thousand students may be seen in various athletic paiks and on the river.'
"Drafted into a football game, the Amer.can from Indiana was surprised to find that there were no spectators, no grandstands, no frenzied 'rooting,' 'His first thought was that these people have no college loyalty or interest in athleties. But $\qquad$ they are all busy trying to uphold the honor of the college in some other branch of athletics.' No wonder the Americans are as. tonished; the contrast with our own college methods is, indeed, striking."

TROUBEE AHEAD.

There is a Conflict of Dates for Senior Week

There is trouble in the air concerning certain events which are scheduled to occur during the so-called Senior Week. It has been the custom for several years for the Senior society, Phi Kappa Alpha, to conduct the Senior ball. This ball has usually been held on some Thursday night during Fobruary. As the University has continued to grow, wher events have been arranged for the same" week that the Senior ball occurs. That week has gradually come to be designated as Senior Week. The leading events which occur about that time of the year are usually scheduled for this week.
Manager Rice of the basketball team has arranged one of the best schedules ever prepared for a Syracuse team. Among the games secured is one with Princeton, to be played here February 9. This game is considered by the management as one of the best and most desirable on the schedule. In view of this fact, together with the fact that there are a large number of Princeton alumni in the city, Manager Rice thought the gymnasium would be indequate for that game. He therefore spoke for the Alhambra, and planned to give the Princeton men a reception after the game.
It has now developed that Phi Kappa Alpha has set the week of February 9th as Senior Week, and has engaged the Alhambra for that. Thursday evening. The annual concert by the Musical Clubs is also scheduled to occur on Tuestay evening of that week. The week in which both the Senior ball and the concert by the Musical Clubs occurs is usually Senior Week. The question over which there is now trouble is whether the Senior ball or the Princeton game will occur Thursday evening, February 9.
Manager Rice says it is impossible to change the date of the game. Princeton makes a trip through this part of the State at that time, and that is the only date which could be secured. It is further maintained that the Alhamhat was engaged six weeks ago for this game. On the other hand the members of Phi Kappa Alpha assert that it is entirely impossible to change Senior Werk, inasmuch as the ball and concert have both been arranged for that time. They also maintain that the ball should be held on Thursday evening, as that is a time-honored custom at Syracuse.

I write to ask you to put before the students of Syracuse University a minimum wage scale for student labor, Students are too often imposed upon by residents and merchants of this city. It seems as though there should be scme limit even to imposition. In many cases one would wonder whether a student, who is working for his board, had really come to college for the purpose of learning. There are clubs and restaurants that give board for services rendered; and there are families that give board and room for tending furnaces. In many instances the clubs and restaurants get in return three times what the board is actually worth, and the families gradually add to the work of tending the furnace, until it includes doing the chores and many other things that make inroads on a student's time. One of the large department stores of the city hires students for less than eight cents an hour. Several other stores pay ten cents an hour. It can readily be seen that the "extra" help which Syracuse merchants employ saves them the expense of hiring steady help, to be held in reserve for rush periods. In other cities "extra" help is at a premium, and people employed for it are generally paid more for their time than regular employes. For this sort of labor. which saves them so much, Syracuse merchants pay eight or ten cents an hour! Is not this an imposition? Should it not be met with some sort of resentment? Why not have in Syracuse, as in other colleges, a minimum wage scale of twenty cents an hour, or its equivalent? Student Worker.

Editor Daily Orange:

A few days ago, at the meeting of the Athletic Governing Board, the block " $S$ " was awarded to the members of the football squad. I notice that this honor was also conferred upon the manager.
I am aware of the fact that this is customary at Syracuse, but I am also aware of the fact that it is never done in any other large college.
If the block " $S$ " stands for anything it stands for merit in athletics, and only members of our athletic teams should receive this reward.
It is true that the manager does a great deal of labor, but some other method should be found to reward him besides classing him as an athlete.
This question was discussed by the student body four or five yearsago, but for some reason the Governing Roard has never taken action upon it.

Dr. Charles H. Rieber, assistant professor of logic at the University of California, is at work on a machine which, he says, will eliminate all errors in the consideration of syllogistic propositions and show at a glance what conclusions may be drawn from a given promise. Ask the machine any question that can be represented by certain set formulas used in logic and it will turn out the correct answer. The logic machine follows out the principles used in the adding machine and operates in much the same way, but will be more complicated.

The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and freshman debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial, Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13.-Frederick D.  should arise any trouble such as that reported concerning the dates for Senior Week. There are strong points on both sides of the case, and it is difficult to decide as to who is right. We hope, however that the matter will be settled satisfactorily to each party. The events are both very important, and it would indeed be a misfortune if either had to be abandoned.

The notice in another column of this issue regarding the trials for the sophomore and freshman debate teams should interest a large number of men of the two lower classes. The trials are to be held January 16 . This will allow the contestants nearly a month to prepare their preliminary arguments. There should be twenty-five or thirty men from each class who will try for the class team. The question is a good one; it is interesting and is one upon which there is a large amount of material.
It is no small honor to make one's class debating team. In fact, it is quite as much honor to uphold your class in a public debate as to represent it on the diamond or gridiron. There are some students who are incapable of participation in athletics. It is often true, however, that these same students are proficient in debate or public speaking. It is the privilege, as well as the duty, of such men as these to prepare for the debate trials. And the preparation should begin at once. The trials this year will undoubtedly be better than ever before, more men will be entered, and better arguments produced. It is, therefore, necessary that those who intend to try begin work at once, and produce the best argument of whieh they are capable.

Editor Daily Orange:
The remarks of "Senior" in your Saturday's issue call for a word or two of comment. Let me here state that said artisle smacks of the Governing Board, and I do not think it would be a bad guess that imputed its authorship to some member of that body and not to a "Senior" as subscribed.
I have no complaint to offer as to the general proposition therein advanced. I do, however, most strongly object to the manner in which the writer handles our friend Colgate. It is entirely ill-befitting the University in its larger, broader atmosphere that such small, contemptible treatment should be accorded any rival, much less a rival insignificantly weaker in numerical strength, and still less so when that rival in spite of its infinitesmal numbers has been able to defeat us in football for two years. It is a belittling attitude that witholds from a worthy rival the just meed of its praise.
Colgate has less than two hundred students. It struggles hard for all the glory that comes to it. Syracuse, by virtue of its own experience in no far distant years, should be the firgt to accord the frankest and most mutual treatment possible, with no regard to the personality of the coach of the team, As far as that is concerned, wherein does "Senior" have a grievance against Mr. O'Neill, the coach of the Colgate eleven?
I am not attempting to offer judgment on the merits of the queation in dispute. I simply am pleading that, great University as we are, we will not besmirch our bright repute by assuming the bully attitude toward any rival, no matter what the numerical status of said rival.
"Senior," be sportsmanlike, be courteous, be manly. It paye in the long teous, run.

Alumnus (1904).
Editor Daily Orange:
A number of members of the Governing Board and alumni, at a committee meeting held this evening, discussed an article signed "Senior" published in today's Orange, which they deemed undignified and not representing the sentiment of the University. Such an article can do Syracuse no good, and being a bare mis-statement of facts can rightly be considered an insult by Colgate. If Mr. O'Neil inspired a newspaper article of the character mentioned, which we do not for one moment believe, such action on his part could have been no excuse forharsh or slighting words toward Colgate, whom we all regard as our strong and honorable rival. It is inconsistent toward the dignity of a college of the rank of Syracuse to permit such cheap braggadocio to become public property, Had an article of this kind appeared in a rival college paper, Syracuse students

WIL SOLCIT

Representative Will Be Sent to Arrange Football Games.

At a meeting of the committee of the Athletic Governing Board, held at the home of George S. Larrabee, several matters of great importance were transacted. It was determined at this time to send a representative of the Universicy to the various colleges with whom Syracuse desires football games. This represertative will meet and consult with the authorities at the other institutions, and endeavor to reach satisfactory terms of agreement. It is not yet decided as to who will be sent on this mission. If the authorities decide to engage a graduate manager to have general chatge of all athletics at the University, and if such a manager is secured in time, the work will doubtless fall to him. Otherwise, the manager of the football team will probably perform this work.
The success with which J. Arthur Distin made his recent trip to Williams and Amherst has verified the belief that much more can be accomplished by a personal interview than by correspondence. It is thought that the right man will be able to accomplish a great deal by such a trip, and that many new football games will be arranged as a result. No official announcement has yet been made as to what colleges this manager will be sent. It is generally believed, however, that an attempt will be made to secure games next year with Wesleyan, Williams, Amherst and Brown. There seems to be, at present, some doubt concerning the Colgate and West Point games. The game with Colgate will doubtless be arranged as soon as the terms of the contract can be agreed upon.
An important change has been made in the chairmanship of two athletic committees Professor H. M. Burchard, who has been chairman of the football committee, has been assigned as chairman of the baseball committee. Professor Peck, who has been chairman of the baseball committee, has been transferred to the head of the football committee.

WILL READ PAPERS.
Syracuse University will be well represented at the next session of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which will convene at Philadelphia during the Chrismas vacation. Dr. Hargitt will read a paper by Dr. Smallwood, who will be unable to be present, as he is chairman of the Biology section of the State Science Association, which meets in Syracuse at that time.
Professor Kirkwood will read two papers at the Philadelphia meeting, as will also Dr. Thwing and Professor Saunders.

The next issue of the Orange will appear Friday, January 6th, 1905. As we suspend publication during the holiday vacation we wish all our readers a Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, and a most pleasant and enjoyable vacation:

Next month will occur the examinations for Rhodes Scholarships in New York State. There are students at Syracuse who should try these examinations, and who are capable of doing so successfully. The exceptional advantages which these scholarships afford are well set forth in an editorial in a recent issue of the Daily Palo Alto. It is as follows:
"Many students apparently do not realize the exceptional opportunity offered by the Rhodes Scholarship Committee. The large annual sum which is awarded to the winner of the scholarship can be made to provide for more than the work at Oxford. It is sufficient to carry one through the long vacations also; and during these a student has the advantage of seeing much of Europe, and attending, if he so wishes, the summer sessions of the greater European universities. The chance to work at Oxford, alone, is rare indeed to an American student, and when to this is added the many other educational features which ac company the Rhodes Scholarship it is difficult to understand why so few have signified their inten tion of entering the competition No doubt a number of those who are eligible to try for the schol arship which will be awarded to some Stanford man next semester are laboring under the falie impression that a thorough classical education is necessary before one can pass the examinations. Those who are qualified to speak on the matter are of the opinion that any junior in the classical departments ought to pass the tests without difficulty. The examinations are not hard, as anyone can readily ascertain by applying to Dr. Murray for a copy of those used last year. In view of the many valuable opportunities afforded by the scholarship, and considering the comparatively small amount of work necessary to prepare one for the examinations, no one who has even a slight chance of success can afford to let the opportunity pass,

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

Professor W. H. Pickering, Harvard's great authority on the moon, when shown the report from the Lick Observatory of the discovery of a crack eighty miles long in the Alps district of the moon, laughed and said: "Why, that's nothing new; there are a thousand cracks in the moon, all of them greater than this, which I noticed as long ago as 1892, but I didn't think worthy of reporting. They are caused by a shrinkage of the moon's crust and have little significance "

HARVARD MAY INCREASE TUITION FEE.
Owing to the strengthening increase of money required to maintain Harvar University, the proposition is being considered of raising the tuition fee to $$ 200$ per annum, which amount is $$ 50$ greater than the present fee.
Thirty-six years ago it cost the uni versity $$ 525$ for every degree conferred while now the cost is $$ 950$. During the past two years it has had a deficit in its annual account of $$ 30,000$ or $$ 40,000$.
In meeting the changes in financial conditions, Harvard has been assisted in part by the enlargement of endowments and the increase of students, and partly by decreasing the salaries of instructors, although the salaries of professors have been rajeed quite materially during the past thirty-five years.
According to present conditions the university needs $$ 100,000$ a year more than the present income in order to maintain the position it now holds. Unless a remarkable increase of endowments comes to Harvard's assistance, the tuition fee will probably be increased. The objection to this movement in due to the fact that students' expenses at Harvard now are comparatively high. The minimum cost of education at that institution is estimated to range from $$ 450$ to $$ 500$ per year, while the expenses of the average Harvard student are from $$ 800$ to $$ 900$ per year.

Last week there appeared a pamphlet of about fifteen pages in size containing the speech made by Professor J. S. Clark before the 1904 graduating class of the Evanston High School. The subject of Professor Clark's address was "Does lt Pay to Go to College?" It was published at the instigation of Beveral prominent citizens of Evanston, says the Northwestern, and is an answer to the argument of R. T. Crane, who published a compilation of opinions in opposition to a young man entering college. A few short extracts are printed below:
"A college is not a brain factory. No college president or professor of any common sense has ever maintained that a college would give to a man the raw material of brains and character. A college is not a granary, where each gradwate is to go, bearing his big or little basket full of facts, which he is to dispense and apply during the rest of his natural life. Not a bit of it. A college is a grindstone. It is a place where men and women go to sharpen up what mother wit they may have obtained by inheritance or environment or both.
"And there is another fact, obvijusly not known to Mr. Crane and not known to the general public, yet very well known to every observant college instructor, and that is this: as a rule, the strong men in any college class do not go into business. There are exceptions to this rule, it is true, but they are relatively few. The strong men in any college class-those who have learned to think; who have made their mark in the college work; those we expect to hear from in after life-these, as a rule, do not go ino business. They go into law, medicine, the ministry, teaching, engineering, newspaper work, or some other calling that may fairly be called professional.
'Let me repeat. It appears from this unbiased investigation, based on over 10,000 cases, that the boy with only a common school education has but one chance in 9,000 of becoming eminent, while the man with a college education has one chance in 42 . Now, 42 is contained in 9,000, according to my arithmetic, about 215 times. It thus appears that when Chauncey Depew delared that a college education increases a hoy's chances of success 200 to 300 per cent., he was talking, not the flattering compliments of a man who has dined and wined well at a college banquet, but hard common sense, based on hard statistics and viewed from the standpoint of a broad-minded educated business man."
In conclusion Professor Clark said in part:
'Does it pay to go to college? Does it pay to have that new birth that comes through familiarity with a foreign language and literature? Does it pay to enter into intimate friendship with the great souls of all the ages through a wide acquaintance with our own literature? Does it pay toacquire the ability to make an absolutely logical and unanswerable chain of reasoning-that power, which, as Abraham Lincoln discovered, can come only from training in the higher mathematics?
"And so, I think, the American college comes today to every ambitious boy and girl in this broad land, and says, in all reverence 'I am come that ye may have life, and that ye may have it more abundantly.'"

CHOOSINO MAJORS.

A novel entertainment was provided for the senior major students in History at the reception at Professor Flick's Monday evening. Each of the history majors was given the opportunity of choosing another major. The various departments were represented by large circles, and the candidates for new major honors were blindfolded and set forth on their quest for a circle. The popularity of the various departments is shown in the following table giving the number of selections in each: Li brary 1, Vocal Music 1. Shakspere 1, Gymnasium 3. Elocution 2, French 2, Talking in the Hall 2, Y. M. C. A. 1, Fussing 3 (R. O. Matthews, Robert Park and Miss Theresa K. Tobin), Mathematics 2, Philosophy 2, Latin 2, Semitics and Athletics each 1.

Orange and Blue Will Meet in Basketball in the Gymnasium.

No game on the basketball schedu'e has been anticipated with as much pleasure as that to be played with Yale on Saturday evening. The game with Yale last year was the cleanest, most spectacular and satisfactory of the season. The Yale five play much the same kind of game Powell's men do, and evenly matched as the teams are, the audience are assured of seeing the fastest, fairest and monst scientific basketball that will be played in Syracuse this winter.
Captain Hyatt has developed a more swcessfut team than did his predecessor. Kinney and Rockwell add weight and strength to the five. Carter who played center last year and who scored one of the two baskets that Yale made, is now playing guard, Captain Hyatt taking his place.
The Yale team are now retorning from a three thousand mile trip as far south as New Orleans. It is reported that eleven men including the manager were peked for the trip. This gives the m:n a gamo every other night and should not tax them beyond their strenpth. Te pite the fact that Minncesta last year made a trip as far as Williams, playing a game every might withsut being ence defeated, may predict that the Yale team will te worn out ly their trip. The condition of Hyat!'s men Saturlay night may detrmine whether or not next year a simiar long trip will be allowed the Orange five.
The Syracuse team returned Wednesday evening and last night held a light practice against the second team. The men are all in excellent condition and may be relied upon to show Yale sime pointers on basketball that are not universally underst od.
Manager Rice has arrarged a preliminary game for the stcond Varsity team sh the eecond team of the Pastime's
C. This promises to be a hotly ought contest. The line-up will be whes tomorrow. This game will be cuiced promptly at a quarter of eight.
Admisision will be as usual fifty cents. wsurved seats ten cents additional. suason tickets good for admission only. hescrvad seat tickets are on sale at the Treasurer's office and at Dwight's. Seats can be secured there until four oclock Satuday, after that at the Gymnasium. Over half of the seats have aiready been sold and a recordbreaking attendance is anticipated.
Mr. Roseboro will be secured to refere the game, whose work in that capacty is without a flaw. This will be we.come news to those who attended the Cornell game.
Our basketball team deserves just such supputt as we gave our football team at West Point. The gymnasium should be packed and there should be no pause in the cheering till the chimes ring out the result.

DR. BURCHARD RESIONS.

During the holiday vacation the res ignation of Dr. Burchard from the Athletic Governing Board was announced. At the last regular meeting of the board a change had been effected in the chairmanships of two committees, football and baseball. Dr. Burchard was transferred from the football committee to the baseball committee, and Professor Peck, former chairman of the baseball committee, was given the chairmanship of the football committee. At the time the change was made it was thought that the matter had been adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned, and the announcement of Dr. Burchard's resignation came as an entire surprise. In explanation Dr. Burchard has said that his college work and other duties so engage his time that he considers that it would be impossible for him to devote the time necessary to familiarize himself with an altogether different ranch of athletics.
The vacancy has been promptly filled, Professor Holzwerth being chosen. Dr. Holzwarth has served as chairman of the baseball committee in past years, and is thoroughy familiar with the work.

STUDENTS, ATTENTION.

We wish to call the attention of students to the fact that the lunch room formerly on Cedar street is now located at 709 Crouse avenue, "The White House" in rear. Mr. Braman has made this move at the request of many of his patrons, and there is no reason now why he should not have a large patronage in the new place, especially as the location is central and the arrangements are more handy. He will now be able to cater to a larger number and without delay, and all will meet with the same courteous treatment as heretofore. One of the new features is that the coffee is even better than heretofore, and is second to none in the city, the same grade of coffee being used as that used by the Yates. Mr. Braman is also arranging to fil up a room for women exclusively. This should be an innovation much desired, and we bespeak success for it. This latter addition will not, however, be ready for about a week. We understand that the opening hour in the morning is 7:30. This will make it convenient for those having an 8 o'clock. The lunch room will be open continuously from 7:30 a. m. until 1 $o^{\prime}$ clock $a$. m. We can't see that much more can be desired in the way of a "Lunch Room on the Hill."

PERSONAL AND ALUMN.

Ancil R. Kime '02, a principal in Warren, Ohio, has been visiting friends on the hill during the vacation.
Robert Clark '06 entertained a number of his friends at his home in Waverly avenue Tuesiay evening.

SUCCESSFUL GLEE

GLUB TRIP

Clubs Returned Yester day from Their. 750 Mile Xmas Trip.

The University Glee and Instrumental Clubs returned to this city yesterday after an absence of thirteen days, during which time they made a tour of seven hundred and fifty miles, giving eight concerts. The last concert of the trip was given at Owego Wednesday evening, and Manager Frank Brondage landed his forces in Syracuse early yesterday afternoon, ready to commence the annual grind for the "reggn of terror"' two weeks hence.
The trip was unusually successful both from a musical and a financial point of view. At every place where a concert was given there was such general satisfacion that there will be no difficulty in securing dates at these same places next year.
If any two members of the clubs were unusually popular with the audjences they were Mr. Petigrue, baritone solost, and Mr. Tymeson, pianist. The Glee and Instrumental Clubs' selections were all of a high order.
Another gratifying feature of the trip was the good impression the fellows made personally. There were many expressions at the different places visited as to how the members of the clubs seemed to appreciate that each was a representative of the University.
The next appearanceof the clubs will be made at the annual concert in John Crouse College Hall Senior Week, Tuesday, February 14.
The election of an assistant manager of the clubs will be held in abouq two weeks. All nominations for that office should be handed to the manager not later than Saturday, January 14. The election will take place about the m.ddle of the following week.

THE 1906 ONONDAGAN.

The last date on which junior photographs for the 1906 Onondagan will be received is Thursday, January 12, 1905. Under no circumstances will any be accepted after that day as all must be in the hands of the engraver at once. Every person in the University who knows of any good grinds is requested to send them at once to the committee. Miss Mary Mott and Miss Helen Potter, or the editor-in-chief, Fred W. Darrelt. Every effort is being made to have the grinds spicy and up-to-date. To do this the co-operation of every student is necessary. Probably not all received will be published, but the board desires a large number from which the bust will be chosen. Be sure and send in your picture at once if you have not done so already. Edward N. Packard, Jr., the business manager, or Frank L. Baker, the committee on photographs, will receive them. Don't delay!

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE DEBATE

 TRIALS.The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and fresbman debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial. Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13. - Frederick D. Losey.

Notices.

At the beginning of next week a class will be organized to review the work in freshman algebra. All those desiring help in this work will do well to meet me in room $38-84$ Monday afternoon at $2: 30$ o'clock. A fee of $$ 2$ will be charged for the course. All others desiring tutoring in any collegiate mathematics will find my prices rea-sonable.-W. K. Platner.

There will be a meeting of the Cazenovia Alumni Association on Monday night, January 9, at the Alpha Phi chapter house. All alumni are urged to be present, as the election of officers will be held.
Students shou'd not fail to be present this morning in American and English History. At this time the quizzes given before the vacation will be reviewed.-Dr. Mace.

Chemistry Club meets on Monday at p. m. in room 46, Liberal Arts College. The following papers will be read: 1. "A Review of Problems in Inorganic Chemistry, by Sir William Ramsay," Mr. Burns; 2. A review of a recent article of Julius Hortvet, by Mr. Cheeseman; 3. A paper will also be read by Mr. Staley.
Prof. Edwin L. Earp, head of the sociology department, did not meet his classes yesterday. He delivered a lecture last night at Drew Theological Seminary in Madison, N. J.

All nominations for assistant manager of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs should be handed to Manager Frank Bruadtre on or before Saturday, January 11. The election will be held about the midd ef the following week.

ZERO WEATHER.

So long as the temperature remains near the zero point there is a great need for good heavy gloves. If yours are not warm enough, call at the Syracuse Glove Factory, 222 W. Fayette St., and see our large line. The best for the least.

it. Many of us had it last Sunday and Monday. While we possessed it we planned out some of the things we were going to do. We were going to be better, to do more and better things, and do the old duties in a better way. Let us not lose this spirit of betterment, of resolution, that was with us then. In the early days of the year, as we take up our college duties, let us retain the New Year spirit. There are many things which each of us will have the opportunity of doing during the new year for the benefit of the University. A university is essentially a cooperative community, and every effort put forth by each individual student member is of value in securing and maintaining a high standard of college life. Let the New Year spirit live on! Let it so possess us that we may renew our vows to hearken to the voice of Alma Mater, to heed and obey.

We are publishing in this morning's issue a list of the city merchants whose advertisements have been appearing in the Dally Baggage and Express Orange. We are presenting these names in form convenient for reference purposes in order that our readers may have the opportunity of showing their appreciation to the men whose support has been so essential to the daily appearance of the paper. The merchants of Syracuse have shown their friendship for the University students in many ways during the past year. Besides contributing largely to the support of the college publications, they have aided materially in the building up of Syracuse athletics, land and water. The students have it in their power to make these men understand that their hearty support of University activities is appreciated. The students of Syracuse University have in their hands the spending of upwards of half a million of dollars every year in the city of Syracuse. Let the students but make it clear to the business men of Syracuse that those who assist the University, through its periodicals and other interests, receive in return the ever increasing patronage of hundreds of students, and a great burden will be lifted from the shoulders of the Chancellor, the finance committee of the Athletic Association and the managers of the college publications. Know your friends !

THE DAILY ORANGE ADVERTISERS
Before forming your buying habits for the new year look over this list and resolve to give your support to those ho have signified their interest in the University by generous support of aniversity journalism.

HISTORICAL SEMINAR BOOKS.
During the past few weeks a large number of books have been addud to the historical seminar library. The bistory department was the first department in the University to adopt the seminar method of study and has the largest and best equipped seminar room. N.w slevis are being buit to accom$m$ date the rapidly growing library. Already the avalable space has mostiy all been used. "Appleton's Cyclopeda of American Biography" in six volumes is one of the new works. This will be of great value, as there is no other exelusive biographical work in any of the other University libratics. Other noteworthy additions to the historical library are a two-volume work on "George Mason--Life, Corresponience and Speeches," by Kate M Rowland; "Life of Thomas Jefferson" (three volumes). by Rindall; "The Works of Diniel Webster" in six viumer, and several new volumes in the American Statesmen series.

 Eli's Basketball Team to Meet Syracuse in the Gymnasium.One of the most exciting basketball games of the season is anticipated this evening, when the Yale team will meet Syracuse in the gymnasium. Last year Syracuse students were delighted to see the wearers of the blue thoroughly be ten by the score of 15 to 5 . The local players will attempt to repeat the victory of last year this evening.
The Yale team is just returning from an extensive trip through the Southern States. Last evening they met the strong Allegheny team at Meadville. The team has taken one of the longest trips ever arranged for a college basketball team. The Syracuse men indulged in light practice last evening, and showed up very satisfactory. Captain Powell stated that the men were all in the best of condition and would do their best to uphold their past record.
The line-up of the teams will be as follows:
Syracuse.
Kirchgesser l.f. Yale.

Redlein
Powell (capt.)
Houseknecht
Riehl
Dollard
V. Y. Rose r.g. Carter 11 a. m. Y. M. C. A., will act as referee and Manager McLanahan of the Yale team will officiate as umpire.
Manager Rice has arranged a preliminary game between the second team and the Pastime Athletic Club. The Pastime team is very strong this year and an exciting game is promised. The line-up for this game will be as follows:
Syracuse.
Kinne
Pastime. Walser Johnson Grassman Dorner Gidley (capt.) $\begin{gathered}\text { c. } \\ \text { l.g. }\end{gathered}$ oit, Palmer r.g.
Substitute, Apple.
The officials will be Professor Scott and G. Mertens. The first game will tee called promptly at a quarter before cight.

CREW PRACTICE.

Crew practice will begin immediately after the mid-year examinations. The work will consist in practice on the rowing machines in the gymnasium until the weather will allow the men to get on the water. The men will be divided into squads, which will report regularly for practice, probably three times each week at the start.
A large number of freshmen have already signifed their intention of trying for the crew. These men will be placed under the training of Coach Ten Eyck, Captain Dempster and several of the 'Varsity men.

SENIOR WEEK.

There is much discussion about college as to the date of Senior Week. There was a conflict of dates between the Princeton basketball game, which is to played in the Alhambra February 9 th, and the Senior Ball It is understood that this conflict has been satisfactorily arranged, although it was stated yesterday by a member of Phi Kappa Alpha that no date for the ball has as yet been arranged. The Glee Club concert will occur on Tuesday evening, February 14, in John Crouse College. It is probable that the ball will take place the same week, and that the week of February 13 will be designated as Senior Week.

QEN. BOOTH TO SPEAK.

Gen. Ballington Booth, who is widely known as the great leader of the Salvation Army, will speak tomorrow morning at May Memorial Church. A large number of students are planning to hear this noted man.
S. B. Smith '06, who has been ill for several weeks, has left college.

NEW SENOR SOCIET

Honorary Fraternity of Tau Theta Upsilon Established.

A new senior fraternlty has been established at Syracuse. The organiza tion is a Greek letter fraternity, bearing the name of Tau Theta Upsilon. It has been in existence for some time, although this is the first public an nouncement. The society is honorary in nature, being composed of seven men chosen from the senior class. The elections will be made from the junior class each year immediately before the close of college.
Those who are affiliated with the fra ternity at present are Emest H. Sumner, Earl G. Rice, Roscoe Hersey, Clarence Houseknecht, Clement T. Robertson, Arthur F. Rider and Lloyd I. Cheney. The fraternity is limited to seven men.
The insignia of Tau Theta Upsilon is a fob. The emblems are a shield, star and crescent. A seven-pointed star is raised upon a gold shield, bearing the word Syracuse. From the star is suspended by means of a chain consisting of seven links a crescent upon which appears the three Greek letters of the fraternity in dark blue enamel.
The members will hold a banquet at the Vanderbilt the coming week.
yost will remain with michiGAN.
Coach Yost, who has had such phenominal success as a football coach, has. signified his intention of remaining at Michigan for five years. The announcement was entirely unexpected, and the Wolverines are consequently overjoyed. Lewis McAllister, the crack baseball player who was with Buffalo last season, has been engaged to coach the Michigan baseball team.

ERRATUM.

Through a mistake in yesterday morning's issue, it was stated that "Appleton's Cyclopedia of American Biography" recently acquired by the Historical department was the only exclusive biographical work in any of the University libraries. There are several other such works, among which is one entitled "Ailgemeine Deutsche Biographie" in 44 volumes in the German seminar library.

Dr. Boysen of the German department read a paper by Dr. Bushnell before the Modern Language Association which convened at Brown University during the holiday vacation.

Professor Ismar J. Peritz attended the meeting of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis at Columbia University, December 27 and 28 and read two papers which will be published in the Journal of the society.

The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and freshman debating elubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial. Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13.-Frederick D. Losey.

NOTICES.

At the beginning of next week a class will be organized to review the work in freshman algebra. All those desiring help in this work will do well to meet me inroom 38-34 Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A fee of $$ 2$ will be charged for the course. All others desiring tutoring in any collegiate mathematics will find my prices reasonable. - W. K. Platner.

There will be a meeting of the Cazenovia Alumni Association on Monday night, January 9, at the Alpha Phi chapter house. All alumni are urged to be present, as the election of officers will be held.

Chemistry Club meets on Monday at 5 p. m. in room 46, Liberal Arts College. The following papers will be read: 1. "A Review of Problems in Inorganic Chemistry, by Sir William Ramsay,' Mr. Burns; 2. A review of a recent article of Julius Hortvet, by Mr. Cheeseman; 3. A paper will also be read by Mr. Staley.

All nominations for assistant manager of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs should be handed to Manager Frank Brundage on or before Saturday, January 14. The election will be held about the middle of the following week.

There will be a meeting of the students from Jefferson connty in the Hall of Languages, room $33-34$, Tuesday, January 10, at 5 p . m. for the purnose of adopting a constitution and electing officers. All are requested to be present.

The Biological Association will hold its regular meeting in the biological lecture room on Monday evening, Jan. 9, at 7:30 o'clock. Professor Reese will give an illustrated lecture on the National Zoo.-J. E. Kirkwood.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

This evening in the gymnasium Syracuse will meet one of the fastest and best known basketball teams in the country. The Yale team has just taken an extensive trip, and is returning home with many victories to its credit. It is seldom the privilege of Syracuse students to see a Yale team play at our own University. In fact, the Yale basketball team is the only Yale team which often meets smaller colleges on their own grounds. The game will undoubtedly be close and hard-fought to the last. The Yale men have the advantage of several weeks of continuous practice, but the Syracuse men are confident of putting up a good game.

There was a very noticeable feature of the last basketball game in the gymnasium which should be noticeably absent this evening and at all future games, There were very few Syracuse flags in evidence, and little or no display of orange in any shape. Surely there ought to be an abundance of orange at all the basketball games, and especially at those with such teams as Cor nell and Yale. Everyone can at least wear a bow of orange ribbon, if a flag is thought too cumbersome for any student to carry such a long distance.

MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT.
At the meeting of the State Science 'Teachers' Association held in this city Dec. 27, 28 and 29, Dr. Metzler was chairman of the section for mathemat ics. He also read a paper on Geometry. At the same meeting Dr; Roe was elected chairman for the section on Mathematies for the coming year.

Drs. Metzler and Roe attended the annual meeting of the American Mathematical Society held in New York Dec. 28 and 29.

The Mathematical Club will meet in the club rooms Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Papers will be presented by Miss L. S. Dowsland on the Intrinsic Equation of a Curve and by H. F. Comfort on Epicycloida and Hypocycloida,

When in a hurry or you get uplate or have an 8 o'clock, just drop in at Bra- $^{\prime}$ man's lunch room, 709 Crouse avenue, "The White House" in rear (formerly Cedar street.) You will be served in a surprisingly short time, and the bill of fare shows that one can get almost anything. The home cooking is a feature that can't be found in many lunch rooms. Cleanliness seems to be the hobby there. This, together with quality, price and variety, should make it a popular place, and it no doubt will be. They are open at 7:30 a. m. week days and $8: 30$ Sundays. We do not see where Mr. Braman gets his sleep, as he personally oversees everything, and we know that one can lunch there as late as desired, the lours being from 7:30 a. m. until $10^{\prime}$ clock a. m.

THE 1906 ONONDAGAN.
The last date on which junior photographs for the 1906 Onondagan will be received is Thursday, January 12, 1905. Under no circumstances will any be accepted after that day as all must be in the lands of the engraver at once. Every person in the University who knuws of any good grinds is requested to send them at once to the committee, Miss Mary Mott and Miss Helen Potter, or the editor-in-chief, Fred W. Parrett. Every effort is being made to have the grinds spicy and up-to-date. To do this the co-operation of every student is necessary. Probably not all received will be published, but the board desires a large number from which the best will be chosen. Be sure and send in your picture at once if you have not done so already. Edward N. Packard, Jr., the business manager, or Frank L. Baker, the committee on photographs, will receive them. Don't delay!

High value, low price, is what makes the Keller shoe a winner with college men and women.

President Bryan of the University of Indiana is sending to each of the high school libraries of the state a copy of the new bouk prepared to represent the University at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, entitled "Indiana University." It is a book of three hundred and forty-right pages, and is divided into three sections. Thirty-two pages are dcvoted to a history of Indiana University from its foundation in 1820 to the present time. One hundred and sixty-one pages give an account of the development of the course of instruction, and the last section, which consists of one hundred and fifty-five pages, is a list of publications of the faculty and alumni, and shows the part that Indiana University is taking in matters of current educational importance. The book has about one hundred illustrations which include interior and exterior views of all the buildings.

For the first time in her history, Yale will hold a summer session next year. She is the last of the universities to condact a summer school.

A basketball team composed of members of the faculty was formed recently at Comell.

President Eliot and the Corporation of Harvard have determined that admission to all athletic contests will be free to all Harvard students as soon as the Stadium is paid for, which, it is expected, will be within three years. By buying a special ticket, a student at present can limit the cost of witnessing all baseball and football games and track meets to ten dollars.

The Oberlin Review, in commenting on the inability of any set of college editors to put out a paper that is entirely satisfactory to its quasi-supporters, offers to name the following staff as a most likely one: Editor-in-chief, Benjamin Franklin; assistant editor, Horace Greetey; financial manager, Baron Mayer de Rochchild; assistant manager, J. Gould; news editor, Mercury and William R. Hearst; exchange ditor, James Boswell; athletics, Hercules and Casper Whitney; literary ditors, Marie Corelli and Branter Mathews; alumni, Methuselah.
The athletic authorities of Leland Stanford University have received a letter from the superintendent of the athletic department of Waseda University, Japan, desiring to arrange an inernational baseball match between the universities. The Japanese university won the intercollegiate championship of Japan and has a strong team. The Orientals prefer to have the game take place in San Francisco. It is quite probable that such a match will be arranged.

The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and freshman debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial. Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question fordebate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable. Contestants will prepare five minute ${ }^{\text {grguments on either }}$ side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13. - Frederick D. Losey.

Many students of the University are under the impression that our basketball team was defeated during the holiday vacation. It seems that the German Y. M. C.
A. basketball team of Buffalo made an extended tour during this time, and, among other teams, played the Pastimes of this city. The Germans won the game by a decisive score. Reports were sent to the various newspapers throughout the state that the Buffalo team had defeated Syracuse. A natural inference from the dispatches was, of course, that the 'Varsity had fallen at the hands of the German team. This impression not only prevailed among many students, but among alumni and others as well. It is a misfortune that those who send out such reports are not more careful in distinguishing city teams from that of the University.

Those freshmen and sophomores who intend to try for their class debate team will find the bibliography given on another page of this issue a great help.

It always requires an immense amount of time and work each year in looking up references. With this work done for the contestants, a great load will be lifted from their work. The list is compiled by those who are competent to do that kind of work, and is therefore especially valuable. The fact that this has been done should bring out an extra large number at the trials next Monday night. The work of the library people in this matter is sincerely appreciated by those interested in debate at the University.

Bellevue Villa, the little summer hotel which has sheltered the University of Pennsylvania boat crews during their season of training in Poughkeepsie for the past ten years, was destroyed by fire on December 22. The loss is placed at $$ 25,000$. The hotel, which had accommodations for ninety guests, was situated on the west bank of the Hudson, opposite Poughkeepsie. It was unoccupied when the fire broke out.

Under the will of the late E. W. Codman, who graduated from Harvard in 1854, that university will receive $$ 250$.. 000 . No restrictions are placed upon the gift, except that it shall not be used for the payment of debts already contracted.
A chapter of Alpha Tau Omega bas recently been installed at Purdue.

It looks as if Mr. Braman made a good change when, at the request of many student patrons, he moved his lunch room from Cedar street to 709 Crouse avenue, the "White House" in the rear. This seems to be a handy place and central forstudents. It seems that Mr. Braman was correct in anticipating an increased business. "The White House" seems to havecaught on in fine shape. If you have not tried it, do so and you will agree with us.

THE 1906 ONONDAGAN.

The last date on which junior photographs for the 1906 Onondagan will be received is Thursday, January $12,1905$. Under no circumstances will any be accepted after that day as all must be in the hands of the engraver at once. Every person in the University who knows of any good grinds is requested to send them at once to the committee, Miss Mary Mott and Miss Helen Potter, or the editor-in-chief, Fred W. Parrett. Every effort is being made to have the grinds spicy and up-to-date. To do this the co-operation of every student is necessary. Probably not all received will be published, but the board desires a large number from which the best will be chosen. Be sure and send in your picture at once if you have not done so already. Edward N. Packard, Jr., the business manager, or Frank L. Baker, the committee on photographs, will receive them. Don't delay!

CONVENTIONS IN THE CITY.
Doring the vacation five state educational conventions were held in this city. The Academic Principals, the Science Teachers, the Grammar School Principals, the Training Teachers and the Drawing Teachers held their.respective conventions at the same time. Scveral University professors took part in the various sessions. Dr. Mace who is a member of the committee on history, spoke in favor of emphasizing the larger field of history, in the session of the Associated Academic Princimals. In the session of the Science Teachers Dr. Smallwood and Dr. Hargitt took part in the discussion on the "Method and Scope of a Course in Biolory for the First Year in High School." A demunstration on "The Formation of a New Species in the Evening Primrose" was made by Ralph E. Wager of Syracuse University. This proved to be one of the most interesting features of the morning's work. A brand new species of the primrose has been developed by the botanists and the evolutionists are jubilant. The event has creatof quite a sensation in the scientific worth. Mr. Wager, who assists Prof. J. E. Kirkwood, professor of botany, toll of the experiments and the results. The new flower was exhibited and its devolopment explained by means of druwings and other illustrations.
Dr. Metzler was chairman of a section of mathematics.
Dean Smalley welcomed the Associatel Academic Principals in behalf of the University. The following is clipped from the Herald:
"When Dean Fravk Snalley of tle College of Liberal Arts arose a phalanx of about fifty Syracuse University men got up to greet him with a cheer. Dr. Smalley, after a few remarks about Syracuse University, referred to the tendency now-a-days toward specialization in teaching. It is a firmly estabished system in the colleges and he thought that better results would be obtained if there was more of it in the secondary schools. He thought that when a teacher is able to devote himself to the teaching of one branch alone he is in a position to get and give more enthuslasm in the work. Dean Smalley believes that the best qualified teachers should have charge of the earlier work rather than the advanced work as is the cise generally. At the conclusion of Dr. Smalley's address the audience sang "The Vale of Onondaga," one of the Syracuse University songs."
Dean Smalley also spoke for Syracuse when the representatives from the various colleges were called upon.
Among the colleges represented in the reunions were: Syracuse, Cornell, Williams, Colgate, Dartmouth, Union, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Amherst, Harvard, Alfred, Hobart and Hamilton. All of the State normal schools were also represented.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI.

Lynn L. Fulkerson '03 and Miss Charlotte M. Groft '06.ex were married at the home of the bride's mother at Palatino Bridge Saturday, Jan. 7. The groom is taking a course in the Columbia Medical College and has returned to New York with his bride to complete his course.
Dr. Charles J. Jewell is the proud father of a baby boy. When seen by a representative of the Daily Orange yesterday the office was crowded with friends offering congratulations. "The baby's name?" was the question which Charlie was pressed to answer. "Well, it's like this, boys. A little girl asked me that question Saturday and I had to tell her that the baby didn't have a name yet. 'Why, how did you know it was a boy, then?' she asked. In order to save further embarrassing questions we named him E. Eugene. The first E will be filled out when there is more leisure."
BASKETBALL TEAM GOES NORTH.
The basketball team leaves the eity Thursday for two games in the north ern part of the State. The team will meet the Potsdam Normal School team at Potsdam on Thursday evening, and the following night they will play St. Lawrence University at Canton. The Potsdam team is reported as being very strong this season, and are anticipating a close game with the 'Varsity. St. Lawrence, which always has the reputation of being represented by a fast basketball team, is said not to be as strong this year as usual. The team will return to the city Saturday.

THE BEST AMERICAN ORATIONS OF TODAY.

Hinds, Noble & Eldredge have just published a new book compiled by Harriet Blackstone, entitled "The Best American Orations of Today." The list of authors who have contributed articles contains the names of many of the ablest and best known speakers in the country today. Many of the addresses were written especially for this work, and the larger number were selected by the authors themselves. The orations, as a rule, deal with problems before the public at the present time, and proclaim the thoughts of the best informed men of the day. There are seventy-four addresses, each by a different writer. The book is one of the best compiled, and one of the most useful and helpful publications of the kind on the market. It sells for $$ 1.25$,
HOBART BASKETBALL TEAM IN THE CITY.
The Hobart College basketball team will be in the city Wednesday evening, at which time they have a game with the Pastimes five of this city. The game will be played in the Pastime gymnasium in North State street.

UNVEESSTY TRNVEL AND STUOY CLUB

Under the Direction of Professors Flick and Cabeen.

Amouncement has just been made of the University Travel and Study Club for the year 1905 . The club is formed for the following purpose:
(1.) To bring together a select company of cultured, congenial, appreciative persons contemplating a tour of Europe.
(2.) To prepare them for an intelli- ing gent comprehension of the meaning and significance of European civilization by $$ 375$. a course of study planned by university men on university lines. Old Dr. Samuel Johnson truthfully said: "He who from travel would bring home knowledge, must take knowledge with him.' (3.) To conduct them through the great centers of European art, history and life comfortably and leisurely, free from all business cares and the innumerable annoyances incident to foreign 85 travel.
(4.) To secure by co-operation excellentservice at greatly reduced rates for the benefit of members.
(5.) To complete the university idtal by giving descriptive and interpretative lectures in connection with all important visitations. These lectures will be delivered by the conductors.
The Club will make a long trip through Europe this summer under the personal direction of Professors Flick and Cabeen. Both have lived abroad several years, have traveled very extensively. Professor Flick has had a wide experience in conducting touring parties. Last year the Club made a similar trip. A physician and trained nurse will probably accompany the party.
The following itinerary has been ar ranged for the summer of 1905 :
The party will sail from New York the latter part of June for England. Several weeks will be spent in the British Isles where the people and the institutions are much like our own. Then the party will gradually work southward, where the civilization becomes stronger and more dissimilar, through Holland, Belgium and France; up the Rhine through Germany, Switzerland and Austria; then into Italy where the people and institutions are most unlikeourown. In Sicily the climax will be completed and the Club will sail home from beautiful Palermo, stopping at Gibraltar, touching the Azores and reaching New York early in September. This tour includes the grandest natural scenery, the greatest centers of art, the most important historical places and the most striking types of foreign life. Longer stops than usual will be made in the grear cities like London, Paris, Florence and Rome. The person who follows this itinerary, including all the leading nations of Europe, under the expert guidance supplied; will experience about as much pleasure as this world has to give.
The cost of the trip is $$ 500$, which will include: (1) all preliminary prepwill include: (1) all preliminary preparation; (2) ocean passage to Europe and return; (3) all necessary hotel expenses; (4) all fares on railways, street cars, cabs and coaches; (5) all expenses for handling baggage; (6) all fees for museums and galleries, and (7) all services of guides. Steamship fees and all extras are paid for by the members. Considering the ground covered, the length of the tour, the class of travel and grade of hotel accommodations, it is believed that this is one of the lowest priced tours offered under competent personal management
In addition to the tour described, members may join any of the follow-

Short tour of the British Isles, 2. Long tour of the British Isles, $$ 500$.
3. Short tour of England and Northern Europe, $$ 400$.
4. Tour of Northern and Central Europe, $$ 450$.
5. Short tour of Greece (from Naples), $$ 100$.
6. Long tour of Italy and Greece, $$ 550$.
Tour No. 6 will be under the special direction of Arthur Stoddard Cooley, Ph. D., for several years a resident student in the American School at Atrens, who has successfully conducted similar parties for the past four years.

 TRIALS.The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and fresh. man debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial. Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13,-Frederick D. Losey.

SECOND INFORMAL AFTERNOON. Mrs. Day and the ladies of the faculty cordially invite students and memburs of the faculty to meet them informal y from 3 to 5 , Wednesday, January 11, is the John Crouse College of Fine Arts.

 from Sheffeld and more than 300 from the academic department were put through a schedule of tests. Each of the candidates was first put through the strength test. The student was required to pull or push himself up by weights until he was exhausted. Then his weight was taken and the number of times he raised himself was multiplied by his weight, and the result was set down on the gymnasium accunt against him as his strength limit. The hands, bothright and left, were taken by means of steel dynameters and the legs and back of every man were likewise tested by these instruments. The lung capacity was taken by the spirometer, and the results in pounds added to the other figures, which gave the man's sum total of strength. These totals were then compared as between the Sheffield and the adademic men, and the latter made the best showing.
"It has always been a theory of mine," said Dr. Anderson, "that many men have little chance to choose their line of college work, and that most students go into an academic course because the plans are made for them along that line, whereas their physical development and natural inclinations would take them into a scientific course of study. It's quite natural that a robust young porson of good physique should enjoy studies that take him out of doors rather than digging out classic roots." This may be the case, but it sometimes happens that, rather, the men are strong and robust as a result of their work. Grinding over classics is not, as a rule, conducive to the best health, while studies that take one out of doors tend to develop a man physically. The theory seems to work both ways.

THE 1906 ONONDAOAN.
The last date on which junior photogrephs for the 1906 Onondagan will be recejved is Thursday, January 12, 1905. Under no circunistances will any be accepted after that day as all must be in the hauds of the engraver at once. Every person in the University who knows of any good grinds is requested to send them at once to the committee, Hiss Mary Mott and Miss Helen Potter, or the editor-in-chief, Fred W. Parrett. Every effort is being made to have the grinds spicy and up-to-date. To do this the co-operation of every student is necessary. Probably not all received will be published, but the board desires a large number from which the best will be chosen. Be sure and send in your picture at once if you have not done so already. Edward N. Packard, Jk., the business manager, or Frank L. Baker, the committee on photographs, will receive them. Don't delay!

SECOND EETURE TOMORROW NBHI

Professor Greene of Colgate Will Speak for Classical Club.

The second of the series of lectures arranged by the Classical Club this season will be given in Assembly Hall of the University Block tomorrow evening. The lecture will be given by Prof ssor John Greene, Ph. D., who is head of the Latin department in Colgate University. The subject of the lecture is "Pompeii," and it will be illustrated by many lantern slides.
Dr. Greene spent a year abroed recently, and during this time he made considerable research at Pompeii. He is a most entertaining speaker, having appeared before a large number of audiences in this state. The lecture will not only appeal to the specialist in the classics, but will be of interest to all seeking a broad culture.
The first lecture of the series was given by Professor Rufus B. Richardson in John Crouse College last November, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience.

SECOND TEAM PLAYS TONIOHT.
The second team will meet the Pastime second team at basketball this evening on the Pastime's floor. The line-up will be practically the same as at the last game. The game will be played previous to the game between the Pastimes and the Hobart College team.

TAU THETA UPSILON BANQUET.
The members of the Tau Theta Upsilon fraternity held a banquet at the Hotel Warner last evening to celebrate the founding of the fraternity. All of the members were present and participated in an informal toast list.

JEFFERSON COUNY CLUB OFFICERS

The Jefferson County Club at a meeting last evening elected the following officers; President, Eugene Van Camp; vice president, Ada Trolan; secretary, Marshall Bradway; treasurer, William Barron; recording secretary, Mr. Hungerford; chairman of the executive committee, C. B. Dempster.

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

Publiahed every morning by the studenta of Syrav cuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 800 Croton Street.

This afternoon in John Crouse College will be given the second informal afternoon of this college year. The first function of this kind was given December 7, and proved very successful in every way. These informal afternoons are arranged purely for social purposes, in order to give the members of the faculty and students more opportunities for meeting one another. In a University the size of Syracuse it is almost impossible, under ordinary conditions, for students and faculty members to become very widely acquainted. Opportunities of this kind which are found at smaller colleges are necessarily absent at Syracuse. The ladies of the faculty have devised these informal afternoons as a means of becoming more widely and better acquainted. It is an excellent plan, and deserves the hearty support of every student. The gatherings are strictly informal. No special invitations are issued, but everyone on the hill is included. Students are expected to come from their class rooms or laboratories, even though they can remain but a few minutes. Such affairs should be a means of promoting social life in the University, and should be appreciated by every student.

From the Daily Maroon of the University of Chicago we learn that 'Syracuse has followed Chicago's example by singing their alma mater each morning at the close of chapel." It is unfortunate that the news of this Syracuse custom has just reached Chicago. The statement would have been more accurate if it had said that Chicago had followed Syracuse's example, as the custom, according to a recent article in the Maroon, was established at Chicago after it had been in vogue here for some time.

INSTANTANEOUS ARBITRATOR.

One of the best things that has come to our notice in some time is Howe's Handbook of Parliamentary Usage. It is ingenious, convenient, complete, correct, and in fact, an indispensable manual for all clubs and secieties. The book contains only 56 pages, but it isso arranged that one may at a glance find any rule pertaining to the conduct of business. It is in pocket size, and sells at a low price.

THREE BEETHOVEN SYMPHONIES.
The Syracuse Aid to the George Junior Republic Association will give three evenings of chamber music, January 20, February 16 and March 9, at Assembly Hall, University Block. The first three Beethoven Symphonies will be rendered by an orchestra of eight musicians as follows: Conrad L. Becker, first violin; Dr. Charles Mullen, second violin; Emil K. Winkler, Cello; Herbert A. Hill, flute; Carl W. Stevenson, viola; W. A. White, bass; Thomas M. Osbome, piano; George A. Russell, organ.
The program of each evening will consist of an overture, a twenty minute lecture on Beethoven, and the origin and development of the Symphony, by Hon. Thomas M. Osborne of Auburn, followed by the rendition of the Symphony by the orchestra. There will be one vocalist each evening. Mr. Osborne lectures on music at Harvard University and is a thorough student of the Symphony. The talents of Professor Becker and Professor Winkler are well known.
Tickets for the course will be one dollar and a half ($1.50). This is a rare opportunity to hear Symphony with the explanation. The course has been given to large audiences in Aurora and Auburn. The charity to be benefited, the George Junior Republic, well deserves the support of the public.

There are still three freshmen who have not yet visited Selleck's. We are particularly desirous that these men come down at once and see those derbies that are worn on Sundays by nearly all their classmates.

Details of the 1905 Re - gatta Have Been Received.Captain Dempster announces that all candidates will report for practice Thursday, February 2 As soon as possible, the men will be divided into squads and will be given systematic training under the supervision of Coach Ten Eyck. This year all candidates fir any of the crews will be given a physical examination before work on the machines begins. This will be done not only to ascertain the physical condition of the men, but as well to obtain a record of statistics.

Judge Irvine, chairman of the rowing committee, has made the following announcement concerning the 1905 regatta at Poughkeepsie:
"The annual intercollegiate regatta of the Poughkcepsie-High and A mateur Rowing Association will be held on the regular Poughkeepsie course on the Hudson river on July 1, and will consist of the following events:
"First Race (4 p. m.)-University four-oared shells, between Pennsylvania, Cornell, Wisconsin, Columbia and Syracuse. Distance two miles, for the Kennedy Challenge Trophy, presented in 1899 by Davidson Kennedy, Pennsylvania, to be held by the winner for one year.
Second Race (4:45 p. m.)-Freshman eight-oared shells, between Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. Distance two miles, for the Stewards' Cup, presented in 1900 by Francis S. Bangs, Columbia; to be held by the winner for one year.
Third Race ( 6 p. m.)-University eight-oared shells, between Cornell, Columbia, Georgetown, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Wisconsin. Distance four arles, for the 'Varsity Challenge Cup, presented in 1898 by Dr. Louis L. Seaman, Cornell; to be held by the winner for one year.
This is the first year that Syracuse has been entered in the four-oared race. It is possible that Georgetown will enter a freshman crew this year Syracuse now holds the Stewards' Cup and the 'Varsity Challenge Cup. The Kennedy Challenge Trophy is held by Cornell this year,
The regatta this year is likely to be one of the most interesting and closely contested which has ever been held. Cornell is working hard to regain the cups she lost to Syracuse last year, and to avenge the decisive defeat of last June. Columbia's crews have been practicing for some time, and are heavy this year. Wisconsin is reported as having an extra heavy crew this season and will make a strong factor in the race. The Pennsylvania men are training and much good meterial is on hand. Georgetown took second place two years ago, and is endeavoring to produce another such crew.
As usual; an obseryation train will be run by the West Shore railroad following the races. There will also be special train service to and from New York and to all points north and west of Highland. Special trains will also be run by the New York Central from Poughkeepsie.

SECOND TEAM WINS.

The second team of the 'Varsity basketball squad played an exciting game with the second five of the Pastimes last evening, winning out by the score of 28 to 24 . The game was played preliminary to the contest between the Pastime and Hobart College teams. The score at the end of the first half was 11 to 11 , and during the game the score was tied six times. This is the first time that either team of the Pastimes has lost a game this year on their own floor. The line-up was as follows: Sec'd 'Varsity (28) (24) Pastimes

No indoor meets this year.
It is probable that Syracuse will not be entered in any indoor track meets this season. This is due from the fact that there is no suitable place for training during the winter months. Manager Distin has received several invitations to enter teams in various meets, but is unable to accept any of them. For the past two years Syracuse has entered a team in the triangular meet held at Buffalo in February between Syracuse, the 74th Regiment and Cornell, but it is very improbable that a team wili be sent this year. Invitations have also been received from Washington, New York and Boston.
It is probable also that no track meet will be held with Cornell this year. If such a meet should be arranged, it will occur at Ithaca.
J.L. Sechner ex 06 wishes to extend an invitation, through the columns of the Daily Orange, to the students of the University to organize a hockey team. For this purpose he offers the use of the indoor rink, comer Jefferson and West streets.

INTERCOLLEGIATEDEBATETRIALS

About twenty men reported their intention to enter the trials for the intercollegiate debate teams at a meeting held at the home of Professor Losey last evening. The trials will be held soon after the examinations.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL INFORMAL AFTERNOON

Large Number of Students Meet in John Crouse College.

Yesterday afternoon was given the second of the series of informal afternoons arranged by Mrs. Day and the ladies of the faculty. That these affairs are proving a decided success was fully demonstrated by yestérday's gathering. The first afternoon of this nature was given on December 7, and the appreciation which was shown at that time warranted the ladies in ar ranging a second affair of a similar nature. The function yesterday after noon proved to be even a greater success than the first.
In spite of the inclement weather, there was present a large number of students. There were, in fact, more present than on the first occasion. The regular hostesses were Mrs. Day, Mrs. Smalley and Mrs. Kent.
$\therefore$ On this occasion a system of division was inaunurated by which the special hostesses are to serve in alphabetical urder. In accordance with this arrangement, Mrs. Avery, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Cabeen, Mrs. Elsner and Mrs. Flick poured. Miss Abbott, Mrs. Beebe, Mrs: Beach, Mrs. Blakeslee, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Earp, Miss Foster, Mrs. Frey, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Hine assisted.

SMOKER FOR CAPTAIN TUCKER.

The following is clipped from the Randolph (N. Y.) Register.
"A thoroughly enjoyable event occurred in this place Monday evening when about thirty young gentlemen assembled at the City hotel for a "smoker" in honor of Mr. David Tucker, captain of the Syracuse football team for 1905. Mr. Tucker has been visiting in Randolph for a few days and his friends determined to celebrate the occasion in befitting manner. After an hour or two of visiting the company repaired to the dining room where an elaborate luncheon had been spread by Landlord Taylor," &. Among the toasts which were called for were: "College Athletics," David Tucker; "College Life," Lee Bushnell; "When I was in Syracuse," A. R. Conley.

The lecture in Assembly Hall this evening by Professor Greene is deserving of the patronage of a large number of students. Not only will the lecture itself be one of especial interest, but the effort of the Classical Club to present to the students a series of high class lectures this season is worthy of support. It is such entertainments as these which tend to broaden a person's college education, and it is a privilege to beso situated as to have such lectures made possible.

Everyone is doubtless familiar with the hazing and shooting episode which occurred at Columbia just before the holidays. The affair has caused a great deal of discussion, especially at Columbia. President Butler has emphatically announced that hazing in no form will be tolerated. It is purposed to carry out this decree through the students themselves rather than by a mere exercise of disciplinary authority. As an outgrowth of the hazing affair, other important questions have arisen, and the following letter by President Butler is espe- subject of the hazing of Decemcially interesting. The letter follows:
"January 6, 1905.
Mr. Duncan H. Browne,
Chairman of the Board of Student Representatives,
608 West 113th St., New York. My Dear Mr. Browne;-
As promised today in my conference with the members of you in regard to the students your Board, I hand you herewith suspended. As the mid-year exa copy of the statement upon aminations are now se near, a which we agreed. I shall hand suspension at this time might it to Spectator for publication in prove disastrous to a man's whole order that it may come to the at- college course. Personally, I did tention of as many students as possible without delay.
There are several matters of fellows involved in the affair tha interest to the students which I occurred just before the holidays. should like to have your Board I simply did not wish to be soized, take into early consideration and tied, and taken oft somewhere upon which I should be glad to for a night and a day, and unhave an expression of opinion. dergo whatever else would have These matters are the following: developed.
(1) A method by which the uscilim by lake lomile University may secure the bene fit of a recommendation from the Board of Student Representatives whenever any conduct calling for action on the part of those authorities is reported.
(2) A method by which the that, by the consequent surprise practice of using unfair means at of the fellows, I might gain time examinations-which is, I regret and opportunity to reach the to say, reported to exist in cer- fraternity house where I was tain departments - may be going to get my lunch. I had not stamped out by the cooperation the slightest intent of doing harm of student opinion and by effec- to anyone and never supposed tive discipline if the pressure of the incident would be taken seristudent opinion fails.
(3) A method by which the University may be better protected than now from the often false and slanderous statements furnished to the newspaper press by their representatives in the student body. This is an evil of no small magnitude.
(4) A method by which a large share of the control of the new dormitories may be placed in the hands of a house committee of students chosen by the residents in each dormitory fron among their own number.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed)

THE 1906 ONONDAOAN.
The last date on which junior photo graphs for the 1906 Onondagan will be received is Thursday, January 12, 1905. Under no circumstances will any be accepted after that day as all must be in the hands of the engraver at once. Every person in the University who knows of any good grinds is requested to send them at once to the committee, Miss Mary Mott and Miss Helen Potter, or the editor-in-chief, Fred W. Parrett Every effort is being made to have the grinds spicy and up-to-date. To do this the co-operation of every student is necessary. Probably not all received will be published, but the board desires a large number from which the best will be chosen. Be sure and send in your picture at once if you have not done so already. Edward N. Packard, $J r$, the business manager, or Frank $L$ Baker, the committee on photographs, will receive them. Don't delay!

The preliminary trial for the fresh-man-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1905. All members of the sophomore and fresh. man debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in for ensics are permitted to enter this tria! Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be chosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13.-Frederick D. # RHODES SCHOLARSHITS

Qualifying Examinations Will be Held January 17th and 18th.

The qualifying examinations for scholars in the United States for the Rhodes Scholarships of 1905 will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 17 and 18, in the Hall of Languages. The selections are to be made before the end of March, and the elected scholars will begin their residence at Oxford in October, 1905.One scholarship is awarded to each state and territory. The examinations are not competitive, but simply qualifying, being intended to give assurance that every elected scholar is able to pass the first examination which 0xford demands of all candidates file I. A. degree.

The Rhodes scholars must be unmarried, citizens of the United States, and must not be younger than 19 nor older than 25 years of age on October 1 of the year in which they are elected. All scholars must have reached, before going into residence, at least the end of their sophomore year work at some recognized, degree-granting university or college of the United States. Candidates may choose whether they apply for a scholarship in the state of their birth or in the state in which they have been educated, but no candidate may c.mpete in more than one state.

Candidates will be examined in the following subjects:

1. Arithmetic-the whole.
2. Either, the elements of algebraaddition, subtraction, multiplication, division, greatest common measure, least common multiple, fractions, extraction of square root, simple equations containing one or two unknown quantilies, and problems producing such equations-or the elements of geometry. Elementary questions, including propositions enunciated by Euclid, and casy deductions therefrom, will be set on the subject-matter contained in the following portion of Euclid's Elements, viz,:
Book I. The whole, excluding propositions 7, 16, $17,21$.
Book II. The whole, excluding propsition 8.
Book III. The whole, excluding propusitions $3,4-10,13,23,24,26-29$.
Any method of proof will be accepted which shows clearness and accuracy in geometrical reasoning.
So far as possible candidates should aim at making the proof of any proposition complete in itself.
In the case of propositions 1-7, 9, 10, of Rook II, algebraic proofs will be allowed.
3. Greek and Latin grammar. 4. Translation from English into Latin:
4. One Greek and one Latin book. Any of the following portions of the undermentioned authors will be accepted as a "book":

Desmosthenes: De Corono.
Euripides (any two of the following plays): Hecuba, Medea, Alcestis, Bacchae.
Homer: (1) Iliad, $1-5$ or 26 : or (2) Odyssey, 1-5 or 2-6.
Plato: Ajology and Crito.
Sophocles: Antigone and Ajax.
Xenophon: Anabasis, 1-4 or 2-5.
Caesar: De Bello Gallico, 1-4
Cicero: (1) Philippics 1-2; or (2) In Catilinam 1-3, and Ind Verrem Actio I; or ( $^{2}$ ) pro Murena and pro Lege Manilia; or (4) de Senectude and de Amicitia.
Horare: (1) Odes 1-4; or (2) Satires; or (3) Epistles.
Livy: Books 5 and 6.
Virgil: (1) the Bucolica, with books 1-3 of the Eneid; or (2) the Georgics; or (3) the Aneid, books 1-5 or 2-6,
The texts used in setting the examination papers will be those of the series of Oxford Classical texts, so far as these have been published by the $0 x$. ford University Press.
In accordance with the wish of Mr. Rhodes, the trustees desire that "in the election of a student to a scholarship, regard shall be had to (1) his literary and scholastic attainments, (2) his fondness for and success in manly outdoor sports, such as cricket, football, and the like, (3) his qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to daty, sympathy for and protection of the weak, kindliness, unselfishness, and fellowship, and (4) his exhibition during school days of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates." Mic. Rhodes suggested that (2) and (3) should be decided in any school or college by the votes of fellow students, and (4) by the head of the school or college.
Students who expect to try for the scholarships should signify their inten tion to Dean Smalley at once. Further information as regards the scholarships may be obtained from the Dean.

POSITIONS FOR TEACHERS.

The faculty committee on the ap pointment of teachers has a notice in another column of this issue of especial interest to those who contemplate teaching next year. The committee has in previous years secured a large number of positions for students and graduates.
The members of the committee are T. C. Hopkins, professor of Geology; A. S. Patterson, associate professor of French; H. M. Smith, professor of Chemistry; E. E. Sperry, instructor in History; F. J. Holzwarth, professor of German Languages; R. A. Porter, instructor in Physics; O. S. Stetson, instructor in Mathematics.

BASKETBALL TEAM LEAVES TODAY

Will Meet Potsdam Normal and St. Lawrence University.

The 'Varsily lasketball team' will leave the city this noon for a short trip in the northern part of the state. Tonight they will meet the Potsdam Normal School team at Potsdam. The Normals are reported as having an especially strong team this season, and have been working hard for tonight's game. They expect to at least make a creditable showing against the 'Varsity.
Saturday evening the 'Varsity will line up against the St. Lawrence University team at Canton. In previous years St. Lawrence has been represented by a very strong basketball team, having defeated the 'Varsity. Syracuse, however, expects to win the game this season. The team will return to Syracuse after the game Saturday night. urday night.
The men who will be taken on the trip are Manager Rice, Captain Powell, Kirchgasser, Houseknecht, Riehl, Redlein and Dollard. The team will probably line up as in the Yale game.
The men have been practicing hard the past week, and are in much better condition than at the time of the game with Yale last Saturday. Stark's abrupt departure from the team seriously crippled it at that time. The team work is now greatly improved, and they expect to put up a much better and faster game. The St. Lawrence game will be the last before the examinations. The next game will be with Hamilton, which will be played here January 28.

PROFESSOR GREENE'S LECTURE.
A large number of students attended the lecture by Professor Greene in As. sembly Hall last evening. The subject of the lecture was "Pompeii." Dr. Greene handled his subject in a masterly and scholarly manner, and gave a lecture which was highly instructive and interesting to all present. The lecture was illustrated by numerous lanern slides.
This was the second lecture of the Classical Club series. The next one will be given by Dr. John L. Heffron, professor of medicine in the Medical College. The date has not yet been arranged.

COLORED FRATERNITY.

Fiften colored students of the University of Michigan expect to organize a Greek letter fraternity in a short time. If their plans prove successful they will enter a chapter house. The idea originated among some of the colored students from the south. If the undertaking is put through it will be the only Greek letter fraternity in the world composed of colored students.

TEACHERS.

All seniors and graduates wishing to teach during the coming year should enroll at once with the Faculty Committee on the appointment of teachers, as requests are now coming for the recommendation of persons for positions next year. The services of the committee are free. The office is in room 72 in the Hall of Languages. Office hours, Monday 9 to 12. and Thursday 2 104.

NOTICES.

All nominations for assistant manager of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs should be handed to Manager Frank Brundage on or before Saturday, January 14. The election will be held about the middle of the following week.

Women of the junior and senior classes who intend to compete for the prizes in public reading, and men of the sophomore classes who intend to compete for the Denison prize, must hand their names and their selections to me not later than Monday, January 16. Contestants who desire to do so mayarrange for conferences on their selections with Mrs. Losey or with me at our home, 805 Comstock avenue. Old phone 2484-M. Signed, Frederick D. Losey

The class for the review of freshman algebra is meeting daily until exams., at 3 p. m. -W. K. Platner.

The Dramatic Club is to meet Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Psi Upsilon. A full attendance is desired, as the question of the presentation of a play is to be settled at this time.Chfford H. Searle.

The Science Association will not meet this afturnoon.

Election for assistant baseball manager and assistant football manager will be held in all the colleges Tuesday, February 7. The nominees for assistant baseball manager are: D. S. Rutty, William E. Barron, William. T. Allis and W. L. Chandler. The nominees for assistant football manager are H . D. Stevens and 0 . E. Cummings.

ROSE IS INELIGIBLE.

Ralph Rose of the University of Michigan, holder of the world's record for the twelve, sixteen and twenty four pound shot put, and who has practically won several meets for Michigrn, has been declared ineligible to represent Michigan in athletics for all time to come. The decision was made because Rose competed in a professional meet at Madison Square Garden, representing the Chicago Athletic Club.

It will be a sad commentary on University life atSyracuse if the students of the University do not present a play this year. Thus far the dramatic interests have been centered in the Dramatic Club. That organization has endeavored for a long time to make some satisfactory arrangements whereby some play could be presented this year. There are few universities of the size of Syracuse in the country that do not present each year at least one play. There are many universities and colleges much smaller than Syracuse which always present a play. The dramatic interests in many colleges have come to take a place alongside the ath letic interests. A play is as much anticipated by the students as the football games.
Notwithstanding the success with which the plays have met in previous years, it appears to us that the cast would meet with greater success were they to depart from the Shaksperian productions. The realm of Shakspere would seem to be beyond that of amateurs. In fact, actors of the widest experience and of the greatest reputation are unable, often, to satisfactorily interpret and present the plays of the great master. While we have a professor and coach whose ability as a Shaksperian interpreter and actor is beyond question, yet it is impossible for him, in so short a time, to impart all of his characteristics to the various members of the cast, who are, almost entirely, amateurs of the first order. We know of but two other colleges in the country -and we have investigated the conditions at a large numberthat even attempt to present Shaksperian plays.
The inability of the average college student to successfully act a Shaksperian character is not the only reason why these plays are so seldom attempted. There are a large number of people in every city, and in every university as well, who care little or nothing for Shaksperian plays. However regrettable such a condition may be, it is, nevertheless, a fact. Those who do care for such plays, furthermore, much prefer, unless they have some direct interest in the cast or the University, to see them presented by some well known and star company. It is too often the case that they are, even then, disappointed. Were the Dramatic Club to present a comedy, for instance, it would seem to us that they could not only present it much more satisfactorily, but that it would also draw a much larger crowd. We sincerely hope that some play will be presented by the University this year.

PREP SECRET SOCIETIES BAD.
The current number of the Scholo Review, issued Saturday from the University Press, contains an exhaustive report of the committee on the influence of fraternities in secondary schools, appointed by President Harper last fall, says the Daily Maroon. As a result of the report the conference voted that secret societies in secondary schools were detrimental both to the schools and to the individuals coneerned.
The arguments advanced against fratemities are
They injure the school by dividing it into cliques and bringing into it politics and had morals.
They cause a decline in the interest

Unlike college fraternities they are unnecessary as the students are at home and are too young to choose any life outside of the home.
They cause jealousy, especially among the girls.
Their standards. are different from those set up by the school authorities and they often can afford strong opposition to the policy of the authorities. While the tone of the article in general is unfavorable to fraternities it contains several arguments in favor of them. These are that secret organizations can be made useful to the school at large as well as to the individual student; that they can aid school discipline if properly treated; that they foster friendship; and that they increase school spirit and loyalty.
Lewis Institute of Chicago and Colgate Academy of Hamilton, N. Y., are mentioned as secondary schools which favor fraternities.

The question for the debate between Pennsylvania and Cornell is "Resolved, That the Interstate Commerce Com mission should be vested with authority, upon full hearing of any formal complaint, to prescribe reasonable and equitable railroad rates, to be substituted by the carrier for those found unreasonable or discriminative; the decision of the commission to become operative upon due notice to the carrier and so to continue unless reversed by a court of review."
Sixty five candidates reported for crew practice at the University of Pennsylvania last Friday. It is expected that this number will be increased to 150 soon.
The sophomores won the annual soph-omore-freshman debate at Brown this week. The question was: Resclved, That the permanent retention of the Philippine Islands would promote the political and economic welfare of the United States." The sophomores upheld the negative of the question.
The Republican Club of Harvard will head the collegrate department in the inaugural parade at Washington on March 4. President Roosevelt, in a recent interview with W. R. Flint, the secretary of the club, spoke enthusiastically of having his alma mater represented and expressed a desire that the marchers should wear the same crimson gowns that appeared in the Harvard Technology torchlight parade last fall. Already about 100 Harvard men have signified their intention of taking part in the parade.

A committee composed of six mem. bers of the junior class has been appointed at Wesleyan for the purpose of devising plans for increasing the enrollment in the college.
It is estimated that Yale's receipts from football this year will be about $$ 70,000$. Her share of profits from the Harvard game alone was $$ 31,000$.
There was a deficit of over $$ 42,000$ in the running expenses at Yale during the past year.
Hamilton will support the affirmative in her debate with the College of the City of New York on the question, "Resolved, That United Statés Senators should be elected by the direct vote of the peaple."
The Harvard library has added 22,000 volumes to its collection, making a total of 438,000 in the library, and 675,000 in the entire university.
Owing to the strengthening increase of money required to maintain Harvard University, the proposition is being considered of rasing the tuition fee to $$ 200$ per annum, which amount is $$ 50$ greater than the present fee.

DEBATE TRIALS.

NewArrangements Have been Made This

 Year.The trials for the intercollegiate debate teams have been arranged somewhat differently than in previous years. Herctofore the contestants have all appeared on the same evening and delivered an argument for or against the question. The method has proved unsatisfactory to a certain extent, as no opportunity was given to test a man's real powers by actual debate, Little chance was afforded to work up a questijn as a team should and no opportunity of rebuttal whatever.
This year the men who will. try for the teams have been divided into varions teams who will meetone another in regular debates. At each debate, it is expected, a certain number of men who prove inferior will be dropped from the trials. This process of elimination will continue until the two teams to debate Wesleyan and Colgate are chosen by the juiges. It is expected that three dubates will be required to pick the teams.
Eighteen men have signified their intention of trying for the team. These men have been divided into six teams, and have been assigned sides on the question which will be discussed with Wesleyan and Colgate, which is, "Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust act, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northem Securities case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States." The first trials will be held February 9th, 10th and 11th, and the teams will debate as follows: February 9th-Affirmative, Messrs. Spriggs, Wemett, Patterson; negative, Messrs. Heal, Hook, Farrington. February 10th-Affrmative, Messrs. Cheney, Baldrey, Mosher; negative, Messrs. Hartwell, Tressler, Croft. February 11th-Affirmative, Messrs. Rice, 0.J. Brown, L. S. Coit; negative, Messrs. Diefendorf, Campbell, Wells. The second trials will probably be held about two weeks later, at which time the men will be assigned to the opposite side from that they supported at the first trials. The third and last trials will be held about March 1st, when the teams will be chosen. The first trials will occur in room $33 . \mathrm{s}^{4}$ of the Hall of Languages, and will probably be held at 4 oelock in the afternoon.
Two teams will be chosen, one to debate Wesleyan at Middletown, and the second to meet. Colgate at Syracuse. The debates will be upon the same question and on the same night. Colgate has the choice of sides, and is to make known such choice on or before the 15 th of this month. This is the first year Syracuse has met Colgate in an intercollegiate debate.
Professor Losey has consented to coach the teams again this year, which fact is received with great gratitude by the students, and especially by those interested in debating at Syracuse.

PROFESSOR GREENE AT CHAPEL.

Those students who attended chapel yesterday morning heard a short talk by Professor: John Greene of Colgate University such as is seldom heard in as few words. White his talk consumed but a few minutes, yet it combined an unusual amount of wisdom, good advice and cummon sense.
Doctor Greene was in the city to deliver his lecture on "Pompeii" Thursday evening under the auspices of the Classical Club. He remained at the University yesterday forenoon and spoke to the students at chapel. Doctor Greene said in part: "I want to emphasize the thought that the spirit of endeavor that means success is precisely the same in college as in life outside. Students are apt to forget this. There are always two classes of students: there are some, and sometimes a good many, whose object is to pass, to satisfy the demands of the recitation day by day, and to meet the demands of the professor at the end of the course; then there are those that have no thought of the professor's demands and the final examination, but of the subject. This latter class is bound to master the subject, and to them the examinations scarcely afford a passing thought.
"Those two spirits in the attitude of life determine the success or failure in after life. There are some out in life who just try to pass. They have the trade union spirit, stopping work at the exact minute their time is finished. Others try to do their work to the full and overflowing, and such are soon promoted by their employers. If you belong to the first class you are in the attitude of failure in life. I ventiore to predict that if you do not change this attitude, your failure in life is assured. On the other hand, if you are of the second elass, you are in the attitude of success not only in college but in after life as well."
Doctor Greene congratulated the students on the opportunities which Syracuse offered, upon the professors of the University and upon the friendly relations existing between Colgate and Syracuse.

FAXE SHOW THS YEAR
Fine Arts Students Preparing for a Big Affair.

The students of the Fine Arts College have decided to present: a fake show this year. The Fake Association has been reorganized and is now planning to give the best and greatest exhibition of fakes which has everbeen attempted at the University. The association has elected new officers, which are as follows: President, Fred R. Lear '05: vice-president; Miss Kassing '06; secretary, Miss Best '07; treasurer, G. S. Wright '07.
A working committee will be appointed very soon, and the actual work of preparation will begin at once:
The news that a fake show this year is an assured fact will be more than welcome to the students. This affair, which always drew a crowd many times larger than any other college function of the year, was not given last year, and was greatly missed by every student. The students had come to look forward to the fake show as one of "the" things of the college year. The show this year, it is planned, will be similar to those of previous years, although it will depart from certain customs heretofore followed. A large number of entirely new, clever and original features will be introduced.
The show will, however, contain the usual characteristics of those given in previous years. There will be a general admission of a few cents, or whatever amount the fakirs can get. Then the lower floor of the John Crouse College will be given up to numerous side shows and exhibits which will be cleverly produced and well worth the cent or two admission. As usual, no change will be made, so students, as is customary, begin to save a few pennies from now until the show comes off. The date has not been definitely arranged. It will probably be open both in the afternoon and evening of one day at least, and may extend over two days. The proceeds are used toward the purohase of decorations for the Fine Arts reading room. Many hundred dollars have been realized in previous years from these fake shows.

Announcement concerning the Rhodes scholarships was made in yesterday's issue. It is hoped there will be a number of students in the University who will compete for the scholarship this year. The many advantages which a scholarship at 0xford afford an American student are well set forth in a letter to the Daily Palo Alto by Dr. Frank Angell. It is in part as follows:
"A career at Oxford can hardly help being of much value to any sane, healthy-minded young American.
"The fact that the natural and technical sciences are better equipped and taught in this country than in England does not enter into the question, as the recipients of the scholarship must have done this preparatory work in great part in Greek and Latin, and therefore presumably will carry along their university work in the classics-the humanitiesor in some other of the elective "honor schools"-say history or English, or perhaps in some graduate work along these lines. And the student who selects an

Oxford "honor" course will an- terical ebullition, either in vicnually have received a sounder, tory or defeat, the universal broader and more coherent uni- prevalence of sport-everybody versity education than falls to doing something every day,--all the lot of our American magistre should have an exceedingly artium, not to speak of many a healthful influence on the AmeriPh. D. The earlier years of the can student athlete.
Oxford course, supposing a man ${ }^{\text {"Next to this, the social life at }}$ does not take graduate work, do Oxford will open the American's not aim to fit him for any definite eyes as to what democracy and position, or to equip him for in- good-fellowship in college should vestigation, but truly speaking amount to. At Harvard a man the aim is to turn out the English may, and often does, go through -perhaps Anglo Saxon-ideal of his college course a hermit-alone a man, and for this end academic in study and recreation. This is work is hardly more important hardly possible at Oxford. "It may be that our American student does not elect an "honor" course, or even what we call graduate work. Mr. Rhodes specifies that his beneficiaries should be chosen with regard to scholarship, athletic abilities and social and moral qualities in the order named, and if the 'sporting' tendencies predominate in our fallen countrymen, he may avoid the studious Baliol and enter the nine genial portals of Brasenose. He can get all the hard work he wants at Brasenose; in fact, if he does not do good work his scholarship will lapse. But suppose the outcome of his educational career at Oxford is what Heipley years ago suggested was the chief effort of English technical training-the acquirement of gentiemanly manners and eminent proficiency in cricket -what then?
"In fact, the influence of the athlesic life at $0 x f o r d$ cannot but be beneficial to a student accustomed to the superheated atmosphere of American intercollegiate sports. The spirit of fair play, the courtesy of contesttaken as a matter of course-the playing of the game for the which so often cuts across the college spirit in this country, finds no place at Oxford, and I fail to see how the American can reside there three years without getting a deeper sense of his social rights and duties than he will obtain from any college in America. And there are many other influences which a Rhodes scholar should absorb at Oxford, which will make him a better American and a better citizen; the simplicity of most of the Oxford student's pleasures, his enjoyment of outdoor life in all its phases, his imbued politeness, his lack of cynicism and consequent trust in his fellow students-all, it seems to me, cannot fail to make a most excellent superstructure as a basis of Anerican energy and independence. Nor will it be possible for any American to abide in England three years without learning perhaps the most valuable lesson that England has to give him-the Englishman's obedience to law, not because he fears it, but because he respects it."

There are still three freshmen who have not yet visited Selleck's. We are particularly desirous that these men come down at once and see those derbies that are worn on Sundays by nearly all their classmates.

AN AMERICAN HENLEY  It Will Be Held on the Schuylkill River at Philadelphia on

May 22.
The stewards of the American Rowing Association are now making plans for an Amexican Henley this year. It will be held on the Schuylkill river at Philadelphia on May 22. It is now planned to have crews entered from Syracuse, Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Comell, Columbia and possibly George. town. It is ro: certain as yet, however, that Yale and Harvard will enter crews, as they cling closely to their old custom of meeting only each other on the water. Ir is hoped, however, that the crews from these colleges can be induced to enter. It is understood that a number of former crew men from both Yale and Harvard are interested in the American Henley and that they will use all influence possible to bring the crews of their alma mater to the Schuylkill.
The race will be for junior cights only, and no men who have rowed in a 'varsity crew at Poughkeepsie or New london would be eligible. It has not been decided as yet whether or not the race will be an open one, but it is probable that it will be closed to all but the col eges mentioned. If Yale and Harvard will send erews to compete against those seen on the Hudson yearly, the regatta will prove the most interesting rowing cyent of the season, There has been much discussion as to the respective merits of the crews com. peting at New London and at Poughkeepsie each year. Any event which can bo arranged to bring all the crews into one race will be watched with much interest by all college men:
Th: American Henley has been orgrized for several years, but has hretufore failed to claim any great hare of the rowing interest. This has mendue to a large degree from the it that there were few entries. asylvania entered a crew, but othewis the entries were merely a few 1 cal crews.
The contest between the college er s, however, will not be the only

It is planned to have the variwing clubs of the country repre-
ed, and a large number have alenty promised to send crews. Boston, in particular, will be represented by several crews and individual oarsmen in sculls and doables. New York is xpected to be well represented for the urst time. Last season no oarsmen from that city entered because of a conflict in dates with the Harlem regatta. This year the Henley stewards have announced their date to be a week in advance of the Harlem races, and it is believed that the New York oarsmen will take advantage of this and be seen on the Schuylkill. Men from Baltimore and Washington wlil probably go in Same side of the Question.

The time limit for Colgate to choose the side of the question submitted by Syracuse for the intercollegiate debate to be held here in the middle of April expired yesterday. Colgate notified the Detatigg Union that she would support the negative of the question, Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust law, as Herpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Narthern Securities case, is hostile to the best interests of the United States.
Syracuse chose the same side of the same question for the Wesleyan debate, which will be held at Middletown on the same night that the Syracuse-
Colgate debate is held here. This will Colgate debate is held here. This will necessitate Syracuse preparing a team on each side of the question, and the result will be watched with more than ordinary interest for this reason. It is expected that both teams will be chosen by the first of March. The first preliminary trials will be held February 9, 10 and 11.

NEW BOOKS FOR HISTORICAL LIBRARY.
Several new donations of books have just been received for the Historical Seminar library. Among them is a complete set with duplicates of Dawson's Mrgazine. This series has to do with events in American History up to the Civil War period and is one of the rarest and most valuable works in the library. The Hon. Hugh Hastings, the State Historian, has given a new' volume on "New York and the War with Spain," and the publishers of the new "Encyelopedia Americana" have presented an edition of their important work, in sixteen volumes to the Seminar library.

FUN WITH B. D. b. PLEDGLINOS. Saturday mouning during chapel time considerable amusement was afforded a large number of students in the lower hall of Liberal Arts College by sẹveral freshmen who are pledged to Beta Delta Beta, the freshman society. The pledglings are now undergoing the usual humiliating commands of the upper classmen. Yesterday morning' several freshmen were found in the hall, and, after holding the doors open for passersby, were made to sing songs, reeite, make speeches and several other stunts of a similar character.
The 107 Marshall basketball team defeated the 611 Irving team Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium. The score at the end of the first half was 11 to 9 , and the final score 31 to 13.

DEBATE TRIALS THS AFTEROON Freshman and Sophomore Teams to Be Chosen at that Time.

The trials for the freshman and sophomore debate teams will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon in room 33.34 of the Hall of Languages. It was found inconvenient to hold the triais in the evening as was originally planned.
The question upon which the contestants have prepared their arguments is 'Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expeliing the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifable." Those who compete are allowed to choose either side of the question. Between fifteen and twenty men have signified their intention of entering the trials this afternoon.
The two class teams will be chosen directly from today's contestants. After the teams are chosen they will choose by lot their respective sides of the question for the public debate, which will occur in about six or eight weeks. This public contest will be upon the same question as the trials.
The judges this afternoon will be Dr. Eaton of the English department, Dr. Mace of the History department and Professor Lasey. If any who intend to enter the trials cannot be present at $40^{\prime}$ clock, they should so notify Professor Losey at once.

ALUMNI NEWS.

The following article concerning $J$ Claude Latham ' 99 is taken from the Whitesville, N. Y., News.
"January, $1,1900, \mathrm{~J}, \mathrm{C}$. Latham purchased the Canisteo Times. Soon after he acquired the Republican and combined the two plants, adopting the name Times-Republican. The two papers had met one misfortune afer another, through the failure of many of the business enterprises of the hitherto hustling town. The collapse of a banking house added to the financial perplexities of the publishers, and they were quite willing-even anxious-to surrender their tripods to the venturesome neophyte: Andit was a venture, indeed. It was:a young man, just from college, taking up the fight against fate, where two veteran journalists had been vanquished. But a good Fairy accompanied Mr. Latham and wisely guided him through the perplexities surrounding him. New subscribers were added daily, space was desired by paying advertisers, job work came in and the hum of business was truly gratifying. One of the empty store buildings on Depot street was purchased and converted into an up-to-date printing house. But one addition is now to be made-a Mergenthaler Linotype-and the Times. Republican will become metropolitan.
the Printer"-a good Hallmark, by the way-a pleasant residence was purchased in West Main street, fitted up with all the modern improvements, including a well-selected library, and in his bome of culture and content he enjoys the best phase of domestic life.
"The News extends congratulations. May the five-year amiversaries of the the Times-Republican become decades and scores, and prosperity continue to crown the efforts of its genial editor."

TEACHERS.

All seniors and graduates wishing to teach during the coming year should enroll at once with the Faculty Committee on the appointment of teachers, as requests are now coming for the rec. ommendation of persons for positions next year. ## Syracuse Daily Orange.

The bit of alumni news concerning the success of a Syracuse alumnus in newspaper work which is published in this issue suggests the names of several other alumni who were active in newspaper work while in the University, and who have met with continued success in their chosen profession after leaving the ranks of undergraduate journalism. Undoubtedly, however, J. C. Latham, who earned the reputation while at Syracuse of being one of the most energetic business men in college, has attained the greatest success. His achievements are fully described in the clipping, and need not be reiterated here. There are many others, however, who have obtained scarcely less success. Such men as "Sam" Cook, "Ted" MacGregor, "Bob" Young, "Art" Evans and "Irv" Templeton were actively identified with journalism while at Syracuse and have continued, with marked success, the same profession. To these men the Orange extends congratulations and wishes for their continued success.

Newspaper work on undergraduate publications is in itself of far more value, in our opinion, than any one course a person can pursue in college. If a person intends to make journalism his life work, the experience on a college journal is, in reality, a technical education. If it were not for these benefits in the matter of education and experience, work on college publications at Syracuse would indeed be a most undesirable calling. As it is, it is far from the most pleasant work. A thankless task, involving an immense amount of time and work, and with no financial remuneration. And what is the reward? Simply that each issue the paper is passed over by the critical eye of certain wouldbe critics, endeavoring to find something to "knock," and, if their position be such as to allow it, to expose to public ridicule. This class of persons, as well as the student body ingeneral, little knows with what difficulties newspapers at Syracuse University have to contend. We can safely say, after reviewing care fully for nearly two years over twenty exchanges from the leading colleges and universities in the country, that the conditions at Syracuse for the best journalistic work are far more discouraging than at any other university. In fact, the best journalism is an absolute impossibility. Thus is the work of the college journalist, who, in an honest endeavor to do his best, to work for his college, and who spends from four to eight hours daily absolutely without remuneration, thus, we say, is he rewarded.
Indeed, we again congratulate those who have gone through the ordeal, and are now safely located in another branch of journalism. Happy will the college newspaper man be when he reaches that state where he no longer feels the constant force of an old saying, which, as applied to him, would read--"Knock, and the college knocks with you; work, and you work alone."

IN OTHER COLLEGES.
William Jennings Bryan has been chosen by the Seniors of the University of Nebraska to deliver the commencement oration.
The faculty of the University of Chicago has barred fifteen freshmen from participating in athletics on account of delinquent work. Several of the number are good track and basketball men. The 1905 'Varsity show at Columbia this year will be "The Kahn of Kathan."
The required outdoor track work of the freshmen at Amherst has resulted in an average increase in weight of seven pounds and in height of one-fifth of an inch per man.
An effort is being made at Harvard to secure the establishment of a permanent annual endowment for university debating.
The Dramatic Club of the University of Chicago will present the three-act cornedy, "A Pair of Spectacles," this year.
At the various debates at the University of Minnesota it is the custom to have the audience, as well as the judges, vote as to the result.
The representative of the University of lowa, has been debarred from participating in the Inter-'Varsity oratoricalcontest because he was found guilty of plagarism. He had taken over a number of sentences bodily from orations previously delivered. He has also been suspended from the university.
1000 CLASSICAL Characters.
Hinds, Noble & Eldredge have pub lished a book edited by Ivory Franklin Frisbee, which briefly describes ore thousand classical eharacters. The book is invaluable as a reference work. The descriptions are brief, concise and accurate. The characters are alphibetically arranged and can be found quickly. Numerous illustrations add greatly to the value of the book, which, in reality, is a small encyclopedia which should be in every library.

The preliminary trial for the fresh-nan-sophomore debate will be held on Monday evening, January 16, 1995. All members of the sophomore and freshman debating clubs and all sophomores who are now taking the course in forensics are permitted to enter this trial. Should it appear advisable the judges will at the trial select six contestants from each class, three of whom will be dlosen at a later trial for the final contest. The question for debate this year is as follows: Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expelling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifable. Contestants will prepare five minute arguments on either side of this question. The names of all who intend to compete must be in my hands not later than Friday evening, January 13.-Frederick D. It was impossible to learn whether or not Syracuse would enter this regatta. Commodore Brockett would say nothing at this early date. It is probable, however, that if a large number of candidates report this spring that Syracuse will send a junior crew to uphold her reputation gained at Poughkeepsie last June. Candidates will be called out the first of February, when active practice will begin. The American Henley wuald in no way interfere with the Puughkeepsie races, as the former wuld be composed of entirely different crews.

THE GRAND BALL.

Now's your chance to buy a full dress or Tuxedo suit at little cost. We bought from Roberts Wieks Company, wholesale manufacturers of high grade clothing, Utica, N. Y., about one hundred suits. They are all silk-lined and hand-tailored. They are sold at retail everywhere at $$ 45$ a suit, but we were fortunate enough to get them so we can sell them to you for $$ 25$ a suit. You should see them to appreciate their real value. On sale today. Respectfully, Kearney Bros., Vanderbilt Square.Adv.

DR. COLE SPEAKS

Rev. Philip H. Cole, pastor of the First Reformed Church of this city, gave a very interesting address before the union meeting of the Christian Associations in John Crouse College yesterday afternoon.

John B. Stobo, C. E. '04, at present in the employ of the Erie railroad at Middletown, N. Y., is visiting in the city. He is to take the civil service examinations this week in contest for an engineering position in the Panama Canal construction work.

PRICE TWO CENTS

Sophomore and Fresh man Teams SelectedYesterday Afternoon.

The trials for the sophomore and freshman debate teams were held in the Hall of Languages yesterday afternoon. Twenty-six men reposted for the trials, being much the largest numher that ever contested for underclass debate teams at Syracuse. This is due to a very large degree to the fact that Professor Losey has, through much had work, made the students feel the value of debating in the University.
The judges were Professor Losey, Doctor Mace and Doctor Baton. After careful consultation the judges picked the following men: Sophomores-L.S. Coit, William Wemett, R. N. Campbell; freshmen-A. J. Ruland, J. D. LaWall, W. B. Heroy. The freshmen who entered the trials were W. B. Heroy, E. A. Thompson, Hmil Hansen, A. J. Ruland, F. W. Pearce, I. H Lilyeostrand, W. A. Struble, J. A Pery, J. H. Sandmeyer, C. E. Butz, Gea. A. Hastings, J. D. LaWail, II. S Marclay, E. S. Morse, J. R-Waker. The sophomores who contested were R. E. Wilson, A. W. Swain, A. L, Well, R. N. Campbell, L. S. Cuit, J. O. Cuit, William Wemett, H. W. Farrington, M. Winklestein, R. G. Patterson, L. W. Chester.
The speeches were all exceptionally fine and showed marked improvement over previous trials. At the close of the trials each of the judges congratulated the contestants upon the excellent showing they had made. The trials began at 40 'elock and the last man had not fiaished until 6:15. The contestants were allowed to choose either sile of the question, "Resolved, That the aetion of Governor Peabody in expeling the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable."
The teams will debate the same question in the public class debate which will take place in six or seven weeks. The teans have not yet chosen their siles, but these will be determined at aree by lot.

DEAN KENT IN NEW YORK.

While in the city be will also represent Sjractse University at the inaugura tion of the new president of the Brook lyn Pulytechnical Institute.

COACH hutchins is in town.

Dr. C. P. Hutchins, coach of the 'Varsity track team, arrived in the city yesterday. Coach Hutchins, together with the track committee of the Ath letic Governing Board and the manager and captain of the team, will meet at the home of Dr. W. M. Smallwood this evening. Matters of importance regarding the coming season will be discussed.

THE NORTHERN TRIP.

The baskethall team returned Sunday night from their two day's trip to the northern part of the state. The trip was one of the most pleasnnt the team has ever talken.
On Friday evening they played the Potsdam Normal school team The Normals were a fast and heavy team, and of college speed. The bisgest crowd which ever winessed a basketball game there was present to cheer on their team. The hoal men report that they received the best of treatment, and that the game was one of the cleanest they ever played. The first haif ended with the score 19 to 9 , and the game closed with a score of 40 1027 in Syracuse's favor.
The next might the team joumeyed mine miles to Canton, where they met and defeated St. Latrrence University by the score of 28 to:0. Several Potsdam men, who had watehed the 'Varsity play the night before, accompanied the team to St. Lawrence and cheered for the Syracuse men. The game was rongh at times, though the best of good feeling prevailerl. Last year the 'Varsity was defeated ly the score of 1 to 13, and the year hefore St. Lawrence won 18 to 10. The Syracuse men spent Sunday at Camon, and were royally entertained at the various fraternity houses.
The next game will be with Hamilton in the gymasium on January 27.

SENIOR WEEK.

The week of February 18 has been set as Senior Week. The complete shedule of events has not yet been arranged. On Saturday evening, February ith, occurs the Colgate basketball game at Syracuse. The annual city concert by the Glee and Instrumental Cluis will be held in John Crouse College on Tuesday evening. The Phi Kappa Alpha ball will take place at the Ahambra on Thursday evening. Severib of the fraternitics are also planaing parties for the week.
The 'Varsity basketball team will leave on Thursday of Senior Week for an eastern tup, playing the follow ing games: Feb. 16, Williams; Feb. 17, Amherst; Feb. 18, Trinity; Feb. 20, Weslcyan; Feb. 21, Brown.
initiated into Phi delta theta
On Friday evening. January 13, Chas. F. Taylor '84 was initiated into Phi Delta Theta. Mr. Taylar was a mem ber of the local society of Sigma Psi which petitioned the national fraternity of Phi Delta Theta for a charter. He was one of the most active men in the work of procuring a charter, but it was not granted until after his grariuation. He is a contracting enginear who for the past six years has been the partner of the late John Dunfee. Mr. Taylor was chief engineer of that mod ern feat of engineering skill, the recently completed Boston subway under the harbor.

CREW DEMONSTRATION
Oarsmen Will Give Exhibition Row on the Machines.

Captain Dempster announces that the plans for a big crew mass meeting to be held in John Crouse College on Thursday evening have been perfected Coach James A. Ten Eyck suggested that it would be well to begin the training season with an enthusiastic mass meeting. In furtherance of this suggestion, Captain Dempsier and Commodore Brockett have been hard at work for the past week and are now prepared to announce a program which should insure an attendance which will fill Crouse College hall to overtlowing. The names of Chancellor Day, Benja $\min$ Shove, Coach Ten r:k and Chates J. Jewell are guarantees of a rare treat in speech making. But the committee on preparation have provided an attraction which bids fair to rival the oratory in popular favor. The rowing machincs are to be set in place on the platform and the audience will; have the opportunity of seeing the 'Varsity and freshman crews in actual operation. A report has been circulated that the men will be dressed just as they were when they pulled over the line victorious in June. Owing to the fact that the becoming coats of tan have been lost during the winter it has been considered wise for the crews to din sleeveless jerseys.
Among the other features of the evening will be adialect puem by Harry Farri.gton in honor of Stroke Packard be real by the author.

INSTRUCTOR RECEIVES APPOINT. MENT.
C. C. Kinkpatrick, instructor in surveying in the College of Applied Science, recently tried the civil service examinations for civil engineers and last week received an appointment to a position in the Philippines. The appointment is a very desirable one and while his many friends on the hill re. joice with him on his success they are sorry to lose him. Mr. Kirkpatrick will stay at the University"until January 29, when be will have finished his work for the semester. He will then visit his home in southern Illinois for a week, leaving San Francisco February 14 for Manila, stopping at Honoluluand Hong Kong for a day or two.

TRUSTEES MEET.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

The fact that Colgate chose the same side of the question for the Colgate-Syracuse debate that Syracuse chose for the SyracuseWesleyan debate would make it appear that the negative is the stronger side of the question. That one Syracuse team will support the affirmative while another 'Varsity team is debating the negative of the same question on the same night cannot but create a greatre interest in debating at Syracuse than there has ever been. The outcome of the two debates will be watched with unusual interest.

If there is any one thing which can be selected as tending more to advance the interests of a university than any other, it is active and loyal support from the alumni. It is the aim of every well regulated university to cultivate to the fullest degree this interest on the part of the alumni. The work which well organized alumni associations can do for their alma mater is almost beyond estimation. It is often remarked, however, that it is impossible to create this loyalty and interest among the alumni of a large institution to the extent that it is among those of small colleges. The specific argument usually used to prove this general statement is that when the alumnus was an undergraduate he had the advantage of coming closely in touch with his fellows and with the faculty. Therefore, as the argument goes, when he leaves coliege, he carries with him a greater love and more loyalty than would otherwise be possible. But witness this clipping from the Daily Maroon of the University of Chicago:
"A striking instance of the loyalty of Chicago alumni to their alma mater was shown last night in the practice debate for the university contest with Minnesota on Saturday, the 21st. Eight former debaters representing every university team but one from 1897 to 1904 were present to assist the team of 1905 with criticism and suggestion."
It is such a spirit among the alumni which will do more to promote the welfare of an institution than any other one thing. And it is not impossible to have such a spirit among the alumni of large universities. How to obtain such results is a question beyond the realm of undergraduate discussion. It is, however, evident that this should be one of the highest aims of a university in its endeavor to excel in every phase of college activities.

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

Columbia is $t\lrcorner$ meet two western col leges in a basketball schedule this win ter. Manager C. W. Cuthel, of the Columbia University basketball team, has arranged championship matches with Wisconsin and Minnesota, to take place in New York in Columbia's gymnasium. The first game will occur January 17th with the Wisconsin five. The Minnesota game is set for February 6th. Efforts were made last year by Columbia to secure a game with Minnesota, but without success. It is understood, of course, that the teams in question are not made up of young ladies, as Michigan's basketball teams are, but is limited to the men.
A table compiled by the Yale Alumni Weekly disproves the theory, based on the decrease of the Yale freshman class, that western universities and colleges have begun to draw away students from Yale. The figures for four years ago and those of the university catalogue, just published, show an increase of 17 per cent. from nine large western states, most, if not all of them, having "state" universities. During the same time the student registration of the university increased by 11 per cent.
Bryn Mawr College inn was opened recently by the committee of the alumni in charge. The receipts will go to the fund for the erection of the proposed students' building, which was planned in 1898, and will resemble the Houston Club of the University of Pennsylvania. The inn is for the accommodation of parents of Bryn Mawr girls visiting the college. The building, which has beenused as a dormitory, is opposite Pembroke arch.
The Princeton University commons for the freshman class are not to be abandoned during the coming year, as has been reported. The commons have not been a success financially, on account of a foolish sentiment in the freshman class against eating there. An effort is now being made to create a sentiment in favor of the commons, and if the enterprise can be made to pay, it is understood that a larger and better equipped dining hall will be established.
The board of managers of Haverford College have decided upon the erection of a new dining hall, provided the necessary money is raised. President Sharpless is now getting the funds. Whether a separate building will be erected or whether an addition will be made to Founders' Hall has not yet been decided.
During the Christmas vacation several changes were made in the Princeton chemical laboratory, to accommodate the increased number of students who will take chemistry in the new elective course in laboratory work, which will be opened to B. S. Sophomores for the first time during the second term.

CHAMCELOPSSAODRESS

Semi-Annual Report to Trustees of the University.

Chancellor Day made the following semi-annual report at the meeting of the trustees yesterday:
To the Honorable Board of Trustees:
Gentlemen-The University year opened with an increase of 224 students. The greatest gain was in the Liberal Arts College. The next largest gain was in Applied Science. There is an unusual increase in the College of Medicine. The University never has registered a finer class of students. The wide area from which they come shows the extent to which the University has become favorably known. We now number nearly 2,500 students.
In a group of twenty of the largest universities of this country, Syracuse University numbers fourteenth in totals, ninth in Liberal Arts and eleventh in the number in her faculties. In college students in residence we lead the largest college enrollment of the State by over 400 students.
This will emphasize to your minds the imperative demand for more buildings, equipment and endowment. It should dissipate the delusion in the minds of some of our patrons that Syracuse University is in no immediate further need because our generous friends have paid our debts. We never have needed more the co-operation of our friends than we do now with this host of students crowding our halls. Indeed, the student body may be doubled just as soon as the friends of the institution will make it possible.
The Law school has found the new quarters at the comer of Fayette Park admirably adapted as well as centrally located. This is one of our best properties with a frontage in Fayette street of 100 feet and on South State street of 120 feet. It is within five minutes' walk of the great court building now being erected, of the Carnegie Library and the lawyers' offices.
The new dormitory, Haven Hall, was opened with the University year, and is fully occupied. There were over two hundred more applicants for rooms and board than we could accommodate.
The heating plant is taking care of all our buildings on the hill admirably. It fully realizes our expectations.

The New Smith Laboratory.
Soon after the beginning of the autumn semester, Mr. L. C. Smith submitted plans for another large building for the College of Applied Science which bears his name. This brought great joy and enthusiasm to us all, and especially to the workers in the engineering courses. This building is to be the Machinery Hall and to accommodate laboratories. It is 215 feet long by 54 feet wide and will furnish space for hydraulic laboratory, forges, foundry and cement testing on the first floor. The second floor, 150 feet, will be devoted to metal working machines, and the third floor will contain the wood-working machines.
The foundations of the building are already in and work will be resumed as soon as the building season opens. This great hall is to be constructed of concrete made into the form of ashlar cut stone. The blocks are being made at Hudson.
The present indications are that it will be fully occupied about as soon as it is finished. I speak for you as well as for the whole University, and, indeed, for our city, when I express to Mr. Smith profound gratitude for this further benefaction.
The payment of installments of interest have been received from the es tate of the late J. J. Belden. It was great generosity and thoughtfuiness that provided for the interest payments. The executors of the late John Lyman inform me that the estate will be settled promptly and that there will be a sufficient sum to realize Mr. Lyman's generous purpose for the University. These trustees provided for an active place among us in the work of the Uni versity for all coming years.
Mrs. Lucina Ives, widow of Willard Ives, gave the University $$ 40,000$ to found a professorship to bear her husband's name, and also several scholarships, upon all of which she retained an annuity. By her death, after a long and beautiful Christianlife, these funds become active for the purpose provided.
The generosity of these and many other of our benefactors is in striking contrast with the attitude of the State toward the colleges which are educating her citizens. New York State has the unenviable distinetion of taxing intelligence by taking from the colleges 5 per cent. of their legacies and by imposing a tax upon their real estate investments.
(To be continued tomorrow.)
ANOTHER FRESHMAN MARRIAGE.
Lucius A. Waldo, jr., who was a student in Alfred University last year, entered the Syracuse University College of Medicine last fall. Last week Mr. Waldo took a sudden trip to his home in Canisteo, N. Y., and yesterday his fraternity brothers received word of his marriage to Miss Helen Riddell of the same place. Mr. Waldo is the second member of the freshman delegation of Phi Delta Theta to enter the bonds of matrimony this year. He returned yesterday to take up his studies in the Medical College, and in the near future will set up housekeeping with his wife in this city.

Imposing Building Will

 be Erected on the Campus Next Spring.At the annual midyear meeting of the trustees of the University held in the Chancellor'e office yesterday morning it was decided to build a laboratory of Natural History. The building will cost about $$ 200,000$ and will be erectad from the bequest ef the late John Lyman. The plans are subject to the approval of Mr. Lyman's heirs.
The plans for the new building were drawn by Arehitects Revels and Hollenbeck of the Fine Arts College. The structure will be erected on the northeast corner of the campus, fronting on University Place. The east wall will be about thirty feet from College Place. This building will comp.ete the ine of buildings on the front of the campas. The construction will begin as soon as the weather will permit. The departments of biology, geology, botany and physiology will be located in the new building.
The proposed building, with the exception of John Crouse College, will be the most imposing on the campus. It will have a frontage of 150 feet on University Place and 160 feet on College Place. The basement will be made of granite, the first floor of sandstone, and the remainder of the building of sandstone and brick. The completed structure will be three stories above the basement.
The plans call for a very ornamental building. The entrance will be surmounted by a tower rising two stories above the roof. The interior will surpass any of the present buildings. Inside the entrance will be a large Memorial Hall finished in marble, containing a memorial tablet and memorial windows. The floor will be of mosaic marble, and the walls wainscoted with marble. Marble stairs with an ornamental balustrade will greatly increase its beauty. The woodwork will all be of oak, and the floors of a concrete coustruction. The southeast portion of the building will be devoted to three museums, one on each floor. The building will contain every convenience for the various departments, including an aquarium. laboratories, test rooms, microscope rooms, cloak rooms, etc.

A College of Pharmacy.

The druggists of the city have recently requested the University to erect a College of Pharmacy: The matter was brought before the meeting yesterday, and a committee was appointed to report at the next meeting in June.
A three years' course in normal music was authorized in the Fine Arts in shop work; G. D. Fairfield, associate professor in Romance languages; E. L. Earp, professor of sociology; Harold L. Butler, professor of vocal music, ard Harry L. Vibbard, who has been an instructor, to be associate professor in music. On recommendation the following degrees were conferred:
Master of Arts-Edward L. Cullinan and Frank B. Duval.
Bachelor of Philosophy-Erle L. Ackley, Almond W. Lauber and Harrison D. Sanford.

Bachelor of Science-Carl P. Wright. Master of Philosophy-Ernest H. Sumner.
Doctor of Medicine-Arthur Jackson. C. W. Tooke was elected instructor in trusts in the College of Law.
The meeting was one of the largest midyear meetings in a number of years. The trustees present were: James R. Day, Chancellor; John D. Archbold, Lyman C. Smith, Charles Andrews, Edwin Nottingham, Benóni I. Ives, W. W. Porter, J. L. Heffron, W. A. Holden, Theron Cooper, R. D. Munger, H. S. Wilkinson, James B. Brooks, G. B. Watkins, J. D. Phelps, J. M. Gilbert, W. H. Rowe, L, L. Sprague and W.H. Peck.

University Free from Debt.
The University received $$ 50,000$ from the Belden bequest, which money was used to pay the last mortgage on University property. This leaves the University free from debt for the first time in thirty years.
The report of the treasurer showed the receipts from January 1, 1904, to June 1, 1904, to be $$ 262,717.27$ and the disbursements for the same period $254,957.98.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

The Illustrated Sporting News has invited several of the leading educators of the country to contribute a series of articles concerning college athletics. The first of these is by President Hadley of Yale, and will be read with a great deal of interest by students everywhere. He takes a clear and reasonable view of athletics, and his remarks, in these days of so much criticism, present the true relation of the college to its athletics. Dr. Hadley favors professional coaches, and thinks that intercollegiate contests do not make whatever evils may now exist in college athletics, but rather affords an opportunity whereby these evils may be more clearly discerned.
"The idea that victory is the essential thing," writes Dr. Hadley in part, "independent of the means by which it is obtained, is one of the greatest dangers which menaces the United States at the present day. Whatever you can do to combat that idea in athletics or anywhere else renders an invaluable public service.
"The greater the prize in any manding the services of unpaid contest, the greater will be the temptation to sacrifice other things to victory. The widespread interest in college athletics makes it harder than it otherwise would be to insist that the students shall have higher standards in their college dealings with one another in their play than the graduates and the outside public have in their dealings with one another in their business. Nevertheless, I am in-graduate coaches for different branches of athletics are those which are situated in large cities. This places a discrimination against the country colleges which I for one should be quite unwilling to see established."

 clined to think that the net influence of intercollegiate athletics is good. We make a great mistake if we assume that intercollegiate contests create evils of which we complain. They simply hold them up to public view. If the evils thus made manifest remain unrebuked and unremedied, the indirect effect of this publicity is bad. If they are condemned by that part of the public for whose opinion the average college student most cares, the effect of the publicity and the ensuing condemnation is good."I confess I have no great faith in most of the specific projects or rules proposed to remedy the evils. They are like attenpts to cure a disease by repressing its symptoms. They seldom do real good; they often do positive harm. Take, for instance, the suggestion that we should prohibit professional trainers. If my boy wants to run in the quarter-mile I want to have him as much as possible under the eye of a man who understands the operation and effect of quarter-mile running more fully than his family physican naturally can do. If you give him the alternative of risking damage to himself or keeping out of the competition with his fellows merely because the public will take too much interest in his adviser in case he should be fortunate enough to erigage in an intercollegiate contest, it seems to me that you are sacrificing a great deal for the sake of accomplishing very little. It is all very well to talk of having only graduate coaches; but the only universities thatcan be sure of com-

SONGS OF ALL THE COLLEGES.

"Songs of all the colleges" pubished by Hinds, Noble & Eldredge is a book which should be in every college student's library. It is the best collection of college songs which has yet appeared, nearly every college in the country being represented by one or more songs. Among the number appear Syracuse's Alma Mater and "Oh, Syracuse!" The volume also contains many other popular songs which are usually sung by college students everywhere. The book should appeal not only to the undergraduate, but to all those who still wish to retain a memory of their college days. Every song has both words and music.

GEOLOGICAL SPECIMENS.

Professor George A. Wilson has presented to the Geological Department a fine collection of fossil corals, cephalopods, branchiopods, trilobites and calcits crystals. These specimens were collected by Professor Wilson some years ago, and were obtained from the Niagara limestone quarries and from the glacial drift in the vicinity of his former home at Wabash, Indiana. Dr. Wilson had already presented the geologieal Museum with a number of fine specimens some years ago.

Strong Speeches Assur-ed.--Exhibition Row by Both Crews.

John Crouse College is tonight to be the scene of an event entirely novel in the history of Syracuse athletics. In former years Syracuse has witnessed enthusiastic mass meetings at the climaxes of the various seasons of athletics, but a Crouse Colloge gathering at the very opening of the training season is a new departure. It is expected that the splendid speeches and other strong features of the entertainment, added to the natural interest felt by all the students in the crews, will bring out a very large number of students, notwithstanding the proximity of examinations. The opportunity of seeing the crews in action on the machines just as they pulled on the Hudson is in itself a great attrection.
The committee having the meeting in charge wish it distinctly understood that the women of the University are invited to attend. They suggest that the women take possession of the galleries (the best place, by the way, to see the rowing exhibition) thus crowding the men together in one mass on the main floor and facilitating concerted cheering.
The president of the Student Athletic Association, Ernest H. Sumner, willintroduce the following speakers: Benjamin Shove, Edward French, William Rubin, Coach James A. Ten Eyek and Chancellor Day. Efforts are being made to secure a speech from Dean Smalley. Coach Ten Eyck will explain some of the technical points of the working of the crew, showing the various styles of rowing and explaining aquatic terms in such a way as to give to every student an intelligent interest in the details of crew work. Harry W. Farrington will read his dialect poem, "De Stroke "
After the speeches the crews will in urn take their places at the rowing mauhines which have been set in place on the platform, the freshmen giving tieer exhibition first, in the same positions as at Poughkeepsie.
Bow, Armstrong; 2, Spencer; 3, Dwight Stone; 4, Robinson; 5, Cummings; 6, Hale; 7, Andrews; stroke, hans; coxswain, Cornwall.
The 'Varsity will appear as follows: Bow, Squires; 2, Salisbury; 3, Kimsiel; 4, Anderson; 5, Dempster; 6, Stone; 7, Rice; stroke, Packard; coxswain, Miller.
With the exception of one man in tach boat, Rice, No. 6 (freshman), and Kimberly, No. 3 ('Varsity), both of the original crews will be intact as they appear on the platform tonight.
The meeting will be called to order promptly at 7:30.

CHANCELLOR'S ADDRESS.

(Coneluded from yesterday's Orange.)

A few days ago the treasurer of Syracuse University paid more than $$ 12,000$ taxes to the State of New York, the city of Syracuse and the county of Onondaga, on real estate investments in this city, every dollar of the income of which, except these taxes, is used to educate young men and women of this State and to offer those educational advantages which bring into the State and the city students from every part of our country and from the fourteen foreign countries represented here last year. In other words Syracuse University paid more than $$ 12,000$ for the privilege of educating young men and women in New York.
Last year two philanthropic men of this city gave Syracuse University $$ 350,000$. The State of New York grabs $$ 17,500$ of that money before it reaches the University. The money was strictly for educational purposes. Not a cent of it was to find its way to the nocket of any trustee of the corporation, all of whom render their services without pay. The income of this money was to make possible instruction to students who camot carry the expense provided for by such generosity.
Last week the legacy of a generous man providing $$ 1,000$ to aid a poor student in obtaining an education, was paid over to our treasurer. It came to us 9950. The great State of New York had appropriated to itself $$ 50$.

The Appropriation to Cornell.

Last spring, the Legislature, against justice and fairness, admitted by those who voted it, paid out of the State moneys a quarter of a million dollars to a college which has seemed to have the "political pull" with our Legislature. Syracuse University was obliged to pay into the State treasury $$ 29,500$ in real estate andinheritance taxes. The other college took $$ 250,000$ out of the State treasury by special appropriation.
Syracuse University has never asked for a dollar of State money. It has been willing to go out and find friends and gather money to carry on its increasing work. It has found generous men and women to build its great buildings and furnish its splendid equipments. These and other friends have given hundreds of thousands of dollars for endowment, but its students have come in so rapidly that the invested income has been altogether indequate to meet the expense. These friends annually make up the deficiency.
The State shows its appreciation of such friends of education by taxing their endowments for education precisely as it does investments that are returning the investors 6 or 10 or 40 per cent. profit!
The State needs these forms of education. There can be no suitably furnished principals and teachers in State Normal and High schools without colleges. The State Commissioner of Public Instruction says that the teachers of the future must come from the colleges. The college is the largest conclusion of the whole public educational system. It is not like a private school. There is no money profit in any college in the State to any one. The service rendered is for the State and humanity.

A Tax on Philanthropy.
The tax is the extreme of folly. It taxes generous impulses. It embarrasses work fundamental to citizenship. What possible justification has the State of New York for taking a dozen men out of the faculty of Syracuse University, put there by benevolent men and women, at a time when her class rooms and laboratories are crowded with students seeking an education by which they may render the State ten fold greater service? Where is the wisdom that will cripple and hinder the work of the colleges of the State of New York whileother States have been paying millions to support and carry forward precisely the same form of higher and technical education?
Suppose the State had to establish the twenty colleges and universities supported for her by private benefactions. Remittance of taxes from their endowments and bequests is an infinitesimal compensation for such immense servite to the State.
There is not the suggestion of an ar ticle of a creed taught in these colleges, either Protestant or Catholic.
Is this tax imposed to check undue generosity and disproportionate gifts to the colleges? There is no such sign of the millenium. If there ever is such a sporadic case, it stands in startling contrast to the tens of thousands of persons who never give a cent to education or to any other great and good cause. Legislation should be provided to encourage, not to discourage generous educational giving.

Ininite Discredit on the State.

The great State of New York came around the other day and demanded 812,000 from the moderate income of investments given for education, and we went down to the bank and borrowed it and paid it over, and we will wait for books and apparatus and more help in our teaching furce until we can beg this money which the great State of New York took out of our work, the work of educating her teachers and citizens. Took it from a college that is furnishing more teachers for the public schools than any college in the State.
And this is not Russia nor Turkey. This is America. And this is the great State of New York! If New York is not asked to give us money, will she not at least leave our inadequate income untaxed and let us use the whole of it in the work of education?
The people of this State would yield to the colleges cheerfully the tax moneys now taken from them. This twofold tax does not represent the intelligent people of the State. It reflects infinite discredit upon the political authors of it. James R. DaY.

FNE ARTS FAKRS MAXE P PEPaBRatoNS

Are Determined to Make This Year's Show the Best Ever Given.

As stated in a recent issue of the Orange the Fine Arts Fakirs have decided to give another Fake show this year. The fact that no show was glven last year has aroused an increased interest in this year's production. Freshmen and sophomores are curious as to what this so-called "Fake Show" is. The reputation which the shows have made in previous years still remains vividly in the minds of the upperclassmen.
The Fakirs have already begun active preparations, and are planning to make this year's show surpass anything heratofore attempted. President Fred R. Lear has appointed the following committees, which will begin work immediately:
Decorations of "Big Show"--E. I, Barott, Misses Howarth, Gordon, Emmons, Messrs. Hess, Stephens, G. S. Wright.
Decoration "Main Hall"-Messrs. G. B. Taylor, W. H. Ninde, Izant, Hecking, H. Taylor.
Big Show Committee-Messrs. Sillenbeck, Stephens, Dennis, Theobold, Boyd.
"Subway" Shows Committee Messrs. Foster, Partridge, Chamberlin, Kline, Knight, Bartlett.
Catalogue Committee-Misses Kassing, Morgan, Andrews, Hanson; G. Skinner.
Costume Committee-Misses Adsit, Malloy, Butterfield, Lynch; H. Phoenix. Order Committee-Messrs, Waterman, Mowers, Mitchell, Brickle, Allen.

STARK WILL NOT RETURN.

Since Stark, the crack basketball and baseball player, left college a few weeks ago there have been many rumors afloat to the effect that he would soon return to resume his work at the University. Both the basketball and baseball men have endeavored to persuade Stark to return, but all attempts have been futile. Manager Rice of the basketball team has received a letter from him stating that he would positively not return. It is understood that he will enter into business at once in his home town. Stark has done excelient work on the 'Varsity basketball team this season, and came to the University with a fine reputation on the diamond.
SEmitic and biblical club.
The Semitic and Biblical Club will hold its monthly meeting in the Hall of Languages, room 53, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. R. Alfred Waite Jr. will read a paper on "The Length of the Ministry of Christ," followed by discussion.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Chancellor Day's semi-annual report, which is printed in yesterday's and to-day's Orange, is of unusual interest. Anything which comes from the Chancellor's pen is always read with much favorable comment, and this report is not below the standard. It clearly and accurately sets forth the condition of the University at the present time, and is a document which every undergraduate and alumnus should read.

The announcement that another new building is to be erected next spring comes as most welcome news to every friend of the University. This means that as soon as the weather is favorable work will be begun on two new buildings on the campus-the second engineering college, which is a gift of Lyman Cornelius Smith, and the hall of natural history, made possible by the bequest of the late John Lyman. These two buildings will greatly beautify the campus, and the line of buildings fronting on University Place will be completed. The erection of these two new buildings this year sug gests the rapid growth of the University; it also suggests that at our head we have a most efficient administration, which has made this rapid growth possible.
It was only about thirty years ago that our entire student body numbered less than fifty; and it was less than thirty yearsago that only one building stood on the campus. The University had a long, hard, struggling course before it. It has had to compete with much older institutions; it has never received any aid whatever from the state; and it has always labored with a heavy debt tending to retard its progress. But what a change is seen as we enter upon the year 1905! A University of 2,500 students; a faculty of nearly 200 ; five colleges; thirteen completed buildings, and two more in the pro-: cess of erection; and the University entirely free from debt. Such a state of conditions indeed augurs well for the future. There is every reason to believe that, with the present bright outlook in nearly every phase of University life, the institution is now ready to enter upon that course which will make Syracuse University second to none in the country.

TEACHERS.

All seniors and graduates wishing to teach during the coming year should enroll at once with the Faculty Committee on the appointment of teachers, as requests are now coming for the rec ommendation of persons for positions next year. The services of the committee are free. The office is in room 72 in the Hall of Languages. Office hours, Monday 9 to 12, and Thursday 2 to 4.

INDOOR BASEBALL OUIDE.
Spalding's Athletic Library for January is devoted to indoor baseball, and is the official guide for 1905. The new guide contains many half-tone pictures of all the leading American teams that are now playing the indoor game, as well af pictures of George W. Hancock, the "father of indoor baseball;" R. L. Welch, president of the Indoor Baseball Association; Treasurer Corey and the members of the executive boand.
The book contains an article on indoor baseball, the origin of the game, indoor baseball in Buffalo by Walter C. Mason; the game's progress, by George W. Hancock; the report of the senson's work, hints on how to play the game; how to teach girls to play indoor baseball, by Joseph Cermak, instructor of the Medill High School, and the officia playing rules for the season of 1905 . adopted by the National Indoor Baseball Association.

ROWED BEFORE

 LIABE AUDENECrowd of Students Applauds Oarsmen and Speakers.

The crew mass meeting which had been boked forward to with such interest took place last evening in John Crouse College, and proved to be the success that was anticipated. The program as originally arranged and announced was interfered with by the absence of several speakers, caused by illiness and severe colds. Coach Ten Eyck and his sturdy onrsmen, however, weve all on hand, as were also Benjamin Shove and Harry W. Farrington. As the crews and coach entered the crowed cheered them lustily and sang Alma Mater, after which the chairman, Ernest H. Sumner, introduced Benjamin Shove. Mr. Shove spoke of the rowing spirit that brought success, the spirit generated by the feeling that you're a dead one if you don't get there. He illustrated his point by a stary of a rowing experience of his own of the coast of Maine in a dory. The speaker urged the frishmen in particuar to come out for their crew, to endure the Spartan training during the long months of preparation, and to do "All for the honor and glory of the Orange.'

Harry W. Farrington 07 was next introduced and scored a decided succes in the rendering of his monologue ard dialect yoem, "De Stroke Oar Packard." In the guise of a typical down south darkey Farrington told the story of the historic race and illustrated the ever quickening stroke in a manner which transported the audience to the shores of the Hudson. Twice during the progress of the narrative cheers ! interrupted, as the various competilors were left in the wake. "Mistah Jim Ten Eyck," another dialect poem of farrington's, was rendered in response to an encore.
Coach Ten Eyck was cheered to the echo as he rose to tell of the various strokes and methods of rowing. The freshman and 'Varsity crews illustrated in their worl in their work on the machines the terms which the coach interpreted.

The 1907 crew, coxswained by Cornwall, illustrated the movements of the Syracuse method of rowing, pulling in very good form and steadily increasing the stroke. The 'Varsity, coxswained by Miller, took their seats and proceeded to illustrate the strokes of Cornell, and Wisconsin, after which they siwung into the stroke that has been designated as the "Git thar" Syracuse stroke. The entire original crew was intact with the exception of Kimberly, No. 3, who is not in college this year. Kimmel pulled in his place.
The call was made for freshman candidates to appear at the gymnasium today and register with Professor Scott for a physical examination.

PLans for senior week.

The plans for the various events Scnior Week are being perfected as rapidly as possible. The sentor reception given by Phi Kappa Alpha will occur at the Alhambra on Thursday evening, February 16. There will be the usual boxes of the various fraternities. It is expected that the boxes this year will surpass a aything which has ere. tofore been attempted. There will be ten fraternity boxes, besides the Phi Kappa Alpha box and a box for strangers. The different fraternities will also hold their boxes open to friends and strangers.
Music will be furnished by Kapp's orchestra and by the Phoen:x band of this city. The programs have not as yet been definite $y$ decided upon.

CROWOED CONOTITON OF GYMMASUM

> Track Men Experience Difficulty in Arranging Hours.

The present large number of students taking gymnasium work, combined with the limited accommodations in the gymnasium, present a problem to the University authorities at this time. Track practice indoors is expected to begin immediately after the mid-year examinations, and the gymnasium, where the practice is carried on, is used near. ly every hour of the day. The quesnion before the coach and track men is as to where they can work in a suffcient amount of practice during the winter months.
At present there are classes in the gymnasium every day of the week from 8:50 to $120^{\prime}$ clock, and from 3 to 6 o'clock. Then there is basketball practice each evening from $7: 30$ to 9 o'clock. There are at least 200 sophomores and 400 freshmen taking the gymnasium work, so it will not be possible to easily combine the classes any further. It is probable, however, that those who use the gymnasium from 5 to $60^{\circ}$ clock will be placed in other classes, and that hour given to the track men.
The crew men will use the upper room of the gymnasium daily for practice on the machines. Little can be done in the cage under the grandstand, as it is not high enough for puttirg the shot. If the space is properly heated it may be possible to use it for starts on the sprints. Final arrangements will be made as soon as Coach Hutchins returns.

FOOTBALL ON THE PACIFIC COAST
Dr. Frederick E. Schacht, a former Minnesota football player and tackle on the all-American team of 1902, regarded by Walter Camp as one of the most scientific and effective football men in the United States, is optimistic about football conditions on the Pacific coast. Dr. Schacht has the following to say in regard to coast football:
"I see no reason why California and Stanford should not evolve teams as strong as any in the east. You have here three vital elements in successful football-material, spirit and money. I believe that with proper training along recognized lines there is nothing either of these teams might not do. Starford's showing against Colorado has undoubtedly drawn the attention of eastern football men this way, and there is considerable speculation as to what showing they would make against one of the 'big' elevens."

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University
Croton Street.

Present day writers very properly designate this period of our national development as an "Age of Hustle." If a person competes successfully with his fellows, he is undoubtedly obliged to hustle more today than at any time in the past. The descriptive adjective "hustle" is, we take it, used in contrast to such words as "idle," "lazy" or "slothful." It is quite natural that college students, who unconsciously imbibe the characteristics of the times in which they are growing up, should hustle. It is indeed well, and almost necessary, that they should. But it is often true that any good thing, however essential it may be, is sometimes abused. A striking instance is presented to us at Syracuse. Some students, in their effort to gain an education, seem to have imbibed more than their share of the "hustling spirit," and have abused that worthy designation, They seem to forget that the University has very generously provided the campus with walks and paths. In their struggle for knowledge
-if such a worthy cause can be ber that others are also hustling imputed to them-they continu- to provide for bettering our Unially disregard these walks and versity, and that it is our duty proceed to take the shortest cut to respect their requests and across the campus which may their generosity. lead to their particular designation.
Some time ago the Chancellor very courteously reminded the students that such forms of "hustle" would not materially aid the authorities in their effort to beautify the campus. Knowing the convenient memories which characterize students, he further emphasized his request by having small reminders placed at the termini of these new paths. These slight obstacles remained in position only a few days, and immediately the Chancellur's remarks were relegated to an obscure part of those convenient memories. Once again the students are pursuing their old ways, and once more the campus is being marred by beaten paths here and there, wherever the fancy of the student may guide him.
It would be hard to believe that every student of the University was not interested in all things which tend toward its development and advancement. It is just as hard to reconcile this fact with the existing conditions. The University authorities are spending much money in an endeavor to beautify the campus. Mr. Smith, who has so generously given money and buildings to the University, has spent a large amount in arranging the lawns and paths in front of the campus. There are provided paths of a sufficient number and of ample size, so that ordinary students under ordinary conditions can get from one part of the campus to another without serious loss of time. Some students, in their effort to hustle, fall, rather, under the opposite category. For surely a person who cannot walk two or three rods out of his way, and thus respect the authorities and friends of the University who are endeavoring to beautify the campus, cannot be otherwise branded than as lozy or slothful. Let us all hustle, but remen- to college men's declamations.

Among the college publications of Hinds, Noble & Eidredge one of the best is a book called "Three Minute Declamations for College Men." The book contains a large number of selections, both in prose and poetry, which embrace nearly every field of literature. There are selections from ald and new writers, both English and American. Among the authors are such names as Burke, Depew, McKinley, Lowell,, President Eliot, Senator Hoar, Van Dyke, Ruskin, Gladstone, and scores others.

TWO FRESHMEN ARRIVE,

Sensation of sensations! Two of those three freshmen who have persisted in staying away from Selleck's hat store this year came to the store at $40^{\prime}$ clock and pleaded guilty of criminal negligence in failing to see Selleck's stock before buying their winter hats. They said that the continued appearance of the advertisement in the Or ange for the "Three Freshmen" had so preyed upon their minds that they were unable to stay away any longer. As for the other lonesume freshman who has not yet appeared, Mr. Selleck asserts that he will continue to advertise for him until he too joins the crowd and finds his way to 311 S . Warren St. -Adv.

FOOTBALL REFORM IN THE WEST
A bill has been introduced in the South Dakota Legislature by Representative Lightner providing for the instant suppression of a player who injures another in playing the game of football, making fraudulent registration in schools for the purpose of joining in football games a misdemeanor and holding the president of the school equally liable.
The bill further provides that in case of injury the person injured may sue and recover damages from the party causing the injury, and if he is a minor his parents are liable to judgment. In case fatilities result the bill provides that the proper officials shall proceed against the offender for manslaughter.

PENNSYLYANIA'S NEW COACH

 RESIONS.George Brooke, recently chosen by the athletic authorities of the University of Pennsylvania to coach the football eleven next fall, after accepting the position, has refused to take up the work on the ground that his business relations have developed so that he would not have time to devote to coach ing. Brooke did good work as coach for the Swarthmore eleven, and last fall the was on the advisory board of coaches which directed the work at Franklin Field, with Carl Williams as acting representative.
While no successor has been chosen for Brooke, it was definitely announced that the same system of an advisory board would continue at Pennsylvania, and that a field cuach would be chosen at an early date.

A recent editorial in the Daily Pennsylvanian concerning the freshman crew reads as follows: "Does 1908 intend to put a crew upon the water this year or not? If it does, it would be advisable for members of that class to turn out in slightly larger numbers than are at present registored as candidates. Sixteen in all have handed in their names to Mr. Ward. Unless there are eight men among that number of very marked ability, there will be some trouble in turning out a crew that can compete with Cornell, Syracuse and Columbia, to mention but a few of the other colleges."

Frank E. Force, sporting editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, speaks in terms of ridicule of the eastern critics' -Camp and Whitney-all-American football teams on the grounds that they do not know western football and hence are incompetent judges. Foree has seen all the big western teams play. and in his criticism makes special mention of Benedict of Nebraska as one of the greatest ends the west has produced, and as a player meriting an allAmerican position. Martin Heston of Michigan be places at the head of the backfield men and second to Heston be names Davies of Minnesota.

Large Num'Jer of Fresh. men Report for Examination.

Yesterday the first opportunity was presuted to get an idea as to the number of men who will try for the crews this year. There was no formal call for practice, but the candidates were simply requested to report and choose a ine when they could take the required physital examination. The number who reported yesterday is by no means the full number that are expected to come out when the formal call is made.
The 'Varsity men who rerorted were C. B. Dempster'05, A. J. Squires '06, II. A. Robinson '07, W. W. Andrews 'if, D. A. Davis '07, A. T. Hale '07. 11. I. Spencer ' 07 . It is expected that all those who rowed in last year's 'Varsity and freshman boats, as well as the sulustitutes, will be candidates for the Varsity eight-oared and four-oared buats. Those men who have not yet arranged their hours for examination are expected to do so as soon as possible.
The freshmen who reported were: G . A. Baley, R. H. Bowen, B. G. Avery, W. B. Hill, E. G. Seimser, M. M. Dudge, H. T. Theobald, C. W. Eddrikge, J. T. Crawford, 0. B. Heath, H. D. Anderson, I. J. Captain Dempster stated last evening that he was very much pleased with the number who reported the first day. He requests that those who have int yet reported do so at once. Regulat training on the machines will begin Fubuary 2.

HIRD CLASSICAL CLUB LECTURE
The linird lecture of the series arraged by the Classical Club will be 1 ivered in Assembly Hall on Thursday v. 4 in, February 2. The speaker will be Professor Albert A. Howard, Ph.D, of IIarward University. Doctor Howard's subject will be "Roman Blections and Electioneering Methods."
The two previous lectures of the Chassical Club series were delivered by Prufessor Richardson and Professor Grene. These lectures proved highly interesting and instructive, and each Was listened to by a large audience The lecture by Doctor Howard will undoubtedly prove equally as high class as the previous ones.
Dector Howard is senior professor of Latin at Harvard. He is one of the great authorities of the present day won music among the Romans and upon the use of music in the old Latin plays. Doctor Howard's special field of study has been historical and philological work. He is a joint editor of the latest rescension of Allen and Greenough's Latin grammar. Professor Howard is a speaker of much abil ity, having a keen sense of humor, which makes all his lectures especially interesting. He will spend a day at the University.

CORNEL WSHES TO ARRaNGE A DEBATE

Would Meet a 'Varsity Team This Spring in Syracuse.

Professor Losey yesterday afternoon received a communication from the Cornell Debating Congress asking to arrange a joint debate between Cornell and Syracuse some time this spring. It was suggested that the debate be held some time in March or April. Cornell meets Pennsylvania in an intercollegiate debate at Ithaca at that time, and would like to send a team to Syracuse at about the same date. The communication suggested that Cornell would be glad to make such a debate with Syracuse an annual event, to be held one year at Syracuse and the next at Ithaca.
No action has as yet been taken in regard to the matter. Syracuse already has scheduled a debate with Wesleyan to occur at Middletown, Conn., and one with Colgate to occur here. These debates are scheduled for about the same dates that Cornell requests the debate with Syracuse. If Cornell would not be willing to accept a different date, it will probably be impossible to arrange a debate this year. It may seem advisable, however, to select a third team to meet Cornell.
Professor Losey expressed himself last evening as being very much pleased with the communication. "Nothing could please me more than to receive such a communication from Cornell," said Professor Losey. "I do not know whether or not the debate can be arranged, but if it is I shall do all I can to prepare the team." Definite action will be taken in a short time.

PROFESSOR BAKER TO LECTURE.
Professor George Pierce Baker of Harvard University will lecture in Assembly Hall of University Block on the evening of February 8. His subject will probably be "Marlowe, Shakspere's Master." The proceeds of the lecture will be devoted to the interests of the Debating Union, Professor Baker is well known to Syracuse students. He was at the University last year and gave a most interesting talk. He has been the means of placing the debating interests at Harvard, as well as throughout the country, upon the high plane they are today.

SHAKSPERIAN RECITALS.

With this issue the Orange suspends publication until Monday, February 6, on account of the mid-year examinations.

Students should bear in mind the Classical Club lecture, which will occur in Assembly Hall on the evening of February 2nd. Dr. Howard comes with a reputation of being an especially interesting speaker, and his subject is one which should attract a large crowd. The Classical Club has been very successful this year in obtaining such eminent speakers. The club is to be congratulated upon bringing here each year such distinguished members of the Harvard faculty as Dr. Howard and Dr. Morgan, It is an opportunity to hear such scholars, and college students have altogether too few such opportunities offered to them.

Before another issue of the Orange appears the call for the freshman crew candidates will have been issued. Without doubt very large number of freshmen. letics, is necessary to make a Since our great victories on the debacing team, and it is no more Hudson last June the Syracuse than right that these men, who crews have obtained a wide reputation. A seat in a Syracuse boat at the Poughkeepsie races is indeed a position to be envied. Whether or not our reputation gained last year is to be sustained again this year depends to a very great degree upon the freshmen. There are a number of good and experienced men from whom the coach can choose a 'Varsity eightoared and a four-oared crew. Last year's freshman crew rowed a wonderful race; 1908 should send a crew to Poughkeepsie this year which will even surpass the good record of 1907. Whether or not this will be possible will depend upon the number of freshmen who report in answer to the captain's call. It is not always the big man who makes a seat in the shell, as can be seen by looking over the men who appeared on the machines Thursday night. The remark is often heard that a person is not large enough to compete for the crew. Size should not bar a man trying. We hope that every man of the freshman class who may have any chance for the crew will report at the first call for candjdates.

The following editorial in the Daily Nebraskan is at least interesting as touching upon a live question:
"At some universities the college letter is given as a reward for merit in debating, just as in athletics. Why not give ' N 's' to our debaters? Surely there is not a branch of university activity that has been more successful in the past few years. Since debating was first placed upon the solid foundation upon which it now rests at Nebraska not a single victory has been scored against us. One after another our rivals in interstate debate have gone down to defeat before arguments which, in the words of more judges than one, have been nearly perfect. Brain work, hard consistent brain work, more wearing on a man, contribute just as much to the prestige of the university as do the athletes, should be awarded a debating ' $N$ ' at the end of each debating season."

The contract has been let for a sco,000 building for the Young Men's Christian Association of the University of Virginia. The building is the gift of Mrs. William E. Dodge. It will be called Madison Hall. The endowment fund canvass has so far resulted in securing subscriptions for $$ 19,000$.

Syracuse Daily Orange

Manager Griffith is Arranging Football Games for Fall.

> Sept. 23-Renssaelaer Poly at Syracuse.
> Sept. 27-Hobart at Syracuse. Sept. 30-Rochester at Syracuse. Oct. 7-Yale at New Haven. 0ct. 14-Hamilton at Clinton. Oct. 21-Colgate at Syracuse. Oct. 28 -Lehigh at Syracuse. * Nov. 3-New York University at Syracuse.
> Nov. 11-Army at West Point. Thanksgiving Day-Columbia at New York.

Manager Cyrus B. Griffith of the football team has been hard at work arranging the schedule for next fall. He has already made definite arrangement for eight of the games given above and is negotiating with New York and Columbia regarding their games on the dates given. It has been deeided that a Thanksgiving Day game will be played out of town and if the date with Columbia cannot be arranged some other team will be played on this day.
The schedule marks the resuming of athletic relations with four old and honored opponents of the orange. They are Hobart, Rochester, Hamilton and New York University. All four of these colleges have met former football teams representing Syracuse and have always been popular opponents. The substitution of these games for games with the small schools which the 'Varsity has been playing in the last few years is a great improvement.
Another marked improvement in the schedule is the date of the Colgate game. This is on October 21, two weeks later in the season tean the same game was played last year. Each team will be in much better condition for the game than if it came earlier in the season.
The men interested are extremely anxious that the game with Columbia will be arranged. The two years that Culumbia was the last game on the schedule it proved to be the most popular one played. At that time the two teams were about evenly matched. The first game ended in a victory for Syracuse with a score of 11 to 5 , and the second was a tie. The teams have not met in two years.
Both the Yale and West Point games are continued on the schedule. Arrangemems have been made with the Cornell football managoment for a freshman game with the Cornell freshmen and 1909 of Syracuse. The game will be played here on October 7, the day of the Yale game. An attempt was made to arrange a game with Cornell, but all the dates conflicted. It is probable that the two 'Varsity teams will meet in 1906. Manager Griffith is in correspondence with Wesleyan, Williams, Prown, Lafayette and Penn State. Several of these will fill up the open dates on the schedule.

Track and Crew Men

 Report for Regular Practice.All branches of spring athletics have begun to show some signs of the coming season. The crew men have been rowing several days; the track men have reported for registration, and a coach has been hired to whip the baseball players into shape. The track men met in the gymnasium Friday evening and were met by Dr. G. P. Hutchins, who has been engaged to coach the team this season. He outlined the season's work and told the men what would be required of them. He was greeted with a cheer when he announced that there would be no out. of-door running in the cold weather. It has always been the custom to have the men run outdoors on alternate days when they could not use the gymnasium. This will not be done this year. The practice will be held in the gymnas.um on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday until the weather moderates enough to get outdoors.
The men who have reported thus far are: Hurdles-Robertson, Cain and Moulthrop. Mile run-Hawkins, Mason, Schiefer, Schworm, Ralph, Hungerford, Taylor and Squires. Half and quarter-Parsons, Fisher, Schworm, Stebbins, Wilcox, Boyd, Flack, Griffith, Fuller, Kirchgasser, Hayes and Purington. Two mile-Rich, Call, Partridge, Reihl, Schiefer, Hoyler and Pierce. Jumps-Powell, Fuller and Robertson. Pole vault-Fuller, Kellow, Allen and Rice. Weights-Harwood and Van Duyn.
The crew men reported for practice on Thursday. Twenty-seven freshmen showed up at that time and a number have reported since. They display the usual awkwardness of the freshmen when first put upon the machines, but there are indications that they will be able to turn out a heavy crew. They report daily from 2 to 50 'clock and the 'Varsity from 5 to 6. The freshmen are Talmadge, Blocher, Myers, Heath, Cabeen, Hekking, Dodge, Paddock, Elbridge, Strong, Corp, Johnson, Bowen, Whitney, Frisbee. Ernsberger, Crawford, Kingsley, Bailey, Walters, Hinman, Barker, Bryant, Loucks, Theobald, Mitchell, C. Duvall, H. J Schiefer, S. W. Schiefer, Schworm, Huttenloch, Butz, Stephenson, F. R. Park.
The candidates for the 'Varsity who have been out are Stone, Salisbury, Andrews, Anderson, Dempster. Spencer, Rice, Packard, Davis, Russell, C. Packard, S. E. Andrews and Woodard.

NATIONAL LEAQUE TWIRLER FOR COACH.

"Eddie" Murphy of Auburn, who for the past four years, has been the pitcher of the St. Louis Nationals has been engaged to coach the baseball team this season. The new coach has a national reputation as a pitcher and general all around player. His first experience in professional ball was in the Eastern League with Rochester. From there he went to Philadelphia and then to St . Louis. Murphy will start work with the pitchers on February 15. He will give the men the benefit of his experience on the diamond and he expects to turn out several good pitchers from the material at hand. All the men will be called out before the first of March.

ASSISTANT MANAGERS ELECTED

 TOMORROW.The election of assistant managers for the baseball and football teams will occur tomorrow. The following juniors are running for assistant baseball managership; William L. Chandler, David S. Rutty, William E. Barron, William E. Allis. The sophomores who are candidates for football manager are Orville E. Cummings and Harold D. Stephens.
The election promises to be hotly contested. The polls will open at chapel time and will close at $50^{\circ}$ clock.

NOTICES.

Election for assistant baseball manager and assistant football manager will be held in all the colleges Tuesday, February 7. The nominees for assistant baseball manager are: D. S. Rutty, William E. Barron, William T. Allis and W. L. Chandler. The nominees for assistant football manager are H . D. Stephens and O. E. Cummings.

Svracuse Daily Orange.
 Croton Street.

Change The Daily Orange rein Staff grets to announce the resignation of A. Stanley Copeland as business manager of the paper. Mr. Copeland, who graduated with the class of 1904, has received a flattering offer to go into business and he will leave college to accept. The work of business manager will be assumed by Lloyd L. Cheney, the edj-tort-in-chief, and the editorial and news department of the paper will be taken by Oscar J. Brown.
We cannot pass the opportunity now of saying a few words of the many which are due Mr . Copeland for the services which he has rendered to the Daily Or ange. He assumed the business managership a little over a year ago when the paper was in debt and almost a failure financially. In less than a few months the new manager had not only put the paper on its feet, but he had established it in a plant of its own where all the work could be done easier, cheaper and better than in a downtown office. With the plant came vast improvement in the appearance of the paper and also the facilities for publish ing the news.
Under his leadership the paper is now a success, out of debt, self supporting and one of the leading college dailies in the country. For these reasons we feel that we owe a debt to the retiring manager which cannot be paid in any material way. While we regret his retirement we wish him God-speed in his business career and express the confidence that the stick-to-itiveness which has made possible his success here will do as much for him in the business world. He has taken his "honorable discharge".

Fakirs The Fakirs are moving Active along. Everyone who has been in college long enough to know what a fake show is and what a success the shows have been in the past are glad to hear that the association is planning a show for this year. They promise that this is better and more original than either of the others and the characteristic energy with which they have started preparation certainly indicates that they intend, at least, to live up to their reputation.
Rumors are already ripe regarding the "Subway" attractions and the fake gallery, and everything indicates that even greater interest than ever is to be manifested in the coming afternoon and evening of carefree enjoyment.
The fake show has a place in college life. It is one of the "green spots" that a student will remember long after "math" and the classics are but shadowy forms and as such will be one of the many ties between Alma Mater and her sons.

DEATH OF A. A. HOWLETT.
Alfred A. Howlett, one of the benefactors and trustees of the University, died at his home in this city on January 31. Mr. Howlett was one of the oldest and best known business men of the city. He was born February 27, 1821, and has been continuously engaged in business enterprises since he became 21 years of age. His career at Syracuse has been an eventful one, having been prominently identified with a large namber of business concerns. He was elected one of the trustees of the University in 1880 and has continued a member of the board since that time. At the time of hís death he was third vice president of the board of trustees, In speaking of the death of Mr. Howlett, Chancellor Day said: "Mr. Howlett was one of our oldest and most profoundly respected trustees. He took a deep interest in the University from the beginning and gave the first one thousand dollars toward establishing it. Mr. Howlett became a trustee and for years has been one of our vice presidents. Before his health failed he was always present at the meetings of the board and took an active part. He gave liberally of his money from time to time and was greatly respected by all. During the last few years Mr. Howlett had not been with us but he kept in close touch with the University. He was a man of great strength and originality of character, self reliant and aggressive and had a great fund of native Yankee shrewdness. He had a larger view of affairs than would be indicated by his shrewdness. He was a man of wit and genial humor. He had a hearty relish of life and everybody who came in contact with him felt the force of his optimism. Personally I prized his counsels very highly and especially enjoyed my social interviews with him. There are now only two or three of the oldest trustees left and the removal of a man like Mr. Howlett makes a very sad and profound impression on the University constituent."

Public RECITAL.

The musical students of the College of Fine Arts gave their regularmonthly recital on Wednesday afternoon, February 1. Every seat in the hall was taken before the program commenced and a large number of people were turned away.
The program was an excellent one, the features being the rendition of Boellmand's "Suite Gothique" on the organ by Le Roy Wallace Chandler and the singing of "The Earth is the Lord's' Ralph Lamont Stilwell.

Harvard Professor Before Classical Club.
Dr. A. A. Howard, head professor of Latin in Harvard University, gave a lecture under the auspices of the Classical Club on "Elections and Electioneering Methods in Rome" on Thursday evening, February 2. Dr. Howard proved to be an interesting and entertaining speaker.

Williams Reads Shakspere.

George B. Williams read Shakspere's Henry the Fourth very entertainingly before a large audience in Assembly Mal Friday evening. Much Ado About Nothing tomorrow evening. A number of students are Professor Lesey's guests at the readings.

PRINCETON GAME WILL BE PLAY. ED ON THE HILL.
Next Thursday night the Princeton basketball team will line up against the Orange five for the first time in the history of the two institutions. The game, however, will be played in the gymnasium and not at the Alhambra as was at first planned. Manager Rice regrets very much that hs is unable to hold the game at some place where a larger crowd might attend. The Chancellor objected to the contest taking place at the Alhambra on the grounds that all athletic events of the Univer. sity should be held on the hill and that we should not go down town to play.
Princeton has had a very successful season thus far, having lost but one game and that to Yale by a close score. The result of their schedule as far as played is as follows:
Princeton 26; Fordham 16.
" 14; West Point 5.
" 35; Swathmore 19.
" 29; Cornell 23.
37; Pennsylvania 35.
13; Yale 17.

bEST SENOR WEEK EVEE ARRANEED

Plans Completed for Full Week of Gayety.

During the examination week plans have been maturing for what will probably be the greatest Senior Week in the history of the function. The Senior reception will be conducted on somewhat different lines meant to improve the event, the Glee Club coneert promises to be of exceptional value and the fraternity functions planned are more claborate than ever.
The crowning feature of the week will be the reception given by Phi Kappa Alpha on Thursday evening, Febuury 16 at the Alhambra. The decorations are to be in charge of the different fraternities who will fcllow the usual custom of occuppying boxes around the walls of the room. There will be twelve boxes in all, one for each one of the fraternities, the Orange Club and Phi Kappa Alpha. The boxes will be elaborately decorated in the fraternity colors. The Phi Kappa Alpha box will be placed at the disposal of the neutrals. Buth a band and an orchestra have been engaged to furnish the music and an excellent musical program is assured. The programs for the affair have been ordered. They are of durable black leather, stamped with the university seal on the front and the Phi Kappa Alpla key on the back. Inside will be the program and a picture of the Hall of Languages. The program includes 24 regular numbers and 6 extras. During the intermission either the band or or the orchestra will play ior the "blind" extras. The patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. F. H. Hiscock, Mrs. G. H. Bond, Mrs. B. J. Shove, Mrs. W. A. Groat, Mrs. F. R. Hazard, Mrs. W. B. Kirk, Mrs. G. F. Larrabae, Mrs. Wilham Nottingham, Mrs A. R. Peek. Mrs. L. C. Smith and Mrs. Lamont Stilwell. Tickets for the Glee Club Concert, Tuesiay evening have beenselling fast. The management believes that every seat will be taken on the night of the concert. 'The seats will be reserved begrining Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Jun Crouse College. They will be on sale there every morning from 10 to 12 and every atternoon at Dwight's from 2 to 4.
It is expected that there will be considerable strife among the fraternities to secure the best seats. One person will be allowed to reserve as many seats as he pleases but no seats ane to be reservea before the hour set.
The fraternity functions this year are of greater number and more elaborate than ever batore. Psi Upsilon leads in the affairs plamed for the week. On Monday evening they will have a reception in honor of the refitting of their rooms. Invitations have been issued to all the fraternities, sororities on the hill and to many city people. On Wednesday,evening, the night which has been designated by common consent "First Night" they will give a ball at the chapter house. It is rumored that the engagement of one of their recent graduates will be announced at that time.
The only other fraternity to plan for two functions is Beta Theta Pi.
The Beta men are to have an informal lunch at the chapter house after the concert and then on Wednesday evening they will give a party at the house. Phi Kappa Psi is to give a dance at the chapter house Wednesday evening and Phi Gamma Deita is to hold its fraternity party at the same time.
Delta Kappa Epsilon will hold their annual dinner dance at their chapter house. This affair was so successful last year that the men are to repeat it in substansially the same mamer. An extensive course dinner will be served early in the evening and a dance program of some twenty numbers will be given.
Phi Delta Theta is to depart from precedent of the other fraternitits and hodd their party on Monday evening at Assembly Hall. The hall which is ordinarily a pretty one will be specially decorated for the occasion.
Sigma Chi will entertain on Wednes, day evening.

debate trials this week.

The preliminary trials for the debate teams will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The trials will take on the nature of a debate on the question to be discussed in the debates, namely: "Resolved, That the Sherman anti-trust law as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in the Northern Securities case is hostile to the economic interests of the United States."
Fifteen men are entered for the trials and have been divided into six teams, two teams competing each day. The men will be selected by a committee of five professors. The teams are: Thursday, February 9, affirmative, Spriggs, Wemett, Patterson; negative, Heal, Hook, Farrington; Friday, February 10, affirmative, Cheney, Baldrey; negative, Hartwell, Tressler, Croft; Saturlay, February 11, affirmative, Rice, Coit; negative, Campbell, Wells.

MAY PLAY WILLIAMSINFOOTBALL
Manager C. B. Griffith has returned from a trip through the East, where he has been looking up football games. The most import nt result of this trip is the probability of a game with Williams on September 30. As announced in yesterday's Orange. this is the date which has been reserved for Rochester, The committee will decide between the two teams in a few days. Williams will probably be accepted.
No game could be arranged with Amherst or Union. The arrangements for the Hamilton game are completed.

Only one student tried the Rhodes scholarship examinations at Columbia.

Place in The announcement that Ithaca Professor Perley 0. Place has been honored by being chosen to address the teachers of Ithaca is a great honor to the University, with the faculty of Cornell so near at hand. It shows that the faculty of Syracuse are being recognized as on a par with the great universities. This recognition of Professor Place's abilities is not at all misplaced.

Football The schedule for the Schedule Syracuse University football team for next season promises to be the best that any football team representing the institution has had in some time. Every game that has been arranged for so far is one that will be worth seeing and one that will draw a crowd, both of University supporters and city people. Every team on the schedule and every one with whom correspondence is going on relative to arranging a date are opponents worthy of our steel. The early games of the season are with colleges who do not put out the football teams that Syracuse is capable of producing, yet they will put up a hard fight and they have the reputation of doing it as gentlemen should.
The football committee and the manager should be congratulated on the manifest improvements they have made in the schedule.
They have been aided in their efforts by a number of the city alumni who have freely given their efforts toward making next year a banner year in football.
The first and one of the most noticeable improvements is the substitution of nearby college teams of some standing for the minor teams which have formerly made up the first portion of the season's schedule. This is most satisfactory from more than one point of view. It assures us opponents who will play a gentlemanly and clean game, and it assures much better practice for our own team than if the opposing team played a schoolboy game where any individual could run away almost at will and make a score.
Another noticeable change over last year's schedule is the change in the date of the Colgate game. Last year every football enthusiast in college cared more about winning from Colgate than from almost any other ream on the schedule. The unexpected defeat at her hands the year before made it imperative that we should redeem ourselves. For this reason everyone regretted the misunderstanding that placed the game the first one of the hard games and the same reason, strengthened by the bitter experience of last year, gives us cause for rejoicing when we find that the game has been placed at a time when both teams will, undoubtedly, be in better shape to have a contest in every respect worthy of the game and the colleges represented.
In speaking of the schedule we cannot but congratulate the football committee on their change of policy in regard to the giving out of news concerning the negotiation for games. The students are interested in the arrangements that are being made for their teams and they can and do treat the knowledge which is rightfully theirs in the proper manner. We are glad to see that this same policy is spreading to the track committee and we hope that all the athletic authorities of the institution will use the students in the same way as far as possible.

The committees have all been appointed and have started work on the special features. During the evening a "Big Show' in the nature of a comedy or farce is to be given. This will be performed twice during the evening to accomodate the crowds which are already assured. The "Subway" is the name de'egated to the side show alley and it promises to surpass all the former shows in the startling and original features which it will display. All the Fine Arts students are behind the movement.

ROSE A PERFECT MAN.

Ralph Rose, the first 'perfect man physicaly" ever at the University of Michigan, has earned his hour of glory. On the anthropometric chart he gets the ' 100 ' mark for all his measurements. He is the bright consummate flower of symmetry and muscularity. Height, six feet three; weight, 246 pounds; chest, expanded, 47.6 inches; right arm, up, fifteen inches; right arm, down, fourteen inches; right forearm, 12.6 inches-but we sha'n't give a detaited catalogue of his perfections; and it is to be observed that he weighs forty-six pounds more than Tom Reed said any gentleman does weigh. Which shows Tom's prejudice. To be nineteen years old and physically "perfect" is a big lump of good fortune; and we hope that Ralph's intellectuals will be so exercised as to match that perfec-tion.--"With the Procession," Everybody's Magazine for February.

COLGATE DNUSS  ORAMGE FIVE

Syracuse is Played to a Standstill in Uneven Contest.

Hamilton, N. Y., Feb. 7. -The Syracuse University basketball team was defeated bere this evening at the hands of the Colgate University five by a score of 38 to 16 . The local men started the play with a rush and with the exception of one or two slight rallies whin the Orange term did some brilliant playing, the outcome was not at all in doubt.
The visiting team was somewhat demoralized by its defeat by Hamilton last evening with a score of 10 to 16, and by the absence of Redle:n, the regular left forward.
The local team played together much better than the visitors and profited by their team work. The individual work of the members of the Orange five was good. Brigham and Runge were the star: for the home team and Powellfor the visitors. About 200 saw the game.

BAKER SPEAKS TO STUDENTS.

Professor George P. Baker, who is to lecture on 'Marlowe, Shakspere's Mas ter" in Assembly Hall, University Block, this evening, spoke before Professor Lasey's classes in Shakspere and Forensics yesterday morning. He was well received by the students. Before the Shakspere class he spoke of the growth of the great dramatist's ability and before the class in Forensics he spoke of the principles of argumentation.
Professor Baker will be present at ehapel this morning and will deliver his lecture this evening under the auspices of the Debating Union. Mr. Baker has many friends in the city and a large aulience is assured. The students are taking advantage of the opportunity of hearing an authority on Shakspere and the tickets have had a large salo.

SENIOR ELECTION.

There will be a meeting of the senior class at 4 p. m. on Wednesday, February 15, in room 33-34, Hall of Languages. At this time will occur the election of officers for class day. - Floyd M. Fernald, President.

Sophomore Problem.

The sophomore architects are at work on a new problem, a public restaurant for a park of a city.
There will be a meeting of the 1905 Onondagan Board in the Dean's office at 12 o'clock today.-Arthur F. Rider.
The reception by the Huntington Society which was to have been given at Westminster Hall this evening is indefinitely postponed.

Election Frauds.

Editor Daily Orange:
During today's election I was a watcher for one of the candidates for one of the candidates for assistant football manager. I wish to call the attention of my fellow-students to a number of frauds which Idetected in the course of the election. I am not doing this because I am dissatisfied with the results of the election, as $I$ am assured my candidate is elected, but because I think that the practices were dishonest and something which should not be tolerated at this University.
Daring the afternoon I found by an examination of the lists of voters in the College of Fine Arts the name of one girl entered three times and by looking over the lists in the College of Liberal Arts I found that the same girl had voted there. I also have the testimony of the poll clerk at the Hall of Languages that she was a Fine Arts student and that one of the clerks ob. jected to receiving her ballot.
This lead me to investigate. I found without much trouble that there were three other girls in Crouse College who had voted at least twice under their own name and two others who had voted in both colleges. In the last case the names are those which appear but once in the registration lists of the University. In the first case there are two girls of the name entered but only one whose initials correspond with any of the similar names on the voting list. I send the names to you on the back of this letter. You may publish them if you wish.
I do not think that there was enough fraud to throw the election one way or another, but the fraud existed, nevertheless. I wish to make no comment but simply to state the facts.

SEnior,
Syracuse University,
February 6, 1905.
Note.-A comparison of the poll list with the names sent in this communication proved that the charges are substantially correct. - Edrrok.

A Study of Labor Organizations.

A course in Labor Unions is to be offered by the Political Economy department this semester. This course, Political Economy VII, offers an opportunity to those who wish to get a clear insight into the greatest social problem of modern times, namely-labor and capital. It will be given entirely by practical men who are actually engaged in the struggle between laberers and employees. Representatives of the labor unions and employing class in the several industries will appear before the class and state the case from their own point of view. The course will be given Monday and Wednesday at 12. The public is invited to attend.

LOWE CHOSEN ASSISTANT COACH

Former'Varsity Star will Aid Coach Hutchins With Track Men.

The Athletic Governing Board has chosen William C. Lowe '03 as assistant track coach for the coming season. The selection of Lowe meets with the general approval of the alumni and student body.
Lowe entered the University in 1899, taking the philosophical course, and graduated in the class of 1903. Last year he received his master's degree. During his college course he was conceded to be one of the best athletes in college. He holds the college record for the high jump, with a leap of 6 feet $17-8$ inches. He was also one of the fastest hurdlers ever in college. He represented the University four years at Mott Haven and Philadelphia, taking first and second places each year.
Lowe is at present an instructor in the German department, which position he has held since his graduation. His home was formerly in Buffalo, though he at present resides in this city.

TRACK PRACTICE.

Sixty men reported to Coach C. P. Hutchins yesterday afternoon at the gymnasium to commence regular spring training for track work. Twenty-five of these were men who had not previously reported to Captain Robertson.
Yesterday was the first time the coach had met the men, but he entered into the work in such a manner as to inspire vim in bis pupils at the very outset. He goes at the matter in much the same manner as in his football training. It is not only his coaching ability and his experience as a trainer that he uses to advantage, bu he puts his whole personality iuto his work.
The first day's training consisted of light gymnastic work. He put the men through Swedish exercises. Some of the work consisted of a running jump off a spring-board onto a heavy mat, and parallel bar work which tends to lengthen and limber up the muscles.. The practice ended with a short run on the track. The coach was assisted by ex-Captain W. C. Lowe who will assist in coaching this year's squad.
The coach expressed himself s well pleased with the number of men who reported. Besides the present training hour at 50 'clock Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, the coach is endeavoring to arrange some hour in the afternoon, either at 12 or $20^{\prime}$ clock, when the men who have laboratory work at $50^{\prime}$ 'clock can report.
Many seniors are saving money by having their Onondagan cuts printed on a suitable card at the Orange Print Shop, for use in place of expensive photographs in teachers' agency correspondence.

MEDIC BOX MISSING.

The ballot box used in the election at the Medical College yesterday has dis appeared. Whether it has been stolen by some friends of the different candidates or whether it is just missing is unknown. The board refused to give out the result, as the Medical College may change the result of the election. From this it is thought that the election is close.

Notices.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Candidates The number of nen Needed who have reported for crew and who have entered their names as candidates for the track team is not at all what it should be. Thirty freshmen can never turn out the crew that Syracuse University ought to put on the water nor can less than that number of freshmen give to the track team the new material that it needs so badly. One fact is patent, the men are not turning out as they should. Experience teaches us that not all of them are holding back for baseball, even if we have the good fortune to have a coach with a national reputation.
With the brilliant record that our crews made last year we ought to have a hundred candidates for the freshman boat. Instead of a hundred, twentyseven reported the first day and several more have come out since. It is true that there are an exceptional sumber of good men among the few that are out, but that does not do away sith the fact that they are few in numbers.

As an exercise rowing is unsurpassed and the individual man is benefited even beyond the feeling he has that he is laboring for his university, her name and fame. Crew work is a long hard grind, but not one of the men who have rowed will say that it is not time well spent. It always comes at a certain time of the day and, unlike track, must be taken then or not at all. For this reason we can see why some men cannot find the time to come out for the crew, but what the excuse may be for track we do not know.
Track work is different from any other branch of athletics. Individual work counts there as it does not anywhere else. In other sports men are needed either to take the bumps, as in football, or to make up the team in order to have practice, as in baseball. In track the men can work alone with the coach and accomplish nearly as good results as with others. Track work takes less time than any other branch of sport and in track athletics, where a man not fitted by experience and build for any other sport, may make something of himself by hard work. Here, at least, the freshmen ought to feel able to at least try for something. That a freshman and every other student who is healthy should get into some branch of athletics is a settled fact in this institution. The entire faculty from the Chancellor and Dean down are strong for it and when we hear the Chancellor tell of his own practical gymnastics we have to believe that he is strong because of it. Freshmen ! come out and strengthen the team. We need you; you need the exercise.

Pros and Cons.

One of the most valuable books for the aid of the student who is interested in debating is that called Pros and Cons, published by Hinds, Noble & Eldredge. It contains full discussions of both sides of a large number of live questions, outlines many others, and gives 250 questions for debate. The volume will be of great help, especially to the beginner in debate and is a volume which no debater can afford to be without.

Tennis Challenges for Davis Trophy.
At a meetirg of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association held at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, February 3, 1905, it was decided to send a challenge for the Davis National Trophy, at present held by England. There was a very large attendance and much business of importance was transacted. The most important action was the adoption of the official ball which will be used in all games, and the Wright & Ditson tennis ball was again adopted as the official ball for 1905. The following are the officers elected: President. James Dwight; vice president, R. D. Wrenn, treasurer, Richard Stevens; secretary, Palmer Presbey, executive committee, W. A. Larned, Malcom Whitman, Dwight F. Davis, Kreigh Collins, R. D. Little, W. A. Clothier, Hoicombe Ward and the officers, ex-officio.

Fakirs Offer Prizes.

The Fine Arts Fakirs have offered three prizes for copy for the catalogue. The first prize is for a cover design, the second for a literary production and the third for a humorous drawing. The competition is in charge of Miss Kassing.
The catalogue planned is said to be a marvel of the Fakirs' art, and that, to say the least, means many a laugh.
A special feature of the exhibition this year is to be a large triumphal arch in the music hall. This will be to commemorate the fourth successful show given by the Fakirs. The arch is to be on much the same order as the ancient arches and will have a girdle of statuary around the top. When asked whether the figures would represent ancient heroes or modern and nearby ones they refused to say anything other than "Come and see."

Tutoring by the Faculty.
Editor Daily Orange:
The result of the semester's examinations has caused a great deal of discussion among the students as to the merits of the present system of tutoring. It is a common thing to hear a student say that if he had but tutored an hour or so more he might have passed. Whether or not this is true is hard to say.
Under the present system a student takes up his work under the guidance of a college professor, one who is supposed to present his work in a logical and intelligent manner. After a few lessons the student is called to the office and informed that his work is not up to the standard and that he must have a tutor. Naturally enough, as long as the instructor is permitted to do the work, he will be chosen. The tudent tutors for the remainder of the term or unti he is up with the class. Just before the examinations the instructor will have a number of such students enrolled. Now it seems but natural that he should give on his examination that which he emphasized most. It also seems but juman that after looking over his paper, he should feel that the pupils knew the subject but were "nervous etc.", therefore he would give him a-chance at a special examination, which, of course, would necessitate a few more lessons at one dollar each.
It seems but just to all that the teacher should confine his instruction to the class room. If a student enters the Unipersity and his qualifications are (Continued on page 4.)

The Princeton basketball five will meet the Syracuse University team this evening for the first time in the history of the two institutions. The game is being looked forward to with more interest than any other game of the season. Not only are the students interested, but a large number of Princeton alumni in town have become interested in the game. The sale of tickets has been brisk and indicative of a good crowd.
The defeats early in the week have not discouraged the men and they feel fairly certan of a victory. The team is not looking for a walkover, however, and expects to play the game right from the sound of the whistle. The probable lineup will be: Syracuse.

Election The communication pubFrauds lished yesterday morning has forced an issue. Frauds have occurred before, but they have generally lacked proof. This one is straight from the shoulder and exposes a condition of things which, as the writer says, should not exist at this University.
It is, probable that the frauds were not extensive enough to turn the election in favor of any defeated candidate. A new election probably would not change the result. We should, however, provide against the repetition of such conduct in the future.
No charges have been made of any misconduct except where the girls voted in large numbers. We still have faith enough in the women of this institution to think that their conduct was not altogether on their own initiative but at the request, perhaps very urgent request, of some particular friend. The doing away of electioneering among the women night put a stop to this and woull be an excellent thing for future elections, as it would be if all electioneering could be stopped. This, however, is not practical. If anything is done it must be feasible and fair to all candidates.
The best remedy would be to have a list of all the students entitled to vote and as fast as one votes check off the name. In this way there will be no danger of any repeating or of voting in the wrong college. This plan is tried in the Medical College and is eminently successful.
The lists of all upperclassmen and sophomores could be taken from the catalogue and a list of freshmen could be obtained from the registrar without much difficulty. This is the easiest and most practical way of settling the difficulty. The election just passed was crooked and a disgrace to the University. Let's remove the disgrace.

Geology Department Gets Specimens The Geology Department has the promise of a fine collection of tourmalines and other precious stones from a Boston mining company. The collection will be loaned to the University with the privilege of purchase at a reduced rate.
Syracuse University is the only college outside of Boston to which this favor has been granted. It is a well merited recognition of our size and importance. Professor Hopkins has just returned from Boston where hewent on the invitation of the company and while there was told to select from their immense collection just what he wants for Syracuse University.
One of the stockholders of this company is the president of one of the largest zine companies in the United States and he offered to send the University a collection of crystals from the Joplin zinc district.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI.
Miss Daysey Best '05 has left college on account of illness.
Miss Grace Sumner, '04-ex, who has been absent from college for some time because of illness, has resumed her studies.

TIGERS WIN HARD FOUGHT CONTEST

Princeton Won Game, Although Outplayed in Second Half.

The Princeton basketball five won one of the hardest games ever played in the gym last evehing with a score of 24 to 21. The local men lost their first game on their own floor in two years. Princeton was clarly the superior in the early part of the game, the seore at the end of the first period being 17 to 7 in their favor. In the second balf the Orange five worked as they never worked before and scored fourteen points, while the Tigers scored but seven. The ball was in Princeton territory almost all the second half.
The local team worked their hardest, but were not able to play their old time game. Had they played as they did aganst Yale earlier in the year the game would have been a much easier one and the score in favor of Syracuse with a comfortable margin.
The team was weakened by the loss of Stark, who has left college, and Redlein, who is in the hospital. Stark's old place was ably taken by Kinne.
The Princeton play in the first half was characterized by much better team work than their opponents. They were able to get the ball down the field with a succession of short passes which Syracuse was unable to stop. They proved especially fortunate in locating the basket, scoring six goals in the first half, while Syracuse scored but one.
The scoring was started by Syracuse, Powell getting two baskets from fouls by the Princeton men. Powell was in good form for free throws last evening, making seven of them in all.
The first basket from the field was not thrown until after nearly five minutes of play, when Princeton shot the ball through the ring. The play here was fast and furious. The men were beaded with perspiration but played all the harder for it. Time after time Princeton took the ball down the floor and ended up by dropping it into the basket. Syracuse sored during this time, but the scores were from fouls made by the over-eagerness of the Princeton players. It was not until after fifteen minutes of play that Syracuse got a field goal. This was made by Kinne on a bearatiful pass. The Syracuse supporters cheered the successful player to the echo and from that time until the end of the game there was a hubbub in the galleries. Despite their efforts the Orange five was able to score but one more point and the half closed with a score of 17 to 7 in favor of the Orang: and Black. Both teams came on the floor at the beginning of the second half with a determination not to be beaten. Either the determination of Syracuse was greater or else they had more ability to back it up, for they as clearly outplayed the New Jersey men as the New Jersey men outplayed them in the first half. Still, with this improvement they didn't play their best game and the spectators were somewhat disappointed. They cheered the team, however, as never basketball team was cheered in the gymnasium before, and the men worked and worked hard, although their efforts were rot as well rewarded as they might have been.
The first basket was made by Kime. This was followed by a number of chances to score, at least one going to each local player, but none of them were able to make good. Again and again the ball struck the edge of the basket and rebounded, always in the wrong way. Kirchgasser finally succeeded in landing one and after some fierce playing Powell got two, bringing the Orange score to 19.
In the meantime Princeton had made her score up to 24 and calls were heard on all sides for the extra five points. The Princeten supporters were as enthusiastic as the local men and the "Rah, Rah, Rah, Princeton" would fill in any lull in the Syracuse cheering. The extra five points were not forth coming and the game closed with a basket by Kirchgasser.
The summary:

LYMAN RALL PLANS

 NEARIY COMPIETEShape and Style of the Tower Changed to Suit Heirs.

The new plans for the tower of the Hall of Natural History to be erected on the campus in the spring are nearly completed. The tower, which is to rise two stories above the roof of the building, had to be changed to suit the desires of the heirs of John Lyman who are the executors of the Lyman estate, the beneficiary. This change is now being made and it is expected that the perspective will be completed either today or tomorrow. This perspective will have to be submitted to Mrs. Lyman for approval.
Architects Revels and Hollenbeck of the College of Fine Arts are to be the agents of the trustees in the building and they have already been receiving samples of different articles to be used in the construction of the building. The contractor's specifications have not yet been drawn up.
The announcement of the new building has brought much favorable comment from the alumni and friends of the University. The fact that the interior is to be finished better than most of the buildings of the University is a source of much gratification.
The entrance lobby is to be the Memorial Hall and will be ornamented with a memorial tablet and memorial windows. The pilasters and walls are to be marble covered and the marble floors will contribute to the rich effect of the hall itself. All the corridor floors are to be of marble and the room floors of wood with an underconstruetion of concrete, practically deadening the sound.
Each department housed in the building is to have a separate museum and in addition the department of biology will have an aquarium.
Work is to begin as early as the weather permits.
tickets have a laroe sale.
The sale of reserved seats for the Glee Clud concert opened yesterday morning at $100^{\prime}$ clock in the John Crause College of Fine Arts. Some dissatisfaction was expressed over the method as the men in line were allowed to reserve as many seats as they wished. As a result the first few men in line were able to take most of the desirable seats. Several had nearly seventy-five tickets.
The line began to form soon after five in the morning, but not many were out before $80^{\prime}$ clock. At that time there were five men in line, three fraternities being represented, Football The reports thas the a Crime states of North Dakota and Nebraska have bills pending in their legislatures making football a crime are at least interesting to the ordinary college student if not entirely in accordance with the ideas of the Eastern undergraduate. Football is certainly not a crime as played at this University or in most of the Eastern colleges. Either the lawmakers of these prairie states lack the blood of youth and vigor or else the Western game has taken upon it some of the characteristics which were associated with Western institutions of some years ago, the days of guns, knives and lariats. We had not heard that our college brethren in the West had gone into the game with pistols in their pockets or even without the pistols, that they had endeavored to kill or maim their opponents. And then to think that the lawmakers of Dakota will make the playing t of the game a state-prison offense!

Well, the bill isn't going to who fail to see that manly exer cise of every form involves an elementof danger which is really not greater in football than in a great number of sports. They cannot see that the greater benefit that a man would get from his exercise or sport the more energy and strength, both of muscle and will, he must put into it. These men, although in contest every day, fail utterly to see the value that honorable contests of every sort that will cultivate the do-ordie spirit are as a training that cannot be equalled in any other way. There have always been such men and no doubt there always will be. But still the advantages of football are great enough to uphold the game.
We have to go no further than our own college to see the results of the game. Last year upon our field nearly a hundred men were benefited in a way that no other sport or exercise could help them. Many of them-most of them, in fact-were strengthened to an extent that will be felt for years. All of them cultivated that inimitable spirit of determination and silent taking of hard knocks that cannot but be of immense service in any branch of life. All this to a hundred men at the cost of one small injury, a broken arm. This injury, too, can hardly be laid against the roughness of the game, as the injured man was hurt in one of the lightest plays of the season and in such a way that he might have caught his arm in the same position when wrestling. Besides the advantages to the individual are to be considered those to the University; the relaions with other institutions, the advantages which the students of one university get in acquaint. ance and fellowship with stu dents of another. These and many other benefits of a similar nature all have to be considered with the game of football. It is true that football is far from being as good as it might be; it is true that the game can and will be improved in many ways, but when it is to be prohibited altohen it is to be prohibited alto- pass. There are some people yet fense there is something to be

In addition to the prizes offered for the catalogue competition previously announced, the Fake Association offers a prize of three dollars and a medal for the best all-around Fake picture, a second prize of two dollars and a medal for the picture containing the most original idea, and a third prize of a medal for the best use of material in a picture. These pictures can be handed to the president or to the chairmen of tho various committees, and should be signed by a "nom de plume". A com. petent jury will be obtained to judge and pass sentence upon these pretures. There are also two prizes offered for the best costumes. To the "most fakic costume" first prize and to the "more fakic costume" second prize. In connection, the association wishes to state that the new eonstitutisn, adopted this year, contains a clause restrictirg the number taking part. Only members of the association or those receiving permission from the president and having a costume approved by the chairman of the costume committee, Miss Adsit, will be allowed to appear in costume. The members are those who have been voted into the association and have signed the constitution.

The Smallest College.
The smallest university in the world has just commenced its twenty-third year of active work. This is the American Classical University of Athens, and the unprecedented total of six students is sufficient evidence of its popularity. The scholars are all Americans, engaged in classical research work, and a notable fact about this student body is that each one holds a fellowship. Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Smith, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Wesleyan University are represented.

COIGATE GAME

THIS EVENNG

A Hard Contest is Ex-pected---Redlein Will Play.

This evening the 'Varsity basketball team will meet Colgate in the gymasjum. This is the second game between the two institutions this season, the first being played at Hamilton on Feb ruary 7. Syracuse sent a very much crippled team to Hamilton, and consequently lost the game by a score of 38 to 16.
This evening's contest promises to be one of the most exciting and hardest fought games of the season. The fact that Colgate has once defeated Syracuse makes an increased interest in tonight's game. The Syracuse men will be in much $b$ tter condition than at the time they played at Hamilton. The loss of Stark and Redlein has been keenly felt. Students will be interested to know, however, that Redlein has sufficiently recovered to play in tonight's game. Colgate has a very strong team this year, having defeated Yale, Brown, Hamilton and Company E.
The probable line-up this evening will he as follows:
Syracuse.
Colgate.
Right forward.
Kirchgasser....................Runge (capt)

> Left forward.

Redlein...................................Brooks
Center.
Powell (capt).......................... Knapp Right guard.
Kinne or Dollard.......................Greene
V. V. Roseboro or Mr. Sherman of Hamilton will officiate.
There will be a preliminary game between the second team and Gazenovia Stminary. This first game will begin at $7: 450^{\prime}$ clock.
Tonight's game is the last the 'Varsty will play before leaving for the eastern trip. The team leaves the city next Wednesday afternson, and will play four games on the trip. The game scheduled with Wesleyan for February 20 has been cancelled and the management has been unable to fill the date. On February 16, Syracuse will meet Williams; on the 17th Amherst; on the 18th Trinity, and on the 21st Brown. Only one more game is scheduled to be played at Syracuse, and that with Allegheny on May 4.

DR. KENT TO SPEAK.

The meeting tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of John Crouse College will be addressed by Rev. Sandy Kent, D. D, of London, England. Doctor Kent, who is traveling in this country for his healrh, is a leader in the Free Will Baptist Church in England. He is a finished orator and his address will be well worth hearing.

Bible Study Conference.

A Bible Study conference will be held in the Dean's lecture room of John Crouse College this afternoon from 3 to 5 , under the auspices of the Christian Associations. 0. F. Gardner, Princeton ' 00 , one of the most popular men of his class in college, will preside. The program arranged is as follows: "Methods for Maintaining Attendance," R. M. Hersey; "Personal Bible Study," Jennie W od, "Principles of Teaching," R. A. Waite, Jr.; "Bible Study and Evangelism," M. Willis Greenfield.
All students who are interested in Bible study are invited to attend. At present the Christian Associatious are maintaining eleven classes in Bible study, enrolling about three hundred students.

SENIOR WEEK PLANS
Elaborate Preparations Are Being Made For Every Event.
Senior Week is almost at hand and the various organizations on the hill that expect to celebrate the event are busily engaged making preparations. Social events begin Monday and continue throughout the week. Nearly all the fraternities are making preparations for functions during the week.
On Monday evening Phi Kappa Psi will entertain at their chapter house in College Place. On the same evening Phi Delta Theta will give a party at Freeman Hall. Psi Upsilon will hold a reception upon this evening in honor of the refitting of the chapter house.
The annual city concert of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs will be held in John Crouse College Tuesday evening. This concert promises to be one of the best ever given by the University Clubs. Hoth the Glee and Instrumental Clubs are practicing daily this week and will be prepared to render an excellent program. The sale of seats has already been very large. The lists of patronesses and guests of honor were given in a recent issue of the Orange. On Wednesday evening Delta Kappa Epsilon will give a dinner dance at the chapter house. Psi Upsilon, Beta Theta Pi, Pin Gamma Delta and Sigma Chi will also entertain on Wednesday evening. Delta Upsilon and Beta Theta will each give an informal party after the Glee Club concert Tuesday evening. The principal event of the week will be the Senior Reception which will be held at the Alhambra on Thursday evening, under the auspices of Phi Kappa Alpha. All of the fraternities are making elaborate preparations for this event. The various boxes have now been chosen. Beginning at the north end of the west side the fraternity boxes will be arranged as follows: Phi Kappa Psi, 'Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Psi Upsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon; beginning at the north end of the east side the boxes will be: Delta Upsion, Zeta Psi, Beta Theta Pi, Orange Club, Sigma Chi. The Phi Kappa Alpha box will be at the north end of the hall, directly in front of the stage. It is expected that the boxes will be decorated more elaborately than ever before. The reception will begin promptly at eight o'clock this year.

Special English supplementary examination upon payment of fee, unless especially remitted, will be held in room 60 at $4 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Monday, Feb. 13. Those students who wish to take this examination must report their intention to the Dean. -J, M. Richards.

PROFESSOR LOSEY AT COLGATE Professor Losey read Macbeth at the Colgate Acadeny on the evening of February 4. In speaking of his reading, the last issue of the Colgate Academy Academe says:
"The Losey reading in the Academy chapel on Saturday night was a great success in every way. The chapel was filled with an eager crowd, many of whom had heard Mr. and Mrs. Losey in their former visit to Hamilton just three years ago that Saturday night. Mr. Losey said he would give what he considered the meaning of Shakspere's great tragedy, that while all might not agree with him, he would hold to his own interpretation.
"All who have heard the reader once will not miss the chance to hear him a second time. From the very first scene in act one the audience were held by the masterful way the characters were presented. The Weird Sisters were given in a way to send cold chills through the bones. In the third appearance of the Witches the audience could almost see the ingredients as they were mentioned and thrown into the caldron. Macbeth and Macduff were the best impersonations."

IN OTHER COLLEGES.

ORANGE WINS BETUNA GAME

Basketball Team Evens

It Up With Colgate

For Recent Defeat.

Saturday night in the gymnasium Syracuse took revenge on Colgate for the defeat which their basketball team administered to the Orange five last Tuesday at Hamilton.
The difference in the scores, that at Hamilton being 34 to 18 , while that of Saturday evening was 36 to 31 , was undoubtedly due to the fact that in the lasi game Syracuse not only played on her own floor but also that Redline was able to take his own position as forward. The game equaled in speed any played on the hill this season, and from the spectator's point of view was the most interesting. Unlike the Yale game, Syracuse was always in the lead. Colgate played an open game, making long shots for the basket with remarkable success.
The game started with plenty of ambition on each side, but with the beginning of the second half roughness characterized the play. Dollard had to leave the floor because of an injured ankle and several of the Colgate men were "none the better for wear."
Syracuse never played; a stronger, more consistent game. Every man did hims lf credit and Housekneeht was par icularly fortunate. He never has played better basketball than he did on Saturday night. Dollard also was in the game every minute. He threw three baskets before having to leave the floor on account of his injury. Rieht, who took Dollard's place, made a basket in less than thirty seconds.
Knapp, for Colgate, is one of the best men for throwing goals from fouls ever seen here. He threw five out of eight trials. One of the failures Runge turned into two points by catching the ball as it bounded back from the basket and dropping it prettily into the net.
Hoth fives displayed splendid team work; the passing was excellent. When either team obtained the ball the other side found it extremely difficult to break up the play.
Each team made eight fonls, five of which netted points for Colgate and four netted points for Syracuse.
The game opened with a basket by Powell. Knapp immediately tied the score for Colgate; Dollard added two more points for Syracuse, which Runge equaled for Colgate. Syracuse then scored six more points before Colgate obtained another point on a foul and followed that by two field goals. During the half Syracuse scored five more field gouls and one point from a foul. Colgate threw three more goals from the field and made two points on fouls. The half ended with the score 21 to 17 in Sy:acuse's favor.
Between the halves the visitors changed their white jerseys for maroon so as not to be confused by the similarity in color between those worn by the two teams in the first half.
The second half opened with each team determined to win. At one time Colgate tied the score, 31 to 31. The excitement was intense. The little cluster of Colgate men cheered on their team, but Colgate had scored its last point. Redlein threw a goal on a foul, and two field gnals, one each by Powell and Redlein, closed the most important game for Syracuse of the season.

second team wins its game.
As a preliminary game the Cazenovia Seminary five and the 'Varsity second team played a very exciting game The Syracuse team won by the score of 18 to 15 . This is the first time that the seminary five has been defeated in two years, with the exception of the game with the 'Varsity last year. They have defeated the second team at Cazenovia earlier this season.

Class of '07 Successfully Holds Banquet on Saturday Evening.

After much careful planning by the committee in charge the date of the sophomore banquet was set for Saturday night and the word was passed among the second year students. A large notice calling for a meeting of the sophomore class next Monday afternoon misled the first year class. At 7:30 o'clock the banqueters commenced to arrive at the Empire Hotel and continued to do so until the time set for the banquet, without the least opposition or disturbance from the freshmen. The first year men seemed to be very conspicuous by their absence; nut a one put in an appearance, either from a lack of information, courage or class spirit. The evening, as far as freshmen were concerned, passed off as quietly as "a midsummer's night in June."
At $90^{\prime}$ clock about seventy-five sophomores took their seats at the banquet table. One table was reserved for the freshman crew of 1907 and Coach Ten Eyck, who, with Miss Jeannette Scott and Professor G. F. Fairfield, were the guests of honor. After a very elaborate banquet was served the following toast list was listened to:

Coach Ten Eyck and Professor Fairfield were called upon for impromptu speeches. The crew song and other college songs were sung during the evening.
At 12 o'clock the banquet broke up and the sophomores started for the hill rejoicing at the success of the affair and at their easy escape from the freshmen.

aLEE CLUB CONCERT.

Everything points toward a very successful Glee Club concert tomorrow evening. Over five hundred tickets have already been sold and seats may be reserved at $100^{\prime}$ clock today and tomorrow at John Crouse College.
The concert will commence promptly at $8: 15$ o'clock. This year there will be more numbers than usual on the program. One of the best numbers will be the solo "Danny Deever," sung by Birney Pettigrue, followed by the chorus by the Glee Club.
The ushers tomorrow evening will be Clement T. Robertson, Dwight G. Stone, Harry Terry, Arthur L. Wag ner, Ellis H. Gidley and Jesse C. Peck

Elections There has been more or less discussion around the University during the past month or two concerning the present methods of conducting elections. It is perfectly clear that the system used here is far from what it should be. When the total vote cast in a particular college far exceeds the tutal number of students registered in that same college, we cannot but conclude that there is something radically wrong and that a stringent remedy is needed. When we consider that often the same persons vote two or three times; that people vote who are not registered in any college; that candidates or others are gixen any number of ballots which they may fill out and pass around to their friends; when we consider all of these and many other similar disgraceful acts which might be mentioned, we are still further impressed with the necessity of a remedy.
There is no qualification for suffrage, except that the voter come to the ballot box and receive the ballot. And we are not even sure that this qualification is always enforced. People vote who know nothing about the candidates. Under such conditions how is there any certainty that the best man will be elected? It has been our experience in the elections for the past year or two that there was always a deplorable lack of nominations. Calls had to be issued several times, and elections repentelly post both poned And che We hope, however poned. And then the Athletic that this matter will be consid-Governing Board, as well as oth- ered by the proper authorities, ers, lament that the students and that before another general have so little interest in athletics election comes these manifest that a sufficient number of can- evils will be removed.
didates do not come out. They wonder why men do not desire the nominations. It is rather our wonder that as many candidates come out as there do, when they know that they may be defeated by the grossest frauds.
A remedy is needed. What it shall be is not within our province to decide. But we believe, however, that elections at Syracuse will never be conducted upon a fair basis until cercain new elements are brought to bear. Instead of the poll clerks writing down the name of each student who votes, there should be a list of names of those eligible from which the voter's name could be checked. This list should be furnished by the registrar or some other competent authority and should contain only the names of bona fide students. There should be some different arrangement for attending the polls. At present, two candidates each have a man at the polls for particular hours. We do not believe this is the best arrangement. The polls should either be under some neutral supervision, or every candidate should have a representative at each polling place during all the time the polls are open.

We also believe there should be some eligibility rules. Not discrimination, but rules which will do away with so much electioneering, and insure the best candidate's election. It is well known that there is a great floating vote in college--those who do not know the candidates, and vote where the greatest inducement is offered. It would seem to be perfectly fair to all if students who had not been in college at least one semester were deprived of the right of suffrage. It is a serious question whether or not the women should be allowed to vote, and one upon which we do not care to pass judgment at the present time. There are many arguments upon both sides. We hope, however, and that before another general election comes these manifest

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI

Quite a number of recent Syracuse graduates are now connected with the H. H. Franklin Manufacturing company, the big automobile concern of this city Among them are Orlo D. Blanchard, '01, the Commodore of the crew, who is chief clerk in the cost department, George E. Quick, '02, in the engineering department; and F. W. Kitson, '04, in the cost department. The concern now employs 800 men and is rnnning day and night.
The Now York Tribune last Sunday puibished a prize symposium on the benefits of college fraternities. It contained om article on the subject by T. D. McGregor, '02, representing Syra. cuse University.
W. G. Siddell '02, who is principal of the High School at West Winfield, N. Y., was visiting friends on the hill Saturday.
Frederick P. Comfort '94, now of New York City, was calling on friends in Syracuse last week.
Harry E. Elden '03, principal of the Elbridge High School, visited at the Phi Kappa P'si house Saturday.
Stauley G. Brooks, the genial jewery man, made his annual call upon the fraternities Friday and Saturday.
Miss Mertie Ehle ex-'06, preceptress of the Schenevus High School, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends on the hill.
C. P. Morse ex-04, who ha been ill for several months, has returned to his work in this city with Collier's Weekly.
The Rev. C. H. Mix ex-'98, of ClifLondale, Mass., has been offered the pastorate of the First Congregational Church of Lowell, Mass., and also of the Pilgrim Congregational Church at Worcester. Each church offers a salary of $$ 3,000$. Mr. Mix was formerly president of the Y. M. C. A. and is well known among Y. M. C. A. workers of the University and city.

medical colleae notes.

Eugene L. Dalton '08 has entirely recovered from a severe attack of tonsilitis and has resumed work after a week's absence.
At a class meeting Saturday morning the first year class voted to ho'd an informal smoker in the near future. Mr. McBirney was appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements. A short toast list will be provided and members of the faculty will be invited to attend. It is a general sentiment among the students that this gathering will do mnch toward promoting enthus iasm and spirit among the Medics.
Acting Dean Clark has asked the students of the Medical College to consider the appointment of a student rommittee, composed of one member from each class, which will act as the official representative body of the students in all cases where the students and faculty are concerned. It has met with hearty approval.

The Syracuse Alumnae Clnb of Pi Beta Phi entertained the New York Alpha chapter Saturday evening at the home of Miss Leola Sherwood in South State Street. The event was in honor of the ninth anniversary of the establishment of the local chapter.

GLEE CIUB GIVES

 CONCEST TONGHILarge Sale of Seats for Annual Event in Crouse College.

The anmual city concert of the Glec and Instrumental Clubs will be held in John Crouse College this evening as the musical event of Senior Week. There has been a large sale of seats for the concert and indications point toward the usual brilliant assemblage to hear the musical organizations. Both clubs have been practicing daily for two weeks and the leaders promise a better concert than has been given in some years.
The various fraternitics have reserved blows of seats, so that they will each sit in a body with their guests.
The program as arranged is an excellent one. Birney Petigrue '07, who sang a solo part in "Stabat Mater" last year, will be heard in Tannhauser's "Evening Star;" Philip Hensel will sing the "Roses," and the Instrumental Clubs will render, among others, "The Jolly General."
The local hits which are to be given in dialect by Harry W. Farrington ' 07 are boing looked forward to with pleasure. Those who heard Mr. Farrington at the crew mass meeting were surprised at his capabilities in the rendering of original dialect production and they expect him to be even better this evening. The program in full follows:

Notices.

There will be a meeting of the junior class Tuesday, February 21, to elect officers for the second semester - Rass Anderson, President.

Sophomores who are deficient in the payment of the $2 ;$ cents assessment are requested to kindly paty the treasurer, Mr. Gidley, or any of the oflicers of the class at once. Both men and women please take notice.-W. U. Park, President.

For the coming semester there will be a change of the gym classes for the girls. The freshmen of the Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday divisions will meet at 3 o'clock and the sophomores at $40^{\prime}$ clock.

Seniors and others who want a good and yet inexpensive photograph for use in answering applications for positions as teachers, etc., will do well to bring their Onondagan cuts to the Orange frint Shop and have us print them on a good card stock.

The kboratory work in Botany I will be held on Tuesday morning between the hours of 10 and 1.-J. E. Kirkwoorl.

SENIOR ELECTION.

There will be a meeting of the senior class at 4 p. m. on Wednesday, February 15, in room $33-34$, hall of Lanruages. At this time will occur the election of officers for class day.- Floyd M. Fernald, President.
will play hamilton feb. 27.
On account of an oversight announcement was made in these columns several days ago that the game with Allegheny was the only home game left on the basketball schedule. This is true according to the printed schedule, but the Hamilton game, which should have been played January 27 was postponed one month, bringing the game on February 27.

Phi Delta Theta Banquet.
The eighteenth annual banquet of the local chapter of Phi Delta Theta was held at the Yates last Friday evening. Besides the active chapter thirty five alumni from this city and out of town were present.

Sophomore Engineers Elect Officers.
At a meeting of the sophomore engineers held Saturday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing semester: President, Fred J. Shephend; vice president, Henry Brelos; secretary and treasurer, G. A. Waters. The two members elected for the Onondagan Board were Earl C. Root and Emest H. Hawkins.

The problem of graduate football coaches is now troubhing the university of California and Leland Stanford, Jr., University. They complain that for the last five years they bave been unable to obtain any coach who knows the game as it is played in the East at the present time, and that this has seriously lowered their athletic standing.

Senior With two receptions and Week a party, Senior Week opened very auspiciously last evening. The function of Senior Week is still young at the University and it has not yet secured the approval of all the parties concerned. Some of the students and faculty are still in doubt as to the wisdom of a full week of pleasure. Others think that it would be a good thing for both students and University.

Whether this is true one way or the other does not alter the fact that the week this year will be a grand succese from a social point of view. The functions last evening were brilliant ones and those left for the rest of the week promise to be just as successful.

One improvement is noticed this year over some of the functions of last year. The attitude of one fraternity of holding a reception to which all classes of students are welcomed cannot be taken but as a step forward. In other years fraternity functions have been mutually exclusive. This is not true in other colleges, where the social affairs are not made competitive but rather inclusive, where fraternities are welcomed and entertained by each other.
There is yet a greater improvement to be made before our Senior Week becomes an unqualified success. We must have a social gathering at which all students, whether members of organizations or not, should be on an equal plane. At the Senior Reception, despite the efforts of Phi Kappa Alpha, the non-fraternity students are not entertained as well as members of fraternities. At the Glee Club concert, despite the fact that no preference is shown in the sale of seats, the fact that the fraternities are organized bodies secures for them the best seats. For these reasons we should have at least one function where no preference is shown and the neutral students are made to feel that they are as much a part of and as essential to the University as any others. Such a function is the ice carnival or the sophomore cotillion at Cornell and numerous other functions at other colleges. We hope that such an affair will be arranged for next year.

Will rules be chanaed.
The Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee, according to present plans, will hold its annual meeting in New York the latter part of this week.
Walter Camp, who is a member of the committee, in speaking of the proposed changes of the rules, said:
"I have a number of suggestions from which could be evolved all sorts of games, many resembling football. have not examined all of them, but so far I have seen nothing better than my suggestion that the gain in four downs be ten yards instead of five. I doubt whether any radical change will be made. Attempts to make the game more open should be made by direct methods. I do not believe in any roundabout way of getting at this result by innovation, which would radically alter the character of the game, such as making the players in the rush line stand five yards apart.
"The more open the play, the greater the chances for injuries, unless the game is to lose all semblance of its present form and become practically association football. I like association frotball, and hope it will grow in this country, but do not see why it should clash with the Rugby game. The latter has been developed in this country and apparently fills the bill. The crowds that go out to see it now cannot be accommodated, and if it is to be made more popular, I do not know what will happen."

DEBATE WORK.
The work in Forensics I this semester will consist of class debates. The men have been divided into six groups consisting of six men each. The cap. tains of the respective teams will choose a question, and with the aid of their colleagues, will prepare a bibl ography and a brief of argument, both of which will be published in order to give an opportunity to all of the class to prepare themselves to criticise and speak upon the debate after it is held. The following schedule containing the questions and the names of the men to bate them has been arranged:
Feb. 21. Resolved, That the President's salary be raised to $$ 100,000$ per annnm.

Feb. 23. Resolved, That the women in Syracuse University should not vote in the athletic elections. Affirmative, Farrington, Griffth, Michaelson; negative, Corbin, Chandler, L. C. Benson.
Feb. 25. Resolved, That the faculty of Syracuse University should take im. mediate steps to further safeguard against cheating in examinations. Affirmative, Elmer, McLear, C. Moody; negative, Patterson, Mason, Hersey.
March 2. Resolved, That reciprocity should be established between the United States and Canada. Affrmative, Robinson, Sloan, Slebbins; negrative, Wells, Winklestein, H. D. Van Duser.
March 4. Resolved, That Reed Smout should not be allowed to retain his seat in Congress, Affirmative, Simpson, Reid, Stuber; negative, Swain, Sweet, Wilson.

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

Arrangements are being made to hold an intercollegiateswimming championship in the pool of the University of Pennsylvania's new gymnasium some time in March. Princeton, Yale, Col umbia and Pennsylvania will compete.
The graduates of the University of Pennsylvania who reside in Paris, France, have organized a "Pennsyl vania Club."
An estimate of Yale's receipts from football last season has been placed at $$ 70,000$. The college received as its share of the profits from the Princeton game about $$ 22,000, $ 11,000$ from the Columbia game and about $$ 31,000$ from the Harvard contest. This makes a receipt of about $$ 64,000$ for the three big games. From other games about $$ 6,000$ was received.
President Eliot, of Harvard, in his recent report shows that the university has suffered another deficit, and appeals for aid. For two years now, President Eliot shows, the university has run be-hind-in 1902.3 with a deficit of $$ 10,000$ and $1903-4$ with a deficit of $$ 00,000$. In spite of considerable enonomies, he predicts another inevitable deficit in the current fisc 1 year.

Jiu-Jitsu at West Point.

An article in the February Review of Reviews, by H. Irving Hancock, describes "The Japanese Art of JiuJitsu." The illustrations of the article are from photographs posed and taken especially for the purpose, and represent in a graphic way the principles of this unique method of self-defense. Instruction in the art has been made a part of the curriculum at Annapolis and West Point.

Large Audience Heard Musical Organizations

at Their Best.

Jovial and lively music was the forte at the annual concert of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs last evening in Joln Crouse College hall. The audience was not as large as it has been in some years, but nearly every seat was taken downstairs and the gallery was well filled. The audience did not come to be particularly edified, but simply amused. Judging from appearances, no one was dissatisfied. Old favorites, such as "Danny Deever" and "In Vocal Contest," were well received as were the short and lively encores.
By far the best vocal event of the evening was the baritone solo, "Evening Star," by Tannhauser, sung by Birney Petigrue. Mr. Petigrue possesses a rich, full voice and was heard to advantage last evening.
Despite the report that the clubs had lost all the instrumental soloists after the Thanksgiving trip a most excellent vilin solo was given by Carl Stevenson anla very creditable performance on th. phano came from Harold Tymeson.
The audience were thrown into convulsions of laughter by Harry W. Farriugton who gave an original reading in dialect. Although his costume contrasted strangely with the evening dress of the other performers, his therters soon forgot that in the excess their mirth. Farrington made his bust hit in reading a copy of the "Syracuse Daily Lemon" for 1057. His hits on conditions, athletics, fussing, faculty and students were greeted with laughter.
Thilip Hensel sang a tenor solo and Missirs. Trussell, Hensel, Petigrue and Staley sang "Good-by, Sweetheart, Good-by." The Glee Club rendered its selections in a pleasing manner and the Instrumental Clubs were much better than has been reported.
The patronesses were Mrs. John Marsellus, Mrs. Frank Smalley, Mrs. H. L Elsner, Mrs. C. W. Cabeen, Mrs. Wm. Kent, Mrs. J. R. Day, Mrs. G. A Manz, Mrs. W. H. Mace, Mrs. W. A. Holden, Mrs. W. H. Haberle, Mrs. E. C. Dinturff, Mrs. Edwin Nottingham, Mrs. William Nottingham, Mrs. H. R. Peet, Mrs. W. H. Girvin, Mrs. E. C. Morris, Mrs. Gifford Roe, Mrs. M. E. Smallwood, rs. Fred Marty, Mrs. D R. Cobb and Mrs. Eddy.

The guests of honor were Mayor A. C. Fobes, Dean William Kent of the Smith College of Applied Science, Dean Frank Smalley of the College of Liberal Arts, and Dean Ensign McChesney of the College of Fine Arts.

Beta Theta PI Luncheon.

The members of the local chapter of Beta Theta Pi entertained at luncheon last evening after the Glee Club con cert. The house was tastefully decor ated with college and fraternity pennants. Those present were Misse Reynolds, Manz, McChesney, Harned, Roe, Haberle, Louise Schaefer, Sibson, Miller, Dattan, Dunnels and Clayson.

Delta Upsilon Entertains.

At the conclusion of the Glee Club concert last evening the members ff Delta Upsilon gave a luncheon at the chapter house in Ostrom Avenue. The dining room was richly decorated in honor of St. Valentine's Day.

SENIOR ELECTION TO BE HELD THIS AFTERNOON.
The election of officers of the senior class for the rest of the course will be held this afternoon at $40^{\prime}$ clock in the Hall of Languages. The election is for the class day officers and promises to be hotly contested.
According to the custom which was established by the Chancellor four years ago after a bitter factional fight the presidency of the class will go to the College of Applied Science. This rule was made to prevent the College of Liberal Arts, which always has a majority of the graduates, from taking the presidency every year. This plan has not been altogether satisfactory, but will be kept in vogue until all the colleges have had the office at least once, that is, in 1906.
Among the engineers who are candidates for the office are Robert R. Stone, captain of last year's crew William A. Gere, treasurer of the Y. M. C. A., and Walter J. Wilcox, presi dent of the Engine 'ring Society:
The other offices to be filled are valedictorian, salutatorian, secretary, treas urer, class orator, pipe orator, tree orator, prophetess, historian, poet and chairman of the executive committee.

Forensics.

Resolved, That Reed Smoot should be deprived of his seat in Congress. Affirmative, H. H. Dayton, J. A. Matthews, E. H. Beebe; negative, James McClintock, J. 0. Coit, A. S. Benson. Bibliography: Correspondence Harper's Weekly, Feb. 6, 1904; Week's Progress, Jan. 16, 1904; Week's Prog. MEN CHOSEN

Nine Men Retained as a Result of the Preliminary Trials.The preliminary trials for the inter collegiate debate teams were concluded yesterday. The trials were helii Saturday, Monday and Tuesday after noons in the Hall of Languages. The trials consisted of three debates upon the question, "Resolved,' That the Sherman anti-trust law as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in the Northern Securities case is hostile to the economic interests of the United States," which is to be discussed in the final contests.

The men retained are A. A. L. Bald rey, R. M. Campbell, Lloyd L. Cheney, L. S. Coit, A. J. Croft, F. W. Hartwell, E. G. Rice, J. C. Tressler and W. M. Wemett. These men are requested to meet the coach, Professor F. D. Losey, in the Oral Debate class at 12 o'clock today to arrange for a final trial next week. At that time the six men to compose the two teams will be selected.
The judges were Doctor Mace, Doctor Eaton and Professor Losey for the first two trials, and Doctor Eaton, Professor Hawkins and Professor Losey for the third. The debates are to be held early in April.

FACULTY SEND Valentines.

The faculty of the College of Applied Science celebrated St. Valentine's Day in good earnest yesterday. They sent nearly twenty five missives by "Love's Cable" but all of them looked the picture of Cupid and his hearts: The "valentines" were thoroughly original and consisted of notices to underclassmen to present their reasons why they had done so poorly in the first semester's work. These reasons will be submitted to the faculty on Friday and action will be taken on the students' names. It is expected that at least half of these men will be dropped.

Reception to Dr: Emens.

A very pleasant reception was given in honor of Professor Edgar A. Emens, Monday evening, at Haven Hall, by the Classical Club of Syracuse University. Those who received with Professor Emens were Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Burchard, Miss Minnie D. Crofoot and Earl G. Rice, president of the club.

Professor Emens is about to depart for Europe to be present at the international Congress of the Archeological Association. While abroad Professor Emens will make an extended tour through Italy, Sicily and Greece.

Noted The announcement that Speakers the religious committee of the Christian Associations has obtained two such men as Bishop Thoburn and Bishop Olmstead to address the Sunday afternoon vesper services within the next three weeks brings strongly before us the fact that men worthy of being heard are invading our circles every week and leaving to make our students better for their having been here. In reviewing the list of speakers that have been before the students on Sunday afternoons this year we find that it includes men of recognized ability in Christiagn lines. After the greatest attraction of the week comes on Sunday at the vesper service.

This plan of securing the best speakers possible for these weekly meetings has not been without its reward. The meetings have grown both in numbers and influence. From an average attendance of seventy-five to one hundred in the old room in the gymnasium there is now an average of between five hundred and eight hundred, nearly filling the main floor of John Crouse College hall. The increased influence in college life need not be mentioned.
Last Sunday Doctor Sandy Kent, of London, England, gave a most interesting talk on "Bible Study," as those know who listened to it. The speaker for next Sunday has not yet been announced, but for the two Sundays following those who attend the services will have the pleasure of listening to leaders in their respective churches. Bishop Thoburn is recognized as one of the foremost leaders in the Methodist Episcopal Church in whose behalf his wide travels and experiences make him a convincing and interesting speaker. Bishop Olmstead is the presiding bishop of the Central New York diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He resides in Utica, where he was rector of the leading Episcopal Church in that city for a number of years.
The associations are fortunate in securing these men and the students are equally fortunate in having an opportunity of hearing them. The audiences which greet each of them should overflow from the main floor of the hall and fill the gallery on all sides.

hazing is mediaeval.

"Hazing among students and the spirit of antagonism and opposition between students and teachers formerly carried in some instances almost or quite to a state of open warfare, in which all sorts of deceptions and stratagems to mislead or hoodwink the teachers were considered justifiable, as they often are in other kinds of warfare, are characterized by President Harper of the University of Chicago in a recent speech as remnants of medievalism, and, asserting that the Western schools and colleges have less of those things than the Eastern ones, he claimed in that particular that the West is more modern than the East."

Thus writes Dr. Edmund Noyes, professor of dental jurisprudence and ethics in the Northwestern Dental School, in an article entitled "Ethics of College Life," published in the Decem. ber number of the "Northwestern Dental Journal."
He then takes up the question of the tale-bearer, or, as he is more com. monly known, the "tattle-tale." Dr. Noyes takes the position that the informant has very warm friends neither among the students nor among the faculty, but an exception is recognized in the case of persons caught thieving, but he asks why a similar obligation should not exist in regard to less serious offences. Therefore, the genera condemnation of the informer or talebearer ought to imply that there is usually some better way by which students may discharge their responsibility for the general welfare and good order. This, he thinks, can be done by the power of personal persuasion and influence, and when this fails he considers the threat of exposure to the proper authorities as the last resort.-The Northwestern.

An honor society has been organized by the honor debaters and orators of the University of Michigan which is similar to the one existing at Syracuse.

Beta Theta PI.

The upperceassmen of Beta Epsilon of Beta Theta Pi entertained at a formal dancing party at the chapter house in Irving Avenue last evening. It was the seoond party of the week for the Beta men, as the fraternity entertained the night before after the city concert.
The house was prettily decorated last evening for the occasion with evergreens and college pennants. As soon as the guests arrived the floors were cleared of rugs and the lower floor thrown open fordancing. An orchestra furnished the music. During the evening a dinner of four courses was served.
Those present were Misses Hawley, Stewart, Reynolds, Carpenter, Roe Shafer, Darrohn, Dunnels, Hammel, Haberle, Manley, Manz, Bates, Simpson of Binghamton and Richardson of Norwich.

Phi Gamma Delta.
The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity held their annual Senior Week party last evening at the chapter house in Comstock Avenue. The house was artisti cally decorated with ferns and palms. The University Orchestra furnished music during the reception and for dancing. The reception committee consisted of Professor and Mrs. Scott, Professor and Mrs. Nugent, and Professor and Mrs. Shepherd.

Sigma Chi.

The local chapter of Sigma Chi entertained last evening with a dinner dance. The party left the chapter house early in the evening for King's at Cicero. Here a course dinner was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Miss Le Strange and Miss Williams chaperoned the part, which included the following guests: Misses Hagaman, Reynolds, Borne, Bell, Von Kloster, Axt, Hartwig, Norris, LeStrange, Haskins, Baker, Williams, Wilcox, McGarry, Connor, Cook, Jenner, Barry, Miller, Single, Peters, and Abeles.

Orange Club.

Last evening the Orange Club gave their Senior Week party at the club house in Cro on Street. AbJve the duorway the emblem of the club was worked out in electric lights, while within the rooms presented a fine appearance with their tasty decorations. The guests were Misseg Young of Towanda, Pa; Adams, Wells, Welsh, Howard, Heine, Pendell, Hoard and Iosworth. The patronesses were Mrs. L. Baldrey, Mrs. Harry Ames, Mrs. P. C. Davis and Mrs. W. C. Dickerson.

UNVERSTY NEEDS A TROPHY ROOM

Cups, Banners and Prizes are Scattered All Over the City.

Syracuse University needs a trophy room. The need is present and immediate. It is nothing new, but was forcibly brought to the notice of an Orange reporter in a recent endeavor to find out whether or not there was to be an interclass regatta on the lake in the spring. This question raised the one as to the location of the cup donated by Phi Kappa Alpha two years ago for this event. This cup was won by the class of 1905 and none of the members of the crew or class either have ever had the cup. The cup had even been forgotten by the members of the organization awarding it, until an investigation by one of its members revealed the fact that it had never been taken from the store where it was purchased because of the lack of a place to keep it.
Other cups and trophies are scattered all over town. The crew cups, won at Poughkeepsie last June, are reposing in the vault of the National Bank of Syracuse. The banners won in the same races are in someone's hands downtown.
The Senior Dinner Club cup, donated last year, was taken to the Phi Delta Theta house to be handed over to the winner. The winner never came after it and the men in charge had no place to take it and so there it is. Outside of a few banners hung in the gymnasium, this institution, as far as appearances go, is entirely trophyless.
The reason that there is no room of the kind is sheer neglect. There is a room upstairs in the gymnasium (the crew room) that is suitable for the purpose. There was a room downstairs where such relics were kept, but this was appropriated by the custodian and now the interesting collection of balls, bats, footballs and banners are locked from the vile gaze of ordinary mortals. The cases used there could be put in the room upstairs and with a few more to line the east wall, a serviceable trophy room could be made. This would be convenient acd could be locked up when necessary to keep out undesirable characters. No announcement can be made of the fact that such a room will be fitted out.

Professor A. C. Flick delivered lecture at Fulton last evening. His subject was "Luther and the Reformation." Tonight Professor Flick will give the second of his lectures before the Travel and Study Club in the historical seminar room. His subject will be "The Effect of Geography on the History of Europe."

Make-up of Debate Teams Decided.

With one exception the personnel of the teams which are to meet Wesleyan and Colgate indebate April 12 has been decided. The team which is to debate on the negative side against Wesleyan at Middletown is composed of Albert J. Croft, Fred W. Hartwell and Jacob C. Tressler. The Colgate team will debate on the affirmative in Crouse College and will consist of Lloyd L. Cheney, A. Loomis Baldrey and a third man to he chosen on Friday, February 24, from E. G. Rice, L. S. Coit, W. M. Wemett and R. N. Campbell.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Trophy The statement in the Room news columns that a trophy room is needed here is not an expression of editorial opinion but a fact. The difference between an editorial and a news article is that the latter is a statement of fact and the former is an expression of opinion. The fact regarding the room has been stated, now for the opinion.
There is not an institution in this country of the size of Syracuse University that treats the trophies won and the students winning them so shamefully. We have University trophies and class trophies that any university in the country, even to the larg.est, would feel proud to possess and we keep them locked in a vault. The two best known cups in the collegiate world are ours show that we have trophies What an educating factor they would be! The more we saw them the more anxious we would be to retain them.
The institution that held the cups before we did had them in the vestibule of one of its principal buildings. The students saw them; the visitors saw them. These were a great factor in making that rowing spirit for which Cornell is famous. They can do as much for us.
Then there are our class prizes. What a comment on conditions is it when it is known that the Pri Kappa Alpha trophy which was donated and raced for two years ago is still in the safe of the store where it was purchased, having never been taken out of the store! What a similar comment is it when the Senior Dinner Club Interclass Track trophy rests in one of the chapter houses where it was first taken! This, at least, is in a better place than the other, for it is at least on exhibition to the members of one fraternity and their guests.
We often hear it said that interclass athletics at Syracuse are a farce. We do not wonder at it. Less than twenty-five freshmen and fifty sophomores ever saw the banner for which they fought in football last fall. What did they care about it? The last time that the writer saw this banner the numerals of the class of 1906 which were won over a year ago had not been placed on it!
It would seem that such a state of affairs would need no comment. We need a trophy room and we need it now. Of course, we will get one with the new gymnasium, but that is a thing of the dim and shadowy future. We want a trophy room and we want it now. We want it to how that we have trophies.
and we keep them where they Next spring when the interaca are never seen or heard from. demic athletes come here we We wonder why the freshmen want to show them that we have don't come out for crew. Well, won things the same as other what visible incentive have they? colleges have. We want to show Not half of them have ever seen our own students and freshmen the cups and still less have seen that we have an athletic record them enough to know which is to be proud of and one that which. They ought to be where every student must fight to mainthe students could see them. tain. We want a trophy room.

Admitted to the Bar.

Mr. Frank E. Clarke, of 54 Orawaupau street, has successfully passed his examination for admission to the bar of the county. Mr. Clarke's average was high and he will be a valued member of the association. - White Plains Record. Mr. Clarke received his Ph. B. degree with the class of 1903 . He has since been studying at the New York Law School.

RESOLUTIONS,

At a special meeting of the Syracuse Chapter of Delta Chi Fraternity, called at its fraternity rooms in the College of Law, at Syracuse University, on the 13th day of February, 1905, the follow. ing resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, it has pleased our Almighty God in His infinite wisdom and mercy to call unto Himself the beloved father of Orla E. Black, our brother in Delta Chi.
Be it therefore Resolved, That we, his brethern of the Syracuse Chapter of Delta Chi Fraternity do extend to him and his bereaved family in this the hour of their great trial and affliction our heart felt sympathy and condolence. And be it further Resolved, That a copy of these reso. lutions be sent to the bereaved family, and a copy spread upon the records of this fraternity, and that a copy be pub. lished in the college papers.

SENIORS ELECT CLASS day OFFICERS.
The election of class day officers for the senior class was held yesterday afternoon in Liberal Arts College. The meeting was poorly attended, there being only about 160 votes cast. The election went off very quietly, nearly all of the officers being chosen by acclamation.
The result of the election was as follows: President, Robert R. Stone; secretary, Retta Maloney; treasurer, C. T. Robertson; chairman executive committee, Robert Park; valedictorian, Fred L. Hartwell; salutatorian, Floyd M. Fernald; class orator, Joseph A. Mosher; pipe orator, Emmet House; address to 1906, C. Z. Spriggs; prophetess, Jennie Wood; historian, Louise Knapp; poetess, Florence Giles; tree orator, L. G. Fitzgerald.
Each college elects its own vice president, who serves as president of his particular college. These elections will be held very soon.

Basketball men leave for EASTERN TRIP.
The basketball squad, consisting of Captain Powell, Kirchgasser, Red ein, Houseknecht, Riehl and Dollard, left on the eastern trip yesterday afternoon at $40^{\prime}$ clock on the Empire State Express. The team spent last night at Albany, where they will be joined this morning by Manager Rice. They leave for Williamstown, Mass., today, where they meet the strong Williams five. Tomorrow evening they meet Amberst and Saturday Trinity. On Tuesday they play Brown at Providence, R.I. The game with Wesleyan, which was to have been played on Monday, has been cancelled.

 LaSt EVENMG
College Society Enjoys Most Brilliant Event of the Year.

Over one hundred and twenty-five couples ended Senior Week in a gay whirl last evening. The function last evening was the best of the year. Kapp's Orchestra and the Phoenix Band furnished the music; the orchestra, situated on the stage, played for the waltzes, and the band, in the gallery, furnished the music for the twosteps. The program consisted of twen ty.four regular dances and six extras, while either the band or the orchestra played for blind extras all through the intermission.
Supper was served on the stage at $11: 300^{\prime}$ clock. The dancing ended at 1 o'clock. The men of Phi Kappa Alpha who conducted the reception are Ralph L. Stilwell, Erle L. Ackley, Harrison D. Sanford, J. Arthur Distin and Claude L. Kimmel.
The Alhambra was prettily decorated in red, white and blue flags and orange bunting. At the north end of the hall the Phi Kappa Alpha box, draped in national colors, was situated. Over it hung a large emblem of Phi Kappa Alpha in electric design.
Delta Kappa Epsilon occupied the bouth at the southwest corner. It was decorated with the emblems and pennants of the fraternity.
The next booth to the north was oceupied by Psi Upsilon and was decorated in oriental style with electric effects.
The Phi Delta Theta booth was next and was tultily decorated with boughs aid unitation pink cherry blossoms, sprading out overhead.
The Phi Gamma Delta booth was dee rated in oriental style and with an abundance of pennants and banners.
In the northwest corner was the Phi Kappa Psi booth. The decorations were oriental throughout. Jewelled lumps were hung from the ceiling. Two large fraternity emblems were placed at the back of the booth and niavy fraternity pennants.
Sigma Chi occupied the booth at the northeast of the hall. The initial letters of the fraternity in electric lights were hung over the entrance. The booth was decorated in blue and old gold.
Next to the north stood the booth of the Orange Club. It was decorated in oriental style and with college pennants.
Beta Theta Pi occupied the next bouth, neatly fixed with cozy corners and electric light effects.
Zeta Psi had their booth decorated in Chinese style with subdued light effect. Delta Upsilon occupied the box in the northeast corner. It was decorated in brilliant colors and with the pennants and colors of the fraternity.

TRACK PRACTICE.

About eighty men reported for track practice yesterday afternoon at the gymnasium. The men now report every day, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 2 o'clock and Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at $50^{\prime}$ clock. All candidates for the squad who can not report at these hours report at the gymnasium at whatever hour they are able and 4ake exercises by themselves.
The Athletic Governing Board hàs empowered Manager J. Arthur Distin to arrange a dual meet with Oberlin College for May 13 and a triangular meet between Colgate, Hamilton and Syracuse for May 20, both meets to be held on the University oval. This means that there will be no out-oftown meets this year.
It has been the custom for some years for Syracuse to enter a team in the two-mile event of the University of Pennsylvanla's relay races which this year come the 29 th of April. This year if the proper material presents itself a team will be entered in the four-mile event. This is an event in which there is but one class, It is run by half milers. Besides these two events the coach hopes to enter seyeral men in the special events.
The squad was photographed yesterday afternoon.

Mathematical Club.

The regular meeting of the Mathematical Club was held Monday evening in the club rooms. Mr. Ferguson presented a carefully prepared paper on "Curve Tracing." The remainder of the evening was occupied with original mathematical games and charades, which proved both entertaining and instructive. Doctor Metzler, in behalf of the faculty members of the mathematical department, presented the club with a beautiful oak table. The table has already been placed in the room and adds much to the appearance of the room and with the new library and booke ses will make the clab room one of the best in the building.

Romeo and Juliet.

Students are awaiting with interest the revival of "Romeo and Juliet" by Julia Marlowe and E H. Sothern, which is coming to the Wieting on Tuesday. The production is said to be one of the best revivals of the play in recent years.

Registration Lists Close Tomorrow.
Those students who wish to correct errors in the catalogue lists will have to do so today, as the lists go to the printer tomorrow. Proof sheets of the catalogue have already been received.

Syracuse Chemical Soclety.

The next meeting of the Syracuse Chemical Society will be held in the College of Medicine this evening at 8:20 $o^{\circ}$ clock. Dr. J. A. Mathews will give an illustrated lecture on "The MintHow Money is Made." All are condially invited to be present. -H. Monmouth Smith, Secretary.

WOMEN PLAN FOR CLASS DAY

University Women are to

 Have a Part in Com. mencement Week.At a meeting of the women students of the University with the representatives of the Syracuse University Club, the alumnae association of the Univer-sity, it was planned to have several functions on Commencement Week for women. Several of the plans were discussed at the meeting, although nothing definite was decided. If the plans mature, there will be an ivy planting on Class Day by the girls of the two lower classes with a procession and appropriate exercises. There will also be a farewell banquet to the girls of the graduating class to be given by the uniors. There are several other plans on foot, but they rere not sufficiently decided on to allow an ancouncement, The main object of these changes is to bind the alumnae of the University closer to it. There are not many functions now that appeal particularly to the University women after graduation, but it is thought that several dis. tinctive functions, such as are planned, will be the means of bringing back many old students. An attempt will be made this year to have a reunion.
There is no intention on the part of the women to make these functions exclusive or to draw out from any of the exercises in which the men participate. The affairs planned will be conducted by the women but the men may attend if they wish to.:
On the committee are representatives of the Alumnae Association and all the classes of the University. It consists of Mrs. Henry Phillips, Misses Bertha Cleveland, Juliet Sheaf, Retta Maloney, Lois Kupfer, Mary E. Mott, Ella Wallace, Reva Caspar, Dierdre Mace and Sara Conrow.

PHI GAMMA DELTA PARTY.

Through an error of the press, the names of the guests of Phi Gamma Delta at their party Wednesday eveninp did not appear in yesterday morning's issue. Those present were Professor and Mrs. J. A. Scott; Professor and Mrs. Shepard, Professor and Mrs. Nugent, Misses Anna Umbrecht, Louise Umbrecht, Grandey, Lovette, Jones, Brown, Abeles, Alison, Hillis, Angell, Doty, Cartwright, Campbell, Millen, Hayden, Casper, MacGregor, Robbins, Louise Weller, Laura Weller, Prussia, Opp, Mott, Waite, Gilbert, Ash, Snell, Caroline Bell, Maybelle Bell, Young, Hanrahan, Southworth, Kupfer, Treible, Butter, Raymond, Neal, Sumner, Vosberg, Edna Campbell, Hart.
P. J. Giblin, the Tailor on Railroad St., will press and clean your clothing on short notice.

NOTICES.

There will be a meeting of the junior class Tuesday, February 21, to elect officers for the second semester -Ross Anderson, President.
Sophomores who are deficient in the payment of the 25 cents assessment are requested to kindly pay the treasurer, Mr. Gidley, or any of the officers of the class at once. Both men and women please take notice.-W. U. Park, President.

Seniors and others who want a good and yet inexpensive photograph for use in answering applications for positions as teachers, etc., will do well to bring their Onondagan cuts to the Orange Print:Shop and have us print them on a good card stock.

The Saturday division of Physics I condition will meet Friday from 4-6.F. L. Baker.

All freshman crew candidates are requested to report in the gymnesium on Friday at $3: 30$ p. m. for picture.-C. B. Dempster, Captain.
The seminar in Sociology will meet on Tuesdays from 2 to $4 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. until further notice.-Edwin L. Earp.
The members of the executive and entertainment committees of the German Club will meet in the German office today at $8: 50 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$.
LOST-Black derby; maker, Gough, 95 West.St., N. X: Return to Delmar E. Hawkins.

IN OTHER COLLEOES.

One hundred and one students were dropped from Comell at the end of the first semester as a result of the examinations.
The Michigan speakers for the Mich-igan-Wisconsin debate are under similar training to that of the football players. They are prohibited from smoking, drinking and all intemperate habits, and are required to keep their voices in the best of condition. Their food is carefully chosen to preserve their body and brain in good health, and, above all, they are required to go to bed early. It is thought that such training has much to do with the success of debaters as well as athletes.

Dr, Otto WIII Leave the University. The students of Syracuse who are acquainted with Dr. Otto of the German department will regret to learn that he is soon tọ leave Syracuse. He will sail for Germany on April 1. Dr. Otto came to the University last year and during his short stay here has gained a host of friends among the student body. He has become exceedingly popular on account of his pleasant disposition and keen sense of humor. Owing to the fact that he will leave the University before June, students in several classes are carrying extra hours, in order to finish up his German courses before April.

In such a room we could hang athletic pictures and fix it up for athletic meetings and gatherings of the kind. There is no better place for this room than in the second floor of the gymnasium. Talking about such an arrangement is one thing, accomplishing it is another. But, as hinted before, waiting for someone with money to make the gift is not the only way of accomplishing it. We have a body of students here that ought to be able to do some things for themselves. The men now in college have, during their course, paid enough into the treasury of the University for property damaged or destroyed to pay for a trophy room and a good one, too. A trophy room from the whole undergraduate body would be the best manner of getting it that there is.
If that is not feasible, then there are a number of honorary societies in the University who are in the habit of doing a little something to show that their existence is worth while. A trophy room might come from them. An interfraternity room might be an excellent thing. Fraternities in Syracuse have been the means of contributing to an ob-

Preliminaries-When a team appears on the field for a contest, it shall greet opposing team with the Chautauqua salute, which consists of waving the handkerchief. After this a few minutes of social intercourse, with friendy chats concerning books and writers, precede the opening of the game:
Substitute for "the toss"-Instead of tossing a coin to determine which side gets the ball, the two captains shail be called upen to extract the cube root of a number given out by the professor of mathenatics. The captain who is first to hand in the correct solution gets the ball.
Advancing the ball-The ball having been placed in the center of the field, the umpire, who must be a professor of geology, exhibits to the team having possession of the ball a fossil. Ail members of the team who think that they can name the geological period to which the fossil belongs hold up their right hands. The umpire selects a player to name the period. If he ans wers correctly, he advances the ball two yards. If, in addition, he gives the scientific name of the fossil, the advances the ball five yards. If no ers consisting the team shall be selected by the facultr, and the student who has received the highest grade in Greek anthology shall be captain of the team. No student shall be eligible for the team unless he is up inall his class work. and has an established reputation for piety.

FOOTBALL RULES FOR 1905.
Under the revised rules, which I am now submitting through the medium of your valuabe paper, the test of a play er's ability will be his class standing. It is hoped that these rules will be approved by the W. C. T. U., Professor Harry Thurston Peck, and that vast army of editorial writers whose knowledge of the game has been obtained by reading the headlines. Walter Camp may object to some of the provisions, but what care we?
t what care we?

Selection of players-The eeven play member of the team can answer the question propounded by the umpire, the opposing team shall be given a trial If suceessful it is given the ball.
Off-side plays-Any player whomakes a grammatical error, mispronounces ${ }_{2}$ word, or seeks assistance froma fellow. student shall be decmed guilty of an off-side play and his side shall be penalized at least five yards.
Substitute for kicking goal-After a touch.down has been made, the team making it shall be credited with five points and the captain of the team shall translate 500 words of Caesar's com. mentaries. If he does so without an error his team is given anadditional point, the same as if a goal was kicked. If he fails the ball goes to the opposing team on the 25 -yard line.
Resuming play-On resuming play after a touchdown, one of the players to be known as "it" is blindotided and the other players join hands and eircle around him, singing:
"London bridge is falling down,
Falling down, falling down,
London bridge is falling down,
So farewell, my ladies!"
While the players ard circling about, the player known as "it" touches one of the other players in a gentemanty manner and asks him three questions, which must be answered. Then be tries to guess the name of the player. If he suceeeds, he picks up the ball and advances it 15 yards.
Conduct during game-No pushing, no scuffing or boisterous conversation will be permitted. Both players and spectators must maintain absolute si lence during the mental tests. - George Ade in the New York Inquirer.

NO MEETS HELD AWAY FROM HOME

 Manager Unable to Ar. range for Satisfactory Dates.According to the present indications there will be no out of town meets for the track teams in the coming spring other than the intercollegiate meet at Mott Haven and the relay games at Philadelphia. Manager J. Arthur Distin has been corresponding for some months and has made several trips in order to make satisfactory conditions with Williams, Amherst and several other colleges, but the negotiations all fell through for one reason or another. That leaves two meets for the team, both here at home. The dual meet with Oberlin will be held on Saturday, May 13 , and the triangular meet with Colgate and Hamilton will be the following Saturday, May 20.
The best of these meets is the triangular one with two of our oldest rivals, It has been some time, however, gince we have met either of them in track. It is really hard to judge the strength of either of the teams now, but there seems to be the general feeling among the track men that the meet will be no easy matter.
The meet with Oberlin will also be looked forward to with a good deal of interest because of the disappointment caused by the weather last year and the cesire of the local men to beat Uwerlin in any kind of weather. The Ohio men feel, now that several of the Syracuse stars are out of college, they can win the mett. This seems rather mp bable.
Tiue chay games at Phlladelphia will sue this year on Saturday, April 29 .
ieveral years Syracuse has entered min the mile relay which is run 4 four relays of a quarter mile each. Ths year an attempt will be made to develop four good half mile men so that a team can be entered in the twomile relay. Relay work will begin as soon as the men get outside, as that is the first meet to be entered.

FRESHMEN ARE

 NOT DEBRRRED
Rumor That Freshmen Were to be Kept from Fraternities.

A wild rumor has been circulating the hill for the past few days to the effect that action was taked in faculty meeting a week ago to prohibit freshmen joining or pledging fraternities. The rumor had it that the rule was absolute, taking effect with the opening of college next September. The rumor is entirely without foundation. There is no idea of changing the present status of fraternities at Syracuse. The way the matter was spoken of in the faculty meeting was on the presentation of the report of the committee on freshmen, which contained the usual comment on the evils of the extensive "rushing" affairs. The Chancellor simply mentioned that perhaps it would be better if freshmen did not join fraternities. No opinions were expressed on it by other members of the faculty and no action whatever was taken. The matter may be brought before the faculty later.
As it stands now, a number of the professors are against any such movement. No positive statement has been made for the project and many of the faculty are diametrically opposed to it. As one of them said the other day, the freshman, if he is to become a fraternity man at all, should have the benefit of his freshman year.

Zeta Rho to Become Theta Delta Chir The Syracuse Herald for Thursday prints the following:
The Rev. W. W. Dawley, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist Church, will leave Friday evening for Chicago to attend the Grand Lodge convention of Theta Delta Chi, which will begin Saturday and end Tuesday. Doctor Dawley goes for the purpose of advocating the cause of a society at Syracuse University, which is petitioning for a chapter of Theta Delta Chi. Doctor Dawley was a member of the Chi ehapter of the fraternity while a student at Hamilton College in the class of 1875. Professor P. O. Place of the University and Judge F. W. Thomson, other members of the fraternity, may also go to Chicago. The newly organized Zeta Rho local fraternity is seeking the Theta Delta Chi charter.
There are now nine general men's fraternities in Syracuse University. In order of establishment they are Delta Kappa Epsilon, Delta Upsilon, Zeta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Chi. This does not include the professional fraternities in the law and medical colleges.

Informal Afternoon on Wednesday.
The third informal afternoon by the ladies of the faculty will be held next Wednésday, Washington's Birthday, from 2 to $40^{\prime}$ clock. Mrs. J. R. Day and the ladies of the faculty invite all students, including those of the law and medical colleges, and the members of the faculty. Those who have attended either of the other receptions of this series realize the advantages of these informals. This is the first year these $h$ ve been attempted, and they promise to be an important factor in the college social life.

Professor Fife at Chapel.

Professor Fife of the German department in Wesleyan University spoke in chapel yesterday morning. He spoke of the vital relations between the two universities, saying that Wesleyan held Syracuse to be a big, strapping, husky, overgrown brothers of hers. He believed the two universities stood for hard work, high ideals and friendship.

Women's There are several pleasClass Day ing featuresin the plans already formulated for the women's exercises during Commencement Week.
The purpose of the new exercises is to tie the alumnae of the University closer to it. Such a purpose is always commendable and when the means are as good as they are in this case it is doubly so. Any plan that will aid in holding the affections of any of the daughters of Syracuse-yes, and of the sons too-should be fostered. As Chancellor Day said in chapel some time ago, a university is known by its alumni, their numbers, strength and most of all by their devotion. The devotion of the alumni of some of our great colleges today is responsible in no small degree for the standing those colleges now have. To Syracuse University the support of its former women students is as important as the support of the men who have graduated.
These plans, then, are worthy in their purpose. The exercises have merit in themselves. Those who know what the ivy planting ceremony is need not be told of its sweetness and impressiveness. The ceremony, with the girls' procession, the little talks and the planting itself, has an element "that recommends itself sweetly to our gentle senses." 'Tis well the committee have said that the men could come if they wish, for the men will certainly wish to come.

Such an institution as Ivy Day could become one of the most popular functions of the year. Year after year the placing of a root of ivy by one of the college buildings and year after year seeing our walls, now all too barren, becoming like the vine-clad buildings of the old New Eng. land colleges. There is a fascination about it all that cries for a successful carrying out of the plans now under way.
Not the least commendable feature about the new Commencement is that it will induce the members of the two under classes to remain in town for the doings of Commencement Week. Our students, especially of the under classes, seem to have but little interest in our graduating exercises. Few of these stay to the end-of-the-year functions which should be the best and most interesting of the college year. The idea of having the underclass girls participate in Class Day will induce them to stay and will help to make our Commencement an impressive one.
The committee which bas these and other similar arrangements in charge is composed of girls from all classes and under the plans all the classes are to participate in the "doings." It seems to the writer that such a project, with the backing it has, should have its merited reward.

IN OTHER COLLEGES.

Qualifications have been made restricting the Interpretation of the subject for the debate between Princeton and Harvard, to take place at Princeton, March 28. The question now is: "Resolved, That the free elective system is the best available plan for the undergraduate course to study. It is understood that: 1. The free elective system is one based on the principle that each student should select for himself all his studies throughout his college course, 2. The free elective system, thus defined, exists even when a minor part of the studies of the freshman year is prescribed.'
President Faunce of Brown University, speaking on "Athletics in College Life" at an alumni dinner id Boston, said athletic games were almost a necessity in that such contests brought out the loyalty of the student body in a manner that nothing else could. The large amount of money expended for football and baseball teams, and the newspaper notoriety attendant upon athletics were unpleasant features which, in his opinion, could not be avoided.

Bat-Shaped Kites.
The bat-shaped kite invented by S. F. Cody, F. R. M. S. has been adopted by the British admiralty. The kite is made from bambo and slik and will carry a man. It may be used for reconnoltering on land or sea, and will be able to haul s sledge over Arctle lce with but one man to steer it.

SYRACUSE EASIIY Defeats trinit Orange Basketbáll Five Plays All Around the Hartford Men.

The Syracuse University basketball team easily defeated the Trinity College five at Hartford, Saturday evening, winning out with a score of 40 to 26. The game was replete with sensational passing and goal throwing by the Orange players, and the Trinity team was outplayed at every point in the game. The 'Varsity took the lead at the start of the game and held it throughout. The score at the end of the first half was 27 to 10 , in favor of Syracusc. Captain Powell was very successful in throwing goals from fouls, making six points from the free throws. All the men played a star game, the forwards, Kirchgasser and Rellein, finding the basket with their ussal unerring aim.
The eastern ixip so far has been very sucessful. In addition to the game Saturday evening two contests have been played, one with Williams and one with Amherst. The game with Williams resulted in a victory for the home college, but it was not a crushing defeat for Syracuse. Williams is rated as the best of the eastern colleges in basketball and is equaled only by Columbia, the intercollegiate champion. A score of 14 to 12 on Williams' home floor indicates that the Syracuse team is in every way equal to the Williamstown five and places Syracuse among the top notchers in basketball.
The defeat of Amherst on Friday evering with a score of 38 to 13 was one of the best victories of the year. Amherst is a member of the strong triangular league comprising Williams, Wesleyan and Amherst, and has an exellent basketball reputation.
According to the schedule, the 'Yarsity ought to play Wesleyan this evening, but the Wessleyan management has cancelled the game. Tomorrow evening the team will play Brown University at Providence, R. I.

Students' Rating,

Editor Daily Orange:
It triay seem to be a great deal of presumption on the part of an undergraduate to question the justice of the faculty, The recent action, however, concerning the rating of students here has given rise to some difference of opinion as to the fairness of the ruling. The new rule provides that any student who is deficiert in any part of his entrance work shall be rated as a freshman; one who has not finished the subjects scheduled for the first year shall be rated as a sophomore.
Such a law may be advantageous in many ways of which we undergraduates do not know. It will no doubt act as an incentive to the making up of deficiencies early in one's course. It comes upon us now, however, something like an export facto law. In certain cases students are unable, owing to the suddenness of the decree, to arrange for a proper rating in the catalogue. The result is that the catalogue will contain misleading reconds. For example, I know of a student who has at the present time more than 120 hours to his credit. Owing to the fact that he entered for special work, he did not take French I and Latin I during his first year. Upon deciding in his fourth year to complete a regular course, he takes up those subjects. That student is listed among the sophomores. Now, the question arises, is this man a sophomore or a senior? If he is a sophomore it seems strange indeed that he should graduate; if he is a senior, the catalogue will contain a gross misrepiesentation which is an injustice to the student.
I do not desire to quibble over the terms sophomore, senior and freshman, but I believe that to the majority of upperclassmen their rank in college is a matter of no little concern. It seems, therefore, especially unfortunate that certain students who will graduate next June will leave the University labelled sophomores in the catalogue. There may be cases in which the penalty is deserved, there are othors in which it is incurred because, unsuspecting the new ruling, a student has taken a certain subject at the wrong time. Unless the innocent are to suffer with the guilty, there are cases in which it seems to me, exceptions should be made.

BETA THETA PI

CONYENTION

Governors. Odell and Bates to Attend Grand Ball and Banquet.

Beta Epsilon, the local chapter of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, has secured the fifteenth annual copvention of the Second District of the fraternity which will be held March 2 and 3 . Beta Theta Pi is one of the oldest and, with a single exception, is the largest of national college fraternities. Delta Kappa Epsilon is larger.
Beta Theta Pi was established at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1839. It now has sixty-six active chapters and fifty-threc alumni chapters. District Number Two is composed of the chapters at Rutgers, New Brunswick, N. J.; Comell. Ithaca; Stevens, Hoboken, N. J.;St. Lawrence, Canton; Colgate, Hamilton; Union, Schenectady; Columbia, New York City, and the local chapter at Syracuse. The Beta Epsilon chapter was established in 1888 . The chapter house is situated at 712 Irving Avenue.
Besides the national convention, each of the ten districts holds a reunion every year. That of the Second District was held last March with the Rutgers chapter at New Brunswick, N. J.

Syracuse has not entertained the convention since 1891, at which time Harry J. Hamlin, Syracuse '92, was chairman of the committee on entertainment. Mr. Hamlin is president of the association having in charge all arrangements for the coming reunion. The committee is composed of H.J. Hamlin and one member from each of the chapters in the district. William Y Boyd represents the local chapter. It is planned to commence the festivities witha grand ball at the Empire Hall on March 2, at which time the delegates and alumni will be the guests of the local chapter. The following morning a business session will be held at the chapter hall, followed by a luncheon and smoker. In the afternoon calls will be made upon each of the local sororities and in the evening the banquet will be served at the Yates.
There will be present at the banquet not only delegates from each of the fraternities in the distrlet but many of the prominent alumni. Among these will be Stanley. E. Gunnison of New York, the District Chief; ex-Governor Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., of New York, and ex-Governor John L. Bates of Massachusetts who will be present and respond to toasts.

The Latin department are expecting, through the efforts of Dean Smalley, a large number of squeezes of inscriptions from Rome. These will be used in Doctor Bushnell's class in Latin Evigraphy.

NOTICES:

Freshmen The sentiment ex in Fraternitles pressed in faculty meeting some days ago regarding freshmen joining fraternities has aroused much comment, and for the most part the comment indicates a sentiment in favor of such a change. The subject has been discussed by both students and alumni and there are many of each class that favor the change. These men are all fraternity men and perhaps their motives are selfish, but the results certainly work both ways.
The sentiment expressed seemed to favor the change because of the fraternities themselves. The freshmen are unknown quantities. The chapter taking them knows nothing about the men, his abilities or his faults. As a conséquence, every fraternity located here has binding on all the fraternities had painful experiences because that no one or two would suffer of the failure of their freshmen a disadvantage in the matter. to live up to the standard ex- This is a most commendable plan pected of them. The result, of and, if adopted, would make for course, has been the weakening of the chapter.

The faculty side is that of the freshmen. Those who advocate the change say that the first year men are made too much of. They are rushed to the limit and their minds are turned from study. So much of their attention is taken with fraternity matters that they have none for their lessons. The members of the faculty feel that if the fresh men will form studying habits these habits will stay with them throughout the course.
The advocates of the change are not attempting to antagonize tke fraternities, for they recognize their excellent qualities. In fact, the reason that some of them are opposed to any change is because they wish the freshman to have the assistance of his fraternity as early in the course as possible. One member of the faculty said the other day: "If a man is to join a fraternity at all, four years is none too long a time for him to be an active member. A fraternity can help a freshman in his study and his college work. He needs this as soon as he can get it."
These opinions are all worthy of consideration. The first and the last can be united, both for the good of the fraternity and the good of the freshman. The stronger the chapter is, individually and collectively, the more assistance it can be to its neophytes. The more hasty a chapter is in taking men, the more the liability is that undesirable men are taken and consequently the less it can do for all the men taken.
The wisdom of the point that freshmen need the fraternities can not be questioned and, in view of all the arguments, it would seem that the happy medium would be the taking of freshmen some time after the first half year. This would bring nearly all the results desired, but, if done at all, should be so

SUPPELEMENT TO RECORD ISSUEDDean Smalley Receives Edition of the Book ...New Features.

Dean Frank Smalley has received the completed edition of the supplement to the Alumni Record on which he has been working for several years. The book just issued brings the record of alumni up to the class of 1904 , and completes the list. The Alumni Record was issued in 1899 and five years are covered by the supplement.
The new book is printed and bound in the same manner as the Record itself and is really a second volume of the same. It contains many new features. The frontispiece is a full page halftone of Chancellor James R. Day in full academic costume. Pictures are scattered throughout the book. One of the most pleasing features of the book is the collection of programs and early handbills of the University. They are extremely interesting and throw many sidelights on the early life at Syracuse. There are the program (in facsimile) of the first Glee Club concert, bills of the early calculus burials, "procs" to the freshmen and announcements of the sophomore exhibitions and other "stunts" which were not known as stunts at that time.
Not the least interesting of the early archives is a collection of articles from the University Herald concerning the early boating of Syracuse University. The Herald at that time was the only paper in existence here. These articles contain a full accomnt of the few years' experience which Syracuse had on the Water.
There is also a schedule of classes in 1875, probably the first schedule ever issued by the University. The faculty at that time numbered eight men. of these eight men the names of Professors Smalley and Coddington are still seen on the more extensive schedules of today.
The programs of the early athletic meets are very interesting. Among the events recorded are an egg race, 100 yard dash backwards, three legged race, hop-skip-and-jump, sack race and other events now thought to be thoroughly ridiculous. These events are all given with their winners and time or distance.
Following this there is a history of athletics for the past five years by Dean Smalley, a supplement to the article by George H . Bond '93 in the Alumni Record.
Only five hundred copies of the book have been printed and the book is to be sold at two dollars, which is less than the cost of publishing it.

Editor Daily Orange:
Recent obseryations have revealed the fact that many of our freshmen and even higher classmen are either ignorant or willfully negligent of some of our established college customs. After chapel last week some of the freshmen to all 'good intents', and no one dare deny, with a sincere love for their Alnia Mater, started and sang "Oh Syracuse.". The singing in itself is not wrong; would that there could be more and better singing, more systematic and enthusiastic cheering. Not one out of the thirty freshmen seemed to know that it was a violation of our college custom for an underclassman to start either "Oh Syracuse" or "Alma Mater." It was as embarrassing to the senior who stopped them as it was for those who had offended, for they took the rebuke in the proper way.
I use this illustration in helping to excuse some for the violation of another custom which seems persistent in its practice. Several weeks ago the attention of the men was called to the protests of the athletes against the promiscuous use of posters with the block letter of the University thereon. Enough was said to convince everybody that block $S$ posters should be used in traveling cases, only by those whohave earned the same by being . members of the various athletic teams sent out by the University. Aside from the use of the special poster sold by the Coop many men have obtained through the courtesy of the atheltic managers the official posters of the track and football teams. These they have put upon their suit cases. Such a practice is a violation of college tradition and a direct injustice to the men who have earned them. If sentiment and costom can not correct the wrong, the Governing Board should by xed rules meet the trouble. It was only four years ago that many of the freshmen actually stiched the S upon their caps. The athletes should be credited with every thing that they have earned by their hard work. Any man who would rep. resent himself to be what he is not is guilty of more than the breaking of a college custom. If through courtesy men should receive a poster, unless they have earned them, the place for them is in a scrap book and not on a dress suit case.

Work for the Batteries Begins Under New Coach Tomorrow.

Captain Burrell has made his first call for baseball candidates to meet him at the gymnasium this afternoon at 3 o'clock. This call includes only the candidates for the battery. At this time the captain will give out tickets of admission to the armory which has been engaged by the authorities for the use of the batteries. No other candidates for positions on the team will be allowed admission to the building.
Tomorrow Coach Murphy will arrive in the city and meet the men trying for battery positions at the armory at 3 o'clock.
The coach, whose home is in Auburn, comes to Syracuse with on enviable record as a baseball man. Besides several years' experience on the professional nines of Rochester and Philadelphia, he pitched for years on the St. Louis National League team.

Athletic The movement advo Insignia cated by several mem; bers of the Athletic Governing Board to make the block letter, the second team insignia and the class numerals harder to win ought to have the support of every man in college. It won't, however. It will meet with the most violent opposition on the part of many of the semi-ath. letes in the University who think that every man who tries for a team and works ought to be rewarded, even if he makes an utter failure of the attempt.
That is just the spirit that makes block " S " legislation a necessity at Syracuse. The winning of the class numerals has become such an easy thing that it is almost a disgrace not to have them instead of their being an honor for a few who can win there will be fewer men dropping them. The main thing that actuates many men to come out for the class teams is the winning of the class nu nerals. It is a common sight to see man after man with no more athletic ability than a cow put into a game to get his numerals. Less than two years ago the only qualification for putting a man into a certain football game was that he wanted his numerals! How can numerals ever become a reward when used like this?
The same is true of the "ASA." A storm of protest went up last fall from certain men because they were not awarded this insignia. An investigation of what they had done failed to show anything remarkable. Still the insignia was claimed under the rules. If the rules provided for the granting of insignia to these men, the committee was right in interpreting the rules as strictly as possible. They ought to be changed so that a man will have to work hard for his honors.

It may be doubted if the block

 " $S$ " is worn by any one not actually deserving it. Nevertheless if the conditions of granting the letter were made just twice as hard the honor would be that much more valuable. Crew is really the only branch of athletics where the conditions are what they should be. The letter is far too easily won in the other branches of sport.A comparison with other colleges shows that there is hardly an institution of this size in the country which is so lax about its athletic honors. Because a man happens to play in parts of three football games some time during his college course (four years) he has hardly shown the ability which should mark the wearer of a block letter. The same is true in baseball and a like condition of affairs exists in track.
The object of this article is not to discredit anyone wearing any of these insignia but to stand for a more stringent set of rules making our honors bomething 'to be run for not without dust and heat." If such rules are fixed upon, out of athletics saying, as they do, "I have my " S "; what more can I get?"

ODELL REORETS ABSENCE FROM beta convention.
After Monday's edition of the Daily Orange had gone to press, Harry J. Hamlin, the president of the association having in charge the coming district convention of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, received a letter from exGovernor Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., expressing his regrets that he will not be able to attend the banquet on March 2, as he had expected to do. The Governor left for Europe last Saturday to be absent several months. He stated his hopes fu: the success of the convention and assured the committee of his desire to do everything in his power to further the interests of the reunion.
The Governor's change of plan will bring disappointment to many of his friends in this city, other than the Betas, who had expected to see him in Syracuse at the time of his visit in the interests of the fraternity.

THE COLLEOE YELL.

It has always been a matter of wonder and comment to outsiders why the college men emits the fearful yell that characterizes him when he is gathered in numbers at athletic contests. To such Dr. Stanley Hall makes explanation. He says that the college yell is merely an outcropping of the primitive instincts that survive in the breast of civilized man. Ages ago when our progenitors dwelt in the forests and slept in the caves and fought wild beasts and each other with tooth and nail, it was their custom to sound a aort of war cry before going into combat-a challenge of defiance. And that is where the college yell comes from.The Intercollegian.

BBOWN WINS EXCTING GMME

Syracuse Outplayed in Second Half...Game Clean Throughout.
(Special to the Daily Orange.) Providénce, R. 1., Feb. 31.-The Brown University basketball team won a hard fought contest from the Syracuse University five this evening with a score of 24 to 20 . The visitors were expected to put up a hard game, for they had gained a reputation during the early part of their Eastern trip, and they fulilled all expectations. The game was one of the fastest ever played in the local gymnasium and although hard fought was a clean contest throughout. The Brown team is the best in New England.
The visiting team had much the advantage the first half, holding Brown down to seven points while they scored ten. In the second half the home team outplayed the visitors, although they had to play hard for every point they made. The final score was 24 to 20 .
The Syracuse team left Providence in a sleeper directly after the game and will arrive in Syracuse at $90^{\prime}$ clock tomorrow (Wednesday) morning.

TWENTY MEN OUT FOR BATTERY

About twenty men responded to Captain Burrell's first call for battery candidates yesterday afternoon. The captain met the men at the gymnasium and gave out tickets entitling the holder to the privilege of practicing on the armory floor.

On account of an inspection which is to be held in the armory, the baseball men will not be able to commence practice there until next Tuesday.
This afternoon Coach Edward Murphy will arrive in the city and will meet all cand dates for positions on the team, both infield and outfield, in the gymasium at $30^{\prime}$ clo k .
Besides the men who reported yesterday for battery positions a number of others will be out within a few days. The men out yesterday were: Pitchers, Watkey, Hinman, Cross, Reid, Colter, Van Dusen, Shepherd, Hannon, MacGavern, Limbeck and Conevery; catchers, Anderson, Curtis, Thompson, Erickson, Lawless, Dexter, Lewis, Harrington and Huntington.
Of these men Hannon is one of last year's corps of pitchers. He pitched nesrly all the Columbiagame. Watkey is a High School man who came to the University with a brilliant record from the down town school.
Curtis, the regular 'Varsity catcher of last year, is again a candidate for the team, as are also Dexter and Lewis, both substitutes from last year. Huntington is another catcher who comes mith a reputation, having caught for the Keuka Co'lege nine.

Abstract

\section*{COMMUNICATION.} [We invite students, alumni and friends of the University to submit communleations on subjects of timely interest. The Orange in not boweyert responsible for the sentiments expreseed in nuch reaponsible for the Eentiments expressed in such communications. Undigned letters will receive no notice, but the name will not be publighed it 80 notice, but desired. 1 Editor Daily Orange: "Undergraduate," in his communication published in the Daily Orange of February 20, clearly evinces a misunderstanding of the action of the faculty in relation to student classification. It is incorrect, for example, to say that any student "who has not finished the subjects scheduled for the first year shall be rated as a sophomore." The rule that has been adopted may be stated as follows: No student shall be advanced if he has any arrears prion to the year from which he would advance; nor can he be ranked as sophomore if back more than twelve hours of freshman work, nor as junior if back more than eight hours of sophomore work nor as senior if back more than four hours of junior work.Let me add that all prescribed subjects above fifteen hours a week for a year are counted as sophomore subjects. Your correspondent should not forget that one of the greatest difficulties the faculty has to face is that of preventing an accumulation of back work, resulting from failures or inadvertence. Various remedies have been tried, among others the drastic measure of taking students out of their classes and compelling them to have their arrears made up by a given date. In view of strenuous efforts of this character now continued for several years the present rule seems both mild and just.

AMNUAL SHOW
RUSH FRIDY

Underclass Contest to be

 Pulled Off at Chapel Time, Weather Permitting.The annual underclass snow fight will be held in front of the Hall of Languages at chapel time Friday morning, unless a severe freeze intervenes. The weather is now ideal for the fight 'and the depth of snow in front of the building makes an excellent battleground. The rush will be carried on along the same grounds as in other years. The sophomores will form on the snow bank where they will be attacked by the freshmen. The classes will be marshalled as usual by their rush leaders. The infrequency of interclass scraps last fall has lead both classes to look forward to this winter affair with a great deal of interest, as each is anxious to try the other's mettle. The freshmen have been developing a little spirit against the sophs lately and a good tussle is looked for. It is probable that after the class affair there will be individual wrestling matches.
The referees of the contest will be às usual the 'Varsity captains: Clarence B. Dempster of the crews, Clement T. Robertson of the track team, Lennius 0 . Burrell of the baseball team; and David L. Tucker of the football team. These men will have entire charge of the rush.
The snow rush has been of unusual interest ever since it was started; It is the only rush that can be entered into without restraint and without fear of hurting anyone. The ludricous situations that the combatants sometimes get into make the rush a most amuing one for the spectators,

SYRACUSE TIED WILLIAMS.
According to all reports the basketball game with Williams played last Thursday evening was far from being a walkover for the Purple team. The scove at the end of the first half was 10 to 7 in favor of. Williams. The second half Williams only scored two points to Syracuse 5, making the score 12 to 12 at the end of the game. According to the rules the play was continued until one team should make another basket. It was nearly flve minutes before the Williams. captain landed one from the center of the floor.
The following excerpts from the Springfield Republican tell of the game:
"Williaims college has never witnessed the excitement over a match that it experienced last night, when Captain Wadsworth shot an exceptionally difflcult basket from a long distance, and won the game from Syracuse University: The teams were tied at the clobe of the second half, the score being 12 to 12, and, according to the rules, play was continued until one team scored points. After three minutes play, Captain Wadsworth tossed the ball through while at full speed, they leaped from their seats and crowded upon the floor, and there followed a demonstration such as has never before been seen at a Williams basketball game.
Syracuse presented the strongest combination that has been seen on the Williams floor this year, and the game from beginning to end was by far the cleanest, most brilliant and most interesting. In spite of the fact that the teams were evenly matched and the seore was close throughout, there was little or no fouling, and few rough plays. Wadsworth was the only Williams player to secure more than one basket, while Houseknecht and Captain Powell of the visitors divided honors with two each.
"The beginning of the game was as sensational as the close, Williams starting the scoring after a few minutes' play with two exceptionally clever baskets. Gardner came down the floor at full speed, and after he had passed the basket, but before stepping out of bounds, threw the ball backward over his head and into the basket. Hardly had the ball been put into play than Capt. Wadsworth shot a second from a corner and gave Williams a good lead. Williams' scores appeared to enliven the visitors and their speed increased and in a few minutes Redlein and Houseknecht had each thrown goals and tied the score. From that time until the decisive score was made neither team slackened its pace."

Intormal There are all too few Atternoons democratic social funce tions at this University, functions to which all are welcome and all students are nade to feel on the same plane. We have but few functions where the students can meet the members of the faculty in a social way and becomeacquainted. There are just as few affairs where all the students may come together also.
The informal afternoons arranged by Mrs. James R. Day and the ladies of the faculty, the third of which is to be given to day, afford such an opportunity,

The first two have been innova tions in that line and the only regret is that so few of the students have taken advantage of them. The congenial atmosphere of the occasion is just what is needed to draw a student out of his shell and remind him that there ought to be in every college man's life time for the courtesies and little social duties which broaden one out and make life worth living.: It is to be hoped that more students will give these informal receptions the patronage they so richly deserve.

English The course of lectures Lectures to be given in connec tion with the meetings of the English Club for the next few months is one of the best that has been arranged by a university organization in some time. The bringing of such men as Dean Crashaw of Colgate, Professor Edward Everett Hale, Jr. of Union, Professor William P. Shepherd of Hamilton and Professor Hiram Corson of Cornell here to lecture on subjects relating to English literature is an action which should be commended both by word and deed. The students seldom have an opportunity of listening to so many professors from surrounding colleges in a single season. The speakers are all men of marked ability and have been secured at some expense to the English Club. The Club invites all students taking elective work in English to attend and hear these speakers.
One pleasant feature of the series is the feeling which has prompted the securing of representatives of our neighboring colleges. The feeling between this institution and those surrounding it has not been the best for several years and it is with pleasure that signs of a returning amiability are noted both in athletic and intellectual lines.

|PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S MANy DEOREES.
With the degree of LL. D. which it is surmised will be conferred upon President Roosevelt by Wiliams Col. llege in June he will become the most learned man-judged by degrees-in the country. The President has promised the college trustees that he will attend the commencement exer. cises; the presentation of the degres will be a natural sequel. The only rival the President has as an LL. D. is President Eliot of Harvard Univer. sity. The latter is a Doctor of Laws of only three, while President Roosevelt is already one five times. Dr. Eliot has been given the degree of LL. D. by Williams, Princeton and Yale President Roosevelt has LL. D. from Columbia, Yale, Harvard, Northwestern University and the Un. iversity of Chicago. The Williams degree will make him a Doctor of Laws sex. tupled. What is more, the distinction comes to him not merely by reason of his political and official rank, but by reason of actual scholarly eminence. His literary work would have obtained him no little consideration even had he never won any other sort of renown He is perhaps the greatest student, the best "book" man, who has occupied the presidency during the last three or four generations, although General Harrison was also of classical tastes and much intellectual re nement. It will be a pleasure, after Mr. Roosevell has ceased to be Mr. President, to call him by his well-earned title of "Dr." -Pittsburg Press.

IN OTHER COLLEGES.

William Jennings Bryan has been chosen by the seniors of the University of Nebraska to deliver the commencement oration.
The imperial authorities of Pekin have cut of the appropriation insupport of the Nan Yang College, patterred after Western educational institutions, and the school closed. The college was founded ten years ago, and it was considered the foremost seat of leaming in China.
There was a deficit of over $$ 2,600$ in the running expenses at Yale during, the past year.
The Harvard Library has added 22,00 volumes to its collection, making a total of 438,000 in the Library, and 675,000 in the entire university.
M. I. T. has presented a scholarship worth $$ 300$ a year to William and Mary College, in honor of Barton Rogers of Virginia.
Michigan's track athletes will have an additional incentive to work this year, for through the generosity of the Pittsburg Alumni Association, every man who breaks a recond in the 'vyrsity outdor meet, the dual meet with Chicago or the conference meet will receive a medat.

ALUMN ORGANIED

Association With Forty Members Formed in Boston Tuesday.

The New England Alumni Association of Syracuse University was formed at the University Club in Boston Thesday evening. The new organization starts of with a membership of forty residents of Boston and vicinity. The officers are: President, Rev. Dr. William Harman van Allen '90; secretary and treasurer, Arthur L. Evans '04.
Following the organization was a dinner attended by members of classes from ' 75 to '04. Congratulatory telegrams were received from Chancellor James R. Day and Dean Frank M. Smalley. Letters were read from prominent alumni in different parts of the country. Dr. Daniel Steele, who was president of Genesee College at the time it became Syracuse University, sent a letter of congratulation.
Among those present were Dr. Frank LeRoy Purdy '92, the former 'Varsity track athlete; W. A. Wood '75, superintendent of the Boston Gas Company; Schuyler F. Herron '94, superintendent of schools, Northampton, Mass.; Frank W. Noxon '94, L. H. Rice '92, Joseph A. Wright 92 , an old 'Varsity football and baseball player; Prof. Judson B. Coit of Boston University; J. Roy Allen '04, of Springfield; S. C. Hutchinson 92, superintendent of schools at Dighton, Mass.; Dr. Flavel S Thomas '85, of South Hanson; J. H. Carfrey of Northampton; Dr. W. R. Newton of Andover; Prof. L. A. Davison of Concord, N. H.; Prof. Frank E. Farley, former English professor at the University.

albany association dines.

The fifth annual reunion and dinner of the Albany Alumni Association of the University was held Wednesday evening in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church at Albany. Besides the members the following gueets were present: Dr. Andrew S. Draper, state commissioner of education; Dr. Melvil Dewey, state librarian; Dean Frank M. Smalley; Principal O. D. Robinson of the Albany High School, and President Stephen B. Ayres of the New York association.
During the meeting stereopticon views of the Poughkeepsie races and Syracuse scenes were shown. Dean Smalley spoke upon the growth of the University and its needs. Doctor Draper, Librarian Dewey and Stephen B. Ayres also responded to toasts.

Rev. E. H. Brown of Albany was appointed chairman of a committee to secure scholarships for the University. Five hundred and fifty dollars was raised for the first one that evening.

FOOTBALL GAME WITH BROWN.
Manager Griffith announced yester day that he has succeeded in scheduling a football game with Brown University. The game will be played at Providence on November 4. This game, was scheduled with the understanding that a return game will be played at Syracuse the following year. It is the intention of the management to make the Brown game an annual contest.
It has been three seasons since a Syracuse football team has played at Providence. In the fall of 1901 Syracuse defeated Brown on her own grounds by a score of 20 to 5 . In 1903 Brown came to Syracuse and defeated the Orange 10 to 5 . The teams have not met since that time.
The announcement of the Brown game will meet with general approval of the student body. It will add greatly to our schedule and will undoubtedly be one of the hardest games of the season.

BASEBALL PRACTICE.

Candidates for battery positions ane now working out regularly every afternoon in the gymnasium under the eye of Coach Murphy. The men have been divided into two squads, one of which reports from 12 to 10 'clock and the other from 2 to $30^{\prime}$ clock.
The work is somewhat handicapped at present because of lack of proper facilities, but beginning with next Tuesday all such features will be ellminated when the armory will be at the disposal of the coach. At that time it is expected the men will be divided into smaller squads.
The work will be rather light for the present as the coach is especially careful not to overwork the pitchers at the start. They are instructed to throw easy and even then are worked only for a few minutes at a time.
The other in eld and outfield candi dates will not be called out until March.

LAROE NUMBER AT INFORMAL AFTERNOON.
A large number of students attended the informal afternoon given by the ladies of the faculty in John Crouse College Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. James R. Day, Mrs. Frank M. Smalley, Mrs. Ensign McChesney, Mrs. H, M. Burchard, Mrs. Henry A. Peek, Mrs. Delmar E. Hawkins, Mrs. William H. Mace, Mrs. Edgar C. Morris and Mrs. Paul C. Nugent were at the tea table.
These receptions have become quite popular among the students, as the large attendance the other afternoon indicated.

Freshmen and Sophomores Meet in Annual Snowball Fight.

There is every indication of a rush worth seeing and worth participating in this morning, when the freshmen and sophomores meet in their annual snow battle. There is lots of snow, lots of freshmen and lots of sophomores and the admixture that will result will be pleasing to the most exacting connoisseur.
Neither of the classes has made any formal preparations for the event, at least not openly, but both will be on hand with the members dressed in sweaters and old clothes. The men who were rush leaders last fall will probably act in that capacity this morning.
No hard snowballs are to be allowed. There will probably not be much chance to use them anyway, for the conflict in other years has been mainly a hand-tohand fight.
The four 'Varsity captains are to have complete charge of the rush and will also act as referces. The affair will be pulled off directly after chapel.
Mr. Hardinge, the man who tells what the government thinks about the weather, said yesterday morning that the weather today would be just right for the rush.

PI BETA PHI ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN.

New York Alpha of Pi Beta Phi entertained in bonor of the freshman delegation on Wednesday evening. The chapter house was handsomely deco. rated with roses, smilax and palms. Flags were hung about the rooms in honor of Washington's birthday.
Early in the evening a farce entitled "Oversalted" was given and the rest of the evening spent in dancing. The freshmen present were Frank Holly, Joseph Kellogg, Harry Dunsmore, Roy Van Vaikerburg, Everett C. Purington, Stuart Knight, Ray Moulthrop, Paul Illman, Edward Butz, George Hastings, James Stimson, David Cabeen, William Hekking, Roy G. Snow Every underclassman not Rush debarred by some physical disability ought to be in the annual underclass snow fight this morning. Class spirit ought to compel a man to enter, but it is a sad fact at this University that the class spirit of many men totally disappears long before the end of their sophomore year. Some of these men never had any class spirit, they seldom have spirit of any kind, others had a little, but it was of such sporadic character that it has now lost its glamour and usefulness, too.
This is the last rush of the year. It is the last that the sophomores will ever have an opportunity of competing in and as such should be entered into with a spirit fitting to mark a close to those underclass affairs which had an important place in college life. There are many men who regard rushes as childish and trivial. These opinions might seem well taken on the surface, but we find that the alumni who are close to Syracuse and are doing things for their Alma Mater are those who al ways had a lively part in class rushes and affairs of that nature It is not the rush itself, not the form but the content, as the history department would say, that makes the rush worth what it is. Each class is bound together in the strife and both classes, through fighting, are brought closer together and both are bound to the University with one more tie of custom and memory.
The sophomores' lastchance to use force and muscle for their class will come this morning. Judging from previous experiences it will probably go with not more than one-fourth of the class taking advantage of it. The sophomore class has not an enviable record in this matter of the snow rush and the time, the only time it will have, has come to establish a new one. How many sophomores are there who will help to make one?

The freshmen, so far, have shown good spirit iu their rushes although it has been woefully, lamentably weak when the daily duty of singing their class song was upon them. They still need to be aroused and brought together as a rush will do. It is not in strict accordance with the best medical or professional authority on the subject, but the writer is inclined to believe that rolling in the snow this morning will immensely improve the "freshies" vocal powers, particularly in the matter of the class song. The class needs the support of every available man. In fighting don't spoil all the good of the occasion by wrong tactics. Fight fair, be a gentleman, even while you are fighting hard.

THE PRIZE ARTICLE.

The prize, which the New York Tribune recently offered for the best letter defending college fraternities, has been awarded to John Clair Minot, '06, of Bowdoin College. The letter is more than a defense of fraternities, it is an argument that they should exist. In it Mr. Minot says:

"The fraternity gives its member a home and congenial associates. When he enters college it sets before him noble ideals of manhood and high incentives, which help draw out the best there is in him; it spurs him on to excel in scholarship and other branches of undergraduate activity; it bets a guard over his conduct, lest he bring reproach upon the pin he wears with so much pride. In the management of its affairs it gives him a practical business training; In its hall he gets a drill in debating and speaking which proves a lasting benefit; its chapter house becomes almost a home for him, with all its influences for good which this implies. Its intercollegiate features broadens his view of the educational world and remders doubly pleasant his visit to sister colleges and his meetings with college men all through his life; ; gives him as an undergraduate the ben efit of the acquaintance of many alumni, a circumstance which becomes a valuable asset when he enters upon his life work, and it gives him precious friendships, which will be cherished among his dearest possessions while life remains.
The fraternity has done much to wipe out the old rivalry between the lower classes, which made hazing so serious a matter in former times; it solves the eating club problem, and by its chapter house saves the erection of new dormitories; it gives the college desirable centers of social intercourse and activity, and provides a pleasant means of entertaining prospective students and other visitors; it gives the college its most loyal alumni, because the man who does the most for his fraternity will do the most for his college, both as a student and in later years; it binds the alumnus closer ts his Alma Mater, and gives him a warm welcome and generous hospitality when he returnsat commencement or at other times.

FPRESMEN PUT SHOW ON SOPHS

Incidentally Get Some Snow Themselves...

 1908 Wins Wrestling Matches.The freshman class won the snow battle held in front of the Hall of Languages yesterday morning after chapel. The first year men had the advantage in force of numbers and were able to push the sophomores around in good shape after they once got started. The sophomores kept "them so busy for a time, however, that they did not get started very early.
The sophomores took up their stand on the snow bank about twenty yards in front of the Hall of Languages entrance. The freshmen got together some feet off and after a few moments of defiance through the medium of yells, some soph threw a block of snow into the frieshies' camp. The "frosh" didn't stand for this sort of treatment for a moment, and the result was a general mix-up. Big chunks of snow nearly a yard across would rise in the air and descend on the neck of an underclassman.
Throwing snow soon became altcgether too tame an exercise for the rushers and they determmed to live the "Big Stick" method of life and go at it with a vengance. Hand-to-hand conflicts followed. Men of both classes were thrown and snow rubbed into their hair and ears and stuffed down their necks. It was fun to behold, but rather cold for the participants.
The weather man didn't live quite up to his prediction as to warmer weather and though ordinarily very comfortable it was a little cold in the snow. Men stopped occasionally to blow on their hands to warm them and, while doing so, were often caught from the rear by some enterprising contestant who saw an opportunity of downing one of the class enemies.
After a few minutes of this, the sophs drew off in a body. Before they had a chance to come back the freshmen were upon them. The superior numbers of the attacking body told here and the referees called a halt in the general fighting.
Two wrestling mills were immediately started. Of the ten matches the freshmen won seven and the sophomores three: Most of the sophs disappeared about the time the matches commenced and the second year class did not have wrest ers to uphold their cause.
The first match was between "Chancellor" Parkhurst '07 and F. R. Park '08. "Chancy" succeeded in putting the freahman on his back, but he was thrown directly after by Duvall, a freshman. Duvall, in the course of the contest, won three matches,
The honors were now even for the victory in the middleweight class when Rother '07 put J. O. Coit on his back and scrubbed his face with snow.
The sophomores evened things up a bit when Dwight Stone, "Bob's Brother," put Freshman Park on his back. This contest was rather exciting for a time, but "Bob's Brother" soon landed on top of the freshmen with a thump and the match was over.
The freshmen had it pretty much their way for a time. Armstrong stepped out, challenged for the sophomores and was taken up by Duvall '08. There was considerable tussling for a while and then suddenly the sophomore disappeared. After raking the snow over "Army" was found still breathing but on his back. Lawrence Coit then stepped out to pluck the honors from the twice victorious Duvall. - Instead of plucking from the victor, his own feathers were taken in and the freshmen yelled over another victory.
"Jimmy" Stimson then stepped into the ring and looked about for a sophomore. Just at that time the sophs were nil. When urged to come out they said "Ugh", and sidestepped. The prospects were not any too bright. Finally Hawkins, an engineer, stepped out. He is light and looked like "easy meat," so the "frosh" said, but when down he made a bridge and the men had to rise and go at it again before a fall was reco.ded for the freshmen.
Dexter '07 saved the latter part of the scrap from going all to the freshmen by putting the shoulder of Mason '08 into the snow.
The match was concluded by a mill for bantam weights. The challenger was Sprague, a freshman. Though small he had a determined look on his face and "bantam". as he was he strutted around the ring for some time before any sophomore came out to uphold the honors of the class. Dunster, a wearer of class numerals, finally stepped into the ring, but he didn't stay on his feet very long, for the freshman "Bantam" had him on his back before he had time to get a hold. The result so surprised Dunster that he decided to try it again. He tried it. When the fall was over, the sophomore was again nearest the ground. The affair then broke up and the contestants all struck out for their rooms to make a change of clothing.

CREW MEN GET UP EARLY.

HAMLLTON MONOAY

Captain Powell's Men to

 Try to Retrieve Defeat of Last Month.The Syracuse University basketball team will attempt to take its revenge on the Hamilton College five in the gymnasium Monday evening. The local team has been out for blood since its defeat at the hands of Hamilton at Clinton on February 6. The defeat came as a surprise to both teams and the Syracuse men intend that no surprise shall be the result of Monday's game here.
The result either way would not be in the line of a surprise, for Hamiltsn has developed a strong team, Colgate has suffered a defeat at her hands with a score of 24 to 21 . This shows the Hamilton and Colgate teams to be about equal. The Colgate contest was one of the most hotly contested games played in the gymnasium this year and the Hamilton game promises to be as well fought.
The 'Varsity is playing together much better than at the time of the Colgate game. They have the practice gained on the Eastern trip and will be strengthened by Redlein, who was unable to play in that game.
Tickets for the game have been placed on sale at the Treasurer's office and at Dwight's.
The probable lineup is:
Syracuse.
Hamilton,
Kirchgasser, r. f............l. g., Bramley Redlein, l. f........r. g. Sherman (capt) Powell (capt) c........................; Kelly Houseknecht, r. g...............1. f.; Knolt Dollard, 1.g $\qquad$ . f., Siccard

BISHOP THOBURN TO SPEAK.

The vesper service of the Christian Associations tomoryow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chapel of John Crouse College will be addressed by Bishop J. G. Thoburn: Syracuse is fortunate in having one so high in church circles in her midst and the Bishop will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience tomorrow afternoon.
PROFESSOR KIRKWOOD A FELLOW
Professor J. E. Kirkwood, associate professor of botany, has been elected a fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science. This exceptional honor was conferred in recognition of his original work, "The Comparative Embryology of the Cucurtibaceae," which was so favorably received by the Botanical Gazette.
Professor Wra. H. Mace left last evening for Chicago and Milwaukee to attend the National Superintendents' convention. He will be away for several days.

If you buy your hats at Selleck's, he keeps them cleaned for you.

NOTICES.

DEBATE TEAMS ARE NOW COM-

 PLETE.Yesterday afternoon the final trials for the intercollegiate debate teams were held. From the candidates who contested at that time Earl G. Rice '05 was chosen as the third member of the team which will meet Colgate. L. S. Coit ' 07 was chosen alternate on that team. The other membors of the Col gate team who were chosen at the previous trials are Lloyd L. Cheney '05 and A. A. Loomis Baldrey '06.
W. M. Wemett ' 07 was chosen alternate on the team. which will meet Wesleyan. The other members of that team are Fred L. Hartwell '05, J, C. Tressler '06, and A. J. Croft '06. The teams will begin work immediately under the coaching of Professor Losey. The Colgate team will support the affirmative side of the question, Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northern Securities case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States. The Wesleyan team will support the negative of the same question.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

New England Every Syracuse stuAssociation dent hails with joy the New England Association of Syracuse University Alumni formed at the University Club in Boston on Tuesday evening. This association is the eighth of its character and with the associations in New York, Albany, Buffalo, Chicago, Rochester and Central New York it forms a chain of active working organizations whose aid to the University is incalculable. Besides binding their members with an active interest in Syracuse. They do many other things; they spread the fame of Syracuse; they secure students and athletes. They become representatives of the University in their locality and do for it there what a regular salaried representative would do and even more,

The advertisement which the University gets of the mere holding of a banquet such as the New York association held a short time ago is of immense benefit.
The sending of athletes to Syracuse is no small portion of things done by the associations for Syracuse. To their activities we owe the fact that many of our best athletes today are attending this college instead elsewhere. This is not an end in itself but a means which cannot be dispised by an institution seeking collegiate standing of the first rank.
The New England Association has a very auspicious beginning, starting as it does with nearly forty members. Few of the city associations we have now organized with as many members; one indeed had eight at the first meeting. The field of the new association is a good one. There are already a number of graduates settled in that locality and more are going there every year. They are concerned in all branches of activity and form one of the strongest bodies of alumni situated in any locality.
One noticeable feature about the forming of the new association as well as the New York club is the activity of the younger graduates of the University. A number of these men have shown themselves to be very interested in this work. Among them are Arthur L. Evans, Frank E. Clarke, Walter F. Baylis and Frank Sowers, men whe have left such a short time ago that we still think of them by their undergraduate appellations of "Art," "Frank," "Ky" and "Baldy." To the first named belongs the credit of originating and carrying forward the movement which resulted in Tuesday evening's organization.

FRESHMAN BANQUET RULES.

At Cornell the following set of rules is prescribed for the freshman banquet: Rule I. No underclass rivalry or strife of any kind, whether by moral persiasion or physical force; shall begin prior to 48 hours before the appointed hour of the banquet.
Rule II. No agents of any kind which would tend toward the temporary disfigurement or injury of either party shall be used. This shall include the use of weapons of any description, wires, chemical compounds of a harmful nature, etc.
Rule III. No underclassman captured by the opposing class shall be tied, handeuffed or have his personal liberty restricted by any physical forces for the purpose of public exhibition.
Rule IV. These rules shall be interpreted and applied by a committee appointed from the two upper classes by the presidents of the same.
Rule V. The intentional violation of these rules shall be considered hazing. and will render the offender liable to removal from the University.

IN OTHER COLLEGES.
Over one hundred candidates have reported for baseball at the University of Michigan. The Michigan coach is McAllister, who played with Buffalo last year.
The final score of the intercollegiate hockey teams was as follows:

COMMENTS FROM BROWN.
The Brown Herald, speaking of the Brown-Syracuse basketball game, said
"The game was remarkably clean throughout, the teams relying upon passing rather than rough work to advance the ball.
"In passing and throwing baskets the Syracuse team was the equal of any seen upon the home floor this season, and it was only the excellent defensive work of the 'Varsity that decided the result of the game.
"The Syracuse team putup an excellent article of basketball; and the work of Powell and Kirchgrasser was excellent."

Z00LOGISTS WRITE ARTICLES.
Several original contributions have recently been made to scienti c literature by members of the zoology department of the University.
The Department of Commerce and Labor of the government recently published a treatise by Professor Charles W. Hargitt of the University, comprising about one hundred pages of text with seven elaborately colored plates, all of which were either made by Professor Hargitt himself or under his personal supervision. It is a monograph dealing with "The Medusae of the Woods-Hall Region."
An article, also by Doctor Hargitt, recently appeared in the Journal of the Naples Biological Station as a result of work done during his recent residence in Naples. The article is entitled, "Notes on Some Hydromedusae from the Bay of Naples."
The department received this week a copy of the January issue of Morphologisches Jahrbuch, published in Leipzig, in which is an article by Professor W. M Smallwood upon "Some Observ. ations on the Cromosome Vesicles in the Maturation of Madibranchs." The treatise has also been published in pamphlet form.
Professor Smallwood's doctor's thesis in Harvard University was published about a month ago. He took his Ph.D. in the Cambridge institution a couple of years ago, but the paper, on account of delays in printing, has only just been ablished.

CUBTIS CIOSES COLLEGE CABEER

'Varsity Backstop to Play in Pacific League With Seattle.

Harry A. Curtis, '06 Law, catcher on last year's 'Varsity baseball team, has left for Seattle, Wash., where he will join the Pacific Coast league team in that city. The action of Curtis in going into professional baseball is not altogether a surprise, but his friends did not expect him to leave before the year was out, although he has had sev eral offers. The rumor of an offer from Seattle was rife in baseball circles on the hill last week Thursday and Friday The matter was definitely decided on Friday.
Curtis could play in the Eastern league, but the season in the West is eight months long and a larger salary results.
The departing catcher entered the University in the fall of 1003 from Newburyport, Mass. Besides holding the mitt for the baseball team, he has been fullback on the footb il team for two seasons during which he distinguished himself a number of times. He scored the touchdown against West Point on November 19. He was a player with a head and was as strong on defense as offense. His line bucking powers made him one of the best offensive players on the team.
Curtiss has played baseball ever since he bas played anything. He was an expert batsman as well as catcher and was one of the mainstays of the team last year. His entrance into professional ranks closes his athletic career here, but Curtiss will retuin to take up his work in the Law College later. "Cure" has always been popular and his leaving is regretted by many students and friends.

CHORAL CONCERT TOMORROW EVENINO.

The Fine Arts chorus, under the direction of Professor Louis B. Phillips, will give a recital in John Crouse College tomorrow evening. Two sacred cantatas are to be sung, C. Whitney Coombs' "The Ancient of Days" and Von Weber's "In Constant Order Wurks the Lord." Between the longer selections Miss Margaret Benson will play an orgen solo, Theme and Variations in A flat, by Thiele.
The chorus will be assisted by these soloists; Professor Harold L. Butler, baritone; Professor Irene Hichborn Foster, soprano; Mrs. Adolph Frey, contralto; Misses Cora Violet Scott and Margaret Ryder, sopranos; Miss:s Augusta Sauter and Stewart, contraltos; Merton S. Lovell, tenor; Birney B. Petigrue, Ralph Lamont Stilwell, baritones, and Carl S. Graves, bass. The accompanists are Miss Annette May Snell and Frank Stewart Adams.

elaborate preparations for

 beta theta pi convention.The local chapter of Beta Theta Pi is making elaborate preparations for the fifteenth annual convention of the Second District of the fraternity which is to be held Thursday and Friday in this city
The grand ball at the Empire Hall Thursday night promises to be a billiant affair The hall will be decorated in the fraternity colors, pink and blue, and with the fraternity flower, the American Beauty rose. Kapp's orchesw tra will furnish music and during the evening an elaborate course supper will be served.
Each of the sororities on the hill as well as the neutral body will be well represented at this event, as sufficient invitations have been issued to insure ladies for the alumni and delegates as well as for the members of the local chapter. The patronesses will be Mrs. William B. Kirk, Mrs. William H. Haberle, Mrs. John Dunnels, Mrs. Emma Richards, Mrs. Charles A. Church, Mrs. Edward C. Britcher, Mrs. G. Griffith Lewis, Mrs. George N. Cheney and Mrs. Stephen Bastable, all of Syracuse, and Mrs. Maurice Fikes of Herkimer. At the business session the following morning at the chapter house, matters pertaining to the fraternity in general and the Second District in particular will be discussed. Following this session there will be lunch and a smoker. The banquet at the Yates in the evening will close the convention. At this event there will be present not only the members of the local chapter and many alumni, but about ten delegates each from the chapters at Cornell, Colgate, St. Lawrence and Union and several from Columbia, Stevens and Rutgers. Everyone in attendance will be given an American Beauty rose, the fraternity flower, for his buttonhole.
Among the delegates from Cornell will be Captain Wilfred LeRoy Umsted of the baseball team, and Willard H . Austin, assistant librarian of the university. Among the alumni to whom invitations have been extended and frum many of whom favorable replies have been received are the following: Governor Edward C. Stokes of New Jersey, whom the fraternity alumni association in New York City is about to banquet; ex-Governor John L. Bates of Massachusetts; Willis O. Robb, president of the fraternity; Francis H. Sisson, secretary of the fraternity; William Raymond Baird, editor of the Beta Theta Pi Magazine, the oldest fraternity publication in existence; Stanley E. Gunnison, district chief, all of New York' City, and Rev. PhilipiH. Cole, of the First Reformed Church of this city.
The names of the committee having in charge all arrangements follow: Harry J. Hamlin, president of the association, Syracuse; D. R. Thomas, Colgate; William G. Palmer, Columbia; Charles E. Tourison, Cornell; Daniel B. Miner, Rutgers; Lou L. Heaton, St. Lawrence; J. Knox Turner, Stevens; William Y. Boyd, Syracusa; George M. Elmendorf, Union.

HAMLITON WILL

FIGHT HARD

Close, Exciting Contest Expected-...-Home

Season Closes

This Week.

The 'Varsity basketball tham expect a hard contest this evening when they play against the five from Hamilton. The Syracuse men are determined to wipe out the defeat of February 6, and the Clinton team wishes to continue its good record. There are a number of Hamilton supporters in town and a large crowd is expected.
The second team will play a preliminary game with the Jenners Prepara. tory School team. The second team has been defeated but once, this year and it expects to keep up its good record. The Jenners team played againgt the 'Varsity early in the year and was defeated. They look for better things against the second team.
The basketball team will close its home season this week Saturday evering with the game against Allegheny in the gymnasium. The last game of the season will be against Hiram College next week.

NEW SHELL A GOOD ONE.

The new four-oared shell which arrived early Saturday morning is now housed safely in the old boathouse on the lake, Coach Ten Eyck expressed himself as highly pleased with the new shell. The boat, which was designed by himself and which embodies his ;ideas of the structure of a racing craft, was built by W. H, Davy of Cambridgeport, Mass., the builder of the racing shells of Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Cornell, and other rowing colleges. The boat is forty-two feet long with a nineteen inch beam. Six oars are to be provided; these were made by F. Ward, Philadelphia, and will arrive soon.
The coach said that he had no hard juck story, but he wished rather to tell the truth about the prospects. The belief that the 'Varsity will be augmented by last year's freshmen, thus bettering the condition of last year, should not be cherished as a fact. "I lost two men out of the 'Varsity boat," said the coach, "and one from the freshman shell. In view of the fact that four men are to be provided for the new shell, the result does not leave many more candidates for the 'Varsity boat than last year, and so we are but little better off than last season."
Last year the menwent on the water on March 8 and if the weather is favorable and the float is put in good condition, the men will probably be out as early next month. There are on hand two working boats which are being fixed up and as soon as the float, which is at present snow-locked and almost. useless, is repaired, the freshmen will be taken out. The outlet is clear of iee which makes this possible.
Twenty-three freshmen will be taken on the water. The coach conceded that they were "good looking." "Eight men can win their seats," said the coach, "and we are going to stick to our motto of doing our very best and leave the rest behind."

NOTICES.

Miss Margaret Agnes Witthowski, '07-ex, who spent two years in the Fine Arts College, is meeting with great success in New York City where she is improving her voice with a leading vo. calist.
The fame of her marvelous voice has reached the gilded palaces of Fifth avenue and a letter received in Syracuse this week amounces that she was one of the entertainers at a Vanderbilt home recently and that her singing was received with surprise and satisfaction ly all present. As a result of her work she has been placed on several coming programs at homes of the elites in New York.
Miss Wittkowski sang for Mme. Schumann-Heink when that lady gave a song recital here two years ago. She pronounced Miss Wittowski's voice to be one of the best she ever heard and advised her to go to Europe to study.
Through the generosity of a local woman Miss Wittowski is now studying in New-York, where she expects to remain a year, after which she intends to go to Bayreuth.

HaMLION DEFETED By Labee SCORE

'Varsity Overwhelms the Clinton Five With Score of 60-9.

The University basketball five defeated the Hamilton College aggregation last evening in the gymnasium by the overwhelming score of 60 to 9 , The victors now naturally feel a little more reconciled over the recent defeat at Clinton by the score of 19 to 16 ,
In the game last evening Syracuse attained the lead at the start and at the end of the half the score was 24 to 7. In the second half it became a question as to whether or not the visitors would score during the balf. It was not until nearly time for the timer's whistle to blow that Knolt found the basket for the only two tallies that his team made during the half. During this time Captain Powell's men rolled up a total of 85 points.
The teams used a similar style of play, each player covering his man. The passing of the local men has never been better. Each man was in the play every minute, Each team made five fouls; of these Sherman threw one for Hamilton, while "Art" Powell only missed one for Syracuse.
The summary:
Syracuse (60)
Hamilton (9)
Kirchgasser, r, f.............l. g., Bramley Redlein, I. f..................r. g. Schwartz Powell (capt) c.......c., Sherman (capt). Houseknecht, r. g..............I. f., Knolt Dollard, Riehl, l. g..........r. f., Siccard Referee-Redman; umpire-Bradys timer-Lowe; time of halves-20 min. In the preliminary game the University second team defeated Jemners Preparatory School l.ve in an exciting game by the score of 23 to 22 .

PROFESSORS OPPOSE SENIOR

 PETITION.The petition which is being circulated by the seniors in an endeavor to get excused from examination in all subjects in which they attain a grade of Cor above is likely to meet with faculty opposition when it is presented for action. Several of the professors expressed themselves as opposed to the project yesterday. Dean Smalley, although he favors the 85 per cent rule which was in effect some years ago, is not altogether in favor of the present movement, as he said that it would interfere with the awarding of Phi Beta Kappa keys. The faculty rule is that when any student is passed up without an examination he shall not receive a grade above C. This might throw out some students who would otherwise get a Phi Beta Kappa key.
A number of the other professors were opposed to the petition, saying that examinations were the only means they had of determining the knowledge the student had of the subject.

Christian The vesper service last Association Sunday afternoon was Singing one of the grandest meetings ever held under the auspices of the Christian associations. It was a grand audience and it was addressed by a grand old man, one of the grandest in the world, certainly one that is known and known favorably as far as Christianity is the religion of the people. Although this article was written to criticise, the opportunity is too good to be passed without complimenting the associations on the success of the Sunday services this year. The audience, which was composed entirely of students, numbered over eight hundred and showed that the meetings are having a place in student life. The speakers that have addressed | The speakers that have addressed | year. The result is the most |
| the services this year have been | rigid economy on all lines and | service Sunday was the crowning one of the series.

This meeting, however, had a serious blot. The singing was utterly out of comparison to the numbers. The volume of sound would have suited very well the sinall body of freshmen who endeavored to sing their song on the stairs soon after college opened, but it certainly was not the singing which ought to have obtained at a meeting of the nature of Sunday's vespers.
The trouble seemed to be the scarcity of books. When the meetings were held in the gymnasium and were attended by something less than a hundred students, forty books were made to go. That number of books will notdo, however, for a service where the average attendance is from three to five hundred and an occasional audience of twice that number. There was less than one book for every twenty people in the service on Sunday last and even the impromptu choir had to put up with the inconvenience of looking over one another's shoulder.

This fault of the scarcity of books is not for the larger meetings only, but is true at the reg. ular Sunday services. Forty books will not serve a hundred properly and there is seldom less than three hundred out every Sabbath. Such a condition of affairs ought to be remedied.
The question is naturally ask ed, "Why don't the associations buy books?" The answer is, "No money." The Christian associations at Syracuse are poorer than the proverbial church mouse. With the exception of a small appropriation from the University, which is applied on the Handbook, they have to depend on the dues from members for their entire support. A large proportion of this amount goes to pay for the annual reception given by the associations sarly in the fall. Almost total poverty reigns-well, not quite supreme but almost-for the rest of the year. The result is the most men of exceptional ability. The one of the results of this economy is forty books.
The Christian associations at Cornell have an allowance of fifty dollars a week from the Cornell corporation for Sunday speakers. The speakers which have addressed the vespers at Syracuse so far this year have required the total expenditure of less than two dollars. It is for. tunate for the University in this respect that Syracuse is a city of the size that it is, for if men of note were not in the town or passing through so that they could stop without much extra expense, the class of speakers which could be obtained weekly for half a college year for the total expenditure of two dollar need not be described here.
It is plain that any acquisition of new books must be by gift. Some of the officers of the associations are fondly hoping that the University will appreciate the good of the services and make the gift, but others see little hope in that quarter. The books, however, have got to come. From where no one knows now.

BASKEEBALLL UNOER GOVERNIMG BOARD

Movement on Foot to Bring Winter Sport Under Central Control.

There is a movement on foot by the faculty athletic committee to bring about several changes in the athletic situation at the University. Two of the most important are to bring the management of basket ball under the control of the Governing Board the same as football and take the decision as to the eligibility of certain athletes off of the hands of the Board and to place in the hands of the athletic committee of the faculty.
These suggestions were taken up and passed upon at the recent meeting of the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts and will be considered by the faculties of the other colleges before they are binding. Even then the basketball situation will not be settled.
Basketball at Syracuse has alwoys been under the control of the men on the team. They have elected a manager and he has charge of the basketball affairs. If the feam lost money the manager settied and if it paid dividends (this has not been very often until recent years) the mariager was so much better off. If the Governing Board assumes control, the manager will be elected by the Board and the assistant manager by the students. The funds received trom the trips. and games will be turned into the general treasury and the expenses of the team paid out of the treasury. In that way there will be no loss or gain for the manager.
The difficulty in turning the management of the sport over would be that the students would have to be admitted to all contests free as they are to the other games which are supported by the Board. This would cut off most of the revenue of the team and would make the sport a losing instead of a paying one. The gymnasium, too, is much too small to allow a general admittance. It is probable, however, that some arrangement will be made, and, beginning next year, the game will be controlled the same as other athletics in the University.
In regard to having the faculty decide on the eligibility of men, no stricter rules are contemplated, but a stricter interpretation of the present ones. The rule that a student must have no more than ten hours back work in order to play on any team is to be continued aud a rule made to the effect that a special student who wishes to compete on a team must take as many huurs work as a regular student in that course.
The number of days that any team can be away on trips is to be limited. This will probably affect both the base-

New Hall of Natural History.

The perspective of the , yew Hall of will be as shown.

Natursl History to be constructed this year from the bequest of John Lyman is shown above: As the picture shows, the buidding will be three stories and the attic gbove the basement: which will also be used for class purposes The new structure will be the most roomy of any of the University buildings and by far the most ornamental. The tower shown in the cut will not be constracted on the new building. The revised plans call for a more orna mental tower. Otherwise the building

The rules will not go into effect until they have been acted on by the faculties of all the colleges.

Dr. Bristol to Speak on Classical Teaching.
Dr. George P. Bristol, Professor of Greek in Cornell University, will speak in the Chapel Thursday morning, March 2 , from 10 to 11 o' clock on "The Linguistic and the Literary Sides of Classical Teaching." All classes in Greek and Latin meeting at that hour will meet in the Chapel, and elassical students not otherwise engaged are invited to attend, especially those expecting to teach classies. The class regularly meeting in Chapel at that hour will meet as usual.
Historical Association Lectures:
Rev. Mr. Draper will speak before the Historical Association on Saturday evening. March 4, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "The Japanese at the Present Day." Rev. Draperis a graduate of Syracuse University and has been a missionary in Japan for many years. After the lecture refreshments will be served and the evening spent socially. All students are invited.

The college man should wear cldthes built to order by the college tailors' Dyer & Orman, 332 S. Warren St.

The tower side of the building is the front and faces on University Place and is 150 feet long. The side facing College Place is shown on the left hand of the picture. This is 160 feet long and sets about 30 feet from the curb. The front of the building is on a line with the Hallof Leanguages and Smith College.
The specifications are being prepared by the architects, Professors Revels and Hollenbeck. The bids will, be ad-n, vertised for soon.
c. whitiey combis hears his cantata sung by chorus.
C. Whitney Coombs, composer of the sacred cantata, "The Ancient of Days," was present at the recital of the Fine Arts chotus class in Johnt Crouse College hall and heard his canc tata sung by the class. After the res cital he was tendered a reception at the Sinfonia chapter house.
The recital was attended by several hundred people, and was nearly as great a success as the rendition of "Stabat Mater" last year. Thechorus was directed by Prafessar Louis Baker Phillips.
The other numbers on the program were the cantata, "In Constant Order Works the Lord," by Van Weber and an organ $80^{\circ}$, Theme and Yariations in A flat, by Thiele, by Miss Margaret Briesen.
The soloists were-Professor Harold L. Butler, baritone; Professor Irene Hitchborn Foster, soprano; Mrs. Adolph Frey, contralto; Misses Cota Violet Scott and Marguret Ryder, sopranos; Misses Augusta Sauter and Pauline Stewart, contraltos; Merton'S. ## FRESSMEN CATCH CRRBS TODAY

Men on the Water Earlier than for Three Years.

Eight brawny freshmen will have their $t$ rst rowing experience on the water today. Coach Ten Eyck will begin his work in the boats a full week earlier than he has in any of the previous years he has been here.
The eight men will go out in two squads. : The coach will work with them from the coxswain's seat in the four oared gig, taking them two at a tume and teaching the rudiments of the stroke. No test will be made of their durability.
Tomorrow eight different men will go out. It is probable that all of the 23 men now rowing will be given a chance on the water, although only 16 will be taken out when the regular rowing commences.
The men will only be able to go up and down the outlet, as the ice is not yet out of the river.
The men to go out will be: On the 1:30 o'clock car, Blocher, Corp, Park and Avery, on the 230 o'clock car, Paddock, Duvall, Cabeen and Dodge. The rest of freshman candidates will report to Captain Dempster in the gymasium at 4 o'clock.

We have two honorable opponents, Wesleyan and Colgate. Both have excellent debating records and are capable of sending out teams this year that will uphold these records. One of these colleges, Wesleyan, has already a victory over Syracue to her credit.
-The unusual method to be emplayed in the two debates this year ought to lead to hearty support. If the judges in both dein his sophomore year. He was also captain of the sophomore team which debated against Alfred last year. He is a ready thinker and speaks with a fervor that commands attention.
Fred W. Hartwell, '05, began his public debating work last year. Although a member of class clubs since his freshman year, his first public debate was against the seniors last year. He was also a member of the Allygheny team, carrying the rebuttall for the local team.
Albert J. Croft, '06, was the member of the Alfred team last year, receiving at very complymentary notice on his delivery in he Alfred Sun.
The members of the team which will debate Colgate in John Crouse College are equally as capable of putting up a good argument. Lloyd L. Cheney was captain of his class team in his sophomore year and a member of the Wesleyan team last year. Mr. Cheney is known as a hard worker and is especially strong in rebuttal.

is better to express hopes than fears anyway.
There is one thing certain, with things no farther determined on than they are, and that is that the debating interests are safe in the hands of the men who are to endeavor to uphold the name of Syracuse on April 12. Every man on the two teams is a man worthy of the place and capable to fill it, also. Of the men on the Wesleyan team the one with the most experience is Jacob C. Tressler. Mr. Tressler is a junior and has been a member of his class team for two years and captain of it

The two substitutes, L. S. Coir and W. M. Wemett, were both members of their class team last year.
Every man on either team is an expert debater and can well be trusted to present Syracuse's side of the case at hand. As before the teams will be under the able coaching of Professor Loser who has helped the teams so well in the 'past.
With such an outlook debating at this University this year ought to be eminently successful. It certainly deserves to be.

in OTHER COLLEOES.

The baseball schedule of the Universilty of West Virginia contains thirtysix games this year.
The University of Pennsylvania last week granted the degree of Doctor of Laws to Emperor Wilhelm II of Germany. Baron yon Speck Stermberg, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the United States from the German Empire, an honorary alumnus of the university, was present to receive the degree, having been so instructed from Berlin by His Imperial Majesty. Degrees were also granted to President Roosevelt, Sir Henry Durant, Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark, Philander C. Knox, David T. Watson and Robert S. Woodward.
At many universities throughout the country the advisability of conferring upon their representatives in debate the 'varsity letters as well as to their representatives in athletics is being strongly urged.
Report comes from Cornell that the prospects for a winning 'Varsity crew are very discouraging. Only two men who rowed in last year's 'Varsity eight are candidates for this year's boat.
Dartmouth has submitted to Williams for the annual debate the following question: "Resolved, That the Monroe Doctrine, as interpreted by President Roosevelt in his last annual message, should be adopted as a national policy." The debate will be held at Hanover early in May. Williams has the choice of sides.
Andrew Carnegie has presented Tufts college with $$ 100,000$ for the erection of a new library.
At least 100 Harvard students will attend the presidential inaugaration at Washington March 4, where they will march at the head of the collegiate department in the parade.

The Control The subject of the of Basketball control of basketball at Syracuse University is under discussion. The fact that this is the only athletic team in the University that is not under the Governing Board would in itself cry for a change in management if it were not for several peculiar features of the game. It is only in recent years that much of an interest has been aroused in the game. The managers lately have been hard workers and they have made the game a factor in college life.
If that sport is put under the central control and no admission charged to the game, basketball would be a serious drain on the athletic exchequer. There are already too many of these for its size. It would seem almost impracticable with the present conditions to put it on a level with the other sports. If the scheme of paid admissions could be continued, it would be well to have the game under the supervision of the Governing Board. The managers for the past few years have done very creditable work and little that deserves review or criticism, but there may be some years when it would be well to have a control on the sport so that it could be kept within bounds.

Thwing on Callege Doctor Charles F. Thwing, president of the Western Reserve University, says some nice things about a college training in the Review of Reviews. In part he says:
"College will help a boy to come to a more satisfying life. It will open to him fields of meditation and reflection, fresh and inviting, which once would have seemed to him barren and brown. It will aid him in finding himself least alone when most alone. It will help him to clearer thinking, to purer feeling, to stronger willing; but the thinking will be also richer as well as clearer, the feeling will be deeper as well as purer, and the will indeed will be nore gracious as well as stronger. The alabaster-box of life will become to him more precious; and all that humanity has saved out of its struggle for the pure, the true, the good and the beautiful will be dearer to his heart, more holy in his will, and more effective in and through his whole being. Literature, architecture, friendship, music, nature, will speak to him in more varied and finer tones. The inspiration they give will be more impressive and the solace that they offer more consoling.
"In the enriching of one's life a father sending his son to college may give a special value to the word friendship. For it is a word most significant in the college language. I have known a wise father to say, "I will send my boy to college even for the sake of the friendships he will make!" College friendships! What a world of love, of associations, and of associates they open! They are wrought into literature, as well as into life. The greatest poem of the last century commemorates a college friendship. There are no friends so natural, so genuine, so warm, so true, so satisfying, as those formed in college. In life's failures, college friends are the ones who still love us. In life's triumphs, their congratulations give the most contentment. The father may, indeed, well think of the friends whom he will give to his son by opening to him the college doors.
"But the fnther will also learn that through the college he is able to fit his son not only for self-knowledge and a knowledge of life, but also for the richest service to the community. His son will become a better citizen by reason of his academic residence. I do not fail to recognize that the impression prevails that the so-called higher education may so lift the man above the uneducated that he is unwilling to try to be of common public service. Neither do I fail to recognize the fact that education refines the taste as well as informs the judgment. I am painfully aware that examplescan be found of graduates who seem to glory in their remoteness and aloofness from common interests. But notwithstanding all such conditions and examples, the fact remains that a college education usually not only prepares a man to be of better service to the people, but also inspires him with a wish to be of better service. The education opens his eyes to opportunities to which he would otherwise have been blind. It gives to him breadth and depth of sympathy with the community, as well as increases his power of meeting the demands which it justly makes. It not only gives him a richer manhood, it creates in him a finer citizenship." FOR Roller Skating Largest floor for this purpose ever laid. Orchestra of six pieces.

TRGCK CANDDDTES ARE KEPT BUSY

Large Number of Men Working Daily---The Relay Teams.

The gymnasium is filled every day with candidates taking preliminary training for the 1905 track team. If the interest thus far shown is kept up, Syracase should make a splendid showing in trask athletics this year. Coach Hutchins is instilling his spirit into the men and is endeavoring to drill them into a winning form. Although the fied men are given special work, the track men are receiving the most attention. The coach is giving them a system of exercises which aids them in getting a long, forward stride-a stride a little different from that used by Syracuse men before and evidently a superior one.
The men trying for the mile and two mile relay teams to be sent to Philadelphia in April are being given separate work. At present they are being taught how to start from the take-off. A large number of men are out for both of these teams, Ralph, Sechner and Erway of last year's mile relay tom are all in college and all have stated more or less definitely that they will be out. Lyons, one of the ends of this year's 'Varsity football team, will also be out. Simmons '08 has had consilerable experience in running the quarter and pressure is being brought to bear to get hin out. Mitchell, Harwood, Gidey, Fisher, Bryant, Stebbins, Patsons, Schworm, F. G. Jones, Petiprue, Hekking, Price and Griffith are among the men trying for this team. From these men the fastest team which ever represented the University is expected.
In the two-mile relay team K. B. Squires heads the list. W. Y. Boyd and Gillette will drop th ir long distance runs early in the season and compete for this team. These three men will probably make the team. A number of other distance runners are competing for the team. Some of the men out for the quarter will be tried out for the half.
Cach Hutchins says, "The secret of success in track is to keep the men eager." Going on this principlo he is very careful not to overwork the men, but gives such a varied list of exercises that every muscle in the body is developed.
Professor Losey Declares Contest Oif
Professor Frederick D. Losey yesterlay declared the University Prize Oratorical Contest off. No contest will be held this year. The conditions for the contest called for twelve entries, from which number six contestanis were to be chosen. Fourteen men handed in their names but only five had their orations in when the entries clased.

Ithacan Boys Would Par ticipate in Regatta on the Lake.

The Cascadilla Preparatory School wishes to row a two-mile race with the freshman crew on Onondaga Lake some time in May or early in June. Commodore Brockett refuses to say anything about the matter before it is laid before the Governing Board, but it is known that Cascadilla has written wanting to come.
Commodore Brockett has not been able to obtain any crew to row the 'Varsity in case a spring regatta is held on the lake, as now seems probable. The Francis crew is not organized this year and as yet he has found no other desirable crew to come. The question of expense is a big one.
The Cascadilla crew has rowed on the lake before, being defeated three years ago by the class of 1905 .

FRESHMEN AT KAPPA KAPPAI GAMMA HOUSE.
The 1908 delegation of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained for freshman men at the chapter house last evening. The house was prettily decorated with paims, smilax, cut flowers and orange bunting. The general scheme was orange and green, the freshman colors. The color idea was carried to the refreshments and orange ice with a green layer in it was served. The guests were Messrs. Freshmen Some of the freshon Water men who have been waiting for a chance to sit in a boat and pull an oar have at last received it. With the thermometer way below the freezing point they have had their first experience in catching "crabs" and being behind in the stroke together with the other unpleasant features of cold weather rowing. This is an excellent experience for freshmen. It teaches them hardihood and shows them that rowing is not all fun. It would be of much more benefit to them if it were not for the fact that they consider themselves heroes. They come back and tell about rowing bare-leg. ged and bare-handed with the weather at 28 or $30^{\circ}$ and their classmates. look upon them as real flesh-and-blood, over-Niaga-ra-Falls heroes. The men of the other classes, who know better, do not show it but unite in a good humored chafing which still further confirms the freshman's already well-formed idea that he is "IT." His ietters to home frowned upon or discouraged, friends and his talks to other they are kept apart. Everyone warm, tell in veiled language of outside. his marvelous ability in keeping life alive in the hardships he has to undergo. Wonderful !
All this does not apply to all freshmen but it applies to too many. Some of them realize it when they are dropped along about Easter time and find that heroism is a fleeting shadow. More than one freshman has had the painf too soon.

Deficient A few of the crew Oarsmen candidates are deficient in their college work, enough so to debar them from rowing. Most of these men are freshmen but it is said that one of the 'Varsity men was in danger of being dropped on account of back work. With this state of affairs several students have been heard to express dissatisfaction and to favor a loosening of the rules in favor of those men who are putting in so much time in an endeavor to win fame for Syracuse on the water.
While realizing fully the large amount of work done by the crew men, we are heartily opposed to any interpretation or suspension of rules that would favor anybody, crew man, football man or debate man. The purpose of our college is study and everything outside the study element is incidental and must be subordinated to the regular rules of the classroom.
Syracuse is a great university and it is time that she became such in practice as well as in size. One of the marks of a great university is its attention to the purpose for which it was established-education. All the great colleges pay strict attention to the business of education and are loved and respected by their friends for it. Athletics, celebrations, excursions or student demonstrations do not interfere with this business. Those things are apart from the classroom work and, although not friends, who reaily do not know $/$ recognizes the value of outside that exercise keeps the man affairs, but they should be kept

There is probably no college in the country that is as much loved by its alumni as is Princeton. It is one of the greatest institutions in the country. Yet, at Princeton after mid-year's over a hundred students were dropped for poor work. The scholarship standing is high there and the fact that a man is an athlete does not lower the standing for him. It would seem, moreover, that Princeton's athletic standing was not interfered with by the rulings of the faculty.
A strict interpretation of the rules might lead to a temporary disadvantage here, but the final result would be of the utmost benefit both to the University and her athletics.

IN THE BOAT

Ten Eyck Talks About Cascadilla and Inter. class Races.

Everything at the boathouse is boomIng, except the ice in the lake. That still remains firm. The sound of hammers in the new dressing room, ViceCommodore Wharff cleaning the snow of the wharf, a few shivering freshmen and newspaper reporters standing on the float watching the "three men in a boat," counting the coach, the splash of oars generally moving paralleland, woe to the man at the handle, sometimes perpendicular to the shell, gave indication that spring will soon be here.
The last squad to take the boat, consisting of Whitney, Paddock, Heath and Wells, had their first lesson yesterday. Although the sum was not out and there was a slight breeze, yet it was good weather to make a man feel anxious to do something. The coach, after giving the men instructions in how to distinguish port and starboard oar, carrying the shell out, putting oars in lock and getting into the boat, impressed them with the fact that the same principle learned on the rowing machine should be put in practice in the boat. Paddock did the stroking for the first squad; it was a case of starting out in a zig-zag course, splashing, catching crabs, trying to look at the blade of the oar and the coach at the same time, and returning in five minutes, pulling together like Bob Stone and Ed Packard.
The second squad, consisting of Stephenson, Cabeen, Huttenloch and Schiefer, arrived at $3: 30$. The result of their first lesson was apparent in the work yesterday afternoon. The coach expressed himself as well pleased with the day's work, adding that he was sure. notwithstanding the large catch yesterday, that there was still plenty of crabs in the outlet.
The addition to the boathouse which will be finished today will be used as a bath, dressing and locker room. It is $24 \times 26$ feet, is well lighted and will contain seventeen new lockers, four shower baths and six benches. It adjoins the rear end of the boathouse. Coach Ten Eyck said in regard to the Cascadilla race that he hoped that there might be arranged a regatta in which both the freshman and 'Varsity crews could participate In regard to the interclass races he said that while it would mean for a time a splitting up of the crews, yetif the men and the Governing Board wanted the races he would not oppose them in the least. Since there will be three eight.oared shells in constant use this spring besides the four-oared boat, that means places for twenty-eight men which will be incentive enough for any freshmen to stay out as long as possible. The coach said that while the number of freshmen at the training table will be finally cut to eleven, yet he would encourage any freshman to stay as long as he could find an oar or a vacant seat. This is significant and interesting to the freshmen, when it is known that two of the men in last year's 'Varsity boat were substitutes the year before.

CANDIDATESFOR 1905 TRACKTEAM

The 1905 'Varsity track and field team will be chosen from the men given below. New men who report within a short time will also be given a fair trying out Coach Hutchins said to a Daily Orange reporter, "No man, however fast, will be allowed to represent this University on the track team on one or two weeks' training; neither will any man be allowed to compete on the team who does not keep prescribed training rules."

HabDEE THAN COLGATE
"I Would not be Surprised at Defeat," Says Manager Rice.

The game with Allegheny in the gymnasium this evening promises to be one of the hardest of the season. Manager Earl G. Rice said yesterday, "I think Allegheuy is better than Colgate. I would not be very much surprised if they managed to defeat us, even on our own floor."
Syrecuse has been defeated twice by this team and the manager has a wholesome respect for their ability. The Allegheny team has the distinction of having defeated the Buffalo German Y. M. C. A., one of the strongest basketball teams in the state. They have also defeated Yale.
The game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.
beta theta pi reunion closes
The Beta Theta Pi Second Dlstrict convention, which closed last evening with a banquet at the Yates, was a most successful reunion, At the business session yesterday morning, a nearby college which is about to petition the national organization of Beta Theta Pi for a charter, presented their case to the delegates from their district.
It was voted to hold the next reunion with the Cornell chapter. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President. W. L. Austin, Cornell; vice-president, R. S. Vail, Cornell, and the secretary to be elected by the Stevens chapter.
Following the business meeting there was a luncheon and smoker after which several of the delegates visited the college buildings. The banquet in the evening was a fitting climax to the festivities. The toast-list follows: Harry J. Hamlin, Toastmaster; "Beta Spirit," Rev. Philip H. Cole, Union '87; "Beta Sisters," W. H. Austin, Cornell '91; "Beta Electives," D. P. Thomas, Colgate '05;" Betadom in Cities," Leonard McAneny, Columbia '04; "Alpha Sigma Chi," D. B. Miner, Rutgers '05; "Alumni," J. Knox Turner, Stevens '06; "Second District," Stanley E. Spring The manifestation on Regatta the part of the crew authorities looking toward a spring regatta on Onondaga Lake is just what the students at Syracuse want: A spring regatta is a great expense, but we feel that the results are excellent enough to warrant the expenditure. The great majority of Syracuse students are not in a position to go to Poughkeepsie at the time of the intercollegiate regatta in July. These students have no opportunity of seeing the crews in a race and in fact but comparatively few students ever see them row at all.

The spring regatta would be an education to the students. It would create sentiment for the crews and make the oarsmen feel that the University spirit, at least, is less than eight miles away.

Baskethall There seems to be Relations very pleasant relations with other colleges growing out of our basketball schedule. This has been manifested in several ways in the last few days. First of all, Yale has asked for a second game with the local five to be played here; Hamilton has asked the 'Varsity captain to officiate at a game at Clinton next week and Cornell wanted the manager to referee at the Yale-Cornell game. These incidents go to show that our neighboring colleges are adopting an attitude toward Syracuse that it would be well to imitate. ## GAME MARRED BY ROUOH PLAY

Varsity Wins Stubbornly Fought Struggle...Many Fouls.

The last houe game of the season for the basketball team played in the gymnasium Saturday evening against Allegheny was by far the roughest of the season. The game resulted in a score of 22 to 14 in favor of Syracuse, but the playing was far from being satisfactory to the audience The most redeeming feature about it was the fact that either team had to work hard for its scores.
The work of the officials was not quite satisfactory. The managers of the two teams officiated, alternating referee and umpire in the different halves. The work was rather partisan and dissatisfying to the spectators. Honors were about even, however, for the audience leveled things up and degraded themselves by hissing.
Although a number of fouls were allowed to pass, they were so numerous that all could not be ignored and a number of scores were made from them. McArthur scored six points for Allegheny and Captain Powell eight for his own team in this manner. Allegheny offended several times in walking with the ball, but this fault was penulized but once.
The difference in the styles of play was manifested in the warming up before the game. Allegheny used long passes and shots, while Syracuse followed its usual method of playing close to the goal.
The start of the game promised a much better contest than resulted. Allegheny was the first to score on a foul off Kirchyasser. This point was not made until after a couple of minutes of clean, fast playing. Comfort then scored one of the two baskets his team made the first half, bringing Allegheny three points in the lead. The routers began to call to the local men to wake up and they did it so successfully that Kirchgasser was able to get in one of his short, quick shots which brought the first score for Syracuse. Powell then scored two points frum fouls. Rossiter then overcame the lead for his team by a basket that made the score 5 to 4 in Allegheny's favor. Another goal from foul tied the score.
From this time on the game became unnecessarily rough. Syracuse soon got the lead and rough tactics were resurted to. A leg.eny were the first olfenders and the offense naturaly aroused the local players.
The half was delayed by the burning out of a fuse in one of the lights and an injury to the Allegheny captain, "Big Chief" Lewis, as he is called by his teammates. When play was resumed the men did not get into a fast pace before the half closed with a score of 14 to 8 in favor of Syracuse.
No time was taken out in the secend half, making the actual time but twenty minutes. The last half was not nearly as good an exhibition of the game as the first and it was marred by more rough playing. The Syracuse men put in some good team work several times, winning applause by their clever passing. Eight points were scored in this half by the home team and six by the visitors.
The honors for Allegheny were carried off by Comfort, the center, and MacArthur. For Syracuse, Kirchgasser did most of the scoring, being well supported by the team. Riehl played through a game for the first time and did it like a veteran. His opponent, Rossiter, was constantly trying to trip him, but he not only kept his feet but scored two baskets as well. Powell threw eight goals from nine chances.
The lineup:
Syracuse (22) (14) Allegheny. Kirchgasser, r. f.......l. g., MacArthur Redlein, 1. f.............r. g., Lewis (capt) Powell (capt) c..................., Comfort Houseknecht, r. g.............l. f., Russell Riehl, l. g... $\qquad$
Referee and umpire-E. G. Rice; umpire aud referee-Mayo; timersW. C. Lowe, Hewitt; Baskets-Kirch gasser 4, Riehl 2. Houseknecht, Comfort 2, Rossiter, MacArthur. Goals from fouls-Powell 8. MacArthur 6.

COVER DESIGN ADOPTED FOR 1906 ONONDAGAN

The order for the covers of the 1906 Onondag nhas been placed. The cover will be of orange cloth. The cover design is by Ernest I. Barott and has "Onondagan 1906" in a foliage body and the Syracuse seal as a pendant. Proof sheets have also been received of the first 100 pages of the book itself.
All the work on the book is being done in the city at something of an advance on the price of former buoks, The Mason Publishing Company is doing the printing and the Clark Engraving Company the engraving.
The book will have only 375 pages this year, being somewhat smaller than last year's book.
All the drawings for the annual were made under the personal supervision of Professor Carl T. Hawley of the College of Fine Arts. They are of exceptional quality.
The work of the editor, Fred W. Barrett, is nearly completed and all the copy is expected to be handed to the printer some time this month. This would insure the publication at Easter time.
The manager, Edward N. Packard, has had a force out after advertisements and he expects to close his end of the affair up this month, so that there will be no possible delays in getting out the book.

Dr. Mace also gave his lecture on "Lincoln and Douglass" before the Chicago Normal School. He expressed himself as pleased with the increasing reputation which Syracuse University has gained in the Middle West.

TWELVE CONTESTANTS CHOSEN FOR DENISON CONTEST

Twelve sophomores have been chosen to enter the Denison Prize Declamation centest to be held in John Crouse College in about four weeks. There were twelve entries and all showed such a marked degree of excellence at the trials that all were retained. They are W. W. Andrews, R. A. Moore, H, 'A. Robinson, J. Olin Coit, R. E. Wilson, G. N. Angell, D. A. Davis, R. N. Campbell, Robert Simpson, L. S. Coit, R. D. Trebilcox, R. G. Perkins.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Lack of Orators
It would seem that a such as was manifested at the submission of orations for the University Prize Oratorical contest was almost beneath comment. It is a poor commentary on the oratorical ability of Syracuse upperclassmen when only five men enter the principal oratorical contest of the year.
It would seem that with the number of students in our Liberal Arts College, from which most of our public speakers are drawn, we ought to be able to furnish contestants enough for a respectable contest. Such seems not to be the case, even with fifty dollars at stake.
Perhaps we ought to congratulate ourselves that Syracuse students are not so mercenary as to be brought into the contest for the sake of the pecuniary gain, for surely there must be in the two classes concerned at least five men who go into oratory for its own sake.
There is something wrong at Syracuse University when things of this kind which tend to make manhood and strength are neg- all come together. This would lected and even abandoned and alleviate the conditions sometrivial things, whose only recom- what, at least. mendation is a few hours' enjoyment, no lasting good to anyone, are given place. Something is wrong. It is something that the students themselves must rem edy.

The Sooial "The Social Whirl" Whirl is on. Ever since Senior Week college society has been on the move. A few days' rest was taken after the strenuous life of that week and then the merry life was resumed again and now there are three or four functions per evening bidding for popular favor. The popular young man is kept busy writing acceptances and regrets and equally as busy filling the engagements.
Receptions, freshman parties and fraternity dances and other functions are present in such force that more than one poor student has been "out every evening for a week and a half and I fell asleep in class today." These functions are very desirable in themselves. They create a pleasant feeling among college students and furnish an invaluable training in etiqette. Without social life colloge would be dull and a grind. With it it presents different sizes of life and allows a student to develop socially as well as intellectually. In some people this development is as important as the other.
The trouble with the present situation is that we are going at it too strenuously, trying to crowd too much into too little time. This idea of having Sen. ior Week full of gayety is an acceptable one and seems to agree with the practice in other colleges. We doubt the wisdom however, of making every week Senior Week.
There are probably not one of the functions now occupying the attention of one student that could be dropped without some feeling. They all seem to have their merits. It would seem much better though, to spread them out a little, not have them

EDWARD EVERETT HALE TO AD.

 DRESS ENOLISH CLUBThe English Club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Delta Kappa Epsilon chapter house. The speaker will be Doctor Edward Everett Hale, Jr., of Union College and his subject "Three English Dramatists of Today." The men dis. cussed will be Pinero, best known for his social dramas, "Iris" and "Letty;" Bernard Shaw, the noted Ibsen critic whose comedy, "Candida," has been twice produced here in Syracuse this year, and Stephen Phillips, the young dramatist who has been widely hailed as the reviver of the poetic drama. This lecture should be extremely interesting and a large audience is assured, No admission is charged and all students taking elective work in English are invited to attend. The lecture should be especially valuable to students in the Shakspere and English Drama courses.

DOCTOR SMALLEY BEFORE THE classical club
Dean Frank Smalley, head of the Latin department, will address the next meeting of the Classical Club in the seminar room on March 16 on "Ex. cavations in the Roman Forum." Doctor Smalley has long been a student of Roman historical and archeological conditions and has made a personal investigation of the subject on which he is to speak and the classical students are anxiously looking forward to the lecture.
The last lecture of the Classical Club Club course will be held in Assembly Hall on March 23. Doctor John L. Heffron of the College of Medicine will give an lllustrated address on "A Summer Trip Through Greace."

ONE POOR LONE FRESHMAN.

One poor, lone freshman was the only representative of his class at the rendez-vous on the stairs Saturday morning. He looked as though he didn't care particularly for the honor, but he stayed nevertheless. When it came time for the freshman song he didn't know just what to do, but true to his training and helped by the kind advice of the sophomores he sang it through without a break. He was given an ovation.

Leave on Western Trip

Tomorrow...Two

Hard Games

The basketball team will leave tomorrow afternoon on its last trip of the season. The team will play not only its last games on Thursday and Friday evenings but also two of the hardest of the season. On Thursday the ve will play against the Allegheny team at Meadville. This team has not leen defeated on its own floor in two years and they expect that Thursday will be no exception to this, despite their defeat here on Saturday. They proved themselves a strong team at that time and predictions have been freely made that Syracuse will be defeated that evening. The Allegheny men were confident of this before they left yesterday.
The floor at Meadville is considerably larger than the local gymnasium and the baskets are rigid, being braced from each side. According to the phayers, this enables the Allegheny men to make good with the long shots which did not prove helpful to them here. These shots, if sure, are more dangerous to an opposing team than the shorter ones, for they are less looked for.
Little is known here about Hiram this year. Hiram is a small college in a small town. They achieved their reputation at the St. Louis Exposition last year when they won the intercollegiate championship of the colleges thai were represented there. What they are this year is an unknown quantity.
The men will spend tomorrow night in Buffalo and will go to Meadville the next day.
The team will hold its final practice tonight. As is the custom, the last practice will be a g me between the second leam and 'Varsity and will be open to the public. No admission will be charged.
The lineup will be:
'Varsity.
Second Team.
Kirchgasse;, r. f................ g., Palmer Redi.in, I. f............r. g., Gidley (capt) Powell (capt), c.. $\qquad$ ..c., Kinne Houseknecht, r. g $\qquad$ I. f., Perry Kiehl or Dollard, 1 . $\qquad$ ...I. f., Lee
There has been a report in one of the down town dailies that the team would lose Houseknecht this year. This is untrue, as the ex-'Varsity captain is coming back to take law and will be in the game as usual.

Second Team to Take Trip

Manager C. C. Kinne has arranged for a trip of two games for the second team to be taken Friday and Saturday of this week. Friday evening the team will geet the Norwich High School at Norwich and Saturday afturnoon Cazenovia Seminary at Cazenovia. Cazenovia has defeated the second team once this year. Professor J. A. R. Scott will take the trip and will officiate at both games. The men to make the trip are Kinne, manager; Gidley, captain; Perry, Lee, Palmer and Coit.

HISTORY OF PHI BETA KAPPA

A catalogue containing the history and members of Phi Beta Kappa since its origin in Yale University is now in the hands of the printer and will appear within a few days. This volume, when ready, will constitute one of the most important publications brought forth by the college within recent years. The last work of its kind was a small leaflet published over half a century ago by the chapter, but since that date no complete catalogue has appeared.
Most of Yale's foremost graduates and many of the leading men in the country's history are enrolled in the membership of this society, among whom are the following: Noah Webster, Samuel F. B. Morse, John C. Calhoun, Ellis H. Roberts, William Evarts, Justice Shiras (retired, of the Uunited States Supreme Court), Horace Bushnell, Washington Irving, Fitzgreen Halleck, Cassius Clay. Chauncey Depew, Benjamin Silliman, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Chief Justice S.C. Morrison, William H. Taft and every Yale president snce 1780.
The volume will consist of some 300
r more pages, completely indexed, with a frontispiece showing a picture of the present chapter room in White Hall, and the whole bound with a heavy gray cover.-Ex.

TO TEST POWER AND HEATING PLANT

At midnight Wednesday the senior engineers, assisted by the juniors, will begin a test of the heating plant. The test will take twenty-four hours and men have been assigned to take shifts of eight hours each. The work will be done with considerable minuteness. Not only is the total amount of power and heat realized to be measured, but the coal consumption is to be found and even the ashes are to be weighed. The men are to be stationed at different places to take the readings and do the weighing, so that all is to be done quite systematically. The work is in charge of Professor Shephard, assisted by Mr. Faulks and Mr. Connell.

More Bulletins Coming

The present edition of the summer school bulletins is not large enough for distribution, so that the students are asked to wait until the second edition has been received. The Chancellor has ordered another lot which will be improved and also contain more cuts, making it more desirable for student distribution.

Semester Reports Posted

The reports for the last semester examinations $\|$ of Liberal Arts College are now posted in the Registrar's office:

TRACK TEAM GROWS STRONEER DALIY

Many New Men Report-

Two Relay Teams
Assured

Nearly every day one or two new candidates report for the 1905 'Varsity track team. Yesterday Schromeyer, a Fine Arts man, reported for the weights. Schromeyer is over six feet in height and weiphs over 200 pounds. He is very muscular and, though a green man, should be able to hurl the hammer a considerable distance by his strength alone. Graves, another Fine Arts man, is a promising candidate for the two-mile run. Another good man who has joined the team is "Phil" Wood of this city. Wood is a distance runner. He will compete for the two mile relay team, A fast two-mile relay team is now a certainty.
The 1905 mile relay team should be $\mathfrak{a}$ fast one. There are at least fifteen speedy men to pick from. Lyons '06 Medic, who has a good record as a sprinter, will report today. Early in the season he will compete for the relay team.

Coach Hutchins said to a Daily Orange reporter, "At this time in the season do not talk about "crack", men. I want the men who do faithful training to be recognized. If there are any "cracks," let them speak for themselves later."

Engineers Survey Courses

The junior civil engineers spent yesterday afternoon on the lake mapping out courses for the crews. The courses aid out are two- and four-mile with a mark for each mile. The courses are measured on the ice and then shore marks are set so that the courses can be marked in the spring.

That Memorial The suggestion Trophy Room in the Daily Orange recently that the class of 1905 consider the advisability of fitting up a memorial trophy room has not met with the unqualified approval of the members of the class. The objection seems to be that the only room available at the present time is the crew room, on the second floor of the gymnasium. One or two members of the class have said that they will never favor putting any of the University trophies in the old gymnasium. When asked what they would favor doing they said, 'Nothing untila new gymnasium is built." In other words to leave our trophies in the dust and seclusion until such time as a new gymnasium is built. By that time our best trophies, the crew cups, will in all probability be in the hands of another college. What a state of affairs will be opened here when it is found that Syracuse University had the most prized college trophies in the country in her possession for three or four years and never had them on exhibition.

Not that we think that we will not bring the cups back again this year and next too, for that matter, but there is bound to be a slump some time. We cannot expect to win them forever. Cornell kept them longer than any other institution and she only had them three years in succession. That leaves us a little mnore than two years more and although every Syracuse student is looking for a new gymnasium some time, it is beyond the hopes of the most sanguine that it will be provided for, begun and finished within that time.
It has been said that a room in the new Hall of Natural History near the Memorial Lobby might be obtained. So it might. It is quite probable that a room could be secured there, but that is a year and a half away at least. At the smallest estimate it will take from a year to eighteen months to build that structure and as the bids have not yet been advertised for, it will be September 1906 or later before it is completed.
That is too long to wait. We ought to have the trophies collected now. We have sonething with which to crown the collection. We may have those later, but there is a possibility that we may not. While we have them let us use them. That will not at all injure their usefulness when they are put into the large room constructed for the purpose in the new gymnasium, which we hope for in the not too distant future.
If we had our trophies together now what a benefit they would be to the athletic committee of the alumni association and the entertainment committee of undergraduates who are trying to interest athletes in the choosing of Syracuse as their college. Several of these men have been here already looking over the institution. What a pleasure it must have been to the man who was showing the prospective student around to say, "Yes, we have the intercollegiate crew trophies. We keep them down town n't any one ever see them but if branch of sport. This, however, we have them three, four or five is incidental. In this way there years from now we are going to would be no money wasted and have a magnificent place for we would have what we need so them in the new gymnasium urgently-our tropnies collected which we rather expect but are and on exhibition for our friends, not quite certain of getting. We prospective students and, not have a lot of other trophies in least of all, our own students, the different jewelry stores and many of whom have no idea of chapter houses and some which the number of athletic honors our individual athletes have won Syracuse possesses.
in the last ten or twelve years that we will put in that room three, four or five years from now with the athlete's name on them and everything will be fixed up in exquisite shape. If you enter here next September, as I hope you will, by the time that you graduate or the year after you will see our trophies all collected together in a magnificent room. Perhaps we won't have the crew trophies then, but we will remember the fact that we did have them once and thatwe kept them in a bank vault." Can you hear the prospective student replying, "How nice. I think that I will enter here. Of course I know that other colleges, many of them smaller and with fewer buildings than Syracuse have their trophies together and in a poorer gymnasium than this, but comparisons, you know, et cetera."?
To get right at the point, we agree with those objecting to the project that it would be unwise to spend several hundred dollars to refit a room in the old gymnasium that would be vacated in a few years, but we say that fifty to seventy-five dollars would be well spent on the room itself. That amount with the help which the University is no doubt willing to give the room would be made to present a creditable appearance and the class of 1905 could make it a real gift in the matter of cases for the trophies. These could be as expensively built as would suit a room such as we hope to have in the future. When that room is built the cases could be moved to their permanent environment. A separate case would have to be built for each of the crew trophies and then it would probably be well

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD GiVES UNIVERSITY A STADIUM

Noted Benefactor of the Institutionto Equip Second Athletic Field $=$ =Gave Present Field

Chancellor James R. Day amnounced tion of the size of Syracuse has one, in chapel of the College of Liberal and in fact but few of the larger colArts that John D. Archbold, president leges are so equipped. Harvard's of the board of trustees, had decided to give the University a stadium. The only facts that the Chancellor gave out regarding it was that it was to be locaten in the natural depression in the rear of the Esther Baker Steele Hall of Physies and that it was to be of the best and bullt for time.
After the chapel exercises he announced that arrangements had alrealy been made for the grading and excavation which would be begon as soon as the frost is out of the ground. The preliminary survey for the new field was made last year by the class in civil engineering. The final survey will be made as soon as the snow melts.
The student body as a whole knew nothing of the intended gift. When Mr. Archbold was at the mid-year meeting of the trustees and the matter of stadinm was being discussed he showed a great deal of interest, inquiring about the cost and other details. After the meeting he went with the Chancellor aud looked over the ground. Sine that time rumors have come from the New York alumni and other sources tha: Mr. Archbold intended making the University a gift. The letter authorizing the announcement c me to the Chancellor Monday mornin. The announcement was received with enthusiasm by the students, who applauded for several minutes. The th pel exercises were not very largely attended for none of the students expected anything of an exceptional nature
This 's mont Mr. Arehbold's first venture in an athlutic field. The University owes its present field and grandstand to him. Previous to 1893 the field was rough and ungraded. At that time Mr. Archbold directed that the field and track be putinto the best possible shape at his expense. This was done in the following two years. In 1895 he had the grandstand constructed. The field with the new grandstand was formally opened on June 8, 1895, with George H. Bond '94 master of ceremonies. The donor refused to let the field be known by his name, so it has always been called University Oval. Mr. Archbold has also been a large contributor to the University in other ways.
The new field and stadium will be one of the best in the country. No institu- :
stadium was completed less than a year ago.
The new structure will have seats on three sides of the field and at the head (north end) space will be left for a new gymnasium which the Chancellor says "is bound to come.; It will be built in the natural amphitheater to the southeast of Steele Hall. Although work is to begin right away, the field will probably not be ready for use within a year. There is a possibility 01 being able to locate next season's football games there, but the idea is to grade the field and let the ground settle for ten months or a year before finishing up tho work. This would mean completion about June, 1906.
The campus will be a scene of activity this spring, more so than ever before. Work will be resumed on the new Smith College laboratory, excavation begun and foundation laid for the Hall of Natural History, and excavation made for the stadium and field, more building than has been done on the campus in any three previous years.

Hale on Modern Dramatists

Edward Everett Hale, Jr., professor of En lish in Union College, addressed the English Club at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house last evening on "Three English Dramatists of Today." Professor Hale proved to be an interesting speaker, The men discussed were Arthur W. Pinero, author of "Iris" and "Letty;" Bernard Shaw, author of "Candida," and Stephen Phillips.

Y. M. C. A. Elects Officers

The Y. M. C. A. elected the following officers for the year after the regu. la: prayer meeting in the gymnasium last evening: President, William L. Chandler; vice president, Ruford B. Cook; treasurer, Chester A. Bixby; secretary, William $\because$ Wemett.

TEST GREATEST TASK YET

Twenty-four Hour Task to be Made Part of Annual Work

The twenty-four hour test of the heating and power plant of the University is the greatest and most important work everundertaken by undergraduates in the College of Applied Science. This is the first time the test has been made, but Dean Kent said yesterday morning that it was to be made an annual affair. The Dean said that one of the most important parts of an engineer's training was to be able to make a complete test of a heating and power plant and that the menwere to be given practical work.
When the test starts at midnight this evening there will be details of students in every part of the plant. The coal pile, two engine rooms, boiler room and all the other factors of the plant will be in charge of an undergraduate foreman and two or three assistants. There will be four shifts, two of eight hours and two of four huurs each. The only proiessor connected with the work will be the engin-eer-in-charge. From 12 to 8 a. m., this will be Professor Shephard, from 1a. m. to 12 m . Instructor Faulks, from 12 m . to $4 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Instructor Coun nell, and from $4 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. until the finish Professor Shepard will resume wark.
Hourly measurements are to be taken in most cases. The coal and ashes are to be weighed, indicator tests taken, temperatures and pressures recorded, the electric current measured and the results formulated and recorded for permanent reference. In some cases, as with the indicetor card, tests will be made on the fractional parts of the huur. The testing apparatus will be prepared by the men on the first shift and taken care of after midnight, Thursday, by the men on the last shift.

CONGRETE AND STEEL CONSTRUCTION

New Stadium WIII be Built of Strongest and Best Materials

Although the plans have not yet been evolved for the construction of the new stadium, the Chancellor has some ideas in mind. The details will not be decided upon until after the final survey has been made and the estimates offered.
The foundations and outside construction will be of concrete, the walls probably being of concrete b'ocks much the same as those used in the new Smith buil ing.
If the Chansollor's present ideas are carried out, the seats, in the grandstand at least, will be of wood on steel supports. He has not decided whether or not this a-rangement will prevail throughout the stadium.
The stadium will have seat tiers on all but one side of the field, on the east, south and west sides. The track will lie about as the present track does, that is, with the stretch from west to east. The grandstand, or rather covered portion of the stadium, will be on the south side.
There will be at least one entrance from Irving Avenue and several on the woth side. The entrance on I ving Avenue will accommodate the street ca: fatrons when the Rapid Transit Comp ny runs its line to Irving Avenue and Croton Street.
The final survey of the ground will be made as soon as possible and work berun immediately after.

aEOLOAICAL OEMS

The geology department has received from the Himalaya Mining Company of Doston a loan collection of beautiful gems and precious stones. It contains both native crystals and the cut and polished stones. The material comes from southern California, where this company owns and operates mines. Professor Hopkins visited the mines while on his seological work in California last summer and it was through his influence that the loan was made.
The collection is loaned to the University with the privilege of purchase, and Syracuse is the only university in the country outside of Boston to which this offer has been made. Similar collections will be placed in Harvard and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The company offers to increase the size of the collection at Syracuse upon request which will probably be made when the new Lyman Natural His.ory Museum is opened.

RECTIAL BEST OF THE YEAR

Exceptional Talent Was ## Shown in the Work

of Students

The fourth public recital of this year given by the musical students of the College of Fine Arts was held yesterday afternoon in John Crouse College. The program was by far the best of he year, including for the most part the best talent of the college.
The first number by Miss Woodburne was well rendered. Miss Titus played Chopin's "Scherzo in C sharp major" in a creditable manner and showed excellent technique.
Miss Williams' yoice was very flexible and the number was greatly enjoyed. Henry Walrath's violin solo was one of the features of the afternoon. He showed marked ability and he played with an exceptionally smooth tone.

Miss Frieda Sims Parker, daughter of Doctor Parker, played with wonderful expression in her first number, "Du bist wie die Ruh" by SchubertLiszt, and the second, one of Mosakowski's waltzes, was rendered with remarkable technique.
Miss Laura Born's organ selection was perhaps one of the most enjoyable numbers of the program. Miss Annette May Snell was heard on the piano in "Variations and Fugue on a Theme by Handel' from Brahms. Miss Snell is known best by her ability on the organ but her piano playing was no disappointment to her friends.
The next number, by Miss Cora Scott, was anticipated by the audience and was received with great applause. Mlss Scott is an old favorite on the hill and her voice is remarkable for sweetness, clearness and pathos. She sang three songs, "A Sigh" by Stern, "At Twilight"' by Nevin, and Beach's "The Years at the Spring." The second number proved to be the favorite.
The last number, an ensemble quartette by Misses Brown and Jones, Mr. Stevenson and Professor Becker, was a fitting close to the afternoon's program.

A Good The new stadium will setResult tle a problem that has been ever present for years. The clink of the mason's trowel on the new structure will be the death knell of the small boy nuisance. Not that small boys are an evil in themselves, or that we would discourage their desire to see all they can of a university, but the evil is in their unrelenting attention to the athletic field.

Despite policemen, freshmen and student guards, the small boy will get over the fence and once in will be on the field in the way of the teams and spectators.
With the erection of the new stadium, and the consequent doing away with the fence, this nuisance, which has been an unfortunate feature of athletic games during the past years, must necessarily be abated. Every student, and all friends of the University who are accustomed to attend athletic contests on the oval, will rejoice to know that this problem which has so long confronted the authorities, is now more than likely to be solved.

The Marks of Every self respecta Barbarian ing student who attended the basketball game on Saturday evening heard with deep regret the hissing of some members of the audience. It seems that our baskecball season is marred every year by some outrage of this kind, this plain, open manifestation of a barbaric mind. It happened last year at the time of the Colgate game; this year in the last game of the season. There are no epithets in the English language that can properly describe a collegestudent who hisses. Of all persons who should know the conduct of a gentleman a college man ought to stand out preeminent. With the advantages in every branch of life that a college training gives a man ought to know more than to hiss. It was indeed a compliment to college men when Mrs. W. W. Astor maintained that no one could be a gentleman without a college education. Nevertheless, if Mrs. Astor was informed of the hissing which certain college men indulged in she would think a long time before again regarding college as a training school for gentlemen.
There ought to be enough of the better element in this University to down any such barbaric demonstration, but somehow it occurs every year. Some one is base enough to start it and others who ought to know better join in. The result is a complete disgrace before the visiting team. A university, as an individual, is judged, to a large degree, by its actions, and hissing is an act which little becomes either an individual or a body of individuals.
It is not right to lay the charge against the University as a whole, but here, as is often true elsewhere, the innocent suffer with the guilty. Ittherefore behooves the offenders to protect the good name of the University more carefully,

HARYARD WANTED To Play football

Dartmouth, Too-...-Han over Team Offered Largest Guarantee

Ever Made

Manager Cyrus B. Grifith has received word from the football management of Harvard and Dartmouth offering Syracuse University a place on their schedules for next fall. As the date offered by both institutions was October 28 , the date aiready arranged with Lehigh for their game here, and as the acceptance would entail another trip which the facuity will not allow, neither offer will be accepted.
Both offers are flattering to the University. Harvard is exceptionally conservative in the selection of colleges to make up her schedule. Cornell has been trying for several years to get a place on it, but without success. This makes the offer all the more flattering to Sy-acuse, as it came all unsolicited by the local management.
Dartmouth was so anxious to get the local athletes at Hanover that she offered the largest guarantee ever made to a Syracuse team. It is considerably larger than any that will be received from an out-of-town game this year.
Dartmouth has a good reputation in the game. Two years ago they defeated Harvard and finished their seaon without losing a game. They put several men on Walter Camp's allAmerican team.
It is possible that one or both of these teams will be included in the schedule for 1906.
The schedule has had two changes and two additions since it was first announced by the Daily Orange on February 6. The games with New York University and West Point have been put two weeks later and Brown and Holy Cross put on at the dates first set for the earlier games. The completed schedule is:
September 23, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Syranuse.
September 27. Hobart at Syracuse.
September 30, Rochester at Syracuse October 7, Yale at New Haven.
October 14, Hamilton at Clinton. October 21, Colgate at Syracuse. October 28, Lehigh at Syracuse. November 4, Brown at Providence. November 11, Holy Cross at Syracuse November 18, New York University at Syracuse.
November 25, West Point at West Point.

The Memurial day regatta which Cornell had planned to hold on Cayuga lake has been abandoned. A 'Varsity crew will be sent to Cambridge to meet Harvard instead. Cornell will not be represented at the American Henley to be held on the Schuykill May 28.

INDOOR PRACTICE CONTINUES
The baseball men are rounding into shape as rapidy fis can be expected for the Hobart game which will be played in the city April 5, weather permitting, otherwise, the day following. The next week the team will leave for Cambridge where they meet Harvard April 11. The Crimson nine will have had considerable more outdoor work than Coach Murphy's men, for the season of the former team commences about April 1.
The cage is being fitted up for batting but the work there will be somewhat hindered because of the dampness and lack of lighting facilities.
As soon as the candidates for the outfield and other infield positions are called out, ex-Captain House will be out to assist in the coaching.
Coaeh Murphy has made his first cut in candidates for pitcher and catcher. Fifteen men have been retained. They are Reid, Hinman, Conovery, Limbeck, McBirney, Watkey, Hannon, Coulter, Francisco, Dollard, Clark, Lawless, Dexter, Huntington and Lewis.

MAN PARTY

The freshmen of the Alpha chapter of Gamma Phi Beta entertained last evering at the chap er house in University Avenue. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and palms. After several informal stunts the evening was spent in dancing and lunch was served. Among the men present were Messrs. Stimson, Simpson, Brockway, Ten Eyck, H. J. Schiefer, F. W. Schiefer, Thompson, Stevens, Griffith, Reed, Pratt, Hopkins, Place, Freeman, Cabeen, Bartlett, Wilbur, Gowing, Hinman, Chappell, Mercer, Hansen, Markland, Rice, Cookingham, Wells, Stodd rd, Bloomer, Grandey, Pierce, Paine, Hastings, Sears, Ilman, Throop, Stephenson, Walker, Loucks, Paddock, Merry, Kellow, Kellogg, Rawley and Butz.

WEATHER BUREAU DOES LARGE AMOUNT OF WORK
Few people realize the amount of work connected with the local weather bureau, located in the Hall of Languages. A forecast of the weather is made every day, except Sundays and holidays. The number of maps mailed each day is 216 , of which about eighty go to high schools near here. Besides these, 459 forecast cards are sent out each morning.
All observations are taken at 8 o'clock and then telegraphed to other stations. The local bureau receives reports from ninety-six stations all over the United States and Canada.
'R. M. Hardinge and M. R. Sanford are in charge of the station here. .s.r Sanford gives the course of lectures in meteorology.

(Special to the Daily Orange.)
Meadville, Pa., March 9.-The Syracuse University basketball team was defeated by the Allegheny College five with a score of 14 to 11 . The game was one of the closest ever played in the local gymnasium. Syracuse led during the first half of the game, the score being 8 to 6 at the end of the half.
The game was particularly rough, especially during the second half.' This feature of the game was exceedingly disadvantageous to the visiting team. During the second half the crowd became :almost uncontrollable. Several times they surged out on the floor and interfered with the game. The play had to be stopped and the crowd kept in hand.
After the game the Allegheny students had a parade and a big demonstration. They clearly felt that they had won the biggest victory of the year.
The lineup was:

tions are that the year following will surpass it in this respect will surpass it in this respect.
The fame of Syracuse as an athletic college is spreading by leaps and bounds. All over the country her fame has grown and some of the minor results of it are beginning to show themselves in the acknowledgement by other colleges. The greater results will not be in athletic lines. Athletics should be, at least, a means rather than an end, a means for the broader development of our students, students in the fullest sense of the word. Athletics attracts students to Syracuse and in that way is a means toward what should be a greater end. Some of the men who enter no doubt make the athletic side the greatest part of their college life. This is to be regretted but ought not to be interpreted as the general sentiment of college students at large.
pennsylyania comments on syracuse entries
The following is aclipping taken from the last issue of the Pennsylvanian, the daily paper of the University of Pennsylvania:
"Syracuse University, the mother of such famous athletes as Prinstein, the world's champion hroad jumper; Gardner, the pale vaulter, and Lowe, the high jumper, and especially as the home of the college crew that cost consternation into the hearts of Cornell last June at Poughkeepsie, has entered the one and the two-mile relay championship.
"Taking a lesson from the regatta of last year, when Syracuze, the dark horse, surprised the sporting world by a sensational victory, Yale, Princeton, Chicago, Pennsylvania, Harverd and the other colleges especially interested in these two events will from now on closely scrutinize the work of the Syracuse athletes, to discover on what grounds they base their hopes of victory.
"At the present time the Syracuse material for these races is practically unknown, but it is probable that some fast quarter-milers and half-milers are in view or the entry would not be made. In any case the sporting ptblic will be glad to see the entries, for it will make these events all the more interesting. "There are now over one hundred and twenty-five entries for the different classes and championship events."

\section*{Engilsh Seminar Library}

The library committee of the English Club have just fimshed indexing the books in the seminar library. Within a few days they will be catalogued and arranged chronologically. At present the library contains nearly 900 volumes. The recent additions comprise fiftyseven volumes of the prose and poetical works of early English and Elizabethan writers; sixteen volumes of the poetlcal works of Keats, Vaughan, Herrick, Carew, Waller and Browne; Works of Samuel Johnson in twelve volumes; Shakspere in France, and the English Novel in the Time of Shakspere, by Jusserand, in two volumes. Next month one hundred additional volumes will be received from Europe.

Varsity Women Plan forIvy Day and Col-lege Opening

At a meeting of the women of the University held in Chapel yesterday morning the report of the committee having in charge the making of plans for women's exercises at Commencement was received and acted upon. Besides the plans offered for Commencement Week the committee brought forward a suggestion for a girl's recepti $n$ during the opening week of college. This will be given by the opperclass and sophomore women to the freshmen. Each freshman girl will be presented with a miniature silver lamp, a token of the willingness of her college mates to help light her way through college.
The plans call for the Ivy Planting Day on Tuesday of Commencement Week. The two underclasses are to buy and plant the ivy, but all the elasses will part cipate in the ceremony. The sophomores will present the planted vine to the Alma Mater.
The ground will be prepared with a silver trowel which will be purchased by the present senior clase, The trowel will be decorated by the numerals " 1905 " and will be presented to the juniors. They will lend the trowel to the underclasses for the ceremony. It will then be returned to the juniors and will be kept in constant possession of that class.
Representatives of the two underclasses will make appropriate speeches on Planting Day.
There will be one function exclusively for upperclass women during Commencement Week. That will be the dinner given by the juniors to the graduating class, The date of this event has not been set.
These plans have all to be adopted by the individual classes before they are put in force. The committee consists of Mrs. Henry Phillips of the Alumnae Association, and the Misses Bertha Cleveland, Juliet Sheaf, Retta Maloney, Lois Kupfer, Mary E. Mott, Ella Wal lace, Reva Cooper, Diedra Mace and Sara Conrow.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

A.: Membership, Miss Mabel Bell; finance, Miss Georgia Brickover; religious, Miss Mabel Hendrix; missionary, Misi Catherine Pangborm; intercollegiate, Miss Mabel Fowler; social, Miss Edna Adams; neighborhood, Miss Mary Hart; Bible study, Miss Elizabeth Tennant. These with the secretary, iss Nancy Rea, form the cabinet of the association.

Syracuse Wins From the Champions in Fast, Clean Game

(Special to the Daily Orange.)
Garrettsville, 0., March 10.-The Hiram College basketball five went down in defeat bsfore the Syracuse University team at Hiram this evening with a score of 31 to 19. The game was a fast, elean contest throughout and one that reflected credit on both teams.
The Syracuse team will return home tomsrrow (Saturday).
PROFESSORS BUILD AND BUY
That Syracuse professors are satisfied with Symacuse University and the city of Syracuse is proved by the way they are establishing themselves in permanent homes here. Doctor Mace, head of the history department, who owns a home on College Place, is known to have refused an offer with a larger salary from another university on this recent trip west.
Professor T. C. Hopkins, head of the geological department, is building a home in Comstock Avenue and Professor Holzwarth, head of the German department, will build in Walnut Park this spring.
Dean William Kent of the Smith College of Applied Science recently purchased a residence at the corner of Waverly and Comstock Avenues.
Professor E. L. Earp, who entered Syracuse this year as the head of the sociology department, has already purchased a residence at 703 University Avenue.
Of course many other professors of the University have owned homes for a long time.

Jefferson County Club

The Jefferson County Club held a social evening at the Psi Upsilon chapter house Thursday night. After a short business session, at which it was voted to hold a banquet later in the spring, refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Allen, Ash, Davis, Frey, Gilbert, Hall, Hannah, Johnson, Line, Rhodes, Snell, Green, Carp, Peltier, Haller, Hart, Shephard, and Messrs. Aldrich, Barron, Bradway, Cheeseman, Coleman, Cornwall, Dempste:, Garlock, Mott, Overton, Parker, Perkins, Ralph, Sprague, Staley, Van Camp, Whitney, Wilcox, Hungerford.

BASKETBALL TEAM CLOSES MOST SUCCESSFUL. SEASON

The Syracuse University basketball team closed the most successful season in the history of the game with the contest at Hiram last evening. At no time has there been as good a schedule arranged or as good results seen from the games played.
Only two of the eight defeats are at all to be regretted. The Princeton and Hamilton games were unfortunate. The team was not in its best condition at either game. Stark had left the team just a short time before and Red. lein was laid up. This somewhat demoralized the team and is responsible for the two defeats at the hands of inferior teams. On the whole the season has been very satisfactory.
The games and scores of the season are as follows:
Syracuse, 58; Oswego, 11. Syracuse, 35; Dartmouth, 9 . Syracuse, 40; Rochester, 12. Syracuse, 56 ; Cornell, 17. Syracuse, 20; Yale. 16. Syracuse, 40; Potsdam Normal, 27. Syracuse, 28; St. Lawrence, 10.
Syracuse, 22; Cornell, 9 .
Syracuse, 16; Hamilton, 19.
Syracuse, 18 ; Colgate, 34. Syracuse, 21; Princeton, 24. Syracuse, 36 ; Colgate, 31. Syracase, 12; Williams, 14.

Syracuse, 38: Amherst, 13.
Syracuse, 40; Trinity, 26.
Syracuse, 20; Brown, 24.
Syracuse, 60; Hamilton, 9.
Syracuse, 22; Allegheny, 14.
Syracuse, 11; Allegheny, 14.
Syracuse, 31; Hiram, 19.
The total number of points scored by Syracuse was 624 , against 348 for her opponents.

Our Relations Several days ago With Allegheny : there appeared a criticism in these columns upon the actions of certain persons at a recent basketball game. Our opinions of those actions still remain the same and it is very lamentable that the good name of the University should suffer from the acts of a few individuals.
Those at the game, however, know that this was the act of a few individuals and perhaps, only, censurable as such. The action of the crowd at the return game played Thursday evening cannot be characterized in that way. When a body of spectators acts so that an impartial reporter calls them "uncontrollable" and when they go so far as to surge on the playing space and in that way interfere with the players, their behavior is the result of concerted action. It is more than the sporadic action of a few benighted individuals.

A college as an institution is not altogether to blame for the acts of certain of its individuals. It is responsible for the acts of the student body as a whole When these acts are as unsportsmanlike as those manifested on Thursday evening, there is but one thing left for a college to do that pretends to choose as its opponents those institutions that play clean and manly contests and that is to sever all athletic connections at once.
This is not the first manifestation that Syracuse has had of the treatment that teams receive at the hands of Allegheny. The members of the debate team last year had a rather bitter experience. The football team from Allegheny gave an exhibition of the way they do in that branch of sport. The manifestation Thursday evening was the third we have received. Syracuse University has absolutely nothing to gain by continuing relations with the Meadville college. We have already lost a great deal of prestige. Every experience in the past year has been an unpleasant one.

Yost willing to play eastern COLLEGES
Coach Yost of Michigan has expressed himself as being willing to place Michigan against any eastern football team he said recently in regard to this: "Our Michigan team is made up of good, lively, full-grown men, and they are not afraid to cross the Alleghanies and make a little sojourm at Cambridge or New Haven, Princeton or Philadelphia. All we ask is the invitation. We are willing to trot anywhere at any time when any one desires to furnish a place in their own back yard."

President Faunce of Brown University, speaking on "Athletics in College Life" at an alumni dinner in Boston, said athletic games were almost a necessity in that such contests brought out the loyalty of the student body in a manner that nothing else could. The large amount of money expended for cotball and baseball teams, and the notoriety attended upon athleties, were unpleasant features which, in his opin ion, could not be avoided.

Sees Freshmen Row

Held to rowing machines by the severe weather, weary of the monotomots work in a motionless boat, the 'Varsity men are anxious and impatient to hear the splash of the oar and the voice of the freshman coxswain in their rear. Their wishes will be gratifed tomorrow afternoon.
The two four-oared working boats will he ready, enabling the entire 'Varsity squad to row in the same afternoon. To say when they will get into the eight oared shell is an impossibility. The ice is just as firm as it was the first of January, and the eight-oared boats will not be taken out until the lake and outlet are entirely clear of ice, as there is no .oom in the outlet its if in which to turn the big boats 4an.
a to the improvement of the Coach Ten Eyck said that up late, considering the present he was wholly satisfled with i. mea. While a few seemed slow in becoming accustomed to the form, the majority of the candidates showed decided imorovement. They are fully as yon a he could expect.
In visu of the cold weather the men wre milerel to keep well wrapped up, cus hindering the free movement of die lody and affecting their form and rapidity of improvement. A quicker development will be secured when they get into the eight-oared shell, for natwally they will attain speed and work livlier.

 THE alleoheny gameThe members of the basketball team have not returned from the Western trip as yet and have not been able to tell their side of the story. Nearly a! the members of the team live in the western part of the state and spent Sunday at their homes. Manager Earl G. Rice visited relatives yesterday in Benaford ${ }_{c}$ s
Reports have been sent back to Syracuse by members of the team describing somewhat the treatment at Meadville. The game itself seems to have been no more than thev expected, but the crowd was terrific. They used cow bells and dinner horns and made such din that the officials could not make the whistle heard. A number of times the game had to be stopped until the noise ceased and the spectators were put back of the boundary line.
The Meadville Weekly Messenger says of the contest:
"A real basketball team came to Meadville last night and was defeated by Allegheny in just about the most nip and tuck fighting ever seen on the local floor. A howling, screaming mob watched the game and grew so vociferous at times that the noise had to be stopped to allow the game to proceed. Syracuse played hard to win but were not quite good enough. The final score was 14-11.
"The game was for blood from the first toss. Those former Germans were in the Syracuse lineup and they showed that they had forgotten none of their home training. Moreover, Allegheny had just been defeated by the orange players on her recent trip and the team played to redeem herself in the eyes of the student body.
"When the first half ended 8 to 6 in favor of Syracuse, it seemed as though the long deferred defeat of Allegheny on her home floor was imminent. But the locals strengthened in the second and at times played a whirlwind game that astonished and dizzied the players themselves.
"Syracuse in passing and general team work was superior to Allegheny but where the locals won out was in their fierce guarding and in their superior weight which enabled them to get the ball out of the scrimmage."

 mence Work in the Cage TodayA call has been issued for all candidates for the baseb: il team to report in the baseball cage under the grandstand this afternoon. Workmen have been making repairs on the cage during the past week and it has been put in fair shape.
The special work with the pitchers and catchers will continue, but will be in conjunction with the other candidates on the team. All the men will report at the cage.
According to a statement made by Captain Lennius 0. Burrell, the number of candidates expected out this year is larger than ever before. The captain expects to turn out a star team.
The pitching staff has been receiving valuable help during the past week under Coach Murphy. "Eddie," as he is popularly called, is a pitcher of the widest experience and is able to give the men the benefit of his own well learned lessons. From the men still reporting for the position it is expected that four or five crack pitchers will be turned out. There are several catchers of exceptional ability.
As soon as the snow is off the ground the men will practice on the campus in the rear of the Oval. The training will continue here until the Oval is fit or use.
The team will have to be whipped into shape rather early this year, as a game has been scheduled before the Southern trip is taken at Easter time.

COACH WARNER OUT FOR FOOTball players
Coach Warner of the Cornell football team does not intend to leave anything undone that will insure his players success on the gridiron next season. With that object in view the famous coach has visited Tonawanda to induce some of the best players there to enter Cornell next season. While in that city Warner was the guest of C.F. Magoffin, the Cornell runner.
The men seen by Warner while in Tonawanda were Ben Hinkey, James McCall, George Walders, and Eugene Ackerman. Hinkey is a brother of Frank and Louis Hinkey, two of Yale's most famous end rushes. He played at left end for Mercersburg last season and his playing was of such a character as to attract the attention of some of the leading Eastern universities. Cornell is not the only university that is, therefore, seeking his services for next season. As an end player Hinkey displays the same instinct for breaking up plays that characterized the playing of his elder brothers. McGall distinguished himself as captain and tackle on the North Tonawanda High School eleven last season, his playing being largely resconsible for the showing of his team. Walders is a graduate of the same high school and one of the best football players ever turned out by that institution. Walders is an excellent athlete otherwise, having won points for his school track team in the weight events of several interscholastic meets. He is also one of the best baseball players there. Ackerman stands high as a football player and athlete at the University of Michigan. He is the only one of the three that Warner is in doubt about securing.

Closer It is often to be regretUnion ted that the various colleges of the University, the law and medical colleges downtown are not in as close touch with the rest of the University. There does not seem to be the same unity of interest and feeling. The students of the downtown colleges do not interest themselves in the functions on the Hill and a casual observer would hardly know the students of the different colleges were affliated with the same university.
Thereare, of course, a number of reasons for this. The difference of courses, the distance between the meeting places of the students and their varied interests all help account for the fact that there is not a very close tie between the members of the different colleges.
There are also some things on the other side, some ties to bring all the Syracuse sons together. The athletic contests on the Hill bring the downtown men in touch with other students. The receptions and other public func tions would have this same effect if downtown students would avall themselves of the oppor tunities offered.
There seems, however, to bo an aloofness on the part of both downtown and "Hill" students which leads somewhat to the mutual indifference. The students in the three colleges on the carmpus are themselves cosely bound together and they rather look upon the downtown men as not worth the trouble. This feeling is reciprocated by the lawyers and medics by their staying away from functions which are open to them. A iittle more condiality on both sides would lead to a much better feeling and a closer bond of union.
If all five colleges of the Umi. versity could be as closely bound together as are those on the campus great benefit would enure to the institution. In union there is strength.

Columbla Wins Tho Debates on the Same Evening
Columbia Universily won in two de. hates on Friday evening, one against the University of rennsywania and the other against Cornell. The debates were two of the three of the Trisugrlar Debuting League which consists of Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania. The third debate was won by Comell from Pennsylvania.
The league holds the three debates every year, ench member of the league debating with the other members, sending one team away and keeping one at home. As a result of the contest this year Columbia won two con. tests, Cornell one and Pennsyivania none.

One Wey of Dolag it.
From Parls comes an amusing bil of aformation. In order to look one's pretlest it ls, of course, essential to have a surl or two on the forehead. It has been :ound diffecult to achieve this when mo:oring, but the Parisinne overcomes the lifficulty with great suceess by providing hergelf with detachable curls and gxing them securely to her hat, which n its turn is held in place by a motoring rell tled under her chin.

A Good Motto.
It would be difficult to find in the story of Sir lienry Stanley's adventurous life more characteristic trait of the man than the answer be gave to his first employer when asked what he could do. "Anything," came the prompt and confident reply, "that is boy of my age and strength could be sxpected to do." This saying might Fell have been adopted as the explora's life motto.

Daily Orange Partly Re sponsible for Much Publicity for Syracuse University

Sunday's Syracuse Herald printed a "story," a portion of which follows: "The majority of people will learn with some surprise the amount of money that was spent to publish clear around the wortd the news of Syracuse University's naval victory last June within twenty-four hours after the plucky local oarsmen had swept the decks in the great annual regatta on the Hudzon. The event was utilized by a great manuifacturing concern as an adverlising medium. Every advertisement was based on the fact that Coach Ten Eyek's men were victorious, and the sum expended in disseminating the news of the victory was just $$ 15,000$.
"On the evening of June 28th Fayette Oimstead, a former Syracuse graduate, was scauning the bulletin boards in the cily of his residence like hundreds of uthers who were anxious to see whether the Syracuse crews had been fortunate anall to eapture any second or thind is prepare a 250 ./ wach was sent to about $\therefore$ apapurs in the United to a result, in these papers wis.usa appeared a fuller account cuse victory than, in many c.mbco, we papers would have reteved from the various press associati nis serving them. On the same page * the one opposite was a display adveitisement of the prepared food concent, eidher half-page or full page, Iso aunsuicing the result of the regatta and staling that this food hau been used upon the victorious navy's boarding table. Tnis advertisement appeared not only in New York, Philadelphia, Unicago, Boston, St. Louis, San Francisco, etc., but also in the smaller aties throughout the country.

'Tu the representatives of his firm in Lindon, England, Mr. Olmstead cauled instructions for the preparation of a similar advertisement and followed that by a cablegram to the Australian branch. Similarly the announcement Was published over a large part of the Eastern hemisphere.

Phere was a good deal of comment in the foreign newspapers on the American firm's enterprise, and as it was so directly associated with the naval victory Syracuse University was given still wider advertisement. Even the magazines took it up and printed illustrated articles.
'In additino to all this the company which Mr. Olmstead serves has sent out upwards of 50,000 pieces of advertising matter to all parts of the world, dite $t$ from the home office, calling attention to the victory and in illustrated lectures on its food products is still using stereopticon views of the Syracuse freshman and 'Varsity crews as they crossed the line at Poughkeepsie, with their competitors trailing in the rear.
"While an occasion may never again arise for the exploitation of the work of a Syracuse crew or athletic team by a business house (in fact it is not to be prasumed that the university athletes are looking for that sort of publicity) the fact remains that 15,000 good hard dollars of Uncle Sam's coinage were spent by one American concern last year to give Syracuse University greater advertising than any college ever had before, and all as a result of the splendid work of the athletic department.
"If the victory of the Syracuse crew was worth $$ 15,000$ to a business concern, who can estimate the value to the city of Syracuse and its business interests and to the university itself?" The Daily Orange is in a measure indirectly responsible for this expenditure. The company referred to is the Natural Food Company, who advertised the fact that the Syracuse crews used the company's product through a quarter page advertisement in the Daily Orange last year. The idea came to the advertising manager because of the fact that he had just used the crews as a medium in the local paper. A. Stanley Copeland, tite business manager of the paper at that time, secured the advertisement by a personal interview with Mr. Olmstead in Buffalo.

Qerman Club Meets Tonight

The gymnasium will be the scene of an interesting meeting of the German Cub this evening. The program will consist of readings, special music and an entertaining address by Rabbi Doctor Guttman of this city.
Doctor Guttman has traveled very extensively through Germany, Austria and Italy. His subject tonight will be "Glimpses of German Life." After the meeting refreshments will be served and a social hour enjoyed. All are cordially invited to be present.

Class Day to be Short and Sweet

 The committee having in charge the Class Day exercises have already determined upon one thing, namely, that the exercises are to be short. Each participant is to be limited to five minutes. This includes essays, oration, poem and every other number. The committee will meet in the Lowell Society room Saturday noon to perfect its plans.
BASEBALL MEN

 hard at WorkAll Candidates ReportingDaily in Anticipationof Early Season

Everything looks very encouraging for an unusually good basebail team this spring. From the candidates now out Coach Murphy expects to be able to pick a winning team.
If the weather of the past week continues it is a matter of only a few days before the men will be practieing out-of-doors. Early outdioor work would mean a great deal to the team this geason because of the early schedule. When the squad leaves on its first trip the fifth of April all the colleges which the Orange will meet on that trip will have had the benefit of several weeks' practice on their own fields.
Yesterday was the first time this season that the candidates were put through batting practice. Coach Murphy gave about fourteen of the men a little limbering up in the cage. Only two pitchers were allowed to work out because of the damp condition of the cage. For this reason the idea of letting the pitchers work with the other candidates in the cage has been abanboned and today the batteries will again report at the Armory.
Today the coach will probably have charge of the infielders and outfielders at the cage, while Captain Burrell will be in charge of the men who report at the Armory.
The coach is especially pleased with the condition of the pitchers. He says one cannot expect to have a successful team unless the twirlers are in the best possible condition and he already has a couple of men in what he considers about perfect condition. "In fact," he said, "they could either of them pitch a game tomorrow.'

Further Plans for Ivy Planting

In addition to the plans for Ivy Planting Day mentioned in Saturday's Daily Orange the women have arranged for an ivy procession to be teld before tbe planting. The girls will all be dressed in white and will march around the campus. They will carry a rope of orange bunting entwined with smilax or ivy.
Further arrangements are to be in charge of an executive committee and a treasurer elected by each class.

Sophomores will Elect on Wednesday
There will be a meeting of the sophomore class tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in the Hall of Langages. The regular election of officers for the semester will oceur at that time. The Liberal Arts section of the 1907 Onondag. $n$ board will also be elected.

visiting team to hammer the cap tain out of the game. This was done in a brutal and cowardly manner in ten minutes after the game begun. By such rough and tumble plays at another time the ball was stolen repeatedly. Men stood on the front bleachers and side lines and saw this done. The referee evidently did not see it. Those who did were told that it was not sportsmanlike to speak of it or protest, though it was so shameless and glaring as to cause exclamations from the spectators.
"Those who did not see it could not believe auything so dishonorable to college men.
"Samething must be done to save the bones and the morals of football men. We must have no plays that can be used brutally or dishonestly. Plays that maim or kill must be eliminated it we play the ball with the foot only. Plays that cover the ball so that it can be stolen should be uncovered, and a man guilty of such offense should be sent from the field. A dishonest man should be made abhorrent wherever he is found. There must be ability enough in the college world to make an unobjectionable football game."

Chancellor Chancellor James $R$. on Football Day is the author of an article in the Illustrated Sporting News on athletics. The keynote of the article is thatathletics must not become disproportionate to the demands of the college curriculum. Regarding football he says:
"We have on hand the serious question of football. There is doubt among intelligent people, and many of them in sympathy with college athletics, as to whether football is a proper college game. If it makes a firm and acknowledged place for itself, there will have to be modifications. A mere show of physical force well directed by twen-ty-twoexceptional physical giants is illustrative of nothing valuable to college training. And if, in spite of padding and safeguarding in every possible way, and an attendant physician, that show of force is to be attended with a

HARVARD AND YaLE ROW JUNE 29
The Harvard and Yale crew captains and managers have completed arrangements for the annual boat races on the Thames. Thursday, June 29, was chosen as the day for the races, If possible, the University race will be rowed at 10:30 a. m., preceded by the four-oar and freshman races. Should weather conditions prevent rowing in the morning, the races will be held in the afternoon.

The debate between lowa and Minnesota held at Iowa City resulted in a tie. One of the judges for some reason failed to appear and the two remaining judges were unable to agree on a decision, one favoring the affrmative and the other the negative. It is announced that a joint debate will be held again at Minneapolis on March 17. The question was on the Federal Regulation of Freight Rates.

The trustecs of Columbia University have apportioned the sum of $$ 1,280,281$ for expenditures this year. The income of the corporation is only $$ 1,198$, 009, so there will be adeficit of $$ 82,272$.

One-half of one per cent of the population of the United States is college bred. From this small number, 45 per cent of senators, 36 per cent of congressmen, 56 per cent of vice-presidents, 65 per cent of speakers of the House of Representatives, 83 per cent of supreme court justices and 70 per cent of presidents have been chosen.

basketball team to play a POST-SEASON GAME
The basketball five will play a postseason game on Saturday evening with the Potsdam Normal School at Potsdam. The game is to be played at the urgent request of the Potsdam management who wishes to close up the season with a little demonstration. The local team is the most popular of all the normal school's opponents, so they have been invited to participate. The game will simply be an introduction to the evening's fun, ifter whicha supper and reception are to be held. Syracuse defeated Potsdam earlier in the season with a score of 40 to 27 .

Dean Smalley may be Honored (?) by a High School Position
Dean Smalley yesterday morning received the following letter from the principal of a certain high school:

March $13,1905$.

Yours very truly,
The Dean had written a recommendation for one of the seniors. The stenographer evidently got the names mixed and as a result Doctor Smalley is now being considered for a teachership in some insignificant high school. The Dean regards it as an excellent joke.

Illinois defeated Indiana in the seventh annual interstate debate. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and in many respects it was the greatest debate ver held in Urbana. The question was upon the ship subsidy.

 WTH AMHERSTManager Brundage to Have Exceptional Production

Manager Frank E. Brundage of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs has ar ranged for a joint concert with the Amherst College Glee Club to be held on Tuesday evening, April 4. The concert will be held either in John Crouse College or in Lincoln Hall at the High School.
The concert will be one of the greatest drawing cards of the year, as the Amherst club has the reputation of being one of the best in New England. The concert will be a joint one with the Amherst organization. The best soloists in college are to be secured.
Principal W. K. Wickes of the High School is an Amherst man and he is considering the plan of having the concert in Lincoln Hall. The hall in John Crouse College is much better adapted for the purpose and would lead to the larger attendance of college people. The concert will be an exceptional treat wherever it is held.

WEEKLY TO BECOME ALUMNI PAPER
A persistent rumor has been circulating the hill recently that the University Weekly was to become an alumni paper similar to the Yale Alumni Weekly. The editor of the Weekly, E. J. Van Camp, denied that any movement toward that end had been started. "It is possible, however," he said.
Clifford H. Searle, the manager of the paper, had heard nothing of it. George H. Bond said that there had been talk for some time of starting an alumni weekly, but nothing had been done toward it yet. It is coming some time, he says.
The University Weekly was started by Leon F. Haley and Edward D. Eddy. about four years ago. It is now in its fifth volume. For three years it was the only newspaper of the University and as such was a complete success.

LEARN HOW TO BAT

Columbia baseball candidates have a piece of training apparatus corresponding to a tackling dummy used in football. A baseball suspended from the top of the cage is hung before the bats. man, and with it he is taught how to stand and how to hit properly. Coach Lander introduced the device.

Hogan, Yale's football captain of last year, will not be able to coach the Yale football team this fal, as Captain Shevlin had planned. Bloomer, last year's star, will probably fill the position of field coach.

The "Directory of Living Graduates of Yale," which has just been issued, shows that there are at present 12,665 living graduates of Yale University.

More than 240 men are in training for the team which will represent Yale on the cinder path next spring; and the gymnasium running track is kept warm by the feet of the sprinters and distance men.

The faculty of Washington and Jefferson have refused to allow the formation of a 'varsity basketball team in the institution. They say one term out of three should be devoted entirely toclass wrrk, to tteny,

In a year or two Princeton will undoubtedly be represented by a crew, as work on the lake given by Andrew Carncgie has been begun. The lake will be over three miles lon. and a quarter of a mile in breadth.

Union Theological Seminary has accepted the gift of $$ 1,100,000$, with no restriction or conditions, from a beneficiary whose name must remain unknown. The money will probably be used for an entire new equipment for the seminary.

For the first time in the history of Princeton, the president's report has been made public. Like Yale and Harvard, it shows a shortage of about $$ 20$, 000 , which amount has to be covered through generous annual gifts.

The non-fraternity men at the University of Nebraska have an organization known as the "Associated Barbs."
'Seniors and others who want a good and yet inexpensive photograph for use in answering applications for positions as teachers, etc., will do well to bring their Onondagan cuts to the Orange Print Shop and have us print them on a good card stock.

SEEOND TEAM TO HAVE SOHEDULE

Manager Allis Arranges

Games for Second

Baseball Team

William E. Allis, assistant manager of the 'Varsity baseball team and manager of the second team, has arranged a series of games for the second team. This is the first year that this team has ever had a separate schedule and it is thought that this will result in the bringing out of more men.
Five games have already been arranged. They are:
April 15. St. Johns at home.
1.ay 6, Auburn High School at home. May 11, St. Johns at Manlius.
May 17, Fulton High School at home. May 26, Fulton High School at Fulton.
Besides these games there will be contests with the local high school and with Jenners Preparatory School
The 'Varsity will open its home season much earlier than usual this year with a game against Hobart on April 5 or 6. This is but three weeks off and means that the men have something to do to get into shape.

It is planned to make the second team a feature of the regular baseball practice, as it is thought that men will be kept in training and material assured for the following year.

STRICT TRAINING MONDAY

Beginning Monday all track men competing for the 880 - and 440 -yard dashes will begin strict training by order of Coaches Hutchins and Lowe. No more pie, cake or midnight hours for these men until June. The men in those events are ordered into training thus early because from them will be picked the eight men who will constitute the 'Varsity mile and two-mile relay teams which will compete in the Philadelphia relay games April 29.
Among new men who have joined the track team recently are Lyons, Riehl, Griffith ' 06 and Waring.
At present the gymnasium work is being directed by Assistant Coach Lowe, assisted by Captain Robertson, as coach Hutchins is out of the city. The gymnasium floor space is scarcely large enough to accommodate the large number of men.
"Tommie" West, assistant coach of the 1904 fontball team, was out in a suit Tuesday. West has been a track coach and is a quarter-miler and hurdler.

: SOPHOMORES ELECT OFFICERS

An interesting and exciting meeting of the sophomore class was held yesterday afternoon. It commenced with a statement given by Roscoe Hersey and Robert Park of the indebtedness of the class incurred by the bonfire after the Yale football game. The class voted to assume its proportion of the debt.
Most of the regular offices were filled without a contest. The following were elected; President, Merle W. Ralph; vice-president, Miss Marjorie Gardner; secretary, Miss Grace Casper; treasurer, Asa Dutton.
Much excitement was caused over the election of the 1907 Onondagan Board. Harold Stephens was elected manager and Earle Elmer assistant manager of the book. The following were elected to represent Liberal Arts College: Dwight Stone, Harry Woolever, Charles Packard, James Patsons, Herbert Robinson, Henry J. Spencer, and Misses Grace Faulks, Elizabeth Opp, Maud Merritt and Ella Wallace. Alton L. Wells was elected to manage the class baseball team. It was voted that the freshmen should be obliged to resume the wearing of their green caps after St. Patrick's Day.

DOCTOR HAUPT LECTURES THIS

 EVENingProfessor Paul Haupt, Ph. D., of Johns Hopkins University, will lecture this evening in the Assemby Hall of the University Block on the subject. "Biblical Pessimism-The Book of Ecclesiastes with a New Metrical Translation." This is the first of a series of lectures to be given fortnightly on Thursday evenings under the auspices of the Semitic and Biblical Club.
This course is to be one of exceptional merit, as some of the most noted scholars in the subjects given have been secured for this series of lectures. Doctor Haupt is a professor of Hebrew and cognate languages in Johns Hopkins University, henorary curator of the collections of Oriental antiquities in the United States National Museum at Washington, and formerly professor of Assyriology in the Royal University of Gottingen.

Cat Makes a Triumphal Run

The singing on the stairs stirred up a black cat from some corner yesterday and she tore down the stairs and through the hall a very picture of terror. She ran into the legs of a couple sophomore politicians who were discussing the afternoon's election and lead them to believe that the other ring had begun low down work. The cat had disappeared when they looked down. When last seen she was headed toward the biological department.

SUMMER SCHOOL TO HAVE LECTURES

Course Similar to Last Year will be Given During Summer

The Summer School authorities have arranged for a course of lectures similar to the course given last year. The lectures are to be given by the professors of the school and several others, all of whom are authorities on the subjects they are to discuss.
The course given last year proved so successful that a better and more instructive one is to be given during the coming summer. The lectures are to be of a popular nature. As before, course tickets will be offered to the public at a low price although the lectures will be free to students of the summer school.
The lecturers and their subjects are as follows:

Franklin J. Holzwarth, Ph. D., Professor of German, "A Summer's Ramble in Germany."
Ernest N. Pattee, M. S., Professor of Chemistry, "Food Adulteration and its Detestion."
Edgar C. Morris, A. M., Professor of English, "The Idylls of the King."
Charles W. Cabeen, Ph. D., Professor of Romance Languages, "Dante and the Divine Comedy."
Ismar J. Peritz, Ph. D., Professor of Semitics, "Recent Babylonian Excavations."
Thomas C. Hopkins, Ph. D., Professor of Geology, "The Story of the Glacier."
J. Richard Street, Ph. D., Professor of Pedagogy, "Why the Mind has a Body."
Edwin L. Earp, Ph. D., Professor of Sociology, "Some Aspects of Church Organization," Frank L. Mead, A. M.; Principal Madison School, "With Paddle and Pack."
Arthur W. Towne, A. B., Secretary The Associated Charities, "Evolution of the Street Gang."
Charles R. Drum, Principal Prescott School, "School Management."

'VARSITY CREW CUT

The 'Varsity crew candidates have been cut to sixteen. The men left are: Squad 1-Packard, Rice, Hale, Dempster, Anderson, Salisbury, Squires and Stone; squad 2-Davis, W. W. Andrews, Cummings, Robinson, Spencer, Armstrong, Brown and C. Packard. The first squad rowed in the fours yesterday. The second squad will go out to the outlet this afternoon, while the first will row on the machines. The two squads will alternate until the ice goes out of the lake.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croton Street.

Hard Work With the advent of for the Crew the 'Varsity crew on the water yesterday training for the Poughkeepsie regatta has begun in earnest. From now until July 1 the men will row every week day, sometimes twice a day, with but one thing in view, the race at Poughkeepsie. Three to eight hours a day for three months and a half for a race about twenty minutes long !
The amount of work that the crew men do is little appreciated by a large number of the students. The fun of being on the water is pointed out and a good many of the hardships forgotten.
The students, however, will watch the crews this year with greater interest than before. Syracuse has achieved a reputation and every loyal Syracusan wishes to maintain it. The oarsmen as they labor this year can feel that the good wishes and backing of the entire institution are with them as never before.

Crow' The memorial committee Cups of the class of 1905 is to meet this afternoon. Members of the committee have already intimated that they do not intend to give a trophy room as their memorial, so we will probably have to submit and go without. That still leaves the crew cups in the bank vault. There is only three months left of the time for which they were awarded. On July 1 they will be placed in jeopardy and, perhaps, will be lost. It is not an unreasonable thing to ask that they should be given a place somewhere about our college buildings before they are given to the next year's winner. If we win them again, as we hope and expect to do, all well and good; if not, why not have them before the students and visitors for the few months we are to have them. They would be a rather nice thing to show the trustees at the June meeting. Don't you think so?
At Cornell, where the cups have been for the last three years, they were kept in cases in the library. Cornell has a separate trophy room, but these prizes were kept in a more public place. It may be that our library is not a suitable place for the exhibition of trophies, but if not, there ought to be some place about our college halls where two such marks of honor could be placed. The purchase of cases for the cups, if they are to be exhibited in this manner, evidently does not rest on the senior class. We should say that the Governing Board ought to provide for them. The expense is certainly chargeable to the athletic funds of the University. It is also a necessary one. To use a feminine expression, the fact that we do not have our cups on exhibition where they ought to be is a burning shame.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Twenty-Seven Games
Arranged- -Seven Home Games

Manager Harrison D. Sanford of the baseball team has practically completed the spring schedule. After having submitted it to Professor F. J. Holzwarth, chairman of the baseball committee, he last night gave it out or publication. It reflects great credit upon the manager for never before has a more complete and satisfactory schedwie been arranged for an Orange athletic team.
The list of games is an unusually long one, opening with a game with Hoburt April 5 and closing with the Alumni game June 13. Besides three open dates there are twenty-seven rames, seven of which will be played at home. These are with Hobart, Columbia, Middlebury, Hamilton, Manhattan, Oberlin and the Alumni.
Besides games with Yale, Wesleyan, Dartmouth and the Naval Academy, there will be an innovation this year when the Orange will meet Harvard for the second game of the season on April 11. Tbis marks the opening of our athletic relations with the Cambridge team.
Tlue schedule follows:
April
5. Hobart at Syracuse

8, Open

Heding plant TEST FNSMHED  Engineers Work Forty eight Hours Instead of Twenty-four

FYMRS TO HAVE A GREAT SHOW

The test of the central heating and power plant ended at midnight yesterday. Instead of beginning Wednesday as was previously stated, the test started Tuesday at midnight and continued for 48 hours. As a result of the test the first 24 hours will be considered simply as practice and the last 24 taken as the real test. Had the test run as smoothly the first day as it did the second, both days might have been taken but several accidents hindered the work on Tuesday.
In the middle of the afternoon a pipe on the hot water meter broke and stopped the test at that point until it could be repaired. The meter was a new instrument aud had not been used before.
Alout $10: 300^{\prime}$ clock the crew on duty in the Corliss engine room undercharge of William P. Gere ' 05 found a hot box on the engine. This necessitated the shutting down of the engine and carrying the entire load on the Straight Line in the heating plant. Ousside of these few accidents occurred.
The men on duty in most cases had no time to loaf or sleep. Measurements had to be recorded in some departments every three minutes and in others every twenty.
In the pump room the men had to measure and take the temperature of all the water used in the boilers. Measurements were recorded nearly every three minutes.
In the boiler room all the coal consumed was weighed. The ashes also were weighed and the results recorded. The assistant here acted as stokers and coal heavers.
In the dynamo room the amount and strength of the current was measured on an average of every two minutes. It will take some time to tabulate the results and estimate the efficiency of the plant.

Fine Arts Fun Makers Plan Biggest Affair Yet Given

The fourth annual Fake Show of the Fine Arts Fakirs Association promises to be the greatest shows of its kind in many ways. Although the affair does not come off until Monday, March 27, several of the rooms of John Crouse College have begun to resemble a petrified menagerie in appearance. The paraphernalia already manufactured, borrowed, stolen or otherwise collected is enough to furnish the first floor and part of the "Subway." Many new "stunts" have been worked out. Altcgether there is one of the greatest aggregation of fakes, freaks and figres that ever graced a fake show.
The "rags, bottles, bones, tin cans and any other old things" that were contributed as a result of the notice posted on the bulletin board have been admirably worked up into artistic productions.
The catalogue is nearly completed and will go into the hands of the printer today or tomorrow.
A large amount of work has been put upon the construction of a "steam" piano of marvelous variety. One of the Fakirs who expects to assist in playing the instrument said yesterday that it had a range of from two to sixteen chords and sweetness and clearness of tone that was remarkable and, as for carrying powers, it rivalled even the steam calliope of the old-time circus parade.
All the features of the "Subway" shows have either not been worked out or else the committee are to spring a host of surprises, for they refuse to say the first thing regarding the side shows. The reticence is all the more surprising from the fact there are several girls on the committee.
The "Big Show" is to be held in tha Music Hall during the evening commencing early so that two performances can be given during the evening. The Fake Show itself will be held both afternoon and evening.
Preparations will continue all next week and, according to a statement of one of the Fakirs yesterday, will culminate in the "finest, freshest, freakish, forceful, flighty, ferocious, felicitous, fanciful, fashionable, facetious, frivolous, furious, frisky, festive, fran tic Fake Show that was ever he d."

Professor A. C. Flick will go to Hamilton Friday evening to deliver a lecture in the Academy chapel at Colgate University on "Russia and the Eastern Question." He will spend Saturday visiting his friends in the university.

SHOVEL OUT OVAL

Field will be Cleared on Monday - -.Pleased with the Schedule

On account of the short time which the baseball team have to prepare for their first game on April 5, Manager Sanford has issued a request to the freshman class to turn out on Monday afternoon to shovel of the diamond and track. This will remove a large amount of snow and will allow the drying of the field in short order.
This "stunt" has not been practiced for some time and the freshmanclasses are a little out of practice. The class was called to arms the last time in the fall of 1901, when the entire first year class turned out a d shoveled of the field for a late football game.
The work will begin at $20^{\prime}$ clock on Monday afternoon. The freshmen are requested to provide their own shovels where possible. "Doctor" John has a half dozen or more which he is willing to lend to responsible parties.
The wagon which is used to cart paper for the University will be pressed into service and the snow carted away. As usual the officers of the freshman class will be held responsible for the appearance of its members.
There has been a great deal of favorable comment over the baseball schedwhe announced in yesterday's Daily Orange.
of the eleven games to be played on the southern trip seven are against tams which were played on the record breaking southern trip of last year. The scores of these games follow: Syracuse 0, Trinity 4; Syracuse 12, Architeets and Mechanics College 11; Syracuse 8, A. and M. 3; Syracuse 13, St. Johns 3; Syracuse 11, Naval Cadets 1; Syracuse 5, Georgetown 14.
The Harvard and Yale games were well spoken of, as were in fact all the ganes on the eastern trip. No eastern trip was taken last year and these leams have not been played in several years. Harvard has never been met befors.
The old favorites, Fordham and Manhatlan, still appear on the schedule, as does also Columbia.
The opening of relations in baseball with Oberlin follows naturally the track relations which were commenced lart spring. Relations are also renewed with Hamilton.
The alumn game has also come in for a round of applause. The alumni football game has always been a popular one and it is presumed that the bringing back of the old time baseball stars will prove equally as pleasing.

Soft hats, caps and derbies in great variety at Selleek's.

REFUSED TO GRANT SENIOR PETITION

The faculty of Liberal Arts College at a meeting held yesterday afternoon did not favurably consider the petition of the senior class asking that those students receiving a grade of $C$ or better in their work should not be required to take examinations in those subjects.
The report that the date of the Easter vacation was to be changed was false.

CREDIT FOR SEVEN SEMESTERS
At a meeting of the senior class of Liberal Arts College held yesterday morning, a report was given by the committee appointed to consult the Chancellor and faculty as to the advisability of excusing from examinations those seniors who attained a grade of C or above the second semester. After considerable discussion it was decided to authorize the committee to report to the faculty that such was the sentiment of the class. It was further decided, however, that all honors should be based only on the first seven semesters' work.
Y. M. C. A. CABINET APPOINTED

Will L. Chandler ' 06 , president of the Youug Men's Christian Association, has chosen the following chairmen of committees who will constitute the calinet for the ensuing year: Bible Sudy, Edward N. Packard '06; Religious Meetings, Harry B. Belcher ' 06 ; Missionary, Raymond G. Perkins '07; Membership, D. Alton Davis '07; Intercollegiate Relations, Bruce B. Corbin '07; Social, A. L. Rice '07; Finance, Chester A. Bixby.
The secretary, William M. Wemett ${ }^{\prime} 07$, is the other member of the cabinet. It is also probable that another department will be added immediately, due to the rapid development of settlement work which has been started during toe past year. The chairman of the committee will be announced later. S. Elwood Andrews' 06 has been appointed managing editor of the Handbook for next year.

Professor Shepherd Before English Club
The regular meeting of the English Club will be held Tuesday evening next at $80^{\circ}$ clock at the Kappa Alpha Theta house. The speaker of the evening will be Professor W. P. Shepherd, professor of Romance Languages at Hamilton College, whose subject will be "The Legend of Tristram and Isolde and Its Treatment in Literature." All students taking elective work in English are cordially invited to be present. Those students eligible to attend these meetings of the club who do not do so miss a rare intellectual treat.

Alumnae Wish to Renovate Liberal Arts Chapel

If the plans laid by the Alumnae Association of the University fully mature, the chapel in the Hall of Languages is to be redecorated and renovated during the Easter vacation. According to the statement of Mrs. William Nottingham ' 80 yesterdayafternoon the work will not be undertaken until the money is at hand and If it is not raised by the beginning of the Easter vacation it will be delayed until summer.
The plans as talked over at the last meeting of the association will be to tint the side walls, put in a steel ceiling, revarnish the organ and carpet the platform. This plan if carried out will do much to improve the general appearance of the chapel and should a separate building be erected for chapel purposes, this refitted chapel will make an acceptable assembly hall for class meetin s, lectures and other purposes. It is understood that one of the alumnae is considering making a personal gift of new seats for the entire hall at the time the renovation takes place. Nothing definite is known of this as yet.

Baseball Manager Harrison D.
Schedule Sanford of the baseball team is certainly to be congratulated on the excellent schedule that he has arranged for this spring. . Congratulations may also be offered to the University, for the schedule is certainly the best that the baseball team has ever had. The colleges to be played are of a higher standing and the whole schedule is more satisfactory.
The marked improvement in the schedule for the southern trip is very commendable. The best colleges of the south have been substituted for the smaller and less known institutions that have been played in other years.
The advent of Yale and Harvard into the Syracuse University baseball world cannot but be welcomed by the local enthusiasts. It is one of the steps toward the placing of our baseball team on its proper plane.
Everything now seems to point toward a very successful season. this year. From all reports the coach is thoroughly competent and capable of drawing the best out of the candidates under his charge. A large number of candidates are out and both captain and coach are confident of turning out a winning team. The practice of having a second team schedule will make toward a better team and will serve to keep more players on the field than otherwise would remain at work.
vassar college tuition has increased
President Traylor of Vassar College has announced an advance in the rates both of tuition and of board at that college. The tuition fee is advanced from $$ 100$ to $$ 150$ a year; the cost of board is also inereased from $$ 300$ to $$ 350$ per year. This makes the four years' cost to students at Vassar $$ 2$, 000 , an increase of $$ 400$. This is the first change in $r$ tes which has been made since 1866. President Taylor states that the change in rates is made neces ary by the large incease in the cost of education and the cost of living.

Williams college students have de cided, for the good of the college, to abolish hazing until the end of the college year in June. If the experiment proves a betterment for the college, the rule will be made permanent. The faculty is of the opinion that the example will be followed by Amherst and Wesleyan.
hospital beds for students Mrs. James R. Day has inaugurated a movement at the University to tax each student and member of the faculty fifty cents a year to provide for two beds for students at the Hospital frephe in which they ave free use in time of sick ness. Heretofore students have frequently been compelled to enter the hospital because of accidents in athletics. The permanent establishment of free student beds seems imperative and an easy method for the students to supply their own needs has been devised by Mrs. Day.

NOMOOEF FIOOR WORK SENOOS TO FOR TRAGE MEN

Stride,Speed and Endur ance Now Looked To .- A Partial Cut

The track team will have no more tra ang in floor work in the gymnasium
This work, consisting of general body buiding exercises, has been merely meliminary training, but has been of such a character that the track athetes should develop a superior stride as a result. The men are now taken in spuads according to their events, and under the direction of the coaches are receving special attention in stride, form and endurance. Men are now macticing on eachof the thirteen track and field events except the hammer thow and broad jump, which cannot be pacticed indoors. Poie vaulters, hurWers, shot putters and all the spinters hud rumers are now working every day on their respective events.
Coach Hutchins expects to have the men ont on the track in a short time and says that five weeks of out doon running will be ample time to develop the relay teams. "In every case the wateh will decide who shall compete. A nua will not make the team on form. He mast show the necessary speed and endmance."
Soon after the men got out on the track a partial cut will be made, at least in the awarding of shoes and suits. The most unpromisiug men as a result of trials will not be equipped by the margement until they show strength mough to warrant this.

SEVIOR GIRLS TO WEAR CAPS and cowns entire year
At a meeting of the women of the junior class held on Friday morning it was decided to wear cap and gown all through the senior year, putting the gowns on the first day of college and wearing the cap every day and the full car and gown on special occasions. The cals will be worn on Moving-Up Day this year, with the tassle on the junior comer. Plans for the banguet which is to te given to the semiors were discussed. The following chairmen of committees were elected: Executive conumittee, Mabel Brown; cap and gown committee, Laura E. Mott; banyeet committee, Lois R. Kupper. Charlote Heath was elected treasure:
The women of the sophomore class have elected Faith B. Buell class orator and Mary F. Supplee. Dora A. Baker, Pauline Hagaman and Mabel Wombough members of the class executive committee. The class voted not to wear the caps and gowns at Commencement.

for Show
The "Rig Show," which is to be given in comection with the Fake show in John Crouse College next Monday evering, presents an olio of excellent variety. The acts arranged, at least as they are described in the catalogue, are certainly marvels of the Fakir's art.
M. Pastergaberlitzsky, who is said to be a clay artis', will open the extended program. According to the deseription this will be his last appearance on the American stage. His first is not men-

Simple Simon and Mose will do a few stunts and will be followed by Professor Wilson Chopan Handlewisky, the (de)-famous pianist, who will render several selcetions by elassical composers.
Duke Damifinowho and Captain Dont matter come in for a little melodramatic sketch, followed by Professor Hymotist.
The grand finale of the olio will he scenes direct from the seat of war and St. Petersburg. The capture of Port Arthur and the "Assassination and Distribution of Duke Sergius" will be graphically pictured.
The "Big Show" is to be rendered twice in the evening so that all the visito:s to the show will be able to see the Jigy production. A number of surprises not on the bill are to be sprung.
A number of graduates of the College of Fine Arts who have participated in former shows are to be present and will revive some of the old "fake stunts" that have made former shows so popular.
The commiltee on' the "Big Show" consists of Messrs. Sillenbeek, Stephens, Demis, Theobald and Boyd.

Freshma
Conduc gle freshman to sing the class song on Saturday merning. It is almost useless to say anything about it. Talking evidently does not do any good. "Hammer and tongs" are needed to drum into the freshmen the fact that custom must be followed and the class upheld. In other years a condition of affairs similar to that which now exists in the freshman class would not have been tolerated under any conditions. It is really regretable, too, as the freshmen have so many good qualities. They seem to have loyalty enough at other times, but there is an em. barassment or modesty when the song is to be sung in the halls that seems to drive away all the spirit the freshmen ought to have. This should not be so. It is a disgrace to the class and to the University. Freshmen, mend your ways.
In this connection we can mention the shoveling to be done this afternoon, provided the snow is not all melted by that time. The work is for the college and naturally devolves upon the freshmen. The first year class has not had much experience in doing work for the teams and may think that this is an imposition. It is, however, noth ing more than is often required of freshmen and should be attended to as such. The freshman class has much to make amends for. It can begin by shoveling snow.

The Now How strange it seems Chapel to think that the old chapel room is to be renovated and redecorated! It has been the same old place from year to year and a change seems utterly incompatible with the room itself. Those who are to graduate this year remember how homely they thought the room at first, but now how different their feeling! The chapel has been the same from year to year and has come to show the truth of the old saying, "Handsome is that handsome does."
The alumni of ten, fifteen and twenty years ago have come back to the same old chapel year after year and have beheld the same old spots and smoky walls. New and handsome buildings have gone up all around the Hall of Languages which we have all looked upon with pride and welcomed with joy. The thought that some day the chapel would be redecorated and changed has failed to occur to us.
It is so. The old thing looks bad, very bad. It ought to be renovated. Sentimentality is all right and marks of age are an excellent thing for an institution of learning, but the world is cold and practical and will not behold the chapel as we see it. $\mathrm{N}_{0}$ more will we be able to sit through a dry talk by a visiting professor and contemplate the cracks in the ceiling and wonder how long before the plaster will fall. No more will we be able to decipher the numerals of classes of years gone by and then ruthlessly scratch our own above them. No more will we be able to wonder how a radiator can smoke-blacken the walls and no

The march of progress is on and the chapel is to be turned into a respectable looking place.

HEFFERNAN COACHES HAMILTON
J. W. Heffernan '04, a former well known 'Varsity twirler, has accepted the position of coach of the Hamilton College baseball team this spring.
Heffernan is well kdown in the University, having played with the 'Varsity team for two seasons past. He twirled and played the outfield, being an exceptionally good man in either position. He is a good man with the stick and had often intimated of signing with some proressional ball team, where he would make good without a doubt. Before entering Syracuse Heffernan played on the Williams College nine.
The consideration for Heffernan's services is not known, but it is said the former Syracusan will receive a good salary in hehalf of his efforts to represent Hamilton with a fast ball team, which Heffernan will no doubt do if the material is available.

WANT MEMORIAL SUGGESTIONS
The memorial committee of the class of 1905 at its last meeting considered the matter of a memorial gift from the class at commencement time. The committee decided definitely that there would be a gift and a substantial one. Several plans were talked over but none decided upon. Instead the matter was left open for suggestions, not only from members of the senior class but from members of the facully and students of other classes. The suggestion, fully deseribed and with details as to construction and price, is to be written out, signed and handed to any member of the committee before April 1. The committee will consider all the suggestions on that day, together with several plans of its own and will offer several of the best to the class to decide upon. The communication of the committee follows:
"The memorial committee of the class of 1905 invite suggestions from any student, member of the faculty or friend of the University as to a proper gift for the class to present to the Universi $y$ at commencement time. The gift must be something permanent and of value. All suggestions should be written out with as much detail as possible together with the approximate price, signed and handed to any member of the committee before Aprill. The committee will meet on that day to consider the suggestions offered." [Signed] Earl G. Rice, Chairman, Clarence J. Housernecit, Leon Woodhull
Elsie Jones,
Jessie Green,
Carrie Williams.
When asked if the matter of a trophy room would be considered, the chairman of the committee replied in the affirmative.

DOCTOR HEFFRON TO LEGTURE

Last of Classical Club Series to be Given Thursday

Doctor John L. Heffron, professor of clinical medicine, will give an illustrated lecture on "A Vacation Trip Through Greece" in Assembly Hall of the University block Thursday evening. The lecture is under the auspices of the Classical Club and is the last of the course of four lectures given by the club this year.
Doctor Heffron took the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts from Colgate University in 1873 and 1876 respectively. He is a Doctor of Medicine from Syracuse in 1881. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. As a physician and a scholar Doctor Heffron is widely known, He is a member of the best known medical societies in the country, and has lectured before a number of them. He is a class cal student, and his observations on his Grecian trip will be most interesting and instructive.
The lecture Thursday evening will be more of a popular nature than some of the course have been. The speaker is known as an entertaining lecturer. The number will no doubt prove a fitting close to the course furnished by the club.
Y. M. C. A. TO HAVE STAR COURSE

The University will have another addition to its already numerous lecture courses next year. Pr sident William L. Chandler announced yesterday that the Y. M. C. A. was to arrange for a star course of five or six numbers. The lectures or entertainments will all be of a popular nature. The course will include addresses by the most prominent lecturers in the country and some who have never visited the University before.
The lectures will not be of a scientific nature in any sense of the word, but will be chiefly for entertainment, although they will be instructive as well.
The Associations expect to clear a good round sum off the course to meet the regular expenses of Y. M. C.A. work. The lectures are all to be held in John Crouse College hall.

Northrup Will Address Debaters

The Hon. A. Judd Northrup will address the members of the classes in Forensics and Public Speaking at the home of Professor Losey on Thursday evening of this week. The qddress will not begin until after the adjournment of the debating clubs, which will meet on the same evening. Mr. Northrup will speak of famous platform urators whom he has heard within a petiod of the past 50 years.

ANDREW CARNEGIE, THE DONOR OF THE NEW LIBRARY

The life of Andrew Carnegie, the donor of $$ 150,000$ for a new library, is the story of thrift and economy. The tale of the "poor boy who once borrowed books and now gives away libraries," as told in a recent number of Success, and reprinted in "Little Visits with Great Americans," gives this information:
Andrew Carnegie was born in Dumferline, Scotland, where he spent his earliest years. He first began to work when ten ;ears old as a bobbin boy at a dollar and twenty cents a week. At the age of thirteen this was increased to a dollar and eighty cents per week. From messenger boy at two dollars and ffty cents per week to operator he arrived to superintendent of the Western Division of the Pennsylvania railroad.
In that position be went into deals, buying and selling different projects, until finally he entered the steel indus try. From that time his occupation may be expressed as the college student sometimes says it, "owning things."
He has written several articles for young men. His views on thrift, given in Success, are in part as follows:
"The accumulation of millions is usually the result of enterprise and judgment, and some exceptional ability or organization. It does not come from savings in the ordinary sense of the word. Men who, in their old age, strive to increase their already too great hoards, are usually slaves of the habit of hoarding, formed in youth. At first they own the money they have made and saved. Later in life the money owns them and they cannot help themselves, so overpowering is the force of habit, either for good or evil. No one needs to be afraid of this abuse of the habit if he always bears in mind that whatever surplus wealth may come to him is to be regarded as a sacred trust which be is bound to ad minister for the good of his fellows. The man must always be master.
"I trust that few if any of your readers have the misfortune to be rich men's sons. A basketful of bonds is the heaviest basket a young man ever had to carry. He generally gets to staggering under it. The vast majority of rich men's sons are unable to resist the temptations to which wealth subjects them, and they sink into unworthy lives.
The first thing that a man should learn to do is to save his money. By saving money he promotes thrift, the most valued of all habits. Thrift is the great fortune-maker. It draws the line between the savage and the civilized man. Thrift not only develops the fortune, but it develops also the man's character."

Although definite plans have not been completed, there is to be a track meet on the Oval May 6. This will be the spring sports meet. The spring sports is a handicap meet for all classes and will be open to men who are not on the track team. It will be more elaborate than the regular spring interclass meet.
The events will be handicapped so that the finish may be made as exciting as pos ible. If possible, a relay race is to be arranged between several preparatory schools, including Syracuse High School and Cortland Normal.
It is expected that prizes will be of fered for the several interclass events.

DR. THWING TO LEAVE

At the end of the college year there is to be a change in the faculty of the department of physics. Professor C. B. Thwing, who is the present head of the department, is to terminate his services and a new department head is to be chosen. Professor Thwing has been professor of physics for a number of years.
Chancellor Day said yeste day that the matter of a successor to Dr. Thwing was already being considered, though action had not been taken. The new man, whoever he is, will be the best that can be obtained.

Chancellor in Chapel This Morning
Dean Frank Smalley announced in chapel yesterday that the Chancellor would be present in chapel this morning. . The Chancellor, when "asked about it, did not just agree to the project, but the Dean came in at that moment and said it was all right. What the Dean says goes, so the Chancellor will say something.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

The New Surely "our cup run-Library neth over." A new library! Why that was almost beyond our fondest dreams. We welcome it with all the greater joy for that reason. Those of us who are soon to leave regret that these great, new buildings which are to dot the campus very soon were not here when we entered and took our work, but we rejoice that we have so much more to tell prospective freshmen about Syracuse when we go out as business agents of our Alma Mater.
We can appreciate now as never before the great ironmaster's munificence in the awarding of libraries all over the world. When we realize that our magnificent building, which is to be, is one of the hundreds which he has made possible and, knowing what such a structure will do for us, when we realize that every other building of the kind will do as much and even more for some community, then we know what Andrew Carnegie is doing with his money and what lasting fame he is acquiring. He has already built a monument such GEO. FREEMAN & SON as has never been equalled by any mortal man and before his death this monument no doubt will be doubled several times.
Proud ought Syracuse University to be that she can have one of the stones of that great memorial and prouder still the city of Syracuse which contains two magnificent testimonials to the philanthropy of a man who once was as poor as the poorest student of this University. According to Success, Carnegie once worked for one dollar and twenty cents a week and borrowed books weekly from a philanthropist in Allegheny City.
What a scene of activity will be the campus this year! Three buildings and a stadium will be in the process of construction. Such a year as this has seldom been known in the history of any university. Now just one more gem to fill us with unspeakable joy. Just the announcement of the gymnasium before Commencement! Then, like Simon of old, we can die (or graduate) in peace!

CHANCELLOR

 PROPHESIES Head of the Institution Talks of Needs and ## Hopes

The largest crowd that has been present at chapel for several months turned out to hear the Chancellor yesterday morning. He was expected to be present to talk on the gift of the new building and as a result every seat was taken before the second bell rang and many were standing in the doorways
The Chancellor spoke for over thirty minutes concerning the new building, the benefactors of the University, methods of raising money and some other buildings that were coming. The students were particularly enthusiastic over what he said about the buildings that were coming, for Doctor Day left the impression that he expected to be able to announce both a new gymnasium and a chemical laboratory before the end of the year. In speaking of those things he said:
*Things have been coming our way (laughter). They bave not got done coming. I have nothing definite to an nounce, but there are some things coming. They have got to come. I have several strings out. Some of them may break and some may have what I am after on the end when I pull them in.
"When things do come I'll tell you. When the gymnasium comes I'll tell you about it. We have got to have that. There are too many of you for the old one which was built for about 300 students. It has got to come within a reasonable time.
"Then we must have a chemical laboratory within a reasonable time. I am not quite prepared to say whether it will come within the reasonable time. We ma/ have to wait another year.
"And then we have got to have a Christian Associations building. I am perplexed sometimes. I'd like to have the present library building for the administration building with my offices in it. It would be so large and ample. Then I think that it would make such a nice Association building when it is remodeled that I hesitate between my selfishness and my liberality to say which it will be.
"We have got to have a chapel which will seat 2800 people. I have become tired of talking to such small audiences. There are no narrow limits to my hopes for Syracuse. I think that Syracuse University is the biggent and greatest thing in America."
Earlier in his address the Chancellor told of the disagreeableness of raising money and endowments for an institution of learning. In connection he spoke words of high praise for Doctur J. D. Phelps, the financial secretary of the University, who was instrumental in securing the gift from Mr. Carnegie. He also spoke of the magnificent gifts of John D. Archbold and Lyman C. Smith.
At the conclusion of the Chancellor's talk, President Crawford of Allegheny College was introduced to say a few words.

BASEBALL PRactice delayed

At the present time the baseball men seem to be working under difficulties. Not only the elements have conspired against them, but Coach Murphy himself has been out of the city for the past few days because of the death of his mother.
Yesterday the batteries were the only squad that could take their accustomed work. The infielders and outfielders could not do any work in the cage, which was "all afloat," and so consequently had to satisfy themselves with limbering up in the gymnasium.
If it had not been for the fall of snow yesterday, in a couple of days the whole squ vd would hive been out on the diamond, but as it is the team will be severely handicapped. Arrangements have been made to play a team of professionals in the city, which "Wille" Dunn will pick up whenever weather conditions are favorable for a game. It seems almost essential that Captain Burrell's men should have the benefit of a few such practice games before the Cambridge trip is taken, for the Harvard nine already has been practicing out of doors for some liltle time.
Hamon, who is suffering from the appendicitis, is reported as being in a fair way to recover without an operation. In such a case it is expected that the team will not be deprived of his services, at least not for the whole season.

1907 OF KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

 ENTERTAINEDThe 1907 delegation of Beta Theta Pi last evening entertained the sophomore delegation of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Be ides a profusion of sofa pillows and pennants the decorations consisted of roses, carnations and tullps.
Entertainment was provided in the way of stunts, cards and dancing. The Yates orehestra furnished music. During the evening a four-course supper was served. The two delegations were seated at one long table, extending from the dining room into the music room,
The following are the two delega-ti-ns:
1907 of Kappa Kappa Gamma-Misses Ella D. Wallace, Clara Steinbieker, Ida Allis, Marjorie Gardner, Bertha Angell, Bertha Jewell, Jessie Carpenter, Cora Williams, Marion Bellou, Bessie Taylor, Jessie Doty, Mabel Johnson.

ITTERCLASS DEBATE

 THIS EVENIMFreshman and Sopho. more Debate on Crip. ple Creek Question

The annual interclass debate between the freshman and sophomore classes will be held this evening in the chapel of the Hall of Languages.
The question to be debated is, Resolved, That Governor Peabody was not justified in deporting the striking miners from the Cripple Creek district. The sophomores have the affirmative and the freshmen the negative side of the question.
The freshmen will be represented by William B. Heroy, J. D. La Wall and Arthur J. Ruland. The sophomore team is made up of Raymond N. Campbell, William M. Wemett and Lawrence S. Coit. The last two men named are the only men who have debated in public. Both were members of the freshman team which last year defeated the team representing 1906 in the interclass debate and each is alternate on the 'Varsity debate teams of this year. Little is known of the freshman team, but it is said that they may be able to spring a surprise on both the audience and the sophomores. The question is an interesting one and the debate promises to be of unusual quality. As is the custom, no admission will be charged.
Professor Losey has announced that two of the judges for the Colgate debate will be Professor Paul Van Dyke of Princeton and Thomas C. Peters, editor of the Brooklyn Times. The third judge has not yet been selected.

Pablished every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop 800 Croton Street.

Men Who The Chancellor in his Do Things little talk yesterday morning brought to our minds the fact that perhaps we have not been giving all due honor to those we should. Too many of us have looked upon the growing size of the University as a sort of natural thing which comes as though impelled by the work of the students or the football teams. The men who have stood so magnificently by the institution have no doubt been influenced by the character of the students here and their earnestness of purpose, but all the credit of the new buildings and growing endowment is due to the donors themselves. We honor them all too little.

Every building on the campus or off of it indicates either in whole or in part the gifts of some philanthropist. The Hall of Languages was built in part from the gift of $$ 100,000$ from the city of Syracuse. With this exception almost every building the University owns is an individual bequest or gift.
The names of the givers cannot be too often praised by the students of Syracuse, John D. Archbold, who gives every year amounts that the public at large knows nothing of; Lyman C. Smith, who has furnished the College of Applied Science and who has plans that will lead to a still greater equipment for that part of this inslitution; Esther Baker Steele, who gave the Hal of Physics; Mrs. Reid, E. F. Holden, the late Jacob Crouse, the late Jolin Lyman, John S. Huyler, Clarence W. Seamans Andrew Carnegie and a number of others ought all to be given an immortal place in the hearts of Syracuse students. They not only ought to have this place, but we are comfident that they will have.

Few college students realize how little of the cost per student of college education that they pay when they pay their tuition. There is not a college of recognized standing in America where the student pays the whole bill. This is particularly true at Syracuse. The student, in paying the full tuition, pays less than half of the annual expense that he or she is to the institation. More money for the support of the University comes from gifts or the profits of former gifts than comes from the students themselves. In other words, some one else pays for a student's expense. Those who, of necessity, derived the benefits of a scholarship pay but a very small portion of the whole bill.

This situation only goes to show that there is all the more reason for our giving honor to the men who make our presence here possible.

FRESHEN WIN Hitaclass bebit

Exciting Contest Held Last Evening.- A Split Decision

The freshmen are still victorious. Last evening they were awarded the decision in the annual sophomore-freshman debate in the chapel oi the Hall of Languages.
The question, "Resolved, That the action of Governor Peabody in expellims the miners from the Cripple Creek district was justifiable," was supported on the affirmative by Messrs. L. S. Coit, Wemett and Campbell of the sophomore class, and on the negative by Messrs. Heroy, LaWall and Ruland of the class of 1908 .
Mr. Wemett opened the debate by statiug the question and defining the issue. He was followed by Mr. Heroy. Mr. Campbell emphasized the lawlessness and anarchy of the miners. His speech was favorably received.
Mr. LaWall, in a speech that was heartily applauded, rejected the necessity for martal law.
Mr. Coit forcefully declared the use of stringent measures in critical times.
Mr. Ruland charged Governor Peabody with a fatal mistake in not discriminating between gualty and innocent Mr. Ruland's speech was received with much approval.
In rebuttal every man sbowed up well. Mr. Heroy indulged in several surcastic thrusts with good effect. Mr. Coit closed the debate with an excellent and well delivered speech.
After the judges, Messrs. II. P. Denison, D. R. Cobb and C. W. Tooke, had retired, the underclassmen indulged in class songs and yells. The judges were out but a short time. Mr. Touke in announcing the decision stated that the judging was close, the vote being split since the burden of proof rested on the affirmative and the work of the freshmen was the better constructed, the decision had been given to the negative. Professor Losey presiled at the meeting.

JUNIOR MEN SAID "NO"

At a meeting of the junior class held after chapel yesterday morning the proposition brought forward unanimously by the girls of the class that the present juniors should wear "mortarboard' caps on Moving-Up Day was turned down by the men of the class. The women present greatly outnumbered the men, and when the motion was fires rut it was carried with only three men in favor. The girls then bowed to the preponderance of opinion on the male side of the house and reconsidered the mo ion.
After the regular meeting, the men of the class voted to hold an informal junior dinner for all the colleges of the Universlly some time before Easter. D. Clifford Squires, Cyrus B. Griffith and George W Mitchell were appointed as a dinner committee. Cyrus $B$. Gr ffich was elected toastmaster.
relay men do reqular work
The candidates for the relay team have begun their regular work. On Monday of each week each man is given a printed slip by the coach with instructions as to what to do for every day in the week. This relieves the coach of the work of personally directing them every day. The entire team will be put at this work.
The trainint table for the relay men will be started as soon as the first time trial can be heid.

STUDENTS TO SEE SHOW GIRL
A large number of students are planning to attend the "Show Girl" at the Bastable Saturday afternoon. The men are planning to duplicate the afternoon with Hennette Lee in the "Beauty Doctor" last year when several hundred men sat in a body.
Frank E. Brundage is behind the movement and will reserve seats in a body for all who make arrangements with him.

ALUMNI COMMITTEE APPOINTED
The following committees of the Alumni Athletic Association have been appointed:
Athletic-E. L. French, A. R. White, L. P. Smith, Harry L. Benedict and Harvey N. Henderson.
Executive-J. M. Gilbert, George Bond, D. R. Cobb, E. P. Lyman.

Soon...-Big Show Rehearses

Yesterday afternoon was a busy time for the Fine Arts Fakirs in the architectural department of John Crouse College. The catalogue covers have been received from the printer's hands and are being hand-decorated in the architects' rooms. The covers are printed in black. The "cat-a-lug" is said to surpass even the three previous editions, both in "fakicishness" and originality. These will be sold at the usual price.Some of the Main Hall decorations are to be placed this week. As the show will open $n$ Monday afternoon, most of the work will have to be done before Monday morning.

The participants in the Big Show are said to be rehearsing daily, although no one can be found who has seen the performance. Some local hits are to be sprung in the Big Show which will bring the audience to their feet in ecstasy.
A number of fake pictures have already been received and will be placed upon exhibition in the gallery. It is expected that the collection this year will surpass any of the previous ones.

Hon A. J. Northrup Before Debaters
The Hon. A. Judd Northrup will address the members of the classes in Forensics and Public Speaking at the home of Professor Losey on Thursday evening of this week. gowns should be worn by the newly-made senior class on Mov-ing-Up Day is a question we will not discuss here and now, but we wish to express our opinion pointedly on the general tenor of the meeting of the junior class held yesterday morning. It seems that when the women of the class (who greatly outnumbered the men at the meeting) were as unanimously in favor of any project as they were in favor of the one that they proposed and when they were so exceedingly careful to confer with the men of the class regarding it, that some consideration should be shown to this fact. Common courtesy should have compelled the men to look upon this side of the question.

Scholastic. The following comStanding munication states so clearly an existing evil that we quote it as an expression of editorial opinion: Editor Daily Orange:
While walking down town the other day I met a friend of mine, a Princeton man, who entered Syracuse in my freshman year, but left at the beginning of the second semester. In reply to my question he said that he liked Princeton very much. "They make you work there, too," he added. "Fired over a hundred freshmen this year for poor work." The reason my friend said this is because this fact was in direct contrast with the work here as he saw it.
The fact that "cinch" courses do exist at Syracuse University in too great numbers is responsible for the feeling that exists among many students of the University that work is unnecessary here. Luckily for the institution, this is not true in all or many of the departments, but it is true in some.

I know of courses in this college in which it is the boast of students that there is no studying to do. If we are to be an institution of any standing, this should not be so. Our degree ought not to stand for 120 hours of work carefully selected from some departments where a student has told me that he passed up three hours of work after wilfully being absent from two thirds of the recitations and never looking into the text book but once!
Another even more flagrant case is that of a major student who is receiving four hours' credit for his seminar which he attends one hour per week and upon which he has worked just three hours one afternoon last November! The only further work he expects to do to pass up his four hours is a couple of hours some time before the Easter vacation !

These are examples of a too numerous class. These ought not to exist. There are departments and there are students that suffer because this is so. The students in these courses really lose. The University loses prestige, and other students are sometimes classed with those whoendeavor to pursue a "cinch" course, much to their discredit.

There are courses which by nature will always give a shirk the opportunity to pursue his calling, but there seem to be courses here that are too much so. This seems to be the general opinion of these among the entire student body. For the good of the institution this ought be remedied.

STREEMGH TEST  FOR GYM CLISSES

Universal Strength and Speed Test to Be ## Given

All the men's classes in the gymnasium are to be given a strength, endurance and speed test the first of next week. The test to be used is the universal strength and speed test and consists of six exercises. All six are taken within a half hour. The result is worked out by multiplying the quotients of the number of times the exercise is taken and the time by the height and weightof the body (reduced to a common unit) and dividing the result by twelve, giving the result of the test in foot pounds.
By taking into consideration the size of the body, no undue stress is laid upon great size, but rather the adaptability of the body to the work. The exercises are so arranged that there is no danger of a strain. This new system of testing takes the place of the regular lifting test. This was hardly accurate and did not include endurance. The new test does. It has been used in a number of universities with great success.
A classification of students will be made when the results are known. The men will be classified in the order that they pass. If the test is successfut here it is to be given monthly.
All candidates for the different teams are to be tested by the same method. The number of footpounds required of a foothall or crew man is about 80,000 . For a baseball candidate 60.000 footpounds is the requirement.
The test will be held on Monday and Tuesday. The results will be announced Wednesday, at which time the strongest man taking the test will be known.

The Daily Orange regrets to announce the resignation of Oscar J. Brown from the editorial board of the paper. All the second semester, until today's issue, Mr. Brown has had entire charge of the editorial side of the paper, Mr. Cheney looking after the business end. Hereafter, unless other arrangements are announced, Mr. Cheney will also attend to the editorial department of the publication.

Editor Orange

The statements in this morning's editorial in the Orange are so serious that they cannot be ignored by the administration. That they do not truthfully represent conditions at Syracuse is to me perfectly clear. It is very easy for a student to convey an impression by a disparaging remark that does not really represent his thought. Repetition brings the result of the "three black crows." I am constantly on the lookout for so-called "snap courses" and from my positionand relation to all departments would be very likely to know if any exist in fact. They do not exist. The student who talks gaily about them gets an F. R. when he tries them in that spirit. Our courses are in the hands of men who are chosen for their work for two reasons, because they are experts and because they are first-class teachers. Even if there were "einch" courses the editor wilfully misleads the uninformed reader by such a sentence as this: "Our degree ought not to stand for 120 hours of work carefully selected from all cinch courses." He knows that is utterly impossible, for more than one year is entirely prescribed and the major and minor requirements would make sueh elections in large number impossible. The other charges, not to specify in detail, are simply not truc, and I challenge the Orange to name the men or 1 demand a full retraction. No such conditions as described exist in this University, and if I can have names I will demonstrate the absurdity of the charge.
The Orange editor (for he is the author of the letter signed "Senior") made no complaint to the administration. If his righteous soul was so burdened with indignant sorrow over loose methods, why was he not loyal enough to whisper his surmises to the officer whose business it is to know such abuses and let him investi, ate? Why did he rush into print with sensational charges that will not bear investigation? His charges are a slander upon professors and students, charging the former with inefficiency, the latter with dishonesty. They will not obtain credence among those who know the faculty, nor with the faculty, for they know the students. But there are other readers, and there is the feld for mischief.
Syracuse University has not infrequently had tadents who, finding the work too hard, have gone to other universities and colleges, claiming they found easier courses. I was disposed therefore to investigate the record at Syracuse of the Princeton man referred to in the sensational editorial as saying tnat he found work there much harder than here. His record confirmed my surmises. He failed to get the credit of a single hour for university work at Syracuse, his only record being F. E. He was entered in Civil Engineering. And this is that model Princeton man who found our work a cinch! It must have been very, very easy. He stands on the books for all time credited with F. E.; nothing else. If the other cases are investigated we shall get the same result. Let me have the names and see,
Now the cheery testimony of this "thorough" student from Princeton is the text for the homily that follows. No man who cares for truth can give it any credence. He further remarks that a certain college dropped over a hundred freshmen for poor work, implying that Syracuse should imitate that pious example. How little the editor or his friend knows of that problem and its significance! The poor quality of their students' work may be due to careless and easy admission or it may be due to incompetent teaching. It is quite as likely to be due to the last. named cause as to the idleness or incompetence of the student if he entered with due preparation. The wholesale dismissal indicates an abnormal condition in any case and should loast of all be cited to prove thoroughness of instruction. Syracuse drops men every year, but the care in admit ting and the quality of the teaching is such that the unfortunate experience of the college referred to is happily avoided. We stand ready any minute to compare standards and efficiency. We feel that it is our business to help men do their work and graduate. But no man graduates until he has done all the work and attained to the required standards.
Let me add simply this, that in my thirty-four years' experience at Syracuse University I have never read so unjust a criticism as this editorial. The critic who hastens to the public without verifying his facts commits an unpardonable offense and does an irreparable injury. Frank Smalley.

BSEEBALL PRACTICE OUT OF DOORS

Entire Squad Out in the Mud Preparing for theHobart Game

Fow the first timo this season the entire baseball squad was, yesterday afternoon, out of doors for practice. The sow had gone off sufficiently so that it was found poss ble to get on to the turf back of the gramistand. Althutgh the ground was mather wet, yet it was much better than having to endure the cramped quarters in the gymmasium.
If the sun comes oul for the next few days the team will be upen the diamond the fore part of next. week and in that case toward the latterpartof the week apractiee game may be expeeted between the 'Varsity and a piched up team of city professionals. Such a game would be of great benefit to the University men, for it is only one week from Wednesday when the first regular "game of the seasun will be phayed, rganst Hobart.
Next Monday Assistant Coach Emmult House will report for duty. He will enable Coach Murphy to give some of his time to the batteries, as the excaptan will have charge of the infielders ant outfielders.

- Yesterday's work consisted of light battery practice and catching flies. The ground was too wot to do much in the the of stopping fast grounders. The batteries worked out in the care.
Hamon, the 'Varsity pitcher who has bean ill with appendicitis, has sufficienty recovered so that an operation will not be necessary. He is now able to bo around and is expected to again don his baseball togs next week and by the opening of the season to be in first-elass condition.
The coach has been obliged to make a temporary cut in the number of candidates.: This has been necessitated because of the present lack of facilities furgiving the proper amount of persumal attention to such a large number of men. As soon as the assistant coach reports and the diamund is fit for use the candidates will be called out for the second team, and those who have been cut at this time will then be given another chance to make either the 'Varsity or second nine.
The following men have been retainul:
Watkey, Limbeck, Hannon, Conovery, Hranciseo, McBierney, Hinman, Coulter, Léwis, Dollard, Dexter, Lawless, Clark, Rutherford, Wibur, Martin, McNeal, Williams, Wilson, Lyon, Morrissey, Powell, Smith, Huntington, Dutton; Rogers.

 DecoorationsFinal Preparations for Show Are Being Made

With the noise of hammers and the "slish" of paste the decorations for the "biggest and best" Fake Show to be held Monday are being placed. In the main hall the great Triumphal Arch is being placed over the stage. The areh resembles somowhat the great triumphal arches of the olden time. Some ancent mythological characters are shown tas well as some modern ones, mythological and otherwise.
There will he two performances of the Big Show, one at 8 o'clock and one at 9 . Scparate tickets will be sold for each performanec, good for that one and no other. The Big Show will be the leading attraction of the evening and the side shows and fake auction in the afternon. The fake auction will be held in the afternoon instetd of in the evening as formerly.
The afternoon performance will open at " 2 o'clock blunt." It will close at Gand reopen at " 70 o'clock blunt." The members of the Fakirs Association and their invited guests will have supper in the buiding. No one is to be admitted in costume except members of the association. These will be provided with a suitable ladge.
The scheme of admissions will be the same as in other years. The amount reguired at the door will be 13 cents per person. Ample arrangements are to be made for checking wraps. A charge of one cent will be made for checking and a charge of two cents for unchecking.
Correct change will be furnished by "Dave Grody" at the sign of the Three Balls. No change will be glven anywhere else in the building.
The subway: shows will be twelve in number and will present a variety of attractions. The charge will be from one to three cents for each show. 'Professional"' barkers will declare the merits of each performance.
As required by law, fire and police protection from the city is to be furnished.
The regular (or irregular) souvenirs of the occasion will be two in number. The "'Cat-a-Lug,'," as before described, is a marvel of its own kind. If will sell at 11 cents. In addition to this the Fakirs have prepared a pulp plaque (hand-mude, union label and garunteed not to ravel at the ends.') The souvenir has an impression of a head in classic style and the words "Fake Show, Syracuse 1905." The plaques are hand-painted in orange, red or green or blue with the letters in gilt. The plaques will be sold by Fakirs in costume for six cents each.

Prof. Groat's The lecture by ProLecture fessor Geo.G. Groat before the Historical Association in the History Seminar room this evening should be especially attractive to students in Political Economy, Debating and Law. Professor Groat has been for many years a careful student of the labor problem, and has watched the action of the courts in decisions relative to labor disrputes.

The Weather It is unfortunate and Athletics for our athletes that we are still having inclement weather. The misfortune is felt in all branches of spring sports. The condition of the ground makes it impossible for any of the teams, except the crews, to practice out of doors. And the crews are not yet able to get into the eight-oared shells on account of the ice in the lake.
It has been absolutely impossible for the baseball men to get any out of doors practice, and this kind of practice is very much needed just now. At the best, the indoor work of the baseball men is more or less unsatisfac- that feels like taking the lead in crowded that it is impossible to get the best work out of the men. The ability of the new men is practically unknown, and will continue so until the track is in a suitable condition for training. Believing that this weather cannot long continue, we have every confidence in the ability of all our coaches to round their respective teams into shape for the first contests.

Fraternity As the snow begins Baseball to disappear the attention of the student body is turned toward out of door exercise. Baseball, the so-called national game, comes in for a large share of our consideration. All students cannot play baseball on the 'Varsity or even on the second team. Both time and ability may be lacking.
For this reason interfraternity baseball, which made a small beginning last season, ought to become more popular this year. The object of an interfraternity league is not the maintenance of an excellent standard of playing or primarily to win a game or series, but is more for the association in a friendly contest of teams of college men. The games last year were all attended with excellent feeling. They not only furnished splendid exercise for the men involved, but they also resulted in promoting good will between the competing organizations. Such a feeling is always to be cultivated.
The difficulty in inaugurating an intersociety league here is the fact that there seems to be no one to take the lead. There is no organization to control such affairs and there is no society tory. They cannot get the kind perfecting a league and inaugur of practice which is required to a schedule. round them into shape for actual The schedule this year ought contests. With the first game to be more uniform than the one only ten days hence, it is evident played last year. In other colthat a change in the weather leges these leagues are a source conditions is almost a necessity. of much good feeling and enjoyThe candidates for the track'ment. The rule that men on the team feel seriously handicapped 'Varsity squad ought not to be as well. ## MeFW WORK

IN FULL SWNIN
Freshmen Cut, Improvement in Work, Prominent Alumni Watch Practice

Starumy y ftemonon wastere first tieal ins the crew men have hat this sesason. anithowh the ice on the lake has loosed lut little, the stretch on the outlet has heen extended nearly a mile. The frushmen were the first to row. The careful coaching of the past ten days has resulted in a noticeable improvement of form and general watermanship.
.The freshman squad has been cut down to twelve men. Those retained are Paddock, Heath, Blocher, Duvall, Stevellson, Whitney, Avery, Butz, Dodge, Corp, Bowen and Schiefer; coxswains Decker and Robinson. These men will be retained until the final cut to the eight regular men, coxswain and two substitutes.
The present squad of sixteen 'Varsity men will be retained until later in the season. The present squad numbers sixteen, twelve will be retained to man the eight and four-oared shells. hence the personnel of the 'Varsity crews is practically decided.
Saturday afternoon the freshmen rowed in four squads in the four-oared and two squads in the pair-oared boat. Duvall, Whitney, Cabeen and Paddock did the stroking, while Robinson, Decker and Austin took turns it the tiller.
Eight 'Varsity men were workedout: stroke, Packard; No. 3, Andrews; No. 2, Salisbury; bow, Squires; coxswain, Cornwall. Spencer, Robinson and Coxswain Decker took the first turn in the pair-oared, followed by Brown, C. Packard and Decker, coxswain.
For this time of the season. the men are getting into good form. Next week the eight-oared shells will be launched. The crew men will eat their suppers at the Hotel Onondaga and the routine work will commence. Blistered hands, sore backs and ravenous appetite will be the common complaint.
James Ten Eyck, Jr., was out in the 29 -pound single scull, Young Ten Eyck is a member of the Watchusett Boat Club of Lake Quinsigamond, Worester, Mass. Ten Eyck is entered in the National Regatta to be held in Baltimore August 11 and 12. The Henley Business School, in which Ten Egck is a student, has purchased from the University the old eight oared 'Varsity shell, which they will use on the lake this season.
One of the most notable features of Saturday's practice was the increased interest of the alumni manifested by their presence, Messrs. E. L. French ${ }^{2} 91$, W. B. Crowley '89, D. R. Cobb '92, L. P'. Smith '93 and Robinson'02 taking the trip to the lake Saturday. Coach Ten Eyck seemed pleased to see that the alumn were intensely interested in the work. When asked what one thing he desired for the improvement of the navy he replied that while he did not want a new gymnasium he would content himself if the float was repaired.
The men are now using the new quarters, and in a short time the shower bathe will be installed. The alumni and coach discussed the necessity for insuring the boat house. Many tramps and wayfarers are constantly about the place and within is about $$ 1500$ worth of property, It is proba ble that some action will be taken.

FAKE SHOW

OCCUMS TODAY
Novel Attractions This Afternoon and Evening.

Final arrangements for the appearance of the Fine Arts Fakirs were made Saturday afternoon and two "grand" exhibitions will be giveu this afternoon and evening regardless of weather.
'The Big Show will be given in the evening only, in two sections, the first beginning at 8 o'elock and the second, and positively last appearance, at $9: 30$. The Big Show will, however, be open in the aftemoon to allow inspection of the innumerable models and productions of a.t imported from the far tions East.
The
The crowning feature will be the monstrous Triumphal Arch, the biggest thing yet attempted by the Fakir or g nization. This consists of two Hindoo fakirs twelve feet in height, which support a frieze decorated with eleven dancing figures, life size. On the extreme top of the arch are two products of Abyssinian art, supporting the immense golden seal of the Fine Arts Fakirs. The hall is profusely decorated with carmine ribbon. Alternating masks and caryatides imported directly from Caryac support the entablature. Continuous vaudeville will take place under the arch.
In the long hall at the sign or the Three Balls he can convert his material substance into ready change.
A reliable check room has been placed in the hall near the "money factory." The price will be one cent to get in, two cents to get out.
The intire basement will be given to the Subway. At the entrance is a modern up-to-date news stand where catalogues and souvenirs will be sold "regardless of cost."
The management of the Subway will be under the personaldirection of Beelzebub. Twelve separate shows will be in continuous activity both afternoon and evening until 9:30. These attractions include the wild man, Kalynchutza (caged), the most ferocious man in captivity; a Modern Theater of constant vaudeville and commetion, with asbestos curtain, and scenery for this occasion only; the Chamber of Horrors, showing most blood curdling scenes of the Japanese-Russian war; the Art Gallery, containing paintings and sculpture protected from the law only by seclusion, and one frieze ( -30 degrees); the Wages of Sin, showing some of the most notorious shades; the most thrilling Dungeon scene; Juanita, the fortune teller, a most imaginative being; and Si Perkins, bureau of town talk and common needs.
The Jiu Jitsu and fencing exhibitions will thrill the life blood of the roung warriors. Boys under 12 can use their ## small change in the Penny exhibit.

The regular auction sale of pictures in the art gallery will take place after the last show.
General admission is 13 cents at the door, the Grand Big Show 10 cents, Subway at ractions ore cent to three cents.
The show this year is much superior to the show of former years and deserves the patronage of the student body.

The Fake If there is any one Show particular thing which college students enjoy telling their friends about, it is customs which are peculiar to their own alma mater. Every college in the country has certain customs which are found in no other institation. Syracuse, along with the others, has several distinctive customs which the students have come to look forward to from year to year that they may have added stories to tell their friends when next they meet.
One of the customs-if such it may be called-which is distinctively Syracusan is the Fake Show given by the Fine Arts students. Last year the students were much disappointed at not being able to attend this unique entertainment. The Fakirs have, however, put all their renewed energy into this year's show and promise a better treat than ever. It is a show such as one will doubtless never again have the privilege of enjoying after he leaves Syracuse. The Fakirs deserve the patronage of the student body and will undoubtedly, as in years before, receive generous support.

Buying The originality of the Brains mind of man to devise means whereby he may make money is indeed wonderful, and often is manifest in strange ways. Out in Ohio there it a company formed for the purpose of enriching themselves by supplying brains-or, more properly perhaps, the product of the brainsto college students. Only a day or two ago there was left at the postoffice boxes in the Hall of Languages a hundred or more post cards, bearing the following interesting communication: "We are still in the business of furnishing outlines and material for orations, debates, essays, theses, etc. We also write the complete article if the customer so desires. If you are in need of anything in our line, address," etc. The most interesting information on the cards was, however, that without exception they bore the word "student" along with the address.
Whether or not these were notices of the "annual spring opening" sent out by the firm to pening" sent out by the firm to heir regular customers in the past we do not know. Yet it is hardly conceivable how any person who can be dignified by the name of college student could be so unfortunate in his share of gray matter as to need the aid of such a firm. A college student who must need resort to such means-if perchance there be such a one at Syracuse-is merely paying other people to do for him that which he ought to be doing for himself. The Ohio firm at best can only furnish "the complete articie." That is not brains; it is not mental development; it is not honesty. If Providence has been so unkind or careless as not to give a student a mind which is capable of some originality; which has the power to think for itself; and which has some conception of honesty, it would be far better such a student were spending his father's good money in a preparatory school rather than contributing it to fill the coffers of the Ohio "student-makers."

MEN ON THE TRACK

First Selection of Relay Men to be Made Saturday - Training Table Monday

For the first time this senson Coach Hatelins had his men on the track. Since the snow left, the authorities have heen working hard to get the cinder track in condition so that the men could get int the real practice. The gromel is still wet, chiusing the track to be heary and preventing any fast wark.
Practiee was contined mostly to starts and short runs. The relay men were pit through some relicving starts. The mear are showing up well for this time of the season.
On Suturday at 4 o'clock the men who are out for the relay team will be given time tests and ten men chosen. five from the quarter milers and five from the half milers. One man will run at a time and none will be allowed to wenr spikes. The men showing up the best at this time will be given outfits and put in special training for the relay work. The coach says that all mengoing into the trials must be on hand at $40^{\prime}$ clock.
The men trying for the weight events are showing up well and very promising material is at work. The pole vaulters are showing up well in their event for so carly in the season.
On Monday the training table will be started. At first only the ten men chosen for the relay work and Van Duyn will be given places at the table. Comeh Hutchins has a schedule for each day staling what the men in each event are to do for that day. The men as they go out on the track know just what they are supposed to do for that day's practice. The coach says that the men are supposed to come out any time between 4 and $6 o^{\prime}$ clock and to bring sweaters on the track with them to use in case they have to wait their turn. .
Deportment of our Athletes of the Best
Cach Hutchins, while on a trip Saturday, was told by a man who has much to do with general athletics that the Syracuse teams would be welcomed to any event of which he had the management. He aaid that the deportment of our athletes is that of the best.

German Club

The German Club will meet this evening in the gymnasium. "Der Vereinsbote," the amnual publication of the club, will be presented. The editurial staff is as follows: Editor-inchief iss Dahlmann; Home Department, Miss Tupper; Foreign Department, Mr. Rider; Sporting News, Mr. Holzwarth; Wants and Advertisements, Mr . Wikoff. Refreshments will be served after the program is cendered.

BASLBALL MEN PRACTICE ON ATHLETIC FIELD.  Falk SHOW

The athletic field took on its amnual appearance of spring activity yesterday afternoon, when for the first time this season the track and baseball men were out in full force upon the oval.
The baseball men could not get upon the diamond, but before practice this afternoon a roller will have leveled off the rough, uneven places and the infield will be able to take their regular positions. Yesterday afternoon the men were given a little practice at catching flies, but today much harder work will bo done. The batteries will be set to work and the men wlll then be given a chance to see if they can get their cyes on the ball.
Hamon was out on the field yesterday and expressed himself as being in good condition, saying he would be out in his suit within a couple of chys.
Thirty new bats have been ordered from whicha dozen or more will be chosen for the use of the team this season.
The coach announces that another cut in the candidates probably will be made some time the latter part of the week.

Shows

That the work of the Fakirs Association wis productive of its deserved patronge was manifested by the large crowds that filled John Crouse College yesterday. The atrendance in the afternoon was exceptionally large and during the entire evening the halls were packed. Abundant preparations, however, had been made for handling the crowds, cach show having its own siecial agent anxious to do his share in entertaining all by his melodious voice and by his welcome exhibition. No less obliging was the "monies changer," who was not in business for his health, only all violence and mobbing was prohibited by the vigilant police.
The souvenirs were the "Cat-a-Lug" and the official seal. The seal was a pulp plaque upon which were the words "Fake Show, Syracuse 1905,"' handpainted. The desi $n$ was original and entirely different from that of preceding years. The disposal of souvenirs was under the careful management of Miss Adsit, and few escaped her tompting and ever-present agents.
The halls, as deburibed in the Orange, were decorated with carmine bunting; the doorwaya filled by gigantic masks and caryatides. In the corner of the main stairway was Neptune driving two monstrous seahorses.
The Subway was under the general supervision of Jesse W. Foater '05, and much of the success of the carnival was due to his carefnl management. The execution of the Inquisition and the fate of the heretic, by J. Martin Brown; the Modern Theater, by L. E. Wright, with its scenery most elaborate and actors most antiquated; the Art Gallery, by H. A. Partridge. containing unproduced art; the Wages of Sin,containing several cribbers and knockers; Juanita, whose advice was always. comforting; the Jiu Jitsu and Fencing Bouts and Chamber of Horrors, together with the chorus of "barkers," made the Subway a street and show where bedlam reigned supreme.
The Big Show, managed by John Sillenbeck, was held under the Great Triumphal Archdescribed before. High class vaudeville was the main attraction. Excellent masic and accompaniments was rendered by the orchestra. The actors, although somewhat timid, responded to the many encores by the excited audience.
To the president, Fred R. Lear, and Manager A. R. Templar, the chairmen of the various committees and all the Fakir Assoctation much credit is due for the success of the show. The whole production showed the result of careful preparation and the show may well be classed as the best of the kind ever produced here.

The Junior There are at SyraBanquet cuse altogether too few functions which tend to promote class spirit. There are few opportunities offered for the various classes to meet by themselves and lavid the work of their own class heroes. An opportunity is offered for the men of the junior class to meet this evening for such an occasion. The banquet deserves the hearty support of every junior.

Phi Beta There has been a great Kappa deal of discussion in college circles of late concerning the attitude of the honor society of Phi Beta Kappa in college life. It has been suggested frequently that, in reality, it is not a society at all, as it exists for but one day during the college course, and then only for a single meeting for the distribution of keys.
It seems little more than folly for a person who is not a member of the organization to comment upon its merits or demerits. Yet the following editorial, taken from the Princetonian, seems to savor of a large amount of common sense. In speaking of the Phi Beta Kappa it says:
"As an incentive to work it is of little importance, for it carries with it no practical advantages in itself. As a means to increase general activity, it is useless because its existence is a myth except during one day of the year. And as an honor it receives far less attention and respect than its high requirements make it deserve, for it is revealed to the general body of undergraduates only on the one occasion. Why not elect men either at the beginning or end of their junior year, basing their election on the work of the first two or three years and thereby affording an opportunity for permanent organization? Phi Beta Kappa would then be a society in fact as well as in name. It could have a regular meeting place in one of the seminary rooms of the library, and could meet once a month for literary discussion. It could arrange lectures to be delivered before it by members of the faculty or by men of prominence outside. In addition it could provide for interesting and instructive addresses to be given before the University. It could also have its social side in the development of closer fellowship and greater enjoyment among its members. With a permanently existing organization, the advantages of this honorable society could easily and properly be set forth to underclassmen and particularly to the incoming class."Its advantages would be manifold. In the first place its tangible benefits would make it appeal more strongly to a class of men who now devote most of their energies to outside activities, but who could easily spare a portion of such activity to work of this character upon the proper incentive. To get men of this class interested would alone increase general intellectual activity, in addition to the influence exerted by the public lectures the society could provide. Finally, in placing before the freshman the value of a good stand in his work, a value rarely appreciated by the average man now until junior and senior years, the society could accomplish much in raising the importance of scholarship. Organizatlon of forces always adds strength. To organize Phi Beta Kappa as a definitely profitable and pleasurable society will strengthen the intellectual life of the university."

t

Early Breakfast Hour Opposed

The women at Northwestern Univer sity seem to be very much opposed to the early breakfast hour in one of the dormitories. A recent demonstration is said to have taken place in whlch the young women with horns, bells and dishpans, led a procession through the corridors of the building before daybreak. The rule which is causing so much trouble requires that the dining room doors be closed at 7:25 o'clock in the morning.-Ex.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Word has been received from Doctor George R Parkin, trustee in America of :he Rhodes scholarship fund, to the effect that none of the candidates from New York state succeeded in passing the qualifying examinations for the 1905 Rhodes scholarship. Three candidates tried the examinations at Syracuse and several at Columbia and at the department of education at Albany. The New York scholars for the present year therefore have to be selected from the men who passed the qualifying examinations last year and who satisfy the other recessary requirements. The following four men are the only eligible candidates: Georre M. Falson of Brooklyn, who is a student at Columbia University; Henry M. McCracken of New York University, Alfred J. Jallou of Brooklyn and Ralph E. Willard of Watertown. Mr. Wilard is a graduate of Hobart College, and is now an assistant instructor in ancient history at Cornell. He was chosen as alternate to Warren E. Schutt for the scholarship last year.

EGHT-OARED SHELLS WERE LAUNCHED

Regular Racing Shells

Put in Water Monday
...Five Boats Out

Three eight-oared shells were put in the water Monday afternoon, the first and second 'Varsity crews and the freshman eight. The entire crew squad consisting of sixteen 'Varsity men, two coxswains, fourteen freshmen, including two coxswains als, started train ing at Hotel Onondaga. The outlet and the river below are entirely clear of tee. The lake is fast loosening up and with a continuance of good weather the crew may get onto the lake within a week.
Yesterday afternoon the three eightoared shells and the pair-oared boat were manned again, All the men rowed, except Anderson of last year's 'Varsty.
The personel of the crew was:-First Varsity-Stroke, Packard: No. 7, Rice; No. 6, Hale; No. 5. Dempster; No. 4, Shiefer; No. 3, Andrews; No. 2, Salisbury; bow, Squires; coxswain, Cornwall. Second 'Varsity-Stroke, Davis; No. 7, Robinson; No. 6, Spencer; No. 5, Stone; No. 4, Cumings; No. 3, C. Packard; No. 2, Brown; bow, Armstrong; coxswain, Robinson. Fresh-man-Stroke, Paddack; No. 7, Corp; No. 6, Stephenson; No. E, Blocher; No. 4, Duvall; No. 3, Dodge; No. 2, Butz; bow, Bowen; coxswain, Ten Eyck. Pair-oared--Avery, Whitney and Heath.
The race for freshman coxswain has been narrowed down to two men, Decker and Robinson. Deeker, though rather heavy at 120 pounds, has had previous experience on the water; Robinson weighs but 106 pounds. Both lads are bright and heady. It is most likely that both coxswains will be retained and used until the day of the races.
For the first time this year a number of ladies watched the practice. Interest on the part of students, alumni and city people is increasing. Before the races it is easy to predict regular excursion boats to watch the crews, and 'the spirited freshman.'Varsity races that are sure to be a daily occurrence.
Being asked when the 'Varsity squad would be eat, the coach replied that not until the new four-oared shell is launched; and that will not be until the lake and outlet are entirely free from ice. The candidates for the second 'Varsity will have to become accustomed to the new boat, and the coach will have to stay in the shell until the steering and rowing gear is in perfect order. But two more men will be cut from the freshman squad. The coach intends to keep the men rowing as long as possible, for he wishes to give all an equal chance and retain only the best men.

DENSON CONTEST MONOA EVENMG

First Time that Contest is Limited to Men... Ten to Try for Prizes

The date of the annual Denison prize speaking contest for sophomores has been set for Monday evening, April 3, to be held in the John Crouse College Hall beginning at $80^{\prime}$ clock.
The prizes, aggregating thirty dollars, are the gifts of Hon. Howard P. Denison of this city. Heretofore men and women contested, a first and sec ond prize being awarded to each sex. Now the prizes are open only to men, twenty dollars to be given to the winner and ten dollars to the second best speaker.
The standard of merit calls for excellence in declamation. Thecontest is held under the control of the Department of Fore sics and Oratory, and all contestants are coached by the head of that department, Professor Losey. Those entered are W. W. Andrews, R. S. Moore, Robert Simpson, R. N. Campbell, J. O. Coit, H. A. Robinson, G. N. Angell, D. A. Davis, R. G. Perkins and R. D. Trebilcox. The names of the judges have not yet been decided upon.
This contest has always been an interesting and well-attended event. No dmission is charged nor are any of the seats reserved. The student body and people from the city are equally welcome to attend.

JUNIORS HAVE JOLLY TIME

The men of the class of 1906 met last evening at the St. Cloud Hotel for the first banquet of the kind ever held at Syracuse. There were present men from each of the five colleges and a most enjoyable evening was passed. The toast list, which was announced yesterday, was rendered in a pleasing manner and was the source of much amusement. All left the banquet hall feeling greater pride in the class of 1906 and in their Alma Mater.

Memorial The committee of Suggestions the senior class appointed to arrange for a suitable memorial for the class of 1905 to leave to the University have requested suggestions from any of the students. This request should find many responses from students of every class. Especially should the members of the senior class do all they can to aid the committee. Whatever memorial is decided upon will, in years to come, reflect back upon the class of 1905. It should, then, be one of which every member of that class will be proud. The members of the class should feel a personal interest in the matter and do all they can to aid the committee in selecting a proper memorial.
Members of the other classes are also invited to offer suggestions. Whatever memorial the class may leave, it will benefit the members of the lower classes more than any others, for they will be here longer to appreciate it. They ought also to feel interested in the matter. We trust the students will aid the committee as much as possible in this matter.

The As the snow begins to Campus disappear and spring seems at hand, the usual "keep off the grass" signs appear in various parts of the city. Owners of residences and superin. tendents of the various parks find it necessary to keep some such warning before the small and careless boys of the streets. College students, however, ought to be so far out of such a class that no such signs of warning should be necessary. Yet the campus is beginning to be marred by various paths here and there. Students in their hurry take the shortest route, little thinking of the effect upon the campus.
With the various buildings in the process of erection the campus will necessarily be torn up a great deal this spring. It behooves the students to help keep the grounds in as good a condition as possible. This can not be done by making an almost unlimited number of paths across the lawns. The University authorities have provided the campus with an ample supply of walks, connecting every building with each other, as well as with the various thoroughfares. If further walks are found to be necessary, undoubtedly the authorities would be glad to receive sug. gestions from those students who find the present facilities inadequate.

VARSTY DEFEATS

 SECOND TEAMFirst Game of the Season Results Satisfactorily

---New Suits Here

The 'Varsity baseball team played its first practice game of the season yesteriay afternoon. Their opponents were the second team, against whom a fairly grood sized score was run up; just how large and just how many innings it took the veterans to do it, no one seems to know. A good sized delegation of students were cut to size up the men and get a line on the Orange's baseball prospects for the spring.
Coach, Murphy acted as umpire in order to give the pitchers the benefit of coaching and to get an idea of just how each batter might improve his work with the stick.
Of course, it is rather early to see of just what the new men are capable, but they all showed up surprisingly well. Although there was no spectacular work, the coach and captain both expressed themselves as well satisfied with the season's prospects.
As yesterday was the first day the men had batted against curves, the hiling was not especially heavy, but exch man seems to be getting his eye on the ball. The outlook is for an unusually strong batting aggrestation.
The batteries are fully up to the standard and the infield is the best which has represented the Orange in several years.
The batteries in yesterday's game were Conevery and Limbeck, pitchers, and Dollard, catcher, for the 'Varsity Watkey and Coulter, pitchers, and Dexter and Lawless, catchers, for the second team.
Not only the 'Varsity is strong, but there is plenty of material to draw from in the second team. It is a well balanced nine and will give a good account of itself in its schedule which has been arranged with some of the best preparatory schools in this part of the slate.
Assistant Coach House was out in his suit yesterday for the first time, assisting in the coaching. He will report lor duty regularly from now on.
Another practice game will be played Saturday afternoon between the 'Varsity and some down town team. The game will be called at $2: 30$ o'clock.
Twelve new suits for the use of the Varsity have arrived and are now on exhibition in the window of Spalding's store in the University block. The suits consist of coat, shirt, jersey, pants, stockings, shoes and cap. The coats and pants are of steel gray color; the coats having a blue band upon which is an orange block " S " upon the sleeves. Upon the shirt front is the worv" "Syracuse" in blue. The jerseys and stockings are of blue with two orange strips of about one inch width.

distin resigns as track man AGER

It was announced yesterday afternom that J. Arthur Distin '05 has resigned his position as manager of the 1905 track team. Mr. Distin resigned to accept a very flattering offer of a position with the Crucible Steel Works of this city. The work will require him to be at the works several after noons each week, and for this reason he could not attend to his duties as connected with the managership.
Distin has done nearly all the hard work for this season. The schedules are all arranged and there is little left to be done other than to select the officials. While he will begin his work at once, he will nevertheless keep up his college work and graduate with his class. Distin may accompany the relay teams to Philade phia next month.
Fred Plumb, the present assislant manager, will be made acting manager for the remainder of the year. He will begin his duties as such immediatel. A new assistant track manager will be elected at once. Candidates must be members of the sophomore class and must be up in their work. All names of candidates should be handed to Doctor Smallwood on or before this week Saturday. The election will be held as soon as the names can be ratified by the Governing Board, and will probably come some time next week.

PROFESSOR STEWART OF NORTH WESTERN AT CHAPEL

- Professor Stewart of Northwestern University was a guest of the University yesterday. He was present at chapel and talked to the students a short time upon the opportunities of a college education. Professor Stewart said, "College is the supreme opportunity and privilege of youth. The college opportunity should be entered into reve.ently and discretionately." In speaking of scholarship as the end of the college opportunity, he said, "Scholarship is the capacity for allying learning with the interests of the human family. The college opportunity is simply the opportunity to hecome better men and better women." Professor Stewart spoke in a very pleasing manner and was heartily applauded by the students.
Chancellor Day was also present at chapel yesterday morning. Previous to introducing Professor Stewart, the Chancellor referred to the condition which Mr. Carnegie has attached to his gift of $$ 150,000$ for the library. The University must raise an equal amount. The Chancellor, however, seems not at all worried about this. A friend of the University in New York has promised to give $$ 2,000$ to every $$ 1,000$ otherwise raised. The Chancellor stated that Mr. Carnegie, in a recent speech, said many complimentary things about Syracuse University.

Every student who has not patronized Selleck the Hatter should get acquainted at once.

SEONO LECTURE THIS EVENNG

Doctor Riggs will Speak

 Under Auspices of Semitic and Bib-> lical Club

The second of the series of five lectures arranged by the Semitic and Biblical Club will be given this evening in Assembly Hall of the University Building. The lecture will be delivered by Professor James S. Riggs, D. D., of Auburn Theological Seminary. His subject will be "Palestinian Geography in Its Influence upon Biblical History." The lecture w.ll be illustrated by a large number of stereopticon views.
Professor Riggs is one of the best known Biblical students of today. He occupies the chair of Biblical Criticism in Auburn Theologic 1 Seminary and has made repeated visits to Palestine. As a resultiof his varied experience he speaks not.only as a scholar, ut as a traveller as well.
While there will be many beautiful views thrown on the screen, yet the lecture will be something more than merely this. Professor Riggs will give a philosophic and historical interpretation of now the pflysical environments influenced Biblical history: "Doctor Riggs is well known in this city as a popular preacher, which fact will add greater interest to the lecture.

SOPER WINS CONTEST

In the local oratorical contest of the Prohibition Club held yesterday in the Hall of Languages, Henry R. Soper 05 was awarded first place. The contest was unusually strong and much credit is due the other contestants. The judges were Doctor C. C. Wilbor Rev. Mr. Bradbrook and Doctor Arch: bald.

As the winner of this contest, Mr Soper will represent Syracuse in the State Oratorical Contest to be held in this city on April 14. The other colleges represented are Cornell; Hamilton, Keuka and Colgate. Syracuse won the contest for the first time last year and it 18 expected that the one this year will be unusually close. Mr. Soper's oration is entitled "The Ethics of Prohibition."

The regular meeting of the Classical Club will be held in the Classical Seminar rooms Thursday evening, March 30, at 8 o'elcek. The program has been arranged by Professor Place's class in Pliny. Prufessor Downing. of the Latin department of the Syracuse High School will give a short talk on "The Younger Pliny." Professor Downing's remarks will be illustrated by selections from the letters of the Younger Pliny read by Miss Adelaide Durston, Miss Grace H. Entwistle, Wallace N. Pierson and F. W. Lewis.

Biblical The lecture by Pro-

 club Lecture fessor Riggs in Assembly Hall this evening should command the attention of a large number of students, especially such as are interested in the ministry or other biblical work. It is altogether too seldom the privilege of students to hear lectures of this kind. Doctor Riggs is a clear, forcible and scholarly speaker, as well as an experienced traveller.Student If the facts set forth in Conduet the two communications appearing in this issue be correct, and there seems little doubt but that they are in the main, the guilty students are deserving of the censure of the student body. If any college students are guilty of those things which these communications charge them, they surely did things which reflect no credit upon themselves or their university. The sooner that a sentiment arrives among the students to suppress any such outburst of rowdyism, the better it will be for our University. We sometimes expect such 'things from street urchins, and on special occasions grammar schoo boys could be forgiven for being associated with such acts. It is hard to understand, however, how college students can stoop to things which are by no means becoming gentlemen.

COMMUNICATION

(We invite atudents, alumni and friends of the University to aubnit communications on subjects I Umely interest. The Orange is not. however. Communientions, Unsigned letters will red in notice, but the name will not be published if so desired.!
Editor Daily Orange:
If a word of censure can be of any avail I desire to express myself most strongly in condemnation of the rowdy ism and ungentlemanly conduct of the group of thirty or more Liberal Arts students, mainly upperclassmen, who attended the Fake Show Monday evening with the evident intention of "breaking it up," as the hoodlums from the slums would call it. To the audience in the large hall their conduct was distasteful at least, while in the corridors below their jostling and pushing actually imperilled those people near them.
To an alumnus who is proud of the past and preseat reputation of Syracuse men, their conduct has nothing to excuse. Especially is this so from the fact that those concerned belong to several of the leading fraternities whose members have been looked to in years past as our representative college men.

Alumnus.

Editor Daily Orange:
Can any person tell why it is that on differentoccasions during the college year a certain element of the studen: body take it upon themselves to disgrace the fair name of their Alma Mater? For an instance, Monday evening during the Fake Show entertain ment, a body of men recruited princi pally from the ranks of societies that consider themselves the elite of the men students, after forcing their way through the shows of the Midway without paying admissions, tramping upon and hustling ladies who were unfortu nate enough to be in their way, deilib erately attempted to break up the exhibition in the large Memorial Hall.
These persons would be exceedingly wroth if called anything butgentlemen, still they were guilty of conduct commonly associated with the idea of Water Street rowdyism.

An Observer.

Does not Favor Thanksgiving Games President Harper of the University of Chicago, in his annual report, advocates the abolition of Thanksgiving football games. He says: "The abol ition of Thanksgiving football games in western colleges is recommended. It is with reluctance and regret that Thanksgiving as a day for home turning and family reunion is being detroyed, and especially the attitude aken toward the matter by the colleges in destroying these characteristics. It is recommended that the last football game be held on Saturday preceding Thanksgiving as at eastern colleges."

PRIIES FOR ECONOMC ESSAYS

Committee Again Offers Big Sums for Political Economy Students

The Daily Orange has received a letter from J. Laurence Laughlin announcing the second annual contest for economic prizes.
In order to arouse an interest in the sturly of topics relating to commerce and industry, and to stimulate an examination of the value of college training for business men, a committee composed of Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, University of Chicago, chairman; Professor J. B. C ark, Columbia University; Professor Henry C. Adams, University of Michigan; Horace White, Fsq. Now York Cit ', and Hon. Carroll D. Wright, Cla.k College, have been enabled through the generosity of Messrs. Hart, Schnaffner & Marx, of Chicago, to offer again in 1906 four prizes for the best studies on any one of the following subjects:

1. To what extent and by what administrative body should the public attempt to control railway rates in interstate commerce?
2. A just and practicable method of taxing railway property.
3. Will the present policy of the lator unions in dealing with non-union men, and the "closed shop," further. the interests of the workingmen?
4. Should ship subsidies be offered by the government of the United States?
5. An examination into the economic causes of large fortunes in this country.
6. The influence of credit on the level of prices.
7. The cattle industry in its relation to the ranchman, feeder, packer, railway and consumer.
8. Should the government seek to control or re ulate the use of coal, iron or other raw materials, whose supply may become the subject of monopoly?
9. What provision can be made for workingmen to avoid the economic insecurity said to accompany the modern wage system?
A first prize of one thousand dollars and a second prize of five hundred dollars, in cash, are offered for the best studies presented by Class B. composed of persons who, at the time the papers are sent in, are undergraduates of any American college. No one in Class A, composed of college graduates, may compete in Class B; but any one in Class B may compete in Class A. The commiltee reselves the right to award the two prizes of $$ 1,000$ and $$ 5 C 0$ to undergraduates, if the merits of the papers demand it.
The ownership of the copyright of successful stadies will vest in the donors, and it is expected that, without precluding the use of these papers as theses for higher degrees, they will cause them to be issued in some per manent form.
Competitors are advised that the studies should be thorough, expressed in good English, and not needlessly expanded. They should be inscribed with an assumed name, the year when the bachelor's degree was received, and the institution which conferred the degree, or in which he is studying, and accompanied by a sealed envelope giving the real name and address of the competitor. The papers should be sent on or before June 1, 1906, to J. Laurence Laughlin, Esq., University of Chicago, box 145, Faculty Exchange, Chicago, Illinois.
The essays for which similar prizes were offered last year will be due in about four weeks.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI

Louis G. Fitzgerald, '05 Law, has gone to his home in Chester, N. Y., on account of ill health. It is hoped by his friends and classmates that he will be able to resume his work in a short time.
Ruth Gordon ' 05 has returned from her home in Willianison, N. Y., where she has been visiting her parents.
Miss Ada C. Gorham and Miss Maud Williams, who have been visiting Miss Helen Moses '08, have returned to their homes at Poultney, Vt.

Stanford University will receive about $$ 3,000,000$ from the estate of the late Mrs. Stanford, besides a large number of valuable paintings, curios, etc.
The faculty of the University of Minnesota have granted the students a holiday on Good Friday.

It is an interesting fact that out of 46 foothall captains chosen since the ast season closed, in the East and Middle West, 23 are line men and 23 are backs. Only one center and four guards have been elected. The tackles number ten, the quarterbacks five and the halfbacks and fullbacks eight.

Yale won the twelfth intercollegiate debate from Princeton, receiving the unanimous decision of the judges. Yale upheld the affirmative of the proposition that "The United States ought not permonently to hold territory it does not intend to admit to statehood."

A movement to raise a fund of $$ 2$. 500,000 to add to the endowment of Princeton University, in order to make it possible to install a system of tutors or preceptors, has been inaugurated by the corporation of the university.

GODO GHORIS IS ASSVBED

Men Respond Well- "Elijah" to be Given, Probably This Year

That the University chorus is to be a success this semester and that the great oratorio 'Elijah' is to bestudied is assured. The appeals of the Chancellor and Dean McChesney have brought encouraging results, especially in the number of new men entered.
The rehearsal Wednesday evening was so well attended that Professor Phillips, the director, had no hesitancy in announcing that he now felt able to take up Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and had strong hopes of giving it before Commencement. Since it is usual for the majority of the underclassmen and many juniors to leave before Commencement Week, the idea of making it a feature of the graduation events would be impracticable.
Thus far 125 voices have been en tered, forty sopranos, thirty five altos, twenty-five tenors and thirty basses. This division would make a well balanced chorus. While Professor Phillips is encouraged with the present outlook, he said yesterday that he hoped the present number would be doubled. When asked if a candidate should be able to read well, he replied that a good natural voice was the only necessity and that he would attend to the ress.
The books will be ordered at once and the first rehearsal will take place next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

Harvard Professor to Visit Syracuse
Professor W. M. Davis of the geological department at Harvard, in company with some of his students, will visit Syracuse during the Easter vacation. The object of the visit will be to study the geological formations of the town.

Freshmen requested to resume the wearing of their green caps after St. Patrick's Day. A great number of the class have shown their lack of college spirit by disregarding the custom. Surely it is no diseredit to wear the green, and the weather is quite conducive to justsuch headwear. To oppose the sophomore class in painting their signs high or taking a dare to wrestle with them in the snow is quite a different thing from refusing to wear the characteristic cap. It is true the custom is not an old established one, but so much the more should the freshmen aid in making it an honored practice. To go about the hill wearing the green cap is nothing a freshman should be ashamed of. Show your spirit and love for our Alma Mater by wearing the green.

many respects. There will b but one office to be filled and the person who is elected will act as assistant manager for two years and manager for one year, providing the usual system of promotion is carried out. Especial care should therefore be taken in naming the candidates. There ought to be a number of names handed in, in order that the Governing Board may not be limited to too few a number in making selections of candidates. It is an important election and should call forth as candidates the best men of the sophomore class.
more about the fake show Editor of the Daily Orange: May I make a brief but emphatic protest through your columns, against the rowdyish actions of certain students at the Fake Show last Munday night.
The roughness of these young men was not only extremely unplensant, but was, on account of the crowded condition of the halls, actually danger ous to the many women who wer there.
I cannot believe that the men of Syracuse University will permit a recur rence of this kind of thing at a function where women are present:

Professor T. C. Hopkins of the geol. ogy department during the week of July 17 to 22 will direct a summer intercollegiate field course in the geology of the Appalachian region. This course is under the supervision of Professor W. B. Clark of Johns Hopkins University, who will also have charge of it for the first week in July when the course starts. The course will last five weeks, each being under a different director. Those who are to have charge for one week each are Professor W. B. Clark, Professor W. M. The party will begin its work in Maryland near Baltimore, and travel northward until it reaches Syracuse where special study will be made of the formations and characteristic fossils of New York with various features of glacial and glacial lake origin. From this locality the route will be through central New York to Little Falls and thence to Pittsfield, Mass. At New Haven the party will disband. This course is intended for teachers and students who have already acquired some knowledge of general geology, including field work.

NARSTYY WILL PLAY TOOAY

Will Cross Bats on the Oval with a Strong Professional Team

The 'Varsity baseball team has a hard game before it at $2: 300^{\prime}$ clock this afternoon when it will meet an excepLionilly strong combination of players from downtown. The team is composed of well known professional players organized by "Willie" Dunn for the occasion. Two of the professionals, Scanlon and Demong, are old 'Varsity players, the former having pitched for the Orange three years ago and the hatter having presided behind the bat.
Among the other leaguers are Dumn, who has played with both the Stars and the Utica team; Stroh, of last year's A., J. and G. team; Maurer, whe las signed with the Jags for this season, and Steinberg, of last year's New England League.
Sume good hard practice was put in yesterday after the rest of the day before. The players were given a chance to see what they could do with Hanmon's and Limbeck's curves and the infied were also given a thorough tryout.
Arother scrub game will probably be played either Monday or Tuesday against the second team in order to get the 'Varsity in the best possible condition for the Hobart game on Wednesday. At that time the Syracuse men will appear in their new suits for the first time this season.
The probable line up of the teams for totay will be as follows:
'Varsity. Rutherford, as. Martin, 2b. Burrell (capt), 3b. Willur, 1 lb .
Ryan, ef.
Morrissey, If. Watkey, rf.

TIME TRILIS

FOR RELAYS
Ten Men Will Go on the Training Table Monday

The first time trial for the candidates for both the mile and two-mile relay teams will be held on the oval at 4 $a^{\prime}$ elock this afternoon,
The training table will be started on Mcnday morning. Five men of each team will be selected and these with several of the men who will enter special events in the Philadelphia meet will make up the first squad. The men chosen will not necessarily be the final makeup of the teams, but all the men out will be retained in training and as soon as any man demonstrates superior ability in subsequent trials he will be ut on the table.
The co ch has directed the men to meet at the gymnasium at $3: 30$ where rubbers will look after them before their runs.
The coach urges that all students and visitors remain on the bank near the gymnasium and on the north side of the track. No one will be allowed to remain in or about the grandstand, No time results will be given out. Yan Duyn will begin on the training table Monday morning also. On two weeks from Monday men chosen for the other events on tht track team will be put on the training table, Coach Hutchins yesterday announced a cut in the weight men. The following are retained: Van Duyn, Tucker, Benedict, O'Meara, Stimson, Ruland, Mitchell, Miller.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEETINO

A live and interesting meeting of the freshman class was held yesterday afternoon. Fred W. Schiefer was elected manager of the freshman baseball team. R. E. Illman and R. L. Bowen were elected cheermasters.
The class decided that they would continue the custom established by the sophomores and wear a class cap this next year. A committee consisting of F. R. Park, G. S. Reid and C. R. Walker was appointed to look up this matter.

SENIORS TAKE NOTICE

Appre- Every student in the ciation University is anxious that we may be represented by winning teams in every branch of athletics. Yet every student cannot take an active part in athletics. There are a certain few men who devote much of their time and energy each day to training and practicing, in order that they may aid in putting out a winning team. It is little that students who are not participants in athletics can do, but they should endeavor to do that little. Among these little things which non-athletic students can do, a very important one is to go out on the field occasionally and watch and cheer the men. It is no more than right that we should show our appreciation of their effort as much during the long, cheerless months previous to a contest, as at the time of the event. The athletes will appreciate a crowd of intereste dstudent spectators; they will appreciate a yell and a cheer now and then. The oval is a scene of activity each day, with both the track and baseball men at practice. It is an easy matter for students to gat to the oval. But we should also not forget the men who are working hard, in all kinds of weather, for the glory of Syracuse on the water. They will appreciate a good crowd, a yell, and a cheer. Let us show these various athletes that we do appreciate their training and practice, as well as their final victory.

The collego In a recent address Graduate President Butler of Columbia referred to the opportunities of the college graduate in the business world. Among other things, he said:
"The self-made man is either a genius or an accident. Geniuses are rare nowdays, and lucky accidents do not often occur. The employer desires the man whose mind has been carefully trained. He realizes that there are greater possibilities in the graduate who is not only more refined, but gifted with a quicker perception.
"His four years at college have not, as some have maintained, been wasted. Even though it be necessary for him to commence on a lower round of the ladder than that on which the non-graduate stands, it is but a question of a short time till he shall have passed the untrained laborer. The collegian can see and more quickly eliminate the obstacles which bar the way. We do not say, however, that the ambitious, self-made man is doomed to be relegated to the sweatshop; but his chances are daily being diminished by the increasing demand for the college graduate. From the present outlook one might venture to prowhesy that he who shall in the future be able to boast of being a self made man shall be admired far more than his predecessors."

Cadets parade on campusia
About 150 cadets from St. Johns yesterday afternoon. The cadtets were in full uniform and made an excellent appearance in their various drills. The students were accompanied by their Colonel Verbeck of St. John. The college men gave the Syracuse yells, which were promptly answered by the yells of the cadets. As "Doctor John" hoisted the Stars and Stripes, the St. Johns band played the "Star Spangled Banner." The students all uncovered, and the ceremony was a very impressive one. After disbanding, the visitors inspected the various buildings of the University.
alumnae to remodel chapil At a recent meeting of the Alumnae Association of the city, plans for the refiting of the Liberal Arts College chapel were discussed. It was decided to spend at least $$ 500$ in the undertak. ing. Work will be commenced very son, and it is thought the room will be refurnished by the end of the Easter: vacation.
It is planned to replace the plaster ceiling by a steel one, and to paint the sides and woodwork. A new carpet will be placed on the rostrum and several other minor improvement made.

VaRSTYY WINS FIRST GAME

Professionals Defeated in a Close Contest Saturday

The 'Varsity played their first game of the season Saturday afternoon, defeating the Havanas of this city by the score of 7 to 6 . The weather was by no means favorable for baseball, there being a strong cold wind throughout the game. As a result only a small crowd was present.
The weather became so cold that only six innings were played. The city team were ahead up to this time. A sood hit by Martin in the sixth placed the 'Varsity in the lead.
The Havanas brought a strong aggregation of ball players to the oval Saturday, there being on their team many men well known in professional baseball circles. Among these professionals were Scanlon, Dunn, Demong, Stroh, Maurer and Steinberg.
The teams lined up as follows:
'Varsity.
Havanas. Rutherford, ss. Stroh, ss. Martin, 2b. Dunn, 2b. Burrell (eapt), 3b. Scanlon, p. Wibur, 1b.
Ryan, cf.
Morrissey, 1f.
Powell, rf.
Dollard, c.
Lewis. c.
Cunovery, p.
Maurer, p.
McGuire, 3b
J. McCarthy, 1 b .

Paige, rf.
Dissel, lf.
Demong, e, cf.
Hannon, p.
The 'Varsity put up a good game of ball, considering that they have been out only about a week. The weakest position on the team at present is catcher. All of the men are inexperienced, but will undoubtedly round into shape in a short time. Conovery struek out one man and allowed three passes; Scanl. $n$ struck out one and passed five men; Maurer struck out two. Hannon and Lewis replaced Conovery and Dollard in the fourth inning and Maurer and Steinberg relieved Scanlon and Demong in the same inning. Hank Henderson officiated as umpire.
Couch Murphy stated after the game that he was very well satisfied with tbe work done by the 'Varsity. "We have a strong team," said he. "The only weak place is behind the bat, and that will be all right by the time we meet Harvard. We have some good pitchers who will develop a great deal during the next week. Every man in the out field and infield is strong." F. R. Park will be out for catcher this week, and is expected to develop into a good man

Best Schools and Col-  leges in the Country  Will be Entered

Pennsylvania's Relay Races on April 29 will again be the biggest and most important sports of the season. At present, though the date for the entries is still distant, there are over 150 teams entered and there will be over 200 when the starter's pistol sends off the first race on the last Saturday of April. This will create a new record in the number of institutions represented at games in this country but this would not be sufficient to make the games memorable. Not only are the entries numerous but they are of the highest class. Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse, Chicago, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Dartmouth, Bucknell, Dickinson, Lehigh, Lafayette, Johns Hopkins, and in fact all the big colleges and the best of the minor colleges have either sent in their entries or sent assurance that they will have their athletes at the meet.
The school entries are the best ever received. Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Pittsburg, Washington, Detroit, Chicago, Buffalo, Cleveland, Battimore, Worcester and scores of other places will be represented by their best teams. With such a gathering of the athletic clans, some magnifcent races will surely result. The college championships are already attracting the widest attention because of the fact that the very best teams in the country are represented and new world's records are expected in each event. The day will thus be both interesting and exciting and as usual an enormous crowd will be on hand.
The Relay Management will again give the schools a special rate and permit them to buy their tickets in blocks so that they may sit together for the purpose of rooting. These tickets may be obtained by having the Principal of of the school correspond with J. L. Fry, Franklin Field, Univ. of Pa.,Phila. Pa. Colleges can also get blocks of seats by applying to the same person. Last year, the best seats went so quickly that some of the schools who were late in applying got the poorest or were unable to get any seats in the special sections at all.
Syracuse will send two teams to these races. Little is known at this time as to what they will be able to accomplish, although each team is expected to make a creditable showing. The men are working hard each day, and will be rounded into shape by the last of the month, when the races occur.

Baseball A short time ago there appeared in these columns a few remarks concerning inter-fraternity baseball. As far as can be ascertained, nothing definite has as yet been done concerning the matter. The various fraternity teams are getting organized and are practicing daily. All that is now lacking is a definite schedule of games and certain necessary eligibility rules. No one seems to know who should take the first steps toward making such arrangements. In many other universities an inter-fraternity baseball schedule is made out each spring. It would seem that such a plan would be an excellent one to try here. If any who are interested have suggestions to make, they are invited to use the columns of the Daily Orange for that purpose.

Editor Daily Orange
I am a freshman. Despite this fact it has been with a keen sense of regret that I have pursued the recent communications concerning the spirit of rowdyism which exists amung some Syracuse men. My disagreeable feeling has been heightened by the fact that the criticism was just. Would it the Hatter Sen alleck, be too great an innovation to speak a the example.-Adv.
word of praise through your columns? I am surr the praise will be just in an equal degree with the blame. The appearance and drill of the St. John's boys Friday was pleasing. But to me there was an even more pleasing feature of the affair. During the course of the manouvers the flag was raised, while the band struck up "Star Spangled Banner." Almost instinctively, as it seemed, every Syracuse man raised his hand to his head, and geeen caps, gray caps, junior slouch hats and senior derbeys fell to the sides of their wearers till the old flag was up and the last strain of music had died away. This was no more than ought to have been done. But is that not true of all right? And yet it is customary to praise virtue. Syracuse has a few ungentlemanly representatives; she also has a "whole bunch" of patriotic men. Do you not think that as a man is true to the "old | flag," so he will be true to the "Flag we love, Orange?"

Frost.

Glee Club Concert at High School
As the Amherst management has cancelled its engagement for a concert in this city in unison with the Glee Club of the local institution. Manager Frank E. Brundage of the Syracuse clubs has arranged to give a concert in the High School building on the evening of April 7 at 8:30 o'clock. The concert is to be given under the aus pices of the High School Athletic Association.

RELAY MEN SELECTED
Saturday afternoon the men who were out for the relay teams wers given their trials for a place on the teams that will represent Syracuse at Philadelphia. All the men did good work and the selection was very diff. cult.
From the quarter-milers the follow. ing five were chosen and will be sent to the training table today: Ralph, Rother, Sechner, Fisher and Cox, Robertson, Latham and Mitchell were retained in the event, but will not be sent to the training table at this time.
From the half-milers the following will be given places at the training table: K. B. Squires, Gillette, W. Y. Boyd, Pierce and Schworm. Rutty, Stebbins and Purrington were re tained.
Those men who were not chosen in these trials will be changed to some other event. All those chosen will be given spikes before the practice on Monday.
The sprints have been strengthened by the addition of Erway, ' 05 Medic, and Broga, '05 Medic, who are strong men for their places. Also Harwood has been added to the weight squad.
The hard training has been dune heretofore by the relay men. Hereafter the men for all the track events will be given harder work.
In the championship entries at the Philadelphia meet Syracuse' at present holds a place in the first class for the two mile race and first class below the championship class for the one mile race.

YALE MEN FOR FIREMEN

It was stated recently that about 2000 Yale atudents had applied to the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for positions as firemen, and that many had been accepted. It is bolieved that 1800 men have been engaged to fill the places of firemen if the latter decide to strike.
Carl Flanders, one of the Yale football squad, is one of the men who spplied for a position as fireman, and said that he would accept a place if it was offered to him. Several Yale men were sent to New Landon for the purpose of being examined, and If they pass the examination will be accepted as firemen. Two years ago, when the teamsters went out in a body in New Haven, Yale men enlisted as cab drivers and were to be seen at their posts at the Union station. $\cdots$. Ex .

DOCTOR ILIFF AT CHAPEL

Doctor T. C. Iliff of Philadelphia, who delivered a very excellent address before the Christian Associations Sunday afternoon, spoke for a short time in chapel yesterday morning. Doctor fliff is one of the mose prominent men in the Methodist Church, being at present secretary of the Church Extension Society.
In his talk yesterday morning Doctor Iliff referred to the remarkable changes in the University since his last visit fifteen years ag. He said he was amazed at the growth and rapid progress which the University has made and is continually making. He then generalized his remarks, noting the great progress which the whole country has made during the last half century and then emphasized the fact that he who succeeded in these days of progress must move rapidly. As with all great industrial enterprises, there must be a definite object in view if success comes, so the successful college student must have before him a definite goal toward which he is constantly striving with the purpose, energy and determination which is required to reach that goal and make life a success.
Doctor lliff is a most pleasing speaker and one who quickly wins the applause and sympathy of any audience. His remarks abounded in happy illustrations: and numerous stories which were aptly woven into the message he desired to convey.

SPEENDD CONTEST

 LaST EVENING
Campbell and Trebillcox

Winners..Judges Have Difficulty to Reach a Decision

A good sized audience greeted the speakers in the annual Denison prize contest held in John Crouse College hall last night.
The occasion was a successful one in every way. Not a man made a slip and in the words of Judge Northrup in announcing the award "such excellence of gesture and expression was attained that every man should receive a prize" is given a true estimate of the work brought out in the men by their coach and instructor. Raymond N. Campbell of Syracuse was awarded the first prize of twenty dollars, and the second prize, ten dollars, was given to R. D. Trebilcox of Chatham.
The exercises were opened by an organ selection from Guilmant by Miss Evelyn Ward:
Mr. Trebilcox in calm and deliberate manner with a good deep voice well maintained throughout his selection, noticeable by splendid articulation, gave Ingersoll's estimate of Shakspere. The second speaker, W. W. Andrews, gave a pleasant picture of childhood drawn by Phillips Brooks. His speech progressed to the finish in emphasis and interest ! "ut
R. S. Moore quickly entered into Thurston's plaa focicuba, the pathotic and persuasive parts being rendered well by the speaker. Mr. Moore seemed to auit his selection.
D. A. Davis, in an easy conversational style with vigorous and well placed gestures, spoke of the eloquence of the Irish orator $0^{\prime} \mathrm{C}$ nnell.
Mr. Perkins pictured Wentell Phil lips' speech in Fauniel Hall with much ease and confidence.
In the intermission Miss Luella Miller gave a splendid interpretation of Whiting's "Valse Brilliante."
Mr. Angell told in a natural and interesting way the trial of the bo's'n of the Vulture The audience was held throughout the narration.
J. 0. Coit's story of a Solthern home by Thomas Grady was ghort, yet the pleasantry, interept adendemess required to bring out the exteepte-of-the story were noticeable in his rendition.
 excellent modulation of voice. His spirit, gestures and climazes were worthy of much mention, as was aliso the peroration of hlis speech.
Mr. Campbell's portrayal of a rustic at the play of Hamlet ywas a diffentt selectionod That hig work was excellent was shown by the judges awarding him: first prize.
Ho A. Ropinsen ploced well the pietures of Southerm Iffe $e_{\text {ct }}$ Deliberately clearly and strongly he showed throughout his declamation reserve, both of voice and spirit, touching the pathetic parts with a delicate and yet natural tenderness.

BSSEBALL WTH HOBART POSTPONED

The 'Varsity Will Meet

 Team from Geneva TomorrowThe announcement was made last cvening by Manager Harrison D. Sanford of the baseball team that the game with Hobart College scheduled for today will be postponed until tomorrow aflemoon, when the two teams will cross bats at $2 ; 300^{\prime}$ clock. This change in plans was necessitated by the poor condition of the diamond on account of the shower of yesterday afternoon.
This is the first regular game of the seam, that with Harvard at Cambribge coming on April 11. Tomorrev's gane will be the first time that Holart and Syracuse have met on the dimond sinee two years aro, when the Onare was victorious by a score of 15102.

A fair s'zed cyowd was on the feld ysterday afternoon watching the matice. Many were anxious to see Mellierney, the freshman Medic, who had showed up well the day before. He was not out because of college work, but it is hoped that he will be abe to arrange his schedule soon so as to practice every day. Coach Murphy expressed himself pleased with the nan's ability and thinks that he will prove a good man. McBierney has all kinds of speed and a full assortment of curver that ought to make him a strong fidfion to the pitching department, which is already one of the strongest in years.
A short game was played yesterday aftomoon with a nine picked up from domntown. When the game was stoped by the rain, the score was 5 to 0 in favor of the 'Varsity. The battevies were as follows: 'Varsity, Conovery, Watkey and Dollard; scrubs, Dinneen and Steinberg.

baARD EEECTS graduate mangeer

Samuel H. Cook to Have Supervision of All Athletic Work

The Athletic Governing Board met at the University Clab rooms last evening and transacted a budget of important business. The resignation of J. Arthur Distin from the track managership was aceepted, and Fred H. Plumb appointed to that position.
The followirg candidates for assistant track manager were favorably considered: George Kirchgasser, Robert Simpson 3d, Jerome Parsons, Henry Reid, and William C. Bryant. The election will occur Tuesday, April 11 . F. G. Jones was awarded his "ASA" for football.
The board also elected Samuel $H$. Cook graduate manager of all the athletic teams of the University. Mr. Cook will resign his position on the editorial staff of the Post-Standard and begin his new duties on Mond $y$, April 17. His office will be 337 University Block and this will hereafter be the headquarters of the Athetic Governing Board, and all its meetings will be held there instead of at the University Club. The werk of the graduate manager will in no way restrict the duties or powers of the undergraduate managers. In fact, their duties are likely to be even more stringent. The new manager will act as a medium between the undergraduate managers and the Athletic Governing Board, and will have charge of all finances.
A committee will be appointed from the board to outline the duties of the new office.
The question of a graduate manager has been under consideration for some time and the board's action is no surprise to the student body
Mr. Cook is exceptionally well qualified for his new work. He has always taken a deep interest in athletics and is well acquainted with the details of this branch of University activity. He graduated from Liberai Arts Col lege in the class of 1902 with the degree of Ph. B.

college sina tonioht

The first college sing of the year is announced for this evening at $70^{\prime}$ clock. It will be held on the slope of John Crouse College hill, providing the weather is favorable. Otherwise, it will occur in the chapel of the Hall of Languages. Fraik Brundage, the senior cheermaster, will have charge of the singing. Every man of the University is expected to be present promptly on time. The sing will last for only a hali hour.

Every student who has not patronized Selleck the Hatter should get acquainted at once.

GYMMASUM TEST COMPIETED

New Strength, Speed and Endurance Test was a Success

During the past week the men's gymnasium classes have been trying the new test instituted by Professor J. A. R. Scott. Such a test has not been given here before, but the resuits were entirely satisfactory.
The test is divided into six distinct parts: First, raising e bows to knees from iying posture; second, lying on back and raising chest to bar; third, hands and knees on floor, bending body to floor; fourth, from position bending forward, touching fingers to floor; fifth, rising on toes and heels; sixth, sitting on heels and arms extended forward.
To find the number of foot-pounds each man does the height, weight and number of times lifted are considered. In each class a minimum is required, in class 1,7 per cent of total; classes 2 and 3, 4 per cent each; class 4, 12 per cent; class 5, 5 per cent; class 6,18 per cent. The minimum number of pounds total required was 30,000 . Very few found it impossible to make the required number of pounds, but the classified requirements kept many from qualifying, although they made the minimum. The list contains the names of 150 men who took the test. These names will be classified and posted in the gymnasium in a few days.
The men in the first two classes are: Star Class, $150,000-140,000$

W. C. Struble $\quad 130,019.98$

The test next year will be changed somewhat and new tests added.
Professor Scott said last night, "I am very much pleased with the result of the test since they were entirely new and only the gymnasium class was entered. Next year the contest will be held in the winter and I expect much better results."

An Appeal to the Thoughtless

Editor Daily Orange:
Will the young men who have renewed the habit of making a path from University Place across the young grass in front of the L. C. Smith Col lege please reflect upon the effect of their amazing carelessness upon the mind of the donor of that college, who has expended his money to grade and ornament that part of the campus? It was very humiliating to me yestevday to have to apologize to Mr . Smith for: dozen young men who yesterday afternoon before his face were maring what he had taken pains to beautify at considerable expense.
There was nothing that I could say. If it had been sheep or goats I could have explained. Bnt I could say nothing for young men with sufficient intelligence to be in college. They were in a hurry? Hurry never justifies a man in doing a wrong thing. Hary the start and you won't have to hurry on the way.
In any event this practice must slop at once. That we may have a more perfect understanding, the names of such persons will be secured hereafter for the Dean and myself.

James R. Day.
Syracuse, N. Y., April 4, 1905.

Baseball Team Crosses

 Bats With HobartThis Afternoon

The 'Varsity baseball team will make is initial appearance before Orange enthusiasts in the game with Hobart this afternoon. The fine weather of peterday was all that could be desired for putting the diamord in first class condition and everything seems auspirious for the contest between the beal stars and the doughty men from Genval. Those who have been watching the wrok of the team during the last few days express themselves as fromly convinced that the team will be fully up to the high standard of previous years.
One pleasing feature of the team's ayparance this afterncon will be the milly new uiiforms of steel gray which will be greetee by local rooters for the first time. The boys will be somewhat handicapped by the failure of one of the city firms to fulfil the order for shoes in due time. It is carnestly hoped that the shoes may be on hand by the end $f$ the week, in ordet that they may be well broken in for the game with the Crimson at Cambridge next Tuesday.
The men showed up in splendid form resterday and it looks as if the competition for places will be rathersharp. Burrell, Rutherford and Wilbur will be in their old positions, but the other theees will be filled by youngsters new to a Syracuse crowd. Conovery or Hanon will do the twirling for the home team, with either Dolard or Dexter whind the bat. Martin is doing splendid work at sesond.
the batting order of the teams will be as follows:
ce yesterday
In the batting practice yesterday there was a marked improvement in there was a marked improvement in the men all around and from all appearaces the team will be remarkably good at finding the ball.
Manager Sanford announced last night that the suits will be given out at $1: 30$ o'clock this afternoon; at 2 $0^{t}$ clock the men will be assembled in front of the gymnasium for the team photograph and the game will be called promply at $2: 30$. The manager expressed himself as greatly pleased with the personnel of the team and stated that the authorities anticipate a large crowd for the opening game.

Chess Team Plays Tonight

The second round of the chess tournament between the 'Varsity, and. University Club teams will be played this evening at the latter's club rooms in the Larned Building. The 'Varsity feels confident of holding its lead of three games made in the first round aud hopes to $m$ terially increase it. The team is caining a fine reputation here in the city, having defeated many of the best teams. The men who will play tonight are L. F. Ranney, captain: C. H. Stephens.sn, R.D. Kelly, J. W. Scoville and R. H. Bowen.

Dean Kent Talks on Labor Unions
Dean Kent has returned home after a ten day's vacation in the South for his health. He addressed the students in the course in Labor Unions this week. The Dean's address was broad and scholarly, and was a view of this question from the standpoint of the technical man and educator. His treatment of the question won the hearty approval of the class.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Svracuse Daily Orange.

Today's : There will be held in Election the chapel of Liberal Arts College this morning one of the most important elections of the college year. At this time a president and vice-president of the Athletic Association will be chosen. The officer is generally known by the name of President of the Student Body. His duty as the presiding officer at all the mass meetings of the year is evidence that the office is one of no small importance. Care should therefore be taken in balloting this morning to choose a man who is fitted for the office. Every student is capable of judging for himself as to whom this honor should fall, and should vote according to the courage of his convictions. Let the best man for the place be elected.

Graduate It has been generally Manager known among the student body for some time that the Athletic Governing Board was considering a graduate manager of athletics. Now that such a position has been created and the manager chosen, the athletic policy of the University ought to take on a more definite and staple character. The creation of the new office meets with the general approval of the student body, who have long recognized the need of some head over all our athletics. The benefits which will be derived from having a graduate manager of athletics have been fully and carefully discussed during the past few months, both in public and by individuals, and need not be reiterated at this time. Suffice it to say that there seems no reason to doubt that what has proved to be a great success in other colleges will be less successful when thoroughly tried at Syracuse.
The Governing Board was fortunate in its selection of a manager. Mr. Cook, while in college, was thoroughly interested in and conversant with athletics and our athletic relations, as well as with college affairs in general. Since graduation he has remained in the city, and has been in a position during that time which allowed him to carefully watch our athletics, as well as those of the whole college world. Mr. Cook will take up his new duties with the full confidence of the student body as well as the Governing Board. The Daily Orange extends congratulations and best wishes for his future success.

to build field for women
A movement is on foot to build an athletic field for women at Stanfond. The board of trustees has already been asked to consider the proposal of builling a separate field, but as yet no aletion has been taken. It is proposed to set aside space in the vicinity of Roble hall where grounds may be arranged. The present arrangements for ginis' athletics are not adequate to meet their needs, and the location of the grounds is too prominent. It is thought that if an appropriation for private enclosed grounds can be secured the interest in athletics among the women will le greatly increased.-Ex.

Surveying for Stadiam

The civil engineering students have been surveying the campus in the rear of Steele Hall for the past few da's, laying out the ground for the new stadium. It is understood that aecual work will begin as soon as the grounds are properly surveyed.

Informal Reception

The informal reception held in John Crouse College yesterday afternoon proved as successful as these held heretofore this year. A large number of students, as well as many members of the faculty, took advantage of the opportunity offered.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

Sixty-five men have reported for the spring football practice at Yale, most of them being member's of last year's eleven and squad.

A course in journalism will hereafter be given at the University of Wicon. $\sin$.

Seniors and others who want a gocid and yet inexpensive photograph for use in answering applications for positiens as teachers, etc., will do well to bring their Onondagan euts to the Orange Print Shop and have us print them on a good card stock.

HARD AT WORX

Preparing to Meet Wes- leyan and Colgate Next Wednesday

The members of the two intercollegiate detate teams are working hard cadh day preparing for the contests which oceur next Wednesday evening. The question before the teams this year is an unusually difficult one, and the meerluersof the two teams are spending much time on it. They are fast rounding into shape, however, and will be fully prepared when the contests occur.
As is senerally known, the two teams will decuate on opposite sides of the same question on the same evering. The Culgate debate will te held here, Syracuse supporting the affirmative site of the question The debate with Westey.n will oceur at Middetown. Syracuse has the negative side in this duthte. The question in each case is, "Resolved, That the Sherman AntiTrust law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Northern Securities case, is hostile to the beat economic interests of the seuntry."
The members of the Coigate team are Earl G. Rice '05, Lawrence S Coit '03 and A. Loomis Baldrey '06 Law. The Westeyan team is cumposed of Fred L. Hartwell '05, Albert J. Croft OH and J. C. Tressier '06, with W. M. Wenett ' 07 as alternate. The men will speak in the order in which the names are given above.

IITA PSIS PURCHASE CHAPTER HOUSE
It was announced late last night that the Gamma chapter of Zeta Psi has completed negotiations for the purchase of the Mason property at 805 University Avenue. The house is located just below Waverly Avenue.
The purchase price could not be ascertained. The chapter will take possession July 1 and will immediately enter upon a complete refitting and remodelling of the interior.
The new chapter house is a very attractive building and will be quite an excellent addition to the fraternity houses now on the hill.

Engineers Elect Baseball Captain

The 1907 engineers have decided to organize a baseball team. At a neeting held a short time ago Henry Brelos was elected captain but resigned. Yesterday the class met again and elected John Brennan captain. It is expected that games will be played with Liberal Arts and other collage teams.

The upperclassmen all know Selleck, the Hatter. Freshmen should follow the example.-Adv.

Valuable portraits given to MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT
The Mathematical department has been presented with a set of portraits of eminent mathematicians by the editor, Professor David Eugene Smith, Syracuse '81, now professor of mathematics in the Teachers' College of Columbia University.
The set contains twelve portraits each mounted on high class Japanese vellum neatly designed. On each portrait is a carefully prepared biography and description of the work done by each man. These portrits are valuable and are highly prized by the department.

NEW YORK ALUMNI ACTIVE
The New York alumni of the University are planning for an informal dinner to be held in the rooms of the Aldine Association on Fifth Avenue, Monday evening, April 17. At this time plans will be made for attending the Poughkeepsie races in June, and also concerning the Syracuse University Club.
The committee of arrangements is Steven B. Ayres, Lincoln C. Rowley, John C. Draper, William B. Kelly, Thomas H. Low, Walter F. Baylis,

"Valentines" Appear Again

The faculty of Applied Science College again issued "valentines"" to the engineers yesterday. Those who are behind are being warned that work must be kept up, for Dean Kent is determined that the standard shall be the highest.

In a recent article in the Saturday Evening Post, H. J. Hapgood, president of Hapgoods, estimates that over sixty per cent of the college graduates enter business every year. He says that the college man is no longer sneered at or merely tolerated, but actually sought and that employers who close the door to him attract attention because they are so few.

Packard Chosen President of the AthleticAssociation

A meeting of the Student Athletic Association was held in Liberal Arts College yesterday morning after chapel. There was apparently little interest in the meeting as only a small number of students were present. There was no contest in the election, it apparently being difficult to obtain men to fill the vacancies.
Neither the president of the association, Ernest H. Sumner, nor the vicepresident, Earl G. Boland, were present at the meeting. Accordingly Roscoe M. Hersey, Liberal Arts vice-president of the senior class, acted as chairman. Dean Smalley was appointed secretary of the meeting.
The only business which came before tha meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The names of E. N. Packard, Jr., and F. W Whitney were balloted upon for president of the assuciation. Mr. Packard was clected. Frank Pheips was unanimously chosen vice president of the association and Miss Helen Potter was unanimously elected secretary.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

By defeating Chicago in basketball, Wisconsin claims the title of champion of the basketball league of the middle west. The 'varsity has now defeated the team which won from Northwest. ern, Iowa, Purdue and Nebraska and tied the score with Minnezota. It is on this that Wisconsin bases her claim.

A number of Brown students, after a careful investigation of the matter, and with the approval of President Faunce of the university have decided to organize a Press Club. Graduates from the various preparatory schools which send men to Blown have been asked to report at a meeting at which the organization and aims of the club will be explained, and it is expected that sufficient interest will be shown to warrant the permanent establishment of the club.

Colgate Tickets are now on sale Debate for the Colgate-Syracuse debate to be held in John Crouse College next Wednesday night. This is the only intercollegiate debate which will be held at Syracuse this year, and it deserves the support of every student of the University. The contest will without doubt be a close one. It is reported that Colgate will send a strong team down here to defend her honor, and there is no doubt but that the men on both sides will fight hard for victory. The question itself is one which admits of strong cases on either side. These various facts taken into consideration lead us to believe the debate will be very exciting and interesting. The men who are on the team are working hard each day, and the least the students can do to show their appreciation is to attend the contest next Wednesday evening.

Chess There seems to be a Team growing tendency among colleges throughout the country to give so much attention to the various athletic teams that men other than athletes, who represent the University in various contests, receive little recognition. While too much praise cannot be given to our baseball, football, track and crew men, yet at the same time we should not forget our representatives on the debate teams, the tennis team, the basketball team, the chess team and others which are generally considered as being of minor importance.
The University chess team has played a large number of games this season, and has won much honor, not only for itself, but for the University as well. The students on the team have met and defeated many of the best players of this and other cities. The men have unusual ability for students, and are to be congratulated upon the victories which they have won during the past winter.

Prize for History Essay

At a meeting of the Hiawatha Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution Wednesday afternoon it was voted to give to the Universily a prize of ten dollars $f r$ the second best essay on the American Revolution. The first prize of twenty-five dollars is now given annually by the Onondaga Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, These prizes are open to major students in history.
Seniors and others who want a good and yet inexpensive photograph for use in answering applications for positions as teachers, etc., will do well to bring their Onondagan cuts to the Orange Print Shop and have us print them on a good card stock.

Rolls Up Score of 23 to 0 Against the Geneva

Team.

In the first regular game of the season pliyed on the oval yesterday afternoon, the 'Varsity won from the Hobart College team by the score of 23 to 0 . The weather wa anything but conducive to good baseball, as there was a stronc, cold wind blowing across the oval throughout the game. Even thoush the weather had been perfect, the game was too one sided to be of interest.
Hwart was completely outplayed at every point of the game. Each man (on the Geneva team was clearly outchssed by the Syracuse men. The tocal men made an excellent showing, and put up a good game of ball through. out. Watkey and Hannon did good work in the box, the former allowing three hits during the first six innings, while the Hobart men could not find Hanmon during the remainder of the game. Watkey allowed only two bases on balls, and no men walked while Hanton was in the box. Dollard slowed up well behind the plate.

The score was as follows:

Will Assist Dr. Hutchins

 in His Work Next Fall.The Athletic Governing Board have engaged Thomas West as assistant football coach for next fall. West has signed the contract, which calls for his services for one year to aid in coaching the football team.
The selection of West is a popular one, as he is well known and well liked by both the students and the football men. His experience with Coach Hutchins last fall will make him admirably fitted to take up the work again this year.
West is at present a first year student in the College of Medicine. He will continue bis work there and now expects to complete his medical course.

SECKNER leaves relay team

James L. Sechner '06 Law has left college and consequently will not be on the relay team this spring. Seckner has been out for some time and was on the training table up to yesterday. He has secured a position with the Franklin Automobile Company of this city, and will leave college to take up that work.
Sechner was one of the fastest runners on the team and was considered a sure point winner. Robertson takes his place on the training table. Rutty is now running in Gilette's place, pending the rearrangement of the latter's work.

Mr, Day Secures Fine Position

Samuel W. Day, a senior in the College of Medicine, has taken second place in an examination for a position in St. Joseph's Hospital, Providence, R. I. In the examination Mr. Day had to compete with men from Harvard, Johrs Hopkins, Yale and other colleges noted for the men they turn out. Mr. Day is president of the senior class, a member of the Independent Order of Knockers and of the Alpha Omega Delta fraternity. Mr. Day is to be congratulated on his fine showing and for again proving the Syracuse Medical College to be of the finest.

Mr. French Olves Books

The new library of the mathematical department has been increased by another gift. Porter M. French, son of Dean French, has presented it with 450 volumes from the library of his father. While these books are devoted to a large number of subjects, 118 of them are special treatises on mathematics. The gift was made through Mr. Stetson of the department. As scon as the books can be arranged and catalogued they will, with the portraits given by Professor Smith, be placed in the library in the mathematical club room.

Our Every loyal student of Alumni the University rejoices when he hears such reports of enthusiasm and interest in the University as have recently come from several of our alumni associations. In New York City, where there is a very large number of Syracuse men, the association is especially active. Even now report comes that they are making plans for attending the races at Poughkeepsie next June. Not only this, but the alumni in that city are seriously considering the formation of a Syracuse University Club. If such is done, a club house will be built in some desirable part of the city.
Similar reports come from other cities throughout the country. All the associations are not as active as the New York alumni, but all have not the membership which this association enjoys. It is to the hearty and enthusiastic co-operation of its alumni that the University looks for its future development and growth. Carefully organized alumni associations will be of almost inestimable value to the University. We want more of them and we want every alumnus to take a keen and active interest in his Alma Mater.

Another It was announced yesPrize terday that the Hiawatha Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution has voted to give the University a prize of ten dollars for the second best essay on the American Revolution. The University is fort unate in having friends who maintain prizes for the various departments, and their generosity should be appreciated by every student. In the history department there is a first prize of twenty-five doliars maintained by the Daughters of the American Revolution. If proper appreciation is shown, there should be a large number of essays from the major students this year.

An Incident.

To illustrate the fact that college men are not afraid of work, H. J. Hapgood tells the following story in an article on "The Young College Man's Chances in Business," recently printed in the Saturday Evening Post. A young Engineering graduate who began work last year for a New York manufacturing concern, was by mistake set to carting slag in a barrow. Distasteful as the work was, he determined not to protest but to stick to it. When the mistake wis discovered ten days later and he was placed in more congenial employment, he found that he had made a pronounced "hit" with his foreman by showing that he was not afraid of manual labor.

Freshman Shell

The personel of the three crews that are to row at Poughkeepsie has been practically decided. With the exception of ex-Captain Stone and Kimberly, the 'Varsity will be the same as last year. Hale, No. 6 in the 1907 fresh. man boat, will pull the same oar in the 'Varsity. Andrews, captain and No. 7 of the 1907 crew, will sit in No. 3 of the 'Varsity shell.
The eight-oared 'Varsity will then be: Stroke, Packard; No. 7, Rice; No. 6, Ha'e; No. 5, Dempster (Captain); No. 4, Anderson; No. 3, Andrews; No. 2, Salishory; bow, Squires.
Seven men are fighting for the seats in the four-oared shell. Davis nd Armstrong, the 1907 stroke and bow, will undoubtedly hold down the same seats in he new boat. Davis is as good an oarsmen as he is an orator, and since the coach has been exceedingly pleased with the way "Army" caught on to the new steering gear, it is most likely that these men will row on the Hedson. Robinson and Cumings are at present pulling Nos. 3 and 2 respectively. C. Packard is Robinson's opponent. "Bobby" greatiy outweighs the stroke's brother. Spencer and hrown will undoubtedly make Cumings work to hold his seat.
The freshmen are Ten Eyck's problem, in so much that he is constantly with them. He says that though they are far from perfect they are just commencing to realize their power. "If a horse knew what power he had," said the coach, "he would raise the The freshmen are just finding out what they can do; before they had so many things to think of and worry about; now all they have to do is to pull. I don't know whether they will be faster than the 1907, but they are heavier."
While no official cut has been made or will be made for some time, the crew will apparently be: Stroke, Paddeck; No. 7, Corp; No. 6, Stevenson; No. 5, Blocher; No. 4, Duvall; No. 3, Heath; No. 2, Whitney; bow, Dodge. Avery, Schiefer, Bowen and Butz will fight it out for the two substitute positions.
About forty persons were at the outlet Saturday. Among the prominent alumni were Messrs. Larrabee, French, Oliver, Robinson and Templeton. Mr. Larrabee will send out this week a company to sink a well near the boathouse no supply water for drinking and shower-bath purposes. A pair of steps leading to the wharf and a ballast box to keep the wharf level have been built. The new boiler will be shortly installed and the launch will be put the water the middle of the week.

Among the visitors Saturday was R.

 F. Seymour, the athletic manager of Cascedilla Preparatory School. He wishes to arrange a race with the freshmen. Commodore Brockett said that since Cascadilla will row the Henley School on the lake he would be willing to enter the freshmen in that race, but to arrange a special university regatta, he would only do so providing a race could be arranged for the 'Varsity. Commodore Brockett has been utterly unable to bring such a crew here, so there is little likelihood of a regatta this year.
KAPPA KAPPA 0AMMA GIVES RECEPTION

Beta Tau of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained the various women's fraternities Saturday afternoon, and the members of the faculty in the evening. The reception hall and parlor were decorated with wisteria and palms and the library with roses. Refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated in pink, with carnations and smilak. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. Whittic, Miss Colvin and Miss Johnson. Those who served were Mrs. Childs, Mrs. Jenner, Mrs. Thomas and Miss Brown. The reception committee for the evening was Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Berwald, Miss Green and Miss Erskine. Those who served were Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Hermanns, Mrs. Archambo and Mrs. H llenbeck.

INDIAN GIRL IN COLLEGE
For the first time in the history of Syracuse a descendant of the red man has entered the University, Harriet Crouse, a modest Seneca maiden of fifteen from the Onondaga reservation, will take her first lesson in music this morning.
iss Crouse is the daughter of Dr. Marvin Crouse, one of the well known residents of the reservation. He is the chorister and superintendent of the M. E. Sunday School. The family seems to be a musieql one. The girl's father reads music and sings well and is also a splendid cornet player. The daughter plays the piano and organ well for one of her age. Professor Butler, who will be her instructor, says she has a good voice and natural talent.
baseball team leaves toNIOHT
The 'Varsity baseball team will leave at 8:50 o'clock this evening for Cambridge, Mass. They will meet the Harvard nine tomorrow afternoon.
Nine men besides the coach and manager will take the trip. The men who will go are Rutherford, Martin, Burrell, Wilbur, Ryan, Morrissey, Dollard, Hannon, and Limbeck or Conovery.

Teachers-If you expect to register in any Teachers' Agency, you ' should consult the Business Manager of the Orange. He can supply yoú with nem berships at greatly reduced rates.

EEECTION WILL BE  SPRITED TOMORROW

AssistantTrack Manager

 to be Chosen-..-Five
Contestants

Tomorrow is election day in the five colleges. Scenes characteristic of presidential year will be common, with the exception that the women have equal rights with the men.
Owing to the resignation of J. Arthur Distin, the manager, and the succession to his place of Fred G. Plumb, the assistant manager, a vacancy was left to be filled at once. Since the manager is always a senior, Mr. Plumb will have to act as manager for the rest of this year and succeed himself next year. This situation makes it necessary that the man chosen tomorrow as assistant manager be a member of the class of 1907. Five candidates have been ratified by the Athletic Governing Board. Their names and records are as follows:
G. J. Kirchgasser, electrical engineer, prepared at Masten Park High School; first year, 'Varsity basketball team and manager class baseball team; second year, 'Varsity basketball team and engineers' baseball team; member of Skull and Serpent society and Beta Theta Pi fraternity.
J. Jerome Parsons, philosophical course, prepared at Syracuse High School; first year, candidate for track team; second year, candidate for track team; manager of class track team and member of Onondagan Board; member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.
Henry S. Reid, philosophical course, prepared at Rome High School; first year, candidate for 'Varsity and pitcher on class baseball team; second year, member of class footbali and baseball teams; treasurer of Huntington Society and member of Zeta Rho, local fraternity.
Robert Simpson, 3rd, prepared at Fulton High School, philosophical course; second year, member of Glee Club, contestant for Denison Prize and candidate for class baseball team; member of Theta Nu Epsilon society and Sigma Chi fraternity.
W. C. Bryant, Jr., philosophical course, prepared at Wesleyan Academy, Wilberham, Mass.; candidate for track team first and second year; member of Skuil and Serpent society and Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Published every morning by the studenta of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 80 Croton Street.

Assistant The football men, Coach West thestudent body and the alumni were much pleased to hear that the Athletic Governing Board has engaged the services of "Tommy" West as assistant coach for the season of 1905. While West was on the field last fall he made friends with all those with whom he came in contact. He gained the reputation of being not only a coach, but also a gentleman. His ability as a football coach is well known, and his instruction of last fall is still familiar to every student. With football in the hands of Dr.
Hutchins and Mr. West, we have every reason to feel that the football season of 1905 will be a successful one.

The Har. As the 'Varsity basevard Game ball team leaves for its first out of town game, the eyes of every student are anxiously turned toward Cambridge. This is the first time an Orange team has met the Crimson, which will cause the result of the contest to be watched with all the more interest. It is almost impossible to prophesy as to the outcome of tomorrow's game, as the men have not yet been given a chance to show up to their best. The Harvard team has had the advantage of more indoor training than has been possible for the Syracuse men, and they have also played more games this season.
But whatever may be the outcome, students and alumni may feel assured that every man wearing the orange will play his best that day. Our team is of the first order, and as they leave the city, they depart with the confidence of the entire student body, and with the belief that they will return to their Alma Mater as victors.

rules for wearina class NUMERALS AT CORNELL
The following rules govern the wearing of class numerals and the color for such numerals and sweaters at Cornell: Class numerals shall be awarded as follows:
(a) For Crews--To the oarsmen and four substitutes in any freshman race (color: red numerals on a white back. ground),
(b) For Football-To the eleven mem. bers of the team chosen to play in the final underelass game, and to the eleven members of the team chosen to play against the freshman team of another university (color: white numerals on a red background).
(c) For Baseball--To the members of the team (not exceeding twelve in number) playing in the final underclass game, and to the nine members of the freshman team chosen to play against the freshman team of another university (color: white numerals on a red background.)
(d) For Track--To any contestant winning a first or a second place in the underclass field and track games (color: white numerals on a red background). Numerals won in any of the branches of minor athletics or any other boat races than those mentioned must be white on a red background.
Class numerals so awarded may he worn on sweaters, working suits and caps. The 'Varsity colors are white numerals on a red background, except for the members of the freshmancrew, in whose case they are red numerals on a white background. These 'Varsity colors, however, may be worn on caps by only those members of teams and crews who have engaged in intercollegiate contests. Others must wear red numerals on black caps.

Chess Team Wins Again

The University chess team won the second match played with the University Club team by a score of 4 to 2 . # DEBATE TEAM OFF FOR WESLEYAN

Strong Team Will Represent Syracuse...Colgate Tomorrow Night

The members of the Syracuse debate tam which will meet Wesleyan Weinesday night left at 7:40 o'clock this monning. The team is composed of Fred W. Hartwell, A. J. Croft, J. C. Tressler and Wm. E. Wemett, as altermate. The men will remain in Hartford, Comn, over night and go on to Midiletown Wednesday.
Symacuse will support the negative side of the question: Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Curt in the Northern Securities case, is lostile to the besteconomic interests of the United States.
Each man on the Syracuse team is an experienced debater and will give a good account of himself. Hartwell made his junior class team which defeated the senior team last year. He also made the intercolegiate team which met Allogheny. Tressler is a junior and has been active in debating since his freshman year. He made both his freshman and sophomore class team, and represented his class club in a debate against Alfred University last year. Croft had considerable experience in debating before he entered college, having represented his preparatury school in interacademic debates. Last year he was one of the members of his class team and also of the club tean which met Alfred. Wemett, the alternate, is a sophomore and participated in the public class debates.
Wesleyan bas also a strong team this year. Two of her men, Hancock and Atwater, debated last year against Symacuse. Hancock is a veteran debater, the son of Hon. Theodore E. Hancock of this city, and is well known by many of the local men. Travis, the third man, was a member of the team which defeated Williams last fall.
The judges for the Syracuse-Wesleyan debate have been chosen and are as follows: President Luther of Trinity College; F. C. Peters, editor of the Brooklyn Times; Paul Van Dyke, professor of economics in Princeton University.
Professor Losey, who has been working with the men, stated yesterday that they were in as good shape as he could hope for. "Whatever the decision may be," said he, "they will do credit to themselves and to the University."
The team which will meet Colgate in John Grouse College tomorrow night, supporting the affirmative side of the same question, will have its last rehearsal tonight. The Colgate men will

The 'Varsity nine left last evening at 9 o'clock for Cambridge, where they will cross bats with the Harvard team this afternoon. Nine men, be sides Mana er Sanford and Coach Murphy, were taken on the trip.
The batting order of the two teams this afternoon will be as follows:

The 'Varsity left the esty in the best of condition, but will. be somewhat handicapped in today's game from the fact that the Harvard team had about three weeks of practice before the Syracuse men were able to get out. Harvard has a strong team this season, having easily defeated Trinity and Vermont. Only the men named above were taken on the trip. Manager Sanford will be in a suit and in case a substitute is found necessary, which is very improbable, he will enter the game.
The Syracuse men will return to the city early Wednesday morning. They will leave the next day for the Southern trip, which opens Friday with a game with St. Johns College at Annapolis. The next home game is with the Stars on April 27.

Women's Tennis Club Elects Officers
At a meeting of the Women's Tennis Club the following officers were elected for the year 1905.06: President, Lois Kupfer '06; vice-president, Grace Faulks '07; secretary and treasurer, Ada Trolan; executive committee, Carlene Barrett '08, Reva Casper '07, Edith Ring ' 06.
It is hoped that all those interested in tennis will join the club. Arrangements may be made with Miss Sibley for instruction. A fee of fifty cents entitles a student to membership in the club. All fees must be handed to Miss Ada Trolan, Haven Hall, before May 1. Miss Trolan will be at Haven Hall between $9: 30$ and $10 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and $1: 30$ to 2 p. m. every day.

Syracuse Daily Orange.

Election There will be held to-
Today day in all the colleges an election for an assistant track manager. The office is a very important one and especially so this year, as the successful candidate will act as assistant manager for two years and manager for one year. It then becomes the student body to exercise care as to whom they give the honor and responsibility.

There are a larger number of candidates in the field than there has been for any one office for some time. The number is sufficiently large to enable each voter to choose a man who is qualified to hold the position. Much of the success of our various athletic teams depends upon the manager. Voters, then, should consider carefully the candidates, and select the man who is best fitted for the position.
As another election is at hand, we are again reminded of certain evils which have attended many elections heretofore. It is to be hoped that steps have been taken to correct these unfortunate incidents and that they will be notably absent today. Some of the methods of securing votes, which have formerly been adopted by certain students, reflected little honor upon the candidate for whom they were working, and far less upon themselves. There are certain well known tricks and cunning deceits which may fittingly become a ward boss, but such guiles ought to be beneath a college man or woman, especially when the result of his or her ballot may determine to a large degree the position which the University is to occupy in a particular branch of athletics. Every student who detects certain petty politicians employing methods of deceit and craft which they are known to have used in former elections should brand such a person as one unfit to be enrolled in any University which stands upon honor and scorns deceit.

BROWN HERALD COMMENTS ON SYRACUSE STRENOTH TEST
A recent issue of the Brown Herald contained nearly a column atticle concerning the strength test given at Syracuse last week. The entire purport of the article seems to be to disprove the idea that this test originated at Syracuse. Whether or not it did is of little importance. The Herald, however, says "this system, which Syracuse claims to have originated, has really been in use in most of the Eastern colleges for several years past."
Inasmuch as the writer of the Herald article mentions the Daily Orange, it is evident he derived his information from that souroe. How he could have construed the words of the article in the Orange to imply that the test originated at Syracuse it is quite impossible to understand. The words of the Orange were "During the past week the men's gymnasium classes have been trying the new testinstituted by Professor J. A. R. Scott. Such a test has not been given here before," etc." No, respected contemporary, Syracuse is ready to grant to Brown or any other Eastern college all honors for criginating this wunderful device.

WTERCOLIEGITE DEBATES TONGHT

Syracuse Teams Meet

Wesleyan at Middletown and Colgate

Here

The intercollegiate debate between Colgate and Syracuse will be held in Jom Crouse College hall tonight at 8 oclock. The guestion reads, Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, as interpreted by the United States Suwrme Court in the Northern Securifies case, is hostile to the best eco somit: interests of the United States. Syacuse will support the affirmative.
Symense will be represented by Ear f. Rice ${ }^{\circ} 5$, A. Loomis Badrey '06 and Lurrence S. Coit '07. Each man is an coperiented debater. Although they have not represented the University in an intercollegiate dehate, each one mas hal important places in his class and interclass debates. Rice and Bal drey had experlence in public debates in the Syracuse High School and Ral dey was a member of last year's seniot ctas; team. Coit made both his frestman and sophomore teams.
The delate represents months of had work on the part of every man, Eath man has put his best efforts into the work and has left no line of argument or point of attack unguarded.
Ton much credit cannot be given Professor Frederick D. L sey. In addition to his regular teaching and eviching for the declamation contest, lie has conched both debate teams, giving them his time and experience withont reserve. Chancellor Day is expected to preside if he returns from conference in time.
The jultes will be Hon. Pardon C. Willams of Watertown, Hon. Arthtr Suthertand of Rochester, and Professer Jo eph H. Gilmore of the University of Ruchester. These men will be seated in different parts of the house and will hand in their decisions withont conference.
This debate is one of the most important events of the college year and deserves the hearty cooperation of every student. There is no better way of helping the men than by attendiug the debate and aiding the men by our cheers and presence. Every seat shoull be filled at $80^{\circ}$ clock.
This is the first time Syracuse and Colgate have met in debate. Colgate has a wide reputation in forensics and oratory, and is a worthy rival.
Arrangements have been made Whereby the decision at Wesleyan will be amounced. if made before the close of the debate here.

The junior pipe committee will meet at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house this afternoon,-R. L. Sweet, Chairmn.

NO GAME YESTERDAY

On account of the heavy rain it was impossible to play the baseball game scheduled between Syracuse and Harvard yesterday afternoon at Camlridge. The 'Varsity returned to the city last evening.

tennis association elects MANAGER

At the meeting of the Tennis Association of the University held yesterday afternoon, F. W. Treible '06 was chosen manager for the ensuing year. The new manager will proceed immediately to arrange tournaments with Hamilton and Hobart. A spring tournament will also be held for the purpose of selecting men for the intercollegiate meets. The three wimners of the fall tournament, Housekneeht, Latham and Hayes, will be retained and these will have to scramble for places with the winners of the spring games. An exceedingly fair system of competition has been devised and it is expected that there will be much interest in the approaching games. The membership fee was placed at twenty-five cents.
It is the purpose of the association to have two of the courts set aside exclusively for their own use, if permission can be secured. This court will then be put in first class condition and all games of the association will be played there. Students desiring to join should consult C. J. Housekneeht, Wm. E. Allis or W. G. Wilcox.

CAPTAIN DEMPSTER TO TEACH

 Clarence B. Dempster ' 05 returned yesterday morning from Wilmington, Del., where he accepted a position to teach chemistry and physics in the Wilmington Friends' School. This institution is a preparatory school with a good enrollment under the Society of Friends. Many of its graduates enter Cornell, Princeton and Pennsylvania, but it is now very probable that through Mr. Dempster Syracuse will receive some of its graduates.This school is very strong in athletios having good football, baseball and track teams. Mr. Dempster may have charge of the athletic interests of the institution. He is very well fitted for such a position, as he has had experience in nearly every line of athletics. He is now captain of the 'Varsity crew and is rowing for the fourth year. He has played on the 'Varsity football team for four seasons, being one of the strongest line men.
This is the second 'Varsity captain to have received a similar offer this year. Captain Park of the football team has received an offer of a good position in a Western military academy, which he has not yet accepted.

HENRY ORRIN SIBLEY DEAD
Henry 0. Sibley ' 89 passed away yesterday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock at his home in Irving Avenue after an illness of two years
Mr. Sibley was born August 19, 1845, at Royalton, N.Y. He entered the University with the entering class of 1885. On his graduation in ' 89 he became librarian of the University whel position he held until last year. He has also been instructor in Library Economics since 1892.

Mr. Sibley was a scholar of much literary ability. He has published "Horace's Ars Poetica Translated into English Verse;" "Trinummus of Plaw tius Translated into English Verse;" "Our Boys in Blue," an oration, besides many miscellaneous poems, essays and papers, some in Latin.
He was a man of high intellectual powers and abliity. He had reeeival the following cegrees from Syracuse University: A. B., A. M. and Fh. D.
Mr. Sibley was a charter member of Phi Delta Theta. He has been a very active member of his fraternity, holiing the office of general librarian of the fraternity. In bis death the University loses one of its most able graduates and distinguished alumni.

SOPHOMORE BASEBALL

The sophomore baseball team expect to play the first of a series of three games with the freshman team on Friday next. The sophomores are practicing each day and several good men have shown up. Captain Potter has not chosen the line-up of the team as yet, but the paces will doubtless be filled today. There are some of the men who have been trying for 'Varsity positions who will help to make the sophomore team stronger. At least one game, that on Friday, will be pla 'ed before the Easter vacation.
Partial arrangements have been made for games with the sophomore engineers' team and also the teams of the Law and Medical Colleges. These will come immediately after the Easter vacation. The sophomores will try hard to make up for having lost the football game last fall with the freshmen.

RUSSIAN STUDENTS APPEAL FOR

 SYMPATHYAn appoal has been made to the students of the universities of America by the society of the Friends of the Russian Freedom in behalf of Russian students. The purpose of this appeal is to arouse the sympathy of American students for their less fortunate brothers in Russia. To quote from the appeal: "The students of Russia appeal to the young men and women of the world for support and encouragement. The University of Vienna has responded. The student body of Italy en masse has, by demonstration and materialail, expressed its sympathy. Youas American stuaents now have the chance to take sides: Autocracy of such tyranny as we can hardly conceive, or the right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of hap-piness."-Ex.

SYRACUSE LOSES BOTH DEBATES

Neither Decision Unani

 mous-..Good Workby Syracuse

Wesleyan secured a favorable decision from two of the three judges at the intercollegiate debate held last evening in Memorial Chapel at Middletown, Com. F. C. Peters, editor of the Browlyn Times, was the judge who cast his vote in favor of Syracuse. The other judges were President Luther of Trinity College, and Paul Van Dyke, professor of economics a Prineeton.
Syracuse supported the negative side of the question: Resolved, That the Sherman Anti-Trut Law, as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in the Northern Securitios case, is hostile to the best economic interests of the United States.
The Wesleyan debaters were all experienced men who had secured training in previous debates. Atwater and Travis did well, but Hancock was the particular star. His work easily excolied that of either of his colleagues. The Syracuse team consisted of Fred W. Hartwell '05, Albert J. Croft '06 and Jacob C. Tressler ' 05 . The defense taken by our team was in maintaining that the Sherman Anti-Trust Law had decreased combinations. Syracuse charged that without this law nothing would come between the public and the monopoly of railroads.
The Colgate debate, held in the hall of John Ciouse College, was well attended. The judges, Hon. Pardon C. Williams of Watertown, Hon. Arthur E. Sutherland of Roches er and Doctor Juseph H. Gilmore of the University of Rwhester, were divided in their decision for Colgate. The debate was most excellent, yet the question was such as not to admit of true discussion for the reason that its real force could not be determined During the whole course of the debate the real meaning of the question was not found, apparently because of the uncertainty of the question itself. Syracuse supported the affirmative of the same question as debated by the other teams.
Eart $G$. Rice was the first speaker of the evening and opened the case for Syracuse. He outlined the work of the affirmative and divided it into its parts. The first part of his speech was mainly expository, being clear and concise. He maintained that the interpretation in the Northern Securities case upon the Sherman anti-trust act was to the effect that any corporation restricting in any degree free and unlimited competition is illegal. He then showed how the principle of free competition would mean disaster to our interstate commerce. Mr. Rice's presentation was forceful and convincing. James G. Bailey, the second speaker, ppened the debate for Colgate, During his discourse he referred frequently to a map which was placed upon the platform for that parpose. He went somewhat into detail in regard to the two great western railroads, which were combined in the Northern Securities case, and explained the importance of thuse railronds together with the necessity of their competition. Mr. Bailey was seemingly at ease and showed great earnestness.
The second speaker for Syracuse was Lawrence S. Coit. He showed that the evil or good in the case under discussion was aside from the question, but that the question hinged upon the justice or injustice of unlimited competition.
Colgate's second speaker was Geurge P. Biers. In his speech he claimed that the import to be placed upon the interpretation of the Sherman act in the Northern Securities case lies in the assurance to the people of the United States that our highest judicial tribunals are sufficiently powerful to prevent even hundreds of millions of dollars from dominating the country. As a speaker Mr. Biers was forceful and commanding.
A. A. Loomis Baldrey made the third speech for Syracuse, making an apt hit in rebuttal at the outset. He showed how the interpretation in the Northern Securities case deprived a corporation or individual from the participation in the right to acquire private property and how such deprivation threatened rights fundemental to every private citizen. His work was unusually convincing and carried the audience with him.
Ellis W. Leavenworth, the third speaker for Colgate, maintained that the interprotation in the Northern Securities case was not that all restraints of trade but only unreasonable restraints of trade were illegal. Quotations from Justice Harlahd's opinion were given to some extent. He carried conviction in his manner and remarks.
The first man on the rebuttal was Mr. Bailey of Colgate. His time was used in depricating the Northern Securities Company. The rebuttal of Mr. Rice was unusually apt and to the point.
Mr. Biers then restated some of the arguments advanced by the negative and amplified them.
The rebuttal given by Mr. Coit was brilliant, receiving applause from the audience several times.
Mr. Leavenworth summed up for the negative, and still continued the discussion as to what the interpretation really was. This discussion was continued by Mr. Baldrey, who carried out his theory well.

DOCTOR TOY  LECTURES TONGHF

The Third Lecture of the Series Given by the

Semitic Club

Professor C. H. Toy, LL. D., of Harvard University, will lecture this evening in the Assembly Hall of the University Block on the subject, "The Proverbial Literature of the Hebrews." At Harvard Professor Toy is considered one of the ablest and most renowned men on the faculty. His contributions to biblical literature are extensive. Among the best of these is a commentary on the Book of Proverbs. If reputation for scholarship and an interesting topic have altractions, the Assembly Hall ought to be filled to overflowing to hear the speaker.
This lecture will be the third of the series given fortnightly by the Semitic and Biblical Club of the University, The two previous lecturers, Professor Paul Haupt and Professor James S. Riggs, were heard by large audiences. Consequently the management feels confident that there will be a large attendance tonght.
The remaining three lectures of the course, including the one tonight, can be heard for the sum of fifty cents. A large number should take advantage of this remarkably low rate. The last two speakers are Dean Frank K. Sanders of Yale University and Professor IsmarJ. Peritz of Syracuse University.

COACHING LAUNCH OUT

Yesterday afternoon the coaching launch was on the lake for the first time this year. Durng the past few weeks it has been thoroughly overhauled and painted. Owing to the extremely high water on the lake, the coach has been experiencing considerable difficulty in directing the work, but use of the launch will aid in avoiding these difficulties in the future.
The 'Varsity was sent over the fourmile course for the first time trial this year. At the two-mile mark the freshman erew joined the 'Varsity and raced to the finish. The old course was used, since the stakes have not been placed on the new course which was surveyed this spring.

Spring Football Practice

Spring football practice will begin today for the first time. Efforts will be made to secure as many as possible of last fall's squad. These will train under the instruction of Coach Hutchins and Captain Tucker.
There will be a meeting of the sophomore class at $20^{\prime}$ cock Friday afternoon. -M. W. Ralph, President.

The Jefferson County Clab have postponed their meeting for this evening until after the Easter vacation.

Published every morning by the students of Syracuae University at the Orange Print Shop, 806 Croton Street.

Elections The Orange is pleased To Staff to announce the following elections and changes in the staff of the paper. Fred W. Barrett ' 06 has been chosen Managing Editor. He will have charge of the news department of the paper for the remainder of the year. Andrew L. Sloan '06 and H. W. Farrington '07 have been promoted to the positions of Associate Editors. Leon H. Cornwall '07 is made an advertising agent of the paper. William L. Chandler ' 06 , Murray A. Cain '07, and J. R. Horton '08 have been elected to positions on the board.
All of these men have done good work on the paper and are fully deserving of the positions which they are to fill.
The Orange regrets to announce the resignation of Jesse C. Peck '07 from the board.

Tonnis The Tennis Association has organized for the spring season and has taken steps to interest the student body in supporting the association and in coming out for the annual spring tournament.
The fall tennis trials showed the excellent material for several tennis teams to represent Syracuse. Last year a team went to Clinton to compete against Hamilton and made a creditable showing. This year it would be an excellent plan if arrangements could be made to secure games with other colleges to be played at Syracuse.
The expense, however, attendant upon the securing of home games would be too great unless. the student body, or at least all who play tennis, are willing to interest themselves and join the association and pay the nominal fee which has been fixed for those who wish to become members.
The Tennis Association should number at least two hundred, for there are very few among the hill students who have not some knowledge of the game and use the courts during the spring and fall seasons. Tennis has always been prominent in the outdoor sports of American colleges, especially those of the East, and should be well supported at Syracuse.

[SOME REMEDIES SUGGESTED
Before the members of the Athletie Association and Governing Board had counted the votes at Tuesday's election, various remedies to avoid irregularities at elections were dis. cussed. All agreed that the present system was an unsatisfactory one, the conditions making possible the practice of methods that should be eliminated and that quickly.
A registration of the students was suggested. The presentation of an athletic ticket upon registration day would be sufficient to entitle one to a vote at the election. By this system only those interested in voting would register, thus doing away with what was termed the "floating element," those who take two or three hours a week in some special course and have little or no interest in athletics or college activities.
Competitive practical work by the candidates under the different managements was advocated. By this method the managers could determine who was best fitted for the actual work tolle undertaken. The managers at Cornel, Williams, Culgate and other colleges are selected in this way.
Several suggested that the women and the first semester freshmen be denied the privilege of franchise, c ntending that the women are indifferent and like the freshmen are generally ignorant of the abilities of the camtldates.

FINAL TRBUTE TO DR. SBEEY

Short Service at Resi- dence---Burial at Royalton

The funeral of the late Doctor Henry O. Sibley, the librarian of the University until last year, will be held from his home at Irving Avenue and University Place this afternoon at 5 o'clock.
Chancellor James R. Day and Docior F. D. Leete, a classmate of the deceased and pastor of the University Avenue M. E. Church, will conduct the services. The honorary pallbearers hre Dean James B. Brooks, Dean Frank Smalley, Doctor T. C, Hopkins and Doctor E. L. Earp, Hon. E. A. Hili and Ductor, Albert E. Larkin, The funeral proper will be held tomorrow afternoon at the M. E. Church, Royalton, Doctor Sibley's former home.
Few men had the unique history and remarkable genius of Doctor Sibley. Born in 1846, he matriculated at Syracuse Univeraty at the mature age of 40. In the words of Dean Smalley, ho was the best man in his class. He received three degrees here, writing his doctor'st thesis in Latin. His ripe and thorough icholarship, prodigious knowledge of books and everything made lim the organizer of the Vin Ranke library.
Doctor Sibley's knowledge of literature was equal to his love for it. He loved it for the enjoyment he received from its study. Aside from his numerous translations from the Latin poets, orations, papers and essays, his wonderful memory of things and men, and especially the English poets, bordered on the marvelous. During the last five years of his life he was never out of the house.
$\because$ Doctor Sibiey was one of the charter members of the local chapter of Phi Delta Theta. He was their librarian and foremost fraternity poet.

Freshmen Elect Captain

The Liberal Arts freshmen held a meeting yesterday afternoon and unanimously elected Ford R. Park captain of their baseball team.

Seniors The attention of all seniors in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Applied Science is called to the fact that the list of candidates for graduation is now posted in the Registrar's office. The names will be placed on the diplomas just as they appear on this list. Every member of the senior class should therefore consult the list immediately and make such corrections as are necessary.

The The news that Syracuse Debates was so unfortunate as to receive the minority vote in each of the debates Wednesday evening was received with much regret by the students. It could hardly be said that it was received with surprise; as all Syracusans have been taught by sad experience that we are to be surprised at nothing in debate. A debate is the only contest to our knowledge in which the spectators are unable to pick the victors when time is called. It is doubtless the case, however, that each member of the audience chooses in his own mind the team that he considers the winner. But the opinion of an audience of 500 or 1,000 people is often changed by the verdict of two men who were fortunate enough to act as judges. The decisions in debates are always bound to be more or less unsatisfactory to one side or the other.
The unfortunate teams in the two debates Wednesday evening happened to represent Syracuse. While we congratulate Wesleyan and Colgate upon their victory, yet we would not fail to praise the two Syracuse teams in their loss. Every student knows the fight which the men made, and knows the hard work which each contestant, as well as Professor Losey, put into the contests. The men and coach are deserving of every praise which can be given them. That spirit which recognizes and honors morit in the face of defeat is the kind which tends to broaden our education and to raise the standard of our University.
prominent aeoloolsts comino Saturday of this week and Monday of next week will see a number of prominent geologists in Syracuse to study geological features of this vicinity, especially the lakes and channels formed by the glacier.
The party will include Profsssor W. M. Davis of Harvard and Professor A. P. Brigham of Colgate with a number of students from each university and probably professors and students from other colleges.
Professor Hopkins, some of the geological students from Syracuse University and probably some of the city teachers will accompany the party while here. They will examine the Jamesville lake, the Iroquois lake terraces and the deep channels about Jamesville on Saturday.
Saturday evening at $80^{\prime}$ clock Professor Davis will give a popularillustrated lecture on the "Lesson of the Colorado Canyon' in the Assembly Hall of the University Block, to which the faculty and students are invited.

Sthat vale victory
Every one remembers the nighe "' 'mid bon-fire gleamitg, ' mid shot and shell." The blaze cost thirty-six dol. lars. Dean Smalley submits the following report:

| Class. | Assessment. | Paid. |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Senior.......... | $$ 4.00$ | $$ 1.00$ |
| Junior........... | 8.00 | 16.00 |
| Sophomore.... | 10.00 |  |
| Freshman...... | 14.00 | 1400 |

. At the reeent meeting of the sophomores, the class voted to pay the bill. The Dean believes in the policy "money talks." Unless the money is soon forthcoming, something may happen. Dean Smalley said yesterday that he was patientl and meditatively waities.

RIEWS RACE IN  SNOW STORM

Change in 'Varsity Boat . -Coxswain Chosen Next Week

Hespite the cold, misty weather and the triving snow storm which swept aruss the lake, the crew men went lanily to their work yesterday afternom. Owing to a slight accident to tle launh the coach steered the 'Varsity Lnat, assigning Decker to the same peition in the freshman boat.
A material change was made in the 'Varsty loat. Andrews, No. 3, was Whifted to No. 7 , the same position he mad in last year's freshman crew; Rice, Ne. 7. takes Andrews' place. Cumings pulted No. 6 , in place of Hale who owing to sickness was unable to be out.
lat the fur-ared, Spencer is rowing No. 2 and will be given a trial. Last week Cunings rowed in the same seat. While Davis and Armstrong are stlll at stroke and bow and Robinson is rowiny No. 3, the final makeup of the boat is still uncertain.
In the sprints across the lake, the freshmen were given the start of two bat lengths. The work of the freshmen was the best this season. The work in the four-oared boat was most encuraging; the men kept her steady throughout and Armstrong's steering was gool.
White the coach is not discouraged wih the freshmen, he is far from being satisfied. Changes are being constantIf made. "For this time of the seasim," said the coach, "they are not to le compared with last year's crew wither in form or general watermanslip. While the average weight of this year's crew is greater, it is not as evenly distributed. The average weight of the present crew is $1711-2$ pomds, against 161 of last year and a sariation from 151 to 173 pounds. This year the lightest man weighs 150 , the heaviest 194."
Yesterday the freshmen rowed as follows: Stroke, Paddock; No. 7, Dudge; No. 6, Stevenson; No. 5, Ileah; No. 4, Duvali; No. 3, Schiefer; No. 2, Whitney; bow, Corp; coxswain, Dether.
The race for freshman coxswain will be decided next week. It will be either Rotinson or Decker. Both have proved themselves proficient and both have the qualities that make a heady and able coxswain.
Saturiay will be held as visiting day. Thuse wishing to have the privilege of the launch should make previous arrangenents with the coach or commodore.

THE JUNIOR ENTERTAINMENT
The committee of junior girls has fixed upon June 10 as the date on which the entertainment will be presented for the seniors. As to what the plans are, nothing will be divalged at present and it is planned by the committee of five which has it in charge to keep everything secret, even from the rest of the juniors. Owing to the lack of time a play will not be given, although this was discussed at first. To meet the expense of the occasion, it will be necessary to raise $$ 100$. Miss Charlotte Heath has been appointed treasurer and will receive the assessment which will be levied after Easter to cover this sum. It is hoped that this event will become a custom and that the junior girls will hereafter present a play at Commencement Week.

SURVEYS FOR STADIUM HAVE BEEN COMPLETED
The junior civil engineers have completed the surveying for the stadium. Professor Nugent is computing the amount of work necessary and calculating to find the best place for the field. It is expected that this work will be completed by tonight. The plans for the new library have already been submitted to Mr. Carnegie and are awaiting his appreval. Work on the new Hall of Natural His ory will be commenced soon. The surveys will probably be made this next week.
Dr. Herben will Speak at Vespers
Dr. Stephen J. Herben will address the vesper services Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in John Crouse College hall. Doctor Herben is the editor of the Epworth Herald and an interesting talk is anticipated. There will be special music at the service.

Game with St. johns tuesday The baseball game between the second team and the team from St. Johns School of Manlius has been postponed from this afternoon, as previously announced, until next Tuesday at 3 p. m. The makeup of the second team has not yet been datermined, but it is working every day under Assistant Coach Enmett House and will undoubtedly be strong when the time comes for the game.

the cataloo out

The new University catalog is conpleted and will be ready for distribution today. In most respects the book is the same as in previous years, containing about 330 pages. An item that will interest most is the date on which examinations are scheduled to begin. The date is May 30, a week later this year than last, but doubtless some change will havo to be made, since that change wil havo to be made, since that day is a holiday.

Final Time Trials Held and Teams Picked on Saturday

Under the direction of Coaeh C. P. Hutchins the candidates for the relay teams ran final time trials Saturday afternoon. As a result of these, Karl B. Squires, William Y. Boyd, Philip Wood and Jacob J. Schworm were chosen for the two-mile team, with Charles 0 . Hayes as substitute. The members of the one-mile team will be S. Atton Ralph, W. E. Rother, M. S, Cox and Robert W. Fisher. These men will be kept on the training table.
These men ar: all good runners, but will be entered in rather fast company. It is intended to send the two-mile relay team solely to give the men experience. Only one man on the two teams ever represented Syracuse at Philadelphia in a relay race. A large proportim of the menare freshmen who have bad little experience. This is the chief reason why teams are entered, since it will be useful to the men in the later meets.
Syracuse was entered in Class A in the one-mile relay, the same class as last year, with Columbia, Cornell, Amherst and Georgetown. Amherst, Columbia and Cornell are not sending one-mile relay teams this year and Guorgetown has entered in the championship class, leaving Syracuse alone in Class $A$. The Pennsylvania men could not allow Syracuse to enter in any of the lower classes, so consequently our team is entered in the championship class.
The chances of winning are small. In fact Coach Hutchins said Saturday: "I will be well satisfied if we do better than last in either of the races." The time for the one-mile relay last year was $3: 23$. The fastest time ever made by a Syracuse relay team at Philadelphia is $3: 27$. R. Alfred Waite and Myer Prinstein were on that team. Four seconds makes a great difference when the time is solow. The entries in this race are Yale, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Chicago, Georgetown, Harvard, and Syracuse, Yale being the favorite.
In the two-mile relay Ysie is the favorite with Cornell second. The former team already this year has established the record of 7:58 1-2. These two teams have raced twice this season, Yale winning the first by about sixty yards and the second by thirtyfive yards. It was in the latter contest that the record was made. The entries in the two-mile race are Yale, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell and Syracuse.
Van Duyn will be entered in the hammer throw. He is in good condition and ought to do well for the Orange.

All the track men are expected to stay in the city during the Easter vacation, but no more will be taken on the training table until after college work is resumed.

'YARSITY LOSES TO OEOROETOWN

Georgetown defeated the 'Varsity Saturday in a game played under the best conditions. Syracuse simply could not find McGittigan, the Georgetown pitcher. On the other hand the southerners were able to hit freely and at opportune times. Larkin, the first man up for Georgetown, drove out a home run, The 'Varsity was unable to score until the third inning, when they tied the score. The next inning, however, was fatal to the Orange and five men crossed the plate after two men were out.
Georgetown is one of the strongest teams in the country, not having lost a game yet this year. Only recently they defeated Pennsylvania by a score of 5 to 0 . The score:

Coach Hutchins and As sistant West Will Begin Work Today

Coacn Hutchins and Assistant Coach West will be on hand this afternoon to start the systematic coaching of the football candidates. Heretofore Doctor Hutchins has been unable to take his attention from the track men. While there will be no team work nor tackling, the men will be given individual instruction in their particular weak points.
Punting, side stepping, quick starts, catching and handling the ball will characterize most of the work. The centers, quarters and backs are the men called upon for special work. Aside from the crew men all candidates for the team next fall are urged to come out.
The schedule is a rather heavy one next fall. If games are to be won, the highest efficiency of every man is necessary to do it.
The practice will start at $3: 300^{\prime}$ clock sharp each afternoon and last an hour. Those wishing suits are requested to see Manager Griffith.

CHANCELLOR IN CHAPEL

Chancellor Day speke in chapel Sat. urday morning. During the course of his remarks he said that a lady had recently given the University $$ 7,000$ with the end in view of establishing a professorship. Two other friends had promised to give $$ 5,000$ each toward the library endowment fund and their word was as good as a check. The question of what should be done with the present library was still under discussion, but it has been almost decided to alter the building for use as both administration and Christian Association building. Another friend sf the University has requested that plans for alterations he drawn up and that as sures that the work will be done.
After his remarks concerning prospective buildings, the Chancellor spoke in behalf of the 1906 Onondagan. Subscription blanks were then circulated with results such that the success of the book is assured.

 GLAGIAL LAKES
College Men Study the

 Glacial FeaturesAbout Syracuse

Professor W. M. Davis of Harvard University, with the assistance of Doctor T. C. Hopkins of the geology department, has been directing a party for the past few days in field work in the vieinity of this city. The party wis composed of Professor Davis, fif teen Harvard men, Professor Fairchild of the University of Rochester, five Colgate undergraduates, Professor Hepkins, C. Van Duyne, W. G. Linconn '05 and B. E. Clark '07.
The men started Saturday morning, taking a car to the Valley. From there the Lackawama railroad was followed until Green Lake was reached. Thence the party crossed to Jamesville and stulied the valleys and rocks to the west. Later another trip was taken to the cast and northeast of Jamesville. Yesterday the route lead north from Fayetteville. The purpose of this day's work was to study the glacial phenomema in the Salina shale. Green Lake at Payetteville was also visited at this time.

The purpose of these expeditions was to trace the successive glacial channels in the Iroquois terraces.
Saturday the glacial channel which drained the glacial lake that filled the Onondaga valley was followed to its delta. The glacial waterfalls ot Green Lake and Round Lake were noted with care, the latter especially exciting considerable comment. A cutoff was discovered near Jamesville that possibly may have been found before, but was at this time thoroughly discussed and observed.
One of the main objects of the work was to find the glacial deltas. For some time geologists have admitted that there were numerous glacial channels in this vicinity, but there was considerable doubt as to whether the glacial deltas existed. These were found, hovever, at the mouths of the channels and on the different terraces. This proves the theories advanced for some time previously.
This work is preliminary to that which Professor Hopkins will conduct next summer, when a number of eminent geologists and students will spend a week in this vicinity studying the actions of glaciers. Prof.ssor Davis intends to use the results of his observations in a pamphlet which he will pablish soon.
Saturday evening Professor Davis gave a highly entertaining lecture in the Assembly Hall of the University Block on the "Lesson of the Colorado Caron." He is probably the most familiar with this subject of any man in the country, since he has spent several years in its study. First he discussed the formation of the canon, proving or disproving the various theories concerning its origin. Further he treated the various rock formations and the stratigraphy. His lecture was illustrated by lantern slides made by himself. Several fine drawings of sections in colors were shown. These especially showed the stratifications and work of erosion.

HERSEY RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

 AS MISSIONARYThe large audience at the Christian Association vespers Sunday afternoon were greatly surprised at the close of the service to hear Secretary Waite announce that Roscoe M. Hersey had accepted an offer to become for five years the representative of Syracase University in Y. . C. A. work in China. Mr. Hersey's work will be chefly among the student class. He will be supported entirely by the Syracuse University Christian Associations and by the alumn. He will leave next October to take up his new work and in the interim will furtherprepare himself by the study of association methods.
Mr. Hersey entered the University in 1899, but after a year here spent two years as the secretary of the boys ${ }^{\prime}$ department of the New Bedford Asso ciation. He is now a member of the senior class and president of the Liberal Arts section. For the past year he has served the Y. M. C. A. efficiently as its president. He is a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity and Tau Theta Upsilon, senior society.
Hr . Hersey is one of the m -st able and popular men in the University and he will carry with him the good wishes and the respect of the entire student

Cornelius VanDuyne and RobertPark to Teach in Military Schools

C srnelius VanDuyne '04 has accepted a position to teach science in the Kentucky Military Institute at Lyndon, Kentucky, next year. He will also have charge of the athletics. This school is one of the best military institutions of the south, having over two hundred and fifty students. In athletics its teams have been unusually succesful for the past two years, during which time they have been coached by Lynn B. Wykoff '03. Wykoff has resigned and will enter the typewriter business in Chicago.
Van Duyne has played guard on the football team for two years and is at present on the track team for the fourth year. His hammer throw of one hundred and fifty-four feet eleven inches stands as the University record. He graduated from the University in June 1904, receiving the degree of A.B. and is at present taking graduate work in the geology department. Since K. M. I.-is a military school it is necessary that the teachers hold commissions under the State of Kentucky. One is expected soon by Van Duyne which will give him the rank of maj $r$. At the intercollegiate meets for two years he has been one of the point winners for he Orange, securing third place in the hammer tnrow last year and second the previous season. At the Philadelphia relay games which will be he d April 29, Van Duyne is a sure point winner for the 'Varsity.
Robert Park ${ }^{\circ} 05$, the captain of last year's football team, has accepted the position of instructor and director of athleties in the Arkansas Military Academy, Little Kock, Ark. He will teach English, Latin, mathematics and probably history, besides having charge of all the athletics. His salary will be $\$ 900$ and all expenses.
The academy is fortunate in securing the services of Captain Park. He is held in high esteem as a student and athlete both by the student body and faculty, and can be depended upon to always honor his Almia Mater.
Captain Park secured his position through a request by Col, R. C. Hall, the principal of the academy, to his personal friend, Professor Place of the Latin department, asking him to select a suitable man for his faculty.

The regular meeting of the English Club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the Princess, 763 Irving Avenue. The speaker will be Paul M. If You Easter vacation begins Go Home Thursday and a large number of students will depart for their respective homes. There is some important work for Syracuse which ought to be done by every student who leaves at this time.
This is about the time of year when high school and preparatory school students who intend to go to college next fall are arriving at a decision as to which institution they will enter. There are doubtless few preparatory schools in the state which will not send ac least one representative to some college next year. There are likewise few schools in the state which are not at the present time represented at Syracuse. There is no reason why a very large percentage of these preparatory school students should not enter our University next year. All that is necessary is that every undergraduate, as well as the alumni, make an especial effort to learn the names of the prospective students, and then see that they decide the right way. .This, then, is good work for all those who go home during the coming vacation.
It is by such means that all large universities have been built up. The personal efforts of the undergraduates and alumni are of vastly greater value than all the bulletins and catalogues and reading matter the University can publish. All that is necessary is to tell the future college man or woman what Syracuse has been, her growth, her plans and for what she stands. And there never has been in our whole history a better opportunity to talk "Syracuse" to the preparatory school students. What greater marks of a great and growing University than a new Engineering College, a new Hall of Natural History, a new Stadium and a magnificent new Library, an endowment of $$ 150,000-$ all in the brief space of one college year. There was never indeed a better platform upon which a campaign could be conducted. It behooves every loyal student, then, to "get into the game."

GPEW MEN

ARE SHIFTED
Miller Steers the 'Varsity Boat...Packard and

Hale Recovering

An air of uncertainty still hovers alout the boat house. The men rowing at present do not consider their position as ciuched by any means. A change in tle 'Varsity eight is expected any day. While Hale is but recovering from sickmess, Cumings has been rowing in his seat. The latter is pulling a strong oar and rowing in excellent form. A radical change would not surprise the men. The 'Varsity crew rowed yesterday ufternom: Stroke, Packand; No.7, Rice; No.6,Cumiugs; No.5, Dempster; No.4, Audersm; No.3, Andrews; No.2, Salishury; $1 \cdot w$, Squires; Coxswain, Miller. The four-oar is still rowing: Stroke, mavis; No.3, Robinson; No.2, Spencer; low, Armstrong. All of the 'Varsity men ate working hard. Though each man is trying for a place in the shell, a spirit of desire to win the races and see the best in the boat is shared by all. Until the weather moderates, and the men get loosened, a definite makeup of the crews and first class rowing camut be expected.
Packard has recovered from his disposition. Hale will be out in a few days Charles Miller, the 'Varsity coxswain, put on his oil skins yesterday afternoen and was soon at home in the bout, giving his customary commands. In the frestman shell Corp seems to be holling down bow, and Schiefer, the lightest man out, is rowing No. 3. Owing to the usual trouble of the launch being out of repair, Coach Ten Eyck stered the frestmen. The make-up of the boat was: Stroke, Paddock; No. 7. Heath; No. 6, Stevenson; No. 5, Dodge; No. 4, Duvall; No. 3, Schiefer; No. 2, Whitney; Bow, Corp.
Brown, Blocher, Packard and Avery, with curswain Robinson, rowed in the four-oared working boat.
the entire squad will row every day during the Eastervacation. Next Saturday, in order that the men may spend Sunday at home, the practice will be held in the morning only

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI

Dr. Miles G. Hyde '68 has recently published a novel entitled "Mary Markam." It is a story of present day life in New York. Dr. Hyde was a member of the faculty of the Medical College for six years, immediately after the Geneva Medical College was merged into the University. He is a loyal and active alumnus of the University.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

The School of Chemistry of Columbia
University announces a new course leading to the degree of Chemical Engineer. The high qualifications demanded in this profession are shown in the requirement of attendance at summer gessions in addition to twenty-five hours of assigned work weekly for four yeara.

Yale has chosen the negative side of the following question, which will be debated in the annual contest with Harvard at Cambridge on May 5 : "Resolved, That a commission be given power to fix rai road rates." The Harvard team has been selected and consists of three juniors. This is the first time since 1899 that Harvard has had a debating team composed entirely of undergraduates. Since then there has always been at least one law school man on the team.

Columbia University's track team has lost one of its best athletes, Robert Sedgwick Strangland, last year's winner of the intercollegiate broad jump, has left college to go into business in Tennesce. Strangland was looked upon as almost sure to capture the broad jump at Philadelphia, and some considered that he would better his mark of last year, which was 23 feet 61.2 inches. His decision to leave college came as a surprise to the students, as he had been practicing daily on South Field in preparation for the opening of the outdoor season.
It is announced on the authority of President D. F. Bradley of Iowa College, that Andrew Carnegie is considering a plan, submitted by a committee of presidents of Western institutions, looking to donations of $$ 12,500,000$ to scientific department of fifty colleges in seventeen states. It is believed Mr. Carnegie will adopt the scheme with some modifications.

WILL BEOIN WORK AT ONCE IN

 CHAPELThe steel ceiling which is to be plased in the chapel of Liberal Arts College is now in the building and al. ready to be put up. It is expected that the work of putinig up the scaffolding will be begun today. It has not as yet been fully decided whether or not the walls will be painted or frescoed at this time. It is probable, however, that they will be frescoed. Whatever improvements ars now made, everything will be completed during the vacation in order that the regular college work may not be interfered with.

SYRACUSE LOSES  CLISE GAMES

Trinity Wins Two Games

 by Scores of 10and 2-0

(Special to the Daily Orange)

Durham, N. C., April 18...The Syracuse University baseball team lost two games to the Trinity College nine in the past two days. Both games were close and exciting from start to finish. In yesterday's game the Southerners won out in the ninth inning with one run after neither side had been able to cross the plate. Watkey did the pitching for the 'Varsity and held his opponents down to four hits.
In toaay's game Limbeck occupied the box and allowed seven hits, and Bradshear, the Trinity twirler, gave the Orange men only two connections with the horsehide.
The game was replete with sensational p.ays by the Syracuse men, Burrell stopping a hot liner with the bases full and Rutherford making a pretty double play by touching a man out at second and putting the runner out at first by throwing to Wilbur while on his knees.
Trinity scored two runs throughout the game, but the 'Varsity was unable to cross the plate for a tally.

T00 bREEzY FOR GAME

Again yesterday afternoon the Orange rooters were deprived of the game by the keen icy gale which swept across the oval during the entire day. Assistant Manager Allis was accordingly compelled to postpone the game of the second team with St. Johns indefinitely. The next game is scheduied for May 3, when the second team boys will mect the High School nine.
At the annual meeting of the Association of Teachers of Mathematics of the Middle States and Maryland to be held in New York Saturday, April 22, Doctor Metzler will give a paper on "The Educational Value of Mathematics." At the same meeting Eugene R. Smith, Syracuse '96, now teacher of mathematies in the Mt. Clair (N.J.) High School, will read a paper on Method of Teaching Pupils to do Original Work in Plane Geometry."

Athlotics as It was not many a Profession years ago when the athlete came to college and represented his University for three or four years, and, upon graduation, perhaps never again donned the characteristic athletic garb or took more than an ordinary interest in the sports of his college days. As for making the training he received on the gridiron or diamond or track a means of his future support-that was rarely thought of. But those days are now past. The leading preparatory schools and colleges throughout the country bave come to realize that success in athletics depends as much upon an experienced teacher as does success in scholarship. As these schools havegradually been compelled to acknowledge this fact, the demand for the best athletes from the larger universities has continually increased. This change has at least this signific-ance-that institutions of learning of every class now realize that athletics are an essential to their growth and development. It is gratifying to note that in the selection of college graduates as coaches, the athletes from Syracuse have been called to fill many excellent and responsible positions. It is evident that the class of men that are turned out here are the kind that authorities deem worthy to train the young men of the various schools. We need only recall the names of such men as Lowe, Wikoff, Whittemore, Weeks, Parrish, Brane, Brown, House, and now comes similar news concerning Park, Dempster and Van Duyne.

WOMEN'S WEAR FOR EASTER

Last Easter-or, rather, three or four days before it-we were utterly swamped by your demands for suits and wraps, and to make needed alterations we not only employed every capable person we could find, but we borrowed the facilities of several tailoring shops. The business is coming still heavier this year.
May we take your orders, now-while everything surely can be done in perfectly good shape? It doesn't cost an extra cent to buy now. Deliveries shall be madeas you elect. In a few very pretty models of suits we have odd ones left, which to send out guickly we reduce in price-bargains when we are so busy that it seems unnecessary. Read on-there's good news in every line.

The New Shirtwaists
We have just augmented our collection with a series of exquisite lingerie waists of sheer mulls and linens, hand-made and hand embroidered, the designs of which are exclusive'withus. Contemplating their high character we coun; the price most modest.
In the lawns we have some very pretty white waists at $48 \mathrm{c}, 98 \mathrm{c}$ and $\$ 1.48$ each. The beauty of the styles and their up-to-dateness make the offering unusually attractive.
First, there's a white lawn waist in two styles, having lace and embroidery insertion and tucks with $\mathrm{leg}-0^{\prime}$-mutton sleeves at 48 c ; at 98 c there are various styles of waists with tucks and embroidery insertion, others with all-over embroidery front and leg-0'-mutton sleeves; while the waists we offer at $\$ 1.48$ have ten rows of tucking with lace and embroidery insertion down front, tucks in back and on sleeves.
Three Lines of Tailored Sults
An abundance of charmingly made suits, all new models, light and medinm weights. It would be unusual at any time to get a chance at such bargains-doubly so with Easter but one week off. We would draw particular attention to three hines that we offer.

The suits that we shall sell at $$ 12.75$ are made of all-wool cheviot with short coat, fancy trimmed and tailor stitched and pleated skirt. A Panama cloth suit with Eaton coat and peplum, narrow piping and braid trimmed with cluster of pleats in skirt will be sold at $$ 18.50$. Another suit made of broadcloth and handsomely tailored with silk trimmings and pleated shirt will be sold for $$ 21$.

Sllk Shirtwalst Suits

We show the : nest lot of frocks that we have ever been able to get together. In fact, we have no hesitation in saying that it represents the best and most varied and the most individual array of styles that you ever saw. Three of the special offerings are as follows:
A taffeta shirtwaist suit of fine quality silk in all the leading colors, waist made wilh shirred yoke and s.eeves and the skirt shirred and very full will go on sale at $$ 18.47$. At $$ 17.50$ we shall sell a very pretty suit in plain and two-tone effects with full blouse waist and leg-0'mutton sleeves, the skirt side pleated. Another silk shirtwaist suit in the chameleon and plain shades is made with front of waist pleated and shirred yoke; the skirt has three shirred flounces; a very pretty suit, to be sold at $$ 28.50$.
Pretty Covert Jackets for Women We show you wraps of heavier cloth and wraps of silk-w we tempt you with the finest things that have taken fashion's form this spring; but after all, you must have a covert cloth wrap, and our tailor's best wit is put into their fashioning. We have large varieties, and there is little of sameness though we sell thousands of these garments.
A fine quality covert coat, fancy collarless effect and fitted with full sleeve will be sold tcday at $$ 10.88$. A covert coat made with tailored collar and strapped effect, large sleeves, pleated at wrist with cuff, is marked at $12.83. Another coat made with box pleated effect and fancy trimmed neck, full sleeve in the leg-0'-mutton style goes on sale at $$ 13.89$.

Handicap Meet

The wack men out for the dashes and hurdes were given time trials yesterday afternoon. The relay men only warmed up and took no hard rums. These men will leave tomorrow morning wer the Central at 7:40 for Philadelphat by the way of New York. All are in grod condition, hat are entered inderidedly fast company, so that Syrwase can scarcoly expect to take a gaul phee. Connelius Van Duyne will alsu inter in the hammer throw, For the past week he has been sick and for a lime it was doubtful whether he would he able to accompany the relay men. Until this sickness he had been in rame condilion. New suits of the hest kind have been secured for the two velay teams.
Twonty one men have been picked for the training table and their names were announced last night. They are as fullows: Roburtson, Allen, Benewet, W J. Boyd, Call, Clark, Davies, Dunster, Fuller, Hawkins, Hoyler, Muhthrop, OMeara, Pratt, Pierce, Midh, Sandmeyer; Schiefer, Southwouth, Siebbins and Tucker. These nem will go to the table tomorrow morning for the first time. They are all men who stayed in the city during vacation and this is a means of rewarling ther efforts in a measure, athough others wil be taken on later if they show the ability. The nine men who go to Philadelphia will continuer on the table upon their return. This makes the total thirty, an unusually large number.
Entries for the Spring Handicap Meet nust be handed to Manager Fred Mambor Assistant Manager Wm, C. Bryant by $70^{\prime}$ clock next Monday evening. This meet is open to all men of the University whether in training or not. The date set for this meet is May 6.

DEAN SANOERS

WIIL LECTURE

Yale Professor Will Be Heard in Semitic Club Course Tonight

Dean Frank K. Sanders, Ph. D. of the Yale Divinity School will deliver his evening in the Assembly Hall of the University Block the fourth lecture of the series given under the auspices of the Semilic and Biblical Club of the University. His subject will be "The Synoptic Gospels and Their Protrniture of Christ." The previous lectures of this curse have been well attended and the advance sale of tickets gives proof that a lixe audence will hear this discoms.
The speaser is one of the most distinguished mon on th: Yale faculty, being a pariac spe ker of note and having a high rejuatin as a scholar. His work at New II wen and his literary contributions have done much to aid in making scientific Bible study popular. Consequently his remarks will be awaited with interest by the Biblical students of this city.
Two series of books have recently been edited by Dean Sanders, both of which are used as text books in the University. One of these is the "Historical Series for Bible Students," in ten volnmes and the other the "Messages of the Bible," in twelve vol umes. He is also a contributor for the Sunday School Times, writing the advance lessons.
The Yale Club of this city are plan ning to give a dinner at the Yates in honor of Doctor Sanders. The arrangements for this affair are in charge of C . W. Bardeen.
The next lecture of the course will be given by Professor Ismar J. Peritz, Ph. D., of the Semitics department on May 11. His theme will be "Jewish Customs Illustrating New Testament Times." This lecture will be illus. trated by stereoption views. The large attendance at the lectures thus far assur ss their success and the proceeds will be applied for the furnishing of the Semitic seminar room.

WORK ON THE NEW STADIUM

Final surveys on the new Stadium are nearly completed. It is intended to begin work on the excavation Monday if the surveying is finished in time. The new athletic field will in most respects resemble the Franklin Field at the University of Pennsylvania and will have a seating capacity of over 15,000 . Along the top of the slope will be a broad drive, enabling carriages and automobiles to be stationed so the occupants can watch the contests without moving.

BASEBALL WTH STARS TODAY

Varsity Returns From Trip Attended With Misfortunes

The 'Varsity return this morning from their southem trip. This afternoon they will meet the Syracuse Stars. The Stars are strong and speedy players, but as yet have had only a little practice. Although Cornell recently defeated them, the 'Varsity will have a tough proposition, sinee the professionals have improved greatly in team work.
The game which was scheduled with George Washington College for yesterday afternoon was not played.
On the southern trip the team played ten games of which they won hut two The scores were as follows:
${ }^{\prime}$ Varsity 20; St. Johns College 6.
'Varsity 1; Georg stown 9.
'Varsity 0; Trinity 1.
'Varsity 0; Trinity 2.
'Varsity 3; Univ. of N. C. 5.
Varsity 3; A. & M. College 4.
'Varsity 4; A. & M. College 6.
'Varsity 3; Naval Academy 6.
'Varsity 8; Univ. of Virginia 4.
${ }^{\prime}$ Varsity 2; Univ. ff Virginia 7.
Throughout the trip the team played in hard luck. In the Annapolis game Dollard's arm was fractured by a pitched ball. As a consequence be was obliged to leave the team, while Wilbur took the former's place behind the bat. First base was covered by Manager Sanford who has not played before for nearly two years. Watkey's wrist, which had been strained earlier in the year, gave out, so the pitching force was somewhat crippled. Notwithstanding this condition the men pulled together and defeated the University of Virginia in the first game with that team. Their team was strong, having already defeated the University of Pennsylvania and holding a record of nine successive victories.

Chancellor in New York

Chancellor James R. Day left Tuesday for New York City to attend a meeting of the commission appointed at the last general M. E. conference to los consider the advisability of consolidating all the book companies and publishing companies controiled by the church. This commission has full power to make definite decision.
The Chancellor may be absent the rest of the week. Before the matter is decided it may be necessary for the committee to visit Boston, Chicago and other cities where branches are located.

Every student who has not patronized Selleck the Hatter should get acquainted at once.

If you buy your hats at Selleck's, he

SENIORS TO VOTE ON MEMORIAL TOMORROW

There will be a meeting of the senior class after chapel tomorrow morning to pass upon the recommendation of the Memorial Committee and vote the needed class tax.
Three propositions will be submitted to the seniors:

1. That 1905 build the first panel of the fence that will some day enclose the campus. A design has beensketched by Professor H. M. Smith, Ph. D.
2. That a fountain be built somewhere on the campus.
3. That a sun-dial of classic style be placed in the cenker of what will be the quadrangle of the University.
These propositions are submitted to the class for a decision. All are feasable, original, omamental and any one of them would make a fine memorial to nineteen-five.
The committee will recommend that a class tax of one dollar be voted.
The fork of construction will be begun at the earliest moment so that the gift may be made on Commencement Day with appropriate ceremonies.
A large attendance at tomorrow's meeting is expected.

CHAPEL REDECORATED

The work of redecorating the chapel has 'been pushed rapidly during the Easter vacation and is nearly completed. The change is indeed refreshing. The work is very neat and artistic, producing a complete revolution from the depressing dinginess of the old room. The new steel ceiling is of a beautiful cream tint, with a narrow steel cove at the margin. The walls are a light shade of bronze green, blending well with the ceiling. The work can hardly be completed before Friday and the chapel will probably be opened for the first time on Monday morning.

Tennis As college opens after Courts the Easter vacation we find the tennis courts have been put into good condition. But unless certain students exercise greater care than they have during the past few days the courts will not long remain in that condition. Many people who have not worn tennis shoes have been playing on the courts. Such a thing if continued will soon spoil the ground. Students should bear in mind that there are a large number who desire to play and who try to keep the courts in as good a condition as possible. If there are any who have not access to tennis shoes, they should keep off the courts and allow those who possess the proper outfits to play.

Senior A. meeting of the senMemorial ior class is called for tomorrow morning for the purpose of selecting a suitable memorial. This meeting will be one of the most important ever held by the class of 1905, as the result of their choice at this time is to commemorate the class in time to come. The importance of the meoting makes it necessary that every member of the class be present. There should not only be those seniors who are in Liberal Arts College, but every senior in the University should be interested in this matter and should be present at tomorrow's meeting.
The three propositions submitted by the committee, which are published in another page of this issue, are all worthy of serious consideration. Every member of the class should reflect upon these recommendations and decide which is the best before he enters the meeting tomorrow. A hasty decision may be regretted in future years.

Why wouldn't today be a good time for you to come in and select that Spring Suit you need? WANT Something swells No risk of missing any new fashion if you buy your clothes here, because our styles are ahead of the fashion plates.

Vanderbilt University Damaged by Flames University was gutted by fire on April 20. A high wind was blowing and in only a few minutes the structure was a mass of flames.
The building was of brick, It was built in 1874 at a cost of $$ 125,000$. So far as known no one was injured in the fire.
The total loss is placed at $$ 200,000$ The operation of the university will not be interfered with.

Chancellor Day recently received an invitation to preach one of the national sermons at the Lewis and Clark Exposition to be held at Portlarid, Oregon, during the coming summer. The others who have been invited to participate in these exercises are among the most prominent and best known speakers in the country.
The April number of "Edueation" contains an interesting article by Dr. Charles Wesley Hargitt of the Biological Association of the University, on "The Place and Function of Biology in Secondary Education."

Dr. Charles B. Thwing read a paper recently before the American Physics Association at Chicago on the subject, "The Flow of Electricity through Metals under Change of Pressure."

The Athletic Governing Board of the University will meet this evening in the graduate manager's room in the University Block.

Many seniors are saving money by having their Onondagan cuts printed on a suitable card at the Orange Print Shop, for use in place of expensive photographs in teachers' agency correspondence.

PEGATTA ON

LAKE ONONDAGA

Argonauts of Toronto to

 Row the 'Varsity on June TenthAt a meeting of the Athletic Goveruing Board held last evening in the graduate manager's room in the University Block, definite decision was made to hold a race on Lake Onondaga June 10 with the Argonauts of Toronto. An earlier date was suggested by some but such would be impracticable because the crew men would be busy with examinations which end June 9 .
Efforts will be made to secure crews to race the four oard and freshman crews. The date is such that all who have any desire to see the regatta could remain in the city for two or three days.
The work on the lake is improving gradually. As for who shall row at Poughkeepsie, definite knowledge is farther distant than ever. Only Coach Ten Eyck ean see the order that is to come out of the apparently unsettled condition. Some of the four-oar candidates are rowing in the 'Varsity eight. Captain Dempster pulled the bow oar in the freshman boat yesterday, while Stone has begun to be accustomed to No. 3 in the four-oared shell.
The freshmen are still the problem. They are heavier than the 1907 men, but in comparison to the conditions at this time last year there is less of the spirit and dash, grit and enthusiasm usually characteristic of youngsters on the water.
The men rowed yesterday as follows: 'Varsity eight-oared--Stroke, Pack ard; No. 7, Robinson; No. 6, Hale; No. 5, Blocher; No. 4, Anderson; No. 3 , Andrews; No. 2, Cumings; bow, Squires; coxswain, Miller.
Four-oared-Stroke, Davis; No. 3, Stone; No. 2, Spencer; bow, Armstrong.
Freshman-Stroke, Paddock; No. 7, Heath; No. 6, Stevenson; No. 5, Dodge; No. 4, Duvall; No. 3. Schiefer: No. 2, Whitney; bow, Dempster; coxswain. Robinson.
The matter of coxswains has probably been decided for good. Miller will steer the 'Varsity again. Two freshman candidates, Decker and Robinson, will go to the Hudson. One will be in the race and the other will act as a regular substitute.

MAONIFICENT STATUE TO BE UNVEILED COMMENCEMENT WEEK

The promoters of the Fake Show have cleared over $$ 500$, a sum considerably over $$ 100$ more than was realized from the show two years ago. The total amount taken in was $$ 627$ and the expenses were kept down to less than $$ 100$. Already the money is being expended for improvements on the interior of John Crouse College. A statue of "The Winged Victory" has been purchased at a cost of $$ 150$. The statue is nine feet and three inches high, and is to be placed on a suitable pedestal in the main hall of the John Crouse College, with an inscription plate. The unveiling will probably be done during Commencement Week.
Plans are already under way to open an art reading room in the Fine Arts College. This room is to be furnished and decorated by the proceeds from the Fake Show. Fifteen photographs, taken of views of the recent Fake Show, are now being framed. These will go to decorate the art reading room.
The money received from the Fake Show two years ago was divided among the different departments who used it for the advantage of theirdepartments. The money this year is in the hands of the Fakirs' Association and being used for the benefit of the clege.
The Fakirs' Association is being better organized. It is now a regular society, having emstitation and bylaws. They will give their next show in $19,7$.

PERSONAL AND ALUMNI

Fred D. Cribb and Earle D. Wood have been in Providence, R. I., attending the District Convention of the Ph Kappa Psi fraternity.
Charles M. Underhill '59, president of the Buffalo Alumni, has been spending several weeks in California with his wife and daughter.
I. R. Templeton '04 accepted a position on the staff of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican two weeks ago He resigns as editor of the Cattaraugus Times and takes up his new work at the end of this month.
James A. Rourke '04 has been appointed principal of the high school at McGraw, N. Y. Mr. Rourke is at present assistant in the Latin depart ment and taking post-graduate work.
William 0'Brien '08, Law, is playing third base for the Toronto Eastern League team.
COLLEEE DAILY INCORPORATED
The certificate of incorporation of the Cornell Daily Sun has recently been filed with the Secretary of State at Albany. It is now under the management of eight directors. The president and vice-president are alumni while the rest of the officers are undergraduates, The cspital stock as set forth by the artiele of incorporation is $$ 10,000$. Part is held by the undergraduates and part by trustees and alumni of the University. The object of having alumni as stockholders is to give the organisation stability, as the undergraduate body changes from year to year since the stock must be surrendered when they leave.
This innovation in college journalism was first suggested a year ago. The scheme, impracticable as it was regarded by many when first proposed, has been carried through and is in actual and, so far as may be judged, successful operation.

STARS Defeat the varsity

The Score of 5 to 1 Does Not Indicate Closeness of Game

The 'Varsity baseball team returned yesterday morning from the South and though tired by the long journey put up a splendid exhibition of ball against the Stars. McBirney was in the box for our team and did excellent work. Only three hits were made off his delivery and but four passes to first. His speed was exceptional and his assortment of curves was of the best, including a fine drop. From the first inning to the end the Stars had to work for every base they gained.
Rutherford, the first man to bat, sent out a nice twc-bagger. He stole third, but was unable to get home before three outs were chalked up against the 'Varsity. In the last half of this inning through an error by Wilbur when the bases were full, the Stars secured three runs. Rutherford and Burrell both took difficu't chances in this inning without error. The next six innings were devoid of sensational features. Fifield was substituted for Carter in the sixth inning. In the seventh the Stars made two runs through a timely two-bagger by Fifield. In this inning Ryan made a sensational play in center field, securing a long and difficult fly. In the eighth inning the 'Varsity made their only score. McBirney made a single and when Rutherford followed with another McBirney came home There was no more scoring.

LECTURE BY DEAN SANDERS

The lecture last evening by Dean Frank E. Sanders, Ph. D. of the Yale Divinity School on "The Synoptic Gospels and their Portraiture of Christ" in the Assembly Hall of the University Block was well attended. The speaker proved himself deserving of his high reputation as a scholar and lecturer. From the first Dean Sanders hled the audience by his clear and careful reasoning. This was the fourth of the series given under the auspices of the Semitic and Biblical Club of the University and was well worthy of its place in such an interesting and instructive course. The next lecture will be given May 11, by Professor Ismar J. Peritz of the Semitics department: It will be an iliustrated talk on "Jewish Customs Illustrating New Testament Times."

OBATORICAL CONTEST FOR PREP, SCHOOLS

 An Innovation Similar to the Custom in Track AthleticsUnder the management of Dean Frank Smalley and Professor Frederick D. Losey of the department of Oratory and Public Speaking, arrangements have been made for an oratorical contest open to preparatory schools in the neighborhood of Syracuse. Each seltool has chosen its own speaker and the interest seems widespread.
The contest will be held in John Crouse College hall, beginning at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, at which time the following preparatory schools will be represented:
Syracuse High School, Colgate Academy, Albany High School, Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, Rome Free Acadany, Oneida High School, Binghamton High Scho 1 , Ogdensburg Free Acad emy, Elmira Free Academy and Batavia High School.
Prizes to the amount of $$ 50$ are given by the University to the three winners, the best speaker receiving a medal valued at $$ 25$; the second best, one valued at $$ 15$, and the third best, one valued at $$ 10$.
The following is the program so far as is known at present;

RELAY RACES TODAY

The relay teams left yesterday morning for Philadelphia, with C. Van Duyne, Dr. C. P. Hutchins and Manager Fred H. Plumb. All the events come off this afternoon. In the mile relay race Syracuse has drawn fourth position, Yale having the pole and University of Pennsylvania the second plaze. In the two-mile relay the 'Varsity team will start from the extreme right, having drawn eighth place.
Van Duyne will throw the hammer and although not in very good condition ought to be good for at least second.
Chancellor day head of the COMMITTEE
Chancellor Day was appointed yesterday as chairman of the committee chosen to pass on the consolidation of the denominational publishing houses known as the Methodist Book Concern. The first meeting of this committee was held Thuraday.

HISTORCAL BOOK
DAY MONDAY
Plans for the Reunion of the Seminar of 1895

The sixth annual Historical Book Day will take place next Monday evening at $80^{\prime}$ clock in the History Seminar room in the Hall of Languages. The purpose of this affair is to secure contributions for the seminar library from all former history students and from those now taking work in that department. The contributions in former years have varied from twenty-five cents to five dollars.
The special feature of this day is the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the seminar of 1895 . This class included a number of the best known graduates of the department. A special address will be given for that class by Professor Junius W. Stevens of Wyoming Seminary, the writer of the college song, "Where the Vale of On ondaga." Among the other members of this class are Attorney A. T. Levy of this city; Professor G. G. Groat, the lecturer at the last meeting of the Historical Association; Superintendent G. H. Baskerville of White Plains, who has just left Goshen for his new position; C. M. Almstead of Binghamton; Miss Gertrude Leete, head of the history department in the Utica High School; Miss Nellie J. Allen, formerly state secretary of the College Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Mabel Hodder, student in Berlin University and winner of the Boston Woman's Travelling Fellowship in History from Radeliffe College last year and who has also just been elected to a position in Wellesley College.
Last year about $$ 150$ worth of books were received as gifts and with the money given. Representatives from the different seminars will be present to report and to make speeches with the c ntribution their class is to give.

baseball with stars today

The'Varsity baseball team this afternoon will attempt to retrieve their defeat of Thursday at the hands of the Stars. Since the former game was close and exciting, the probabilities are that both teams will put up a good fight. The game will be called at Star Park at 3:30 $0^{\prime}$ clock.
The Athletic Governing Board has sanctioned a game to be played Thursday, May 4, with Franklin and Marshall on the Oval. The following day the 'Varsity will cross bats withColumbia in the annual game.

The matter should be taken up at once, and sings ought to be held once or twice each week from now until the close of col lege. The trouble in starting such has usually been that no one would take it upon himself to issue the call. It would seem, however, to fall naturally to the president of the Senior class to do this. It is simply necessary for the president to appoint one or two evenings each week, making ample announcement as to when the first sing will occur. The matter should be attended to at once, in order that the students may enjoy the occasions as much as possible. hicaro, Charles M. Turton, 'G3. Buffalo. Rev. Robert B. Adams.' 9

College Now that warm weather Sings has come and the evenings are longer it would seem to be well to again start the college sings which were instituted last year. One sing was tried this year but the temperature was anything but conducive for bringing out the number of men that should assemble. The sings which were held last year proved to be one of the most enjoyable features of college life, and the success with which they have been held previously certainly warrants the continuance of the custom.
There ars few features of college life which do more to promote a loyal Śyracuse spirit than these sings. It requires only a short time once or twice each week, and there is no reason why there should not be present each time four or five hundred men. This short time devoted to singing the college and popular songs is a thing which should appeal strongly to every man in the University. But there is no reason why the custom should be deferred until some time in June.

Squires Makes Record

Breaking Time in the Two Mile Relay

Syracuse finished last in both of the relay races Saturday at Franklin Field in Philadelphia. Nevertheless the wearess of the Orange ran plucky rates, sticking to the end and in the wo mile relay race fighting it out with Princeton which barely finished ahead. Vion Duyne sesured second place in the kumer throw, but was hardly able to th his best owing to his poor physical condition resulting from the grip.
Fisher ran first for Syracuse in the mile relay. Cox who ran second made his quarter in 33 seconds. The record of the thind man, Rother, was 54 seconls. Ralph, who ran last, did best. lis time being $514-5$. The total for the mill was $3: 32$. Yale won the race in $3: 224-5$, fast time for such a slow track. The order of finishing was Yall, Pennsylvania, Chicago and Syracase. The last lap was a heart breaker. Groman of Chicago lead uutil within a few feet of the tape when bech he and Johnson of Pennsylvania fall, while Eweng of Yale passed them and won for the Blue. The time for this quarter was 484.5 . Swarthmore won class $B$ in $3: 32$.
II. L. Thomas of Purdue threw the hammer 150 feet 10 inches. Van Duyne was second with 144 feet 8 inches. Shevlin of Yale, who was supposed to be a winner, did not qualify, Owing to the slippery and uncven condition of the ring none of the contestants did wel. In the pole vault Dray of Yale and Phillips of Cornell tied at 11 feet 6 mehes, On the jump off Dray cleared 11 feet $81-2$ inches. McLanahan of Yate did not qualify.
In the two mile relay Squires took the lead and ran his half in 2:02. This breaks the University recori of $2: 03$ 3-5 held by Foster S . Post '02. It is not known yet, however, whether this new record will be allowed to stand. Sehvorm ran his first quarter in 65 scconds, but weakened on the second and lost considerable ground. The third man, Wood, held his own. Boyd, the last man, ran a good race, fighting it out with Rust of Princeton, who bately beat him in at the finish. The time for the race was 8:07 3-5. The order of finishing was Yale, Dartmouth, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Princeton and Syracuse.
Michigan won the four mile relay as usual, but felt the loss of their star, Kellogg, who graduated last year. In the other events Yale and Michigan carried off most of the honors.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

The West Foint football schedule is as follows: September 30, Tufts; October 7, Colgate; October 14, Virginia Polytechnic Instilute; October 21, Harvard; October 28, Yale; November 4, Vermont; November 11, Carlisle Indians: November 25, Syracuse; December 2, Navy.

The University of Pennsylvania requires every freshman to sign, upon matriculation, an agreement not to engage in hazing during his college course. A bill has been introduced in the Pennsylvania legislature making hazing a misdemeanor.

Among the new courses offered at Dartmouth College are those in written and spoken Japanese.

Princeton and Chicago Universities are taking steps toward reorganization on the plan Oxford and Cambridge. It is thought that by having a number of separate colleges under the management, the advantage of a small college will be combined with those of the great university.

INTEFPRATERNTY BASEBALL LEABUE

Formed Saturday by the Fraternities of the ## University

Representatives of eight fraternities met Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium and formed the Syracuse Interfraternity Baseball League. This is the first time in the hstory of the University that any definite action has ever been taken toward the establishment of such a league. Its purpose is to promote good fellowship among the fraternity men and to aid the coaches in procuring a lire on good material. A committee consisting of Clarence J. Houseknecht '05, Lloyd L. Cheney '05, and Robert Simpson '07 was appointed todraw up eligibility rules and a schedule. These men will confer with Professor J. A. R. Scott at whose suggestion the league was formed.
In other colleges it is customary for the sororities to furnish a pennant to go to the winning team. This plan was suggested and it was hoped the sororities would be willing to carry it out.
Frank Phelps '06 was chosen secre-tary-treasurer of the league. A tax of two dollars was voted to be collected by next Wednesday from each fraternity or their names would not be entered on the schedule. The proceeds of this tax will go towards the purchase of balls and other necessary supplies.
The diamond behind the grandstand will be secured if possible and improved somewhat. The oval will be secured whenever possible. No men who have won their block " $S$ " or " ASA " in baseball will be allowed to play.
dECLAMATION CONTEST TONIOHT
The declamation contest between the representatives of the several preparatory schools will be held this evening. The contest was announced to be held in John Crouse College hall, but instead the chapel of the Hall of Lan guages will be utilized.

Students The following very Who Work interesting article is taken from a recent issue of the Illini:
"Dean Clark, in an article on "Working One's Way Through School" in the April lllinois Magazine, takes a position on that question directly opposed to the popular view. As he says in beginning, the majority of fathers of college students seem to think that their sons are likely to get the most good out of their college experience if they are compelled to work their way through. The popular conception is that the student who is working his way is most likely to rank the highest in his class and to be most successful in his work. Dean Clark questions that position, and maintains that the boy who is forced to work his way is put at a great disadvantage, and if he succeeds, does so in spite of, and not on account of his circumstances. The writers who take the other view too often point out the few poor boys who have succeeded in gaining fame in college, and almost al-

INTERSCHOLASTIC DECLAMATION CONTEST
The first annual interscholastic de clamation contest wns held in John Crouse College hall last evening, Professor Frederick D. Losey presiding.
The contest was unusually close and until the decision of the judges was announced no one could choose the winners of the prizes. Hon. M. E. Driscoll, chairman of the committee of award, said, in announcing the decision, "This is one of the finest contests I have heard and our verdict is a compromise verdict. We have given first award to Charles Adkins, Binghamton High School; second to Arthur Seth Evans, Rome Free Academy; third to Bertram Aufsesser, Albany High School,"
The names of the speakers and their subjects were published in Saturday's Daily Orange. The committee of award consisted of Hon. M. E. Driscoll, Rev. James D. Phelps, D. D., and Rev. W. W. Dawley, D. D., all of Syracuse. The prizes consisted of gold medals valued at $$ 25, $ 15$ and $$ 10$.
Piano solos were rendered by Miss Elizabeth M. O'Connell and Henry G. Hollon, and vocal solos by Miss Anna Combs Titus.

 to Celebrate in the ## Usual Manner

At a meeting of the freshman class held yesterday afternoon partial plans for Moving-up Day were announced. The date on which the classes move up this year has been set for May 10 .
On that day at chapel time the freshmen will meet in the gymnasium to prepare for the customary parade. The members of the several colleges will march in separate groups and all will be dressed in fantastic costumes. It is said that a number of surprises in the way of "stunts" and other original features will be sprung. The procession will be led by the freshman band of twelve pieces, which has been practicing for some time.
After the parade ahout the city the funeral service of the green cap will be held near John Crouse College. Ben Bartlett bas been appointed to deliver the funeral oration and other appropriate exercises will be held.
After the burial ceremonies the men of the freshman class will wear their sophomore caps. These are of a gray material with a red button simiar to the caps of the present sophomores and are now on sale al Harney's.
The executive committee under the leadership of Chairman Clifford Haight have been working and planning diligently and the celebration this year will in no way fall short of the celebrations of previous years.

baseball game cancelled

The baseball game recently scheduled with Frazklin and Marshall College for Thursday of thi week has been cancelled. Were this played it would bring games on two successive days and the committee decided that for various reasons this would not be best.

ered, was by no means discour aging. The teams sent to Philadelphia were, first of all, placed in the championship class and were obliged to compete against the fastest runners in the country. It could hardly be expected by even the most optimistic that Syracuse could send a team for the first time which would be able to defeat the experienced rumers of Yale, Peunsylvania and Princeton. Then, again, our teams were composed, to a large extent, of men who have had heretofore little or no experience in such races. We believe that it is seldom good policy to offer excuses for defeat, yet it seems no more than right that the work of handicapped teams, though defeated, should not pass by without some words of appreciation. Every man on the team deserves the congratulations and thanks of every student and alumnus.

The sixth annual Book Day of the Historical Association was held last evening in the history seminar room. Nearly forty dollars in eash and oves eighty volumes were received from graduate history majors. The various classes also contributed largely. These were represented by different ones who made presentation speeches. The senior speakers were Miss Louise M. Umbrecht and Lloyd L. Chency for the majors and Miss Florence M. Giles for the non-majors. For the juniors the representatives were Miss Florence $L_{\text {. }}$ Mc.Willen and Lewis E. Collings for the majors and Fred W. Hartwell for the non-majors. Herbert A. Robinson and Marion S. Edwards represented the sophomores.
Besides the regular celebration this occasion was the reunion of the seminar of 1895. Among those present were Jonius W. Stevens, T. Aaron Leyy and Miss Gertrude Leete.
After the speeches refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Chancellor in chapel
Chancellor Day spoke in chapel yesterday morning previous to leaving for Cincinnati, where he will be engaged in committee work this week. The committee of fifteen, of which the Chancellor is chairman, is considering the consoldation of the Methodist publishing houses.
Chancellor's remarks were mostly to give thanks to Mrs. William Nottingham and the other alumnae who had so elegantly redecorated the chapel. He hoped that this would prove the commencement of extensive work on the part of the alumn of the University.

Several Syracuse Men

Who are in the Big Leagues

Syracuse University is well represented in league baseball this year. There are a half a dozen sons of the Orange playing in fast company, more than ever before.
To begin with, W. D. Scanlon '06 of the College of Medicine is the mainstay of the Brooklyn National baseball team. This is Scanlon's second year with the Superbas and second year in National kugue baseball. His first professional renture was as a member of the llion team of the State league three years ago. He was drafted from that team by the Pittsburg Nationals, but since he was out of condition the following spring, he did not make good and was let go to Brooklyn. The move proved a bad one for Pittsburg, for Scanlon had the satisfaction of shutting out his old team before the season was over and more than made good with the Brooklyns.
William 0'Brien '07, Law, a son of Chief of Detectives Willam O'Brien of this city, is now a member of the Toronto team of the Eastern league. Although a Fordham graduate, he has been aflilited with Syracuse for the past year as a student in the C-llege of Law. He played with the Ilion team last year and at the end of the season was drafted by the Philadelphia Americans. On the southern trip of the Abletics this spring there were too many veterans on the team for him to make good although he was too fast for the state league and he was released to Torento. He is now a candidate for third base there along with another former Syracuse University law school man, Lew Carr. In the opening game of the season last week Wednestay, O'Brien, although he was in the game only one inning, saved the day for his team on a hit and a run.
"Jack" Dillon ex-'02 left college three years ago to play on the Rochester Eastern League team. While with them he did such efficient work behind the bat, that he was secured by Jersey City team for the next two years where he did good steady playing. He is now with the Albany team of the New York State League, having been released by the Jersey Citys, During the past winter Dillon has been with the theatrical company presenting "The Awak ening of Mr. Pipp." This play was in this city for a week recently.
Henry A. Curtis '06, 'Varsity catcher last year and 'Varsity fullback for the past two years is with the Seattle team in the Pacific Coast League. His leaving college was a hard blow to the 'Varsity though his place is well filled at present by Wilbur. Curtis is in especially fast company since the Pacific:

Coast League is rated on a par with the Eastern League.
Charles W. Demong '06 has held down the position of catcher on the Ilion team of the State League for the past two years. While in college his work behind the bat was of high rank. With Scanlon he formed a battery that was hard to find the equal of in any college.
All of these players were exceptionally good men and prominent in college athletics while playing for the 'Varsity. Scanlon was without doubt the best pitcher who ever wore the Orange. He is a familiar figure to all who watched the teams in their early practice this spring. Curtis was even better in footbal than baseball. It will be a diffica t proposition to secure a man to fill his place on the checkerboard next fall.
exiercises at opening of hall. OF NAIURAL HISTORY
At a meeting of the Biological Association leed Monday evening, it was defititely uecided that a formal ceremony will be held when ground is broken for the new Hall of Natural History. A committee which had been appointed to interview the Chancellor and the geology department reported that the hearty co-operation of all concerned had been obtained. A committee of arrangements consisting of Seth H . Rice '05, chairman; Fred W. Hartwe! '05, Charles A. Hargitt, Ida L. Reveley and Kathryn C. Lewis '05, was appointed to make definite plans and fix the date.
The ceremony will be of a somewhat formal nature in which the major students of the biology and geology departments will have a prominent part. Addresses will probably be given by the Chancellor, Dean Smalley, Doctor Har gitt, Doctor Hopkins and a representative from the Lyman estate. The committee desires to have the esremony at such a time that the greater part of the student body may be able to attend and to celebrate in a fitting manner the beginning of this college.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE BASEball game today
The underclass baseball teams will meet for the first time on the oval this afternoon at $30^{\prime}$ clock. The teams have been practicing for some time and the game will be hotly contested. Coulter will pitch for the sophomores while Francisco and Hinman will be in the box for the freshmen. The fresh. men have been especially successful in athletics this year and the sophomores will make a big effort to retrieve themselves.

INTERFRATERNITY BASEBALL

The first game on the interfraternity baseball schedule will be played this afternoon at $20^{\prime}$ clock on the diamond behind the grandstand" The contestants will be Zeta Psi and Sigma Chi. At 40 'clock the Phi Kappa Psi team will cruss bats with the nine representing Phi Gamma Deita.

Among the ladies: Misses Grandy, Britton, Gardner, Frank, Haydn and Wilbur. Among the men: Messrs. Becker, Campbell, White, Turner, Houck, Hun erford and Ralph.-M. W. Ralph, President.

Engagement Announced

The engagement was announced yesterday afternoon of Miss Mabel Louise Cook '00 and Doctor Morris P. Tilley of the English department. The announcement was made at an informal company at the home of Miss Helen Hiscock. Miss Cook is a member of the local chapter of Alpha Phi. Doctor Tilley received his degree of Ph. D. at Leipzig and his undergraduate work was done at the University of Virginia where he was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Governing $A^{*}$ call has been isBoard. sued for nominations Nominations for student members of the Athletic Governing Board. It is to be hoped that a number of names will be handed to the director of the gymnasium in order that the Board may place before the students a sufficient number of good men. The office is an important one, and calls for the best men in the sophomore class. Students should bear in mind that the names must be handed in at once.

Interfraternity The long cherished Baseball . hope of the Orange, as well as of a large number of the students of the University, seems now about to be realized. Active steps have been taken toward the formation of an interfraternity baseball league. The advantages of such an association have been too often enumerated and are too familiar to need mention at this time. If .eyery team takes up the matter in good spirit there seems no reason why this season's games, though a little late in starting, should not be a great success. If such is the case, the games next season will be a much greater success.
The men are working hard each day getting in shape for the first games. They will work hard from, now until college closes. As is the custom in other colleges, it seems no more than right that the winning team should be awarded some kind of a pennant. It has been a question, however, just how this should be provided. At the University of Minnesota the sovority girls provided banners to be awarded the winners of first, second and third places in the interfraternity field meet. Of course we have no interfraternity field meats, though we do have an interfraternity baseball league.

CLIASS CEFWS  ROW TODAY

Sophomores and Fresh men to Have Brush on the Lake

Despite the fact that the sophomores have not rowed together this year, they have accepted a challenge from the freshmen to row a race this atter moon. The 1907 men will come out a bittle early to get the practice of a few starts. The wearers of the green have much confidence, but the sophomores fully expect to win. The personel of the freshman crew will be the same as that of yesterday. The sophomores will row; Stroke, Davis; No. 7, Andrews; No. 6, Hale; No. 5 , Robinson No. 4, Cumings; No. 3, Stone; No. 2 , Spencer; bow, Armstrong; coxswain, Cornwall.
The crews rowed a two-mile race yesterday afternoon. The four-oared hail a handicap of eight lengths, and the freshmen four. The 'Varsity pulled a 32 stroke throughout the race. The four-oared started out in fine form and maintained it to the finish. Decker stecred the freshman crew, consisting of: Stroke, Paddock; No. 7. Heath No. 6, Stevenson; No. 5, Blocher; No. 4, Duvatl; No. 3, Schiefer; No. 2, Whitney; bow, Corp. Davis, Stone, Spen cor and Armstrong were in the fouroared, while E. Packard, C. Packard, Hale, Dempster, Anderson, Andrews, Salisbury and Squires were steered by Miller. It was a pretty race throughout; at the half the crews gradually drew together, all rowing in splendid form. The 'Varsity pulled up on the freshmen but the youngsters responded in a way that certainly pleased the coach. The four-oared finished first, with the 1908 crew a close second and the 'Varsity lapping half of their boat.
The men after the race seemed no worse for the hard work, Coach Ten Eyck was visibly pleased and expressed the result as the best work of the freshmen this year.
In the race today the sophomores will use the old freshman boat used by the 1906 crew. C. Packard and Brown will fill Hale's and Andrews' seats in the 'Varsity boat during the race.

HISTORY CHART

Among the principal additions to the equipment of the historical department presented on the occasion of Book Day was the Rice Chart of English History and Literature presented by the graduates of 1904. The chart was hung in the history lecture room Tuesday and is attracting considerable attention.
The idea of the correlation of history and literature is the prominent feature of the work. Contemporary men and events are clearly shown.
The upperclassmen all know Selleck, the Hatter. Freshmen should follow the example,-Adv.

GLEE CLIUB EIECTS OFFICERS

Petigrue and Wood AreChosen Leaders of the Two Clubs

The annual business meeting of the University Glee and Instrumental Clubs was held last evening with Manager Frank E. Brundage '05 at the Beta Theta Pi chapter house. About thirty members were present. Games were enjoyed, after which Manager Brundage gave the men an elaborate feed. In the business meeting G. Harold Merry '05 was advanced from the posiion of assistant manager to manager, Birney B. Petigrue '07 was elected leader of the Glee Cluh and Earle D. Wood 'C6 was chosen leader of the Instrumental club. Ali these elections were unaminous.
G. Haroll Merry '03, the new manager, is well krowi on the hill, having successfully fulfiled his duties as assistant manager. He is a member of the Double Seven society and Sigma Chi fraternity.
Birney B. Petigrue '07, the coming leader of the Glee Club, prepared at Oswerg Normal and is taking vocal work in the Fine Arts College under Professor Butler. He has recently been engaged as baritone in the quartet of the May Memorial Church on James Street. He is a member of the Skull and Serpent society and the Phi Gamma Delca fraternily.
Earle D. Wood, who has just been chosen leader of the Instrumental Club, prepared at Cortland Normal and is taking the civil engineering course. This is his third year on the club. He is a member of the Skull and Serpent society and the Pht Kappa Psi fraternity.
For several days there has been a persistent rumor on the hill that the clabs will be under the supervision of the graduate manager of athletics next year. Manager Brundage last evening refused to either affirm or deny the report. Doubtless something definite will be announced soon. Such management would enable the clubs to appear in larger cities than would otherwise be possible.

BASEBALL THIS AFTERNOON

The first of the series of basebal gaines between the sophomores and freshmen was postponed and not played yesterday afternoon. Instead the game will be called this afternoon at two ${ }^{0}$ 'clock.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Mary Ellen McMahon and Charles Dayton Post. Both were members of the class of 1902 . Miss McMahon has been teaching at Hornellsville, while Mr. Post is a senior in the Medical College.

RALLY FOR SUMMER CONFEEENCES

A Meeting Next Sunday to Arouse Interest in the Conferences

Next Sunday afternoon a rally meeting will be held in John Crouse College instead of the regular Y. M. C. A. service. The purpose of this meeting will be to arouse interest in the Northfield and Silver Bay Conferences and to secure funds for the $s$ nding of delegates. Last year Syracuse was represented by fourteen men at Northfield and fifteen women at Silver Bay. At Northfield there were in all over six hundred dele gates from various colleges and univer sities of this country and Canada.
Religious meetings were held daily at this time at Northfield and various athletic contests indulged in. An intercollegiate baseball league was formed Syracuse being defeated in the first game, however. Tennis was also a popular sport and during the week a track meet was held.
This year R. Alfred Waite '01, secretary of the Christian Associations, will have a place on the program. This is the first time Syracuse has been recognized in such a way.
Nearly all the foreign speakers who took part in the conferences last year are again scheduled to speak, and in addition an unusually strong corps of men are on the program. The list as announced includes Prebendary WebbPeploe of St. Yaul's cathedral, Dr, G. Campbell Morgan of Westminster, London; Prof. R. A. Falconer of Halifax, Dr. S. M. Zuemer of Arabia, Dr. C R. Watson of Egypt, John R. Mott, Rev. A.F. Shaufler, D.D., Robert E. Speer, Mrs. W. A. Montgomery of Rochester, Prof. James Denney of Glasgow, John Willis Baer and Dr. Johnstone Ross of Cambridge.
The exact dates of the conferences are as follows; Studen: conference, June 30 to July 9 ; young women's conference, July 11 to 20 .
PRIZE SPEAKINO CONTEST FOR women
A prize speaking contest for women of the junior and senior classes will be held in the Hall of Languages Monday evening, May 8, at $80^{\prime}$ clock. Heretofore the contests for women have been held at the same time as the Denison and oratorical contests. This year, however, the women will have a separ ate contest to compete in reading and recitation.' Special music has been arranged. The prizes, which have heretofore been $\$ 30$ and $\$ 20$, will be $\$ 25$, $\$ 15$ and $\$ 10$.
Nine women, under the direction of Mrs. Froderick D. Losey, have been drilling for several weeks. The contestants are Miss Benjamin, Miss Blair, Miss Heiman, Miss Hender on, Miss Knapp, Miss Huldah Kupfer, Miss Park, Miss Porter and Miss Sherburne.

Fine Arts Students Dis.played Great Talent and Skill Yesterday

The monthly recital given by the musical students of the University yesterday afternoon was one of exceptional interest. In spite of their disappointment at the announcement that Birney Petigrue would be unable to sing, the large audience was amply repaid by the brilliancy of the other numbers.
The organ selections were unusually fine. This was the first time that Frank Stewart Adams has appeared before a Crouse College audience and his rendition of a most brilliant fugue of Guilmant was indeed extraordinary. There is a delicacy of shading and clearness of technique in Mr. Adams' work which is seldom displayed oven by more experienced musicians. Miss Sara Lois Brown who has become such a favorite with musical enthusiasts in Syracuse was never better than in her exquisite treatment of the "Liebestod" from Wagner's Tristran and Isolde. This showed a finish which was indeed marvelous.
One of the best exhibitions of the afternoon was the skill with which Miss Etta Evelyn Ward of Rochester gave a selection from Liszt on the piano. Miss Ada Trolan, in her fine rendition of a concerto from Mendelssohn, was especially effective and the appreciation of the audience was plainly evident. The violin solo by Miss Hazel Walrath was also well received.
One of the most enjoyable features of all, however, was the charming way in which Miss Ruth Smith rendered two dainty German songs from Schumana. Miss Smith's voice is sweet aud melodious, her manner unaffected and the entire number was charming.
The last piano selection, by Miss Hazel King, was a fitting climax to the program. This theme was from Chopin and the execution was simply bribliant.

INTERFRATERNITY BASEBALI.

Two games were played yesterday afternoon on the interfraternity baseball schedule. Both were close and exciting. They were as follows:
Phi Kappa Psi..... $31100113 x-8$ Phi Gamma Delta. $11 \begin{array}{llllll}\text { O } & 0 & 1 & 0 & 3-6\end{array}$ Batteries: Van Dusen and Kelly; Southworth, Petigrue and Stimson.
Sigma Chi.......... $11 \begin{array}{llllll}1 & 0 & 0 & 2 & 1 & 1-5\end{array}$ Zeta Psi............ $12 \begin{array}{llllll}1 & 0 & 0 & 3 & 0-8\end{array}$ Batteries: Simpson and Stuber; Holderbaum and Sherk.
H. Monmouth Smith of the chemical department attended the annual meetof the Electro-Chemical-Society at of the Electro-Chemical Society

Oponing The action of the BioExerclses logical Association in starting a movement leading to a formal celebration when ground is broken for the new Lyman Hall of Natural History is highly commendatory. It would be an excellent thing if some appropriate ceremonies were held whenever work is begun on a new building. Syracuse is extremely fortunate in securing such buildings as are to be erected this season, and it seems no more than proper that we should celebrate whenever suitable occasions arise. It is now a few days too late to arrange any formal ceremonies to commemorate the first work on the great Stadium. But an opportunity may occur in the near future to celebrate properly.

Groen There has appeared from Caps time to time urgent appeals to the freshmen to wear their class caps. When it was called to their attention some time ago, many neglected to wear the cap on the grounds that the weather was too severe Surely no such reason can be advanced these pleasant days. Yet thore are a large number of freshmen around the campus daily without the green cap. This should not be. There are only a few days left before the members of 1908 will be donning the sophomore cap, and they should not be ashamed to wear the green from now until Mov-ing-up Day. The green cap is as much the elass cap of 1908 as the gray will be. Be loyal to your class and to college customs.

    Published every morning by the students of Syracuse University at the Orange Print Shop, 800 Croton Street.

    If there is any one college custom which is being grossly abused every day, it is that of having the freshmen sing their class song after chapel. To those who have experienced the novelty of hearing these first year men try to ramble through their song, no comments are necessary. No one who was not acquainted with Syracuse customs, however, would ever guess what these men were trying to do. It sounds like a hymn, a dirge, or anything but a class song sung by college students.
    If the song was a difficult one; if the students had only been able to practice it a few times; or if there were only a small number to render the beautiful selection, there might be some excuse.

    But not one of these conditions exists; no excuse, or rather no valid excuse, can be offered. If men who have been in college over two months cannot learn to give their class song, which at best is a mere jingle, there is little hope of these men ever being able to grasp the customs which prevail at Syracuse.
    But that cannot be possible. The men of this year's class are certainly capable of rendering their class song in a manner worthy of the reputation which the class has established in other college affairs. The members of the three upper classes consider this futile attempt at singing a mere farce. Now, freshmen, why not correct this? Why not uphold the honor of your class in this matter, and practice your song until you can render it with a little vim and enthusiasm?
